

BloodLine 99

Chapter 99 - Conversing

From behind, a monster is chasing me. From the front, the other one drew closer to me. As a result of this, both of them are approaching me. My mouth curled slightly. "At the same time, I'm going to cripple them." "It's like getting two birds with one stone," I thought to myself.

In this case, I've devised an appropriate offensive strategy. It will be a defensive offense.

Reckoning Circle is what I'm going to use. I'm hoping its range is enough to inflict damage on the Monsters. Both Monsters moved closer to me by one meter.

"RECKONING CIRCLE" I commanded.

The rune was activated by me. In the mind, the Defensive rune began to shine. As a result, around me, a lightning circle appeared. It has a 2-meter wide range. This circular attack has a lot of lightning energy in it. It is destructive power.

If you take a careful look at it. They will note that the Lightning Circle is violet in colour. Within a two-meter range, there was darkness. Violet Lightning is so bright that it appears to have absorbed all the day's light.

Even closer inspection revealed a small crackling sound emanating from the circle. It's just a terrifying deafening noise. Which reverberated across the region.

Meanwhile, two monsters' antennas detected hazardous energy. Two monsters' senses were screaming at them to get out of this place. It was, yet, too late. Everything that transpired happened in a matter of seconds.

With their gigantic bodies, the Monsters were unable to stop their momentum. Despite their signals alerting them to the forehand. The lightning circle collided with their head.

"Bang...Bang..." The roar of destruction reverberated throughout the region.

As the head of the monster collided with the lightning circle. Blood flowed like water from the wound. The delicate areas of its head had been busted. Parts were flying everywhere as a result of that.

The lightning bolt was unforgiving. Mandible, antennae, and brain are all missing. Because of the minor touch of its head region with lightning, it developed a hollow head.

The lives of the two Ant Monsters ended tragically. The Monster's massive bulk then collapsed. As soon as I realized this, I relaxed and ended the Reckoning Circle. I won't be able to apply this strategy against other Monsters.

It works wonders against Metallic Monster. On top of that, this Velariyuz Ant has a major flaw. Its two weak spots where its abdomen and head region.

"As long as I don't get stung, that is." I have the ability to wipe out entire ant colonies." I had a thought in my head. After then, without wasting any time. Blood Method was the first thing I started cultivating. I went through the same steps as before.

I sensed a rise in strength a few hours later. After consuming the energies of three blood essences, I came to this conclusion. It's only natural for one's strength to develop.

I'm keeping track of how many Level 1 monsters I've killed. It will be beneficial for future breakthroughs. But, I am aware of my skeleton appearance.

My white skeleton appeared to have been daubed with red paint. If I keep going like this, it won't be long before it turns into a red skeleton. The Blood aura has undergone several alterations, as can be seen.

It has now turned a dark red colour. It's being emitted from my body. I examined my sci-fi wristwatch. "I only have three hours," I reasoned in my head.

Then I made sure that neither of my auras was radiating. And I began to concentrate on dissecting the bodies of two Monsters. After a few hours, I returned to the location where I was picked up. A whole day was spent chasing down and killing monsters.

Particularly the last two Ant Monsters. I didn't get to know their strength as I did with the first one. But it was already too late. They died as a result of my actions.

I need to devise several strategies for dealing with various Monsters. As I was pondering it. I arrived at the location half an hour later.

Someone mocked me, saying, "It took you so long to hunt Simple Pseudo Monster."

Looking ahead, I discovered Ms. Tracy. She is anticipating my arrival. As soon as I realized this, I quickened my pace and approached her.

"Hello," I said, smiling. This time, I noticed there is a different four-wheeler. It appears to be smaller.

I was observing it at the time. But she's looking at me from every angle. My brows furrowed as I saw this. "What?" I inquired. Ms. Tracy had a different impression of Zack. She didn't pay attention to Zack adequately this morning. She concentrated on her driving. As a result, she couldn't tell the difference.

Then she shook her head, thinking about it. "Perhaps I'm mistaken about that." Tracy pondered in her head, MS. "It's nothing, Let's go back to the house," she replied, smiling.

They started driving back to the Station Town.

"So, how was the hunt?" Ms. Tracy said on the way. I was astonished to learn that since I had expected her to remain closed off. "No, I couldn't find that Boar Monster today," I answered, my lips twisted slightly. "But, utilizing a map,"

I added. I was able to observe the site successfully. Hopefully, I'll be able to kill them tomorrow."

She simply nodded when she heard that. She was expecting a response. She didn't inquire about Zack's training. She was aware of what was going on around her. For non-awakened folks, wandering about this area means suicide.

As a result, she assumed Zack was a newly awakened one. It's only natural for an awakened individual to practice, combating Pseudo Monster.

Yet, there is a flip side. In Zack's mind, He had opposing thoughts.

It seemed like she believed it. I'm not sure what her reaction would be. If I inform her. Three Level 1 Monsters were killed by me. And Peak level is one of them.

"It's fine if you don't find them," Ms. Tracy stated abruptly. But don't go hunting for them in other places." I grinned when I heard that. But, I enjoyed our talk. I'd like it to be stretched even further. As a result, I innocently inquired, "Why?"

Ms. Tracy shifted her gaze to him when she heard that.

She has no idea. It is acceptable to reveal the information. But, what if something happens to Zack? Mr. Craig Dawson isn't going to be impressed. Mr. Craig Dawson must give me positive feedback.. So that I can complete my internship and return to my Academy.