

BloodLine 791

Chapter 791: 2nd group next!

From MC's Perspective:

Inside the pod chamber, I'm keenly watching the duel.

Ethan and Marco are not your everyday day SS-Elite Warriors.

Ethan has high accuracy while using the earth elemental against Marco.

Most of the attack has hit Marco successfully.

But it was successfully blocked by Marco.

Only a few of his shots have missed hitting the target.

While Marco has a variant orange flame which is effectively destroying the earth boulders.

A quick gleam flashes in my eyes.

I think Ethan has perfect wheel skill in using the earth elemental technique.

Otherwise, it doesn't explain his effective way of using the earth element technique.

"Didn't expect to see someone more skilled than me," I said to myself.

If the bottom ranked warriors are this level.

Then what about others?

A hint of curiosity appeared in my eyes.

Those who are waiting outside must have similar skills.

Duel Platform:

When Marco tried to shoot the flame arrows towards the opponent.

Out of nowhere, a huge boulder hit him.

Using that opportunity, Ethan released a few more brown boulders at him.

Marco stumbled backwards.

But he was not without any final move.

The next second, he attacked the opponent.

A huge single flame ball shot towards the opponent.

The dazzling flames ball is excluding terrifying heat.

So much so that it can melt away things.

Ethan's eyes flickered.

Seeing that the opponent decided to use the final move.

He decided to use his trump card as well.

Boom!

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

In the blink of an eye, his body was surrounded by a thick wall.

The thickness was higher than any attack that could break the wall.

At the same time, the dazzling flame ball tore through the air before landing a direct blow to the rock wall.

Bang!

The intense collision caused the explosion.

A deafening noise reverberated throughout the area.

The flame ball not only cracked the wall surface but also managed to hit the body of Ethan.

In that instant, Ethan took the direct brunt of the attack.

Though most of the flame attack was blocked by the rock wall.

But still the remaining flame element was enough to cause serious injury to Ethan.

Pfff!

The impact force blasted off Ethan from the spot.

He flew backwards like a broken kite before hitting the ground and spotting a mouthful of blood.

Cheers!

The audiences cheered out loud.

The duel between the 2 was thrilling and exciting to watch.

As both of them are talented SS-Elite Warriors.

It's just that Marco's variant flame has an attacking advantage.

Seeing that the opponent was down.

Marco cracked a wide grin on his face.

The duel was not easy.

It had made him consume most of the essence.

Fortunately, the duel was not a continuous one.

He can recover his essence in the pod chamber later.

When the barrier came down.

The announcer entered the platform and declared Marco as the winner.

Those medical staff quickly arrived to take away Ethan.

Atleast, immediate first aid needs to be given so that he can save from the hidden dangers.

Inside the challenger's room,

The Peak Stage Warriors are finally showing some interesting looks.

At this moment, everyone looked serious.

They finally put down their chit chat to access their opponents.

Time passed,

The duels for the 10th group were over within a few hours.

And the final winner was selected.

It was Peak Stage SS-Elite Warrior who won the 1st spot in the 10th group.

After the end of the 10th group duels, the announcer went back to the stage.

He looked at the crowd once again before saying,"I hope you guys have enjoyed the duel.

But we still have 90 people left waiting."

"So without waiting further.

Let's see which group is next?" He added.

Hearing that everyone turned towards the big screen hovering above the platform.

Those audiences who were cheering out loud became extremely silent at this moment.

The big screen flashes before showing the group name which is 2nd..

Gasp!

Some among the crowd sucked cold breath of air.

Because everyone remembered Zack Lockwood at this moment.

Zack Lockwood was 10th in the 2nd group.

So the next group duel is going to be interesting.

Inside the administration room,

"It's finally starting.

I hope he can quickly deal with it," Lowell said to himself.

But it was heard by Robbie and the fatty manager.

The arena managers showed a bewildered look after hearing his words.

“Am I missing something?”

“Was that kid really that strong?” The fat manager asked in his heart.

The other hand, Robbie’s eyes flickered.

He was not silent.

Eversince Zack Lockwood’s participation was exposed.

He has been asking his men stationed at Redwood City.

Is there any unusual movement spotted there?

He thinks that Blood Shadow Force will do something after hearing the news.

Zack’s next destination was Redwood City.

So the Blood Shadow Force more likely target Zack Lockwood there.

But so far he received no such activities.

It might change after Zack Lockwood’s performance.

The Federation HQ:

Federation Head Ben stopped doing his work and looked at the screen.

Seeing that it was the 2nd group next.

He decides to pay attention to Zack Lockwood's performance.

Though Zack has strength to defeat the Peak Stage opponents.

But the real duel is different from the Phantom Trial.

In real duels one has to assess the opponent to look for many weaknesses.

Then one has to predict the opponent's moves.

So it requires deep thinking.

Zack had already proven himself back in Super Elite Stage Competition.

But this SS-Elite Stage Competition is different.

He is looking forward to seeing how Zack Lockwood is going to handle it.

Inside the challenger's room:

Everyone has a different expression.

But all of them turned to take a look at the 80th mini pod chamber.

"The rat is going to come out," the bald headed warriors who ranked 95th place sneered.

Those warriors in the 2nd group also looked towards the 80th mini pod chamber.

Earlier, some people have decided to teach Zack Lockwood a lesson.

For them the opportunity finally comes to the door.

Chapter 792: Part 1: Fighting against Sanders

From MC's Perspective:

Inside the 80th pod chamber,

A hint of surprise flashes in my eyes.

I didn't expect my chance to come this soon.

Everyone must be waiting for me outside.

SIGH!

A sigh left my mouth before I decided to exit.

Creak!

The door opened.

Then I walked out with a calm expression on my face.

Instead of looking at others, I turned towards the huge screen.

Which is displaying the number 2.

The Warriors in the room are surprised.

They looked at Zack Lockwood with interest.

Because they expected to see a drama.

Sure, the bald headed person approached.

The other hand, I felt someone was walking towards me.

When I turned around, I saw the person was none other than the bald headed person who had pissed me off earlier.

“Hey, you rat you are finally willing to come out,” The bald head person said with a smirk on his face.

Quiet!

Hearing that there was eerie silence.

Those warriors from the big influences started looking at these two with a gloated look.

No one wanted to stop the duo.

Especially Nero who is looking extremely angry as well.

He is watching whether anyone is going to intervene or not.

“Are you deaf?”

"I'm talking to you,"The bald headed warrior said.

Hearing that I ignored him and continued to look towards the big screen.

Because the announcer is going to say something.

On the duel platform, the announcer said,"Let's see who is going to fight next."

The big screen flashes before showing the names of the warriors who are going to fight against each other in the 2nd group.

"Sanders vs Zack Lockwood"

The big screen shows the name and image of the warrior.

Quiet!

The next second, the audience became extremely quiet.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

They didn't expect to see Zack Lockwood's name in the first duel itself.

Back in the challenger's room:

I don't know whether to laugh or cry.

I was hoping to escape from this awkward situation.

But I didn't expect to fight in the 1st duel itself.

"Sanders, teach him some lessons."

"Sanders, you are lucky."

At this time, a few Peak Stage Warriors started congratulating one particular person.

The person is none other than Sanders.

Suddenly, Sanders turned towards me.

I can feel the hint of hostility in his eyes.

Shaking my head, I started leaving the room.

I'm going to see what he is going to do during the duel.

The bald head felt completely ignored.

His heart was raging with anger.

But when he saw Sanders and his friends.

He doesn't think they are going to let go of Zack Lockwood that easily.

So it eases his expression..

Soon, I reached the duel platform.

The audience's loud cheering is reaching my ears.

Not only I'm also heading for some booing sound.

A hint of surprise flashes in my eyes.

I guess no one believes I can win.

After entering the platform, I stood at one corner and waited for Sanders to appear.

From Sanders' earlier look.

I can tell that he wanted to fight against me.

"Is there any reason behind this?" I asked myself in my heart.

Then I saw Sanders was coming.

He is still carrying a weird smile on his face.

Like he wants to beat me down badly.

After entering, he stood opposite me.

Sanders appears to be the same age as me.

He has black hair and eyes.

His skin is pale.

But I can feel the pressure of the Peak Stage Warrior from him

“You shouldn’t have entered this competition,” Sanders said in a cold tone.

Hearing that my eyes flickered.

“Sure, he has ill intentions,” I said in my heart.

Then the barrier starts to cover the platform.

I started observing him.

From the big screen’s information, I can see that he is a Wind Elemental Warrior.

When the barrier covered the platform completely.

The duel started.

Sander let out a laugh before releasing the wind blade.

Boom!

A light green color blade shot towards me.

It’s cutting through the air.

Seeing that my eyes flickered.

The next second, I took the black sword and started charging with the purple essence.

In the blink of an eye, the black blade flickered with a purple glint.

Sanders saw Zack Lockwood is up to something.

But he didn't take it seriously.

The other hand, I didn't release the attack.

Rather, I'm waiting to avoid the wind blade.

When the wind blade got closer to me.

I used the lightning phantom technique to evade.

Everyone only saw a burst of purple lightning appearing for a moment.

When the wind blade went past me.

Then hits the empty spot.

Boom!

It created a terrible sound.

The aftermath shocks hit the barrier directly.

“Sword Divide”

I released the lightning beam.

It all happened within a couple of seconds.

A powerful lightning beam released from the sword.

Boom!

The beam swept across in a straight line creating a loud booming noise.

Sanders on the other hand was startled.

He knew Zack Lockwood was up to something with the sword.

But he didn't expect to release a long range attack with it.

The speed of the beam was so fast.

Sanders has already wasted a couple of seconds by underestimating the enemy.

Now it's too late to move.

Seeing that the collision was unavoids.

He released the wind attack again.

A light green color wind blade shot towards the beam in response.

The power of the wind blade is stronger than before.

Sanders has used more essence to counter it.

But the purple beam easily tore through the wind attack.

The wind element wasn't able to withstand the powerful lightning.

Boom!

The wind blade was shattered into pieces.

But it didn't hinder the speed of the purple beam.

It still cuts through the air before hitting Sanders.

Outside,

The audiences are extremely quiet.

They thought that the confrontation was going to be one-sided.

But they didn't expect Zack to show some moves against the Peak Stage SS-Elite Warrior.

Those who were booing earlier also became quieted down all of a sudden.

Inside the challenger's room:

The atmosphere was extremely quiet.

Chapter 793: Part 2: Fighting against Sanders

From MC's Perspective:

Duel Platform,

The beam hits the body of the Sanders directly.

Boom!

A deafening sound reverberates throughout the area.

At the same time, the impact force caused Sanders to fall down.

The power of the purple lightning starts damaging the body of Sanders.

When the smoke was settled.

Everyone saw that Sanders had scorched skin and torn clothes.

It was not pleasantful.

Because of the Peak Stage SS-Elite Strength.

Sanders was able to avoid the serious injury.

He got up to attack again.

He didn't expect Zack Lockwood's lightning element to be this domineering and destructive at this Early Stage.

Thinking about the humiliation, he just suffered now.

His eyes flashes with a murderous intent.

He comes from an influential family.

Earlier, he and others wanted to teach a lesson to Zack Lockwood.

Thereby gaining fame as well.

Now it has backfired him.

The other hand, a hint of surprise flashes in my eyes.

I see the difference between the puppet and the real warrior right now.

This attack was enough to slow the SS-Elite Puppet.

But when against real warriors.

The lightning attack might have given hints about my strength.

Then I saw him releasing the attack.

Boom!

A light green color tornado shot towards me.

That wind tornado sweeping everything on the way.

Inside the administration room:

“He seems to be a bit surprised,” Robbie’s eyes flashes with a glint.

While watching the duel.

He didn’t forget to notice the expression of Zack Lockwood.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Those subtle reactions can give away a lot of information.

After seeing that he realized that it must be the first time for Zack to fight against the SS-Elite Warrior.

While others are different.

They have gained experience from somewhere.

Like fighting against same stage warriors back at home or fighting against the class monsters during the missions.

So other Federation Warriors had a chance to express themselves outside.

Only Zack Lockwood didn’t have that opportunity.

SIGH!

He then saw Lowelll sighing.

He thinks he saw through the situation as well.

“Maybe we should rethink the Redwood City plan,” He said in his heart.

He feels they are in a rush.

Which might not be good for Zack Lockwood.

“First, let’s see how the internal competition goes,” He said in his heart.

Back in the duel platform:

When the attack got closer to me.

I feel like the wind is cutting my skin.

But I’m planning to use the defensive technique.

Just before the attack could hit my body .

“Lightning Wheel”

A powerful purple lightning wheel formed around me.

The next second, the wind tornado collides with the lightning wheel.

Bang!

An explosion occurs.

The lightning power has managed to block a powerful tornado.

But the impact force sent me backwards.

At the same time, the aftermath of the shock force hits the barrier.

Sanders was startled again.

He is starting to realize that Zack Lockwood is not ordinary.

He must use full strength to defeat Zack Lockwood.

The next second, he used the movement technique to engage in close combat.

Swoosh!

Like the gusts of wind he disappeared from the spot.

The other hand, I felt bad premonition.

If I don't take action right now, it will be difficult to win.

Before I could think about the future.

I saw Sanders appear a few steps away from carrying a grin on his face.

I held the sword and started to charge with the purple essence.

The black sword flickered with purple glint within a few seconds.

It was seen by Sanders as well.

Boom!

He tried to release a wind attack at this close range.

But before he could do that.

I discharged the purple beam.

The lightning beam shot towards Sanders in a straight line.

Seeing that speed of the purple beam.

Sanders started as he was so close to the lightning beam.

In response, he tried to release the tornado.

But halfway through the purple beam reaches him and lands a blow to the body.

Boom!

The lightning power tore through the skin and started damaging his flesh.

At the same time, the impact force sent backwards like a broken kite.

The other hand, my eyes flickered.

I raised my hand and used the finger technique.

A purple beam forms at the tip of my finger.

It's the 3rd stage of the finger technique.

The next second, I shot the purple beam towards Sanders.

Boom!

The purple beam creates a boom while tearing through the air.

Sanders, who just got smashed to the ground, was surprised by the coming attack.

He is getting tossed by Early Stage SS-Elite Warrior just like.

An immense rage appeared in his heart.

He used the wind blade which he can release faster compared to other techniques.

A light green wind blade shot towards the purple beam in response.

Boom!

But the lightning purple beam easily shattered the wind blade before continuing its way towards Sanders.

Seeing that the attack failed.

Sanders tried to avoid it by using the wind movement technique.

But he was injured because of the previous two attacks.

Because of it his movements got closer.

Right at this movement, the purple beam hits his body again.

Boom!

The lightning hit him hard.

The next second, he coughed up a mouthful of blood.

The serious injuries got worsened by the lightning power again.

The 3rd stage of the purple lightning was strong.

It tore away his flesh and hit his bones.

Sanders realized that he was going to be bedridden.

If he continued to fight against Zack Lockwood.

When the smoke was gone.

He raised his hand before trying to get up from the ground.

On the other hand, I raised my hand to attack again.

But looking at Sanders' condition.

I think he will not continue to fight.

The next moment, as I guessed, Sanders gave up the fight.

"I admit defeat," Sanders said in a low tone.

He stood with great difficulty.

At the same time, blood is dripping from his body.

He should have been alerted when he got the first attack.

But his arrogance and anger blinded him.

Chapter 794: Shocked everyone

From MC's Perspective:

Quiet!

There was a deadly silence among the audience.

No one expected the result.

It was close to one sided defeat.

Sanders has tried his best.

But none of his attacks had managed to hit Zack Lockwood.

The other way around he was the one who was injured by Zack Lockwood.

On the duel platform, the barrier starts to come down.

Sanders' eyes flashes with a cold glint.

He is feeling humiliation.

But he had no other choice.

Compare it to getting your foundation injured.

It's best to give up the match.

But in his mind Sanders is thinking about revenge.

He is well aware of Zack's background.

Zack Lockwood has Silver Mark Warrior as a teacher.

But he is not without any support as well.

If there is any opportunity present itself in future, he will definitely do it.

On the other hand, when the barrier came down.

The announcer entered the platform and declared me as the winner.

I just won my first in the 2nd group.

There are still one or two duels left before reaching the final duel in the 2nd group.

I saw the medical team rush to treat Sanders.

I completely ignored him and started walking back towards my room.

Inside the administration room:

"Looks like he has gotten hold of it," Lowell said in a low tone.

He was pleased by Zack's victory.

"This is Zack's first Victory against SS-Elite Warrior," Robbie said.

Lowell nodded his head before saying, "The warrior named Sanders underestimated Zack.

Because of it he didn't use his wind technique properly from the beginning."

"Which allowed Zack to use the lightning technique continuously.

But the upcoming duel of his won't be easy,"he added.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

"That's right," Robbie said.

Federation HQ:

"Good win," Federation Head Ben muttered while watching the final ending scene.

He can tell that Zack first struggled to judge the opponent.

But after making the opponent suffer injuries.

Then Zack's response was faster.

"Maybe we should let this kid fight against more SS-Elite Warriors before the actual competition ahead,"
He is thinking about the top list ranking competition.

Though the top list competition for the SS-Elite Stage Warriors are not that popular.

But still the organization send their members to participate in.

Inorder to judge their strength.

Based on the result they can decide how much to invest on those warriors.

Those who perform well will break through quickly and become SSS-Elite Warriors.

So he wants Zack to participate in that competition so that he can fight against talented warriors from various organizations.

Which is going to be difficult.

Comparing it to the ongoing duel happening right now.

Challenge's room:

When I got back to the room.

I saw that everyone's faces were different.

Some showed complex emotions.

While few others showed envy and surprise.

Their gazes filled with mixed emotions.

Then I turned around to look at the bald headed guy.

He was the one who bad mouthed me earlier.

He is standing close to his group.

He is deliberately averting my gaze.

The other hand, Nero hid among the group as well.

He didn't expect Zack Lockwood to pretend to be a pig.

But he was actually a tiger.

Now he understands why decides to participate in the internal competition.

Basically, Zack Lockwood has the strength to fight across ranks.

Which didn't change even after his breakthrough.

This was on many of their minds.

Not everyone can fight across ranks.

For that you need powerful technique and elements.

Like the variant flame element.

The variant flame was enough to rival some of the powerful techniques.

Though Zack Lockwood's element was not a variant.

But still the purple lightning comes under various groups of lightning elements.

Earlier, everyone witnessed how Peak Stage SS-ELITE Warriors' flesh was torn by the lightning element.

Even the warriors in the 2nd group who wanted to reach the lesson earlier started to change their mind.

They are considering Zack Lockwood as their serious opponent.

On the other hand, I ignored everyone's gazes before entering the pod chamber.

Then I closed the door and sat cross legged before activating the system.

The next second, the world's energy starts to come out from the inlet.

In the blink of an eye, the white mist covered my skin like a coat.

Seeing that I closed my eyes and started running the lightning scripture.

My lightning reserve is close to the rock bottom.

So I have to recover it before my next duel.

Right after running the lightning scripture.

The star rune in my mind starts to flicker.

The next second, I started to absorb the purple energy from the world energy.

As this purple energy enters my body, I start to guide the energy according to the scripture.

The purple energy starts to flow through my veins.

After circulation, the purple energy enters the dantian and starts to settle down among the available purple essence.

Seeing that I continued to repeat the process.

Outside,

The next duel is taking place between the Peak SS-Elite Warriors from the 2nd group.

The audiences haven't come up from the shock of Zack Lockwood's win.

Those who booed him earlier are ashamed.

While those who started supporting Zack Lockwood since his Super Elite .

They are even happier.

Now onwards, they will cheer him hard without any worry.

McClain House:

The Family Head Kane was in his study room.

The recent business loss had hit him hard.

He has been spending his days at home.

He is not in any mood to go outside to oversee their remaining business.

Nowadays, his mind was occupied with something else.

He was wondering why the Blood Shadow Force hadn't taken their action yet.

He had even the urge to go back to that wine tavern.

But he is controlling himself.

Already some rumors are floating around regarding their situation.

Don't know who started it.

But outside people are saying McClain House had offended someone..

But Kane knows very well that's not the case.

Because he has been getting news on Elder Lowell who seems to be busy with something else.

Then who can attack them?

He thinks that hostile forces are spreading it deliberately to make their situation worse.

Chapter 795: Part 1: Free pass

From MC's Perspective:

Inside the 80th pod chamber,

An hour later, I was able to recover the purple essence slightly above half of the reserve.

I know this was not enough.

But the 2nd group's duel is coming to an end.

Among the 10 in the group.

5 warriors won the duel.

And the remaining 5 lost the duel.

Even if they lost

a one duel then there is no chance to proceed to the next stage.

On the duel platform,

The announcer looked at everyone before saying, "We have 5 winners now.

One of them will be randomly selected to pass this round.

The remaining 4 will fight each other in 2 duels."

"Later the winner of the 2 duels will join one who got randomly selected.

Among the 3 of them, one person will again be randomly selected to pass the stage to take the spot in the final duel."

"The remaining 2 will fight against each other to get the remaining spot."

"And the winner, the title holder of the 2nd group will be selected from the final duel," This announcer added further.

He had explained it before during the 1st group duels.

But still he has decided to repeat it during every group duel.

Cheers!

The audiences are cheering out loud.

They want to see who is going to be lucky this time to advance to the next round.

The announcer then said, "First, let's see the warrior who is going to advance to the next stage."

The big screen hovering above the platform flashes before showing the image and name of Zack Lockwood.

When the familiar person's image appeared again.

Gasps!

Some among the crowd sucked cold breath of air.

The person who got a free pass to the next stage was Early Stage SS-Elite Warrior.

Some of the audience are thinking that Zack Lockwood is having his day today.

Not only has he defeated a Peak Stage SS-Elite Warrior earlier this day.

Now he proceeds to the next round freely.

Challenger's room:

“Now way?”

“What kind of dog is this lucky?” Nero blurted out.

Not only him, others are in dismay as well.

Especially the warriors in the 2nd group.

Earlier, they were shocked by the defeat of Sanders.

And now this happens.

Zack Lockwood’s presence here makes them angry.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Some of them turned towards the 80th mini essence chamber and showed envy in their eyes.

How come one has such a good day?

Zack Lockwood has already shocked and amazed everyone by entering the competition with just Early Stage Strength.

Around the corner, the bald headed 95th warrior’s expression becomes bad.

He doesn’t know why?

But he is scared of Zack Lockwood despite being the Peak Stage SS-Elite Warrior himself.

Meanwhile,

“Ha...Ha...Ha...,” I let out a joyful laughter all of a sudden.

The free pass came out as a surprise.

This was not in my plan at all.

Which means I can get enough time to raise my purple reserve further.

“Poor guys, they must be hating me,” I thought about those people who were waiting outside.

If I go out now, their stares alone will make me uncomfortable.

I revealed a small smile on my face before closing my eyes and started running the lightning scripture.

The administrator’s room:

Lowell and Robbie looked at each other.

Both of their eyes flash with surprise.

This development came out of nowhere.

The fat manager’s obese stomach trembles once again.

He couldn’t believe his own eyes.

Earlier, he was stunned by the confidence of these 2 people in front of him.

Now Zack Lockwood got the free pass to the next stage.

He looked towards and said, "Lord, I don't know what to say.

But I can tell you that today everything is going well for your student."

Hearing that Lowell let out a chuckle.

Both Robbie and Lowell know the significance.

It's not about simply getting a free pass to the next stage.

It's also about having more rest time.

Zack can use this chance to recover his essence.

Which will be immensely helpful to him in his next duel.

On the duel platform,

The big screen displays the image and names of the warriors who marched up against each other in the 2 duels.

Seeing that the announcer once again turned towards the screen to see who is going to come up next.

The big screen flashes again to display the image and names of the warriors who are going to duel next.

Time passed in the blink of an eye,

When the 2 duels were over.

It was already well past the late evening and slowly entering the night time.

But the duel arena manager is clear that no one is going to leave without the end of the 2nd group duels.

There is not much fuel left ahead.

Only 2 formal duels among the 3 warriors left.

The announcer once again entered the dual platform for the announcement.

“We got 3 winners from the last stage.

But among the 3 only 2 of them are going to meet each other in the finals for the title ranks.”

“Before that one of them will pass this stage like the previous stage.

Let’s see who that person is,” The announcer said to everyone.

Hearing that the audiences and the warriors in the challenger’s room are looking at the screen.

Especially the 2 Peak Stage SS-ELITE Warriors are quite confident.

That they are going to see each other in the finals.

They didn't put Zack Lockwood in their eyes.

For them Zack Lockwood is one lucky b@stard.

But the next second, both of them petrified on the spot.

Because the black screen displays the name and image of Zack Lockwood again

Uproar!

Outside, there was a huge commotion among the audience again.

Zack Lockwood's name was randomly selected again.

This was the 2nd time this happened.

Everyone couldn't believe their own eyes.

Can anyone have such good things happening in one day?

Inside the challenger's room, the faces of the 2 warriors change drastically like they have eastern sh!t.

Earlier, they were thinking about finals.

Now only one of them could advance.

Chapter 796: Part 2: Free pass

From MC's Perspective:

Inside the 80th pod mini chamber:

Looking at the screen, I was in a state of disbelief.

“Was someone manipulated behind the scenes?”

“Or was it a real coincidence?” I asked myself.

But anyways, I couldn’t be happier.

The purple reserve needs little more time to get full.

I can use this time to do it.

So I stopped worrying about it.

Then I continued running the lightning scripture.

Outside,

Nero and other Peak Stage SS-Elite Warriors are in shock.

They have yet to recover.

Only when those 2 warriors left the room for the duel.

They have recovered their expression.

“Damn, someone must be manipulating the random slot,” Nero said out loud.

The next second, everyone's gaze fell on him.

Everyone is thinking the same.

But they are not stupid to voice out loud.

"Are you stupid?"

"Do you want to get disqualified?" The warrior near him reminded him.

Hearing that Nero's thoughts returned to reality and he realized his mistake.

"Harumph, I couldn't even voice my dissatisfaction," He was dejected in his heart.

The other hand, the 95th bald headed warrior's heart was filled with hatred and jealousy.

Unlike Nero, he kept in his heart.

He can only vent out after leaving the place.

...

Federation HQ:

Head Ben was shocked as well.

Unlike others he had the power to check whether anything was wrong with the system or other gadgets.

A blue screen appears above the desk.

He then clicks a few servers before checking that everything is fine.

And Zack Lockwood's name was indeed selected randomly.

That too it was 2 times.

So it was pure coincidence.

"That brat was indeed having a good day.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Everything is going in his direction.

I hope he can keep this momentum going and win the internal competition," Ben muttered to himself.

His work is already over.

He can go back to his place to sleep.

But he decided to watch the last 2 duels.

...

McClain House:

The Family Head Kane was in his study room.

Suddenly, he was disturbed by his own son.

Seeing that his son wants to see him for some reason.

He allowed him to enter inside.

A Warrior in his early twenties entered the room.

His face was not looking good.

But his eyes tell me that he has some important news to share.

“What is Rock?”

“What’s wrong with your face?” Kane asked.

Lately, he hadn’t got time to spend time with his kids.

He has been occupied with issues at his hands.

Right now, seeing his son like that.

He feels something bad.

Rock, who is Commander Stage Warrior, looked at his father and said, “I got news about him.”

Hearing that Kane furrowed his eyebrows and asked, “Who?”

Rock replied, "Elder Lowell's student."

A cold glint flashes in the cold's eyes.

He has been desperately waiting for this news.

Then he looked at his son in surprise and asked, "Where did you get this news?"

"As far as I know, Lowell has sent his student to the Federation HQ to stay," Kane added.

Rock revealed a bitter smile on his face before replying, "I got news from one of my friends.

We did a mission together.

He told me that Zack Lockwood is currently participating in the Federation's internal competition."

Kane showed a confused look.

He asked, "What are you saying?"

"Wasn't he won not long ago?"

"Father, he broke through.

He is now an SS-ELITE Warrior.

The internal competition which is taking place right now.

It is for the SS-Elite Warriors in the Federation," Rock said in a grave tone.

“What?” Kane stood up from his seat.

A coercion released from his body which shattered the nearby wooden chairs and tables.

Seeing that Rock was stunned.

It’s been a long time since he saw his own father reacting like this.

Kane looked into the eyes of his son and asked, “Are you sure?”

Rock nodded his head before saying, “He told me that competition is still going on.

It won’t end today.

There are still a few more days left before the competition comes to an end.”

“Alright, you can leave.

I have somewhere to go,” Kane said to his son.

Rock nodded his head before leaving the study room.

When his son was gone.

His eyes flashes with a murderous glint.

“It’s not good that brat is doing well.

Looks the Federation is really backing that kid,” He uttered in a cold tone.

He then walks out of the room and decides to visit the wine tavern.

This time he is going to question the old man directly.

The Blood Shadow Force is surely taking their time.

The other hand, he can't handle the pressure.

Everyday he is wondering when Elder Lowell would counter attack.

As per Elder Lowell's character, he won't sit and watch.

If he learns of their actions behind his back, then he will definitely cause damage to the McClain House.

Suddenly, he stopped in his tracks.

A good idea comes to his mind.

“Why haven't I thought of this before?” Kane asked himself.

The matter of placing a bounty on Zack Lockwood at the Blood Shadow Force was done by the Supreme Elder and him.

To be honest, it was primarily due to the Supreme Elder.

He was the one who proposed and made him do it.

Kane knows if Lowell has any goodwill left about the McClain House.

Then it must be due to the 3rd Branch Family where Lowell comes from.

If this matter is exposed, there is no guarantee that all the 6 families will suffer.

Lowell can turn blind eyes to others and end up targeting the main house only.

If that happens, then they will lose their main family position.

And someone will replace their head of family position.

He thinks it most likely would be the 3rd branch family.

“No!”

“I should not go alone.

Let’s drag that moron with me,” He is thinking about the 3rd Branch Family Head who was also his supporter.

If he enters the tavern with him, then the 3rd branch family head won’t be able to explain his involvement either.

Thinking about it, a cold smile appeared on his face.

Chapter 797: Part 1: Fighting against Nathan

From MC’s Perspective:

While other 2 Peak Stage SS-Elite Warriors went to the duel platform and the duel between them started.

Time went by,

The Earth Element Peak Stage SS-Elite Warrior defeated the opponent and won the spot in the final.

Since then, he has been continuously fighting duels.

His essence reserve has become lower.

Everyone thought it's unfair for Earth Element Warrior Nathan to fight against Zack Lockwood.

Unlike other warriors, Nathan was not famous.

But his fight in 2nd group duels has attracted the audience's attention.

He has been fighting the last 2 duels continuously.

Next, he is going to face Zack after a 5 minute break.

Which totally seems unfair.

Some among the audiences started booing.

But the rules are rules, they can't change anything.

When the barrier was brought down.

The defeated warrior went down but Nathan started there.

A hint of displeasure flashes in his eyes.

Earlier, everyone thought that the final duel between these two would be.

Suddenly, Zack Lockwood came into the picture.

Instead of going back to the Challenger's room.

He decides to stay here.

At the time, the announcer walked in and declared Nathan as the winner.

"Next, the 2nd group final duel is going to be between Zack Lockwood and Nathan," The announcer said.

"It's going to start in 5 minutes," He added.

Hearing that there is a lot of mixed noise coming from the audience.

Some are cheering for Zack Lockwood.

While others are booing out loud.

Though Zack's Lockwood's 1st duel was impressive and won it against Sanders.

But he got lucky the next 2 times.

Which caused many people to show sympathy towards Nathan who reached the final by fighting and winning all the way through.

The announcer can't decide it.

The rules are made this way.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

So he exited the platform silently.

Inside the administration room:

"People's emotions are easy to change.

They will support wholeheartedly sooner," Lowell said.

"I hope he doesn't put too much pressure on himself," Robbie added.

These 2 are clear about Zack Lockwood's strength.

But the fat manager sitting close to them was stunned and confused.

"Where does their confidence come from?" He asked himself in his heart.

If there is any rule of allowing artifact usage, then there is a chance for Zack Lockwood to win.

But he knows that artifact weapon usage is not allowed in the internal competition.

So the arena manager was surprised by their optimism.

Inside the challenger's room:

People are shaking with mixed emotions.

They knew only one of them could reach the final.

It's just that they felt hard to digest Zack Lockwood's dog sh!t luck.

Because he was able to reach the final despite being an Early Stage SS-ELITE Warrior.

Which doesn't sit well with many Peak Stage Warriors in the room.

Meanwhile,

Inside the 80th mini pod chamber, my purple essence has returned to Peak.

Now I'm ready to go all out in the final duel.

5 minutes later,

I stepped out of the chamber.

The next second, everyone's gaze fell on me.

Most of them are filled with envy and hatred.

It's just the same old story.

They can't digest that I got a free pass to the next 2 stages just like that.

Ignoring everyone, I left the room.

Then I started walking down to the dual platform.

I hear a lot of booing noise from the crowd.

Then I raised my head and looked towards Nathan standing inside the platform.

He looks a little .

A quick gleam flashes in my eyes.

After taking a few steps, I reached the platform.

Then I stepped inside and stood opposite him.

The next second, the barrier starts to cover the platform.

Because of it, the outside noise has reduced a lot.

"See, no one here supports you.

So I'm going to show you your rightful place," Nathan said.

Hearing that my eyes flashes with a cold glint.

"I don't want to use it.

Looks like the time has come," I said in my heart.

It's been sometime since I have used my perceptual ability in the actual duel.

After the breakthrough the range of my perception has increased a lot.

I can even notice minute details.

If I use it with lightning then, my accuracy will further improve.

At the same time, I can somewhat foresee the opponent's movement.

When the barrier covered up the platform completely.

Boom!

Nathan released an earth elemental attack.

The next second, several pebble sized small rocks shot towards me.

The speed of it was so fast that it created a booming sound in the air.

The other hand, I took out the black sword and started charging with the purple essence.

At the same time, I activated my perceptual ability.

The next second, my consciousness covered the whole platform in the blink of an eye.

I can see the pebble size rocks clearly.

When the pebble size rocks got close to moving.

I simply stepped to avoid the attack.

One after another the pebble sized rock went past me before hitting the barrier.

Boom!

One after another a deafening noise sounded as the pebble sized rocks hit the barriers hard.

Outside,

The audience sucked a cold breath of air.

They see Zack is evading the pebble sized rocks just like that.

What's more surprising is that.

They noticed it's not even a movement technique.

It's like Zack is predicting the attack before moving sideways to evade.

Not only them, even the warriors inside the challenger's room are surprised.

"What is that?"

“He is simply dodging the peak stage attack just like that”

They started to look at each other in shock.

Those who had dissatisfaction earlier are stunned.

On the other hand, when the last piece of the pebble size rock hits the barrier.

I raised the sword towards the attack.

“Sword Divide”

A purple lightning beam released from the blade and shot towards Nathan.

Nathan was startled by Zack’s dodging.

But before he could restart.

He saw a purple flash before his eyes.

A purple beam attack caught him off guard.

In response, he released the earth wall to block the attack.

But the wall was not fully formed.

It was quickly shattered by the purple beam.

Chapter 798: Part 2: Fighting against Nathan

From MC's Perspective:

Duel Platform,

The earthen wall was destroyed in the blink of an eye.

But the purple beam didn't stop before hitting the body of Nathan.

Boom!

The lightning power starts to affect the flesh of Nathan.

The power of the lightning caused the paralysing effect.

For a moment, he wasn't able to control his body.

Cheers!

At the same time, the crowd started to cheer out loud.

Those who were booing earlier quickly changed their opinions.

The warriors who were watching among the crowd started to show support for Zack Lockwood.

Meanwhile,

Seeing that Nathan was down on the ground.

“Lightning Phantom Technique”

The next second, a purple arc covered my legs.

Then I started to move towards Nathan.

For those who are watching from outside.

They are seeing only a purple flash.

Nathan who was trying to get up.

Suddenly, he saw Zack was coming to attack.

“Damn it,” He cursed under his breath.

Under the pressure, the paralysing effect reduced a lot.

The next second, he released the attack.

Both of his arms are covered with earth elements.

When he sees Zack is getting closer.

He raised his massive rock fist to punch.

At the same time, I was a few steps away from him.

Seeing that he is using a rock fist to punch me.

“Lightning Wheel”

The next second, a purple lightning wheel formed around me.

The lightning wheel beaming with extreme power.

Both our attacks came in contact with each other.

The rock fist fiercely slammed into the lightning wheel.

Bang!

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

The next second, an explosion occurs.

The lightning wheel instantly exploded.

The power immediately breaks the earth fist.

In the blink of an eye, a crack started to appear on the rock fist.

The other hand, the impact force sent me backwards.

But my eyes never left Nathan.

The wheel explosion caused him to move backwards as well.

Argh!

A muffled groan escaped from Nathan's mouth.

When the rocks covering the fist start to fall down.

He saw his fingers and palms were bleeding.

A hint of apprehension flashes in his eyes.

He looked towards Zack Lockwood with a new light.

Nathan started to realise how Sanders was defeated.

Because he felt Zack Lockwood's lightning power was not any lower than the Peak Stage SS-ELITE Warrior.

Outside,

The audiences are loving it.

They didn't expect Zack Lockwood to fight head to head against Nathan.

Some even realised that Zack Lockwood is repeating the scene of Super Elite Competition.

Inside the administration room,

Seeing that Zack Lockwood is doing fine.

Lowell revealed a smile on his face.

“He is going to win it with ease,” Robbie commented.

Earlier, there was some worry in his heart.

Now it has completely disappeared.

The arena manager who was standing next to them showed a complicated look.

Because he saw Zack Lockwood is in complete control of the situation.

A hint of disbelief in his eyes.

“He can fight across ranks,” the next second, a look of understanding dawned on him.

Inside the challenger’s room,

The expressions of the Peak Stage SS-ELITE Warriors are bad.

Their faces are distorted.

It’s like someone slapped their face.

The Peak Stage SS-ELITE Warriors in the 2nd group felt ashamed.

Thinking about their lesson teaching conversation.

They don't know how to face Zack Lockwood next.

On the duel platform,

“Lightning Phantom Technique”

I used the movement technique to rush out towards Nathan again.

Nathan who was bleeding started to realise that he is consuming the remaining earth essence at a faster rate.

If he continues to use the attack, his essence will reach the rock bottom.

The other hand, I reached him once again.

Seeing that he was in a state of confusion.

I had an urge to use the blood element method to quickly end the duels.

But I controlled the urge at the last moment.

Then I released the lightning defence attack.

“Lightning Wheel”

The lightning wheel formed around me.

When Nathan saw the attack.

His expression faces changed drastically.

One side of his hand is bleeding.

Another attack will injure him severely.

Before the lightning wheel could touch his body.

He quickly formed the rock armour around his body.

When both come in contact with each other.

Bang!

A loud explosion happened again.

This time the lightning power tore through injured flesh and started hitting the hand bones.

Argh!

The next second, he let out an agonising screen.

The rest of the lightning power is breaking the rock armour.

At the same time, the impact force sent him backwards before he crashed onto the ground once again.

The other hand, I retreated backwards by myself.

Seeing that Nathan was down for good.

I started charging the sword with the purple essence.

In the blink of an eye, the black blade flickered with a purple glint.

“Sword Divide”

I raised the sword and released the purple beam.

The powerful lightning beam swept across in a straight line before hitting Nathan’s body once again.

This time the lightning power completely destroyed the remaining armour and remaining lightning power starts ravaging the body of Nathan.

Quiet!

Outside it was pin drop silence.

No one expected Nathan to be hammered by Zack Lockwood this hard.

Then everyone seems to connect the dots.

Nathan was already exhausted because of the previous two duels.

At the same time, they understood that the amount of essence leftover may be low.

Though Zack Lockwood is fighting well.

But at the same time, he is also using the weakness of Nathan.

So there was no surprise left in the duel.

Zack Lockwood's current fighting duel shows that he is going to win the duel in any way.

It's just a matter of time.

On the duel platform,

Pfff!

Nathan coughed full of blood.

His essence was close to the bottom as well.

If he doesn't give up right now, his injury night will worsen because of the lightning power.

He then looks at Zack Lockwood with a complicated expression before saying, "I give up."

The voice sounded extremely low and tired.

But it was heard by everyone because of the big screen.

Quiet!

Hearing that there was eerie silence all over the arena.

Chapter 799: 2nd group winner

From MC's Perspective:

Quiet!

There was pin drop silence.

The whole arena quieted down all of a sudden.

The other hand, seeing that Nathan was down.

I sighed in relief.

I know that the duel could have been extended.

If not for him being exhausted fighting the previous duel.

But it won't change the result in the end.

My lightning element is causing more damage to him than his earth element to me.

When the barrier came down.

The medical team quickly arrived to take him.

Because he is bleeding all over his body.

Cheers!

The next second, the supporters of mine started to cheer out loud.

But others stayed silent.

I probably understand.

But I don't have to explain.

The announcer came to the platform and declared me as the winner of the 2nd group.

Then I started to walk back towards the challenger's room.

When I returned to the Challenger's room.

I see drastic changes in people's expressions.

This time none of them dared to face me.

Especially the bald headed warriors hiding among other warriors.

There is also Nero.

He is also avoiding my gaze.

I revealed a smile on my face.

Then I saw the announcer making another announcement.

Seeing that I turned my attention to the platform.

Then the announcer said that the 3rd group fights will start the next day.

Seeing that a hint of surprise flashes in my eyes.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Because there is still some time left before midnight.

Then I realised it's because of the 3rd group.

If they start the duel, they won't be able to finish it before midnight.

I sighed inwardly before leaving the room.

Phew!

The next second, the Peak Stage SS-Elite Warriors heaved a sigh of relief.

They can now talk and relax.

Zack Lockwood has shown twice that he has strength to defeat others.

The bald headed warriors cursed inwardly for his attitude earlier.

If Zack was weak, this wouldn't have happened.

Right now, that has changed.

He fears that Zack Lockwood might retaliate in future.

Nero was worrying the same thing as well.

On the other hand, I'm walking towards the lobby.

Meanwhile,

Inside the administration room, Lowell smiled in relief.

Robbie feels relaxed as well.

He thinks that Zack will get a few days rest because of the next group fight.

The group 2 duels to group 10 duels.

It will take a few days.

In the meantime, Zack can get time to improve himself.

The arena manager next to them was in a state of shock.

He doesn't know how many times he has felt this way.

Lord Lowell's word came true.

His student has won it too with ease.

Lowell saw the change in the arena manager's eyes.

He smiled at him before leaving the room.

Robbie followed him from behind.

While walking on the path, Lowell thought of something before saying, "I guess they will make their move."

Robbie's eyes flickered.

He knows what Lowell is talking about.

"I have already informed the team to monitor the Res Wood City.

They will inform, if there is something is up," Robbie replied.

Hearing that Lowell remained silent.

Then both reached closer to the lobby.

The other hand, I'm already at the lobby.

Just as I'm waiting for the teacher and Elder to arrive.

"Zack!"

I hear someone calling my name.

Then I turned around to see.

Teacher Lowell and Robbie are coming towards me.

“Teacher” “Elder Robbie,” I greeted both of them.

Robbie’s face was full of smiles.

He said, “I had even doubted you for a second.”

“But you are in control of the duel from the beginning to the end,” Robbie added.

“Yes, Zack.

You didn’t disappoint us.

We know that you can still fight against SSS-Elite Warrior,” Lowell said.

“But that was against the Phantom Shadow.

The real warriors are quite different,” he added.

“Teacher, Elder, thank you for supporting me.

But still I have a lot to learn,” I replied to them.

Lowell showed approval.

Then we walked out of the building and started walking towards the air cab.

The other hand, the other Peak Stage SS-ELITE Warrior started to leave the challenger’s room one after another.

At the same time, the spectators also started leaving the place.

They are surprised by the 1st and 2nd group's duels.

Zack Lockwood's duels will stay in their mind for the time being.

Meanwhile,

We hopped into it .

Then they started to fly towards the Federation HQ.

After 5 minutes, they landed in front of the towering building.

Then we stepped out.

"Alright, I'm leaving.

You can go together with Robbie," Lowell said.

Hearing that I nodded at him.

I know he came to watch the duel because of me.

But there is still a lot of work pending at the delta city.

Considering Delta City's situation, he needs to be there more.

"See you at the next duel," After saying that Lowell disappeared from the spot.

Then Elder Robbie and I entered the Federation's lobby.

There are staff working at this time.

Their immediate gaze fell on me.

But because of Elder Robbie beside me.

They didn't dare to probe it further.

After taking a glance at me, they retracted their gazes.

Robbie noticed everything.

He knows that the warriors working here won't make any difficulty for Zack Lockwood.

When I entered the lift.

Robbie pressed the button for the top floor.

"I'm going to see the Federation Head.

You can go to your room and take a rest," Robbie said.

Hearing that I pressed the 50th floor button.

When the 50th floor came.

Creak!

I stepped out the door.

The door behind me closed automatically and Elder Robbie disappeared from the spot.

Seeing that I sighed in before walking towards my room.

After entering the room, I immediately went to take a bath.

20 minutes later,

I walked out of the bath.

Then I changed to comfort clothes before laying down on my bed.

The next second, the wave of tiredness washed over me.

Feeling that I closed my eyes and fell asleep.

Chapter 800: Kane's helplessness

Federation HQ:

Robbie reached the top floor and walked in.

Seeing that he was coming, the Federation Head allowed him to enter.

A hint of surprise flashes in Robbie's eyes.

He didn't expect the Federation Head to stay here till this time.

Which shows that he has been watching Zack Lockwood's duel.

He once again realized the importance of Zack Lockwood's in Federation Head's mind.

Then he entered inside.

He saw Federation Head Ben sitting behind the desk.

"Looks like he didn't disappoint any of us," Ben said with a smile.

Robbie replied, "He is good.

But people going to participate in Redwood City's competition have the same capability as Zack."

"They too fight across ranks," He added.

Ben's eyes flickered.

He is still optimistic about Zack.

"This kid is improving.

He does not blindly rely on lightning power.

Did you see how he was evading all those attacks without much movement technique?" Ben asked.

Hearing that Robbie nodded his head.

"Alright, I know that you have a team placed in Redwood City.

But still add some more," Ben said.

Robbie thought of something before asking,"Elder, do you think they are going to make a move?"

Federation Had Been answered,"I think they might send Silver Mark Warrior in disguise to probe."

Hearing that Robbie pauses his gaze for a moment.

He looked at Head Ben with confusion.

He knows that Zack Lockwood is their target.

But making Silver Mark Warriors to target Zack Lockwood is too much.

Head Ben saw through his thoughts.

He said,"Don't underestimate the Blood Shadow Force.

They won't let Zack grow.

They will use every opportunity to kill Zack before he enters the Tier-4 City.”

“Don’t worry head, I’ll go and see for myself,” Robbie answered.

After some discussion both of them left.

The other hand, the news about Zack Lockwood’s win started to spread like a wildfire.

Those organizations who already knew were shocked by the news.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

At the same time the other small and medium sized organizations who didn’t know earlier received the news as well.

Zack Lockwood was popular because of Federation and Lowell’s identity.

On top of it, Zack Lockwood was named as core members’ successor.

Which had made his name popular.

Now everyone started to know about Zack Lockwood as a warrior.

The earlier Super Elite win didn’t cause this much shock.

Because forces only pay attention to the SSS-Elite Stage, Commander Stage and General Stage.

Now seeing that Zack is getting good results in the SS-ELITE fight as well.

They started to take notice.

If Zack Lockwood wins the internal competition, they will rate him higher and consider him as a potential warrior to break through and reach the Black Mark Warrior.

...

McClain Main House:

A few hours ago,

After leaving the house, Kane immediately went to the wine tavern to meet the old man.

He entered that tavern with anger.

The shop owner and staff already got familiar with him.

So they allowed him to enter.

Kane quickly entered the basement where the Blood Shadow Force hideout is.

When he reached down.

He saw the same shabby old man behind the desk.

He is still cleaning the already cleaned glasses.

The next second, the anger on his face disappeared.

He knows the strength of the old man here.

He is just an ant in front of him.

The other hand, the old man noticed him.

Then a hint of displeasure flashes in his eyes.

“Even after explaining dozens of times, he is still coming back,” The old man said in his heart.

Time stopped for Kane.

He keeps looking at the old man.

But the old man is not responding to him at all.

Time went by,

After a few hours, the old man started to feel annoyance.

He looked towards Kane.

He asked, “What are you here for again?”

Hearing that Kane felt relieved.

He then asked, “Elder, I got the news that Zack Lockwood had a breakthrough.

Now he is participating in the SS-Elite Competition.”

Hearing that the old man was calm.

But he asked, “So what?”

“I have told you before that the organization will take action when it’s the right time,” He added.

Kane snorted in his heart.

He is tired of hearing the same old reason from the old man.

While they are waiting for the chances.

The other hand, Zack Lockwood’s student is getting stronger.

Nowadays, the Federation Head is showing interest in him.

The Federation Head has several connections in the Tier-4 City.

As long as Zack Lockwood shows good performance, it’s easy for him to recommend.

Which he doesn’t want to see happen.

They have already gotten on the bad side of the Elder Lowell.

If his student becomes the same as him, then it will be dangerous for their McClain House.

The other hand, the old man understands the worry of Kane.

For his sake, he opened the account book.

Which appears to be blank.

After a few seconds, red writing starts to appear on it.

The old man starts flipping the page before the profile of Zack Lockwood appears on it.

The information recorded on the page shows there were no recent updates.

Which means there were no new orders given by the elders in the organization.

For the first time, a hint of confusion flashes in the old man's eyes.

He knows that the incomplete missions are taken seriously by the higher ups.

If it's a high profile one, they will show more interest.

He looked at Kane with a hint of surprise flashes in his eyes.

The old man said, "There is no new information yet."

Hearing that Kane was surprised.

He didn't expect that old man to answer.

"No information?" Kane muttered to himself.

He may be silent outside but his heart is boiling with anger.

He can't even show his anger in front of the old man.

"Should I go back?" He asked himself.

He then noticed that the old man started cleaning the glasses again.

Seeing that his mouth twitched.

Then he decided to leave.

The old man has already checked the account book for him.

He doesn't want to piss him off further.
