Chapter 21 - Lightning Scripture 2

Looking at wording written in red colour, He started to read the terms and conditions of the contract. It stated that he had been selected as a future potential seed. As a Seed Candidate, he needed to sign a black contract to fully acknowledged the terms and hereby follow the said mentor hereafter. The Mentor's name mention here is Sir Lowell McClain. His contact info is already saved on his Sci-fi watch.

For more access to the information about the mentor and his faction in the ARMY. He needs to raise his level for further clearance. it's stated clearly. He should not discuss anything related to the contract with anyone in the academy. He needs to take care of his life as it is.

If any help is needed, The said mentor will help him. It is also stated that after signing a contract all the said resources mentioned here belong to him.

Once Lightning totem is manifested successfully. He needs to destroy this Scripture immediately, As the faction already got the Lightning warrior technique from it. So there is no need to keep it. As a safety protocol, he has to destroy it. After quickly read the contract a few times to check any loopholes present. Zack sighed in his heart.

He was glad that he got Lightning manifestation totem instead of implantation totem. Once he read the lightning warrior technique of the faction. He can successfully manifest the totem. But the problem is a contract he was not allowed to know the crux of the matter. It simply stated that he was the seed candidate. Zack tilted his head and looked at the four things hover above his head.

Uncle James said. "Zack, I know what you are thinking? but I can say that Sir Lowell had a good reputation in the ARMY he is not a greedy and sly person. I heard he is a Short-tempered and Straight forward person in the ARMY. So you can sign the contract without any worry". He then took out a black pen and handed it to Zack. Zack touched the pen and begin to sign the contract.

He once again read the terms and conditions, finally decided to sign it. Zack signed his name on the bottoms of the contract. After he signed it, the blue ink buzzed for a moment and his name on the contract turned from blue to blood red and the whole contract shone with light. A small light from the contract quickly turned and penetrated his eyebrows and disappeared.

Zack was startled for a moment. He looks towards Uncle James. Uncle James said that it is the binding light of the contract. It manifests once the contract signing was successful. Uncle James then took the contract from Zack and placed it in his storage.

Then he said. "Zack, it's time for totem manifestation. What do you want to do? Directly use the warrior technique or you want to look through the scripture". As he said he handed warrior technique to Zack. I first look into the scripture then technique, I only heard of it. I'm not going to miss it.

Zack thought. As he touches the lightning scripture above his head. The scripture shined for a moment before it appeared normal. It is golden-green scripture the writing was in ancient calligraphy written in green on top of golden paper. Only 10% were visible rest were blurry looked burnt. Someone intentionally burnt it. Zack sighed internally.

Uncle James stayed near the entrance, he created another barrier around Zack. For safety.

Uncle James said. "Zack, you can begin now".

Zack turned on his perception. And looked at the scripture with concentration. As he deeply immersed in the scripture words. He forgets the time. He is now being in a state of enlightenment.

Uncle James cannot see, What is happening inside. It is a specific barrier for totem manifestation. It appeared black, No one can interfere with it from outside. No one can witness, What is happening inside.

As Zack was immersed in enlightenment. A beautiful thing happened. His lightning affinity in his body started to resonate with the scripture. Zack was surprised he starts to understand the words in the scriptures.

"Dominate the realm with Absolute"

"Kill those who shall be killed"

"Protect those who qualified to be saved"

"Destruct the beings who stood in the way"

"For everything Lightning is the way"

Once he started to read the words, not only he was able to read 10% words. He was able to uncover the words that were burnt. The burnt scripture under the resonance of his element. quickly came into wordings. Looks like scripture got residual spiritual thoughts, as Zack being the first lightning element user to decipher it under the manifestation of the totem.

As Zack completed the wording, the residual spiritual thought of the scripture. Shot toward Zack's eyebrows straight into his consciousness. Inside his conscious sphere, the residual spiritual thought formed a small lightning rune.

Zack followed his instinct towards the consciousness. He was stunned it is a spiritual mind. He heard once the totem starts to manifest. The first sign would be gaining entrance toward one's spiritual mind.

As he peered into his mind. he saw a spiritual world with a pure black atmosphere. As he observed calmly he saw green coloured rune formed in his consciousness. He went blank for a moment, the rune started to shine bright.

He knew it is lightning Scripture. His heart started to beat faster. A feeling mixed with fear and ecstasy aroused in his heart.

He formed the original rune of the Ancient lightning technique. He smiled. God knows Original Is how many times better than the Warrior technique of the faction. Realised immediately. Started to fear if anyone knows about it. He is dead.

Does not matter what kind of backing I had. Treasure at hands of a weakling. It is a Sin. I'm not going to say a word to Uncle James. Like My inheritance secret. I'm going to do the same.

After Zack cleared his thoughts. He looked at the rune and begin to concentrate. The rune buzzed with the lightning element in his body. both attracted each other. The rune shot a figure after it gets 100% lightning resonance in his body. The figure from his consciousness then entered his dantian.

The hazy violet light started to cover the figure once it got placed in his dantian. The figure is none other than his totem. The totem figure started to get attract the violet energy from the surroundings. The violet energy then entered his body.

The energy quickly started to travel through his veins and gather under his dantian. The Totem figure shined a light on the gathered energy.. The huge gathered energy started to get reduce turned into thick violet energy with tinges of black colour on it.
