Chapter 851: Reward: Bone Strengthening Pill

From MC's Perspective:

Top floor,

"Here take this reward," After saying that Ben placed a silver box on the table.

Seeing that I took the Silver Box and stored it in my storage ring.

Ben said,"Don't you want to ask about the reward.

Kid, it's the bone strengthening pill.

The Pill was made by using rare herbs.

It was only given to heirs of certain family to make their foundation solid."

"The top families and clans have their own recipes of the Bone Strengthening Pill.

The Kite Family's Pill is undoubtedly one of the best."

"So much so that their family warriors can fight against the Giant Tower Academy Warriors without any problem," He added.

Hearing that my eyes lit with surprise.

I thought it's going to be a random reward.

But I didn't expect the Kite Family to give it to their family.

Was it Head Ben's thoughts?

I looked at him.

Ben saw through his thoughts and shook his head.

"I know what you are thinking.

I didn't contact the Kite Family.

Their Clan Elder told me himself.

It can be said that he wants to make friends with you," He said.

A look of understanding dawned on me.

"I'm grateful," I replied.

At the same time, my heart filled with ecstasy.

I was finding ways to improve my body strength.

This Pill has come at the right time.

Especially the Pill improves bone strength.

Which is more useful to me.

“What do you want to do next?” Head Ben asked.

He thinks that development of Zack Lockwood is going smoothly.

Even though Lowell and Robbie are not here.

It doesn't affect the training speed of Zack.

The other hand, I decided to report about the Perry Family incident.

“A few days ago, I was targeted by 2 SSS-ELITE Warriors of Perry Family,” After saying that I continued to tell everything.

A few minutes later,

The expression of Head Ben's face changes.

“Damn it,” Ben cursed out in a low tone.

Just now he was glad that Zack's progression was going smoothly.

But he wasn't expecting to hear such a news.

Which shows the lack of intelligence gathering capacity on the Federation side.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

“Why didn’t you inform me before?” Ben asked.

Hearing that my eyes flashes with helplessness.

“I don’t know whom to trust.

One of the guards stationed in the Delta City Teleportation Platform was acting strange.

After seeing that I have decided to wait for you,” I answered.

“Good,” Ben nodded his head.

He can see that one of their members knowingly passed the information to others.

It’s also one of the weaknesses of the Federation.

Federation got members from all parts of the inner post region.

They can’t stop the members from sharing information back to the Family.

Federation is just a Military Force to protect Humanity.

The participation of the warriors is important.

“This is a complex situation.

It involves many things.

But don’t worry, I will warn them.

You have also got that bead.

If they send any high level Warrior you can use it," Ben said.

Hearing that I nodded my head.

After some discussion, I left the place.

Head Ben tapped his desk.

"Supreme Elder of the Eclipse and Giant Tower Academy are b@stards.

To think they would stoop so low to target a SS-ELITE Rank Brat, their actions are shameless," He stated.

At the same time, he decides to pass the information to Star University.

They will definitely be interested in the news.

The University behind those 2 Academies are rivals of Star University.

So Star University is bound to be a natural pick for Zack Lockdwood for further studies.

Meanwhile,

After returning to the room, I opened the silver box.

Seeing a black and gray color pill.

A hint of surprise flashes in my eyes.

I'm sure that Head Ben must have checked its authenticity.

So I can consume it without worry.

After changing into training clothes, I entered the Essence Chamber.

I activated the basic mode.

The next second, a thick essence of world energy starts to fill in the room.

I sat cross legged on the center of the platform.

Then I took the Pill out to consume.

I stuffed the Black and Grey Pill directly in my mouth

I closed my eyes and started to focus on refining the energy I ran the blood method.

The energy goes down under my throat and starts entering my organs.

At the same time, the blood rune in my consciousness starts to flicker.

The blood red light appears above the bloodstream.

It starts to convert the bone strengthening pill energy into the mysterious white energies.

The mysterious white energies then start drilling into my skeletons.

Argh!

A small muffled grunt left me unknowingly.

Because the pain was tenfold compared to the previous time.

It's all because of the bone strengthening pill.

Already the crimson dark skeleton is becoming more dense because of the bone strengthening pill.

The skeleton strength is improving at a faster rate.

Which in turn caused the physique to break through the current domain limit.

Click!

The next second, a tremendous change starts to take place inside the body.

The whole body is undergoing another evolution.

Flesh, blood and inner organs are getting stronger.

At the same time, impurities are driven out from the body.

Which is forming the black sludges on top of the skin.

When the Pill energy was completely absorbed.

A mysterious rune flashes all over the skeletons before disappearing into the bones.

Then I opened my eyes.

I clenched both of my fists.

Boom!

A small shock force appears.

Seeing that I raised my eyebrows in surprise.

I know that the shock force was stronger than before.

Which means the Physique of mine was strengthened further.

Perhaps I will touch the limit soon.

I know the requirement of SSS-ELITE Rank Breakthrough is higher.

But this Bone Strengthening Pill has shortened the time.

I guess just like before, the Body Strength will break before the essence.

Then I noticed the black layer covering my skin.

Seeing that, I'm once again surprised.

I thought the impurities were less.

But I didn't expect the bone strengthening pill to drive out more impurities.

Then I stood up and turned off the Essence Chamber before walking out.

Now, I'm starting to understand why those young masters are so strong.

The Bone Strengthening Pill is one of the resources they are getting from a young age.

With proper training, they would improve faster.

A quick gleam flashes in my eyes.

After getting a bath, I have decided to train harder.

A few days later,

Colter Perry stays in his room with a haggard expression.

He has failed to find the corpses of his cousins.

He knows that it's futile to search any longer.

"Their corpses must have been eaten by the monsters long ago.

I should talk to the Father.

It's basically a waste of time to search any longer," Corry said to himself.

Then he called his father.

When the connection was established.

“Son, what are you doing?” A deep voice sounded from the other side.

Colter’s expression turned solemn before replying, “Father, we have searched enough.

We didn’t find the corpses of our cousins.

I think they were eaten by the monster.”

Quiet!

The next second, there was a small silence.

He didn’t get any reply.

Seeing that, Colter became more tense.

“Sigh”

“Then you should return to the Family,” The voice sounded again.

Hearing that, Colter was shocked.

He thought that his father would ask him to complete the main mission.

Now he wants him back.

"Father, what happened?" Colter asked.

"Our mission was exposed.

I basically received a warning from the Federation Head.

One of the Teleportation guard sharing information to us was got caught."

"I have ordered everyone to stop their actions and return to the family.

We will do something about the Eclipse Main Academy," The voice said.

Colter was petrified.

The worst thing has happened after all.

He knew the Federation people are not easy to fool.

But he didn't expect the guard to get spotted.

He revealed a bitter smile on his face.

"Father, what next?"

"Will they target us?" Colter asked.

"Don't worry, the Federation has promised us to let this one off.

Because the Federation is just a Military Establishment.

If they retaliate, then this will cause dissatisfaction with other forces.”

“But if we cross the line, there is no guarantee that the Federation Head won’t target us secretly,” The voice added again.

Sigh!

Hearing that Colter sighed in relief. He feels glad that he didn’t target Zack earlier.

“Alright, Father I’m coming back,” After saying that he ended the call.

Then he hurriedly starts to get ready.

A similar situation is taking place everywhere in Delta City.

All the Perry Family Warriors decide to go back.

Meanwhile,

Federation Head Ben received the news from his men.

They confirmed that Perry Family Warriors are going back to their family.

He became relaxed.

But he knew that it was just starting.

As long as Zack stays in the inner post region, he will receive more attacks.

He had already sent information to the Star University Elder.

He is hoping that they will give him a positive reply.

Chapter 852: Lowell is back

From MC's Perspective:

I was doing my actual training.

The SSS-ELITE Strength Silver Humanoid wasn't able to handle my punches.

After that consumption of the bone strengthening pill.

The body strength has risen further.

I can even defeat the Early Stage SSS-ELITE Strength Puppet without using the blood element method.

But it's a pity that I have yet to feel the limit.

"I don't know what's missing," I said in my heart.

Beep!

The next second, the sci-fi watch lit with notification.

Seeing that I looked at my sci-fi watch.

My inbox has received a new message.

I clicked open to read the message.

“Teacher is back!” I exclaimed in a surprise.

I was worried that there was no information about them.

Now a heavy stone fell down from my heart.

Swoosh!

I left the Puppet Training Chamber and returned to my room.

In the message he stated that he is on his way here.

So I decided to get ready in the meantime.

30 minutes later,

Lowell McClain was back at the HQ.

The Staff recognised and greeted him one by one.

After nodding at them, Lowell entered the lift.

He wants to see his student first.

Before coming here, he has received a message from Head Ben that something major has happened again.

He instinctively knew it was something to do with his student Zack.

Soon, he arrived in front of his room.

Then he pressed the calling bell.

Creak!

I opened the door and looked at Teacher Lowell.

"Teacher, you are back," I greeted him with a smile.

Lowell smiled and observed his student from top to bottom.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Because of the silver ring, he can't sense the actual strength.

But he can tell from aura that Zack has gained some experience and strength during this period of time.

Then he realized something and said, "Looks like you have started doing a mission."

"Yes, teacher.

I did one or two missions," I said in a bitter tone.

After saying that I sat on the sofa.

Lowell sat opposite to him as well.

Then he saw something wrong with his student expression.

“What happened?” He asked.

A quick gleam flashes in his eyes.

“I received a message from Head Ben a while ago.

He said something occurred.

Does it have anything to do with you?” He added.

The other hand, I solemnly nodded my head.

I said, “People from the Perry Family have tried to kill me.”

After saying that I continued to say what I told Head Ben before.

10 minutes later,

An uncontrollable anger burst out from Lowell.

Boom!

The whole room starts to shake like an earthquake.

I was caught off guard before stabilizing my movements.

“Teacher,” I exclaimed in a shock.

Lowell’s eyes turned bloodshot.

He didn’t lose control.

If he had done, then Zack would have turned blood paste.

The tremor was the result of leakage of minute aura.

But this was enough to wipe out warriors below Black Mark Level.

“The Eclipse Academy is going overboard.

I didn’t expect them to hate you so much.

Even the Gold Mark Warrior is willing to step down to order Perry Family.”

“I underestimated your enemies.

I thought the Blood Shadow Force would be troublesome.

They won’t stop until they finish their incomplete mission.”

“Now that Eclipse Academy has joined their Ranks as well.

The Blood Shadow Force is a killer organization.

It's wrong to expect anything good from them."

"But the Eclipse Academy and Giant Tower Academy are crossing the line.

It's too much bullying," Lowell said.

He can tell that like the Blood Shadow Force, the Eclipse Academy and the Giant Tower Academy won't stop.

The other hand, I remained silent.

I don't know what to say for a moment.

I never expected that the Main Institute of Eclipse and Giant Tower Academy would be this shameless.

Ever since I heard from Perry Family Warrior before his death.

I started to become more low key.

I knew that members of the Federation weren't that loyal.

Many are waiting to collect information about me.

The atmosphere was quieted down.

After a few seconds, Lowell broke the silence by saying, "Zack, don't worry.

I guess the Head has a plan to deal with it.”

“As long as you don’t leave the HQ, you are safe,” He added.

“HQ?” I asked back.

“From your information one of the Teleportation Platform Guard was responsible right?” Lowell asked.

Hearing that I nodded my head.

Lowell’s eyes turned cold.

“You know it’s a weakness of our organization.

We have members from all sides of the inner post region.

It’s impossible to avoid information sharing,” He said.

“I have understood it from this incident,” I replied.

Alas!

“Just leave this topic.

Do you have any doubts about your practice?” He changed the topic.

Hearing that my eyes lit.

Then I asked him about the cultivation.

I have yet to reach the limit.

Lowell smiled and replied, "It's easy.

You have to do more fighting.

If you participate in multiple missions, it can be solved easily.

But I advise you to participate in our arena fighting."

"You are the internal rank number one when it comes to the SS-ELITE Stage.

You can try challenging your seniors for a fight.""

"I bet there are many warriors who are still unconvinced with your internal rankings.

You can accept their challenges," Lowell said.

"Teacher, I'm going to write the challenge post right now," I answered.

"Good," Lowell said before checking his message.

The other hand, I started writing an online post.

I'm going to post it from my student account.

A few minutes later,

I wrote a detailed post before publishing online.

Not long after, both of us received a summon from Head Ben.

At the same time, the online post started to draw the attention of the warriors.

The name Zack Lockwood was especially remembered by many people.

They knew that person was the current SS-ELITE Rank Internal Champion.

So the warriors became interested and started to read the online post.

But right after reading the message the warriors erupted with a loud uproar.

Now they have realized it's a challenging post.

Chapter 853: Registration open!

From MC's Perspective:

We both reached the top floor.

Then we exited the elevator and went to Head Ben's office.

After walking inside, I noticed that Head Ben was sitting behind the desk.

He remained calm and composed.

"Lowell, it's good to see you back.

I believe Robbie will return as well,” Head Ben stated.

Then his gaze fell on Zack Lockwood.

He said, “You must have seen yourself. Zack Lockwood’s development has been proceeding smoothly.”

Hearing that, Lowell smiled and said, “Yes, I am pleased with his progress.

But Head, I wanted him to take a small risk.

So I asked him to challenge his seniors.”

On the other hand, I am not sure how to respond to the conversation between these two.

So I remained silent.

Ben presses the button of a gadget.

The next second, a big blue screen appears above the gadget.

On the screen it shows warriors’ reaction to Zack Lockwood’s post.

My eyes light up with a quick gleam when I see that.

Ben noticed Zack’s reaction and said, “You have not taken a small risk.

But there is a huge risk.

If your rate of progress is known to others.

Then hostile forces will not remain silent.”

Before the teacher could respond, I said, “Elder, if I continue to stay in the training rooms.

I am not going to be able to touch the barrier.”

“If I want to achieve the SSS- Elite Rank, the only way is to take on a mission or challenge others,” I added.

Lowell’s eyes show a hint of approval.

He thinks it is great that Zack can think for himself.

There is no reason for him to seek guidance from others.

Head Ben nodded his head in approval as well.

“It appears that you are very aware of your situation.

Then I will formally approve your challenge post.

This prevents anyone from considering cheating,” Ben said.

He then added, “I will ask someone to make this happen right away.”

The other hand, I sighed inwardly.

Now I am looking forward to fighting those Seniors.

“Now that your situation is resolved.

We can discuss those hostile forces,” Ben said.

Hearing that my expression turned solemn.

Even Lowell’s face was not good looking.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

“Head, I did not expect those two academies to go so far.

“Even the Golden Mark Warriors are involved,” Lowell said.

Sigh!

“Do not worry, I have reported everything to Star University.

I will receive a response from them soon.

But, in the meantime, we must be cautious,” Ben sighed.

“Agreed,” Lowell said.

A few minutes later,

After the meeting, I returned to the room.

The Head has approved the challenge post.

But I am not sure when it will happen.

I have to be prepared for that.

Meanwhile,

[The Official Statement: The Federation Head has approved the challenge post.]

When the news reached everyone's ears.

It immediately detonated like a blast.

At first, everyone thought that arrogant juniors were challenging the Seniors.

So not all of them paid attention.

Only the pissed off seniors have decided to teach a lesson to Zack Lockwood.

Now that the Federation Head has given his approval.

It was no longer a simple challenge post.

The Federation Head will pay attention to it.

Because of it, those who were not interested earlier have become interested in it.

Even the SSS-Elite Rank Warriors are surprised.

How many people are dying to get to know the Federation Head?

People are crazily completing special missions.

They are doing this to get the Federation Head's attention.

If the Federation Head is impressed by their achievements, their lives will be completely changed.

But here Zack Lockwood is getting Federation Head's attention effortlessly.

Every move of his causes noise.

Some people are jealous because of this.

The following day,

At 10 a.m., registration opened.

Many SS Elite Rank Warriors began registering their names.

How many of them will participate?

It has not yet been decided who will fight Zack Lockwood.

Nobody knows the rules yet.

However, it did not prevent people from registering their names.

Among the warriors who have registered their names.

Those who lost to Zack Lockwood in the internal competition had the most.

Last time, they were defeated by Zack Lockwood.

Later on, Zack Lockwood won top list ranking duels.

Now, Zack Lockwood has two achievements.

If they win against Zack Lockwood this time, they will not only regain their lost face.

However, top management will pay attention to this.

As time passes, the warriors continue to register.

But they are unaware that registration time is limited.

Meanwhile, Ben, the Federation Head, is looking at the blue screen.

Which displays an update on the registration.

More than 200 people have registered thus far.

Head Ben clearly understood something.

Many people are registering their names because of him.

They want to receive recognition from him.

He smiled knowingly.

Then he thinks his actions were a little selfish.

Everyone will believe he is wholeheartedly supportive of Zack Lockwood's promotion.

But these people have no idea who Zack Lockwood was.

If the public learns that Zack Lockwood is being pursued by the Golden Mark Warrior, they will be terrified.

After one hour, the registration period was over.

The total number of names now stands at 320.

Head Ben is thinking about the solution.

He does not want to ignore these warriors.

They have expressed their interest.

He has decided to organize an elimination competition.

Not only will these 320 warriors have the opportunity to participate.

Zack will have the opportunity to fight talented warriors.

After making the decision, he summoned the arena manager for the discussion.

Meanwhile,

The Perry Family was shrouded in clouds of gloom.

They have not only failed to complete the task.

But also offended the Federation in that process.

Because of it they have lost the chance to stand independently.

Hereafter, they have to rely on the Eclipse Academy.

Colter Perry was in his room.

He has been concerned about his family's future.

He can no longer act as a Federation warrior.

It will only be a matter of time before they receive the expulsion letter.

Chapter 854: Part 1: Reactions from all sides

Federation HQ,

The day for the small competition was announced.

It will take place two days after the deadline for registration.

Everyone was excited.

The Federation Head had a meeting with the arena manager and other staff.

He announced that all 320 SS-Elite Rank Warriors would participate.

The Arena Manager has his work cut out for him.

These days, he must devise rules while also completing the arrangement.

A day later,

Robbie, the Silver Mark Warrior, has also returned from the mission.

But the Federation Head gave him a special mission to complete.

So he will not be able to watch the duel.

Federation's activities can't be hidden.

The spies and family warriors have shared the information to other forces.

Everyone realized that Federation Head was going to develop their own warrior who was not tied to any forces.

It has sent alarm bells to some forces.

They think Head Ben's decisions were clearly biased towards one particular warrior.

There are other core members as well.

Unfortunately, no one could do anything regarding this matter.

Even the Federation's other core members are helpless when it comes to his matter.

Because the strength of other core members are SSS- Elite Rank above.

And Zack Lockwood happens to be a SS-Elite Rank.

So they can quietly watch the development.

If Zack were to be SSS-Elite Rank, the other factions inside the Federation who are backed by the Family would have caused ruckus.

But right now, they can only wait.

The Federation Head knew about this matter.

But he won't let the internal friction hinder Zack Lockwood's growth.

Ever since he used the recommended quota to recommend Zack Lockwood's name to the Star University.

Both of their fates are tied up.

They are sailing the same boat.

That's why he is also taking care of Lowell McClain as well.

Even though he is not getting any help from the McClain Clan.

His attitude towards Lowell McClain never changed.

Eclipse Academy:

The Golden Haired Supreme Elder was pissed off.

He gave a simple task to the Perry Family.

Not only they had failed in that but also exposed the matter.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

He knows he has completely offended the Army Federation by his personal act.

How does he know he has received warning from the Federation Head Ben?

"Hateful," He gritted his teeth in anger.

That b@stard reporter my name to his backer.

If they want to seek trouble, he doesn't know what to do then.

He did this because.

He was blackmailed by the Blood Shadow Force earlier.

Now he is more afraid of Star University.

He doesn't know whether the University behind would protect him against the Star University.

He then thought of something.

He is only part of the plan.

The Giant Tower Academy Supreme Elder was the one who gave him this idea.

"It's going to be troublesome," He muttered to himself.

He looks at the new report on the desk.

It's about the Small Internal Competition.

Normally, it's not important news.

But because of someone the event has gained attention.

"Zack Lockwood," He uttered while looking at the pictures inside the report.

"This brat has been lucky.

It's clear from the reports that Ben is developing this kid.

It's likely that he is going to recommend this kid to Star University."

"Damn it!"

“Otherwise, he wouldn’t have warned him by using the name of Star University as a threat,” He said to himself.

He is now sure that matter has gotten out of his hands.

He doesn’t know whether Star University has accepted the kid or not.

But as far as he knows that kid has a pretty good chance because of his special element.

Unlike other Universities, the Star University has many lightning type inheritance.

So the Warriors having lightning elements are always welcomed there.

Even if he personally went there to kill that kid, his end would be miserable without a doubt.

The Star University might seek revenge.

“I have no other way.

I should send a new report to the University behind me.”

“I’m sure they would respond, if the Star University was involved,” He commented, while a cunning glint flashes in his eyes.

If the University got involved in this matter, then he is sure that the Blood Force won’t be able to blackmail him either.

So right now he plans to kill 2 birds by using one stone.

For this he needs the help of the Giant Tower Academy as well.

They had caused so much loss to him.

He is going to bleed them as well.

The Golden Haired Supreme Elder has made up his mind to involve the University.

...

From MC'S Perspective:

Puppet Training Chamber,

“Lightning Bolt”

I used the lightning attack by shooting a lightning ball towards the puppet's feet.

In the blink of an eye, the lightning ball lands at his feet.

Boom!

The ball explodes, right after a thick bolt of lightning struck the body of Silver Puppet.

Bang!

Another explosion occurs.

The Silver Pupper was hit hard.

The puppet body blasted off from the platform before hitting the ground.

When the smoke was gone.

I saw the damage done to the Silver Puppet.

There is fist size hole in its chest.

One lightning ball has managed to cause this damage.

What if all other lightning bolts hit the target at once.

My eyes gleamed with a twinkle.

This will be my trump card against the Seniors.

Everyone online thinks that I got only 2 lightning sword moves and one finger move.

Those were all captured during the top list ranking duels.

But they don't know I have other techniques as well.

Most importantly, my skill proficiency was different than before. I have become stronger than my participation in the top list ranking duels.

I guess others in the top list ranking duels have become strong as well.

After removing the thoughts, I changed the puppet settings.

I have decided to use Sword Moves without using the lightning element.

I'm going to test my limits.

As time passed, I was pushed back without the lightning energy.

The puppet is taking little damage from my basic sword move.

Chapter 855: Part 2: Reactions from all sides

From MC's Perspective:

After completing the sword training, I began to anticipate the duel day.

Before the duel, I wanted to be in peak condition.

So I plan to rest one day.

A day before the duel,

The arena manager announced the rules for the small competition on an online forum.

Because this small competition will not be over in a day.

Because 320 Warriors are participating.

Everyone should have a fair chance.

So, the Federation Head had told the arena manager to reveal the rules the day before.

Shortly after the rules were published.

People started to notice it.

[Small Internal Competition]

[Participants count: 320]

[Competition Type: Elimination]

[Rules: 320 Warriors were divided into eight groups.

Each group has 40 Warriors.

Warriors who win advance to the next stage.

The loser will be eliminated.

[First Stage: The top 20 Warriors will be chosen from each group.]

[Second Stage: Top 10 Warriors will be chosen from each group.]

[Third Stage: Top 5 Warriors will be chosen from each group]

[4th Stage]: The top 5 Warriors from each group will be grouped together.

Then top 20 Warriors will be chosen from it.

[5th Stage: The Top 10 Warriors will be chosen.]

[6th Stage: The Top 5 Warriors will be chosen.]

[7th and Final Stage: The Top 3 Warriors will be chosen]

The small competition will take a week to complete.

Each stage will last one full day.

The management best wishes the warriors for the competition.

The rules are crystal clear.

Prior to the duel, the warriors can reach Peak Stage.

If they win, they can advance to the next stage as long as they are not seriously injured.

Meanwhile,

I read the entire rule in my room.

Since the rules are announced ahead of time, everyone can prepare for the duel.

A quick gleam appears in my eyes.

I had to avoid serious injuries.

Aside from that, I am fully confident that I will win this competition.

The Following day,

9 A.M.in the morning,

After getting ready, I went directly to the duel arena.

I know Teacher Lowell will be watching from a special box, along with other officials.

I assumed he would meet me before the duel.

But he had just texted me.

I can understand what he is thinking.

Those who are willing to fight hard against me will reconsider if he appears.

Since he is not with me.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Others can sigh in relief.

I walked towards the participants' room.

There are 320 Warriors.

A single room is inadequate for everyone.

I see that several rooms have been opened to accommodate the participants.

I just entered one of the rooms.

When I walked in.

I immediately felt multiple eyes on me.

I swept my gaze over everyone.

"Hello, there are already 30 of us here.

"You can go to the next room," one of the burly warriors told me.

Gasp!

At the same time, several people exclaimed in surprise upon recognition.

"He is Zack Lockwood!"

"Personal student of Silver Mark Warrior"

"The competition is happening because of him"

"He came to our room"

People began to speak one by one.

The burly warrior's face became darker.

He immediately backed away.

I ignored everyone before looking into the small chambers.

These small essence chambers were useful last time.

I do not believe it will be necessary for this competition.

Because of the nature of the competition, everyone will be able to fight one duel per day until the finals.

Then I walked up to the window and looked outside.

To my surprise, the spectator area was now open to others.

I can see warriors entering and taking their seats.

On the other hand, other warriors had complicated looks on their faces.

They did not expect to meet Zack here.

As time passes, the warriors cast a glance at Zack.

A 5 minutes before the start of the competition,

The warriors have all arrived for the competition.

Even the Spectator Area was full of people.

An elderly man dressed in a tuxedo appears on the platform.

He appears to be the referee.

On the other hand, Lowell and officials are seated in the special box.

From time to time, some officials are flattering Lowell McClain.

While other officials wait to see his downfall.

They do not believe Lowell's student can defeat veteran SS-Elite Rank Warriors.

Lowell ignored everyone's reactions.

The reason he was here to check the progress made by his student Zack Lockwood.

Although Federation Head Ben's words gave him comfort, he still wanted to see for himself.

On the platform, the referee greeted everyone.

"I believe everyone has understood the rules.

I don't want to waste time by saying it again.

So let's name the list of the 8 groups," The referee said.

The next second, the black screen above the platform started to assign the warriors into 8 different groups randomly.

10 seconds later,

The names have already been assigned.

The name list for each group appears on the screen.

Zack Lockwood's name appears on the 5th group.

Seeing that I began to check other names on the list.

Everyone on the list was a Peak Stage SS-Elite warrior.

What is more amazing is that they appeared to be over 5 or 10 years older than me.

A few minutes later,

The duels for the 1st group started.

The 40 Warriors in that group are already ready.

As the time passes,

The warriors fought their opponents one by one.

The losers are all eliminated.

Soon, the time for the 2nd group duel was started.

The First duel had no surprise.

They are warriors with 5 common elements.

I'm hoping someone with a special element will appear in this group.

Not long after during the 5th duel of the 2nd group stage.

A warrior used a mutated flame element.

The mutated flame element appears to be in green color.

Seeing that my eyes flickered with interest.

Not only me, others are excited as well.

He seems to be a famous veteran.

The mutated green flames coming from his palm have special characteristics.

Chapter 856: Part 1: Fighting against Colin Lark

From MC's Perspective:

The Green Fire elemental warrior was quick on his feet.

Everyone assumed he would use a long-range attack.

But to everyone's surprise.

He closed the gap between the opponents and slammed the green flame into his opponent's chest.

Boom!

The attack blasted the opponent off the platform.

Seeing that audience exclaimed in a shock.

Everyone in the room.was surprised as well.

The green flame has an effect comparable to that of a lightning attack.

This makes him more powerful.

The referee declared him the winner.

The screen then displayed the next match up.

Everyone's attention was drawn to another veteran warrior who entered the stage.

I expected everyone to focus on me.

But, after the first stage duel, I believe everyone's intentions have changed.

Everyone wants to compete with their own opponents and push their own limits.

Special Box Room:

"Veteran Warriors can also fight across ranks.

If they did not have the normal five elements, they would have gained more fame.” One of the officials stated.

Hearing that others had mixed reactions.

They do not know if he took aim at Lowell McClain.

But Lowell McClain did not respond to their comments at all.

The person who made the comment sneered.

Originally, they had work to do.

They would not have come if Lowell McClain’s student challenge post did not exist.

Time passed,

After a few hours, the fifth stage began.

Some of the group stages were completed in less than an hour.

It is because most average players are assigned to the same group.

So their duels were brief.

The display screen shows the first match up in the 5th stage.

[Zack Lockwood vs Colin Lark]

Uproar!

The next second, the audience exclaimed in surprise.

Because the most important match up came up first.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

“No way!

It is Senior Colin!”

“Senior Colin is a veteran warrior, but he has a narrow perspective.

During the mission, he injured several warriors.

“He will not show mercy!”

“Zack Lockwood will not be safe.”

At the same time, I hear everyone’s conversation.

My eyes gleamed with a twinkle.

“If that person is such a character, I do not have to show mercy,” I told myself.

Under everyone’s gaze, I exited the room and started walking towards the platform.

Special Room:

“Ha...Ha...Ha....”

“Finally, we have our rising star’s duel.

However, his opponent is not to be taken lightly.

I hope Senior Lowell has made medical arrangements.

Stand by.” A Silver Mark Warrior sitting next to the fat arena manager commented.

Hearing that, the arena manager broke into a cold sweat.

He was fine with officials making comments.

He knows Lord Lowell will not mind.

But it is different when the words come from another high-ranking core member.

He is hoping that Lord Lowell will ignore the rude remarks.

Lowell McClain was thinking about something else.

His gaze focused on Zack Lockwood.

After watching the duel, he will leave.

He does not have to put up with these guys.

On the dual platform, I stood in one corner.

Then I noticed a person appeared opposite me.

He has brown hair and eyes.

His skin is slightly tanned.

He is more than an inch taller than me.

“He appears to be more than five years older than me.

Then he would have some combat experience.

Which is something I should pay attention to,” I said in my heart

“You are Zack Lockwood.

I am surprised to meet our Federation’s celebrity warrior.

I will become famous by defeating you.”

“I hope you will surrender before I beat the sh!t out of you,” Colin said without hesitation.

My eyes turned cold.

Everyone heard what he said.

Hearing his statement, some of the audience began chanting his name.

“Narrow-minded, uh.

He seems worse than that,” I said in my heart.

The barrier then completely envelops the platform.

“Start the duel,” the referee signaled.

“I am going to pulverize you,” he stated as he charged at me.

I noticed that he did not use his element in his attack.

That means he wants to put me to the test.

I sneered inside.

The next second, I activated my perception ability.

His movements became crystal in mind.

This includes his first attack trajectory.

Seeing that I decided to strike at the last minute.

Colin, on the other hand, was taken aback emotionally.

“Why is he standing like a stone?” Colin asked himself.

He then considered the answers as well.

He believes Zack Lockwood was flustered for a moment.

He did not underestimate him, either.

So he wants to take advantage of this opportunity to end the match.

Gasped!

At the same time, the audience outside is gasping as well.

They don't know what's wrong with Zack Lockwood.

Many thought he was frightened.

But only those who are in a special box felt something different.

"Ho...Ho....,Lord Lowell, where does your students' confidence come from?" The Fat Arena manager asked.

The officials and other Silver Mark Warriors saw the confidence in Zack Lockwood's eyes which can be seen on the screen.

"That was not the face of someone who was afraid," While staring at the screen, an official muttered something.

On the duel platform,

"Zack Lockwood, you can go home," Colin said, raising his fist to punch.

“Just a little bit,” I murmured, observing his movements in my mind.

Just as his fist touches my shirt.

I sidestepped enough to avoid the attack.

At the same time, I slapped his cheek hard.

Slap!

The slapping sounded loud.

Colin’s head spun briefly before he regained control of his steps.

His left cheek bears a palm print of mine.

Quiet!

Everyone had quieted down.

The audience fixed their gaze on the screen.

They were expecting Zack Lockwood to be injured just now.

In the end, Colin was the one who got slapped.

Colin touched his left cheek.

He can feel the immense pain.

His heart was boiling in anger.

He considered ending the duel with one move.

But he was the one who received a face slap.

Chapter 857: Part 2: Fighting against Colin Lark

From MC's Perspective:

My bones are stronger and denser than before.

Even without the blood method, I can use more brute force.

Swoosh!

At the same time, Colin jumped backwards, widening the gap.

After returning to his previous position, he looks at Zack with hatred.

"You have made me angry!"

Colin said angrily, "I am not going to hold back anymore."

Boom!

The next moment, black-colored rocks of various sizes appear in midair.

This spectacle took the audience by surprise.

Those who knew Colin Lark understood that the fight had only just begun.

On the platform, I realized his earth element had also been mutated.

Boom!

He then shot the black rocks at me one by one.

Seeing that, I resumed using the perception.

I have not decided whether to use the lightning element.

If possible, I want to keep my cards hidden as much as possible.

Using perception, I noted the trajectory and easily avoided the first black rock.

Bang!

The black rock misses its target and strikes the platform.

On the other hand, I continue to avoid the attack while gradually closing the gap between us.

One after another, the black rock strikes the platform heavily causing dust and smoke to rise.

Everyone outside saw Zack Lockwood marching forward while avoiding the black rock.

Special Box:

“What is he doing?”

“He is not utilizing his lightning element at all.

Does he have any other plans?” the Fat arena manager murmured.

Not only him, but others had the same questions.

Everyone wanted to witness the destructive purple lightning.

So they only look at Lord Lowell.

Only he could clear their doubts.

The Silver Mark Warrior sitting beside the arena manager inquired, “Senior Lowell, it appears your student wants to train himself here.”

Gasp!

The officials reacted with surprise.

His statement prompted everyone to look up the platform to confirm it.

“Yes, he is utilizing the opportunity well.

His Senior can give him plenty of experiences,” Lowell replied, his eyes flashing with a hint of approval.

Hearing that the Silver Mark Warrior’s face twitches.

Lowell didn't know how many times his own student had surprised him.

After gaining the win and fame in Star Tower's Top list competition.

He thought Zack still went for a win.

But he is using the opportunity well.

He doesn't have to remind him at all.

His gaze then swept across the spectators.

He knows that Universities weren't connected that much to the inner post region.

But he knows they all have eyes and ears.

He hopes that someone at Star University is paying attention.

Otherwise, with the Federation Head character.

He knows he is not going to make a big deal over Zack Lockwood's challenge post for nothing.

Duel platform:

Colin Lark was flustered.

He did not expect Zack to avoid all of the projectiles.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

When the last one struck the platform.

He stopped using his attack.

On the other hand, I was just a few steps away from him.

Just as I decided to move closer.

Gasp!

A loud exclamation rang out from outside.

I furrowed my brows.

“Colin was right in front of me.

What are they baffled about?” I muttered.

Then I noticed Colin smirking.

He is not looking at me, but at the platform behind me.

Seeing this, I followed his gaze.

Then I discovered all the intact black rock on the ground.

None of them are broken.

A cold chill ran down my spine.

“Variant,” I said to myself.

It is really tough.

The black rocks have properties similar to metals.

They caused a dent in the platform.

“Ha...Ha...Ha..., I was worried for nothing!” Colin exclaimed, laughing.

“The platform was not as difficult as I had imagined,” he said, smiling.

The next moment, he looks at Zack.

“Now I am not worried about wasting my essence,” Colin said.

“My black rocks can turn you into blood paste,” he said.

The next second, he charged at me.

A quick gleam appears in my eyes.

I was concerned that he would control those black rocks directly from his location.

However, there was no such technique.

However, if he gets his hands on it, the situation changes.

If I am correct, he can use the black rock as the attribute stone.

They are fundamentally made of his essence.

If he does it, he will be able to fight longer.

But I am not going to make it happen.

Swoosh!

I see that he is approaching me.

I gripped the sword tightly.

His movements are perfectly clear in his mind.

Then I saw a sharp black rock in his palm.

He has done an excellent job concealing it.

If not for the perception, I would have missed it.

“Sly, b@stard.” My eyes became cold.

“Zack Lockwood, die!”

Colin aggressively raised his right fist to attack.

The spectators assumed it was purely physical combat.

Nobody noticed the tiny black rock in his palm.

Even the cameras failed to capture it.

Colin grinned as he brought his fist up close to Zack's face.

But Zack suddenly moved to the left, and his attack missed the target.

The next second, his heart was filled with fear of death.

His wide grin was replaced with horror.

Before he could turn around and make things right.

Slash!

I slid sideways and slashed across his chest.

It occurred in a split second.

The black blade sliced through the flesh like butter.

Pfff!

Then blood began to spurt from his chest.

Colin was caught off guard by the pain and injury.

He stumbles for a moment.

Smack!

Seeing that, I struck his head with the back of the sword handle.

Tud!

Colin collapsed to the ground unconscious.

Seeing that, I placed the sword back in the storage ring.

Cheers!

The audience then burst into a loud cheer.

They were astounded by Zack Lockwood's sword movements.

Everyone had expected him to use the destructive lightning.

But Zack Lockwood had surprised everyone yet again.

Colin was relying too heavily on his elemental attack technique.

If the opponent overcame that, he would face an easy defeat.

Chapter 858: A new conspiracy

From MC's Perspective:

Colin was unconscious and could not continue the duel.

The referee observes Colin Lark for a moment before declaring "Zack Lockwood is the winner."

Cheers!

Hearing this, people continued to cheer aloud.

At the same time, the barrier starts to lift.

I returned to my room a few minutes later.

Colin Lark was taken to the infirmary.

He suffered a concussion and a deep cut on his chest.

So there were no life-threatening injuries on his body.

I could see a shift in people's attitudes in this room.

I defeated a Senior SS-Peak Elite Warrior without using my lightning elemental power.

This must have made a deep impression on everyone's heart.

The majority of the warriors had left the arena after their duel was completed.

But I decided to stay and watch the remaining duel.

Maybe I can learn something.

Special Box:

“Lord Lowell, your student easily defeated his opponent.

He did not need to use the lightning element at all,” The Fat Arena Manager said.

Lowell smiled when he heard that.

When the hostile officials noticed Lowell’s smile, their faces darkened.

The Silver Mark Warrior, seated next to the arena manager, cursed in his heart.

Some of them came here to witness the embarrassment of Lowell McClain.

No one thought his student could perform to this extent.

Zack Lockwood’s duel proved to others that he is capable of reaching the finals.

This duel was a statement.

Several officials then left the room.

Clearly, they can not keep watching Lowell McClain’s smiling expression.

The Silver Mark Warrior soon followed suit, exiting the room.

He is going to pass the information to others..

Zack Lockwood's existence had long piqued the interest of many within the Federation.

They did not have the opportunity to do anything.

Even if they had, they would not act without a reason.

If Zack Lockwood had been a weak warrior with no talent, they would have caused internal conflict.

But Zack Lockwood's recent achievements have silenced their critics.

First, Zack won an internal competition.

Second, he emerged victorious in the prestigious Star Tower Top Rank Duel.

Many of their descendants have failed to accomplish this task.

So they can only halt any malicious behavior for the time being.

Time passed,

The duel ended just before nightfall.

Out of 320 candidates, 160 were chosen for the next stage.

Following the final duel, the spectators begin to leave the area.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

The Warriors have begun to leave as well.

Seeing that, I exited the room and began walking back to the HQ Tower.

Many warriors gazed at me as I walked down the road.

They are returning to their home using the Teleportation platform.

But they did not forget to look at me.

Seeing that, I sighed inwardly.

Without skill improvement, defeating SS-Elite Warrior with the sword alone is difficult.

Fortunately, the crimson fruit transformed my life.

It has increased my comprehension to an unknown level.

Soon, I arrived at the headquarters building.

The teacher called me the very next second.

Seeing this, I found a corner and took the call.

A blue screen appears and the face of the teacher appears on the screen.

“Zack, you did well.

There is a reason that I don't want to meet you right away.

But don't worry, I will tell you after this competition," Lowell said in a solemn tone.

Hearing that my expression changes drastically.

"Teacher, is someone plotting against me?" I asked back.

"You can think about it.

Since I was present today to witness your duel.

No one dared to act in front of me.

But I want to know who is plotting.

It will take some time," Lowell stated.

"Alright," I replied.

Then, after providing a few tips.

The teacher ended the call.

On the other hand, my expression was grave.

"Who could act against me?" I questioned myself.

Then I looked around before entering the building.

The staff in the lobby is staring at me

After nodding to them, I entered the lift.

I am not sure where this uneasy feeling comes from.

Do not tell me the Federation was not safe enough.

Soon, I arrived at my room and went inside.

Meanwhile,

The news of the first stage of competition began to make headlines on the internet.

Zack Lockwood's name was featured prominently in the headlines.

Each article included a duel video.

The video became popular on the streaming site.

Many people who were unable to attend the duel in person were able to watch the video.

The duel video began to attract the attention of other forces.

Blood Shadow Force:

The blood shadow force's killers also begin to watch the duel.

They were astounded by the sword movements.

Not only that, but the duel video began to attract the attention of the elders of the blood shadow.

Especially those elders who were aware of the incomplete mission.

Their expressions were darkened.

They are looking for a way to kill Zack Lockwood.

On the other hand, Zack Lockwood is performing well.

If their leader witnessed this, they would be beaten even more.

While they were talking inside the building.

Overwhelming pressure struck them.

The pressure is coming from none other than their Leader.

Rupert, the Golden Mark Warrior checked the video as well.

A few minutes ago,

Initially, he was looking for something else.

But a new headline caught his attention.

After watching the video, he wasn't able to stay still.

Clearly, the Eclipse Academy and the Giant Tower Academy were doing nothing.

He also knew that Federation Head was planning to that kid.

If that kid goes there, then he won't be able to do anything.

The next second, he spread his mental power and noticed that elders were gathered in the meeting room.

He released a massive pressure on them.

The elders continue to disappoint him.

No one was able to come up with a good plan.

He is going to instill fear in them.

So they would do something to lure that kid out of the Federation.

Chapter 859: Malicious gazes

Blood Shadow Force:

"I don't know what you will do.

I want that kid to be gone during this ongoing competition," Rupert, the Golden Mark Warrior instructed.

He had already gone outside several times.

He didn't want to break the rules continuously.

Otherwise, he would be punished by the backer behind him.

The oppressive pressure enveloping the room has disappeared.

Sigh!

The elders heaved a sigh of relief.

Everyone clearly heard the orders given by their leader.

Then they looked at each other.

The command was given to everyone here.

Whoever accomplishes the task.

They will get favor from their leader.

Maybe their own position can rise further.

After the incident, everyone left.

Though they are slightly injured.

They are not in the position to argue back.

Some of them have already thought of executing their leader's order.

The competition happening at federation is going to take a week to end.

They still had plenty of time to come up with a plan.

The Eclipse Academy:

"What in the world is happening?" The Golden Haired, Supreme Elder Stated.

This news can't be hidden from his ears.

As he had appointed one of the elders to keep updating him regarding Zack Lcokwood news.

After watching the duel video, his eyes flashes with jealousy.

He can be sure that Federation's Head is going ahead with his plan.

"This must be one of his plans to draw the attention of the Star University.

What a well thought of plan?"

"And kids are not ordinary as well.

He can defeat the veteran SS-ELITE Peak Stage Warrior by using basic sword moves," He said to himself.

A quick gleam flashes in his eyes.

Now he understands why Rupert wanted that kid dead as soon as possible.

This duel video has given him good knowledge about Zack Lcokwood's potential.

Anyone with discerning eyes can tell that Zack Lcokwood is a talented warrior.

"Should I ask them about lightning attribute growth type treasure?" He asked himself.

He knows why Rupert has demanded this type of Treasure in particular.

"Only with the Growth type lightning treasure can we attract this kid.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Because the Federation was not in lack of any resources," He murmured.

He then thought about approaching the muscle headed, Supreme Elder of the Giant Tower Academy.

It was all because of him, the previous plan had failed.

Now he can't use the Perry Family as he wants.

He can silence them.

But if the truth were to be revealed later.

He won't be able to escape the death sentence.

So he didn't do anything to the Perry Family.

They can join the academy as one of the allied families.

This much he can do.

...

From MC's Perspective:

The Following day,

After getting ready, I didn't leave immediately.

Rather, I decided to wait here.

There is no point in going ahead of time.

Teacher Lowell's words last night spooked me.

Which made me distrust the warriors in the Federation.

Shaking my head, I started waiting.

5 minutes left before the start of the 2nd day of the competition.

Then I started walking on the road to the duel arena.

At this time there are only a few warriors going to the same destination as mine.

Most of them had already gone to the arena.

After a few minutes of walking, I reached the arena on time.

When I walked into the familiar room.

I noticed most of the warriors who were here have passed the 1st stage as well.

On the other hand, the warriors distanced themselves from Zack Lockdwood.

They had witnessed their duel yesterday.

They don't want to offend him for no reason.

On the other hand, I looked at the dual platform through the window.

The Referee appeared on the duel platform.

Like yesterday, he gave a short speech before starting the duel.

From the 1st group, a fat middle aged man appeared.

He was dressed in a luxurious weather combat suit.

It gives a vibe of someone from a wealthy family.

Opposite to him, a slender looking middle aged man appeared.

He was similar to him with a nice combat suit.

When the referee gave the signal.

Both of them started attacking each other.

To everyone's surprise, they were fighting against each other without using their elemental power.

Which made them recall yesterday's duel.

On the other hand, I don't know whether to laugh or cry.

I guess everyone will follow the same tactics.

Yesterday's duel video of mine went viral.

Maybe some of the warriors wanted to repeat as well.

Time passed,

Both of the warriors are quite exhausted.

They weren't like me to end the duel in a few moves.

After exchanging the blows, they began to use their elemental power.

The slender looking man won the duel a few minutes later.

Cheers!

Seeing that people cheered out loud.

Shortly after,

The second duel has started.

This time there are 2 female warriors.

Like I had guessed, they have started fighting by using the weapons.

As the time passes, they have started to use the elemental power as well.

Their water elemental attacks technique attracted the attention of everyone.

While I'm watching the duel.

All of a sudden I felt something bad.

The next moment, I activated my perception ability.

Then I noticed 2 warriors were behaving unusually.

Instead of watching the duel.

They are looking in my direction while speaking to each other.

“Don’t tell me these warriors are planning to act against me,” I said to myself.

A few hours later,

It’s the turn of the 5th stage again.

Unlike yesterday, this time someone’s name showed up.

They went to the platform to fight.

But I’m keeping an eye on something else.

These two warriors are still staring at me.

“Should I confront them?” I asked myself.

Then I turned around and looked in their direction.

Both of them averted their eyes.

Seeing their behavior, I knew something was wrong with them.

Upon seeing me, other warriors were confused a little bit.

After nodding at them, I turned to watch the duel.

Chapter 860: Useless tricks

From MC’s Perspective:

2 hours later,

It was my turn.

My name showed up on the screen.

Seeing that I turned to leave.

Just as I continued to walk forward.

I noticed one of the warriors who looked at me with malicious gaze earlier also leaving the room.

Then I turned to look at him.

He wore a wide grin on his face.

Seeing his obvious hostility towards me.

I think someone had manipulated the match up.

After taking a look at him, I left the room.

Other warriors in the room found something wrong as well.

Earlier, everyone saw the small confrontation between them.

The warriors are not stupid.

They are thinking something is brewing up.

“What are you looking at?”

“Mind your own business,” The Veteran warrior shouted at everyone.

He was the 2nd warrior who showed hostility towards Zack Lockwood.

Seeing him speaking up, everyone was sure that something was wrong with those two.

People near him backway.

Then there are others who are looking forward to the drama.

Duel Platform,

[Zack Lockwood vs Raymond]

Under the roaring cheers of the crowd, I walked to the platform and stood at one corner.

The veteran warriors with cold eyes stood opposite to me.

The barrier starts to envelop the platform.

The referee looked at both of us before signaling us to fight.

Boom!

Raymond raised a black spear forward.

Which exerted a shock force.

Seeing that crowd let out another cheer.

In the previous duel, Zack Lockwood won without using his lightning element.

This time they are expecting the same as well.

On the other hand, I took the black sword and held it in my right hand.

“Good”

“I would like to see.

How can you win against me?” Raymond spoke in a threatening tone.

Hearing that I sneered inside.

I know he is going to use some tricks.

I shouldn't let down my guard in any case.

The next moment I rushed out towards him.

Raymond began to charge against me as well.

In the blink of an eye, we got close to each other.

Then I raised the sword to slash.

Raymond easily used the tip of spear to deflect.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Clang!

A metallic collision noise sounded.

The attack didn't stop after that.

Raymond then thrust his spear to attack.

On the other hand, the spear's trajectory appears in mind.

I swiftly side stepped to evade the attack.

Boom!

The next moment, the spear hits the empty air.

Raymond's expression turned grave.

He then tried to attack Zack by using spear moves.

Clang!

One after another, metallic collision noise sounded.

Raymond's face is turning ugly.

He wasn't able to land a successive blow.

The first attack was missed.

The second and third were also missed.

So this is not a mere coincidence.

"He got the real skills," Raymond said in his heart.

Then he recalled his task.

A cunning gleam flashes in his eyes.

Everyone was thinking that the duel was going to be decided by using the weapon moves.

But he is not going to do that.

On the other hand, I noticed some hesitation in Raymond's eyes.

Which brought me an unknown chill to my heart.

Swoosh!

I made a distance after the clash.

But I didn't see any unusual movements done by Raymond.

I looked at Raymond who was looking at me with the same smile.

“What is he planning?” I said in my heart.

“What happened?”

“Are you going to give up?” Raymond said sarcastically.

A cold glint flashes in my eyes.

Once again, I rushed out to attack.

Seeing that Raymond grinned evilly.

He gripped the black spear and decided to use his wind element.

They both got close to each other in a few steps.

Raymond infused wind elements into his spear.

The next moment, the black spear showed fierce glint.

When everyone thought they were going to use the same move against each other.

Screech!

The air tearing noise sounded from the spear edge.

On the other hand, my eyes turned cold.

I was expecting this to happen.

I saw him smirk.

It was only a fraction of seconds before our weapon was going to collide.

Raymond was confident that he was going to hit me hard.

“Lightning Wheel”

The next second, I used the lightning move.

A tremendous lightning wheel appears around me.

When the lightning wheel all of a sudden.

Raymond was startled.

The powerful lightning gave him a dreadful feeling.

Before he could retreat.

I rushed out towards him.

Raymond was shocked.

The Black Spear in his hand begins to tremble.

Boom!

A deafening noise sounded.

When the lightning wheel crashes into Raymond's body.

The lightning wheel explodes completely.

The next moment, the lightning power begins to destroy Raymond's body.

Argh!

Raymond let out an agonizing scream as his body flew backwards like a broken kite.

Then his body falls to the ground.

Tud!

At the same time, the black spear in his hands falls to the ground as well.

Quiet!

The audience was quieted down.

No one was expecting this turn of event.

On the other hand, I raised my hand and pointed the fingers towards Raymond's body.

I won't give him any chance to raise his head.

"Lightning Finger Technique"

I executed the finger move.

In the blink of an eye, a lightning ball appears at the tip of my fore finger.

The next second, I shot the lightning ball towards Raymond.

Boom!

The purple beam passes through the air before striking the body of Raymond.

Like a huge thunderbolt land on someone's body.

Raymond wailed in a pain.

The powerful purple lightning further destroys the body of Raymond.

He has received 2 of my attack directly.

He will be bedridden for sure.

Gasp!

A huge exclamation sounded outside.

But I didn't care.

All I wanted was him badly injured.

So that he cannot continue the duel.

If he gets defeated, his plan would fail with him as well.

When the smoke was gone.

I saw him completely motionless.

Then I realized he fainted under the attack.
