Chapter 190 - Breakthrough (Mental Space-15%)

"Beselles Spiritual Pill"

I placed the spiritual pill in my palm. And it observed earnestly. This kind of pill is one of a kind. I always looked forward to get this pill. when I first saw it in alliance auction store, it piqued my interest. Because, this spiritual pill's main ingredient is a Class 3 Monster, Beselles- Plant type monster.

This Plant Monster's main attack attribute is spiritual. Through numerous research, Some institute come up with recipe of spiritual pill. It is said that it can increase warrior's mental capacity. But the cost of such pill is not that could I afford. Even for some elite level powerhouse. This pill is a huge wealth.

For me, right now, it's been long time since I got an opportunity for to increase my brain capacity further. With this pill I can increase my brain's 7th region capacity from 10% to 15%. An exciting glint flashes through my eyes. I didn't dwell further, I swallowed the pill in my mouth. With in a moment, As warm current courses through my vein. The pills medicinal effect began to work it's wonder. As a result, I felt freshness in my mind. Such a clarity is like a pure crystal water.

At the same time, Beselles plant monsters uniqueness came into play as it further increases Zack's 7th brain region. Finally, stepping into 15%. Now, Zack's perceptual ability also increases to range of 15 meters around him.

Finally, couple of minutes later. I opened my eyes in ecstasy. "Wow, this feeling feels like spring. There is no hesitation, such a clarity of thought will make my comprehension even more stronger." I mumbled under my breath.

This, I have to thank Elder Thornton for such a generous gift. Pity, I only met him once during the conference meeting. If I could meet him in the future, I should express my gratitude. After sorting out my mind, I sighed. Then I lazily laid on couch to relax for a few minutes.

The other hand, Mr. Arthur and Mr. James parted their ways. In few hours the campus will be closed, except Zack and few other guards of Hansen campus. No one is allowed to stay inside the campus. The food and other necessarily arrangements for Zack were done.

A couple of hours later, When the dawn arrives, one by one people start to leave the campus. With in few minutes, except Zack, Mr. Arthur, Elder Thornton and few other guards, everyone left the campus.

Mr. Arthur went to Elder Thornton's cabin.

"Knock"

The door slid opens, Elder Thornton still laying down casually in his seat. Which surprises Mr. Arthur.

"Why is he not leaving yet?" Mr. Arthur said to himself. Usually, Elder Thornton will leave like others. These days he couldn't see through Elder Thornton.

"You came, What is it? " Elder Thornton said with a smile.

Mr. Arthur became speeches hearing that. "Well, I had made arrangements for Zack. But, I still feel the power level of our guards is bit low." He said in a solemn tone.

Elder Thornton straightened his back. He already plans to protect Zack at night. So, he decided to stay here. If Arthur too insists on staying here that would be too troublesome.

So, Elder Thornton began to contemplate.

Seeing there is no response from Elder Thornton, Mr. Arthur frowns.

"Elder " He yells.

Which brought Elder Thornton back into reality. He said, "What is it you suggest then?"

Mr. Arthur answered, "Considering Zack's safety, I felt its better to stay here. Besides, I also assured my friend James to take care of Zack."

Hearing that Elder Thornton has black lines on his forehead. He doesn't want to deny Arthur. Two hands is better than one. But still he doesn't want to expose his identity as Zack's protector. After taking some time, Elder Thornton finally decides to agree.

"Okay, Arthur you can stay here. If something ups you can call me immediately." Saying that Elder Thornton stood up from his seat and decides to get some fresh air.

After getting confirmation, Mr. Arthur gone back to under ground battle arena to check up on Zack. He thought, it's good to spend time with Zack.

Once Mr. Arthur left his cabin. Elder Thornton left the Hansen campus to fool everyone 's eye. He decided to come back again late at night.

Time went on, at night. Assassin Ed reaches safely to the Red Stone city. Upon touching the soil, Assassin Ed felt tired.

"Finally, To kill a single brat. I covered lot of distance." Assassin Ed snorted. He still feels little disgust. You can spend some little more money to arrange local goons to kill that kid. But he put aside this crumbly attitude. Then he headed towards the local hotel. Which is directly under one of his connections.

After booking a air cab, Assassin Ed arrive at medium end luxurious hotel. He already contacted owner of this hotel upon his arrival. Looking at the hotel's name, Assassin Ed shook his head in funny. The hotel name is "Heaven's Stay"

Just as he steps inside the hotel. A middle aged man in black tuxedo came hurriedly to greet Assassin Ed.

Seeing that Assassin Ed coughed little to remind him. Which in turn made Middle age man's foot step's to slowed.

"Oh, Ricky! Why are you so late? Let's go back to our premium suite and discuss." The middle aged man instantly come up with false identification.

Assassin Ed pleased with his performance, he nodded back. Then both parties entered inside the building. The middle aged man led assassin Ed towards the top floor of the building. Where most VVIP people stay in the premium suit room.

On the way, neither of them talked. A few minutes later, both of them arrived at top floor through lift. There were only five large rooms at the top floor. Which is currently unoccupied. The middle aged man led assassin Ed to the last room.

After scanning the I.D "Creak" the door slid opens.

The middle aged man entered the room followed by Assassin Ed. Then the door closed back automatically. Assassin Ed looks around and observed the room. He casually activates the bracelet artefact in his hand.

Suddenly, an invincible waves spread from the artefact and envelops the entire room. A few minutes later, Assassin Ed uttered, "Good"

On the other hand, sweat beads dripping from the middle aged man's forehead. He knew what was going on. Assassin Ed is checking on potential spyware.

Upon confirming, he deactivates the artefact and erect another barrier. Soon, a invisible barrier envelops both of them. The middle-aged man swallows his saliva in fear.

Assassin observes his reaction and said, "Oliver, Did you finish my work?"

The middle age man named, Oliver came back to reality. "Yes, Master! We have collected latest Intel as per you request"

Assassin Ed nodded hearing that.

Oliver began to explain the information at his hands. Mostly its about Hansen and few other forces around this area. He also filled in Hansen campus today's life or death duel event and Zack's injury due to it.

Hearing that a surprise glint flashes in Assassin Ed's eyes. "is it true?" He asked him.

Oliver immediately said, "Rest assure master. This information provided by their students. We have collected information from multiple students and staffs. The kid named Zack is injured. He is currently under treatment in Hansen Campus."

Hearing that Assassin Ed said, "Okay, You can leave now " He gestures him to leave.

Oliver didn't stay any further, he left the room immediately. Then Assassin Ed fell into deep thought. The Intel is too good to be true. If that brat is really injured then why didn't they shift him to medical care. Do they have exceptional medical facility at their hands. He clearly knows the institution here is lacks in infrastructure unlike those in Tier-7 city. This what makes him puzzled and confused.

"Do any other local forces has eyes on him?" He mumbled under his breath. Since, that brat is really inside the city. Then it's way better for me. I can kill him here and move onto my next target.

Then Assassin Ed made his mind to check Hansen campus. A few minutes later, he left the hotel. After leaving the hotel, He wore dark disguise. Then he headed towards the Hansen campus.

At the same time inside the Hansen building. Zack is training inside the gravity chamber. He decide to make good use of his time. He felt its better to train sometime in night. He has to make good use of this opportunity than others. After getting approval from Elder Thornton and Mr. Arthur, He went on to train.

The other hand, Mr. Arthur is also handling his day to day work in his time. He is been working overtime past few days. He thought today he got best time to reduce work load on himself.

Elder Thornton went back to Hansen campus without alerting anyone. As a Elder and chairman he has some special privilege. Using that, he entered the building though different entrance. He has some nagging feeling inside his heart that something bad is going to happen. So, he decided to stay full alert during night time. Right now he feels Mr. Arthur really made good decision today.. That, Hansen campus is best safe heaven for Zack now.
