Chapter 150 - Brief

I began looking for technique on the alliance network after sending the message.

Previously, in that message. I gave a briefing on what had happened today and the threat posed by Elder Jensen. After that, I forwarded the mail to my teacher. I'm hoping for a response from him. When he sees the message, he'll know what to do. With a shake of my head, I declare that I aim to concentrate on getting some stuff from online.

I sold the herbs a few days ago. I got it from Daniel. Those botanicals have fire-related properties. Which I didn't find useful. Storage ring is something I'm considering. The thought of Philip's storage ring came to mind. I subconsciously attempted to get my hands on his ring. I kept it in my storage ring. But I came to a halt in the middle. It's best to consider it after dinner.

Uncle James advised me to be patient. I'm trying to get these thoughts out of my head. I'm surfing the alliance's website. Except for lightning, I came across a lot of other elemental tactics. Suddenly, I was reminded of Mr. Jonathan. "I'm not going to bother him again." I muttered something beneath my breath. I have a feeling that if I contact Mr. Jonathan, he will be able to assist me.

I recall that Mr. Jonathan's friend might not be a member of our group. "Too many limits," I reasoned in my head. I haven't been able to find any lightning. I plan to purchase items that will assist me strengthen my mind, body, and spirit. I haven't had soul treasure in a long time. As I surfed the alliance network, time passed. In the meantime, I bought some herbs to assist me strengthen my body even more.

I began to train in my cultivation approach after some time had passed. In my lightning first, I'm practising. When it comes to the blood method, it's a no-brainer. I intend to put it into practise later. I don't have enough Monster's blood right now. I changed all of those into credit points after my excursion from the Black Forests. I can buy monster blood essence at any time if I have enough money.

While this was going on, Zack arrived at his house. Two hefty men from the Jensen family arrived at Hansen training centre in Red Stone City shortly. They were both Jensen family guards. Specifically,

Flynn and Logan. Flynn was the main character, and with his short black hair and dark eyes, as well as his brute physique, he appeared to be more ferocious.

His aura is raging like a volcano as his Mid-Level Trainee warrior. Logan, he's behind him. A bald man with a Mid-level Trainee Warrior aura and the same brutal Physique. Both of them walked into the Hansen Training Centre with a thud.

The majority of the students had already exited the building. Since then, a few hours had passed since the building's closing time. However, there are still some activities going on inside. Elder Jensen is currently awake. Mr. Arthur Emerson is sat in the seat in front of him. Elder Jensen had already directed Mr. Arthur to look after him. He then carried his body back to his room. He was fortunate in that he did not come across any folks.

When he got into his room, he put Elder's body on the couch. Elder Jensen regained consciousness after only a few hours. After his memory has been restored. He intended to run out, but Mr. Arthur cautioned him against it. He, too, has some obnoxious artefacts. He has been given authority to use it in the event of an emergency.

Elder Jensen was aware of this as well, so he clenched his teeth and waited patiently for his men. "I already told his guards." on the other hand. It's possible that they're on their way." Mr. Arthur pondered his thoughts. He heard loud footsteps as he was working. Elder Jensen's men were on their way to his room, he knew. Elder Jensen, on the other hand, seemed lifeless.

"Knock," two big men said as they pounded on the door. They were let inside by Mr. Arthur Emerson.

Elder Jensen was waiting for Flynn and Logan as they entered. Both of them bowed to them as "Master."

I was able to see both of them. Elder Jensen got out of his chair. Mr. Jensen motions his troops to follow him and says, "Let's go." He didn't want to squander any time in this place. Three of them walked out the door. Elder Jensen's face reverted to a furious scowl.

Flynn and Logan were hesitant to say anything after seeing his expression. After that, the group got onto their four-wheeler. The car then began to make its way towards their house. After arriving to Jensen's house a few minutes later.

Elder Jensen took a hefty stride towards the hallway. In the discussion hall, servants and other family members were already present. It's a rather dismal atmosphere. Something was rumbling among the servants and members. When they first saw their family's head, they were ecstatic. They've all quieted down.

The death of Philip Jensen wreaked havoc on the household. Elder Jensen's son is currently gone from the city for employment. If he is aware of what occurred. After that, there will be even greater pandemonium. They're all waiting for Master Jensen to make a decision now. When a bald old man observed Elder Jensen's outraged countenance, he said, "Elder Brother."

Elder Jensen remained silent after hearing this. As he sat in the driver's seat. He cast a peek around the room at everyone. They didn't dare to look him in the eyes. Elder Jensen turned to face his younger sibling. "Did any of you tell him?" he inquired. "No, Elder Brother," his second brother said. Elder Jensen sighed when he heard, "We didn't inform Lucius." He said it twice: "Good" and "Good."

Elder Jensen's son is Lucius Jensen. Philip Jensen is his son. Philip Jensen's mother died while giving birth to his child. Lucius, his father, never married again. Only Philip remains as the Jensen family's lone heir. He is now no longer alive. Nobody, including Elder Jensen, has the courage to tell him.

"What happened to Philip, Elder Brother?" His second brother sounded alongside him, "We couldn't believe the news." Elder Jensen was flanked by Flynn and Logan. They didn't have a single expression on their faces. Elder Jensen stated, "Yes, My Grandson perished in a life or death duel," while hearing his second brother's comments reaches everyone's years.

Hearing Elder Jensen's mouth, they all took a deep breath. It's not their grief that has caused the atmosphere to darken. They are truly enraged.

Lucius Grandson, their youthful master, is a tyrant. He'll storm inside the Hansen building once he knows. Despite this, the combat took place as a result of mutual agreement between the two parties. "What are we going to do, Elder Brother?" "What happened to Philip's body," his younger brother inquired.

Elder Jensen, on the other hand, is becoming increasingly irritated with his younger brother. He's always trying to come up with a solution.

He couldn't think of anything following Elder Thornton's admonition, no matter what. Now, seeing his brother, he said, "Shut up!" Hearing this, his second elder brother gulped his spit. He was adamant about not saying anything else. They remained silent during this time.

"Tomorrow, both of you have a mission," Elder Jensen said, looking at Flynn. Lynn and Logan both bowed. "That brat, must have maintained Philip's body using corpse preserver," Elder Jensen stated, before adding, "Retrieve Philip's body by any means possible and be sure to murder him."

"Don't worry, master, we'll get the body of the young lord," Flynn said calmly. Elder Jensen nodded to each of them when he heard that. "I will inform Lucius myself," Elder Jensen stated after a brief glance around the room. Nobody can say anything to him till then." All of the other members nodded when they heard that.

Then he motions for everyone to depart silently. Elder Jensen was filled with rage. However, he regained his composure. Now he must ensure that his family is not put under any unnecessary stress. He was well aware of his son's personality. As well as the actions of Elder Thornton. Elder Thornton is plainly on the side of that brat. All of the forces are now attempting to assassinate that jerk. If Lucius tries to intervene without thinking. Others will take it as a pretext to harm his family. That is something he does not want to happen.

It's late at night, after dinner. Mr. James and Zack entered their outdoor training room. After ensuring that there are no outsiders, Mr. James creates a barrier with artefact as a precaution. He then turned to Zack and stated, "Now tell me about the game. Nothing should be hidden "In a sombre tone, he said. Mr. James thought about it for a long time.

Elder Jensen clearly provided his grandson some life-saving goods. Despite this, Zack escaped with his life.. As soon as I heard it, I signed internally and informed him everything, even the explosives.
