Chapter 991: Betty's easy win

Inside the blue space:

Betty Jones's punches, filled with special energy, caused the Avatar of Zack Lockwood to collapse.

The Avatar was not able to withstand the attack.

As time passed, the avatar's movements were beginning to slow down because of the injuries.

Though it was virtual.

It gives Betty Jones to judge what's going on.

Not long after, the avatar stopped moving.

Indicating that it has run out of the oil.

It can't fight anymore.

[Winner is Betty Jones!]

The Mechanical voice sounded.

Hearing that Betty Jones stopped moving and smiled.

Because the duel ended sooner than the previous duels.

The next second, her mind went blank.

She then opens the top cover of the chamber to step out.

Kian Ward was still standing there.

His expression was full of disbelief and surprise.

He has been keeping this expression from the beginning.

Seeing that Betty Jones is coming out.

His eyes flash with approval.

He had underestimated the human ancestor Bloodline warriors in other factions.

But seeing her, one of their members is doing well.

He couldn't help but think of truly strong warriors in their factions.

"Betty Jones, you have surprised everyone by ending the duel sooner.

I bet that Zack Lockwood can't wait to fight you," Old Man Daniel said with a smile.

Hearing that Kian Ward's mouth twitches.

He remembers the old man talking to him in a different tone.

Now he is talking kindly to her.

The difference is there.

"I hope it happens.

I'm looking forward to fighting him in real life," Betty replied with a smile.

I compared it to the other two bloodline warriors.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

She appears to be energetic, and not tired at all.

The old man noticed this as well.

Betty Jones then left the training room in a happy mood.

The Bloodline Faction Warriors have done well.

Kian Ward was next.

He was motivated by her and wants to improve his strength as well.

So he quickly left the training room.

When they are both gone.

The old man smiled.

He turned towards his staff and said, "Update every detail.

I hope that Zack Lockwood will be forced to reveal some tricks today."

The Bloodline warriors did well today.

Their performance will let others know about their member's strengths.

The members of other factions among the top 10 were paying attention as well.

The Bloodline Warriors are known for their Bloodline Power.

They are stronger than the average elemental warriors.

But this time, the Virtual Duel has surprised everyone.

Seeing them easily defeat the Avatar of someone from the Thunderflame Faction.

They were tempted to fight as well.

So those warriors who showed no interest earlier started requesting their faction elders as well.

...

From MC's Perspective:

After sitting on the sofa, I looked towards Master Austin.

Before he could inquire with me, I asked, "Master, what's with these bloodline warriors."

Austin wasn't surprised.

He leaned back on his chair and relaxed.

He then looked at Zack and said, "I told you there are some talents in other Factions."

"The Bloodline Warriors are one example.

Even the Average Bloodline warriors are comparable to top elemental warriors," He added.

Hearing that I agreed as well.

"How to defeat them?" I asked.

"You already have one arsenal.

Which is the growth type purple lightning seed.

You are now a top-notch warrior among the elemental warriors."

"Only warriors like Ronnie Seth are comparable to you.

But if you want to win against the Bloodline Warrior by using your essence power only."

"Then there is only one way.

You have to learn new lightning techniques and achieve mastery of other lightning techniques," Austin said, smiling.

Hearing that I found it reasonable.

Still, there is a lot to improve in my skills.

“Zack, you don’t have to feel bad.

You are not only a lightning-element warrior.

But a tri-element warrior.

In real-life situations, you can defeat people in the same rank, including the Bloodline Warriors.”

“But here we are talking about Virtual Duels.

So don’t put too much pressure on yourself.

I can see that you don’t want to reveal your blood element and healing element in the virtual duels.”

“Am I right?” He asked.

I raised my eyebrows in surprise.

Then looking at him, I nodded my head.

“Then if you don’t want to use your other two elements.

Then you can only improve your skills,” Austin said.

"I understand Master.

I'll focus on it," I replied to him.

To be honest, I'm already working on it.

It's just these sudden defeats of the Avatar have caused a sense of urgency.

Like Master Austin said.

In real life, these people can't be defeated.

Including the Bloodline warriors who defeated the Avatar earlier.

On the other hand, Austin saw Zack Lockwood lost in thoughts.

He smiled and activated the device.

The blue screen appears playing the virtual duel.

Where Betty Jones is pulverizing the Avatar.

"Jones Family," Austin's eyes flickered as he noticed the blue bloodline energy.

He then looks at Zack and screens back to back.

He doesn't know what to say.

He knows that the Jones Family is one of the top Bloodline Families.

He was surprised to see a top bloodline family member here.

He then saw Avatar of Zack Lockwood collapsing in the blink of an eye.

The blue bloodline energy has strengthened Betty Jones.

So much so that Avatar finds it hard to react.

Then he saw Avatar down on the ground and stopped moving.

“Easy win,” He muttered.

On the other hand, I recovered my thoughts and looked at him.

I saw Master Austin looking at the screen.

When my gaze fell on the screen.

I saw the Avatar mine disappear, and the Bloodline Warrior named Betty Jones was declared the winner.

“This?” I uttered in surprise.

Austin heard it.

He smiled and replied, “This girl got her Ancestor bloodline.

She has a powerful Bloodline compared to the other two.”

Hearing that I felt even greater shock.

I know there are different types of bloodlines.

But still, it's hard to digest.

How can they play with my avatar just like that?

A firm glint flashes in my eyes.

I have decided to reveal another lightning technique in the afternoon duel.

Chapter 992: Revealing another

Lightning Technique

From MC's Perspective:

After getting advice from Master Austin, I left the Golden Lightning Palace and started walking towards the Virtual Training Lab.

When I got there.

I saw that old man Daniel was waiting for me.

His face was full of smiles.

"What happened to you?"

"Did you watch the duel?" Old Man Daniel asked.

Hearing that my mouth twitches.

The old man knows about Avatar's consecutive defeats.

Then I noticed I was the only one here.

"What happened to others?" I asked, looking at the old man.

Old Man Daniel smiled and said, "We were waiting for the warriors from your faction.

But none of them were here yet."

I furrowed my eyebrows.

I was hoping to fight someone and use another purple Lightning technique.

So that Avatar can use the technique as well.

"But where is everyone now?" I said in my heart.

Then I turned around and looked at the entrance.

Just as my mood is getting worse.

Creak!

A bulky warrior opened the door to enter inside.

He is wearing the emblem of the Thunderflame Faction.

My eyes flash with a glint.

The warrior saw me and he smirked.

Seeing that I realised that this guy is deliberately doing it.

“Are you Sam Johnson?” Old Man Daniel asked.

The guy nodded his head and said “Yeah, it’s me.”

Old Man Daniel frowned and asked, “What about others?”

“I don’t know.

Maybe they will come later,” Sam said with a smile.

After saying that he looked towards Zack Lockwood.

His eyes flash with a fighting intent.

Old Man Daniel noticed something wrong.

He shook his head and said, “You guys can fight first.

We will wait for them later.”

Hearing that I opened the top cover and entered inside the pod chamber.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Sam Johnson smiled and he stepped inside the pod chamber as well.

On the other hand, old man Daniel said, "Okay, observe both of their fights.

I think Zack Lockwood will reveal some techniques."

Hearing that staff agreed as well.

They have seen how the Bloodline Warriors defeated Zack Lockwood's Avatar.

The news has spread across the Outer Hall and other factions as well.

On the other hand, I once again felt my mind go blank.

When I opened my eyes.

I found myself in the Virtual body inside the blue sphere.

The next second, the Avatar of Sam Johnson appeared on the opposite side.

Seeing that I began to observe him.

This guy is still smirking at me.

I couldn't help but feel something was wrong.

[Countdown starts 1....2....3...]

When the countdown ended.

I drew the black sword and started dashing towards Sam Johnson.

Sam Johnson's expression condensed.

He raised both of his hands and started firing the ice spikes at Zack Lockwood, who was charging towards him.

Boom!

One after another ice spikes coming at me.

Seeing that I swung the sword to shatter it.

When my sword comes in contact with ice spikes.

It shatters immediately.

I continued to swing the sword while rushing towards him.

In the blink of an eye, I deflected all of the ice spikes.

Sam Johnson's eyes flickered.

Seeing that Zack has managed to come closer.

He raised his hand to use the ice technique again.

“You won’t be able to do it,” I said before charging the sword with the purple essence.

The sword blade filled with purple lightning within seconds.

By the time Sam executed the technique.

I reached him.

As the ice wall starts to appear.

I released the sword beam.

“Sword Divide.”

A powerful purple beam shot from the sword.

Sam Johnson was caught off guard.

His earlier attitude was nowhere to be seen.

Ka#boom!

When the purple lightning comes in contact with the ice wall.

It caused an explosion.

The lightning bolts spread across everywhere including towards Sam Johnson.

Sam Johnson was so close to that.

He was too late to protect himself.

The explosion took his time.

Before he could realise it.

A purple lightning bolt struck his body.

Argh!

A muffled grunt left his mouth as he took the brunt of the purple lightning bolts.

The lightning power immediately starts paralyzing the body.

At the same time, it's scorching his skin and flesh.

He felt his whole body was on fire.

He is experiencing heart-wrenching pain.

The feeling of severe pain feels almost real.

Sam retreated in a hurry.

"Lightning Wheel"

On the other hand, I executed the purple lightning wheel technique.

A powerful purple wheel forms around me.

After executing the technique, I charged forward.

Seeing that Sam Johnson was not stable.

I directly collided with the lightning wheel into his body.

Ka#boom!

The purple lightning wheel explodes, and the impact force is so strong that Sam Johnson is hit hard.

Pfff!

Sam coughed a mouthful of blood at the spot.

The virtual effect was so real.

It shows how much the avatar took damage.

Argh!

Sam Johnson is experiencing the pain again.

He came here to teach a lesson to Zack Lockwood.

It turns out that he was wrong from the beginning.

Zack Lockwood's purple lightning power is something he hadn't faced before.

At the same time, I retreat backwards in time before the recoil effect could affect me.

Then I spotted Sam Johnson's miserable avatar.

There are serious injuries on the avatar.

He is now coughing up blood.

It's the right time to use the new lightning technique.

"Lightning Drop"

I performed the technique.

A thick purple Lightning ball appears in my right palm.

When the purple lightning ball took its complete form.

I shot the purple lightning ball at the feet of Sam Johnson.

In the blink of an eye, the purple ball reaches the feet of Sam Johnson.

Sam Johnson, who was completely lost in thoughts, didn't even look at Zack Lockwood.

Boom!

When the lightning ball comes in contact with the ground right before his feet.

The purple ball explodes, causing many lightning bolts to strike him.

Argh!

The avatar was completely drowned by the bombardment of the purple lightning bolts.

Sam Johnson let out a heart-wrenching cry.

This time his mind went completely blank.

The purple lightning bolts caused the Avatar's vitality to drop.

The avatar disappeared after its vitality reached zero

"Zack Lockwood is the winner!"

The Mechanical voice sounded again.

Hearing that a bright smile appeared on my face.

After today, I'm not coming back here.

Until I get a huge improvement in skills.

If I came here every day, it would be tiring.

Chapter 993: Sam Johnson's real face?

From MC's Perspective:

After winning the virtual duel, I stepped out of the pod chamber.

Then I found someone staring at me angrily.

The person is none other than Sam Johnson.

"Zack Lockwood, you are ruthless.

I was expecting a fair fight.

But you didn't give me any chance," Sam Johnson uttered angrily.

His complaint seems silly to me.

I didn't respond and looked at the old man Daniel.

"Where are others?" I asked.

"You tell me.

I guess something must have happened.

You should ask your elders about this," Old man said with a sigh.

He sighed because he had guessed the reason probably.

Currently, only top warriors can fight against Zack Lockwood in the same rank.

Like Ronnie Seth and the Bloodline Warriors.

Only the likes of those warriors can fight against him.

Sam Johnson was pissed off.

He is speaking to Zack Lockwood but he is being ignored instead.

When he heard the conversation between the two.

“Ha...Ha...Ha...,” He laughed out loud all of a sudden.

His laughter attracted everyone’s attention including the staff.

The next second, everyone’s gazes fell on him.

“Hey, kid.

Why are you laughing?”

“Do you know something?” Old man Daniel asked.

Hearing that I looked towards him as well.

From the beginning I knew something was wrong with him.

So what is he hiding?

“No one will come.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Because most of them already accessed your strength.

Apart from the bloodline warriors and some other freaks, no one else can defeat you in the Virtual Duel.”

“They had registered their names out of excitement.

But when it comes to duel against you, no one will come.

I was preparing to do the same as well.”

“But out of respect, I came here to duel against you.

But you made a sneak attack on me,” Sam Johnson said in a grievous tone.

My mouth twitches.

This guy definitely had something wrong with him but it was nothing dangerous.

I shook my head before looking at the wide blue screen.

The staff are all working to update the new details.

My purpose was to use the “Lightning Drop” Technique.

Let's see whether others can defeat or not.

But there is still time left.

I don't want to leave just like that.

"Zack, what are you thinking?" Old Man Daniel asked.

"Can I duel against the Avatar of those Bloodline Warriors?" I asked.

"What?" Old man Daniel uttered in a surprise.

Then he looks at the staff who were working on the updates.

"Why don't you come tomorrow?"

"By then my staff would have already updated the database," He said.

Hearing that I nodded my head.

I don't want to create difficulties for the staff.

They were all working hard.

I smiled at the staff.

"Then I'll come later," After saying that to him, I turned around to leave.

"Wait for me," Sam Johnson shouted all of a sudden.

Hearing that my mouth twitches again.

This guy is energetic.

Sam Johnson reached me.

Then we started walking together towards the Thunderflame Faction.

While walking, I realised I don't have any friends here.

Talking about the Friends, I hadn't made any friends after leaving Saw Scale Viper Academy.

I wonder what those guys are doing.

"The Outer Post Region's Pinnacle is already a ceiling for them.

If they want to get out of the place, they have to work hard," Slowly, I lost in thoughts.

On the other hand, Sam Johnson noticed Zack Lockwood's expression.

He shakes his head.

Before coming here, he had thought to teach him a lesson on the behalf of the ICE and Fire Palace.

Even though he accused Zack of a sneak attack.

Deep down he knows that he was completely overwhelmed by Zack's attack.

That purple lightning is something he hadn't faced before.

10 minutes later,

We returned to the Thunderflame Faction.

Just as we decide to part ways.

Sam Johnson extended his right hand for the hand shake.

Seeing that I responded with the same.

We did a handshake.

"I apologize, it's my fault.

People back in the Ice and Fire Palace were frustrated by your wins.

Everyone thought, including me, that previous warriors who fought against you were careless."

"But I know the truth now," Sam Johnson said.

Hearing that his bad impression disappeared from my heart.

"It's okay," I replied.

"Can we exchange our contacts?"

"If you need something you can text me, I heard you are not from the Tier-4 region," Sam Johnson said.

"How did you know?" I raised my eyebrows in surprise.

"People already dug up your details when you started winning the Virtual Duels," Sam revealed the truth.

Hearing that I don't know what to say.

There are so many things going behind my back.

"Well, it's true.

If I need help, I'll ask you," I said to him.

"Good," Sam Johnson uttered.

Then we both parted ways and started walking towards our own residence.

"Sam Johnson uh, is he naive or smart?" I asked myself.

Then I put down these thoughts before continuing walking.

Meanwhile,

The ThunderFlame Faction Leader Clifford and a few other Faction leaders were all gathered together and discussing something serious in the meeting hall.

"The newly appeared ownerless secret land is located close to our Star University.

We should explore the place before others find out.”

“We don’t have much time.

The spies will notice something”

The Faction Leaders discuss in a low tone.

“Why don’t we send our Zeroth Squad from each faction to explore the place?” The Faction Leader of the Beast Bloodline Faction asked

Quiet!

The next second, there is a pin drop silence.

Thunderflame Faction Leader Clifford smiled.

He knows that an old fox is targeting him.

He wants to create more tension between them and the Dark Variant Faction.

If Zeroth Squad from the 2 of the Faction goes to the new secret land, there is going to be bloodbath.

He is not sure whether they would eliminate the threats inside the secret land.

But he was so sure that the two squads would be against each other.

The fight between these 2 squads is frequently happening.

If they go to the secret land, it can be said as the final duel.

So Old man Clifford remained silent.

Chapter 994: Dean Jerome is back

Meeting Hall:

Just as the meeting hall becomes silent.

A projection of Dean appears.

The next second, the faces of everyone changed.

Even the expression of the Beast Bloodline Faction Leader condensed.

“It looks like everyone is seriously discussing,” Jerome said with a smile.

Hearing that everyone in the room understood that Dean must have heard everyone’s conversation.

Jerome swept his eyes across everyone before saying, “I have just checked the secret land near our territory.”

“It has restrictions.

Only the warriors below the Black Mark Rank can enter it.

So Each Faction can send one or two Monster Hunting Squads to explore,” He added.

Hearing that old Man.

Clifford's eyes flickered.

He sighed inwardly.

Thinking that the Zeroth Squad was spared.

But it changes nothing.Â

Because the Dark Variant Faction could target the warriors below the Black Mark Rank.

Nothing can be done right now.

Since the dean has said it.

He can only quickly arrange a quick meeting and then discuss it with the Main Elders in his faction.

The other Faction Leaders fell into contemplation..

Suddenly one of the Faction Leaders from the Medium Sized Faction stood up and said, "Dean, I think it's not good to send all the Monster Hunting Squads together."

"Already, there are conflicts between the different factions.

If they go this time, instead of exploring the place.

They could kill each other."

Hearing that other small and medium-sized Faction Leaders supported this argument.

They fear that Monster Hunting Squads from the top 10 Faction might eliminate their small and fewer teams.

If something bad happens to them, it could lead them to disband their faction.

In return, it would benefit the top 10 factions.

Because the University doesn't have to distribute resources to extra factions.

That's the main fear of these Small and Medium Sized Factions.

They are usually at risk of disbanding in any situation.

But this exploration mission is something.

It could put every small team in danger.

So the small and medium-sized factions are standing United against the Top 10 Factions.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

"Humph, idiots," The Leader, Beast Bloodline Faction muttered.

Simultaneously, the other top 10 Faction Leaders responded with an arrogant attitude.

They say these small and medium-sized Factions are leeches which are sucking the resources of the Star University.

If they don't want to take risks, then there is no meaning in the factions.

Quarrel!

A small commotion takes place as the bickering and quarrels start to happen.Â

Clifford, the Head of the Thunderflame Faction shakes his head.

Even though he doesn't support these small and medium-sized factions.

But he can understand their genuine concerns.

Dean Jerome watches everything in silence before uttering, "Quiet"

His words fell like a thunderclap in everyone's ears.

Then everyone sat back in their seats and looked at the Dean.

They know the power of the Dean.

The voice just now made many Purple Rank and Half-Step RedÂ Rank Leaders shudder.

Dean Jerome then said, "Did you guys forget the real purpose of the Faction?"

It's not just developing Monster Hunting Squads.

Quiet!

Hearing that hall becomes silent once again.

Everyone remembered the main purpose of these Factions.

Even the Leader, Beast Bloodline Faction furrowed his eyebrows.Â Â

Seeing that everyone has come to their senses.

Dean Jerome said, “I understand the troubles of the small and medium-sized factions.

So let the Monster Hunting Squads from one faction explore first.

They will have a day to explore.”

“On the second day, let the next faction explore.

In that way, let each faction have one day to explore the secret land,” He added.

Hearing that, the small and medium-sized factions immediately agreed.

On the other hand, the top 10 factions showed dissatisfaction.

Because in this way it would take a lot of time to explore.

If they take longer,Â the news could leak.

So they have to be careful in their operations.

Clifford, the Faction Leader of Thunderflame Faction, was happy with the result.

In this way, everyone could avoid the bloodbath.Â

Their ultimate purpose is to explore the secret land, not to kill each other.

If people want to kill, then there are several other places.

The Other Top 10 Faction Leaders reluctantly agreed as well.

If their warriors return safely, it's also good for them.

"Then which faction goes first?" Jerome asked.

The Small and Medium Factions' Leaders' gazes fell on the Top 10 Faction Leaders.

But they are staying silent.

The Secret Lands are not ordinary places.

Each secret land comes with a risk.

They don't know what kind of monsters are living in it.

The First Squad, which dares to go there, have to face all the dangers by themselves.

If someone comes out alive, they can pass the information to others.

So the next squad can be readily prepared.

So selecting the First Monster Hunting Squad is not going to be easy.

There is going to be a mortality rate.

So the Top 10 Faction Leaders are looking at each other.

If it were Black Mark Warrior and above, these Leaders wouldn't worry this much.

But the Dean is asking for warriors below Black Mark Rank to enter.

Faction Leader Clifford was silent.

He is recalling the warriors that he knows of in his mind.

Suddenly, the image of Zack Lockwood comes to his mind.

The recent news regarding Zack Lockwood was reported to him daily as well.

He knows that Austin had given growth-type purple lightning seed to Zack Lockwood.

And the fusion was complete.Â

He knows the power of the purple lightning after its fusion with growth-type purple lightning seed.

So he thinks Zack can fight across the ranks.

Because he knows Zack has two more elements as well.Â

With blood and healing elements, he thinks Zack has more chances to survive.

But he doesn't know whether Austin or Ann will agree with him.Â

Dean Jerome decides to select the faction on his own.

He said, "Alright, I'll select the faction first.

The First Team, which is going to explore the secret land, is going to be from the Thunderflame Faction."

Hearing that everyone turned towards Clifford.

The old man Clifford was shocked but still nodded his head to the Dean.

Chapter 995: Best Team?

Thunderflame Faction:

After the meeting was over, the faction leader Clifford returned to his faction and immediately called for the meeting.

He wants to convince others to arrange the best team possible in a short time.

Shortly afterwards,

One after another the Main Elders appeared inside the room.

Elder Leola was the last one to appear.

When everyone was gathered.

Clifford swept his eyes across everyone before saying, "We have discovered a new secret land close to our territory.

Dean Jeremy found out that only warriors below Black Mark Rank can enter inside to explore it."

"What?"

"A new secret land," Austin was the first one to express his surprise.

Elder Cathy and Leola were relatively calm.

Elder Ann was surprised as well.

"Yes, it is....," Then the faction leader proceeds to speak about what they have discussed in the meeting.

A few minutes later,

Everyone's expression was solemn.

They didn't expect the Faction Leader to drop the bombshell.

Everyone knows that the first team who is going to explore an unknown land will face more dangers than others.

Right now, the Dean has ordered their faction leader to send a team from their faction.

“Let’s make a team of 10 members.

Ranging from SSS-ELITE to General Rank,” Clifford said.

Hearing that everyone starts to think about their strongest members.

Austin suddenly found the gaze of the faction leader on him.

He furrowed his eyebrows and asked, “Leader, do you have something to tell me?”

Hearing that Elder Ann, Cathy and Leola turned towards them as well.

“Austin, I have been hearing a lot about your disciple Zack Lockwood.

He is doing great in the Virtual Training Lab as well.

So why don’t we add his name to the Exploration Squad?” Clifford asked.

“Impossible,” Austin immediately refuted by saying that.

He knew how high the mortal rate would be in this type of mission.

There is no need for his disciple to take risks in this type of mission.

Elder Ann was shocked as well.

She didn’t expect the Faction Leader to have this much interest in Zack Lockwood.

“Faction Leader, Zack Lockwood had no prior experience.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

The risk of him dying is very high,” Ann said after some careful thought.

Leola and Cathy are surprised.

They, too, heard about the recent activities of Zack Lockwood.

Their palace members suffered the most.

“I know you guys are worried about his safety.

But I feel the chances of him surviving are a lot compared to others.

He is the one with the three elements.

One of them being the healing element.”

“Which is very important in this type of mission,” Clifford said.

Austin remained silent.

He considered the leader’s words.

In this current situation, Zack Lockwood is indeed stronger than most of their members below the Black Mark Rank.

“Elder Leola, Cathy, what do you guys think?”

“Do you have any strong talents below the Black Mark Rank?” Clifford asked.

“We have some emerging talent in our palace,” Leola said.

“My ICE and FIRE palace have a few talented people as well,” Cathy said as well.

“Well, I want 10 members to be ready by next morning.

I hope you guys take this matter seriously,” After saying that, he left.

The Main Elders fell into deep contemplation.

“It’s not easy to explore the unknown secret land.

I can already predict that half of the people won’t be able to survive,” Austin said with a sigh.

The Faction Leader said it casually.

But he knows there is bound to be some life loss in this type of mission.

So he naturally doesn’t want Zack Lockwood to participate.

But the Faction Leader’s words made it more complex.

He certainly thinks that Zack Lockwood can save himself and others.

In this way, they can avoid casualties.

"I heard that kid is doing well except for his avatar defeat against the Bloodline Warriors," Leola said all of a sudden, attracting everyone's attention.

"Zack wants to fight by using the lightning element.

He doesn't want to expose the other two elements in front of others," Austin said.

"I somewhat agree with the Faction Leader's words," Leola said.

Austin's eyes flash with a cold glint.

"What do you mean?" He asked.

"Don't get angry.

I think my palace warriors would be safe under the kid.

I hope you two can agree to send him as well," Leola said.

"This...", "Elder Ann was surprised.

She was surprised to see Leola making a request.

She won't do this normally.

"You guys, I want to make the same request as well.

If the kid is around, he can protect others as well.

With his presence, we can avoid many casualties.”

“I hope you two send him as well,” Cathy said.

Austin raised his eyebrows in surprise.

He doesn’t know what to say.

Two of his colleagues are making such a request.

Elder Ann thought for a moment before saying, “Why don’t we ask that kid?”

“If he is interested, we can add his name to the team,” She added.

Austin sighed inwardly.

He knows it would be difficult to block Zack Lockwood forever.

“Okay, I’ll ask him,” Austin said.

“Let’s finalize the other members,” Cathy said with a smile.

The problem troubling her mind was gone.

With Zack Lockwood’s purple lightning power, she thinks others can be at ease.

Meanwhile,

Inside the Virtual Training Lab, another team of warriors are fighting the Avatar of Zack Lockwood.

Especially after Avatar showed the new lightning technique, “The Lightning Drop”

This time the team is not from the Bloodline Faction.

Rather it’s a team from the elemental faction called Blazing Fire Faction.

The warriors from this faction are the fire elemental user.

They are strong fire elemental warriors compared to other factions.

Their Fire Element can cause severe damage across ranks.

Currently, one of the fire element warriors who is using Avatar is fighting against Zack Lockwood’s avatar.

His fire element is confronting against the purple lightning element.

But his fire element’s power is not enough to overwhelm the purple lightning element.

To dispel a bolt of purple lightning, he is using more fire element essence.

Chapter 996: Meeting 5th Squad

Virtual Training Lab:

After a few hours,

The warriors from the Blazing Fire Faction were pressing hard.

Yet they weren't able to defeat the Avatar of Zack Lockwood.

The Avatar once again triumphs by using the abnormal power of the purple lightning.

...

From MC's Perspective:

Late at night, I decided to go to bed early.

But before that, I sent a message to Elder Ann.

I don't want to continue Virtual Training for the time being.

I hope she can end the task.

In that way, I can focus on improving myself.

The Avatar's defeat against the Bloodline Warriors has awakened me.

Instead of competing inside the Thunderflame Faction, my goal should be the entire Star University and the Tier-4 region.

After sending the message, I turned off the lights and walked towards the bed.

Beep!

Suddenly, I received a message.

I turned my gaze towards the watch.

Then I found out the person who sent the message was none other than Master Austin.

I raised my eyebrows.

I don't know what he is planning.

He does a lot of things without telling me.

I hope he hasn't arranged for anyone to fight against me.

Then I opened the message to read it.

A few seconds later,

My expression was full of doubts.

Master Austin wants my presence in the Golden Lightning Palace at 6 am.

I don't know what's going on.

Certainly, he is not asking me to come there to practise.

"What's it about?" I asked myself.

Beep!

Just as I touched the screen to dismiss the message.

I received one more message.

This time, it was the reply from Master Ann.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Seeing that I opened the message to read it.

In that message, she agreed to my words.

She will put an end to the ongoing task.

And she wants me to focus on the cultivation.

If I want help from the Virtual Training Lab, I can go there again.

But at the end of the message, she also mentioned that I should be present in the Golden Lightning Palace at 6 am.

"Something is going on.

And my gut feeling tells me that it's not simple," I said in my heart.

But I don't want to waste time pondering.

I can find out in the morning in any way.

So I went to sleep.

The following day,

After getting ready, I left the residence 10 minutes before 6 am.

I woke up 2 hours earlier to cultivate.

I don't know what's going on.

But I feel it's necessary to have my purple essence reserve full.

Soon, I arrived at the Golden Lightning Palace.

The door opened before I could knock it.

I walked inside.

Then I noticed 3 warriors standing in front of me.

I can sense that all three of them are above the SSS-ELITE Ranks.

Upon hearing my footsteps, three of them turned to look at me.

One of them is female.

The other 2 were male warriors.

From their looks, it can be said that they are slightly older than me.

"You are Zack Lockwood, right."

"I'm Aby from 5th Monster Hunting Squad," The female warrior introduced herself.

"Yes, I'm Zack Lockwood.

Currently, I'm in 20th Monster Hunting Squad," I responded to the woman who has orange hair and brown eyes.

Her appearance is striking.

I don't know whether she has dyed her hair or not.

"Oh, so you are from that trash Dan's Squad," A Black haired warrior said in a mocking tone.

My eyes flickered.

Then I turned to look at the person.

"What are you looking at?"

"The 20th Squad is the weakest in our palace.

Dan has failed to improve the team's rankings.

Now he has another burden to carry on."

"I doubt whether he has the energy to take care of his team anymore," The warrior said again.

“Remi, you are too much.

Don’t forget that Elder Austin mentioned his name.

He is going along with us as well,” Aby said in a cold tone.

“Why are supporting trash from the 20th Squad?” At this time, the last one joined as well.

He has brown short hair and eyes.

His face looked rugged.

“We are from the same palace,” Aby retorted.

These three were all from the same monster-hunting squad team.

The infamous 5th team.

They were generally not bad people.

But they looked upon weak teams.

Especially those who are not helping the reputation of the Golden Lightning Palace.

On the other hand, my eyes flashed with anger.

Indeed, I’m not an actual member of the 20th Squad.

Master has arranged me in that team for the time being.

But it's still not right for them to criticize this harshly.

Everyone is working hard.

It looks like I have to pay attention to team bonding as well.

After the secret land mission, I forgot about them.

"Why are you not convinced?" The rugged person said.

"Just forget it, Rayon," Remi said.

Aby was shocked when she saw Elder Austin coming towards them.

She shakes her head in disappointment.

This little drama didn't go unnoticed under Austin's eyes.

He knows that others don't know about the Master-Disciple relationship between him and Zack Lockwood.

Otherwise, these 2 won't dare to say anything bad.

He walks up to them.

His gaze fell on Zack Lockwood before saying, "Zack, they are from the 5th Squad.

The Top 5 Squads in our palace have Silver Mark and Gold Mark Warriors.”

“It’s not easy to get a place in such a team where you work alongside Silver Mark Warriors and Gold Mark Warriors.

That’s why these two were a little arrogant,” Austin said casually.

But from the outside, they can feel that he is angry.

“Elder, I have warned them.

But they never listen to me,” Aby complained.

Remi and Rayon showed troublesome expressions.

They didn’t expect their little actions to be seen by Elder Austin.

Austin looks at their expression before saying, “You guys were unconvinced by him.

Am I right?”

“Yes, elder,” Remi said.

“And, what about you?” Austin asked Rayon.

“His rank says it all,” Rayon replied.

On the other hand, I can guess where it is going.

Master wants me to beat them.

Chapter 997: Gathered

From MC's Perspective:

"Zack, what do you think?" Austin asked.

"Elder, can you tell me about the mission?" I replied by calling him the Elder instead of Master.

Remi and Rayon smirked.

They felt that the guy was shocked and scared.

Aby sighed inwardly.

She doesn't want any internal fights, especially before the mission.

Austin noticed that Zack was not willing to show his strength here.

So he changed the topic by saying, "Let's go to the meeting all.

Everyone must be waiting for us."

Then everyone follows him to the meeting hall.

When we arrived at the meeting hall.

I noticed it was the same place where Elder Clinton and Sally brought me for the first time.

When we walked inside.

I saw there were warriors from other palaces as well.

Our appearance attracted everyone's attention.

I spotted the main elders in their seats.

The Faction Leader was especially present as well.

Suddenly, I found others were looking at me.

There are two male warriors in a blue dress standing below the seating platform of Elder Cathy, the Head of Ice and Fire Palace.

There are male and female warriors dressed in black clothes standing below the platform of Elder Leola.

She is the Head of the Black Flame Palace.

What's more surprising is that Master Ann brought her members as well.

Two female healers are standing next to her.

And everyone's strength is above me.

All the other warriors are looking at me with surprise.

If my guess is right, all of them are General Rank Warriors.

The Main Elders have picked the best of them from their Monster Hunting Squads.

Then I saw Master Ann smiling at me.

I nodded at her in response.

Without having anyone telling me.

I can guess what's going to happen.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

The talented warriors from each palace have gathered here.

Which could be only for one reason.

I guess we are going to do some missions.

I can also guess the reason why I was brought here.

It's because of the power of the purple lightning element.

Right now, it's not a big secret that my lightning element has garnered the name abnormal.

The Faction Leader must have heard about this name.

"Cough"

All of a sudden someone coughed to draw attention.

The person is none other than the Faction Leader Clifford.

He was happy to see Austin's Disciple Zack Lockwood here.

This mission is going to be a good test for him.

And he can judge the strength of the young man himself.

"Alright, I asked the main elders to gather ten talented warriors below the Black Mark Rank.

The Dean has given me a mission to explore the newly found secret land."

"No one Black Mark Rank and above can enter the secret land.

That's why all ten of you are going to work as a single team to explore the new place," old man Clifford said with a smile.

But his words fell like a thunderclap in everyone's ears.

No one expected the mission to turn out to be an exploration mission.

These warriors know the dangers of exploring a new place.

Especially if they are the first ones to explore without any support.

The mortality rate will be very high.

The warriors couldn't help but look at their main elders.

Everyone had an idea about the mission.

But never expected to be on this exploration mission.

Clifford saw the changing face of everyone.

“I know many of you are unwilling.

But trust me it was the Dean’s decision.

I believe these team members have more chances of surviving than others.”

“If anyone wants to step back, they can do it right now,” Clifford said.

Hearing that no one retreated.

On the other hand, my gut feeling tells me that there are going to be a lot of dangers.

But I’m not ready to give up.

Last time, I found a dark liquid source in the Ant Colony.

This time, I got another opportunity to explore a new place.

I wonder what treasures are hiding there.

“Good, since everyone is willing to do this mission.

Then let's not waste time," Clifford said.

Then he asked us to follow him.

I looked at Master Austin and Ann who were signalling me to go.

Seeing that I turned around to follow others.

After coming out of the meeting hall, I noticed everyone was walking towards the backyard of this building.

My eyes flash with curiosity.

I have never visited this place before.

I followed them.

Then a small airfield came into view.

A medium-sized Black aircraft was parked on the flight line.

A hint of surprise appeared in my eyes.

I knew the top faction had their aircraft and airships.

But it's the first time for me to see the airfield of our faction.

"Everyone get inside," Clifford said.

Hearing that everyone started to enter one by one.

There are 6 male warriors and 4 female warriors in total.

After everyone went inside, I was the last person to get inside.

"Zack, come and sit next to me," Aby said.

Hearing that I politely refused and found an empty seat near the window.

I sat on it.

Right after, one of the Ice and Fire Palace Warriors came up.

"You there, find some other place to sit.

I want the window seat," He said.

"No," I replied, calmly and tried to ignore his existence.

"You...," The warrior was pissed off.

Before he could say anything, his teammate stopped him.

"The Faction Leader is watching over us.

Don't create a mess," His friend said to him.

After giving me a last look, he found another seat to sit down on.

On the other hand, Aby noticed everything.

But she didn't say anything.

The last thing she wants to do is to create more internal fighting.

Remi and Rayon minded their own business.

The Black Flame and Healing Palace warriors minded their own business as well.

After everyone was seated and became comfortable in their position.

Old man Clifford started the aircraft.

The Aircraft rose above the ground quietly.

After appearing in the mid-air, quite above the clouds.

The Black Aircraft turned around and started moving in one direction.

Chapter 998: White smog

From MC's Perspective:

The Black Aircraft continues to fly across the sky.

It appears, though, as if something tears through the air, leaving the trails of white smoke.

A few minutes later,

The Black Aircraft reaches the barren land, away from the town and nearest city.

No humans can be seen anywhere near the hundred miles.

The Aircraft then arrives at the designated location in the barren land.

Where a white smog can be seen covering the place.

If not for Dean Jerome, no one would have found this abnormality.

Because the white fog was formed by the appearance of the second land.

It was not natural.

The black aircraft slowly lands on the ground.

Creak!

Then the old man Clifford steps out of the cabin.

He asks others to exit one by one.

The Warriors begin to step out one by one from the aircraft.

When everyone exited the aircraft.

I was the last one to exit.

After touching the ground, I ignored everyone's gazes and turned towards the smog.

The smog gives me an unusual feeling.

Usually, this type of feeling warns me of danger.

I hope everything goes well in this mission.

I looked around and found that the female warriors gathered together to form a small group.Â

Whereas the Black Flame Palace Warrior joined the Ice and Fire Palace Warriors.

Those three form a new group.

Which leaves Remi and Rayon of the Golden Lightning Palace.Â

I doubt they would invite me to the group.

So I'm all alone.

The next second, Remi and Rayon looked at me with a mischievous smile.Â

Like they were satisfied with the groupings.

I shook my head in response and turned towards the Faction Leader.

"What is he doing?" I muttered as I found that the Faction leader was contacting someone.

"You guys are all here!"

All of a sudden a deep voice sounded.Â

Hearing that everyone turned towards the source.

Even the Faction Leader was alerted.

The person was none other than Dean Jerome.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

Dean Jerome appeared in his real self.

He swept his gaze across everyone and said, "Well, everyone is here."

"I think we should start the mission.

What do you think, Elder Clifford?" Jerome asked.

"Dean, don't need to ask.

We were always ready," Clifford replied in a respectful tone.

"Dean?" Hearing that everyone was shocked.

My eyes flickered as well.

It should be me, but others are surprised as well.

Don't tell me they are seeing the dean for the first time.Â

But their expressions were genuine.

So it should be true.

"Good, everyone forms a line quickly," Jerome said.

Hearing that, the female warriors first stand in line.

Then the remaining male warriors started standing behind them.Â

I followed them to stand last in the line.Â

"You there, don't follow us," Remi said to me.

Hearing that my mouth twitches.

But I remained quiet.

On the other hand, Clifford watches everything.

So this didn't go unnoticed in his eyes.

"Young people don't know his identity.

If they know he is the 6th disciple of Austin.

Their attitude would be different," Clifford thought.Â

Still, he decides to tell Elder Leola and Elder Cathy later.

If their palace members are acting arrogant.

This won't help them or the Thunderflame Faction.

Dean Jerome saw everyone standing in line.

He said, "I'm going to give you the black token.

The black token will take you out after one day.

So don't miss it.

It's a life-saving item for you."

After saying that he passed the 10 black tokens to Aby.

Aby then passed the remaining token behind.

One by one everyone took their token and passed the remaining ones behind.

Finally, the token reached me.

I stored it inside the storage ring of mine.

Dean Jerome then turns around.

His gaze pierces into the white smog.

Then he raised both his hands.

A powerful mental power covers the white smog before he finds a huge metallic black door.Â Â

The metallic door was not in good shape.

It was damaged.

A little effort can be used to open the door.

By using his mental power, Jerome pushes the door open.

Boom!

A loud noise sounded.

Jerome then uses his one hand to cover the 10 warriors by using his mental power.

Then he pushes them inside the door.

When Zack Lockwood's back was gone.

He stopped using his mental power.

The next second, the door shut automatically.

This all happened within seconds.

Dean Jerome didn't look tired at all.

But old man Clifford was shocked.

He knows it's not easy to open the ancient door just like that.Â

He has a feeling that the secret land is not as simple as it seems.Â

Dean Jerome saw his face.Â

He asked, "Clifford, what are you thinking?"

"Dean, is there any chance that this secret land is not ordinary?"Â Clifford asked.

Jerome smiled but he didn't say anything.Â

Seeing that Clifford feels even more surprised.

He feels there is a reason why he wanted Thunderflame Faction Warriors to explore the secret land.

Meanwhile,

Inside the secret land, everyone got separated.

They landed on various parts of the secret land.

"What's this area?" I uttered while looking at the white smog all around me.Â

Now I understand where the outside white among comes from.

The secret land is leaking white smog.

Then I activated the perceptual ability.Â Â

My perception covers the area around me.

Seeing that perception was not hindered.

I sighed inwardly.

I took the black sword out and held it in my hand.

Then I carefully took steps forward to walk.

The ground beneath my feet is dark land.

There is no sign of vegetation so far.

Not even the weeds can be found.Â

As I continued to walk further, I spotted more and more black land without any vegetation.

My gut tells me that I have entered some danger zone inside the secret land.Â

On the other hand, the other warriors were facing their challenges.

They found themselves in a difficult spot as well.

Chapter 999: Colossal Tree Monster

From MC's Perspective:

As I continued walking further in this dense white smog.

The sense of uneasiness gets stronger.

Shortly afterwards,

I heard some movements ahead of me.

Hearing that I thought I was imagining things.

But as I walked further.

I heard the same sound again.

In this barren land there is nothing but dark ground.

What's causing this noise?

I became more vigilant.

Rustle!

The ground underneath my feet starts to shake.

I felt the tremor from the ground.

Like something is approaching me at fast speed.

I held the black sword in my right hand.

Then I started charging the sword with purple essence.

In the blink of an eye, the black blade flickers with a purple glow.

Boom!

After a few seconds, something comes out after splitting the ground.

It's a gigantic tree root.

My eyes flashes with surprise.

Because the tree root was black in color.

And the size of the root is the size of a massive trunk.

And it was the first time for me to witness such a black tree root.

Which totally feels abnormal to me.

Like it got a signal from the antennae.

The black tree suddenly shot towards me.

Cut!

I swung the black sword immediately.

The black blade comes in contact with the black tree root.

The blade easily sliced through the root.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

A small part of the black tree roots falls down to the ground.

Screech!

An abnormal scream heard from the long root.

The abnormal sound made my head dizzy.

This feeling I had felt before back when I was growing up.

That time I had faced the Tree Monster inside a monster zone.

This time it's the same feeling again.

But the effect was stronger.

Screech!

When the screech noise sounded again.

I immediately leaped backwards to create distance.

This sound from the tree roots takes me back to memory lane.

At that time, I fought against the Class-2 Tree Monster.

Only after destroying the trunk of the monster.

The screaming sound was stopped.

Looks like here I had to follow the same path again.

Then I saw the tree root is not giving up.

It's continuous to chase me.

My eyes flashes with ruthlessness.

I know the weakness of the tree monster.

It can't move from one place to another.

It's using its roots and branches to hunt for food.

My perception was heightened.

I'm observing where the tremor is coming from.

Then I sensed the tremor beneath the ground and started moving in that direction.

Seeing my direction change, the black tree changes its direction to chase me down.

As the time passes, the distance between the tree root and me narrows.

I'm not going to use movement techniques.

Clearly, this place was filled with danger.

I don't want to exhaust my purple essence soon.

I have to survive here until one day.

When the tree roots managed to get close to me.

Suddenly, I started moving in a zig-zag manner.

The tree root again let out weird screams before continuing to chase me down.

Meanwhile,

The other warriors found themselves in danger as well.

As they started coming into contact with the weird monsters.

Which are rarely found in the outside world.

Outside,

Dean Jerome's eyes flickered.

He has connections with all the ten tokens.

He can feel the weird fluctuations from some of the tokens.

"They have encountered dangers this soon," Jerome thought.

There is a reason why he wanted the Thunderflame Faction to take up this mission.

Thunder and Flames are nemesis for the dark type energies.

The whole smog is giving the vibe of negative energies as well.

So the monsters which grow up in such environments might have dark attributes.

That's why he thought the Thunderflame Faction Warriors could survive more than others.

On the other hand, old man Clifford noticed something wrong with Dean Jerome's expression.

"Dean, can you just tell me now?" Clifford asked.

Hearing that Jerome turned around.

Seeing the troubling look of Clifford.

He decides to tell me.

A few minutes later,

Clifford's expression is better than before.

But he is still tense.

Now that he knows that source of the problem.

He couldn't help but to think about it more deeply.

"Dean, do you think white smog comes from that space crack," Clifford asked.

Hearing that Jerome's eyes turned cold.

For a second, Clifford felt a sense of crisis tightening his heart.

The next second, it disappears like nothing.

"I hope it's not related to that.

Otherwise, we are sitting blind to upcoming dangers," Jerome relieved after some thought.

Inside the secret land, I managed to find the source of the problem.

A Colossal Tree Monster came into view.

I found this monster 15 minutes ago.

But as I got closer the distance widened.

Then I realised the tree monster is not an ordinary shade tree monster.

But a Colossal Ones.

I remember encountering Class-2 and Class-6 before.

But I don't know what the rank of Colossal Giant was before me.

Rustle!

One more massive root exploded from the ground and shot towards me.

Seeing that I quickly averted it.

Then I continued to rush towards the Colossal Tree.

I knew the risk of getting closer.

There will be more and more appearance of the tree roots.

Then the Tree Monster can have a good chance to trap me.

But I don't have any other choice.

Only after attacking the trunk of the monster, I can judge the weakness.

Rustle!

Another root came at me from the ground.

I swung the sword to block it.

The purple lightning scorched the black root.

The remaining tree roots are making a scream sound.

Seeing my mouth curve into a smile.

Thanks to the purple lightning seed, the power of the purple lightning element is stronger.

I can withstand the attacks of these tree roots.

Just one hit from the purple lightning the black tree roots are screaming in pain.

As the time passed, more and more tree roots shot at me at the same time.

One misstep will lead straight to the trap.

Then it would become hard to get out.

So I'm focusing on reaching the Colossal Shade Tree Faster.

Chapter 1000: Unknown Dark Bugs

From MC's Perspective:

The Colossal Shade Tree notices that prey is becoming hard to catch.

It let go of a casual attitude and began to attack seriously.

Several cracks appeared on the ground.

In the next second, more black roots rose from the gap and then shot towards the prey.

If anyone from outside takes a look at it.

They would be horrified by the scene.

It appears as if countless roots are going to strangle an ant.

“Damn it,” I cursed under my breath.

As I continuously swing my Black Sword to block the root attacks.

I’m starting to get unsettled.

Because I have wanted to reach the trunk part of the tree.

But before I could get closer.

Hundreds of black roots appear out of nowhere to block me.

Going against these hundreds of black roots would be stupid.

In the end, I might be the one who ends up exhausting the purple essence.

Boom!

My black sword cut through several parts of the black tree roots.

The purple lightning immediately scorches them, making them paralyzed.

Yet several others are coming at me at the same time.

“What to do?” I asked myself.

Then I stared at the Colossal Shade Tree.

I couldn’t help but wonder whether I had miscalculated the strength of the monster.

Scream!

Just as I was pondering, the weird scream sounded again.

Swoosh!

After taking a look at the Colossal Tree Monster, I turned around to leave.

The Monster’s strength is beyond me.

I suspect the Monster is Class-9 Rank.

As I started fleeing, the black tree roots continued to chase me.

But I knew that the tree monster couldn’t move from its place.

Follow new episodes on the "N0vel1st.c0m".

As long as I get out of its attacking range, I can escape from this place.

But there is a different problem that lies ahead.

The white smog is posing a considerable threat.

I should be careful not to fall into another trap.

Time passed,

The Black Tree Roots halted after a few minutes.

They are hovering in the air and letting out a small, frustrated cry.

I felt goosebumps all over my body.

"I was right.

The tree monster is not something I can handle alone right now," I thought.

After crossing a few more distances, I stopped moving forward.

I looked around the surroundings.

My perception is still covering the places.

I don't know what others are doing.

They have more chances of surviving if they are walking in groups.

Suddenly, I thought of something before taking out the token from the storage ring and holding it in my hand.

I'm getting mysterious energy from the token.

I guess it has something to do with the dean.

Then I put the token back inside the storage ring.

I picked a direction before starting to go in that direction.

I'm going opposite the direction of the Colossal Shade Tree.

While moving I'm observing the ground beneath my feet as well.

Still, there is no sign of vegetation.

The ground surface is dark, and the surroundings are covered with white smog.

I guess I haven't left the ominous land.

Crack!

The next second, I heard some cracking sound beneath my feet.

"There is something hidden under the ground," I said to myself.

Then I started removing the sand on that exact spot.

I saw white bones.

My heart skips a beat for a second.

The bones are not that of humans.

But the remains of some monster.

When I tried to uncover it fully.

A look of realization dawned on me.

Because the skeleton remains reminds me of some type of a bug.

But I had never seen a bug monster comparable to the size of a human before.

It gives me more ominous feelings.

I was expecting to find resources similar to the Dark Liquid that I had encountered on my previous trip to the ant colony's secret Land.

But here the threats were looming everywhere.

I just encountered a Class-9 Weird Colossal Shade Tree Monster.

I don't know what lies ahead.

After pushing down these thoughts, I resumed walking.

Buzz!

About 15 minutes later, I came across another monster encounter.

A dark, unknown bug the size of an adult male is hovering in front of me.

The flapping sound of its wings is causing dizziness.

Now, I can confirm that the skeleton remains the same as the unknown monster in front of me.

Buzz!

The Unknown Bug suddenly moved towards me.

I held the Black Sword right, ready to attack it any moment.

Yet the Unknown Bug Monster continued to circle in front of me.

I guess the unknown bug is observing me instead of attacking me.

I don't know how long the stalemate will continue.

Buzz!

The Unknown Dark Bug reacted all of a sudden.

It wide opened its sharp mouth to attack.

I leapt backwards immediately.

At the same time, I started charging the sword with the purple lightning.

The Unknown Bug continues to chase me down.

When the Black Sword was charged.

I made a sword cut, targeting its left wing.

Swoosh!

But the Bug reacted immediately and moved away from the spot.

My sword blade cuts through the empty air.

I raised my eyebrows in surprise.

The Bug's reaction time is faster than I expected.

It's going to be troublesome to fight against it.

The Dark Unknown Bug senses the danger for the first time.

It circles before leaving the place.

I was not happy.

Instead, the dreadful feeling becomes stronger.

Swoosh!

I immediately started running in a different direction.

The Two directions turned out to be the worst for me.

Now, I'm moving towards the East.

Shortly afterwards,

I could hear the buzzing sound coming from behind.

This time it's not one but several unknown Dark Bugs.

At one point, I stopped moving and turned around to face them.

Buzz!

Hundreds of Dark, unknown bugs hovering in the air.

The next second, they charged towards me.

My expression becomes serious.

I have decided to use the lightning technique.

“Lightning Wheel”

A purple wheel appears around me.

The next second, I started charging through the group of unknown bugs at full speed.

Ka#boom!

A loud explosion occurs upon contact.

The purple lightning instantly destroys all the nearby bugs.

The rest of the bugs fell to the ground as a result of the impact.
