

Bodyguard 10251

Chapter 10251

With Chen Ping 'er's strength, she couldn't do anything to stop Lin Yi's spiritual sense. If Lin Yi wanted to use soul-searching techniques, it would only take a thought.

However, before he could make a move, he seemed to have touched a certain restriction in Chen Ping 'er's sea of consciousness. The primordial spirit seed buried deep in her exploded and self-destructed.

In the blink of an eye, Chen Ping 'er's primordial spirit was destroyed. The light in her eyes disappeared and she softly fell down.

He died.

The surrounding people were all shocked. After all, the Qin family's old grandmother was experienced and knowledgeable, so she immediately reacted. "Her primordial spirit has been tampered with?"

Lin Yi nodded, "no matter how scheming she is, she's just a woman from a small family in a remote area. She wouldn't have such ambitions and plans. They purposely chose her as a target. This is a deliberate plan."

This time, even the Qin family's old grandmother couldn't help but feel a wave of fear.

Putting aside the fact that the life Crystal's mess had been caused by Qin Qing's incompetence, the key was the relationship between Chen Ping 'er and Qin Qing. No matter what, the Qin family would not be able to escape responsibility.

If she hadn't arrived in time, Qin Qing might have acted to protect Chen Ping 'er in a moment of rashness. Then, she wouldn't be able to clear her name even if she jumped into the Yellow River.

At that point, no matter how much Lin Yi trusted the Qins, there would be a huge crack between them. As long as the crack existed, it would continue to spread.

Turning against each other was only a matter of time.

Such a deep scheme really made people shudder.

"I've lived for so many years, but in the end, I've been played in the dark. I'm really ashamed. "

The Qin family's old grandmother shook her head helplessly. If Lin Yi hadn't noticed in time, everyone, including her, would still be at a loss, thinking that this was all Chen pinger's fault.

But then again, did Lin Yi really just notice it?

Grandma Qin looked at Lin Yi, and then at her grandson, who seemed to have realized something. She smiled bitterly to herself. It was true that being with a King was like being with a Tiger. The thoughts of the people in power were unfathomable.

"Did King Haihai find any clues?"

Lin Yi shook his head, "the opponent is very cautious. The restrictions he set up are very sensitive. He self-destructed after a little test, not giving any chance to trace back. It's impossible to trace back to him through the restrictions."

The old grandmother of the Qin family furrowed her brows. "In other words, the other party is ready to turn Chen pinger into an abandoned child at any time. With such careful movements, it will be difficult to find him."

"That might not be the case."

Lin Yi suddenly smiled, "The information related to the primordial spirit restriction has indeed been completely destroyed. It's indeed unrealistic to trace it back to the source with this. However, as long as he did something, no matter how clean it is, it will definitely leave traces."

Lin Yi explained, "There are no two identical leaves in the world, and naturally, there are no two identical primordial spirits. Each divine sense carries a unique characteristic, just like ..."

"Fingerprints?" grandmother Qin's eyes lit up.

Lin Yi couldn't help but look at her in surprise. She knew her fingerprints even when she was in the sea- this old lady wasn't just a legend.

"That's right, that's what I meant. Although the other party has been very careful and erased all direct information, he still didn't think of the primordial spirit fingerprint."

"King Haizhu's knowledge is so broad that it's the first time I've seen it in my life. Not only did the other party not think of this, but I'm afraid no one in the entire sea area could have thought of this, right?"

The Qin family's old grandmother praised from the bottom of her heart, but she still frowned and said, ""But even if we know the other party's primordial spirit fingerprint, we don't have a primordial spirit fingerprint database to compare with. It's like looking for a needle in a haystack if we want to find him with this."

Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised.

Not only did she know the fingerprints, but she also knew how to use them. What had this old lady experienced when she was young?

"This is indeed a problem. After all, we can't find people to collect primordial spirit fingerprints one by one. Even if everyone is willing to cooperate, it will take a long time to build a large-scale primordial spirit fingerprint library in such a large Sea area."

"It's a good thing I have one right now," Lin Yi smiled.

The Qin family's old grandmother was taken aback. Although she was curious, she tactfully did not continue to ask.

Some secrets could be known, and sharing a common secret could make the relationship between each other closer, but there were some other secrets that must be kept at a respectful distance. Otherwise, it would be crossing the boundary, and would only cause trouble.

Since the man didn't ask, Lin Yi naturally wouldn't reveal it.

In fact, while he was speaking, someone had already helped him to compare his primordial spirit fingerprints one by one. This was a large-scale project. If it were any other cultivator, it would take at least several months to do it, no matter how proficient they were in primordial spirit techniques.

If one's luck was slightly bad, they might not be able to get any results even after several years or even several decades. After all, the sea was simply too vast.

Fortunately, the one doing the hard work for him was not an ordinary cultivator, but the great Lord seagod!

To be more precise, it was the sea god played by the fake deity Li Yuanji.

The sea realm itself did not have a primordial spirit fingerprint library, but don't forget that almost all the people in the sea realm, including the royal families of the four Seas, claimed to be believers of the sea god.

Even if many of them were only using this as a pretense and essentially had their own territories, they still had to offer everything they had to the sea god in name. They had to give feedback in compliance to the sea god's Oracle.

And during this process, their primordial spirit fingerprints would naturally be left behind.

In other words, the divinity left behind by the sea god contained a primordial spirit fingerprint library that covered the entire sea area. Li Yuanji could retrieve and identify them one by one.

With Li Yuanji's ability as a peak false god, even such a vast workload was easy for her.

Half a day was enough.

Seeing Lin Yi's confidence, grandma Qin's heart settled down. No matter who the mastermind was, their real target must be Lin Yi. At the same time, they also used her Qin family as a chess piece. If they didn't dig out this person, it would be a huge hidden danger in the future.

After all, with this person's experienced and ruthless methods, the Qin clan might not be as lucky as they were now the next time he made a move.

"Sea King hai, I have a presumptuous request, I hope you can agree."

The Qin family's old grandmother glanced at Qin Qing beside her and said, ""Is it possible to let love child join your personal guard unit?"

"The hardship of the guards unit isn't something normal people can handle." Lin Yi blinked.

If it was anyone else, they might have thought that the other party had ulterior motives, trying to reach into the guards unit, the rising Ace battle team.

But Lin Yi didn't care about that at all.

Chapter 10252

Not to mention that the guards unit, below the Python, all regarded him as a God. No matter who entered such a group, they would only be assimilated. Otherwise, they would be as eye-catching as fireflies in the night, and it would be difficult to move.

More importantly, after experiencing the baptism of the new world's will, the sense of collective tacit understanding and belonging had long been deep-rooted, becoming the most important spiritual pillar for every member of the guards unit.

If other people joined, they would definitely be out of place unless they completely integrated into the group.

Once they did, they'd be the same as the other guards, becoming Lin Yi's most loyal follower. They'd never do anything that would harm Lin Yi again.

As the heir of the Qin family, Lin Yi would be happy to see Qin Qing join the Qin family.

The problem was, could Qin Qing endure this pain?

The core reason why the guards unit could rise so quickly in such a short period of time was, of course, the addition of the will of the New World, but on the other hand, it was also because this group of people were ruthless enough to themselves.

Their daily training alone was enough to make the elites of the entire sea sweat. To other practitioners of the same level, the training was like the devil, but to Lin Yi's guards, it was just a warm-up.

Even Lin Yi's eyes twitched at the intensity of the training-no normal person would've been able to do it without the world's consciousness "support of a sense of belonging.

If Qin Qing were to join in at this time, the outcome would be obvious.

The Qin family's old grandmother didn't seem to realize the seriousness of the matter and still insisted,""How can one become a talent without suffering? If he can't even endure this bit of hardship, then he's not worthy to shoulder the burden of my Qin family. This old one only has this one request, I hope hai hai Wang will grant it. "

Lin Yi couldn't stop her anymore. He turned to Qin Qing and asked, "What did you say?"

Qin Qing seemed to have not recovered from the blow just now and replied in a daze, "I'll listen to you, great-grandma. "

"That's fine,"

Lin Yi didn't say anything else-if you're willing to die, then I'm willing to bury you. If you really can't hold on, then I'll just kick you out when the time comes. It's no loss to the guards unit anyway.

What he didn't know was that because of this decision, a Super Combat force would be forced out in the future, and even affected the balance of victory and defeat in the overall situation.

Of course, this was a story for later.

However, without Qin Qing, it was a big problem for Lin Yi. After all, this guy was his Minister of Finance, and the most important link between him and the Qin family.

At this moment, he really couldn't find anyone else to replace Qin Qing.

The Qin family's old grandmother took the initiative and said, ""I'm not good at anything else, but I have some experience in resource allocation. Why don't you let me clean up the mess left by my love child?"

"If old Madam is willing to come out of the mountain, that would be my good fortune. I can't ask for more!"

Lin Yi was overjoyed.

Putting everything else aside, at least in terms of finances, the old lady was definitely the best in the entire sea region. If she were to personally take charge of the situation, Lin Yi wouldn't have to worry about anything in this area.

Plus, with the enemy's intelligence, as long as Lin Yi could maintain his momentum, he didn't have to worry about the enemy's tricks.

With the current situation, this was the best solution to break out of the situation!

The Qin family's old grandmother sighed from the bottom of her heart. "The king of the coastal waters has such tolerance. What's there to worry about?"

While Lin Yi was discussing with house Qin about how to stabilize the situation, on the other side, the sword-wielding warrior who had just been defeated by Lin Yi was slowly waking up.

What he saw was actually a luxuriant Commercial Street, with all kinds of snacks being sold. It was a prosperous world.

He was lying on the table of a roadside stall at the end of the street. There was not a single wound on his body.

Chu Xia was stunned.

He felt that his body was completely fine. It was as if everything that had happened, including the fight with Lin Yi, was just a dream, a dream that was extremely real.

"You're awake?"

A young voice came from the other side of the table. Chu Xia looked up and saw a little girl who was about six or seven years old. Her skin was crystal clear and flawless, like a piece of art.

Even though Chu Xia had been travelling all over the world and had seen all kinds of things, he couldn't help but be stunned for a moment.

Was he really a mortal?

The little girl looked at his expression, but she seemed to be used to it. She wrinkled her delicate nose. "Which generation of blade Stone forest's inheritor are you?"

The voice was still young, but the tone of the voice sounded old.

Chu Xia was stunned for a moment before reacting. The other party was actually talking about the legendary last sect master of the house of sabers, the last generation saber Emperor, Dao Shilin.

"I'm the 39th generation of the saber Emperor's successor. "

Chu Xia replied carefully. At the same time, he subconsciously released his divine sense to check the other party's background.

An ordinary person might not be able to react in time to such a situation, but he had traveled all over the world and had come into contact with all kinds of strange people and strange things. He knew that the old, the weak, women, and children were the ones that should not be underestimated in the Jianghu.

The person in front of him looked innocent, but if anyone dared to have evil thoughts, they would die in minutes without even knowing how they died.

However, when he released his divine sense, it was like a stone sinking into the ocean. There was no response at all.

The other side was like an unfathomably deep abyss, which had absorbed all the spiritual sense he had released without any feedback.

If he didn't see the person in front of him and didn't just speak, he would have thought that the person in front of him wasn't a living person, but an illusion in his mind.

The little girl did not pay attention to his little actions. She rubbed her brows and said, ""That drooling little wimp from back then actually has 39 generations of Grand-disciples in the blink of an eye. Has so much time already passed?"

Chu Xia's eyes twitched.

The last saber Emperor was a figure from thousands of years ago, but in this person's mouth, he was actually a little brat?

Then what was her background?

The little girl sized him up for a while and clicked her tongue twice in a serious manner, ""Your talent looks mediocre, but you're already the best in the knife Dao in recent years. The knife Dao has really declined."

If someone else had said this, Chu Xia would have turned hostile on the spot. After all, he had traveled the sea area alone with a saber. Moreover, he had made such a name for himself. His pride was definitely not below any genius!

However, when he faced the little girl now, he did not have any temper for the first time. He only dared to sit obediently in his original position and did not even dare to look at her.

The little girl suddenly asked with interest, ""You've fought with that Lin Yi, how do you feel?"

Chapter 10253

Thinking back to the fight with Lin Yi, Chu Xia's heart shivered. He thought for a long time and only managed to squeeze out two words.

"Very strong."

"Oh? Even someone like you, who is proficient in saber intent, would actually admit defeat. It seems that this person is quite interesting. "

"Do you want to win against him?" the little girl's lips curled up.

"I ..."

Chu Xia subconsciously wanted to agree, but in the end, he didn't go straight to the point. He helplessly shook his head and said, ""I can't beat him."

This was not him underestimating himself, but the answer given by the instinct in the deepest part of his heart.

He had never doubted the speed of his growth. Many famous masters in the past had eventually been defeated by his saber and became his stepping stones to show off the power of his saber.

But against Lin Yi, he couldn't find any reason to support his confidence. If he said he could win, it would be self-deception.

He was disdainful.

"Good-for-nothing."

The little girl snorted. "Back then, that little brat from blade Stone Forest was even less talented than you. In the end, he still managed to become a blade Emperor. As a blade artist, you don't even have the belief to kill people without paying for their lives. What can you do?"

It was a simple sentence, but it struck Chu Xia's heart like lightning.

The loud sounds of the bell and drum shook his Saber Heart. Each time, it was on the verge of collapse, but he stubbornly held on.

After a long time, Chu Xia finally struggled to wake up. He was covered in cold sweat.

Chu Xia gritted his teeth and knelt down in front of the little girl, "Senior, please grant me my wish!"

The little girl raised a finger and pointed to an ordinary-looking snack shop not far away. ""There's something you want there. "

Chu Xia carefully observed for a long time, but he still couldn't find any clues.

The business of the snack shop was not bad. The number of people coming and going was not small, but they were all ordinary people. Most of them were not above the foundation establishment stage.

Judging from his observation, there was nothing special about it.

"What's in there?"asked Chu Xia.

The little girl glanced at him and asked instead of answering, ""Do you know how that brat from blade Stone Forest became a blade Emperor?"

"....."

Chu Xia was speechless.

It wasn't that he didn't have a clue, but that the rise of his family's saber Emperor patriarch was quite legendary. He had been obsessed with the saber Dao since young, but he had accomplished nothing for half of his life. In the end, when he was about to give up, he suddenly rose rapidly like a cheat.

There were all kinds of fortuitous encounters, but the real turning point in his life came from a saber.

It was a legendary blade that came from the abyss.

"Abyssal Blade!"

Chu Xia blurted out subconsciously. If he had to say which item made The Last Blade Emperor, it would be the Abyssal Blade.

"Then why are you still standing there?" the little girl tilted her head.

"Many thanks for senior's help!"

Chu Xia didn't suspect anything and quickly walked to the shop.

If the ten ancient swords were the Holy swords in the hearts of all swordsmen, then the Abyssal Blade was the common dream of all the swordsmen in the sea realm. Whoever found the Abyssal Blade would become the next saber Emperor!

However, before he entered the snack shop, he couldn't help but stop and ask, ""How do you know its whereabouts?"

The little girl shrugged nonchalantly, ""I was the one who gave it to blade Stone Forest, what do you think?"

“.....”

Chu Xia was shocked. He had already guessed it from the beginning, and now he was even more sure of the other party's identity.

The Abyssal Blade came from the abyss, and its original owner was naturally the Queen of the abyss.

After bowing deeply to the little girl, the Yunxia immediately stepped into the snack shop. However, the moment he entered the door, the scene in front of him suddenly changed.

What appeared in front of him now was a bottomless abyss.

However, Chu Xia didn't hesitate at all and jumped down.

The little girl looked at this scene and smiled gently. At this moment, a gentle-looking scholar walked over and sat down opposite her.

"You can't stand the loneliness again so soon, my queen."

The little girl glanced at him and warned him coldly, ""This is my toy. If you dare to have any crooked ideas, I'll chop you up."

The effeminate scholar laughed."Although his aptitude is not bad, the possibility of him retreating from the abyss in one piece is very low. Since Her Majesty has allowed him to enter, she must have been prepared to die inside."

Seeing that the little girl was too lazy to respond, the scholar continued, ""The last person who came out alive should be that saber Emperor, right?

Who's the next one? Oh, that's right, your cute little maid. "

"You still dare to mention her?"

The little girl gritted her teeth."If she wasn't bewitched by you, she wouldn't have entered the abyss and left me!"

The effeminate scholar smiled faintly. "I was just bored and wanted to see how loyal she is to you, her master. However, from the results, it seems that she is loyal, but not that loyal."

Pa!

The little girl slammed her palm on the table, and an invisible force was transmitted through the table to the scholar. In the end, the scholar smiled and caught it with two chopsticks.

There was nothing out of the ordinary on the scene, and even the passersby were not affected in the slightest.

However, in a deep part of the ocean outside of the bustling city, two extremely terrifying forces were entangled and colliding with each other. The impact caused by the collision directly evolved into an unprecedented huge tsunami that swept across the four Seas and eight wastelands.

A new wave of disasters had arrived in various parts of the sea, and the alarm bells rang!

A moment later, the two of them stopped at the same time.

It wasn't that they had a tacit understanding or friendship, but after being neighbors for so long and fighting countless times, they both knew that they couldn't do anything to each other and it was meaningless to continue fighting.

"Hell Street hasn't been lively for a long time. It's so boring."

The effeminate scholar sighed and took out a mirror as he spoke. At first glance, he looked at himself, but the mirror was misty. In the mirror, an enchanting and beautiful human silhouette could be vaguely seen.

Although the little girl was sitting opposite him, she seemed to be able to see the situation in the mirror clearly. She couldn't help but have goosebumps. "Abnormal!"

The scholar smiled nonchalantly, "what's the point of following the rules? isn't it more interesting this way?" Too bad he's not that Lin Yi, otherwise it'd be even more interesting. "

The little girl's eyes lit up, but then she seemed to have thought of something and pushed the table in frustration. "Get lost! Don't let me see you again, or I'll beat you up every time I see you!"

After she finished speaking, she shook her head and walked away.

The feminine scholar smiled as he looked at her small back. The scene was peaceful, but his eyes were flashing with killing intent.

He and the little girl both wanted to kill each other in their dreams because only by killing each other could they leave this seemingly bustling hell Street.

Unfortunately, neither of them could kill the other.

He could only drag it out.

Chapter 10254

The New World.

Li Yuanji's spirit appeared in front of Lin Yi, and after half a day of comparing her fingerprints, the result surprised Lin Yi.

It was an old face that he had dealt with before.

"Ao si?"

That shrewd figure flashed through Lin Yi's mind. Among all the princes and grandsons of the East Ocean, the one who left the deepest impression on him was ao si, except for the useless genius, ao eighteen.

This was also an unstable factor that he had expected. Moreover, Han Qi had concealed his relationship with him and deliberately tried to get closer to him. This in itself was an extremely obvious hint.

"Can you find ao SI's location?" Lin Yi asked.

If he was a true god of the sea, he could control the position of every believer of the sea god at any time if he wanted.

Now that Li Yuanji had taken over part of the sea god's godhood as a false god, she naturally had similar abilities, but her power would be reduced.

"I've already tried," Li Yuanji said with a bitter smile. "I can't find his position at all."

"What do you mean?" Lin Yi asked.

"I've already basically familiarized myself with the power of the seagod's divinity. Apart from those few seawaters who can block my tracking, I can at least roughly lock onto the range of activity of the other top-tier combat forces. "

Li Yuanji blinked her eyes helplessly. "With ao Si's strength, he was far from even the top third-tier combat power. It's impossible for him to reach the sea ceiling in such a short time.

However, he seemed to have evaporated from my perception. There is no trace of him in the entire sea.

Even Lin Yi was stunned.

Even if a person was dead, or even if his corpse was erased, it was absolutely impossible to completely erase all traces of his existence.

Moreover, the other party had made a move on Chen Ping 'er's body. It had to have happened not long ago. How could they have wiped away all traces?

What Li Yuanji had said was really outrageous.

"Could he have some sort of item that can block out divine sense?" Lin Yi frowned.

Li Yuanji shook her head repeatedly. "God-level existences have absolute dominance over all cultivators below the immortal state. This can't be made up for by any items."

Even if it's you, if there really is a God-level existence that has noticed your existence, it would be easy for him to find your location unless you hide in this new world forever.

Or, you can consume the world's will to hide yourself at all times, allowing yourself to become one with the outside world. "

Obviously, no matter which one it was, it had nothing to do with ao si. After all, he couldn't be an ancient God like Lin Yi, could he?

At this moment, Jiang xiaoshang, who was training morowei, suddenly appeared and pointed at the two of them, ""There's a saying that when humans think, the gods will laugh. When you two think, even pigs will laugh!"

Lin Yi and Li Yuanji looked at each other and called Jian 'er over to beat up Jiang xiaoshang.

The sword's son was the embodiment of the rules of the sword. Although he could not really kill Jiang xiaoshang, a deity's avatar, he had the upper-level advantage after all. He could not kill him, but he could easily hurt him.

Jiang xiaoshang was crying for his parents.

She had no choice but to beg for Lin Yi's mercy.

Lin Yi didn't pay attention to him. He and Li Yuanji each grabbed a handful of melon seeds, chatting and laughing as they watched the show.

The sword's son lectured him as he chopped. "You have to pay the price for your foul mouth. You don't even understand this bit of logic. You're even worse than a child like me."

Jiang xiaoshang felt like crying. "I think I taught you that, didn't I? you heartless little thing!" He said.

In the past, he was almost half a master in this new world. He was free and did whatever he wanted. Now, a sword son had come in and become his nemesis.

Originally, with the intelligence of the sword's son, it would have been a matter of minutes before he was fooled.

It was a pity that Lin Yi was the inheritor of the rules of the sword. In the heart of the sword's son, Lin Yi was number one no matter what. He could usually mess around with Jiang xiaoshang, but once Lin Yi gave him an order, he would immediately turn his back on him.

He was really slashing people, and he was just a brat who didn't know his limits.

After a while, Jiang xiaoshang finally had some time to catch his breath. Seeing that the sword's son was about to catch up, he quickly said to Lin Yi and Lin Yi, ""It's impossible to completely eliminate the traces of a person's primordial spirit, but it can be covered!"

"How?" Lin Yi and Li Yuanji exchanged a look.

Seeing that Jianzi had stopped, Jiang xiaoshang finally heaved a sigh of relief. He explained calmly, "Although the primordial spirit is the fundamental characteristic of a person's existence, in theory, it's how it is since birth. Even the gods can't shape a complete primordial spirit.

Because that is the true meaning of the creation of humans, and it is within the scope of the evolution of the world's natural laws. Even the God of creation can not truly involve himself in it. "

"Then where did the legend of nüwa creating humans come from?" Lin Yi couldn't help asking.

Jiang xiaoshang chuckled."You said it yourself that it's a legend. At least, there's no nüwa in the world we're in. From what I know, the God of creation is still experimenting with creating perfect life. Success is still far away."

"Perfect life form ..."

Lin Yi and Li Yuanji looked at each other, speechless.

Jiang xiaoshang returned to the main topic,"although the gods can't create an essence soul from its source, it's possible to reconstruct an existing essence soul and change it into something completely different."

Based on the underlying logic of the world's laws, every trace left behind must have a clear source. Once the source is changed, the original trace will be covered by a new trace. "

Lin Yi was deep in thought."That means that the trace of ao SI's primordial spirit still exists. It's just that it has become a new trace that we can't recognize. Even if it's clearly in front of us, we won't know that it's his trace!"

Li Yuanji frowned."According to what you said, the primordial spirit fingerprint is the most fundamental trace feature. It should be covered by the new primordial spirit fingerprint. But why did ao SI's original primordial spirit fingerprint remain?"

Jiang xiaoshang said seriously, "there's only one explanation. The other party left this behind on purpose. Only the gods can do such a thing. This is a warning to us."

"Why do I feel like this is more of a provocation?" Lin Yi smiled.

If it were anyone else, they would probably be scared out of their wits if they knew that it was the gods in front of them.

Unfortunately, for an animal like him who treated the God of creation as an imaginary enemy, he would not worry about the more debts there were. It was just a God. Come on, it was not like he had not killed it before.

Chapter 10255

Speaking of which, Lin Yi had already noticed this God hiding behind the scenes.

Now, this guess was only further confirmed.

Jiang xiaoshang added, "this doesn't seem like the new beast deity's style. Based on my understanding of that fellow, if he was really trying to warn you, he wouldn't have taken so many roundabout ways. He's too reserved."

Lin Yi nodded.

Although he had never had a direct encounter with the new beast God, he could roughly guess from the way the beast God Hall did things. If the new beast God was a fierce and ambitious man who suddenly burst out after holding back, then the one he was facing now was more like a conspirator who liked to play with people's hearts.

"No matter which God it is, once they descend, they can't be underestimated," Li Yuanji said in a deep voice.

Jiang xiaoshang was unconcerned. "There are clear boundaries between the gods. Even if someone wants to break the rules, they have to ask the God of creation first."

Although the other party is aggressive, unless they can ensure that the God of creation won't interfere, they won't come here in person. No God has the courage to do this. "

After a pause, he continued. "However, if it's just a projection of a part of their power or a clone, some gods who wish for the world to be in chaos have the guts to do so. They're very bold."

The atmosphere was a little heavy.

No matter what, now that they were sure that the other party was a real God, they were destined to be an extremely difficult enemy to deal with. Not to mention, there was a new beast God waiting for them.

"We'll deal with whatever comes our way, let's wait and see,"

Just as Lin Yi finished speaking, bad news came from the outside world.

The life gem warehouse had been destroyed.

Lin Yi finally showed up, and grandma Qin quickly took out a Statistics Report, "Of the eighteen warehouses, six were attacked at the same time. The power of the attacks far exceeded the defensive limits of the formations, and all the life crystals in the warehouses were affected.

We have less than 70% of our stock left. It's only enough to last us for two months. "

Although the situation had been tense before, with the Qin family's old grandmother moving in and her unique ability to allocate resources, the situation had already stabilized.

After all, to the civilians everywhere, as long as they could see hope, as long as there was a constant supply, they could accept even if it was only a normal price.

As for local tyrants like the Chen family who drank human blood, they were unavoidable, but once Lin Yi increased his strength, especially after Ning Wanjun's monitoring team officially expanded, they'd have to keep it in check.

After all, he was still afraid of death.

But now, with 30% of the storage destroyed, it would directly destroy the rhythm of Lin Yi's entire plan. A single pull would affect the whole body, and the whole situation could be lost if he wasn't careful.

"How long more can the ideal situation last?" Lin Yi asked in a deep voice.

The Qin family's old grandmother thought for a moment and said, "three months. This is the final limit. Once this time is over, a large-scale supply cut is inevitable. It will be troublesome then."

Three months seemed like a long time, but it was actually just a blink of an eye for a major event that involved the entire sea.

As long as the efficiency was slightly lower, there was a high probability that time would be up before the basic foreshadowing was completed.

"That's not the most troublesome thing right now. "

"We have to be wary of people taking the opportunity to cause trouble," the Qin family's old grandmother reminded him seriously.

Naturally, Lin Yi had thought of this as well. He had already guessed the mastermind behind the destruction of the warehouse. It should be ao si, who had changed his appearance.

And if this person was the one who made the move, the destruction of the warehouse would not be their true focus. It was very likely that it was only the beginning.

As expected, two days later, the same opinion had spread across the entire sea area, targeting Lin Yi.

"The person who destroyed the storage of life crystals was none other than Lin Yi himself!"

"Most of the life crystals are in Lin Yi's hands right now-it looks like he's taking damage by destroying the storage, but it's exactly what he wants!"

"He can use this as an excuse to raise the price and force everyone in the entire sea region to buy life crystals from him at an astronomical price!"

"As long as the panic spreads, he can raise the price by five times today, ten times tomorrow, and even a hundred times the day after tomorrow. He doesn't have to worry about no one buying!"

To be honest, Lin Yi was a little surprised when he first heard the theory.

After all, he had seen such dirty tricks before, but that was in the secular world. Now, it had been moved to the sea, and the initiator was actually "himself."

It had to be said that nothing was new under the sun, even at the bottom of the sea.

People with discerning eyes could see through the conspiracy behind this at a glance. It had spread all over the sea area in just two days. This kind of thing was carefully planned behind the scenes in order to cause a great chaos.

Unfortunately, this was an open scheme.

It was a fact that there was a shortage of life crystals in stock, and it was also a fact that someone was trying to drive up the price of life crystals, driving a family to their death. Even Lin Yi himself couldn't explain these two points.

Moreover, compared to his official statement, the world was naturally more inclined to conspiracy theories.

This wasn't the end yet-it was only the beginning. Since the enemy had already made his move, he wouldn't stop and give Lin Yi a chance to catch his breath.

Ning Wanjun's monitoring group quickly sent a warning: "Hundreds of local families are contacting each other frequently, trying to use this opportunity to plot against us."

For a local tyrant like the Chen family in the far ocean, they would not be able to do much on their own. After all, their strength was limited. However, if hundreds of families joined hands to attack together, the momentum they created would not be simple.

The key was that the current situation would affect everything.

If he really created the hundred House Alliance, it would cause even bigger waves. Even the royal families of the three Seas that Lin Yi had subdued in name before wouldn't be content with their place.

The current sea region was like a huge barrel of gunpowder.

However, in this situation that could make anyone anxious, Lin Yi, who was the main person involved, didn't look worried at all. He was as calm as usual.

The Qin family's old grandmother nodded secretly. Being calm in the face of danger was the most important quality of a successful person.

She'd already bet the entire house on Lin Yi-if Lin Yi were to pull a leg here, even her house would be doomed. On the other hand, if Lin Yi could stabilize the complicated situation now, he'd be able to soar to the top in a single bound.

The so-called crisis meant that there was something in the midst of danger.

It wasn't hard for her to see that while this was a menacing attack, it was also the same as bringing out all the hidden dangers from Lin Yi's rapid expansion.

Chapter 10256

It was dangerous, but as long as he could get through this, Lin Yi's Foundation would be stronger than ever.

There was hope for the four Seas to become the sovereign!

Lin Yi was arranging all the countermeasures in an orderly manner.

Now, he not only had the trump card of the personal guard Camp in his hands, but also the vast number of disciples of the Sword Garret at his command. In addition, the Qin family was going all out. Although it was inevitable that they would be stretched thin in the face of the chaos of the entire sea area, it was barely enough if they had a strategy to catch the big and let the small.

At the end of the day, it was still a chaotic situation, but most of the ambitious people were still sitting on the wall and watching. As long as Lin Yi's side didn't show any obvious signs of defeat, they wouldn't step down easily.

After all, Lin Yi's fierce battle results weren't fake. Even if he couldn't kill all the traitors in the sea area, it was more than enough to take care of a few birds that stood out.

Everyone was paying attention to Lin Yi's every move, waiting for him to make a mistake on impulse, and then they'd all rush up and beat him up.

Unfortunately, Lin Yi was as steady as an old dog.

Every response he gave was appropriate and shrewd, not giving him any chance at all.

But just when everyone thought that Lin Yi would be able to hold on until the end, his real body came to a large warehouse quietly, leaving only a clone to confuse the world.

Since he was acting alone, no one could keep track of his movements with his strength-only core members of the group like the old lady of the Qin family, who had been specially informed, could.

His sudden appearance here was not for any other reason but to wait for someone to take the bait!

He had received a secret message from Han Qi that ao si would attack the warehouse tonight!

Ever since the last six warehouses were destroyed, Lin Yi had increased the security for the remaining warehouses. He even secretly moved some of the life crystals into the new world for safety reasons.

Just like the room in front of him. On the surface, it seemed to store a large number of life crystals and was heavily guarded inside and outside, but in reality, it was just a cover.

It was to lure the other party into taking the bait.

He put himself in the other party's shoes and thought that the crystals were Lin Yi's Foundation. The destruction of the warehouse didn't turn the situation around, but it did cause an unprecedented chaos. It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that he won.

Under such circumstances, how could he give up on the remaining ready-made targets?

He didn't need much-he just needed to destroy one or two of the twelve warehouses, and he'd be able to add fuel to the fire for the entire sea. By then, it'd be extremely difficult for Lin Yi to stabilize the situation, even if he was already in danger.

Therefore, he would definitely come.

Lin Yi used the world's consciousness to wrap himself up, allowing himself to merge into the darkness.

In this way, no matter how brilliant the other party's deified soul means were, or if they had all kinds of trump cards given by the gods behind the scenes, they would not be able to detect his existence at all.

After all, the world will was of a higher level than the gods!

Time passed by, and the night was about to pass. Lin Yi's heart jumped.

A ghostly shadow suddenly appeared in the sky above the warehouse. Then, a huge, pitch-black Claw slapped down from the sky. It was a Dragon Claw.

The defense array of the warehouse that had been carefully set up was immediately activated. However, it did not have the slightest resistance in front of the Dragon Claw and was broken like a piece of paper.

The guards below were shocked and immediately fled in all directions.

"You call this strengthening the defense? It can't even withstand a single blow. "

The black shadow snorted softly. It was actually a woman's voice, and it had a natural charm that couldn't be described. Most male creatures would probably have their bones cut off and their souls devoured just by hearing this voice.

After he finished speaking, he immediately struck out with his claw.

However, before the Black Dragon Claw could land, it was blocked by an ancient sword.

This ancient sword exuded the might of a King. The moment it appeared, all the seaweed creatures within a hundred miles bowed to it, not daring to profane it in the slightest!

"The first of the ten ancient swords, the Xuanyuan sword?"

The black Shadow's eyelids twitched. The moment he saw the sword, even he had an impulse to kneel down. Fortunately, his strength was not what it used to be, and the master behind him had a great background.

Otherwise, if it was the old him, he might really have knelt down in front of them.

After all, for someone with a family background like his, the hierarchy of Kings was something that was engraved in his bones. The deterrence to him was a hundred times stronger than that of ordinary people!

"Not bad, you have good eyes."

Lin Yi slowly walked out of the darkness, sizing up the man. "I thought I'd meet someone familiar, but I didn't expect it to be a woman."

In his estimation, the one behind the scenes this time, besides the deity who was hiding in the deepest part, should be ao si. However, the black shadow that appeared in front of him had a slim figure, which was clearly a woman.

"Lin Yi!"

The black shadow saw Lin Yi's body freeze, and immediately emitted a nearly solid hatred, gritting his teeth, ""This is a trap you set? But how did you know I would choose this place?"

Any of the remaining 12 large warehouses could be her target. It didn't make sense for such a coincidence to happen.

Unless Lin Yi had set up a trap in every warehouse at the same time.

As for the possibility of someone betraying her, this thought only flashed through her mind for a moment. After all, those who were with her were the believers of that God. Who could betray the God?

"This kind of thing like waiting for a rabbit doesn't seem to be that rare, right?"

Lin Yi sized her up as he spoke-she was covered in a black robe, but he was sure that he'd never seen her before.

However, for some reason, this person gave him an inexplicable sense of familiarity.

"Then you'll have to be able to hold on!" The woman snorted.

With that, six mirrors appeared in front of Lin Yi. The images in the mirrors were blurry, but a giant black Dragon Claw emerged from each mirror and slammed down on the warehouse.

Lin Yi's eyes twitched.

He had fought with the Kings of the four Seas in succession. In addition, he was now proficient in the rules of the Dragon race. In terms of understanding the rules of the Dragon race, he was probably the best in the entire sea.

However, the moment this person made his move, the rule force of the dragon clan that he displayed was not any weaker than that of the Kings of the four Seas!

The East Sea ao Tianxia, the West Sea ao Yuzhou, and the South Sea ao Taiwei.

All three of them had died in his hands, either directly or indirectly. They had different ways of studying the dragon clan's rule power, but they were all roughly at the same level. Lin Yi knew that he wouldn't be able to defeat them if it was purely based on the dragon clan's rule power.

However, at this moment, the pressure that the other party gave him was not any less than that of the Three Kings of the four Seas!

Chapter 10257

This was clearly extremely abnormal.

Ning Wanjun stealthily calmed down the embarrassment in her heart and nodded, ""Even a young girl who has just experienced love is more feminine than her. Although she has a beautiful female body, she doesn't have a womanly heart at all. Or, it could be said that her womanly heart has just begun to sprout."

"So, she was possessed by a man?"

That was Lin Yi's first reaction. It wasn't common for a man to possess a woman, but it wasn't impossible. Some perverted male practitioners might want to change their way of living.

Ning Wanjun shook her head. "It doesn't look like it. Although she doesn't have any femininity, it doesn't match her body that badly. My intuition is that this was originally her body, but it was originally a man's body, and now it has been turned into a woman by some external force."

"Sex change ..."

Lin Yi couldn't help but feel weird. It sounded unbelievable, but after analyzing the situation, it was the most reasonable explanation.

A moment later, Lin Yi said, "In other words, she is ao si."

Ning Wanjun nodded. "Our monitoring team has carefully investigated the sudden death of ao Si's family. On the surface, it seemed like an enemy had come to seek revenge. But from all the clues, we can infer that it should be done by someone in the family. Ao si, who has disappeared, is the only suspect."

"After personally sending away his wife and children, he changed his gender completely. The price is too great."

Lin Yi shook his head, speechless.

This was not necessarily ao Si's own idea, but the request of the God behind him.

Since he could make such inhuman and outrageous demands, it could be seen that he was by no means a decent God. Even among the gods, he was a villain that would make people's faces change.

However, this was quite in line with his previous guess about that God. If it was really that God, this should have been the way it was.

"If he didn't pay such a huge price, he wouldn't have gained such powerful strength in such a short time," ning Wanjun said. "After all, gods have never been charitable."

The original ao Si was far from the threshold of the top third-tier combat power, let alone the top first-tier combat power.

Such a terrifying increase in strength-to a certain extent, it had even surpassed Lin Yi. It was shocking.

Lin Yi frowned.

Although he had repelled the other party this time, he had basically confirmed the other party's identity and even further verified the God behind him. Speaking of which, he had gained a lot. After all, the situation was much clearer.

However, facing such an opponent, even he couldn't help but feel troubled.

That wasn't all-another shocking piece of news came, targeting Lin Yi as well.

"The North Sea has released a criminal demand order, saying that you're the order destroyer and the source of all evil that caused all this chaos. The royal family of the North Sea has publicly called for an uprising and formed an anti-Lin Yi Alliance!"

The King of the North Sea, ao Sifang, who had been silent for a long time, made a big move the moment he made his move.

Everyone couldn't help but worry.

With the fall of East, West, and South Seas, even a child knew that Lin Yi's next target would be the North Sea. As long as he took the North Sea, he would be the unprecedented ruler of the four Seas!

Under such circumstances, the ruler of the North Sea, ao Sifang, would naturally not sit still and wait for his death. The scene before him was not unexpected.

However, the timing he'd chosen had hit Lin Yi group's weak spot.

It made things worse.

But Lin Yi himself didn't seem to be under much pressure-he just shook his head and laughed,"One is ao si, the other is ao Sifang. Now, they are actually standing on the same side. The two of them are really fated."

"This ao Sifang is much more difficult to deal with than ao si," the Qin clan's old grandmother reminded.

Although ao Si's strength had improved by leaps and bounds, and he was already one of the top-tier combat forces, ao Sifang was the same as ao Taiwei. They were both benchmark figures of the top-tier combat forces, and their strength was so profound that they were only stronger than ao si.

More importantly, ao Sifang's prestige was far beyond ao si 's.

The latter was just a single-handed person, and at most, he could do some tricks in the dark. Although it was tricky, the destructive power was limited.

On the other hand, the former was the true king of the four Seas, and his influence was far beyond the imagination of ordinary people. Especially now that the other three Seas had fallen one after another, the four factions of ao had become the last hope of the entire sea realm.

When he stood out this time, he would definitely be able to rally a hundred supporters, and his influence would definitely not be limited to the North Sea under his command!

The result was just as everyone had expected.

As soon as the North Sea's criminal demand order was released, it spread throughout the entire sea area in just a few days.

Sure enough, a hundred people responded to a single call, and a group of heroes rose together!

The hundred House Alliance, which had been planning this for a while, was the first to respond. At the same time, many local forces who were waiting to sit on the wall couldn't hold it in anymore and joined the anti-Lin Yi Army.

For a time, the tide of the fallen forest swept across the entire sea area.

Lin Yi, who was just about to become the first ruler of the four Seas, seemed to have become The Public Enemy of the entire sea in the blink of an eye.

Just a second ago, everyone was still saying that the name of this era was Lin Yi.

And in the next second, they'd be ready to split Lin Yi's body and become a hero of the new era!

Anyone who was in Lin Yi's position would be in deep trouble.

With Lin Yi's current resources, it wouldn't be a problem for him to deal with a few small groups, but if it were to take over the entire sea area, especially to this scale, it would be far beyond the limit of what Lin Yi's group could afford.

At this moment, almost all the well-known Intel organizations in the sea came to the same conclusion.

After all, no matter how they analyzed it, Lin Yi group's current strength wasn't enough to suppress the situation.

The Royal disciples of the three clans that had been subdued by him had not made any moves yet, but it was foreseeable that there was no lack of ambitious people among them, and many of them would certainly be eager to make a move.

If they followed suit, it would be a devastating blow to Lin Yi group!

Even Lin Yi himself had to admit this.

He had no choice. His stall was too big. On one hand, it was a triumphant and powerful momentum, but on the other hand, there was bound to be such a crisis hidden under the raging fire.

Everything seemed to be against Lin Yi now.

However, this was not the end.

Immediately after, another mighty army of a million soldiers made the already chaotic sea situation even more chaotic.

The previous Army of a million was against Lin Yi, and this Army of a million was also against Lin Yi. The slogan was to open up all the life crystals for free!

Chapter 10258

The main force of the million-strong Army was mainly the low-level cultivators and civilians. They were the group that was most exploited by the life crystals and were the group that was most likely to be sacrificed due to the shortage of life crystals in the stock.

Whether it was the four sides of bei hai ao or the other heroes who rose up in other places, their goal was territory and resources. In the end, it was still for hegemony. Only these people who were leading the Army of millions were truly for survival.

From Lin Yi's point of view, he pitied the Army of a million the most, but he couldn't compromise with them.

It wasn't that he didn't want to give up the life crystals he had, but he couldn't just watch as these people were pushed into the fire pit.

In the current situation, if he really released the life crystals for free, it would immediately resolve the pressure from the million-strong Army, but the next death would not be just the million-strong Army.

Once it went out of control, tens of millions of people would die, and hundreds of millions or even billions of people might not be able to stop it!

At that time, it would truly be hell on earth.

Lin Yi's refusal to compromise further solidified his position as The Public Enemy of the entire sea.

With the royal family of the North Sea as the leader, the class with vested interests wanted to rebel against him, and the group of oppressed civilians at the bottom also wanted to rebel against him. This could be considered an unprecedented spectacle in the history of the sea realm.

All of a sudden, dark clouds loomed over the city.

No one was optimistic about Lin Yi's chances.

Not to mention the external environment, even the people under his command were inevitably shaken. Because of his previous legendary deeds, he had built a very high prestige imperceptibly, and there had been no case of betrayal in a short time.

However, anyone with eyes could see that if this continued, it was only a matter of time before his subordinates betrayed him.

The first betrayal would become the first falling Domino, and what awaited Lin Yi would be a complete collapse.

That kind of scene was unimaginable.

Everyone was waiting for Lin Yi's reaction.

Although the situation had developed to this point, and public opinion had already determined that Lin Yi wouldn't be able to turn the tables, he had still become a legend, passed down by word of mouth, especially since he was the person closest to the position of the ruler of the four Seas in history.

Even if he was destined to fall in this wave, he would definitely not collapse without any resistance.

Lin Yi must be planning something big.

As expected, just as the situation was getting more and more intense, Lin Yi group, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly spoke up.

The statement was very simple, only four words.

"Declaration of war on the North Sea."

As soon as these words came out, the entire sea area was in an uproar.

He didn't mention the millions of soldiers or the rising forces-Lin Yi's goal was simple and clear-he'd locked onto the North Sea.

Everyone instantly understood Lin Yi's intention-capture the leader first!

With the current situation where the volcanoes were erupting collectively, it was no longer realistic to cover every single crater. The only viable option left was to capture the leader.

Let's not care about the others and just fight the most powerful one!

As long as he crushed the strongest one with a thunderous force, it would be a huge psychological shock to the rest of the forces. As long as Lin Yi showed enough strength, they would have a chance to regain their footing.

At the end of the day, the remaining forces were all fence-sitters, and the moment Lin Yi showed any signs of weakness, they'd all rush at him like wolves and scatter, running away faster than anyone.

The pressure was on ao Sifang's head.

The ruler of the North Sea immediately responded, ""I'm in the royal city of the North Sea. Do you dare to come?"

The entire sea area was in an uproar again.

Lin Yi's response was simple and clear, without a word of nonsense. He pointed his sword at the North Sea with the guards, and from the beginning to the end, he didn't have any intention of hiding his whereabouts. All the intelligence agents followed from a distance and weren't chased away.

And so, every move of Lin Yi group's would be sent to every Intelligence Agency at once, and then spread to the entire sea area in a very short time.

This was a live broadcast of the entire event.

This way, Lin Yi group was almost completely transparent to the outside world, and the enemy could completely wait for the exhausted to come. At least in terms of pre-war planning, they had the initiative.

Lin Yi's side, on the other hand, was forced into a passive position.

But this was exactly what Lin Yi wanted. His goal in this battle wasn't just to kill one of the North Sea's royal family-he wanted to kill them to establish his authority.

Since he wanted to establish his might, he had to let those fence-sitters see it clearly and let them feel despair and horror in real time!

In this battle, ao Sifang must die, and he must die miserably, so miserably that all the ambitious people in the entire sea area would be collectively terrified!

As for Lin Yi's intention, ao Sifang was well aware of it and sneered.

To be honest, with Lin Yi's previous performance, especially the fact that he killed ao Taiwei in a one-on-one fight, he really didn't have the confidence to face Lin Yi alone.

After all, he was only as strong as ao Taiwei. If Lin Yi could kill ao Taiwei in front of him, he could kill him in front of him too.

It was too late for Beihai to stop Lin Yi.

However, this time, the North Sea family was not alone.

"Since you're courting death and offending the public, wouldn't I be letting you down if I don't take the opportunity to trample you to death?"

Ao Sifang looked at Lin Yi's position on the map, and his most loyal ally was standing behind him.

Ao si.

One was the North Sea King, and the other was the most competitive heir of the eastern sea's royal family. The two houses were blood related to begin with, and now they were standing together because of a common enemy, Lin Yi.

However, facing ao Si's current appearance, even ao Sifang, the nominal Royal uncle, felt somewhat uncomfortable.

According to his original personality, he would drool at such a beautiful woman. After all, Dragons were lascivious by nature. Most of the descendants of the four Seas 'royal families who had the bloodline of the Dragon race had a lecherous nature, and he, ao Sifang, was one of the outstanding ones.

If ao Si was born with this appearance, even if they were uncle and nephew, ao Sifang would not mind putting the other on his wide Dragon bed.

Unfortunately, she was not.

Even with ao Sifang's taste, he could not get over the fact that this person in front of him might be the first transsexual person in the history of the sea area. He even felt that this person was a little creepy.

"Ao Qing, you've fought with Lin Yi before, what level is he now?"

Ao Sifang asked.

Ao Qing was ao Si's real name. According to the rules of East Ocean, before the final successor of East Ocean was decided, only a serial number was used to replace it. Now that ao Yi had become the king of East Ocean in name, ao si naturally changed his name back to her real name.

Chapter 10259

"Not yet," ao Qing said, "but he should be one of the stronger ones among the top-tier Warriors. Uncle Wang, you might not be his match."

"Is that so?"

Ao Sifang's face was filled with anger.

Even if he admitted that it wasn't a big deal for him to win against Lin Yi, it was a different story when someone else said it.

Ao Qing didn't care about this.

Her powerful strength gave her great confidence. Even if she were to face the King of the North Sea, who she had to look up to in the past, her current strength was enough to wrestle with him head-on. At the very least, she could ensure that she could retreat in one piece.

Obviously, ao Sifang knew this too. He quickly restrained his anger and said regretfully, ""It's a pity that your genius, ao Shi BA, didn't come this time. If you count him in, that Lin Yi will definitely not be able to return. "

"Old eighteen is still in seclusion."

Ao Qing also agreed with this.

Before she chose to pay the price, ao Shiba was the most powerful person in the East Sea.

Although he had been a cripple for a period of time, after recovering his strength, his strength had advanced by leaps and bounds every day. The rate of improvement was even more exaggerated than when he had been the strongest genius.

If there was anyone in the eastern sea that could threaten Lin Yi, it would be ao Shiba.

This time, she and ao Sifang, the two top tier A-list combat forces, joined forces. With the addition of ao eighteen, it was three against one. It was enough to form an absolute suppression of Lin Yi's strength!

Unfortunately, ao eighteen did not follow.

Although it was a pity, ao Sifang did not take it to heart. He smiled and said, ""It doesn't matter, the two of us can take Lin Yi down together. After all, we still have the home ground advantage, it's just a little more effort."

Ao Qing stared at Lin Yi's position on the map and said coldly, ""He has to be able to reach the royal city of the North Sea first."

"Haha!" Ao Sifang laughed. "I'll kill half of him before we reach yunwu city!"

It wasn't just half. According to their plan, it would be far more difficult for Lin Yi and the guards unit to reach the city.

Outside the Imperial City of the North Sea, his trump card, Army destroyer, was waiting for him.

Not only that, but there were also the divine Dragon guards brought by ao Qing.

The divine Dragon guards were different from the other Ace battle teams. They had very few members, with only a single digit number. However, their individual strength was unprecedentedly strong. Every one of them had almost touched the outer threshold of the top battle power. They could be considered as the standard quasi-top battle power.

Such an expert would be a decisive force in any battle.

Now that they were under ao Qing's control and suddenly appeared in the enemy's line, it was a huge blow to the morale of Lin Yi's group!

That wasn't all. The Dragon Sparrow guards, the trump card of the Western sea, had also appeared. They patrolled around the battlefield, looking for an opportunity to strike at Lin Yi's group.

The entire sea region was in an uproar when the news spread.

Vanquisher, Divine Dragon, and Dragon Sparrow-the three trump cards had joined forces. This was an unprecedented scene!

Even if they had a strong battle record and everyone acknowledged the strength of Lin Yi's personal guards, no one would think highly of them in this situation.

At the end of the day, the only battle that could truly prove the strength of the personal guards unit was the last time they fought the South Sea Moro guards. The rest of the battles were basically just trampling on the weak.

Including their performance in the West Ocean, it could only be said that the personal guards unit was far stronger than ordinary elites. As for whether they had reached the level of a trump card, that was still unknown.

The last time they fought with the South sea's morowei, they were on par with each other. However, the key to defeating the morowei was the loss of ao Taiwei by Lin Yi's hands, which caused the morale of the Army to be greatly affected. The sword Pavilion disciples also rushed in to help, which was how the victory was secured.

Such a battle record could only prove that the guards unit had the ability to fight with mo Luo Wei, but it was far from being above mo Luo Wei.

Now that he was facing three trump cards at once, he was at an overwhelming disadvantage!

The betting odds for the guards unit were one to thirty-one.

All the spectators used their feet to vote, all of them standing on the side of the three trump cards.

In a Hall somewhere in the East Ocean, a group of burly men walked in. The leader poured out a sack of black crystals and jades and shouted, ""All on Lin Yi's personal guards!"

Everyone was in an uproar.

These were all black crystals, rare spiritual jades unique to the sea area. Even the best spiritual jades on land had less than one percent of the spiritual energy concentration of the black crystals.

The market price of each black crystal in front of him was at least 100000 spiritual Jade, but there was a whole sack of them.

Where did this rich guy come from?

The steward sized up the person with a cautious expression. This big sack of black crystals was indeed an unprecedented amount of money, but it was not impossible for his family's deep background to buy it.

Not to mention, the other party had bet on Lin Yi's personal guards unit. With the current situation, this gamble was basically for nothing.

Who doesn't want free black crystals?

However, to be cautious, the steward still asked, "Sir, are you sure you want to bet on Lin Yi's personal guard?"

The leader of the men laughed. "I never repeat myself. Prepare 31 sacks of the same type as soon as possible. I'll take them later. Remember, my name is Zhang Shichang."

After he finished speaking, he ignored everyone's surprised expressions and turned to the burly men behind him. "Let's go help Lin Yi-I've missed him so much after not seeing him for so long!"

After watching the group of burly men leave, someone finally reacted after a long time.

"Lord of the Huanghai, Zhang Shichang!"

The Lord of Huanghai was friends with Lin Yi?

This sudden news immediately caused a sensation.

To the vast sea region's people, the barren sea was synonymous with death. Anyone who entered the barren sea by mistake was basically equivalent to a death sentence. It was almost impossible for them to escape unscathed.

In the end, a group of forces suddenly emerged in the Huanghai region. In terms of absolute strength, they were not as powerful as the royal families of the four Seas, which were traditional Sea regions. However, they were able to enter and leave the Huanghai region freely. Just this point alone was enough for them to be in an undefeatable position.

No one would have thought that these forces from Huanghai would suddenly come to the regular Sea area and help Lin Yi. This made many people's jaws drop!

"The Lord of the Huanghai Army only made a name for himself by relying on the geographical advantage of the Huanghai region. The true strength of his Huanghai Army is only average. Where did he get his arrogance from?"

"That's right. This place is tens of thousands of miles away from the royal city of the North Sea. Even if he really has the strength, how can he make it over?"

"What do you mean by rushing over? don't you want him to brag?"

"You people really don't know what's good for you. They paid such a huge price to help us raise the odds, and all they want is for us to earn more. How can you understand their painstaking efforts?"

"If that's the case, the Lord of the Huanghai clan is really a kind person."

The hall was filled with a joyous atmosphere.

Chapter 10260

At this moment, outside the royal city of the North Sea, the two sides had begun to fight officially after a short stalemate.

Lin Yi was involved, but he didn't want to do it himself.

After all, ao Sifang was not an easy guy to deal with. Even if he wanted to take him down in a one-on-one fight, he would have to go all out. Moreover, he knew that the strong enemy he was going to face this time was not just ao Sifang!

Before he met the person in question, he had to conserve as much energy as possible.

Although it was said that there was no such thing as exhaustion at the level of laws, and in theory, it could be endless and even become a perpetual motion machine, a theory was ultimately just a theory.

Having unlimited power did not mean that one's energy was also unlimited.

In particular, those powerful moves that could easily destroy the world were bound to be accompanied by a severe consumption of the primordial spirit. Once the primordial spirit was exhausted, not only would it cause a severe backlash, but it would also greatly affect the state of battle, where one might not even be able to exert ten percent of one's strength.

So before he saw the real deal, he wouldn't make a move.

Fortunately, even if he did not personally take action, as long as he was in the formation, the personal guards unit would be able to receive the support of the new world's will. Their combat strength had a qualitative improvement compared to the last time they faced the South Sea Moro guards.

As a result, when they faced the North Sea Army breaking guards, Lin Yi's personal guard unit didn't back down at all. Instead, they took the initiative and split the formation into two!

This result shocked ao Sifang, who was standing at the top of the royal city of the North Sea and watching the battle.

He knew that Lin Yi's personal guards weren't easy to deal with, but he didn't think that his own Vanquisher guards would be so easily penetrated by the enemy!

In other words, if it was only his own broken Army guards, it was very likely that they would collapse today!

Even though the previous interlude did not cause any substantial losses to the Army breaking guards, in a large-scale battle, the importance of formation was unquestionable.

The formation being broken meant that they would be completely passive in the following battle.

Even with the accomplishments of the broken Army guards, they wouldn't be reduced to scattered soldiers, but they were definitely at a disadvantage.

Once this kind of disadvantage was formed, it was very difficult to turn back. It would only be further expanded by the side who took the initiative. The advantage would accumulate little by little and turn into a victory, finally evolving into a one-sided crushing!

Fortunately, he was not the only one present.

Ao Sifang felt lucky and scared. At the same time, the divine Dragon guards, who had been watching him, had already made their move.

Nine strong figures charged into the center of the battlefield, cutting the guards "formation apart and simultaneously aiming at Lin Yi.

Although the guards unit was strong as a whole, in terms of individual strength, they were the weakest of all the Trump cards.

Now that they were up against the divine Dragon guards, who represented the peak of individual combat strength, the difference between them was so great that it was beyond the upper limit that could be made up by formations. If these Divine Dragon guards wanted to do something, the guards unit had almost no effective way to deal with them.

"The divine Dragon guards are Lin Yi's personal guard camp's nemesis."

Ao Qing looked down at the scene and said coldly.

Although ao Sifang was embarrassed by the defeat of his Vanquisher guard, he still agreed with this statement.

The divine Dragon guards wouldn't have such an advantage against his Vanquisher guards, the West sea's dragonsparrow guards, or even the South sea's Mara guards that had already been destroyed. Only Lin Yi's personal guards, who were the weakest, had no way of dealing with them.

On the other hand, Lin Yi's personal guard would not be at a disadvantage against the other houses, and would even have an advantage.

One could only say that everything had its weakness.

At this moment, the divine Dragon guards' goal wasn't just to destroy the guards unit. Their main goal was to exhaust Lin Yi!

They weren't Lin Yi's match one on one, but it was a whole different story when they worked together.

Moreover, they were in a battle formation, surrounded by the guards. Lin Yi couldn't do anything at all. On the other hand, the divine Dragon guards could do whatever they wanted, even using the guards as hostages.

For a moment, he actually had the advantage!

Ao Qing looked at this scene, and a cold smile appeared on her face, ""Looks like Lin Yi's going to have to put in a lot of effort to get to the top of the capital."

"It's not just a waste of energy, at least he'll be half dead!"

Ao Sifang also laughed happily. Then, he said thoughtfully, ""The divine Dragon guards are indeed the killing weapon of the East Sea. I didn't expect you to win their loyalty!"

Even he was drooling over this.

Ao Qing did not respond.

In fact, it would not be easy for her to recruit the divine Dragon Guard by herself. The divine Dragon Guard had always only listened to the orders of the King of the East Sea and had never been polite to the other princes and grandsons. However, the King of the East Sea was ao Yi.

However, anyone with eyes knew that ao Yi was just a puppet. After he took over, the divine Dragon guards didn't swear their loyalty. They even disappeared to avoid Lin Yi. Many people thought that they had betrayed the divine Dragon guards like the West Sea Dragon Sparrow.

If it wasn't for the help of the gods behind her, the possibility of ao Qing subduing the divine Dragon guards with her own strength was almost zero.

But no matter what, the divine Dragon guards were now her subordinates. They were the sharpest blade in her hands!

With the current situation, Lin Yi and his personal guards unit had not completely collapsed yet, but if this continued, it was only a matter of time.

It would be a miracle if Lin Yi's personal guards could still hold on against the divine Dragon guards and the Vanquisher guards.

Unless Lin Yi decided to go all out and start a fight!

However, that would be exactly what ao Sifang and ao Qing wanted. If they had to waste their precious energy on the divine Dragon guards, that would be the real way to die!

In their eyes, Lin Yi was in a dead end.

However, just as the scale of victory began to tilt in their favor, a group of black shadows silently appeared at the edge of the battlefield. They then turned into a long snake and plunged straight into the center of the battlefield.

"Who's there? What are the dragonbird guards doing?"

Ao Sifang could not help but frown.

The long-lost Dragon Sparrow guards were an ally he spent a lot of effort to win over. Although they weren't very reliable, as long as they maintained their advantage, the Dragon Sparrow guards would definitely hit him when he was down and become the last straw that broke the camel's back.

They hadn't entered the battle yet, and were just roaming around the edge of the battlefield. On one hand, they were there to hold the fort for the divine Dragon guards and the Vanquisher guards, and on the other hand, they were there to block any possible reinforcements from Lin Yi.

But now that reinforcements had appeared, the mighty West Sea dragonfinch actually didn't respond!
