

Bodyguard 10241

Chapter 10241

The other party was speechless.

Other things aside, at least from the current results, Lin Yi's Ascension didn't improve their living conditions, but made them worse to a certain extent.

As the few of them were talking, there was a sudden commotion in front of the team.

A middle-aged man who looked like a manager with a big belly said with his nose up, ""Because our Chen family's stock is limited, from now on, the price of life crystals will be doubled. We have limited stock, so if you want to buy, do it quickly!"

Everyone was in an uproar.

The price here was already twice as high as the original price, which was equivalent to three times the original price. Now that it was doubled, it was a full six times the original price!

The old man fainted on the spot when he heard this.

For an ordinary person like him, the original price was already the limit that his family could afford. Now that it had skyrocketed to six times the original price, his family could not afford it at all!

The problem was that life crystals were not consumer goods, but a necessity for survival.

Once he couldn't afford life crystals, the tragedy of the family of nine would be his family's lesson!

Lin Yi quickly held him up and sent some gentle Qi into his body.

The middle-aged manager looked at the old man and pouted, ""If you can't afford it, then don't buy it. Hurry up and go home to wait for your death, so you don't dirty this place, poor ghost."

"How can you say that?"

The surrounding people couldn't take it anymore.

Not only could the old man's family not afford six times the price, but many of them couldn't afford it either. Even if they sold everything they had and barely made it through this time, what about the future?

In the face of public anger, the middle-aged manager was fearless. ""This is the Chen family's private property, so we can raise the price however we want. If you bunch of paupers are not happy with it, you can choose not to buy it.

I'll say this now, but the stock of life crystals will only decrease in the future, so the price will continue to rise.

Today's price may seem high, but compared to the future, it's still the cheapest price. If you don't want to take advantage of this, it's the smart ones. It's up to you to buy or not. "

His words directly made everyone speechless.

At least on the surface, they really didn't know how to refute it. After all, when it came to business, one was willing to hit and the other was willing to take. As long as it wasn't forced, they really couldn't find any reason to argue with it.

Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head.

In the end, it was still because the sea had been in chaos for a long time, and everyone's knowledge was limited. Any person from the secular world could immediately see the loophole in the other party's words.

The market was indeed about mutual consent, but when it came to survival necessities, it was not in the scope of free trade.

Especially in this situation where there was an obvious regional monopoly, the buyer had no right to negotiate the price. In the eyes of the seller, they were completely lambs waiting to be slaughtered, and they would be squeezed dry.

In this case, it was difficult to solve the problem by relying on the buyer group alone. They could only rely on the intervention of a powerful third-party organization!

Seeing that everyone was angry but did not dare to speak, the middle-aged manager laughed nonchalantly, "Of course, you don't have to buy it from my Chen family. Here, that's the shop of the official camp. The price is very cheap.

Hehe, can you paupers even buy it?"

Everyone was speechless.

At this moment, the old man slowly woke up. Before he could speak, a middle-aged woman rushed over from the distance. "Old man, your Xiao Xun 'er can't hold on much longer. The village doctor said that it's been too long since he's been supplemented with life crystals. The child's body is too small and thin, and he can't hold on much longer. At most, he can hold on for another day!"

"Xiao Xun 'er ..."

The old man almost passed out when he heard that. He trembled and struggled to speak to the middle-aged manager, "Mr. Manager, please do me a favor and sell me some life crystals to save my granddaughter's life. I'm begging you!"

After he finished speaking, he knelt down.

The middle-aged manager's lips curled up. "You don't have to be so polite. My family sells this. How can I refuse a customer?" Since you're in a hurry to buy it, how can my Chen family not help you?"

Everyone looked at each other, but this was indeed a reasonable statement.

However, before they could change their minds, the middle-aged steward continued, ""But the rules can't be broken. There are so many people in line. I can't let you jump the line just because your family is in a hurry, right?

If you want to do things on a special basis, you have to pay a different price!

It's not easy for you at your age. How about this, I'll double the price I just said. That's a good price. "

"....."

The crowd was in an uproar. They looked at the old man with eyes full of sympathy. It was really eight generations of bad luck to meet such an unscrupulous merchant.

The old man gritted his teeth, but when he thought of his poor little granddaughter, he could only bite the bullet and buy an emergency kit even if he had to dig out all his savings!

But before he could say anything, Lin Yi helped him up, "Uncle, don't worry. Isn't that official shop open? I'll Take You There to buy some."

"Where can i buy it?"

The middle-aged steward opposite him sneered, ""Where did you come from? Did they really think that anyone could enter the official shop? hehe, they really didn't know their place!

Let me make it clear to you, doubling the price is the current price. If you pass this village, there won't be such a shop again. At that time, if you ask again, you will have to double the price. Think about it before you decide. "

The old man hurriedly said, "buy, buy, buy!" I'll buy it now!"

He didn't care about Lin Yi's dissuasion and stumbled after the man. Before he left, he said to Lin Yi, "Young man, I know you're doing this for my own good. Thank you, but my granddaughter can't afford to take the risk ..."

There were sighs.

The bystanders could empathize with him. Today, it was the old man who was "specially taken care of," but tomorrow, it might be them.

In a weak position, they were destined to be sucked dry. Each and every one of them could not escape from being squeezed dry. The only difference was whether it was one day earlier or one day later.

Lin Yi looked at the old man, not stopping him.

As an old man, he had no other choice. After all, this was his granddaughter's life. He couldn't possibly pin his hopes on a stranger like him, right?

However, today's trip was for real.

Lin Yi turned around and left the group.

Not long after, the middle-aged manager curled his lips in disdain when he saw the old man walk out of the shop with a fist-sized Life Crystal.

"Their entire fortune is only enough to buy the lowest quality life Crystal. It's not even enough for one person to smoke for seven days. What a poor old man. Serves him right!"

After he finished scolding, he turned around and asked the attendant beside him, "where's that blind brat?" This kind of hothead is stirring up trouble everywhere, sooner or later he'll be a disaster. Find someone to lock him up, and if we can't squeeze anything out of him, just kill him. "

Chapter 10242

"The servants are watching him. They just saw him go to the official's shop," the attendant replied.

"An official camp?"

The middle-aged manager couldn't help but laugh. "Interesting. He's really an iron-headed hothead. Let's go and watch the show."

Lin Yi walked into the shop.

The decorations were luxurious, but compared to the long line on the other side, which was only a hundred meters apart, this side was empty. Not to mention the line, there was not even a shadow to be seen.

"Hey, what are you doing?"

A voice came from behind the counter. It was a woman dressed as a maidservant.

"I'm here to buy some life crystals. I heard that the price is 70% of what it used to be. "

"That's right, it's indeed 70%,"

"Give me your identity token," the servant girl nodded.

Lin Yi nodded and handed over an identity card.

Of course, this was not his own identity card. However, it was not forged either. He had asked hou mo he to arrange it before he came.

East Ocean, West Ocean, and South Ocean, as long as they were under his jurisdiction in name, they all had to change their identity cards. This was an important proof for many things in the future, including the purchase of life crystals.

However, the other party only took a symbolic glance and immediately threw the identity card back."King hai hai has set a limit of three pieces per person per month. You've already used up your quota, so you can wait for next month."

"I've never bought one before," Lin Yi said with a squint.

The maidservant shrugged her shoulders indifferently."That's not my business. Anyway, you can't buy more identity cards. Let's go."

"I heard that commoners can't get in here, and only the rich and powerful can buy low-cost life crystals. I didn't believe it at first, but it seems like it's true," Lin Yi said faintly.

Lowering the price was a good thing, but now that it had turned into this situation, it was a good thing and a bad thing.

"What nonsense are you spouting?"

The maidservant's expression changed, and she hurriedly called over a group of burly expert guards, ""This person is looking for trouble, hurry up and throw him out."

However, before the guards could surround him, Lin Yi only narrowed his eyes and they all fainted on the ground.

With his current strength, experts below the Yuanying stage couldn't even withstand his aura, not to mention close combat.

As for the maidservant, she naturally couldn't withstand the impact of such an aura and fainted as well.

Lin Yi walked to the counter and took out the account book.

On the surface, everything looked normal. The sales were strictly in accordance with the quota, and more than 50000 life crystals had been sold. However, this account couldn't stand any scrutiny.

That was because the name on his identity card was also among them. He had just bought three life crystals!

"It's easy to pull my balls if I take too big a step. "

Lin Yi was starting to regret his decision-he'd gotten used to being a two-handed manager, always leaving everything to others, but it seemed like he had to put in the effort now.

But then again, this was mainly because he had grown too fast. His strength had increased, and he had gained territory, but his team configuration had not caught up.

It was only a matter of time before something happened.

"How dare you! He fangxiao, how dare you barge into my official camp!"

With a loud shout, a group of Masters suddenly entered and surrounded Lin Yi.

Compared to the guards on the ground, this group of people was obviously stronger, but what surprised Lin Yi was that they were all female practitioners!

Unlike on land, the proportion of female cultivators in the vast sea was not low. It could be said that they were everywhere.

However, a group of pure female cultivators like this was still quite rare. Most importantly, the strength of these women could not be considered low, and they had all reached the threshold of the giant realm.

In addition, they were all swordsmen.

The sword formation was full of flaws in Lin Yi's eyes, but it was a rare and powerful sword formation for most practitioners.

Such a lineup, placed in such a remote area, was already completely invincible.

A gentle female voice came from outside the door, ""Let's save the one on the ground first. It's too embarrassing to lie down like this."

The group of female cultivators nodded and immediately tried to wake up the guard on the ground. However, no matter how she tried, there was no movement at all. She clearly did not seem to be injured, but there was no sign of her being woken up.

"The people I knocked down won't wake up so easily."

Lin Yi said casually. He looked at the lady and shook his head.

The woman was beautiful, but she only had the appearance. She did not have any otherworldly temperament. She could not even compare to the ordinary-looking Wei Yu 'er, let alone Chu Mengyao and the other female confidants.

At least, Wei Yu 'er had the temperament.

"Who are you?" the woman frowned and looked at him.

"I should be the one asking that question-this is the official shop, are you the manager?" Lin Yi asked.

"How audacious! You actually dare to speak to my family's young lady in such a tone!"

All the female cultivators roared as their swords surged with sword Qi, trying to suppress Lin Yi with their sword formation.

However, Lin Yi only glanced at them casually before the swords all fell to the ground, tilted at a 45-degree angle towards him.

It was a scene of collective worship!

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Lin Yi didn't mind at all-he was a true Sword Saint now, and even the ten great ancient swords had to bow down to him. The remaining sword souls in the sword tomb all respected him like a god, let alone these ordinary swords.

As long as it had a bit of intelligence, it would worship it. This was their innate instinct.

The female cultivators had never seen such a scene before, and they couldn't help but turn pale with fright.

The gentle and charming woman's heart trembled. Obviously, she also knew that she had encountered a tough one. She immediately reported her family's background, "My name is Chen Ping 'er. I am the manager of this official business. How should I address you?"

"Chen Ping 'er?"

Lin Yi ignored her question and continued, "What's the relationship between you and the Chen family's shop next door?"

Chen pinger narrowed her eyes. "This doesn't seem to have anything to do with you, Sir." She said.

Lin Yi curled his lips, "What do you mean it doesn't matter?" I'm here to buy life crystals, but the people here said that I've already bought them this month and there's no more quota. According to this, I can only buy them from the other side. The price is too high, I can't afford it. "

“.....”

For a moment, no one could refute him.

Although life crystals were the most basic material for survival, it was never something that a truly powerful expert would lack, even if they were penniless.

After all, this thing was like food. As long as you had the strength, everyone could be your Granary.

Chapter 10243

The ones who would truly die because of life crystals were always the lower class commoners.

No matter where it was, this had always been the case in every dynasty.

With Lin Yi's strength, it would be a piece of cake for him to take the life crystals.

Furthermore, as long as he made a move, Chen pinger would not send anyone to take revenge. She would only admit that she was unlucky. At most, she would report the matter and put him on the official blacklist.

She was a businessman and was good at weighing the pros and cons.

After a moment of silence, Chen Ping 'er made a decisive decision and ordered, ""I'll give this young hero a bag of ten life crystals. "

Soon, the items were placed in front of Lin Yi.

Chen Ping 'er raised her eyebrows. "You don't have to pay. This is my gift to you. You don't hit a smiling person. How about we be friends?"

"You want to be friends with me?"

"Ten isn't enough," Lin Yi smiled, "my price isn't low, I'm afraid you can't afford it."

"Not enough?" Chen Ping 'er asked directly. "Not enough?" Then I'll give you another 30. If you need it in the future, you're welcome to come again. "

A total of 40 life crystals.

If it was placed outside, it would probably cause a disturbance in the long queue. After all, it was enough for most of their families to last for an entire year. If they were in good health, it could even last for two or three years.

"Still not enough." Lin Yi continued to shake his head.

Chen Ping 'er's face finally sank. ""My Chen family is a Big Local family, and we think we are generous and hospitable. We shouldn't have offended you in any way. Isn't it a little too much for you to be so aggressive?"

Lin Yi looked out the door,"so that Chen house across the street is your Chen house, right?"

This is interesting. You can't buy low-cost life crystals in official shops, but your own shop is selling them at five, six, or even ten times the sky-high price. It just so happens that you're the manager here.

Hehe, aren't you afraid of being investigated by the higher-ups when you do things so blatantly?"

After he finished speaking, he swept his gaze across the room. Two figures outside the door staggered and fell to their knees in front of the crowd. They were the middle-aged manager and his attendant who had come to watch the show.

The middle-aged manager looked at the guards who had fallen to the ground and could not help but be dumbfounded.

Only when he felt Chen Ping 'er's murderous gaze did he quickly get up with a quiver. He shrunk his neck and said, ""Young miss, I'm afraid that this kid will cause trouble, so I'm here to take a look ..."

Chen pinger ignored him and looked at Lin Yi, ""Although your strength is high, you can't be higher than King hai hai, right? Aren't you afraid of being noticed by the king of the sea by causing trouble here?"

"You know hai hai Wang?" Lin Yi raised a brow, surprised.

Chen Ping 'er snorted. The middle-aged steward quickly said, ""Kid, look carefully. This is an official's shop. Without some real connections, who can take it down?"

Lin Yi tilted his head, "that's interesting. I've done some research on this coastal water King. As far as I know, he's not a native of the sea and has no background here. Do you have a relationship with him?"

The middle-aged manager carefully glanced at Chen pinger. Seeing that she had no intention of stopping him, he immediately said arrogantly, ""Although my family's young lady has nothing to do with hai hai Wang himself, she has an engagement with his good brother, and they're about to get married soon!"

"Good brother? Who is it?"

Lin Yi was really curious now.

Shen Yifan and his gang from Jianghai Academy were his sworn brothers, but in this Sea region, no one could call him brother. At most, they were allies.

Who was this good brother who had appeared out of nowhere?

"Of course!" The middle-aged manager raised his chin. "It's the young master of the Qin family, Qin Qing!"

"You're Qin Qing's fianc e?"

Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head. Although Qin Qing was indeed a friend, he was still far from being a good brother.

The reason why he valued Qin Qing so much wasn't because of Qin Qing herself, but rather because of the Qin family's connections and the Qin family's old grandmother who was very knowledgeable.

He looked at Chen Pinger again and laughed, ""With his vision as a passionate young master, he shouldn't be so hung up on a tree like you. I don't really believe it."

"You!"

Chen Ping'er immediately exploded with anger.

This had always been a pain in her heart. Although Qin Qing was engaged to her, she had never looked at her in the eye. It was as if she was an unsightly, ordinary woman who would dirty her eyes if she looked at her more than once.

In fact, in Qin Qing's eyes, she was just an ordinary woman who only had good looks on her body. In Lin Yi's eyes, she was also an ordinary woman.

After a moment of silence, Chen pinger gritted her teeth and said,""Based on your attitude, it seems like there's no room for leeway?"

"You didn't leave any room for the people waiting outside," Lin Yi said faintly, "how am I supposed to leave any room for you?" If I let you and the Chen family off so easily today, it won't make any sense. "

"What big words!"

Seeing this, the middle-aged manager jumped out and shouted,""Idiot who doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth, do you know the name of our Chen family? The number one restaurant in the distant sea!"

"What a great number one restaurant in the distant sea."

Lin Yi chuckled and snapped his fingers, and an ancient-looking woman came in.

Chen Ping 'er's eyelids twitched. In terms of exquisite facial features, she didn't think she would lose to him. But in terms of overall temperament, even she had to admit that he was far above her. There was no comparison at all.

"Ning Wanjun!"

This name was almost squeezed out from between her teeth. Even though they were thousands of miles apart, she had been paying attention to the woman next to Qin Qing and had even asked someone to draw a portrait of her.

Naturally, he had a deep impression of this extraordinary woman who had once played Qin Qing.

Ning Wanjun didn't even look at her, walking straight to Lin Yi's side with a Jade scroll in her hands,""Master, the evidence of the Chen family's crimes has been collected."

Chen Ping 'er was dumbfounded."You, you called him master?" she asked.

Towards this woman who Qin Qing couldn't get, her resentment was so deep that she directly ignored the main point. Instead, she was shocked by the word "master".

Ning Wanjun actually called this man 'master'. Wouldn't that mean that Qin Qing had an extra green hat on her head?

What they didn't know was that ning Wanjun was now the leader of the special inspection team under Lin Yi, in charge of monitoring all parties.

It wasn't too big yet, so it wasn't too eye-catching, but in the foreseeable future, as Lin Yi's power rose, especially when he really became the ruler of the four Seas, her monitoring group would grow into a giant that the entire sea would be afraid of.

And she indeed had such an ability.

It'd only been two hours since Lin Yi gave the order, and he'd already collected all the evidence from house Chen. There were only a handful of people under Lin Yi who had the same ability as him.

Chapter 10244

Lin Yi said as he looked at the manager.

Ning Wanjun immediately understood."He directly or indirectly killed 45 commoners, raped 73 commoner women, and took a total of 640000 spiritual jades from various parties."

The so-called civilians here were not all ordinary people. The vast majority of them were cultivators below the foundation establishment stage.

It was inevitable for cultivators to kill each other. This was a part of cultivation.

However, according to the unspoken rules, unless those below the Foundation Stage took the initiative to participate, they absolutely would not be involved in any vendetta in the pugilistic world. The so-called "disaster does not involve family members," also referred to the family members below the Foundation Stage.

The sea was chaotic, but there was still some order.

However, this was just a common folk rule, and there were no hard restrictions. Once someone broke it, other than the retaliation from his friends, relatives, or the chivalrous Paladins, the only thing left was moral condemnation.

And things like morality were naturally non-existent to some animals.

Just like the Chen family's steward in front of him. With such a huge debt of blood and evil deeds, not only did he not suffer any substantial punishment, but he could also continue to act like a tyrant.

If they didn't meet Lin Yi today, who knew how many more civilians would've been killed by him in the future!

In the entire sea region, there were more than tens of millions of such beasts. It would not be an exaggeration to say that they were everywhere.

"So, this guy should be killed?" Lin Yi's eyes darkened.

Ning Wanjun looked at the middle-aged manager with disgust and nodded heavily, ""A thousand cuts!"

All she said was a string of numbers, but the most outrageous part was the details.

At her level, she was already used to seeing the sinister nature of the human heart. If it wasn't for her extraordinary means, she would have long become one of those innocent victims.

However, even so, after seeing this person's numerous evil deeds, she still couldn't help but feel numb.

"Alright," Lin Yi nodded, "I'll cut him into a thousand pieces. "

Seeing that he was about to make a move, Chen Ping'er finally reacted. She shouted coldly, ""You dare! Provoking my Chen family is equivalent to provoking the fifth royal family, the Qin family, and the sea King! How many lives do you have to go against the sea shore King and the Qin clan!"

Ning Wanjun was about to say something when Lin Yi stopped her with a look.

"So you know everything he did?" Lin Yi asked.

Chen Pinger's eyes flashed. "So what if I know?" she asked.

"What I really want to ask is, does house Qin know about what house Chen did?" Lin Yi raised an eyebrow.

In his eyes, the Chen family was already a dead man. The key was whether the Qin family was involved in these dirty deeds.

Although it was hard to have moral demands for allies who were together for profit, especially in the chaotic sea realm where it was a matter of mutual destruction, it was unrealistic.

But if the Qins were really that weak, Lin Yi didn't mind destroying them. He'd just have to spend some effort to get another ally.

With his current reputation, as long as he raised his arm and called for it, it was not difficult to find an ally of the Qin family's size.

However, that was the worst plan.

"The Qin family ..."

Chen pinger gritted her teeth. Although she still couldn't recognize Lin Yi in person, she still felt that something was wrong. In the end, she braced herself to the end.

"My Chen family and the Qin family are one. If you dare to touch my Chen family, you are touching the fifth royal family, the Qin family. Before you do something stupid, I advise you to think it over!"

"I get it now," Lin Yi rubbed his ears.

After he finished speaking, an invisible sword Qi suddenly swam to the middle-aged manager's side like a Swift fish. Before the middle-aged manager could react, it passed through his waist, leaving a shocking bloody hole.

The middle-aged manager immediately spurted out blood. He was in great pain and was horrified.

"Don't be so nervous," Lin Yi said faintly, "I'll cut you a thousand times, and I mean it. One less cut won't kill you, it'll just hurt a little. You should be used to it by now, right?"

Before he could finish his sentence, the small fish made its way into his stomach again, and what followed was a shrill cry that sounded like a pig being slaughtered.

Seeing that the middle-aged manager's voice was exhausted and blood was spurting out of his body, but he still looked full of Qi, Chen Ping 'er and the others felt their scalps go numb.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, ignored it and asked, "Who's next?"

"Chen pinger ..." Ning Wanjun said.

He had just opened his mouth when Chen Ping 'er rushed to shout, ""Take them down!"

The female practitioners all pulled out their swords from the ground and formed a sword formation as they pounced at Lin Yi.

From the beginning, they appeared to be watching the show from the side, but in fact, they had been silently accumulating power, waiting for the opportunity to make a move.

They'd already seen part of Lin Yi's strength, and they knew that they only had one chance.

If this ambush failed, the consequences would be too horrible to imagine.

The fact was that these well-trained swordswomen were indeed strong. Their individual strength was limited, but thanks to the exquisiteness of women, their sword formation was airtight, and even with Lin Yi's eyes, he couldn't find any obvious flaws.

The only flaw was that its power was limited.

If they were only dealing with experts of the same level or one level higher than them, this kind of encirclement would be very effective.

Unfortunately, they were facing Lin Yi.

Even if Lin Yi just stood there and didn't do anything, they couldn't break his defense.

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't that bored to play with them. With a simple burst of aura, all the swordswomen were injured by their own sword Qi, and they all spat out blood.

From the beginning to the end, he didn't even raise his hand.

This was the power of a Sword Saint. When facing other sword cultivators, they had a natural upper-level suppression.

Chen pinger was completely dumbfounded.

She wasn't a fool after all. How could she not know that she had really kicked an iron plate today? she had thought that the other party was just a Ranger with good strength, but now it seemed that the person standing in front of her was simply a monstrous beast!

The only difference between this person and a giant beast was that he had the appearance of a human!

Today, not only her, but the Chen family behind her would also be swallowed up by her.

Chen Ping 'er's hands and feet were cold. Hearing the steward's continuous wailing, she said in a trembling voice, ""Who are you?"

Ning Wanjun glanced at Lin Yi and was about to answer on his behalf when a soaring blade Qi suddenly shot over from a hundred meters away. Even someone as experienced as her couldn't help but feel a chill run down her spine.

Lin Yi took a step forward, his face expressionless. His powerful sword Qi formed a shield of sword Qi, blocking the blade Qi.

Chapter 10245

However, before everyone could relax, the saber Qi that seemed to have been worn down by the sword Qi barrier suddenly exploded again.

This time, it actually broke through the sword Qi's defense and landed on Lin Yi's body!

BOOM!

The saber Qi scattered in all directions. Under the impact of the aftershock, the official camp and shop were instantly razed to the ground.

"You're pretty strong. "

After the shockwaves dissipated, Lin Yi looked at the figure in front of him, unscathed. The huge sword in his hand was particularly eye-catching.

That person was actually looking at the sword-hacking warrior.

Chu Xia looked at Lin Yi from a distance, and his cold eyes flashed with a strange light, but then he understood, ""No wonder a mere Chen family dares to be so unscrupulous. It turns out that it really has something to do with you."

Lin Yi raised a brow, "see the swordsman?" Wang hou mentioned you to me before, and to be honest, I'm quite interested in you, especially after seeing that blade of yours. "

If he didn't have his divine body, he would have been injured.

In the entire sea area, there were probably not many experts who could make him suffer a loss in a single exchange.

Chu Xia slowly carried the mo sword on his shoulder and tilted his head, ""Then I'm sorry, I'm not interested in working for you, but I'm a little interested in your head."

"Someone's paying for my head?" Lin Yi asked, surprised.

"Not bad."

Chu Xia turned around and pointed at the civilians who were hiding far away, ""They want to buy your head. I've even accepted a piece of spiritual Jade as a reward."

"My head is only worth one spiritual Jade?" Lin Yi raised his eyes.

"Too little?"

Chu Xia shrugged his shoulders. "I'm sorry. You can't decide how much your head is worth. I have the final say."

Lin Yi was silent for a moment before asking, "Why?"

He was naturally not asking about the price of a piece of spiritual Jade, but why the other party was standing in front of him so decisively.

He had studied the deeds of the sword heroes.

This person's strength in the way of the blade was needless to say. He was one of the few great blade artists in the entire sea area. More importantly, he was still very young, and there was still a huge room for improvement in his strength. Almost all the intelligence agencies unanimously asserted that if the school of the blade could be rebuilt one day in the future, it would definitely be this person.

He wasn't strong enough to catch Lin Yi's attention, but his true strength lay in his chivalry.

In the eyes of most people, chivalry and cultivators were two completely unrelated words.

Cultivators were the most realistic. They schemed and schemed against each other. For the so-called opportunity, they would not hesitate to paint the ugliest side of the world on their faces.

As for chivalry, this kind of word only existed in the eyes of the lower class commoners. It was naturally cut off from cultivators.

Although there were Rangers everywhere in the sea, they were essentially a group of unstable factors walking on the edge of order. They were not chivalrous, but just a group of stronger refugees.

Ninety-nine percent of people who flaunted chivalry were people who fished for fame with ulterior motives, but the sword-wielding man in front of him was an exception.

At least, from his past achievements, he was really carrying out these two words.

Every strike he made was on the side of chivalry, without any discount.

Even Lin Yi couldn't help but admire someone like this. In the entire world of practitioners, people like this were rare.

However, today, they were standing on opposite sides.

Chu Xia pointed at the group of civilians who were panicking and said, ""They're just standing there. Do I need to continue? And that family of nine from before, weren't they all your outstanding works? if it weren't for you, would such a tragedy have happened?"

As he spoke, his heart-palpitating anger was rapidly accumulating, as if it would explode at any moment.

"So if it weren't for me, there wouldn't have been this tragedy?" Lin Yi said after a moment of silence.

"I don't know."

Chu Xia's eyes were cold and unwavering. "If it wasn't for you, they might still have met with such a tragedy. However, since you're involved today, you have to pay the price!" He said.

Obviously, he was putting all the blame on Lin Yi.

Ning Wanjun wanted to explain, but Lin Yi stopped her.

Although from his point of view, it was indeed very unjust to be blamed, from the point of view of the civilians, he was indeed in cahoots with the Chen family. This was something that could not be cleared.

In his position, not doing anything would be evil.

Lin Yi understood the saying "to wear the crown, one must bear the weight"-how he was going to deal with house Chen and how he was going to remedy the situation was one thing, but he had to take the blame for this.

"What price?" Lin Yi asked.

"Then we'll have to ask them."

Chu Xia turned around and asked the confused civilians in the queue. Although they said all kinds of things, they finally came to a unified answer, which was to open the life Crystal for free.

It wasn't just the people in front of him. For most of the civilians in the sea, life crystals were like a mountain pressing down on their heads.

Exploitation was everywhere, and no one could avoid the life Crystal. It was the most severe and cruel exploitation!

However, Lin Yi shook his head, "That's impossible. "

"I originally had some hope in you, thinking that you would be different from those royal families of the four Seas that drink human blood. But now it seems that I was wrong."

"You are no different from them." Chu Xia's eyes were filled with disappointment.

"Free crystals are the most expensive," Lin Yi said, "if the crystals were free, there'd be a lot more people dying. No one would be able to take the consequences."

"What a warped logic!"

Chu Xia sneered, "you're afraid that you won't be able to hold your current position if you lose the life Crystal, the best ruling tool, right?" If you were a little more honest, I might even look up to you, hehe. "

"I respect you for your chivalry," Lin Yi sighed softly, "but you need to think before doing that, or you'll hurt people."

It wasn't that he didn't want to explain to the other party the huge hidden danger behind the free service, especially with the current tight inventory, making it free would be like asking everyone to die fast enough.

Unfortunately, it was difficult for people who had never experienced it personally to understand it.

Chu Xia shook his head in disappointment. "It is the greatest insult to the word 'chivalry' to put your cold scheme of profit and my chivalry together. It seems that only one of us can stay here today."

The negotiations fell apart.

This wasn't what Lin Yi wanted to see, but there was no need to explain further. He wasn't the type to explain things to people anyway.

Since it's a misunderstanding, then let it be.

"Take my blade!"

Chu Xia made the first move.

Chapter 10246

Every stroke of his blade carried out the chivalry in his heart. He spoke for the weak and gave justice to the weak. He firmly believed that his beliefs were the truth of the world. Therefore, his blade skills were never lost. Every stroke of his blade was forward bravely!

Even Lin Yi felt a sense of danger as he looked at the huge crescent-shaped blade Qi coming at him.

Yingxia was very strong. Although he was only a late stage golden class venerable on the surface, far from the top level combat power that everyone was familiar with, his powerful knife skills were enough to let him cross the threshold of the top level combat power.

To a true top expert, one's cultivation level was only one of the many indicators. It was definitely not the only decisive factor.

Lin Yi was like this, and so was Chu Xia.

He tilted his head and thought for a moment before dodging the attack.

However, to his surprise, the moment his figure disappeared, the crescent-shaped saber Qi also disappeared into thin air. In the next second, when he reappeared a hundred meters away, the saber Qi also appeared behind him!

Everyone was dumbfounded.

The ordinary civilians had never seen such a battle between experts. They looked at the scene in front of them as if they were looking at a God.

Even Chen Ping 'er, the young lady of the Chen family, who should have seen some of the world, could not hide the shock on her face.

She knew she'd kicked an iron board before, but now there was another one, and it seemed even fiercer than Lin Yi 's!

Only ning Wanjun remained calm.

As Lin Yi's subordinate, especially in a key position like the leader of the inspection team, she understood her boss far more than anyone else.

To his boss, who had destroyed Three Seas in a row, this was just a small scene.

Lin Yi looked at the blade energy behind him and frowned. He disappeared from his spot and reappeared a hundred meters away.

"A movement technique that's fused with spatial abilities?"

Chu Xia could not help but be shocked. Such a mysterious movement technique was impossible for any cultivator below the top level. Even many top combat forces might not be able to deal with it.

Just this move alone made Lin Yi worthy of his name!

"If it were me before, I'm afraid I would be helpless too. But unfortunately, I just comprehended the judgment of justice, and this blade can restrain you!"

Along with Chu Xia's words, the huge crescent-shaped blade energy appeared behind Lin Yi again amidst everyone's exclamations.

"Where there is justice, there will be judgment. You can't avoid this knife."

Chu Xia made a final declaration with an indifferent expression.

BOOM!

Almost at the same time, the blade Qi landed on Lin Yi's body. The shockwave from before destroyed the official's shop, and this time, it happened to destroy the Chen's shop. It was fair.

As the dust settled, everyone could not help but look at each other when they saw that the original place was completely empty. Had they been blasted to the point where not even dregs remained?

However, Chu Xia was not so optimistic.

Although he was very confident in his judgment of justice, he was not confident to this extent.

The great master of the three Seas was killed by him in one strike. This couldn't explain Lin Yishui's strength. It could only be said that the strength of the hero was already at the sky. Even the ceiling of the sea couldn't do this!

But the next moment, Lin Yi appeared behind him without warning. "The accuracy of the knife just now was not bad, but it was a pity that the strength was a little lacking."

"How is that possible?"

Chu Xia turned around to look at Lin Yi, who was completely unscathed. He couldn't help but turn pale with shock, but his strong battle instinct still made him swing his sword at Lin Yi.

The huge blade energy didn't even spread out before it hit Lin Yi's face.

However, it still did not leave a single scar.

This time, even with ye kuangxia's psychological quality, he couldn't help but start to doubt his life.

Lin Yi's current strength was in the upper middle of the top-tier combat power according to the Intel organization's evaluation. If they had to distinguish him, he could be considered a second-tier top-tier combat power, still a bit off from the strongest first-tier top-tier combat power.

As for the ceiling of the sea area, it was far from those super-first-rate figures.

Although he had killed ao Taiwei, who was recognized as a top-tier combat strength benchmark, his opponent was too old. For cultivators, age would not affect their strength in theory. However, for ao Taiwei, his age was still not as good as what the public knew.

Most of ao Taiwei's strength had been used to maintain his life force. The outside world had no idea how much of his true combat power he could use.

Therefore, their evaluation of it was naturally low.

On the other hand, Chu Xia himself had already defeated the weakest top level combat power many years ago, which was the top third-tier combat power.

Now that he had comprehended the judgement of justice, his strength had soared again. Even if he had not completely stepped into the threshold of the top second-tier combat power, he was definitely not far from it.

He'd predicted that he and Lin Yi would be on the same level.

He wouldn't win easily, but he wouldn't lose badly either!

He didn't expect the judgement of justice to kill Lin Yi, but the fact that Lin Yi wasn't injured at all and couldn't even break through his defense was a huge blow to his mental defense!

That was impossible.

Chu Xia subconsciously thought of illusions-this was what most of Lin Yi's opponents thought as well. These things were beyond common sense, and it was hard to explain without illusions.

However, when Lin Yi's palm landed on his face, a terrifying force came from his cheek, and the dignified sword-wielding man couldn't help but fall to the ground.

The world was spinning, and his head was dizzy.

Everyone was speechless.

Even ning Wanjun could not help but cover her mouth, her limpid eyes filled with shock.

She was the only one who believed that Lin Yi would have the last laugh, but even she couldn't imagine that a fight between two people of the same level would end up with such a one-sided victory!

There were only two possible explanations.

Either the intelligence agencies had overestimated the strength of the sword heroes, or they had underestimated the strength of their boss.

From Chu Xia's performance just now, he lived up to the evaluation of him by the outside world. Then, the only possibility left was the latter.

Ning Wanjun's eyes were burning with passion. The entire sea had greatly underestimated Lin Yi's strength!

In fact, it wasn't just her-even Lin Yi himself couldn't help but sigh.

At times, the difference in level might seem like it was only a thin line, but in a real battle, the scene might be as different as heaven and earth.

This was how he was dealing with the swordsman now. If cruel malevolence were to deal with him, it would probably be the same. The only difference was that he would be the one to die.

Chapter 10247

The brave warrior under his feet struggled out of the dizziness and started to doubt his life.

It was only at this moment that he realized that the Blade of Justice that he had always been proud of was completely vulnerable in the face of true strength!

"No! Justice can't be lost!"

Chu Xia howled as he slashed at Lin Yi with all his might from the ground in an extremely embarrassing position!

However, a hand broke through the air and actually caught his blade.

"Justice won't lose, but you can't represent justice."

With Lin Yi's calm voice, the hand suddenly exerted force, and a crack suddenly appeared on the edge of the mo sword, quickly spreading until it covered the entire blade.

"How could this be ..."

Under the Chu Xia's despairing eyes, the beloved saber that had accompanied him for decades shattered into pieces.

A stream of solidified death Qi instantly surged out of his body.

He was a Saberman.

The long saber in his hand was his life. If the saber was still there, he would still be there. If the saber was destroyed, he would die. This was just a beautiful slogan to others, but to him, it was a real life-and-death oath.

If the saber was destroyed, he, the master, would not live alone!

Lin Yi couldn't help but frown. Chu Xia may be a stubborn person, but he was a sincere person. Even if he couldn't be used by Lin Yi, he wouldn't want to destroy him so easily.

After countless trials and tribulations, he had imperceptibly transformed into a fierce and ambitious person, but he was not really that cold-blooded and heartless.

In his heart, there was still a trace of sincerity.

Even if it was only for the sake of Chu Mengyao's female friends, he wouldn't let this last bit of his sincerity be eroded. A sincere person would always have some compassion for another sincere person.

"I didn't say I wanted you to die."

Lin Yi's eyes narrowed, and he was about to use the world's will to dispel this man's will.

Although this would definitely cause irreversible damage to the original spirit of the hero, and even the best result would make him lose all his strength and become a disabled person, at least this would keep him alive.

As long as he was alive, there was hope of starting over again.

However, before the world's will could emerge, a pitch-black hole suddenly appeared beneath the kun man. A layer of materialized pitch-black Power wrapped him up and slowly dragged him into the black hole like a living swamp.

Lin Yi was shocked and went all out without hesitation.

The ten great ancient swords appeared in the air as one. Driven by the power of sword rules, they launched a violent attack on the black hole!

The ten great swords formed an invincible meat grinder, crushing the pitch-black Power into pieces.

Just as it was about to reach the swordsman, a small white hand suddenly reached out from the black hole and pointed at the ten famous swords. The fierce sword formation formed by the ten famous swords was actually broken on the spot!

Then, before Lin Yi could reassemble the sword formation, Chu Xia was pulled into the black hole by the tender white hand, completely disappearing.

The entire process took less than a second.

However, the shock it left Lin Yi was no less than the sword tomb.

Ning Wanjun ran over in a hurry, worried that Lin Yi was injured. She let out a sigh of relief when she saw that he was fine and couldn't help but ask softly, "Could that be the legendary Queen of the abyss?"

"Maybe,"

Lin Yi couldn't be sure.

There were five people who were publicly acknowledged to be at the top of the sea realm. They were the high priest Zhang Xi Sheng, the first Walker Wolf extinguisher, and the sword Saint ye Qiyuan. These three people had the highest exposure, and their various achievements were also the most well-known.

As for the remaining two, they were extremely mysterious.

One of them was the Queen of the abyss.

No one knew her name, and almost no one had ever seen her face. Even the top combatants who had fought with her and lost to her knew nothing about her.

Other than the name of the Queen of the abyss, the only clue left was the black hole-like dark swamp.

Lin Yi's understanding of her was limited to her scales and claws. He couldn't get any more information from the exchange just now, but one thing was for sure-her strength was far above his!

There seemed to be a huge shadow looming over Lin Yi's head.

If it was just watching a swordsman, it wouldn't be much trouble for him now. The other party thought that he was going to be judged by justice, but in the face of cruel reality and powerful strength, it couldn't even withstand a single blow.

However, if it involved the mysterious Queen of the abyss, the ceiling of the sea, the situation would be complicated.

If the other party really had a plan, it would be almost impossible for Lin Yi to handle it alone. Not to mention that the top five advisors, including cruel malevolence, were all missing. He couldn't even find a reliable ally.

Don't forget, there was still the high priest watching them like a tiger watching its prey.

The high priest didn't seem to be doing anything, but Lin Yi knew that the high priest wasn't ready to give up. He was just lying low, and once he showed a weakness, it would be a fatal blow!

The pressure was huge.

Ning Wanjun looked at Lin Yi worriedly. An extremely intelligent woman like her naturally understood Lin Yi's current situation.

However, other than the monitoring group under her, she couldn't help with anything else.

Lin Yi smiled, "why are you so depressed? the show's just started. You don't have to be so pessimistic, right?"

Ning Wanjun saw that he had returned to his usual calmness and immediately pursed her lips and smiled, ""I want to ask master for a favor."

As he spoke, he glanced at the group of heavily injured female sword cultivators in the distance.

"You want to take them in?"

Lin Yi understood immediately. "The monitoring team does need to be expanded, but they're well-trained. Are you sure you can keep them under control?"

"I'm a woman, of course I know how to deal with women. "Ning Wanjun laughed.

Lin Yi thought for a moment before nodding. "Alright, if necessary, we can borrow people from the great Python. It shouldn't be a problem to train him for a while."

"Many thanks, master."

Ning Wanjun bowed down.

Lin Yi facepalmed. "Let's discuss this. Can you call me boss like the others? or Lord is fine too. Don't call me master. It's a little weird."

Ning Wanjun's face turned into one of resentment, ""But aren't you my master?"

"....."

Lin Yi ran away, speechless. He regretted using her as bait to catch those beasts. He might've triggered her too much, resulting in the opposite effect.

Ning Wanjun chuckled as she watched him run away, her eyes full of tenderness.

However, in the depths of his heart, there was a touch of faint sorrow.

On the other side, Chen Pinger's heart was in her throat as she watched Lin Yi walk towards her.

Chapter 10248

She'd seen Lin Yi's strength earlier, but she'd still hoped that Lin Yi and the swordsman would both end up injured-that way, with house Chen's strength, they might have a chance of taking him down.

But now, all his luck had turned into bubbles.

In the distance, the experts of the Chen family finally arrived. They were all shocked when they saw the scene. With their experience, it was hard for them to imagine that this was caused by the aftermath of the battle between the two.

"Who's that! Stay away from my sister!"

The leader was the eldest son of the Chen family, Chen Qi. He saw Lin Yi slowly approaching Chen Ping'er and quickly shouted to stop him.

However, Lin Yi didn't even have the interest to look at him.

Yunxia had been kidnapped by the abyss Queen. No matter from which angle, he would be a huge hidden danger in the future. Although he was not really worried about his gains and losses because of this, at least he was not in a good mood at the moment.

Besides, the mess in front of him had not been dealt with yet. No matter who it was, they would be in a bad mood.

Seeing Chen Qi rush over with his men, Chen Ping 'er was anxious and quickly stopped him. ""Don't come over!"

But it was too late.

Lin Yi's aura exploded before the Chen Masters could even get within a hundred meters.

With a loud bang, all the Masters of the Chen family, including Chen Qi, knelt down in the dust. The sound of their kneecaps cracking was endless, followed by a burst of wailing.

Lin Yi turned back to look at the scene, his eyes emotionless.

According to ning Wanjun's investigation, the Chen family was too numerous to be recorded. No one in the family was innocent. Everyone was drinking the blood of the commoners in the distant Sea area, and they were proud of it.

Of course, the same thing was not only happening in the distant sea, but also in other areas.

It had always been like this since ancient times.

Although as time passed, the various powers would decline and disappear, no matter who took over, the end result would still be the same. There was no essential difference to the oppressed civilians at the bottom.

The only difference was that the face that was riding on their heads and drinking their blood had changed. That was all.

"Alright!"

One of the civilians who were watching from afar suddenly shouted.

Chen Qi gritted his teeth and turned around, enduring the pain. He glared at the bird who had stood out. "I'll remember you!"

The originally restless crowd immediately fell silent.

Although they hated the Chen family to the core, they had no choice. The Chen family was a big family and they had the life crystals in their hands. They had no way to resist.

At that time, the Chen family wouldn't have to do anything. As long as they didn't sell you the life crystals, you could only wait for death with your entire family!

Until Lin Yi's voice came, "you still have the energy to remember others?" I've really failed in my duty. "

BOOM!

Chen Qi was directly pressed into the ground by an invisible pressure, and he could no longer make a sound. The rest of the Chen family experts who were kneeling on the ground also suffered the same fate, each of them fighting with their heads on the ground and bleeding.

Chen Ping 'er's heart jumped in fear. She had never felt that the strength that her family was so proud of was so vulnerable.

Her Chen family was the number one family in the distant sea. However, in the hands of this person in front of her, it was like ordinary civilians facing their Chen family. They didn't even have the slightest ability to resist.

"Tell me, how should I deal with your Chen family to appease the public anger?"

Lin Yi's gaze fell on Chen Ping 'er. The Chen family head still hadn't shown himself, so it was clear that he'd retreated when the situation wasn't good.

But no matter what, since he was here today, he had to kill the chicken to warn the monkeys.

The Chen family was the chicken.

Feeling the killing intent in Lin Yi's eyes, Chen Ping 'er couldn't help but shiver. At this moment, she suddenly saw a familiar figure quickly approaching from the corner of her eye.

Chen Ping 'er's eyes brightened and she was overjoyed, as if she had seen a life-saving straw. ""' Lover boy, you're finally here!"

The person who had come was Qin Qing.

She didn't know if she could catch Qin Qing's eye, but at least her engagement with Qin Qing was real. Since Qin Qing had appeared at this time, there was no way she would leave the Chen family in the lurch.

In her mind, Qin Qing now controlled the financial power of the three Seas and was second to none in the entire sea.

As long as Qin Qing appeared, there was no problem that couldn't be solved.

However, to her surprise, Qin Qing didn't even look at her. He walked straight to Lin Yi and lowered his head with a complicated expression.

"You know all this?" Lin Yi frowned.

"I ..."

Qin Qing opened her mouth, but she was too ashamed to say anything.

He wanted to say that he didn't know anything about all of this. However, with his relationship with Chen Ping 'er and the relationship between the Qin family and the Chen family, how could he just say that he didn't know?

Now, he was no longer that muddleheaded and affectionate young master, but a big figure with great power in his hands. If some childish words came out of his mouth again, it would be too ridiculous.

"I thought you'd try to defend yourself," Lin Yi said, looking at him.

Qin Qing felt ashamed.

Chen Ping 'er, who was standing to the side, seemed to have been too agitated and did not realize the subtle change in the atmosphere. She was still immersed in the joy of finding reinforcements. She ran over and hugged Qin Qing's arm. "I thought you wouldn't come, but it turns out you still care about me!"

"I don't know who you are, and I don't care, but you'll have to pay for what you've done to house Chen!"

Don't think that you can do whatever you want just because you have some strength. In front of a truly powerful force, your strength is not even worth mentioning!"

"From a certain perspective, you're still quite clear-headed," Lin Yi said, looking at her strangely.

"What do you mean by that?"

Chen pinger still didn't understand and continued to hold Qin Qing tightly. ""Do you know who this person beside me is? The heir of the fifth royal family, the Lord of the three Seas, Lin Yi's most trusted brother. You're just a self-righteous rogue cultivator, do you really think you're strong enough to fight against the Lord of the three Seas?"

Qin Qing finally couldn't bear to listen any longer and broke free from her arms. ""Stupid woman, shut up!"

Chen Ping 'er's face was full of shock. She was like a little girl whose parents had suddenly vented their anger on her. She was innocent, lost, and at a loss.

"You're wrong. She's not a stupid woman. "

Lin Yi shook his head, "you knew who I was a long time ago, but you couldn't back down, so you pretended to be stupid until the end. After all, in some men's eyes, stupid women are cuter than bad women, right?"

Qin Qing couldn't help but turn her head to look at Chen pinger in shock. Seeing the latter's pretty face turn pale, she came to her senses.

Chapter 10249

To be honest, he wouldn't have realized it if Lin Yi didn't point it out.

Up until just now, although he still looked down on ordinary women like Chen Ping 'er, under the influence of his amorous young master nature, he did not feel that the other party was hopeless. He was just limited by his vision and was an ignorant and stupid woman from a remote and small place.

"I, I didn't ..."

Chen Ping 'er quickly tried to explain, but Qin Qing wasn't a fool. She only needed to explain a little and everything would be clear. No matter how she quibbled, it would be of no use.

In the end, although Qin Qing was blinded by a single leaf, she was still one of the few men who understood women the most.

Once he came back to his senses, his grasp of a woman's psychology would be even more accurate than the other party's.

Qin Qing's face turned cold. "You deliberately pretended not to recognize brother Lin. You pretended to be pitiful and tied yourself to me. If I had my original promiscuous personality, I might really have acted rashly and protected you."

When he said this, even he couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air.

"I'm not your only target. You want to use me to tie the entire Qin family to your Chen family. You want to use this opportunity to make my Qin family break off relations with brother Lin!"

This sounded unbelievable, but with Qin Qing's personality, it was not impossible.

He didn't know what he'd do if he was fooled by the other's appearance, and since Lin Yi was here today, house Chen had to be wiped out. There was no room for discussion.

If Qin Qing decided to go all the way, Lin Yi really wouldn't hold back. After all, Qin Qing, as the Minister of Finance, had to bear the blame for the current situation!

Once Qin Qing died in Lin Yi's hands, it would mean that the entire Qin family would stand against Lin Yi. That was the big scene that many ambitious people had been looking forward to.

The depth of this woman's schemes really made one shudder.

Seeing that her intentions had been seen through, Chen Ping 'er decided not to pretend anymore. She directly laid out her cards and said, ""You're from the fifth royal family, the Qin family, and yet you're bowing down to Lin Yi, a fiancée with no background. As your fiancée, I can't stand it. "

As she spoke, she pointed at Lin Yi fearlessly, not a trace of the panic she put on earlier.

"Don't be fooled by Lin Yi's might, controlling the three Seas and only one step away from becoming the ruler of the four Seas. He doesn't have any Foundation and doesn't make any mistakes.

If he took a wrong step, everything he had now would immediately collapse. At that time, he would reveal his true colors and still be a lone and uncultured rogue cultivator. He was nothing.

"On the other hand, the Qin family has a strong foundation and is truly the fifth royal family. Now that the East Ocean, West Ocean, and South Ocean have all fallen, as long as you make up your mind, you will have a chance to go one step further and become a royal family that deserves its name!

Is your Qin clan really willing to miss such a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity?"

Upon hearing this, Qin Qing's eyes were filled with shock.

Ever since he took control of the three Seas' finance, he really thought that he was also a top figure. However, not to mention those deep and ruthless heroes, even the little girl in front of him from a remote area had a far more scheming pattern than him!

Lin Yi watched on quietly, not planning on interrupting.

He also wanted to see Qin Qing's reaction, especially the reaction of the Qin family.

Everything Chen Ping 'er had described was a big piece of cake. It was still thousands of miles away from a plan that could truly land on the ground. However, it had to be said that it was enough to make some ambitious people's blood boil.

The key was that once the situation changed, it might be possible.

To remove the false title of the fifth royal family and become a True Royal family had always been the long-cherished wish of the Qin family. As the ruler of the Qin family, how could he not be tempted by this big flatbread?

Chen Ping 'er continued to encourage her. "Qin Qing, you are a man. In the future, you will become the head of the Qin family. You have to show your courage. Otherwise, you will forever be a soft egg immersed in the pile of cosmetics!

"As long as the Qin family instigates, not only our Chen family, but hundreds of other local families will respond.

A hundred responses to a single call, what's there to worry about not achieving great things!"

She didn't even look at Lin Yi, who was right in front of her, as if she was sure that Lin Yi wouldn't attack her. Or perhaps, she was confident that even if Lin Yi attacked her, she would be able to escape unscathed.

But no matter what, the madness this woman was displaying at this moment, even Lin Yi couldn't help but be secretly shocked.

Qin Qing looked at Chen Ping 'er in a daze.

He had thought that he had already seen through this woman's nature and that she was just an ordinary woman with an empty skin. However, it was only at this moment that he suddenly realized that this fiancée was so unfamiliar.

After a long time, Qin Qing muttered, ""You're much better looking now. "

“.....”

Chen Ping 'er was speechless, and even Lin Yi was speechless.

He was drawing so impassioned, and it was such a life-and-death matter for the family, but you were actually concerned about whether he looked good or not?

The amorous young master's way of thinking wasn't something that ordinary people could understand.

Chen Ping 'er gritted her teeth. "When the day comes for you to accomplish great things, not only will I be yours, but all the beautiful women in the entire sea region will fight to be your confidante. What will you choose?"

"I ..."

Qin Qing was obviously in a dilemma.

Lin Yi looked at this scene coldly and couldn't help but shake his head secretly. Although he didn't see much rebellion in Qin Qing, he knew that this guy was unreliable.

In fact, if it wasn't for the Qin family behind her, he wouldn't have entrusted Qin Qing with such an important task. Only by placing Qin Qing in an important position could the relationship between the two of them become closer. This was the only choice that both sides could accept.

At least for now, he really could not do without the Qin family's support.

Once he really fell out with the Qin family, the three Seas under his jurisdiction would not be completely out of control. At least, it would be difficult to find any family that could replace the Qin family's position in a short time. Even if it was not a big blow to his vitality, it would definitely slow down his subsequent expansion pace.

However, if the Qin family was really unreliable, then he could only cut his losses.

Just as Qin Qing was hesitating, an old woman's voice came from behind her.

"Love child, why are you still hesitating at this time? you don't even know the most basic priorities. You've disappointed this old woman."

Qin Qing quickly turned her head when she heard this. It was the old grandmother of the Qin family.

"Great-grandma!"

Qin Qing hurriedly turned around to welcome him. However, what awaited him was a heavy stick and the Qin family's old grandmother's merciless and angry shout, ""Kneel down to the sea King!"

Chapter 10250

Qin Qing's head was spinning, and she knelt in front of Lin Yi, not knowing what to say.

The old lady sighed and bowed deeply to Lin Yi, "My Qin family is unfortunate to have raised such a useless descendant. I'm deeply ashamed that I've caused trouble for King Hai hai hai!"

Lin Yi reached out to help her up. "Old Madam, you're being too serious. The Qin family has helped me a lot. Qin Qing is inexperienced. It's normal for her to be careless."

When the Qin family's old grandmother heard this, she heaved a sigh of relief and said emotionally, ""I've never seen Prince hai Hai's magnanimity in my life. "

"Old Madam, you're overpraising me."

Lin Yi chuckled as he shook his head.

In just a few words, they had reached a tacit understanding again.

He had to admit that this Qin family's old grandmother was really one of the few smart people he had seen. If she had not appeared in time, he might really have stabbed the Qin family.

The Qin family was important to him, but the more important it was, the more he couldn't have any disloyalty.

Loyalty was not absolute, it meant that there was absolutely no loyalty. These words might be biased in other places, but it was appropriate when placed on the Qin family.

At Lin Yi's level, he wouldn't allow the initiative to fall into someone else's hands, and he wouldn't let someone use it to threaten him. No matter how close his ally looked, this was a line he couldn't cross.

If that really happened, Lin Yi would have to pay a huge price for it, but to the fifth royal family, it would be a disaster.

It wasn't hard for Lin Yi to destroy the Qin family now.

The Qin family's old grandmother had also seen this, which was why she had rushed over from thousands of miles away. One had to know that she had completely let go and enjoyed the rest of her life.

The two sides reached an agreement. The gaze of the Qin family's old grandmother fell on Chen pinger. ""This old woman knows that you are a scheming person. When I agreed to this marriage agreement between you and my lover, it was also because of your scheming that I hoped you could control him.

Now it seems that I have miscalculated. Your ambition is too big, so big that even my Qin family can't accommodate you.

I'm afraid that you're the one who's behind the Chen family's current situation, right?"

Chen Ping 'er quickly put on a look of fear and trepidation. ""Old grandmother is wise. Everything ping 'er did was for the Qin family. Ping' er has long regarded herself as a member of the Qin family."

"What a good Qin family."

The Qin family's old grandmother shook her head and looked at Qin Qing. "Can you afford to have a wife like this?"

Qin Qing shook her head repeatedly.

Although he was naturally amorous and would instinctively want to protect any woman that entered his eyes, he was not brainless to the point where he could not even understand this.

Even if the current situation didn't happen, it would be a nightmare for him to let such a scheming woman enter his backyard.

The Qin family's old grandmother said in a deep voice, "since the disaster started because of her, then let her end it. The Chen family can not be kept. She is the same. You can deal with the love child."

These words made Chen Pinger feel like she had fallen into an ice cellar. She quickly wanted to plead, but when she met the calm eyes of the Qin family's old grandmother, she was stunned and could not say a word.

In front of this woman who was known as the Legend of the Sea realm, her little tricks were nothing. They could be used to deal with trash like Qin Qing, but if she really tried to play tricks in front of her, she would only be asking for humiliation.

Chen Pinger could only change her target and look pitifully at Qin Qing, who was at a loss.

The Qin family's old grandmother continued, "love child, if you can't make a decision, don't come to see me in the future. In the future, the Qin family will no longer have any place for you. Although the Qin family is big, it can't accommodate a brainless waste who only knows how to revolve around a woman."

Qin Qing froze and subconsciously looked at Lin Yi, wanting to ask him for help.

But Lin Yi didn't seem to have the intention to open his mouth.

Although even Lin Yi was shocked by the Qin grandmother's decision, it wasn't that he was soft-hearted and didn't want to kill Chen pinger. Chen pinger's actions deserved to be killed more than the other Chen family members.

He was shocked that the Qin family's old grandmother, who doted on Qin Qing so much, could actually be so cruel to force her own grandson.

This was almost forcing Qin Qing to cut off her own nature!

There were only two outcomes. Either Qin Qing obeyed the order to kill Chen Ping 'er, and her personality changed drastically, becoming a completely different person from before, or Qin Qing was unable to break through her nature and became a useless person abandoned by the Qin family.

No matter which one it was, from the Qin family's old grandmother's point of view, it would definitely not be good. But for the Qin family, she had to do this.

House Qin needed Lin Yi's trust-it was the foundation of house Qin's future!

For this reason, even though she was the person who cared about Qin Qing the most in the entire sea realm, she had to make the choice to sacrifice Qin Qing. Being in a big family like the Qin family, there were some things that even she couldn't help herself with.

Qin Qing looked at the Qin family's old grandmother in despair one last time. Seeing that her eyes were still determined, she could only suppress the last trace of luck in her heart and walk toward Chen Pinger with heavy steps.

Chen Pinger watched helplessly as Qin Qing raised her arm and a fatal power began to gather in her palm. She finally lost all hope.

She wanted to run, but under Lin Yi's pressure, she couldn't even lift her feet, let alone run away in front of everyone.

"You brought this upon yourself. I had no other choice."

As Qin Qing spoke, the power in her palm gathered into an arrow and shot toward Chen Pinger's heart.

The Qin family's old grandmother was a little gratified to see this scene, but at the same time, her heart ached. She liked her original innocent and affectionate grandson, but the Qin family could not have such an indecisive heir.

At the last moment, a hand suddenly appeared halfway and easily caught Qin Qing's deadly arrow. Then, it crushed it and disappeared into the air.

Everyone was shocked.

The person who attacked was none other than Lin Yi.

"King hai hai, you are ..."

The Qin family's old grandmother couldn't help but be surprised. She had asked Qin Qing to kill Chen Ping 'er with her own hands. On one hand, it was to train Qin Qing, but more importantly, it was to show her loyalty to Lin Yi.

He didn't expect Lin Yi to interrupt him.

For a moment, she thought that Lin Yi was like her grandson, doing the same thing as all men, falling for Chen pinger's pretty face and not wanting to destroy her.

If that was the case, she'd have to think about whether or not she should still tie the Qin family to Lin Yi in the future.

But when she saw Lin Yi's clear eyes, she immediately knew that her worries were unnecessary. A mere Chen pinger was far from enough for her to have tender feelings for a woman.

Lin Yi glanced at Qin Qing, who was drenched in cold sweat. ""There's something strange about this woman. I have to check it out first. "

After he finished speaking, he released a materialized spiritual sense into Chen Ping 'er's sea of consciousness.
