Chapter 199 - Part One: First Meeting

Elder Jensen hatched vicious plan in his mind. If Zack comes out, there will be a good show to watch. The other hand, Dean Curry, little by little he is losing his interest. Seeing motionless Elder Jensen, his handsome face frowns a little. Then Dean Curry wanted move ahead. He took few steps forward passing by Elder Jensen.

Seeing the sudden movement of Dean Curry, his mind jolted awake. Elder Jensen decided to stop him, otherwise his plan will not succeed. He hurriedly went forward and try to persuade him. "Young Master, I think, Our Seed Candidate is training in this facility."

Hearing that Dean Curry halted his footsteps and raised his eyebrow in curiosity.

"Oh! I heard, there is no student here nowadays." Dean Curry said with a confusion.

Elder Jensen felt good, grasping his line he tries to continue this conversation.

"Young Master, He is Special. Many organisations were after his blood. Which caused our Hansen Campus lots of damage."

Elder Jensen said with a flattering smile.

Dean Curry reveals a amusing smile, "This old man, something wrong with him." He thought to himself. But after hearing his words, Dean Curry didn't think too much about it. He has seen real talented people, he himself considered to be talented one. He felt little bored.

He looked towards Elder Jensen and said, "Why do you sound little disappointed with your Seed Candidate?"

Elder Jensen turned little stiff, hearing his words. "Did he see through me?" He thought to himself. "If its true, then this kid is really scary. You can't judge people from high tier cities with common sense." Elder Jensen's face become little dignified after realizing something.

So he immediately made up his mind to not to cross any bottom line. Otherwise, it would become trouble for him.

Elder Jensen reveals a helpless smile and said, "No! No! Young Master. My Grandson died in his hands in a life or death duel. So, there is some grievances in my heart. Other than that there is no dissatisfaction."

Hearing that Dean Curry smiled in his heart. "Sure, this old man have some ulterior motives." He thought to himself. From beginning to end, he voluntarily step forward to introduce the facility and now this.

Especially, those trade mark flattering smile. He has seen so many people with this kind of behaviour. He sneered inside his heart. But, his outward facial expression didn't change a bit.

Since, He and his father came here for must one day trip. He is not interested in involving in their internal politics. Especially, this tiny institution there is no use to him. So, he decided to continue to look around until his father comes back.

At the same time,

"Creak"

The Advanced combat chamber's room door slid opens and Zack stepped out.

(Zack's POV)

Today is just beginning, I need few more days to familiarize with combat puppet's speed movement. It's good that I suffered superficial injury, I can recover myself with cultivation.

Just as I want to turn around, I saw disgusting face. "My bad, What is he doing here?" I mumbled under my breath in a low tone.

I saw Elder Jensen with a kid, not much older than me. But looking at kid's dress. He is not poor for sure. My mind ran faster to find solution. Finally, I thought some possible solution. He might be grandson of certain Elder. Because, I already killed Elder Jensen's grandson.

After sorting out, I didn't want to entangle with them. So, I decided to head towards my room. I took few steps forward, try to get out as soon as possible. Then I heard a voice sounded in anger.

"Zack Lockwood!" Elder Jensen called out his name in anger. When he firsts saw Zack stepping out of the Senior student's training Chamber, His eyes flashes with ruthless glint.

For a moment, He let out his aura of middle cultivation stage of Trainee Warrior.

Hearing my name, I felt headache, "Why is he acting out?" Ever since I killed his Grandson, I never met him once. I thought Elder Thornton made things clear with him. But looking at now, he is still looking for vengeance.

Especially, Dean Curry the other hand felt dissatisfied with Elder Jensen's behaviour.

Elder Jensen is letting out his aura, which is pressurising him. So, he immediately "Harumph" snorted.

Feeling sudden disdain from Dean Curry, Elder Jensen immediately withdrew his aura.

Feeling, because of Zack he again faltered in his plan. He felt huge anger in his heart. He immediately said in low tone, "Sorry, Young Master."

At the same time,

Looking at him, I smiled and said, "What is it? Elder Jensen."

Hearing my voice, both of them turned towards me.

"What are you doing in this Chamber? Who gave you permission?" Elder Jensen inquired in stern tone.

He knew this chamber is reserved for Peak Trainee Apprentice Warrior. So, its impossible for Zack to train here. He thought, he is here for some other purposes.

Hearing that, I thought here we go. This old man is trying to create some scene here. But too bad, I already sort out some solution. So, I simply answered, "Well, I heard from Elder Thornton that this Advanced Combat Chamber is good. So, I asked his permission to look around." I said with a smile.

I didn't tell him that I was actually training here couple of minutes ago. It will certainly raise few eyebrows, if I did that.

Especially, in front my enemy Elder Jensen and that unknown kid beside him. I will never do such a foolish act.

Just as per Zack's thought, The other hand, Elder Jensen eyebrows eased, "Harumph, I was right. This brat is playing around. Why Jensen is keeping him around? "

The other hand, Dean Curry little amused by their interaction. He knew this Elder had grudges with this new kid. The other hand he also felt curious. He didn't sense any power fluctuations. "Treasure!" He thought to himself. "Perhaps its due to threat caused by those organisations. Some one gave treasure to him to hide his cultivation base. Good move!" Dean Curry said to himself.

At the same time, Adrian Curry successfully found the hideout of the Elite Assassin. He disguised himself as a old man in a coarse cloth. He received confirmation intel from the reliable source. An unknown person is staying in the luxurious hotel. Especially, that person lodged in premium suite. He already checked various Intel's, Such as Warrior's going in and going out from the city for past few weeks.

Including train transport passenger's list and various auction house's customer list. But there is no suspicious person found with Elite base level. Elite base level is a huge news in this tiny. Especially that guy is a professional assassin. So, normal method won't work. But yesterday, he received convincing report. Certain person entered the city few days ago via Train Transport.

But that person's name is not registered in this city's database and there is no details of that person is checking out from the city.

So, he tracked down the location of current luxurious hotel. After confirming, he headed towards that location.

The other hand, Assassin Ed is sulking inside his room. Currently, he is lying down in his couch skimming through various news reports. "Why there is a big movement around the city gates?" Assassin Ed frowns, reading this news report.

Earlier, he thought its not worry some. Since, Hansen Campus let out false report to the world. So, he didn't mind it. But now for past few days there is big movement happening around the city. Like unusual screening, Usually, something like this won't happen unless there is a huge threat. Screening usually does to isolate rogue cultivators, dark organisation and in some case to kill enemy organisation.

But, too think that kind of operation is happening in this tiny city, He felt unreal. For him, Elite level Assassin. It's easy to skip the checking and go out of the city. But there is a possibility that leaving out small traces without knowing him. If his enemy caught something, then his next mission will be jeopardized. So, he decided to wait for this storm to pass through. But he doesn't know that some already caught up his trails.

The other hand, Elder Jensen tries to find new ways to implement his plan.

At the same time,

Dean Curry decided to walk away from this place, without waiting for Elder Jensen. He started to head towards the guest cabin. He felt bored, he decided to wait there until his father comes back.

Seeing that Dean Curry walking away. The other hand Zack too headed back to his place. Leaving behind Elder Jensen lamenting alone.

"Damn it! I thought it's easy to fool that kid." Elder Jensen cursed his lack of judgement. From beginning to end, that Dean Curry didn't treat him seriously.

Also seeing good health of Zack. Elder Jensen felt even more furious. He don't know what to do further. He raced his mind to impress Dean Curry. So, he decided to follow him and try to understand his like and dislikes. He needs to do something before its too late. Then his second chance would gone forever. After sorting out, he carefully follows behind Dean Curry.
