

Bodyguard 10091

Chapter 10091

In the main hall.

Lin Yi was still sitting at the table, calm and unruffled. He even asked Qin Qing to bring two jugs of wine over. Just like that, the two drank in front of all the higher-ups of the Qin family, completely ignoring the crowd.

As for Qin Yitong, who was under his feet, he could not even get up.

Out of his dignity as the future family head, Qin Yi tried to struggle in the beginning. However, no matter how hard he tried, even using the Qin family's Secret technique that was not spread to outsiders, he could not break free.

Lin Yi's foot was like a root, firmly pressing him to the ground, not moving an inch.

Under everyone's gazes, Qin Yitong was so angry that he vomited blood.

Even if he was able to turn the tables after this, and make such a big fool of himself in front of the family's higher-ups, his dignity had been completely swept to the ground. Even if he managed to sit on the position of the family head as he wished in the future, today would become a dark history that he could not forget for the rest of his life.

"Still not attacking!"

Finally, Qin Yitong could not help but shout. As soon as he finished speaking, a middle-aged man with a huge sword on his back appeared in front of him.

The higher-ups of the Qin clan could not help but look at each other. Someone even could not help but exclaim, ""High priest!"

The Qin clan had recruited countless guest experts. Almost every high-ranking official had a group of them under them. Just Qin Yitong alone had dozens of people under him.

However, not every guest elder was qualified to become a family helper of the Qin family.

To be able to become a family helper of the Qin clan, one had to have a powerful combat strength that could stand on the stage. These people could occupy a place in the royal families of the four Seas and even the sea goddess Hall, let alone the Qin clan.

And this great Guardian in front of him was the head of the Qin family's guardians and the Qin family's number one combat power that everyone knew!

Lin Yi's hair stood on end the moment the man appeared-the pressure he gave off was no less than the top five from the sea goddess Hall!

If one were to count them carefully, they were probably only slightly inferior to the high priest, the first advisor, and the commander.

With such strength, even in the entire sea area, he was probably an existence that could be ranked at the top of the list!

Seeing the appearance of this person, Qin Yitong could not help but be overjoyed. Although he had a secret relationship with this person, he did not dare to say that the other party would definitely make a move for him.

One had to know that every consecrated person in the Qin clan was an extremely Supreme existence. Unless it was a major clan matter, even the current clan head could not easily order them around.

As for the high priest in front of him, even his father, Qin Kaiyun, had to be respectful when he saw him.

He didn't expect that she would actually show up for him today.

"Release him."

The high priest glanced at Lin Yi, unperturbed. "He is the face of the Qin family, he can not be humiliated."

Lin Yi couldn't help but reveal a surprised expression. He turned to look at Qin Qing. "Oh? He had already taken over the position of the Qin family head? Then I've really failed to recognize Mount Tai. "

If this had happened before, Qin Qing would have definitely mocked him.

However, in front of the head deacon, he did not dare to have such thoughts. He could only squeeze out an awkward smile and did not dare to say a word.

In the entire Qin family, he was not afraid of his grandmother, nor was he afraid of his father, the master of the family. He was only afraid of this unsmiling high priest!

In fact, in the eyes of many members of the Qin clan, the pressure that the head exalt gave them was far above that of the clan head. This was the right to speak due to his strength.

"I won't repeat myself," the high priest said, still without any expression.

"I'm sorry, I'm still waiting for news. He'll have to lie on the ground for a while longer before I get back to him. "Lin Yi looked at him calmly.

"Then you won't be able to wait."

The high priest pulled out his sword without a word, and Lin Yi didn't even see how he pulled it out before he was pressed down by the sword.

Lin Yi's reaction was fast.

He had predicted the moment his opponent attacked and immediately mobilized the rule power of beast transformation, turning into the demon God Chi You.

However, with just one strike, his devil Chiyu form was scattered and he returned to his original form on the spot!

This was the first time!

"This person actually has the ability to dispel rules!"

Lin Yi instantly understood the key point.

Normally, no matter how strong the other party was, even if he was no match for him with his current strength, he would at least be able to struggle a little. However, in front of this person, his rule power did not listen to him at all and was dispelled directly.

It was simply unheard of!

But even though the manifestation of laws was destroyed, Lin Yi himself wasn't flattened. Under everyone's shocked gazes, he actually managed to hold on with his body.

"What?"

A hint of shock flashed through the high priest's eyes. Although he hadn't used his full strength just now, it wasn't something that just anyone could take.

In the entire house Qin, there were only a handful of people who could take it on, and even if they did, they wouldn't be as calm as Lin Yi.

More importantly, Lin Yi was only an early phase golden class venerable!

The rest of the people present were also dumbfounded. Although they had seen Lin Yi's strength, no matter how high they thought of him, they didn't think that Lin Yi could take a direct hit from the head priest!

"If you don't fall within three moves, I'll let you off today."

As the high priest spoke, he swung the giant sword in his hand again.

The sword looked extremely slow, as if it couldn't hit anyone, but it was like heaven's will-no matter how Lin Yi dodged, he'd still land in its path.

"The sword of destiny ..."

Someone muttered the name of this sword.

The so-called fate was that no matter how you dodged, you would eventually have to take that step.

Lin Yi could vaguely see the meaning of karma, but this person's level was much higher than Tianji's. He could still break through Tianji's karma rules with force, but against this person's fated sword, he knew it was impossible even before he tried.

The only way to deal with it was to face it head-on.

A strong sense of danger told Lin Yi that if he continued to use his body to receive the attacks, he would be at a disadvantage even with his god-like body!

Without hesitation, Lin Yi unsheathed the sword.

BOOM!

The two swords collided head-on, but an inexplicably heavy muffled sound was heard.

The scene fell into a strange silence for a moment. Just when everyone thought that the two swords were just testing the waters, the power suddenly erupted without warning.

With the two of them as the center, waves of powerful impact exploded one after another. Even though the Qin clan had set up a defensive formation that could be considered top-tier in the entire sea region, it was still on the verge of collapse from the impact.

Although the entire Hall did not collapse in the end, dense cracks could be seen everywhere. It was obvious that it was not far from a complete collapse.

Chapter 10092

As for the Qin clan higher-ups who were watching, although they did not suffer any internal injuries from the shock, each and every one of their faces were covered in dust.

In just one exchange, the gap between the two sides had been completely widened.

Even the dullest higher-ups of the Qin clan had already begun to realize that this newly-promoted King hai was definitely not someone they could touch casually. At the same time, they couldn't help but feel a lingering fear in their hearts.

If they had followed their original plan to provoke the other party, some of them would have died without even knowing how they died.

After all, the high priest would not appear for them.

"Interesting!"

The high priest looked at Lin Yi in surprise. Not only did Lin Yi take a casual attack from him, but he also took his fated sword head-on. This was far beyond his understanding.

As far as he knew, even the best of the younger generation in the entire sea realm, who had already reached the middle phase of the Golden class venerable realm, couldn't take it!

"Then take another strike from me!"

The head exalt's interest was piqued, but Lin Yi's demon devouring sword had already drawn a strange arc, aiming for his throat before he could make a move.

Everyone was speechless.

From what they knew, it was already a great feat to be able to take two moves from an existence like the high priest. Even if there were no injuries on the surface, they must have paid a huge price on the inside.

Perhaps Lin Yi would collapse on his own after this.

Who would have thought that not only did he not show any signs of internal injury, but he could actually turn the tables and launch an attack? it was simply unimaginable!

What was even more shocking was that when Lin Yi's sword landed, the head exalt's body shook and froze on the spot.

It was obvious that his primordial spirit had suffered some kind of intense impact!

Taking advantage of this opening, the demonic devouring sword directly pierced through the high priest's throat in front of everyone, and the entire place instantly fell into a deathly silence.

The high priest had been killed by a single sword strike?

Qin Yitong, who was being stepped on, had his eyes popping out. The reason why he could sit firmly on the position of successor, other than the support of his father, Qin Kaiyun, was because he had obtained the recognition of this head deacon.

The reason was simple. His birth mother and the high priest were of the same race and blood-related.

Otherwise, with the head Deacon's personality, even if he was the publicly acknowledged successor to the family head, he probably wouldn't even look at him.

This could be said to be his final trump card!

As far as he was concerned, as long as the head exalt made a move, taking down a Lin Yi was a piece of cake. As long as he didn't kill this hai hai Wang in front of everyone and embarrass the sea god Hall, the Qin family would support him to the end even if he had to cripple Lin Yi.

It was impossible for the sea goddess Hall to start a war with the Qin family of the fifth royal family over a cripple in these troubled times.

Now, not only did the high priest fail to take Lin Yi down, but he'd gotten a sword through his throat instead. What was he supposed to do?

At that moment, everyone was silent as they looked at Lin Yi with fear in their eyes. They were afraid that Lin Yi would kill them too!

Strictly speaking, Lin Yi did have the power to do so.

As a Lord of the coastal sea who was on the same level as the four Seas 'royal families, being attacked by the Qin clan's chief exalt in the Qin clan's territory was an undisguised offense against his superior in the eyes of officials. He had every reason to use this as an excuse to make a fuss.

Not to mention killing a high priest, even if he had to slaughter all of them, that would be logical.

In the past, because the sea God's temple was too far away, these words were at most just empty words-they couldn't be carried out. But now that Lin Yi had the strength, he could make it a reality whenever he wanted!

The higher-ups of the Qin family were drenched in cold sweat. They finally realized that they had fallen into such a dangerous situation without realizing it.

"A bunch of trash."

The high priest's voice suddenly rang out. As he spoke, the wound on his throat slowly healed, and in the blink of an eye, it was as good as new. Not even a scar was left.

If not for the fact that so many people had witnessed it, many people would have thought that everything that had just happened was an illusion.

The high priest coldly swept his gaze over the crowd, his disappointment evident on his face.

He had been stationed at the Qin clan for a hundred years. His feelings for the Qin clan were even deeper than many of the Qin clan members.

However, based on the situation just now, if he really died, the Qin family would probably not be far from falling apart. Where would they have any of the courage that they had under the old Madam's care?

Everyone was speechless.

The high priest's eyes were filled with anger, but he didn't want to vent it on the others. He turned his anger back to Lin Yi.

A dense killing intent condensed on the tip of the giant sword, and the momentum of a storm was gradually forming!

Everyone collectively swallowed a mouthful of saliva. Anyone with even the slightest bit of insight could see that the high priest was truly angry, and his next sword was bound to be serious.

"Three moves," Lin Yi said indifferently.

"....."

Everyone was stunned. They thought back to it-it was Lin Yi's first move, but it was indeed the third move. They had already passed the three-move agreement.

"You're right. "

The high priest's sword focused, but just when everyone thought it was over, a dark light flashed across and landed on Lin Yi's body.

Lin Yi was sent flying by the sword, leaving a trail of blood in the air.

But before he could land on the ground, the high priest's figure flickered and suddenly appeared above him without any warning. The giant sword smashed down on his chest, pressing him to death on the ground.

"Setting rules is the privilege of the strong. The weak can only follow the rules, but the strong don't need to. Don't you understand such a simple principle?"

The high priest announced the Victor's victory from above.

Qin Yitong and all the higher-ups of the Qin family were invigorated. The pressure that Lin Yi gave them was finally gone, especially Qin Yitong who had been stepped on for so long. He could finally get up again.

"Head exalt, we can't let this person live. Kill him!"

Qin Yitong's face was filled with hatred. The humiliation he suffered just now had become a dark history that he would never forget. Only by killing Lin Yi would he be able to get some comfort.

Qin Qing quickly stood up to stop him, "no!" He's the new Sea King, killing him would be a public declaration of war against the sea goddess Hall. Do you want our Qin clan to be consigned to eternal damnation?"

"Hmph, leaving him alive is the only way to bring endless trouble. The sea goddess Hall is currently too busy with its own affairs. Do you really think that they'll fall out with our Qin clan over an insignificant dead person?"

Qin Yitong stared at Qin Qing coldly. "You were the one who attracted this person here. Now, you are defending him. I really want to ask you this. Second brother, whose side are you on?"

Chapter 10093

Seeing that even the head deacon was looking at her with an unfriendly look, Qin Qing suddenly became anxious. "This concerns the fate of my entire Qin family. Such a big matter should at least be decided by grandmother and father, right?"

"They've already made their decision. "

Qin Yitong sneered and replied, "there's been such a big commotion here. Do you think father and grandmother would not know?" Since they didn't stop the commander, it meant that they had chosen to acquiesce. Couldn't you see such an obvious thing? You're really trash!"

"....."

Qin Qing's heart immediately fell to the bottom of the valley.

It wasn't that he didn't think of this, but he really didn't dare to think in that direction.

After all, he was bound to Lin Yi now. Once Lin Yi became a sacrifice, the Poseidon shrine's reaction wouldn't matter, but he'd lose his position as the second young master.

If this incident did not happen, he could still continue to be a wealthy and idle person waiting for death after Qin Yitong took over. However, since the situation had already developed to this point, it was destined that he and Qin Yitong would fight to the death.

Who would have thought that the originally good situation would suddenly take such a sharp turn for the worse? the good situation had actually become an unsolvable dead end!

The high priest looked at Qin Yitong.

"Alright!"

Qin Yitong agreed readily and immediately walked over with an undisguisable killing intent.

Lin Yi's status was special, and no matter how fearless he was, there was still a huge risk involved. He wouldn't kill people himself even if he wanted to vent his anger, but right now, his heart was filled with hatred and he couldn't care about that.

Even if he was targeted by the sea god Hall after the incident and was even listed as wanted, it was the same as him submitting his fealty to the royal families of the four Seas.

As long as the royal families of the four Seas did not fall, he would not suffer a loss!

"Sea King hai, do you think that fate is unpredictable? It's your good fortune that I'm personally sending you on your way. Take care. "

Qin Yitong sneered as he slapped his palm at Lin Yi. This palm was extremely evil and vicious. Once it hit, not only would Lin Yi's head explode on the spot, but his primordial spirit would also vanish into thin air.

Qin Qing's eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. She kept calling for help from her grandmother with her divine sense while trying to stop her.

However, with a simple look from the high priest, he was unable to move. He could only watch the tragedy happen.

Everyone's expression was complicated.

As the higher-ups of the Qin family, they were naturally on Qin Yitong's side. However, if Lin Yi really died here today, it would mean that the peaceful days of the past would be gone forever.

Even if the sea goddess Hall was truly unable to take care of themselves and would not make a big move against the Qin family because of this, there was at least one point that the Qin family would definitely become the sea goddess Hall's first target.

The bird that takes the lead would be shot. In this treacherous environment, it was not a good thing to force himself to become the focus.

However, now that things had come to this, they could only watch in silence. It was impossible for them to stop it.

Qin Qing could only hope that her grandmother would help in time. This was her last hope.

However, he didn't.

The scene that Qin Yitong was waiting for didn't happen even after Qin Yitong's palm had landed. Qin Qing's heart was completely cold. This meant that not only Lin Yi, but he had also been abandoned.

However, to his surprise, Qin Yitong's full-force Palm strike didn't explode Lin Yi's head.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was perfectly fine, with a hint of mockery in his eyes.

"You can't even break my defense, how are you going to kill me?"

On the contrary, a simple sentence had broken Qin Yitong's defense.

He was a mid phase golden class venerable, and with his talent and the crazy amount of resources he had, he was definitely one of the strongest people in his class. How could he not break through Lin Yi's defense?

At this moment, the high priest finally spoke with some surprise, "Divine body? You have a God Body?"

Everyone didn't know what was going on.

Only the high priest's eyes suddenly became a bit more heated. For an expert at his level, it was extremely difficult to break through normally, and it was almost impossible without a heaven-defying opportunity.

Now, a legendary divine body had suddenly appeared in front of him. How could he not be excited?

If he could take the divine body for himself, he wouldn't need to do anything else, and his strength would increase by an entire level!

In an instant, everyone present could feel the high priest's uncontrollable desire.

His attitude towards Lin Yi before was only to stand up for Qin Yitong. As for whether Lin Yi was a cat or a dog, it didn't matter to him at all.

The so-called title of king of the sea was meaningless in the eyes of an existence of his level. As long as he really wanted to, he could kill him.

The only reason he was still a little worried was because Lin Yi wasn't in his eyes yet.

To put it bluntly, it wasn't that he didn't dare to kill you, but that he was too lazy to do so.

But now that he had a God Body, Lin Yi's value skyrocketed in his eyes. He went from an insignificant tool to a heaven-defying opportunity.

That's right, the head exalt was certain that Lin Yi was his destiny.

Don't even think about snatching it away!

Qin Qing looked at this scene and couldn't help but feel even more desperate. If the head Deacon's attitude was the same as before, Lin Yi would at least have a chance of survival if only his grandmother was willing to speak.

But now, the high priest had made it clear that he would no longer listen to anyone, and no one could make him stop.

With his strength, no one in the entire Qin family could make him stop unless he was willing to, including his grandmother and the family head, Qin Kaiyun!

"It seems that my body is really rare. All of you high and mighty figures are so excited."

Lin Yi didn't panic at all as he was the one involved-there was a weird smile on his face.

"There are others who know about your divine body?" the high priest was slightly taken aback.

"I'm from the Poseidon shrine," Lin Yi said faintly, "do you think they'll be able to tell?"

"....."

The head Deacon's heart sank.

Not to mention the others, at least he had seen the strength of the general of the temple guards, Bai Ze, and the first Walker, cruel malevolence. Even if he was arrogant, he had to admit that their strength was indeed above his.

Not to mention, there was still the unfathomable high priest.

If he could see through it, it was naturally impossible for those people to not see through it.

The fact that Lin Yi was standing here meant that he had already made a deal with them. The God Body was a fatal temptation to all of them, and if he forced himself to eat it, he'd become a target.

Chapter 10094

He wasn't afraid of the sea God's temple that was in a state of disunity, but if he was targeted by the top bosses of the sea God's temple, even he would be under a lot of pressure!

"You think you can scare me like this? How childish!"

The head exalt hmphed coldly and reached out to grab Lin Yi without hesitation, a cold smile on his face. "I was able to get to where I am today because I dared to think and dared to risk my life. Since you have taken the initiative to come to my door, if I don't take it in one go, wouldn't I be letting you down?"

He wasn't a match for them now, but if he could swallow the divine body, he wouldn't be afraid of anyone in a one-on-one fight. Even if it was a one-on-one fight, he would be able to escape unscathed.

He had absolute confidence in this.

Lin Yi said, "Aren't you afraid that your selfishness will harm the entire Qin family?"

The high priest's movements paused.

Everyone gulped-Lin Yi's words had hit the nail on the head.

The high priest might really not be afraid. At worst, he could just escape. As long as he had the heart to live, there would always be a place for him in the vast sea.

However, the Qin family was different.

If they really offended all the top-tier big shots of the sea goddess Hall at the same time, the Qin family would not have any chance of escaping. The extermination of the family was the only outcome that everyone could think of.

The high priest did hesitate for a moment, but it was suppressed after a moment. His hand continued to press down on Lin Yi with an overwhelming aura.

Between the fate of the Qin clan and his own future, the head deacon had made an obvious choice.

Everyone's hearts sank to the bottom of the valley. Anyone with even the slightest bit of intelligence had already reacted. They had been personally sentenced to death by their family's great Guardian who was like a stabilizing needle!

All of a sudden, all the higher-ups stood on Lin Yi's side for the first time, hoping that Lin Yi could survive this.

These words sounded a little magical.

But the weird reality was that they could only live if Lin Yi lived.

Unfortunately, not to mention that these people didn't dare to stop the head deacon, even if they really had the courage to do so, they couldn't stop the head Deacon's actions at all.

After all, the gap between their cultivation and strength was completely incalculable. Even if all of them worked together, it would be of no use.

Bang! Bang!

The high priest grabbed Lin Yi's face with one hand and started to destroy Lin Yi's essence spirit. Wave after wave of attacks were sent at Lin Yi's essence spirit.

One had to admit that Lin Yi's golden class early phase spirit was strong, but it was still too weak in front of someone of his level.

"Your primordial spirit isn't bad, but it's useless."

The head exalt commented calmly. In his hands, the only difference between Lin Yi's spirit and other normal spirits was that it could last a little longer.

It did not affect the overall situation at all.

Lin Yi's face turned a lot uglier under the impact of the spirit attack, but he still asked, ""Don't you feel that something is wrong? With the old Madam's personality, would she really let you kidnap the entire Qin family?"

The high priest's breath stopped.

Speaking of which, he still had some doubts. In terms of personal strength, he was indeed the Qin family's number one. This was without a doubt, but this did not mean that the Qin family could only let him do whatever he wanted.

Putting aside the methods of the current patriarch, Qin Kaiyun, he could at least be sure of one thing. The Qin family's old grandmother definitely had the ability to keep him in check!

Now that he was about to bring the Qin family into a state of eternal damnation, from the beginning to the end, he had no reaction at all.

This was very abnormal!

In other people's eyes, his grandmother and Qin Kaiyun wanted to hit Lin Yi when he was down. Everything was controlled by those two behind the scenes, and he was only playing the role of the executor.

However, he was very clear that he had not discussed this with the two of them at all. It was entirely because of his personal relationship with Qin Yitong. He had acted on a whim.

It would be understandable if the two of them had chosen to acquiesce to it before the exposure of the divine body. However, it was too strange that they were still indifferent at this point.

No matter if it was the all-powerful great grandmother of the Qin family or Qin Kaiyun, the current family head who seemed to be weak in his methods, they were definitely the cream of the crop. It was impossible for them to silently wait for death at this time.

“.....”

The high priest suddenly thought of an impossible possibility and broke out in a cold sweat.

"It's a bit too late to realize that now. You thought you were the one who sold us out, but it's the other way around. "Lin Yi smiled.

"You're deliberately being mysterious! You think you can scare me like this?"

The high priest's face was ashen as he growled in a low voice, ""Who has the guts to betray me? Who has the strength to betray me?"

Lin Yi blocked the attack with a light smile and asked, "Don't you already know the answer to these two questions?"

The answer was already written on the surface, the Qin family's old grandmother.

With his strength and status as a high priest, even the family head, Qin Kaiyun, would tremble in fear in front of him. Not to mention having any ideas about him, he would not dare to compromise on any of his orders.

It was to the extent that even outsiders knew that above the head of the Qin family, Qin Kaiyun, was an Emperor and an Empress. The Empress was the Qin family's old grandmother, and the Emperor was him, the great Minister of offerings who was comparable to the retired emperor!

Qin Kaiyun didn't have the guts to scheme against him, but as a woman, the Qin family's old grandmother definitely had the courage!

One must know that back when the Qin family was nothing, she had the courage to scheme against the four Seas 'royal families. In the end, she even forced the four Seas' royal families to pinch their noses and admit that she was the fifth royal family.

Although he had retreated behind the scenes, it was not an unbelievable thing to plot against a clan's high priest for the sake of the clan's grand plan.

No matter what big moves this old Madam made, it was just a routine operation for her!

"Impossible! She has no reason to!"

The high priest was still unwilling to believe it.

He was the Qin family's Supreme combat power and the Qin family's unshakeable pillar. The Qin family's glory of being the fifth royal family for so many years was largely due to his face combat power.

He simply could not imagine that the Qin family would actually have ideas about him. This was simply digging their own Foundation!

Lin Yi looked at him faintly, "don't you understand that the higher the merits, the more powerful the master will be?" You, a foreign consecrator, have already become the retired emperor. If they don't do it, are you going to keep you for the new year? Besides, didn't your choice just now already prove that he had chosen the right answer?"

“.....”

The high priest choked on the spot, speechless.

This was the truth. Although the Qin family's old grandmother had schemed against him first, after he had made this choice just now, he had no room to blame the other party. At most, he could only say that they were the same.

However, he didn't stop his attack on Lin Yi's essence spirit. A ferocious smile appeared on his face.

Chapter 10095

"So what if you're right?"

The head deacon seemed to be fearless. "No one here can stop me. If the Qin family takes things too hard and attacks me, they will only die faster. Do you think they will take the risk for you, an outsider?"

The Qin clan did not only have one consecrated, but the problem was that all the other consecrated experts added together were not his opponent.

As for the Qin family's old grandmother, although she was not weak, there was still a qualitative gap between her and him.

In other words, even if the Qin family were to target him, they would only dare to do some small tricks behind his back. It was impossible for them to threaten his safety directly. They simply did not have the strength to do so.

Lin Yi replied with a deeper meaning, "The Qin family doesn't need to do anything else, because they've already done everything they can. The rest is between you and me."

"You?"

The head exalt looked at Lin Yi as if he'd just heard the funniest joke in the world. He looked at Lin Yi like he was an idiot.

"I admit that your divine body is not simple. Even if I wanted to destroy it, I would have to go through a lot of trouble. Unfortunately, compared to your divine body, your primordial spirit is much weaker."

The high priest laughed proudly. "No matter how good your divine body is, you're destined to only be a wedding dress for me. When your primordial spirit is destroyed, I can take your place. On the other hand, I'm curious to ask, where did you get the confidence to deal with me?"

With such a huge difference in strength, he knew that Lin Yi wouldn't be able to threaten him.

Definitely not.

In the face of absolute strength, any so-called scheme was destined to be gaudy. This was a principle that had never changed.

"With this," Lin Yi smiled.

As he spoke, an invisible force silently enveloped the other party. This force had not only locked onto the high priest's body, but had also invaded all the vital points in his body!

This was the power of capture from the New World.

The head exalt finally realized the danger and his face changed drastically. He tried to use his own strength to resist Lin Yi's power, but all his efforts crumbled in the face of Lin Yi's power.

Their powers were on completely different levels!

"Impossible! How is this possible?"

Seeing that all the Mingmen in his body had been locked down, the high priest finally couldn't hold it in any longer and couldn't help but exclaim.

He'd never have thought that Lin Yi, a mere early phase golden class venerable, would be able to use this level of power-it was completely beyond his imagination.

At the same time, Lin Yi finally let out a breath of relief. The capture was a success!

Although he had mastered a variety of rule bending powers and developed all kinds of unexpected killer moves, he only had one trump card.

New world capture.

No matter how strong the opponent was, as long as they were below the immortal state, as long as they were captured and brought into the new world, they could only be slaughtered by him!

The only difficult part was how to capture it.

After so many practices, Lin Yi had finally found some patterns.

In theory, he could capture any opponent below the immortal state by relying on the crushing power of the New World.

The difference was that the more powerful the opponent was, the longer the capture process would take, and the more difficult it would be to capture. Once the other party detected it halfway, it was very likely that all the efforts would be in vain.

Just like this time, if the Qin clan's old grandmother had not provided him with detailed information on the high priest in advance, even including information on every Mingmen in the high priest's body, the entire capture process would have been delayed by at least ten times due to the difference in strength!

Moreover, the high priest could break free at any time, and he could even use this opportunity to counterattack.

So even though he looked calm and composed, Lin Yi was actually worried inside.

The other party regarded him as a rare heaven-defying opportunity, and he also regarded the other party as a great opportunity. Once he missed it, he didn't know when he would be able to capture a target of this level again.

Fortunately, the psychological battle and delaying tactics had been successful, and everything was more frightening than dangerous.

"Welcome to my new world."

The head exalt felt the scene in front of him change as soon as he heard Lin Yi's words. He was now in a vast space where heaven and earth had just separated.

"Spatial rule power?"

The high priest was stunned for a moment and couldn't help but find it a little unbelievable.

Logically speaking, with the difference in strength, no matter how strong Lin Yi's spatial ability was, it wasn't enough to bring him to a place like this. Not to mention, he had a trump card that could negate all rule power!

No matter how he thought about it, it was impossible to achieve.

However, the strange reality was right in front of him, and he had to believe it.

However, the high priest immediately revealed a look of joy, because he suddenly discovered that the mysterious force that had locked down his vital points had disappeared. He had regained the ability to move freely!

"What an imbecilic fool!"

The high priest was overjoyed and laughed, "It seems that you could only borrow a little of that power. If I'm not wrong, that should be the seagod's power, right? Hehe, it's a pity that you can't use it to kill me. Otherwise, I might really have failed today!"

The sea God's power. This was the only reasonable explanation he could think of from his point of view.

"I'm sorry to tell you that you're wrong," Lin Yi said, looking at him.

"Stubborn duck!"

The head exalt didn't believe him at all and charged at Lin Yi with all his might.

He didn't want to give Lin Yi time to catch his breath. If Lin Yi used that power again, he might not have a chance anymore.

He had used all his strength in this sword.

He madly condensed all his strength. Back then, he had relied on this move to force the sea goddess Hall's First Walker, cruel malevolence, to retreat!

However, to his surprise, there was no sign of what he had expected. It should be known that his sword strike was not enough to destroy the world, but it was definitely more than enough to destroy an independent secret realm. In the past, it had always been accompanied by terrifying signs.

However, there was nothing in front of him.

Heaven and earth were still clear without any waves. It was so calm that he felt unreal. Everything was like an illusion.

But all of this was clearly not an illusion.

At the last moment when his sword was about to reach Lin Yi's throat, Lin Yi smiled at him, and an unparalleled will pressed down on his head. This was the will of the New World!

Without any warning, the high priest knelt down on the spot.

"Anything else you want to say?" Lin Yi looked down at him.

Chapter 10096

“.....”

The high priest was already dumbfounded and couldn't say a word. His mind was completely blank from the shock of fear, and he was shaking like a leaf.

In the face of the great horror of life and death, even an existence like him was no different from a weak ordinary person.

Lin Yi shook his head in disappointment, but he smiled. "I'll say it again. I welcome you on behalf of the New World. "

At the same time, the Qin family in the outside world was already in a mess.

The sudden disappearance of the high priest caught everyone off guard, but no one thought that Lin Yi could do anything to him. Everyone believed that when the high priest reappeared, Lin Yi would be a dead man.

This was the most natural judgment.

Qin Yitong slowly recovered and looked down at Qin Qing. ""Are you satisfied now? A person like you who only knows How to Do Nothing all day dares to covet the position of the patriarch, do you really not know your own worth?"

Qin Qing opened her mouth, but she was speechless.

It wasn't that he didn't know what to say, but if something really happened to Lin Yi, then his fate would be sealed. Nothing he said would help.

After all, at his level, he had no idea what his grandmother was doing behind his back.

Until this moment, he thought that he had been abandoned by his grandmother and that he had become the sacrifice for Qin Yi to take over.

"You're just a piece of mud that can't even hold up a wall. How dare you have such an unrealistic hope? you really don't know how to spell the word 'death'!"

Qin Yitong sneered in disdain. However, when he saw the reaction of the Qin clan's upper echelons, he could not help but feel a headache.

Although Lin Yi's death was a foregone conclusion, it also meant that they'd completely fallen out with the sea god Hall. The Qin family's future was obvious.

The most important thing was that the attitude that the head deacon had displayed just now was truly chilling. At least, it had proved one point. When the Qin family's interests conflicted with his own, he would definitely not hesitate to sacrifice the entire Qin family!

Regarding this, Qin Yitong was also rather resentful.

However, he didn't blame the other party for not considering the big picture, but rather blamed the other party for not being willing to give up such an important opportunity to him!

Although his strength was limited, he knew many things that ordinary people couldn't touch, such as the divine body.

In his opinion, the high priest had already exhausted his potential, so even if he obtained the divine body, it would be meaningless. On the other hand, if he gave the divine body to him, it would be a completely different concept.

At that time, with the entire clan's resources, he would be able to push his strength to an extremely high realm in an extremely short time. At that time, even if he had to face the sea goddess Hall, the Qin clan would have enough confidence!

Unfortunately, the high priest was still too selfish and short-sighted.

However, despite his complaints, he was still on the same side as the head deacon.

Not only that, in order to gain a foothold, not only him, but the entire Qin family had to be even closer to the head deacon.

He kicked away the dazed Qin Qing, who cleared her throat and said, ""Everyone, there's no need to be too nervous. With our Qin family's position, it's only a matter of time before we fall out with the sea goddess Hall. After all, with the current situation, no one would be so stupid as to side with the sea goddess Hall and go against the four Seas" royal families, right?"

Everyone looked at each other. Although they were a little hesitant, they eventually nodded in agreement.

Anyone with a discerning eye could see the situation the seagod Hall was in. Unless the seagod personally descended, it would be powerless to control the four Seas.

Everyone knew that a deity realm expert like the sea god had many restrictions. Normally, he couldn't easily descend, and even projecting a portion of his power was very difficult. Normally, he could only send down a so-called Oracle at most.

If not for this, how could the sea god Hall, which controlled the entire sea realm in name, be so dispirited that it was reduced to an empty title?

On the other hand, the royal families of the four Seas were the true Kings who controlled the four Seas!

"Even a passerby who has nothing to do with you knows who you should choose and who you shouldn't, not to mention us, the stakeholders who have been tied to the royal families of the four Seas for a long time."

Qin Yitong looked around at everyone and said, "without the royal families of the four Seas, there would be no Qin family. Now, it's time to pick a side. I believe that anyone with a little bit of brains will know what to choose!

The head Deacon's actions seem impulsive, but it's actually in line with our Qin clan's interests. In the face of a major event, only the most decisive person can get the most benefits.

Therefore, not only should we not be resentful of the high priest, but we should also thank him properly. Otherwise, if we hesitate, we might really court death and go astray. "

Everyone looked at each other.

The logic of these words actually couldn't stand up to scrutiny at all, but since things had come to this, they had no other choice but to follow the path to the end.

At this moment, two figures suddenly appeared in the field. Everyone's eyelids twitched and they quickly paid their respects.

The people who had come were the Qin family's old grandmother and the Qin family's patriarch, Qin Kaiyun.

"Greetings to grandmother and father."

Qin Yitong didn't panic at all. On the contrary, he was overjoyed. In his eyes, the conclusion was already set. Lin Yi's death meant that they were all going to side with the four Seas' royal families. There was no suspense in the battle for the route. Naturally, there was no suspense in the battle for the successor of the family head.

No matter how biased his grandmother was toward Qin Qing, she could only pinch her nose and admit his status in such a situation.

On the other hand, Qin Qing looked very lonely.

The old grandmother looked around and her eyes finally fell on Qin Qing. " Lover boy, your performance has disappointed me."

“.....”

Qin Qing opened her mouth but couldn't say anything.

With his status in the Qin family, once he lost his grandmother's support, he had almost no real right to speak. In this situation, even if he wanted to do something, he could not do anything.

However, in the end, Qin Qing gritted her teeth and said, ""Grandma, if I had to choose again, I'd still believe Lin Yi."

"You still don't know how to repent even now!"

Qin Yitong's eyes were filled with disdain.

Strictly speaking, whether he and Qin Qing won or lost didn't depend on themselves, but on who they were betting on. The only difference was that Qin Qing was stupid and chose the equally stupid Lin Yi, while he was bound to a powerful high priest from the beginning.

Unexpectedly, the Qin family's old grandmother revealed a bit of relief when she heard this. ""Love child, although you lack courage, fortunately, your judgment of people is not bad. With this perseverance, you are barely enough to be a master of guarding success."

"The master of preservation?"

Everyone present was stunned. The meaning behind his words was too great.

Qin Yitong's expression changed instantly. He could not help but ask, "Grandmother, brother mistook Lin Yi for someone else and almost caused our family to fall into a state of eternal damnation, how can you praise him?"

Chapter 10097

If the head deacon were to hear these words, I'm afraid it would cause unnecessary misunderstandings, which would not be beneficial to the stability and unity of our Qin family. "

His grandmother looked at him with a hopeless expression. "According to what you're saying, our Qin clan has to take into account the face of his high priest? Can you still tell who's the master and who's the servant?"

Everyone's hair stood on end.

Whether it was an honorary or guest elder, no matter how much preferential treatment and respect they received on the surface, it could not change the nature of a worker.

Since ancient times, there had been countless cases of a Turtledove occupying a magpie's nest, especially in a family with a woman in charge like the Qin family. This kind of thing was particularly taboo. No matter how respected the position of the head exalt was, once this bottom line was stepped on, the Qin family would definitely not tolerate it.

Qin Yitong's expression darkened. However, he still braced himself and argued, "I'm not referring to the high priest's expression, but in the current situation, with the enemy in front of us, we really shouldn't continue to fight each other.

No matter what, the head exalt is our Qin clan's strongest fighting force. I think that everyone should at least have some respect for this. "

His grandmother looked at him in a daze, "This isn't called revering, you're just hoping for a fluke."

Qin Yitong still wanted to argue, but Qin Kaiyun suddenly spoke, "Unfilial son, even now you still don't understand the situation, my painstaking cultivation for so many years has been in vain!"

"The situation?"

Qin Yi was stunned. "I'm only saying this because I've recognized the situation. On the other hand, old grandmother is biased towards second brother, so much so that she can't see clearly. She doesn't care about the safety and interests of the entire Qin family. This is the true way to bring disaster!"

The higher-ups of the Qin family looked at him.

The old grandmother was the Qin family's totem figure. She could not be criticized at any time. Qin Yitong actually said this to his face. This was already a proper and proper treasonous act.

Although many of them had already decided to hug the high priest's thigh, Qin Yitong's words to this extent had greatly exceeded their expectations.

After today, if the Qin family couldn't be changed, the successor of the family head would probably have to cut himself off from the entire Qin family!

Qin Yitong was playing poker.

Surprisingly, the old grandmother did not have any reaction on her face, but Qin Kaiyun was trembling with anger. "Unfilial son! Unfilial son!"

He had placed most of his efforts on Qin Yitong, thinking that this outstanding eldest son could take over his burden and lead the Qin family to prosperity and walk on an unprecedented King's path.

Who would have thought that he would get such an outcome?

On the contrary, Qin Yitong had a look of certainty as he said, "The Qin family can't hide under the shadow of our grandmother forever. If we want to grow stronger, we must get rid of this shackle. Only by bringing out the courage of the fifth royal family can we truly solidify our position as the fifth royal family!"

"You think the head exalt will win?" his grandmother narrowed her eyes.

"Isn't that the case?"

Qin Yitong did not have the slightest doubt. The respect he had earlier was no longer on his face. He said with a mocking tone, ""Anyone with a bit of common sense would know who's stronger between the head elder and Lin Yi-grandma wouldn't be that blind, would she?"

"Then let's wait and see."

The old grandmother nodded and did not say anything more. She closed her eyes and began to rest.

Everyone looked at each other, their eyes full of suspicion.

No one believed that Lin Yi could beat the head exalt-even if they were daydreaming, there had to be a Basic Law, right?

However, looking at the old grandmother's stance, they really couldn't figure out what was going on. It should be known that the old grandmother's vision for betting was famous for being the best in the sea area. If it wasn't for her unique vision, the Qin family wouldn't have today.

"Pretentious,"

Although Qin Yitong had some doubts in his heart, he still believed that the head deacon would have the last laugh. After all, this was the only way for his successor to have the last laugh.

Otherwise, with just these two sentences, he would have been beyond redemption in the Qin family.

In the tense atmosphere of the collective silence, time passed by bit by bit. In the blink of an eye, two days and two nights had passed.

The entire Qin clan was shrouded in the shadow of uneasiness. In the silence, undercurrents surged, and a monstrous wave was continuously condensing.

Not only within the Qin family, but the outside world also felt the strangeness of the Qin family.

The ocean goddess Hall, the royal families of the four Seas, and other large forces all made various probing moves around the Qin clan's territory. Some even directly invaded the Qin clan's traditional territory.

The Qin clan chose to give in.

However, everyone could already see that the storm was already brewing!

On the third day, when everyone's nerves were almost at their limits, a figure finally appeared in the Qin family's Hall.

Everyone's eyelids twitched.

Lin Yi!

"How is that possible? This is absolutely impossible!"

Qin Yitong almost fainted on the spot. He couldn't believe it even if he was beaten to death. Lin Yi, who was only an early phase golden class venerable, could have the last laugh in the face of a Supreme existence like the commander!

The other higher-ups of the Qin clan did not have a better performance. They were all dumbfounded and their eyeballs fell to the ground.

This scene really shattered their three views.

On the other hand, the Qin family's old grandmother secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

She'd bet everything on Lin Yi, but it was the riskiest bet she'd ever made in her life.

Even when she had bet on the four Seas "royal families under the pressure of the sea goddess Hall, she had not been as frightened as she was now. One had to know that even she herself could not believe it when she had come to this conclusion.

If she had not been driven by reason and forced to make this choice, no matter how dissatisfied she was with the high priest, she would have chosen to endure it under the threat of his powerful strength.

Fortunately, she did not make a mistake!

Lin Yi nodded at the ecstatic Qin Qing and looked at the crowd, "I'm sorry to have kept everyone waiting. "

The higher-ups of the Qin clan hurriedly said in unison that they didn't dare. Their attitudes were completely different from before.

They couldn't be blamed for being realistic. It was human nature.

Although they couldn't see the exact scene of Lin Yi and the head exalt's fight, to be able to take out the head exalt one on one, especially when Lin Yi was only an early phase golden class venerable on the surface, the meaning behind this was enough to make people shudder.

No matter which angle they looked at it from, Lin Yi was on a completely different level from them. The only thing they could do in the future was to look up to him.

Although the title of Sea King was not enough to scare them, if it was coupled with the extraordinary strength that was enough to kill the high priest, it was a completely different concept.

Lin Yi's weight in their eyes was almost on par with the four Seas 'royal families, truly above their entire Qin family!

Chapter 10098

"King hai hai is indeed worthy of being personally chosen by the Lord seagod. In the future, there'll definitely be a place for King hai hai in the sea region. His prospects are promising."

The old lady said, bowing to Lin Yi in front of everyone.

The patriarch, Qin Kaiyun, followed suit and bowed. Seeing this, everyone else also followed suit.

This bow meant that house Qin had chosen to lower their heads to Lin Yi, following his lead from now on!

The Qin family had voted.

Lin Yi smiled and returned the greeting. "Thank you for your help, old Madam. We'll be in the same boat in the future!"

"We'll go through thick and thin together!"Qin family's old grandmother was overjoyed.

Qin Kaiyun was slightly stunned, but he still went forward and said sincerely,""I was blind before. I hope you can forgive me. In the future, if you have any plans, the Qin family will do our best!"

Strictly speaking, he really couldn't be blamed for making an error in judgment.

After all, not everyone had the vision of the Qin family's old grandmother that transcended the times, and even more so, not everyone had the courage to put everything on the line like her. If he, Qin Kaiyun, really had such ability, the Qin family would have been in a completely different situation now, and not just the fifth royal family in name.

Lin Yi waved his hand generously."You're too kind, master Qin. We're friends after all, but we're still the same."

Regardless of his impression of Qin Kaiyun, as long as the other party was willing to surrender, he would naturally welcome him with open arms.

In the huge Qin family, just the Qin family's grandmother, who had extraordinary vision, was already worth a city. Because as long as she was there, as long as he did not pull strings to an unsightly extent in the future, the Qin family would never become pig teammates.

That was enough.

Having said that, although he and the high priest had already decided who would win, the high priest still needed a lot of courage to make such a public declaration of surrender.

After all, he had only proven that he had the strength to match the identity of Sea King, but he had not yet proven that he could withstand the powerful attacks of the four Seas 'royal families!

Qin Yitong's hands and feet turned cold as he watched this scene.

The situation was clearly set in stone, but he didn't know why it had suddenly become like this. It was a sure-win situation, so how did it suddenly collapse?

He couldn't understand it at all.

But that didn't matter anymore. Now that Lin Yi was in power, it meant that he was sentenced to death.

If he hadn't been so arrogant just now, he might still have had a chance to struggle on whilst at death's door. No matter what, he was the eldest son of the Qin family's first wife. His symbolic significance was huge. Even if he was excluded from the successor candidate, he wouldn't be exterminated.

Even Lin Yi wouldn't do anything to him in order to get on house Qin's good side. He would probably turn a blind eye.

However, Qin Yitong had just publicly disobeyed his grandmother. At this moment, he had already cut himself off from the Qin family. It was impossible for the entire Qin family to tolerate his existence.

Everyone looked at the old grandmother.

At this moment, Qin Kaiyun spoke first. "Qin Yitong has disobeyed his elders and colluded with foreign enemies. His crime is unforgivable. In the name of the family head, I propose to exile him to the eighteen levels of hell. Who agrees and who disagrees?"

"Eighteen levels of hell?"

Lin Yi's eyes twitched. There was a place like this in the sea? Or was it just a simple image?

Seeing this, Qin Qing took the initiative to come over and explain, "That's the name of an oceanic trench. It's currently the deepest and most unfathomable trench known in the entire sea area. So far, no one has been able to explore its bottom. However, this trench has extraordinary significance and is the foundation of our Qin family."

Lin Yi nodded, understanding.

Before he came here, he had ordered the Python to seal off the Qin family's communication channels with the mainland. At first glance, it seemed to be smooth sailing, but in fact, he had warned him that it was just a pretense deliberately put up by the Qin family.

The true core channel of the Qin family was an extremely deep oceanic trench.

However, it had always been hidden extremely well. Even with the sea God's temple's intelligence gathering abilities, they had never been able to find out the exact location.

Sealing off the channels on the surface like he did could only be said to be more symbolic than substantial. In fact, it could not hurt the true vitality of the Qin family at all.

It was also because of this that Lin Yi was so surprised and happy to see the old lady's surrender!

Those who didn't know might think that she was forced to sign the agreement, but the truth was that all of this was the Qin family's old grandmother's initiative to place a bet.

Such a strong and decisive courage was definitely rare in the entire sea area.

At that moment, Qin Yitong, who was the person involved, turned pale. He looked at Qin Kaiyun in disbelief. "Father, you're giving up on me just like that?"

Although the 18 levels of hell were only a trench, once he was sent there, it would really be a dark hell. He didn't dare to imagine the kind of life that was worse than a dog.

"You brought this upon yourself," Qin Kaiyun sighed.

The rest of the Qin family higher-ups all looked at him, but no one stood out to speak for him.

In fact, anyone with a discerning eye could see that Qin Kaiyun's initiative to banish Qin Yitong to the eighteen levels of hell was actually to protect him.

Otherwise, based on the Qin family's rules, the crime of disobeying the old grandmother alone would be unforgivable even if he died a hundred times.

Being exiled was indeed difficult to endure, but as the saying went, it was better to live than to die a good death. It was much better than being directly executed on the spot.

Unfortunately, Qin Yitong did not think so.

"Have you ever thought that you might have been deceived by this kid's tricks?"

Qin Yitong stomped his feet and roared hysterically, ""That's the high priest we're talking about. In the entire sea realm, how many people can say that they can defeat him in a one-on-one battle? He's just a golden class early phase venerable, and you guys think it's believable?"

Everyone was speechless.

This matter was indeed inconceivable and could not be explained with common sense, but since his grandmother had personally confirmed this, there was no doubt about it.

No one would question grandmother's judgment. The Qin family wouldn't, and those who had dealt with grandmother wouldn't either.

In fact, even Qin Yitong himself understood that no matter what methods he used, the head exalt had lost to Lin Yi. He just didn't want to accept this.

He was unwilling to accept this.

No one paid any attention to his hysteria. Qin Kaiyun sighed and ordered, ""Take him away."

He had once placed high hopes on his eldest son, and now he finally saw the background of the Qin unification. On the surface, it looked extremely bright, but in reality, it could not be created.

On the other hand, although Qin Qing, who had never been in his eyes, couldn't turn the tide with his own strength this time, he had at least proved two points.

Firstly, he valued relationships.

Secondly, he had good vision.

For a conservative master, these two points were enough-with his grandmother and him protecting them, as long as they could maintain a good relationship with Lin Yi, the Qin family's future would be bright.

Chapter 10099

Two consecrated experts appeared silently. One on the left and one on the right, they held Qin Yitong.

Although they were not as powerful as the head exalt, they were still the top combat power of the Qin family. In front of them, Qin Yitong, who was a mid-stage golden class venerable, could not even withstand a single blow.

In truth, Qin Yitong was not stupid enough to fight them head-on. That would be asking for trouble.

Now that something like the head deacon had happened, they, the experts of the Qin clan who were held in high regard, had to use their actions to prove their loyalty. Otherwise, they might be the next unlucky ones.

"You will regret this! You will regret this!"

Qin Yitong shouted madly.

However, just as everyone thought that he was struggling in vain and was unwilling to face reality, black ripples suddenly burst out from his body, and the silhouettes of four black dragons were faintly visible.

Everyone present was shocked, ""Four-Dragon Seal?!"

This was the most famous sealing art in the entire sea realm because its owner was the Royal clans of the four Seas. Only the current Kings of the four Seas could use it when they worked together.

However, although it was called a sealing technique, its effect was not just sealing. Or rather, sealing was just one of its most inconspicuous effects.

Legend had it that it could gather the luck of the four Seas and quickly increase the target's Foundation. At the same time, it could also allow the target to establish a direct connection with the current Kings of the four Seas 'Royal clans, directly reaching heaven's ears.

As such, only the most qualified royal descendants could enjoy it.

As a member of the Qin family, especially as the future successor of the family head, Qin Yitong was actually sealed with four Dragon seals. One could imagine what it meant.

Qin Kaiyun's expression instantly turned extremely ugly. ""You've actually secretly joined the four Seas 'Royal clans?"

The rest of the Qin family members were also filled with righteous indignation and scolded themselves for making a wrong judgment.

Although the Qin family was founded on the four Seas 'royal families, in the eyes of outsiders, the Qin family, the fifth royal family, was a natural vassal of the four Seas' royal families. They were an inseparable community of interests.

However, only the Qin clan knew that they had always been doing their best to resist the invasion of the four Seas 'Royal clans. The price they had paid for this was immeasurable.

His grandmother had once said bluntly that once they lost their independence, the Qin family would not be far from defeat.

As the publicly acknowledged successor of the family head, Qin Yitong was actually secretly bound to the four Seas 'Royal clans. One must know that although the four Dragon Seal had various benefits, at the same time, it would also be under the strong control of the four Seas' Royal clans.

In other words, from the moment the seal of the four dragons landed on the ground, he, Qin Yitong, had already become the puppet of the four Seas 'royal families!

Everyone collectively shuddered.

If they really followed the original development and let Qin Yi take over the position of the family head, the royal families of the four Seas would be able to control the Qin family quietly. Such means really made people feel a chill down their backs.

"Hahahaha!" Qin Yitong laughed crazily. "All of you have eyes but failed to see clearly. You can't see the future. Can you blame me?" In the future, the sea area would definitely be the world of the four Seas' royal families. This was a matter that was set in stone. Only those who knew how to adapt to the current situation could occupy a place in the future!

Originally, under my leadership, the Qin family could have truly become the fifth royal family. Unfortunately, it was destroyed by you short-sighted people!"

"....."

Everyone was speechless.

This person had already gone completely mad. It was unknown if he was already this stubborn to begin with or if he had been deeply brainwashed by the four dragons seal. There was no cure for him.

"Not good!"

Qin Kaiyun's eyelids suddenly twitched as he came to a realization. Almost at the same time as he spoke, the power of the four Dragon Seal erupted.

The four black Dragon phantoms formed a passageway that broke through the space and rapidly sucked Qin Yitong in. Then, the passageway was closed, not giving anyone any chance to react.

When the passage closed, Qin Yitong's loud laughter was heard, followed by a declaration that left everyone dumbfounded.

"Just you wait. I will create another Qin family to replace you bunch of blind fools and become the true fifth royal family!"

Everyone's faces turned ashen.

With the deliberate support of the four Seas' royal families, once he really created a second Qin clan, their situation would be really awkward.

Although he believed in his grandmother's judgment, it was undeniable that the actual controllers of the sea area were still the royal families of the four Seas. If they really wanted to make a second-place Qin family to replace them, they really had no countermeasures.

However, what happened next made everyone's jaws drop.

Qin Yitong, who had clearly been pulled away by the four-Dragon Seal, suddenly reappeared in front of everyone without any warning.

Not to mention the crowd, even Qin Yitong himself was dumbfounded.

Only grandma Qin saw the traces of time rule power, and her eyes flashed with surprise. She turned to Lin Yi and bowed, ""Thank you for your help, King Hai hai hai."

"It's just a small trick, I'm sorry to have embarrassed myself, old Madam. "Lin Yi smiled.

"The rules of time are a great Dao. If they can't even be displayed, then there's nothing else in the world that can be displayed."

The Qins finally came back to their senses after hearing their grandmother's words, and they looked at Lin Yi with even more respect.

Although it was just a simple time backtrack, it was targeted at the four Dragon seals. The level of power contained within it was beyond the imagination of ordinary people.

Many people were guessing that Lin Yi's control of time had to be at least thirty percent to be able to do this!

They didn't know that they were really overthinking it.

Lin Yi's control of time was only five percent, and there wasn't any change from before. The real change came from the New World.

After devouring such a super-large tonic like the high priest, the new world's interior had undergone an earth-shattering change.

Before this, the world had only just been separated. Now, not only was the sky getting bigger and wider, but the air was also starting to become fresher. More importantly, traces of water had appeared for the first time in the New World.

This wasn't the water Lin Yi brought in from the outside world-it was the water naturally formed after the New World absorbed a large amount of laws!

Water was the source of life.

For any world, the appearance of water would definitely be a symbolic milestone. It was a whole new step.

Lin Yi's strength was deeply tied to the New World, and this meant that he could go higher in the future, and he could also hunt higher level prey.

On top of that, it also meant that Lin Yi's comprehension of laws was deeper, and he could control them more freely!

The same rule control could double the effect in his hands before, but now in his hands, it could double the foundation!

Five percent of the time rule was at least comparable to twenty percent!

Chapter 10100

Although the absolute power did not change, the effect of using it was completely different. It was like the same small knife, which was just a toy in the hands of a child, but in the hands of an adult, it could become a sharp weapon to kill.

Turning back time against the four Dragon seals was something unimaginable before, but it wasn't a problem for Lin Yi now.

"Impossible! That's impossible!"

At this moment, Qin Yitong was finally panicking. All his confidence was built on the four-Dragon Seal. He knew that he was still of value, and the four Seas' royal families would not give up on him so easily.

However, now that the seal of the four dragons had been broken, even if the royal families of the four Seas wanted to protect him, they would be too far away to do so.

At this moment, he was truly in a hopeless situation.

Everyone in the Qin family looked at him as if he was a dead man. Before this, Qin Yitong could still be exiled to the 18th level of hell and still have a chance to live. But now, this chance had been personally destroyed by him.

It was impossible for any power to tolerate people who helped outsiders, not to mention that this person had personally declared that he wanted to create another Qin family. This was a great taboo that they absolutely could not tolerate!

At this time, even Qin Kaiyun could no longer exonerate him. Otherwise, even his current position as the family head would be questioned.

After all, the Qin family was the Qin family of all the Qin family members. Even Qin Kaiyun, the family head, had to put the interests of the entire family first. Who would allow an unfilial son who threatened to create another Qin family to continue living?

Every day that Qin Yitong lived was a huge threat to the entire Qin family, because he might really be replaced.

From the moment he said those words, they were destined to fight to the death.

Feeling the killing intent from the crowd, Qin Yitong no longer had any confidence. He immediately knelt down in front of Qin Kaiyun.

"I was just bewitched by the four Seas 'Royal clans. I really didn't have any thoughts of betraying the Qin family. Father, you have to believe me. All of this wasn't my original intention!"

As he spoke, tears fell from his eyes. The degree of his devotion was truly saddening and tearful.

He knew that only Qin Kaiyun could save him at this time.

Unfortunately, having reached the position of the Qin family's head, how could Qin Kaiyuan not have this basic judgment?

"I didn't know that the four-Dragon Seal could control a person's will. Qin Yitong, you still haven't come to your senses. You've really gone too far."

Qin Kaiyun sighed and glanced at the two consecrators beside him before silently turning around.

When Qin Yitong saw this, his heart sank to the bottom of the valley. He was really going to give up on him completely.

The two priests looked at each other and immediately attacked at the same time.

This time, he did not just want to restrain Qin Yitong. Instead, he wanted to kill him on the spot!

Qin Kaiyun was shocked. With his own strength, there was no way he could resist. At this moment, the four black Dragon phantoms that had just disappeared reappeared, erupting with a deafening dragon roar.

His aura was so fierce that it forced the two Qin clan sinecures to retreat directly, unable to get close at all.

Everyone was shocked.

Now that the high priest was dead, these two were the face of the Qin family's combat power. He didn't expect that they couldn't even get close to him!

The four-Dragon passage opened again.

Qin Yitong was overjoyed. He had thought that he would die for sure and did not expect that he would be able to escape death. He immediately laughed, ""All of you better remember this. I will return today's shame a hundredfold in the future!"

After he finished speaking, he jumped into the passage, leaving the Qin family members feeling indignant but helpless.

Qin Yitong's proud and wild laughter continued. At this time, Lin Yi's calm voice sounded, ""There's no need to wait for the next day. Today's pretty good. "

Before anyone could react, an extremely high-level mysterious force wrapped around Qin Yitong.

The four-Dragon Seal was obviously in a defensive stance. However, the difference in power between the two was too great. It could not even withstand a single blow from this force. Qin Yitong immediately disappeared.

"What's the situation?"

The Qin family members were confused.

Qin Yitong, on the other hand, had been sucked into the new world. Capturing a commander-level master of the sea was extremely difficult, but if it was someone like him, capturing him was nothing more than a thought to the current Lin Yi.

Lin Yi had already thrown him out in front of the Qin family.

“.....”

Qin Yitong was completely dumbfounded. He looked at the crowd with his mouth agape. Until now, he had yet to react to what had happened.

Seeing that the power of the four-Dragon Seal was not willing to give up and was coming back again, the Qin family members did not miss the opportunity this time. The Qin family's old grandmother and Qin Kaiyun attacked almost at the same time.

However, in the end, the Qin family's old grandmother's attack was the first to land on Qin Yitong's body.

Qin Yitong could not even make a sound as he died on the spot. In an instant, he could not be more dead.

Everyone's eyelids twitched.

Although Qin Yitong had to die, the old grandmother's decisiveness had greatly exceeded their expectations.

After all, in all of their impressions, ever since she had retired to the second line, grandmother had no longer cared about the world and was enjoying her remaining years. She had a kind face and was no different from an ordinary old lady.

The attack just now made them recall the elegant demeanor of the decisive Iron Lady in killing!

Even Lin Yi couldn't help but raise a brow.

The strength that the Qin family's old grandmother had displayed at this moment was not much weaker than the high priest 's. It was enough to see that the old Madam was able to move unhindered across the four Seas not only because of her foresight that transcended the times, but also because she had a corresponding powerful strength!

To be able to gain an ally like the Qin family, he had indeed gained a lot. It was the right decision to come.

Qin Kaiyun was stunned for a moment. After sighing at Qin Yitong's corpse, he turned to his grandmother and bowed. ""Many thanks, mother."

He knew that the reason why his grandmother was able to beat him to it was so that he would not have to bear the pain of killing his son.

Although Qin Yitong deserved to die for his actions, he was still the successor that he had painstakingly nurtured for so many years. His feelings for Qin Yitong were much deeper than his other children.

If he were to personally execute Qin Yitong today, he would live in a huge shadow for the rest of his life. With his personality, there was a high probability that he would never recover from this.

The Qin family's old grandmother sighed softly. "I'm already half-dead, it doesn't matter if I carry more things. You still have a lot of time. Just remember this lesson."

Qin Kaiyun nodded and glanced at the crowd before announcing, ""From today onwards, Qin Qing will be the heir of the Qin family. He must actively participate in all matters of the Qin family, big and small. He can not slack off!"

With just one sentence, he had publicly confirmed Qin Qing's position as the successor to the family.

"Yes, your child!" Qin Qing was overjoyed and quickly agreed.

No one was surprised by this. This was originally a battle between Qin Yitong and Qin Qing to be the successor. Now that Qin Yitong was finished, naturally, it could only be Qin Qing who took over.
