Chapter 211 - Part Two: Crimson Hall's Team

(From Zack's Perspective)

The passenger train reaches the destination a day before the star tower challenge.

Seeing the passenger train entering inside west word city, I begin to get ready, Finally, I can take breath of fresh air. The travelling is so tiring and uncomfortable. This is why I don't prefer long journey.

Thanks to my co- passengers, my travelling time was so peaceful. No one disturbed me, Seeing that I'm not interested in having long conversation. All I did was Read, Eat and Sleep.

Meanwhile, the gentleman beside me also minding his own business. It saves lot of trouble.

Soon, The Passenger train after entering the platform. It's begin to halt.

The other hand, the middle aged man, Nick Garner also packing his stuff, Seeing that Zack done packing his stuff, He let out a amusing smile. "Interesting Kid, After observing him for a while, I can assume that this kid wants to enter west word city as soon as possible. I wonder why?" He thought to himself.

Shaking his head, He begin to check his stuff for one last time.

After the train came to halt, People begin to exit one by one.

Some important stuffs are placed inside the storage ring. I didn't expose it earlier. I just picked up this back pack and some books for eyelash. After stepping out of the compartment. I landed my foot on the platform ground.

"Finally!" I took a deep breath.

After doing some small stretch out, I headed towards the exit. First thing, I need to do is to find out the cheap restaurant. Then I'll inform Uncle and Granny about my arrival. And finally I will stroll around this big city late at night.

Even though, I want to exit as soon as possible. But this steam crowd is something else. It's just like the same scenario happened in previous city. For a while, I moved like snail. It's also interesting that so far I didn't find any scuffle. It's also for some loose heads to venting out their anger.

A half an hour later,

"This is really maddening!" I couldn't help but curse.

My backs drenched in sweat while standing in queue earlier. I sighed in relief from getting out successfully.

Then I used my wrist watch to access the west word city map. I stood near a shop, and viewed the city map. This city is huge, it's divided into business area and residential area separately. I begin to search for the cheap hotel nearby.

Soon, I spotted a hotel nearby. It's a walkable distance from here. Seeing that I relaxed and began to headed towards that place. I don't know whether the rooms were reserved or not. There is no details updates in the map.

Sometimes later, I arrived in front of the hotel.

[Leonard's inn]

Seeing the name, I knew this was the location. I stepped inside the gate and walk towards the registration desk. A bearded old man, lying comfortably in his desk. He seemed to be little drowsy.

I walked in front of him and said, "Hello, Sir,!"

Hearing my voice the old man woke up from his sleep. He opened his eyes and glanced at Zack.

A glint of surprise, flashes in his eyes. He commented, "Young Man, What do you want?" The old man knew, this kid probably came for accommodation.

Hearing that I asked for room to stay. But unfortunately, all of the rooms were booked. No, wonder the old man is sleeping without any worry. Shaking my head, I left this inn to search for other places.

After searching few other places, finally I found room in this hotel. This place is quite faraway from the central city. It makes quite sense. On top of it, this hotel has bad rating. Right now, I didn't even care, For me is just one night stay. I'll manage somehow. After sorting out, I entered inside.

This time, in the registration desk. An old lady greeted me immediately. "Young Man, Do you need any room?"

Hearing that I sighed in relief, "Ahem, Yes!" I nodded my head in response.

Then she gave me access code and key to the room. After taking it, I headed towards the room. This inn is somewhat okay in appearance. I don't know how it looks inside. After arriving in front of the door no. 10. I logged and entered the access codes, then after the unlocking it with key. I entered inside.

I locked the door, then I looked around the room. The space inside the room is very little. There is no reading room and hall. Only one bedroom and bathroom. I let out a deep sigh, at least there is some facility for bath.

Then I immediately went inside to take a long bath. I changed clothes a few minutes after having bath. Then I decided to stroll around the city.

At the same time, Crimson Hall's team also arrived at the west word city through different route.

There four male members and two female members in this group.

The team of six gathered around and begin to discuss their next course of plan.

At this time, Darius Case commented, "Why don't we go to hotel and settle down first?"

Hearing his words, Sallie Mills added, "Yeah, it's very tiring. I need to freshen up immediately." There were two females in this group, beside her, Ella Downs is the only one in the group.

Rest of them too nodded, after sorting out they headed towards the hotel. Their stay is already taken care of by the Crimson Hall authorities. Rooms were booked in advance. So, they don't have to worry about this matter.

On the way, Austin looked at Rob and asked, "Rob, Did you find out any information about the levels."

Hearing his words, rest of his companions also quiet down. They perked up their ears to listen to him.

"You guys!" Robb got black lines on his forehead. Even if he knew, he won't be nice enough to reveal all the details.

Shaking his head and answered, "Do you think it's joke? So, far in history no one is quite successful in finding out the details. Because each and every time the challenge is different. you will never know what is the exact challenge. " His expression turned gloomy after saying this. The other hand, He also promised his father to get past the level 25.

Hearing Robb's answer, All of them sighed. They knew this was the case, but they couldn't help to raise some hope. Then without wasting anytime, the team hurried their pace towards their hotel.

On the way, minds of these people were occupied by something. But they didn't let out a words, Each of them quite confident in their own strength. When comparing to cultivation level base, all of them were same. Even though, they were team. There is still competition exists among them.

To reach this place, So, far they defeated too many challengers from Crimson Hall. Now, All of them wanted to perform well and set record.

The new inmate from Prison Cell ten, didn't even care. He continues to scream, "I didn't do anything wrong. Let me out of here."

The Savage Prison Guard, snorted and slams at the iron grid. Which in turn frightens the prisoner. The Prison Guard then said, "Newbie, If you insists on acting this way. Then you will soon end up dead." The Prison Guard voice was creepy. Hearing that, the inmate from prison cell ten quiet down immediately. He was so scared that he didn't want to voice out anything.

Another prisoner chuckles, "He didn't have to do anything. His mind was so fragile that he will loose his shit due to fear"

Every other prisoner echoed the same opinion as him.

The other hand, after finishing the checkup at this floor. The prison guard continues to do so, in other down floors.

After the prison guard left this floor, the conversation quiet down some times later.

The other hand, the inmate from prison cell ten. His mind also went crazy. Everything was fine, few weeks ago. Who could be? He clearly remembers, that he didn't even offend any powerful forces.
