Chapter 293 Camping At The Same Site

(From MC Perspective)

This Mosquito Pseudo Monster reminds me of my first trip to this Mountain. Back then I was powerless to fend off to even Pseudo Monsters, forget about Class Monsters.

I smiled by recalling the old memories. Then I continue to head towards the bottom of the mountain. In a few more minutes, I will reach the location.

From there, I will climb up ahead to reach my Campsite. From time to time, I look at the sky to check further. It would be better if it rains, after I have done camping. After checking the sky, I continue to walk.

The other hand, The curly haired girl named Claire Walton walked in the same direction as Zack. She doesn't have any clue about it. She basically follows the map noted by her friends.

Time Progresses,

Two hours later,

I successfully reached the spot, after climbing up for an hour. Then the only thing left for me to do was camp at this site. Before camping, I take some time to check out the surroundings.

The old memories were clearly vivid in my head. Last time, the sensors alarmed me about the sudden intrusion of the monsters. This time it's going to be the same. I'm going to set up sensors around the camping site.

Even if there is an intrusion of Class 1 Monsters it will raise an alarm to intimate me.

It took me 20 minutes to set the sensors, then I proceeded towards camping.

While Zack was camping, Claire began to have already climbed up several feet. In an hour she will reach Zack's camping site.

Another 15 minutes later, I have finished setting up the tent.

Suddenly, a thunderous sound reverberates in the sky. I know it's a sign of rain. Thank Goodness, Just as I have predicted rain starts to pour after I have done camping.

Next moment, I try to sense the lightning element around me. As expected there is much more concentration of lightning energy around me than at home. This place is far better than my home for cultivation.

By sensing such an atmosphere, I didn't even waste any time. I immediately got into my tent and sat cross-legged to cultivate. Before beginning, I activated my perception to investigate the surrounding area. As there is no disturbance in the surroundings, I let go of my vigilance and get immersed in cultivation.

Time Progresses,

As Zack was immersed in his cultivation, An hour later Claire Walton reached the site successfully. After climbing up, She looked ahead to check whether the spot was reached or not. But upon seeing the green tent, her expression is filled with surprise. She hadn't expected someone to camp here before her.

She immediately misunderstood that these people had come earlier than us. It solves the doubt of her which is exactly the place recommended by her friend.

After confirming it, she walked slowly towards the campus. She wants to ask whether the person is okay with her camping here or not.

But before she went in, the sensors began to alarm. It was immediately sensed by Zack.

Just as I was immersed in cultivation. I heard the alarming sound. Which caught me off guard.

Next moment, I stood up from the ground and held my black sword tightly.

As I walked out to kill the monster, I'm stunned to see the person in front of me. This is the same girl who sat opposite me on the train. What is she doing here? I'm completely dumbstruck by seeing it here. "Don't tell me she followed me back here?" I mumbled under my breath.

The other hand, Claire Walton was stunned seeing Zack in front of her. She had obviously expected some other person, but not Zack. She began to stutter as she wants to explain herself.

Already this person has scolded her enough, she doesn't want to hear harsh words again.

By looking at her dazed expression, I sighed and placed my sword back to my storage ring.

I asked, "What do you want?"

She collected her thoughts and answered, "ahem, I came here to camp but I didn't expect to see you here."

I touched my forehead when hearing her answer. Well, this place is not private property. Anyone came here to camp. But my situation is different, I obviously want to practise my sword moves here.

"Coughed"

"Well, You can camp here but don't disturb the sensors." I said.

Though my mind told me to drive away her, I didn't do it. As long as I can cultivate peacefully here, then it's fine. Shaking my head, I went back to my tent to cultivate. I didn't even mind her.

Seeing there was no reaction from Zack, she was obviously surprised. Right now, She completely believes the person is exactly the Zack Lockwood, No.1 Ranker in Leaderboard.

She became excited to camp here beside his tent. Thinking about it, she immediately moved to work.

A few minutes later,

A brand new tent appears beside Zack's tent.

At this moment, Zack is still immersed in his cultivation he doesn't aware of her activities.

After thundering for a long time, the rain begins to pour down heavily.

I retracted my thoughts from the cultivation and noticed the heavy rain. "It's actually fun to cultivate here" I muttered to myself and stood up from the ground.

I wonder, What she is upto? While pondering, I walked out from the tent. The heavy rain began to wash over me. But still I gazed at the sky to observe those lightning.

The other hand, Claire hid in her tent in order to avoid getting wet. Though she stays in her tent, She wonders about Zack. From the beginning she didn't see him coming outside of his tent. Just as she is complaining, she feels sudden movement outside.

By hearing that she tries to see what's happening outside. But when she saw Zack getting drenched in rain she wide opened her mouth. "What is happening with him?" She thought to herself. If not for the heavy rain, she would have asked him.
