Chapter 299 Conversation?

(From MC Perspective)

I didn't hesitate any more and replied to her, "I want this Blood Cleansing Vine. But Ms. Claire, I wonder, is it enough for the night cat?"

Ms. Claire Walton blinked her beautiful big eyes. She expected this from Zack, when talking about Blood Cleansing Vine, his face showed a surprised expression.

So she didn't doubt it, when it came to the price of the Blood Cleaning Vine. She bought it for her grandfather. She knitted her eyebrows in confusion.

Because her Grandfather's birthday is very near. She doesn't know in the meantime whether she can buy another gift or not.

But seeing the person she admires more she couldn't help but give in. And also at this time, she thought about maintaining good connections with Zack in the coming days.

In that way, she won't incur any loss. A smile blossomed on her face after sorting out her thoughts.

Next second, she takes out a metallic box from her storage ring and hands it over to Zack.

With that she added, "It's a Grade 4 Plant, so it's price is around 55,000 credit points. It's the same as a night cat's price. So don't worry about it." She said with a smile.

"Hmmm," I nodded. Even the night cat's worth is higher than the Vine, I won't mind it.

After grabbing the metal box, I opened it to verify. Seeing there is no problem with it, I placed it in my storage ring.

Then the next moment, I went to the tent to bring back the sleeping night cat.

Wow, the deal went well. I couldn't help but reveal a small smile. I was disappointed due to yesterday's events. But now the situation has totally changed.

A few seconds later, I gave the night cat to her and exchanged our contacts for future communications.

I really don't mind chatting with the second generation rich. I can trade something valuable in the future like now.

Since there is no animosity between us, I began to chat with her. At first the conversation went normal about our cultivation, then I asked about her background a few minutes later.

"I'm from Walton family, a Medium sized cultivation family in Tier-7 City" Ms. Claire reveals her background without much expression on her face.

"Tier-7 City?" I muttered in disbelief.

I didn't even mind about the family, only Tier-7 City is lingering in mind. Wow, I thought she was from some luxurious city like Westword and Barron City.

But it's a Tier-7 City, Damn!

And also I recall the Crimson Hall is situated in Tier-7 City, but I don't know the city name.

Seeing that Zack is spacing out, Ms. Claire calls out his name, "Zack?"

Both of them are sitting inside Zack's tent and having this peaceful conversation.

By hearing my name, I turned towards and asked, "Do you know about Crimson Hall?"

"Crimson Hall!" Ms. Claire held her chin to think about it.

Then the next second finds out about such a name. She heard the similar name, which is located in nearby Tier-7 City.

She looks at Zack and uttered, "Glaser City"

Then she added, "I heard a similar name in nearby Tier-7 City called Glaser City. But I'm not sure if it's the same one."

I nodded to her words.

It's not surprising that she wasn't sure about it. Several Tier-8 cities make up one Tier-7 City. I couldn't even imagine the size of Tier-7 City. Especially, how many training centres and cultivation families are there?

Which reminds me about one thing, If she is from Tier-7 City, then what is she doing here? No, wonder she casually gave me Grade-4 Vine. Anyway, it's win-win for me, I can inquire more information about the Tier-7 City.

The other hand, Ms. Claire looks at Zack in a strange gaze again. "Why is he spacing out again?" She pouted a little. She almost wanted to open his head and see what he was thinking about?

I turned towards and asked back, "Ms. Claire, You say you are from Tier-7, then what are you doing in this remote location?"

Ms. Claire finally understands the reason for his spacing out. She knows Zack is local. The Star Tower revealed everything about him. So it's not surprising to see Zack like this.

People in Tier-8 cities don't have a clue about Tier-7 City. Unless, their access level is very high.

She chuckled and answered, " Actually, I came to Welton City with my dad for some business issue. I heard from my friend about this location, so I took some time out to come here."

Again I nodded and didn't reply, But I have several doubts in my heart. Why would someone from Tier-7 City come to Tier-8 City? I don't believe it's for business reasons. But it's not my place to ask her about it.

Shaking my head, I talked about a few other things including powerful warriors, treasures academies and finally about servers.

Which is one of the biggest questions in my heart? Even Uncle James refused to talk about it. He simply avoided me by saying I'm still a kid.

Her answers opened my door to a new wider world. From her words, I learnt that our servers are controlled. Not much news can be seen on sites. Especially about our world and other regions.

So legally, the alliance controls everything.

"The server is only for convenience purposes' ' Ms. Claire uttered.

I sighed, which also makes me yearn to go to higher cities.

Coming back to other interesting things, I recalled the Monster Zones.

"Ms. Claire, Can you tell me about Monster Zones in Tier-7 City?" I asked with some interest.

Ms. Claire nodded, She knows that with Zack's talent he will one day visit Higher Tier Monster Zones.

She commented, "It's not much different from Monster Zones. The rules and regulations were the same. Except the Monster's level. Here many of the Monster Zones have Class 2 Peak Monsters as a limit and few of the restricted ones have Class 3."

Then looking at Zack she added, "In Our City, It's Class-4 Monsters and some restricted ones have Class-5 Monsters as limit."
