

Bodyguard 10351

Chapter 10351

The Lin Yi from before, although his strength was unfathomable and he had an endless stream of cards up his sleeve, doing some unexpected and bold moves from time to time, was still the path of playing the pig to eat the Tiger.

But the Lin Yi today still looked like he was scheming with his strength, but there was something else that didn't stand out in the past.

Courage.

to be more precise, it was the courage of an expert.

to a true powerhouse, no matter what situation they were in, whether it was home or away, as long as they were where they were, they had to follow their rhythm!

Unconvinced? He held it in.

"you're more like an emperor than i am," xu anshan suddenly said.

lin yi patted his shoulder and laughed.

at this moment, the 16 bodyguards were wiped out, and harlin, surrounded by a group of fanatical fans, slowly walked to the queen.

he sized up the queen for a while, and his eyes lit up. " domineering and cute. these two completely different temperaments can actually merge into one. not bad, not bad. you're not bad at all. follow me from now on. " the queen looked up at him without saying a word, but her eyes looked like she was looking at an idiot.

harlin was neither embarrassed nor afraid. to him, there was nothing to be afraid of in the territory of the college alliance headquarters.

he was certain that the alliance of schools would not let anything happen to him here. as long as he was under the eyes of the alliance of schools, no matter how powerful he was, he would not be able to hurt him.

harlin chuckled condescendingly. " don't look at me like that. from today on, you have to call me big brother. got it? " in the next second, this lord ha, who was the center of attention, was stomped to the ground by a foot in front of his crazy fans.

the queen looked indifferently at the big star at her feet. " "what do you want me to remember?"

The entire place was dead silent.

All the fanatical fans, including Harlin himself, were stunned and couldn't react for a long time.

with harlin's status, the impact of this scene on everyone was no less than a top star in the secular world being stepped on the face by a little girl in public, and it was the kind that directly stepped through the cheek!

It took a long time for the crowd to recover from the shock. They looked at the Queen as if she was a monster.

"Impudent! let go of my lord ha!"

the fanatical fans immediately became restless.

after all, they were not ordinary people. there were many high-level cultivators, especially those at the supreme realm. even though the number of people present could not compare to the army of a million in the sea, the power they had when they moved was far greater!

this could be seen from the unconscious collective aura just now.

the queen of the abyss could not help frowning slightly.

it wasn't that she was afraid of this group of people. even if they hadn't actually fought, she knew that these people from the divine kingdom on land seemed to have high cultivation levels. however, because the environment was too peaceful, their actual combat strength was actually quite lacking compared to cultivators of the same level in the sea.

to put it bluntly, he had not gone through enough life and death battles.

to the people here, cultivation was not the capital for life-and-death battles, but more like a daily job.

the level of cultivation would indeed affect their lives, but it would only determine their fame and status. as for life and death, it was not even worth mentioning.

The reason why they were able to reach such a high realm was not because they were talented. It was purely because of the core resources of the world gathered by the divine Kingdom on land.

Even if it wasn't for those aristocratic families that monopolized the top resources, just the little bit of soup that leaked out from the fingers of these top big shots was a rare opportunity that could be stupid but not sought in other places.

Just a little bit of it would be enough to let these low-level cultivators reach a level that other places would not even dare to imagine.

For example, the Supreme realm.

The Supreme realm was the endpoint in most places, but in the divine Kingdom on land, it was only the standard for upper-middle level cultivators.

although it was not completely without difficulty, it was at best the difficulty of a high school student taking an undergraduate course in the secular world. compared to the cultivation world, which had a probability of one in a billion, such difficulty was really not worth mentioning.

But then again, even if the other side's Bluff was big, the number of people was still there. If they really fought, they still couldn't be underestimated.

In fact, the other side had already made their move.

Driven by collective anger, these crazy fans of Harlin might not have the courage to come out alone, but now they were full of confidence!

the divine kingdom on land strictly forbade public killing, especially since this was the encampment of the alliance of academies. the rules were even stricter.

Once someone was killed, it would be a major incident.

however, the law could not punish the masses!

These crazy fans of Harlin did not hold back at all. It was obvious that they wanted to kill the queen directly. Not to mention the Queen who was the first to bear the brunt, even Harlin, who was being stepped on, could not help but turn pale with horror when he saw this.

he didn't know if the queen would die if the attack landed on her, but he would definitely be injured by the impact.

With his strength, he might really die!

at the last moment when the attack was about to land, an extremely domineering aura suddenly spread out. under the impact of the shock of the divine sense and the impact of a higher level of the world's will, the group of fanatical fans who were still aggressive a second ago instantly fell to the ground collectively.

There was a strange silence.

The passers-by in the distance were dumbfounded as they watched the fans fall to the ground like leeks.

not only the passers-by, but even some of the important figures who were paying attention to this scene couldn't help but twitch their eyelids, and their faces couldn't hide their shock.

No matter how exaggerated they were, many of them were still Supreme realm experts!

Who would believe that they were all stunned by an aura?

For a moment, all the shocked and inquisitive gazes fell on the domineering man in the center of the aura.

"aren't you afraid of blowing things up by making such a move?"

The Queen looked at Lin Yi, 70% surprised and 30% amused.

She didn't plan on swallowing her anger, but she still had some concerns. She thought that Lin Yi would try to persuade her to let it go.

She didn't expect Lin Yi's temper to be so much worse than hers.

the first move was such a terrifying scene!

lin yi shrugged nonchalantly, "i also want to keep a low profile, but since the matter has come to me, i can't do anything about it. after all, there's a difference between keeping a low profile and being a coward."

"Your temper seems to be getting worse."

The Queen said with deep meaning.

Strictly speaking, from the first time she met Lin Yi, he'd always been this unreasonable and overbearing in front of her and the nameless scholar, the two top leaders of the sea.

Chapter 10352

Now that his strength had skyrocketed, his overbearing nature seemed to have intensified.

Lin Yi smiled, "it's not that my temper's bad. It's just that I've thought it through. It's better to be honest. There are some things that I want to do, I'll do it. There's no need to hide it.

as the two of them spoke, they seemed to have forgotten about Harlin, who was being stepped on by the queen.

"Where did this fanatic come from? How dare you act so arrogantly in the Alliance headquarters!"

a group of experts in uniform arrived late.

there were no less than a hundred of them, and every single one of them was at least a mid-stage golden class venerable. compared to the other practitioners, this group of people was clearly much fiercer.

"The law enforcement team!"

the passerby couldn't help but exclaim in surprise. then, they all impatiently retreated far away, afraid of becoming the target of this group of people.

Lin Yi raised his eyes-the strength of this group of people was far from what the frenzy fans could compare to. They were at least as strong as any of the Sea Kings.

If he pulled the guards unit over, they might have a 50 - 50 chance.

However, such a lineup was only an ordinary law enforcement team in the Alliance headquarters. There was a high probability that they couldn't even be considered elites. It was enough to show how terrifying the foundation of the divine Academy Alliance was!

The law enforcement team surrounded Lin Yi and the others.

the captain glanced at lin yi coldly before turning to the queen. "Impudent! Let go of Lord ha!"

The Queen and Lin Yi looked at each other, and the corners of their lips curved up. "Is your Yingluo also this guy's dog?"

With one sentence, the entire law enforcement team almost went berserk on the spot.

"Little girl, I advise you to keep your mouth clean. Otherwise, you'll be the one to suffer."

The captain suppressed his anger and looked at Harlin, who was at the Queen's feet, and said, " "lord ha isn't just a star here. he's also the representative of eternal river academy.

Since this matter hasn't blown up yet, I'll kindly clear your head.

The eternal river college was the college with the highest chance of joining the Alliance this year. Whether it was in terms of strength or public opinion, they were much stronger than the other three competing colleges. Even the top board of the Alliance had the support of the big shots!

As for what it means to be a representative of an Academy in the Alliance, I believe that no matter how ignorant you are, you should at least have some idea, right?"

"I'm sorry, but we don't have that kind of money," Lin Yi said suddenly.

The Queen chuckled and stomped even harder.

Harlin's anguished wails and screams filled the entire arena.

the law enforcement team couldn't help but be furious. they were in the alliance headquarters and they hadn't seen such an arrogant person in a long time.

Hmph! the captain's face darkened as he snorted coldly. as long as you join the alliance, the Academy will become the leading force of the entire divine Kingdom on land in one fell swoop. You'll be able to participate in deciding the general situation and trend of the outer realms.

Naturally, I can also easily decide the life and death of each and every one of you!

If I were you, the best thing I could do now would be to release Lord ha, then apologize with the greatest sincerity and beg him to be magnanimous and let you go.

Otherwise, as long as he's injured in the slightest today, don't even think about having a good end!"

"Ya!"

The Queen suddenly cried out in surprise and covered her mouth in a teasing manner, " that's really unfortunate. His injuries don't seem to be just a hair's breadth. Should we just sit and wait for death? "

"Since there's no turning back, it's not a bad idea to just kill her on the spot," Lin Yi laughed along.

The abyssal power under the Queen's feet surged wildly and buried half of Harlin's body in it, as if she was going to do what she said.

Everyone in the law enforcement team was stunned.

The captain of the law enforcement team was shocked and angry,"preposterous!" Are you really not afraid of death? Get into formation!"

with the order, the law enforcement team was full of killing intent and formed a tight formation that looked loose but was actually extremely tight. an overwhelming pressure pressed down on lin yi and the others 'heads.

Harlin's identity was too important. Today's incident was not only to give his fanatical fans an explanation, but also to the eternal river college.

moreover, if anything happened to harlin here, even the alliance headquarters would lose face!

seeing this, madam qing smiled and shook her head. "lin yi is lin yi, no matter where he goes, he can always cause a big commotion."

on the other side, xu anshan had already started to move his hands and feet without a word, getting ready to get to work.

&Nbsp; from an outsider's point of view, going against the Alliance headquarters right away was an extremely unwise thing.

lin yi's actions were a little reckless to the bystanders, and could even be considered stupid.

However, Xu Anshan and Madam Qing were both first-class figures in terms of strength and shrewdness, so they had no complaints about this.

they knew very well that lin yi would never do something meaningless, and he wouldn't do something stupid with no value.

"Since there's nothing to talk about, then let's kill the hostage."

With Lin Yi's light tone, the Queen's killing intent was unleashed without a second thought.

She looked like a little loli on the outside, but in reality, she was an old monster who had lived for thousands of years. Her style of doing things had always been both good and evil, and countless Masters had died at her hands.

To her, killing a person was easier than drinking water.

Feeling the terrifying pressure from the endless abyss, Harlin quickly shouted with all his might, "There's plenty to talk about! there's still something to talk about!"

The Queen stomped her foot again. "talk my ass, i never waste my breath on a guy who is destined to die. if you want to die a quick death, then shut your mouth!"

Harlin wanted to cry but had no tears.

Ever since he had stepped onto the path of cultivation, he had been treated as an honored guest wherever he went. Even the big shots from all over the world treated him with respect. If he could represent the eternal river Academy and join the alliance of Academies in one fell swoop, his status would soar!

At that time, he would no longer be a hot entertainment star. He would complete his transformation and become a real big Shot!

Who would have thought that at his peak, he would actually encounter such a fierce God who was the complete opposite of his appearance?

if he had known this earlier, he would not have dared to provoke the queen!

Seeing that Harlin was about to follow in the footsteps of his 16 bodyguards and be trampled into the endless abyss by the Queen, the captain of the law enforcement team finally couldn't hold back.

After giving a hand signal to his men to cover him, a long black shadow suddenly appeared under the captain's feet.

The black shadow quickly spread to the Queen's back. Almost at the same time as the black shadow arrived, the captain of the law enforcement team appeared silently.

"The law of light? It's a rare usage."

lin yi raised a brow, surprised.

Just like time and space, the law of light was also an extremely rare top-notch law. Other than the extreme difficulty in cultivating it and the extreme difficulty in increasing one's control over the law, it had almost no flaws.

Chapter 10353

With his current strength, other than allowing the New World to continue evolving, he had to make use of the power of rules. As such, he had obtained a lot of information on this from Jiang xiaoshang.

The captain of the enforcement team was obviously an expert who had mastered the rule of light.

However, perhaps it was because the law of light was too difficult, he had found another way and specially developed this shadow usage.

After all, where there was light, there would be shadows.

although it was a lot worse than the original, at least in some aspects, it could display the power of the law of light.

as expected, the alliance headquarters was filled with hidden talents.

"woman, pay for your own stupidity!"

as soon as the captain of the enforcement team appeared, several light arrows pierced through the queen's vital points. the most powerful one with the rule power of light was directly locked onto the queen's sea of consciousness.

at such a close distance, coupled with the uniqueness of the rule of light, the queen had no chance of dodging.

including his sea of consciousness, all his vital parts were destroyed in an instant.

However, the strange thing was that the Queen did not fall.

The Queen slowly turned around, revealing her white teeth. "don't you know that it's very painful to hit people like this?"

"you!"

The captain of the law enforcement team was stunned.

if it was only the vital parts of the body that were destroyed, he could understand why the other party could still survive. after all, he had seen many unreasonable monsters with bodies. however, even the sea of consciousness had been destroyed, so how could he still be alive?

Lin Yi wasn't surprised at all.

The Queen was able to reach the top of the sea, so she was naturally not a weakling. The abyssal power she controlled was definitely one of the most difficult forces in the entire sea, even if it was not the only one in the sea.

unless one could suppress her with pure strength or use a higher level of power, it was almost impossible to kill her.

After all, being unfathomably deep was the core of the abyssal power.

"you've had your fun, now it's my turn."

the queen turned around and slammed her palm on the captain's chest, forcing him to the ground.

Looking at the scene alone, a petite and weak little loli was pressing a nearly two-meter-tall man on the ground with one hand and rubbing him. The scene was really a bit strange.

However, when it appeared on the Queen, it seemed inexplicably harmonious.

sensing the thick abyssal power on the queen's palm, the captain's heart trembled.

In less than one-thousandth of a second, more than half of his body had been invaded by the pervasive abyssal power. If he was a pure light law ability user, it would not be difficult to escape from this situation.

after all, there were very few powers in the world that could truly trap light.

unfortunately, he was not.

since he had chosen the path of the shadow, which was the opposite of the light, and enjoyed the convenience it brought, he naturally had to bear the disadvantages it brought.

The power of the abyss was naturally compatible with darkness. It might not be able to swallow light, but it could easily trap the shadow, which could be called a derivative of darkness.

lin yi shook his head as he looked at the shocked expression on the man's face,"of all people you could have offended, why did you have to find her?"

To be fair, the strength of this Captain of the law enforcement team could not be considered weak.

If he were to fight normally, he might be able to fight against Emperor Xu Anshan or the unfathomable Madam Qing by relying on this disguised rule power of light.

in the end, he encountered the abyssal queen, who had the most powerful ability against him. it could only be said that this was destined to happen.

"save me!"

Seeing that the abyssal Power's corrosion was getting more and more severe, the captain of the law enforcement team could no longer care about his face and quickly called for help from his subordinates.

The law enforcement team had already formed their formation, and even if they weren't as strong as Lin Yi and the others, their overall strength was enough to crush the entire scene. Especially since this was the Alliance headquarters, they naturally had the home ground's formation.

but before they could do anything, with lin yi as the center, another domineering aura mixed with the world's will exploded.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! bang! bang!

the law enforcement team masters fell to the ground one after another, and in the blink of an eye, they had followed in the footsteps of harlin's fanatical fans.

The whole place was dead silent again.

the captain of the law enforcement team, who was pressed to the ground, felt as if he had been struck by lightning. ever since he became the captain, this was the first time he had felt such a deep emotion that he had not felt in a long time.

That emotion was called fear.

although it was shocking for the fans to be stunned, they were only normal cultivators. even if there were many supreme realm experts among them, they were just a motley crew.

it was an exaggeration to say that they were all stunned by someone's aura, but it was not impossible.

however, they were different.

they weren't just golden class mid-phase venerables, they were also well-trained. even if someone could crush them with their strength alone, it was impossible to knock them all out with just their aura.

it was impossible!

&Nbsp; even the few most domineering people in the Alliance headquarters couldn't do that. The captain believed in that.

However, tie Zheng's reality was right in front of him. Even if his three views were shattered, he had no choice but to believe that he had really met an incredible and ruthless character this time!

Not only him, but even Xu Anshan, Madam Qing, and the others could not help but look shocked.

they knew that lin yi's strength wasn't the same as before, but they didn't expect him to be this strong!

"I'll kill him. is that okay?"

the queen looked at lin yi.

if it was before, she wouldn't have asked this question with her personality. even if she wasn't as strong as lin yi, at least she thought of him as an equal.

For the sake of the common interest, she could compromise a little, but all the decisions had to be made by herself. She would never allow herself to be Lin Yi's subordinate!

however, she didn't even realize that from the moment she asked this question, she had unknowingly begun to deviate from her original position.

Lin Yi's existence was like an undetectable black hole in the universe. Everything and everyone around him would be trapped in his force field, and no one could change their mind.

"As you wish," Lin Yi said nonchalantly.

"Alright," he said.

The Queen immediately pressed the captain into the abyss in a fit of pique. However, in the end, she showed mercy and only made him unconscious. She did not kill him directly.

She was bold, but that did not mean she was brainless.

lin yi didn't say it out loud, but he had to have his reasons for letting things escalate to this point. even if the queen and lin yi didn't have a tacit understanding, she could guess what was going on.

since they were here to represent jianghai academy in the alliance of divine academies, rather than following the rules of the other party, it would be better to make a big scene and gain the upper hand!

if it was anyone else, their first step would be to kneel in front of such a big name like the divine college alliance.

Moreover, Jianghai Academy was in a precarious situation and needed their help.

But Lin Yi knew that with the Alliance's arrogance, being a Lackey wouldn't end well.

the more submissive you appear, the more lowly and worthless you are in his eyes.

On the other hand, if they could display sufficient strength and let the other party see the value of leading the Army, things would be much easier!

to put it bluntly, everything was based on strength. after all, this was an eternal truth in the cultivation world.

however, showing off one's strength was one thing, and challenging them was another.

It would've been a slap to the Alliance's face if it'd only been just now, but there was a reason for it. Lin Yi and the others could still be considered to be in self-defense.

if he really killed the captain of the law enforcement team in public, it would be a direct fall out.

At that time, even if it was just to maintain their authority, the Alliance would have to kill the chicken to warn the monkeys, making Lin Yi and his group an example!

The key was this degree.

"woman, hand over the person in your hands or die."

a stern voice came from the distance, and the entire place fell silent.

"master chu! Master Chu is here!"

the onlookers in the distance all revealed a look of awe. it was very obvious that the deterrence of the owner of this voice was far above the law-enforcement team.

The law-enforcement team was The Guardian of the Alliance's laws and had a huge deterrence to ordinary cultivators. However, it was far from being a high position and power.

in terms of organization, the law enforcement team could only be considered to be at the lower-middle level in the structure of the entire alliance of academies.

On the other hand, the person who was slowly walking over at this moment was a real upper-level Big Shot.

Alliance execution, Master Chu.

Lin Yi's eyes twitched-her name was Master Chu, but she was a tall woman. Other than her dark aura, she wasn't much worse off than Lin Yi's other beauties.

Sensing the aura of the person who came, the Queen of the abyss showed a solemn expression for the first time.

Golden class late phase peak full master!

if it was just his realm, it would not be enough to make her so afraid. after all, he was at the same level as her at most. the key was the dangerous aura that the other party exuded, which made her shudder.

She had a strong premonition that if the other party made a move, she would most likely be killed in a second!

the strength of many monsters could not be measured simply by their realms on the surface, and the queen of the abyss herself was such a monster.

However, there were also strong and weak monsters, and the gap between them was even more exaggerated than that between them and ordinary cultivators. If his intuition was not wrong, it was obvious that the other party was the monster among the monsters.

Of course, the Queen would not admit defeat.

the other party's aura had instead aroused her competitive spirit even more!

"if you want to fish him out, it's useless to just talk."

The Queen of the abyss was not afraid at all. She looked straight into the other party's eyes and said, let me remind you, ordinary people will suffocate to death if they stay in the water for too long. Cultivators will also die if they stay in my abyss for too long.

"You're so bold!"

Master Chu spat out these two words coldly. A snow-white sword suddenly appeared in his hand, and in an instant, the entire world was filled with cold snowflakes.

at the same time the snowflakes appeared, the sword was already at the queen's throat.

the queen's hair stood on end. she narrowed her eyes and wisely chose not to move.

she had the bottomless abyss as her base, and theoretically, her resistance wasn't any weaker than Lin Yi's. even if ten thousand arrows pierced through her heart, she'd be able to recover quickly.

however, if the sword in front of her were to land, the queen would have an extremely uneasy feeling.

he would die.

The other party did not have any intention of stopping. The snow White sword was about to enter The Queen's Throat. His face was calm and there was no murderous intent, but in this unusual calm, death had quietly come.

At this moment, the space and time in the surrounding world suddenly stopped.

A pitch-black longsword with a ferocious and violent aura was pointed at Master Chu's back.

"Sword sacrifice?"

A trace of surprise flashed through Master Chu's lowered eyes. As a top-notch swordsman, she had naturally heard of this legendary ultimate sword technique.

with the rich heritage of the divine kingdom on land, there was nothing else in other places that could interest her. the sword rules and ultimate sword moves unique to the sword tomb of the sea were definitely one of the few exceptions.

"Don't try, you can't avoid it."

Lin Yi's calm voice sounded from behind her.

The unique attribute of the sword sacrifice meant that it would never fall behind no matter what level it reached. On the contrary, it would only rise with the tide and become even more brilliant!

“.....”

Master Chu was silent for a moment. In the end, he gave up on the idea of trying.

the queen felt a life-threatening danger from her, and so did she from lin yi.

If she moved, she might really die.

master chu slowly kept his snow white sword and looked at the queen in front of him. " "we can't touch the law enforcement team. this is the bottom line. once we cross the line, the alliance will never let this go.

The current Alliance won't allow any real provocation. I've said my piece, you guys can do as you see fit."

The Queen looked at Lin Yi.

he put away the endless abyss after lin yi nodded and took out the captain and the others like they were garbage. he snorted and walked to the girl's side.

The two little lolis complemented each other very well and were very harmonious.

harlin was the first to wake up, and his eyes lit up when he saw master chu. he quickly got up and greeted, " "Long time no see, Master Chu. How have you been?"

Master Chu glanced at him but did not reply.

"master chu is still as cold as ever."

harlin smiled in embarrassment, but he didn't dare to show any dissatisfaction.

although his celebrity aura and his identity as the representative of the eternal river academy gave him a strong influence that ordinary cultivators couldn't hope to reach, in front of the alliance's executive, this little influence was far from enough.

one must know that the alliance's executive committee was under the executive committee, and its position in the alliance was only below the supreme board of directors.

there were only a few dozen people in the entire alliance, and each of them represented a huge power behind them. they were big shots who had the right to influence the situation in the outer realms!

he turned around and saw lin yi and the others, his face changing."master chu, you have to help me. in the alliance headquarters, i was actually bullied by a bunch of grassroots rogue cultivators.

i don't mind losing face, but i'm representing the eternal river academy.

And now that eternal river college is about to become a part of the Alliance, you're throwing our face on the ground and trampling on it. You're damaging the authority of the entire Alliance!

Chapter 10355

in order to give an explanation to the people who support the alliance, i suggest that we hold a public trial for these unruly grass elementalists!"

He thought that Lin Yi's group would jump up in anger after hearing his words.

but lin yi and the others, even the little girl, were all calm and ignored his threat.

he was a big star, but in the eyes of lin yi and the others, he was just a clown.

It was not worth mentioning.

At this time, the law enforcement team also woke up one after another. When they saw Master Chu standing in front of them, they could not help but be shocked and quickly got up to bow.

The captain of the law enforcement team apologized with an embarrassed expression, " "This subordinate has failed in his duty and was unable to capture the thief in time. Please carry out your punishment, Sir!"

master chu coldly said, " you've failed in your duties. the law-enforcement team has become such a good-for-nothing team. you can't escape the blame. go back and resign. "

"this bi an ..."

the captain's face was extremely bitter, but in the end, he could only nod sadly. " "yes."

According to the establishment, the Alliance executive was not the direct superior of the law enforcement team. Strictly speaking, they had no right to intervene in the internal affairs of the law enforcement team.

however, all important personnel appointments in the entire alliance of academies had to be approved by the executive committee.

even his superior, the head captain, had to have a good relationship with the executive team if he wanted to secure his position, let alone a small law enforcement captain like him.

Moreover, Master Chu's background was even more unfathomable.

If he obediently admitted to his crimes today, he might be able to rise again in the future if he performed well. However, once he offended Master Chu, he would not be able to even struggle on whilst at death's door, let alone rise again.

Harlin froze and pointed at Lin Yi's group, "They're the culprits. Master Chu, if you want to punish them, you can't leave them out!"

In his mind, with Master Chu's strength, he could take down Lin Yi's group in a matter of minutes.

they never thought that even someone as strong as master chu would lose to lin yi.

"What do you think?" Master Chu asked quietly.

Lin Yi shrugged nonchalantly. if you want to fight again, I don't mind. However, I'm here on behalf of Jianghai college to discuss joining the Alliance. If it's convenient, I hope you can pass on the message.

"Jianghai Academy? The Academy that has declared war on the beast God Hall?"

the look in master chu's eyes changed.

harlin was stunned, and then his face darkened.

if lin yi and the others were just grassroots cultivators, even if master chu didn't give him face, with his connections in the alliance headquarters, he would still be able to get back at them.

However, if he had the additional identity of the Academy's representative, then the nature of the matter would be completely different.

" i was wondering what it was. isn't it just a weak school that hasn't produced any decent people in thousands of years? "

Harlin immediately sneered. are you guys misunderstanding something? although the Alliance is an Alliance of many Academies, the premise is that it must be a God-ranked Academy. Not just any random cat or dog can come and try to scam us. Do you think this is a garbage shelter? "

"Do you know what a deity-ranked Academy is?"

the minimum requirement to enter is that all of them must be at the Supreme realm!

" in a small place like yours, even if you sell everything you have, you can only gather one or two of the weakest supreme realm cultivators. if you were here, you would be too embarrassed to come out! "

"are you even worthy of joining the alliance?"

after a round of verbal attacks, lin yi used his spirit sense to attack him, and the chattering harlin fell to the ground.

Master Chu's expression turned even uglier. "you're doing this right in front of me. you really don't care about me at all."

"I'm sorry," Lin Yi smiled, "I'm a quiet person."

master chu looked at him deeply. " with my personality, i should have had a good fight with you. however, someone has already informed you in advance. we'll talk about it later. come with me. "

After saying that, he turned around and led the way.

Lin Yi, Xu Anshan, and the others looked at each other. The other party's attitude changed from arrogance to respect, and they were a little confused.

"who would greet us?"

lin yi subconsciously thought of tian xiangyang. could it be that master tian had also made arrangements in the alliance headquarters?

Wasn't this a little too exaggerated?

There was no need to mention Tian Xiangyang's means. There was no one else in the world who could have the last laugh in a battle with a God.

however, his strength was limited. it was enough in jianghai city but in the divine kingdom on land, tian xiangyang's strength was probably not worth mentioning. it was not realistic to think that he had set up a backup plan in the alliance headquarters.

madam qing pondered. "for an alliance executive like her to pay so much attention to it, the person who spoke must be at the level of the highest board of directors. how can the tian family's roots be so deep?"

everyone looked at xu anshan.

as the adopted son of the tian family, he should be the most clear about the matters of the tian family.

"no." xu anshan shook his head. "the tian family does have some connections here, but they're not at that high of a level. also, they don't have much contact, so their connections can't be considered reliable."

the queen said with great interest, "if it's not related to the tian family, it can't be that they are rushing to give a favor, right?" do the top bosses of the supreme board of directors also have such bootlickers?"

"that's hard to say. after all, everyone has their own ambitions."

lin yi only smiled.

Although he had yet to come to a clear conclusion, he had a rough idea of what was going on after combining all the things that had happened before.

This trip to the Alliance of divine Academies was bound to not be so simple. With enemies, there would naturally be friends.

the next key was to polish his eyes and see clearly who was the enemy and who was the friend.

the few of them looked at each other and called the little girl who was still talking to the old lady over. they immediately followed master chu.

Everyone in the distance was dumbfounded.

to cause trouble in the alliance headquarters, even the law enforcement team was almost wiped out. the matter was so huge and not only was the troublemaker not punished, he was even invited into the headquarters by master chu.

On the other hand, Harlin, the popular star and the representative of the eternal river Academy, was the victim in name, but Master Chu didn't even look happy from the beginning.

such a thing would have been unimaginable in the past.

A strange thought appeared in everyone's mind at the same time.

the times had changed.

when he arrived at the headquarters, a refined man wearing glasses was already waiting at the door downstairs.

Master Chu stopped in his tracks. this is Shen san Chi. He's in charge of the Alliance's Executive Committee for the examination of the new students. You can look for him for the rest of the matters.

without waiting for lin yi's reply, he disappeared.

Chapter 10356

the man walked up and cupped his hands at lin yi and the others, "Brother Lin, I've heard so much about you."

"you actually know me?"

lin yi and the others were surprised.

as for the situation on the school alliance's side, although they were only able to get a glimpse of it, they could already see some clues.

not to mention other things, the people here, from top to bottom, were generally born with an innate arrogance, especially when facing people from small places on the edge. the sense of superiority that big city natives had when looking at foreigners was almost written on their faces.

This kind of arrogance was vividly displayed by Harlin and his fans, and the law enforcement team was no exception. Only Master Chu's arrogance was a little less, but it could still be faintly felt.

But in front of Shen san Chi, who was also an executive of the Alliance, there was no sign of it.

There were two possibilities-either the person came from a small place, or he hid it too well. Even with Lin Yi's group's sharp senses, they couldn't sense it.

shen sanchi pushed up his glasses and smiled,"even though the traffic between jianghai city and this place is not smooth, it is not completely isolated. brother lin, you might not know this, but many of your deeds are already known in the alliance."

there are even people who have specially set up study topics for you and organize students to study together."

"studying me?" lin yi raised a brow.

although he did not intend to keep a low profile this time, it was not a good thing to become the research target of others.

shen san chi laughed, "brother lin, don't be nervous. this is a tradition of the alliance of schools. as long as there is a strong person rising up, they will do a comprehensive research at the first moment."

after all, only by learning from others 'strengths can we improve faster. our divine academy alliance has such a great reputation. if we are arrogant and complacent, we might become a laughingstock at some point."

"you're right, shen bro," lin yi nodded.

The other party was the executive of the Alliance, and was also the direct person in charge of the examination of whether the Academy could enter the Alliance. According to the thinking of ordinary people, even if they didn't curry favor with him in person, they should at least show a humble attitude.

yet lin yi's attitude was on the same level.

he didn't look down, nor did he look up.

shen sanchi was slightly stunned, then he laughed, " "meeting in person is better than hearing your name. brother lin is a straightforward person. please."

Lin Yi, Xu Anshan, and the others' hearts skipped a beat as they followed Shen Sanchi into the office building. They looked at each other with a serious look in their eyes.

This building was not simple.

It looked normal from the outside, but the interior wasn't that amazing either. Lin Yi could tell that this wasn't a normal building—it was an extremely well-built mystic realm!

Each office area was an independent secret realm, with all kinds of profound formations that were connected to each other, and the whole body would be affected.

Lin Yi even felt like he was being monitored by the world's consciousness.

Of course, this was not the real will of the world. At best, it was just a replica similar to artificial intelligence. It could not be compared with the real original will of the new world.

But even so, it was already shocking enough.

It was the first time Lin Yi felt the true power of the alliance.

if it was just gathering a group of experts, it would not be a big deal. it would just be an enhanced version of a motley crew.

however, the plain-looking office building under his feet allowed him to truly see the foundation of a powerful organization.

This was only the tip of the iceberg.

" it's true, " xu anshan said through divine sense communication. " it does have the power to fight the godly palace head-on. with such a foundation, even if the gods were to attack, they would probably return in defeat. "

"yeah." lin yi nodded,"looks like we really can't afford to make any mistakes in this alliance."

After entering the office area of Shen Sanchi, there was a small world inside with pavilions and terraces. It was a whole different world.

"Everyone, please take a seat. This is some basic information on the Academy's entry into the Alliance. Please take a look."

Shen san Chi said as he distributed a set of information to everyone. Interestingly, even Xiao Wan 'er was not excluded.

the little girl suddenly felt an unprecedented sense of attention. she, who had been looking around curiously a moment ago, immediately became serious. she flipped through the information and began to study it carefully, page by page.

The only flaw was that she could not read.

Shen san Chi explained, "because the total amount of resources the Alliance of schools has is limited every year. In order to ensure the standard of the Alliance, the number of recruitment slots each year is limited. There is only one slot this year.

and this year, there are a total of four Academies that have reached the threshold of a divine Academy and received an invitation to join the alliance.

"the eternal river college, the great zhou college, the hero college, and brother lin's jianghai college."

Lin Yi and the others looked at each other, "one of the four?" what are the rules?"

With the divine college Alliance's token here, even if there were some unscrupulous manipulation in the dark, at least the rules on the surface must be fair and just.

compared to the other three schools, jianghai's natural isolation from the alliance meant that they had zero connections.

even if it was as he had guessed, that one of the big bosses on the board of directors would stand on his side, his motives and whether his intentions were reliable were all unknown.

Therefore, the only way to win over the other three families was to rely on strength.

As such, the rules were of utmost importance.

"the academy's assessment doesn't just look at the teacher's strength, but more importantly, their ability to teach the students," shen sanchi explained.

&Nbsp; " there is a batch of new students that the Alliance headquarters recruited, a total of 30 people.

" the board of directors has agreed to arrange for seven people from each of the four academies to undergo a month-long training in three days. " a month later, each teacher will lead a team to battle. The final winner will join our divine Academy Alliance.

Everyone was surprised to hear this.

they had already anticipated that a battle would be inevitable, so other than the little girl, they could be considered the strongest team from jianghai academy. only luobanshi and dongfang yan had preserved their strength.

He just didn't expect that it would be in such an unexpected form.

In this way, although strength still spoke for itself, there were many invisible variables. Luck was a more important factor, and the difficulty was also greater!

"Any more questions?" Sanchi asked.

"The information is provided by the Alliance, or do we get it ourselves?" Lin Yi asked after some thought.

"As expected of brother Lin, you're right."

A trace of admiration flashed in Shen Sanchi's eyes, " "the alliance will provide the list of new students and some basic information, but you'll have to find a way to obtain more detailed information."

Chapter 10357

"this means that our starting line is naturally behind the other three."

Lin Yi's tone didn't have a hint of dissatisfaction or anxiety in it.

In this selection model, information was definitely the most important part. After all, the training time was only one month, and it was basically impossible to change the hard strength of the new students.

If he wanted to have the last laugh, he had to establish an advantage starting from the draft.

in this way, the foundation of the new students selected three days later would directly determine the upper and lower limits of the team's combat power.

To a certain extent, the final outcome was already decided the moment the selection ended.

compared to the other three academies, jianghai academy did not even have an acquaintance here, much less an intelligence network. in this aspect, it was not an exaggeration to say that jianghai academy was at a disadvantage.

and this was something that lin yi couldn't make up for with his own strength.

Shen Sanchi pushed up his glasses and laughed, "with brother Lin's skills, this small matter will not be a problem for you. I'll say something off-topic, but out of the four schools, I have the highest hopes for your Jianghai school. I believe in my judgment.

lin yi looked at him with a weird expression. "Do you have to repeat the same words four times, brother Shen?"

“.....”

shen san chi was stunned, then he couldn't help but smile, "brother lin is indeed an amazing person."

after leaving the office building, shen sanchi ordered someone to arrange a place for lin yi and his group to stay, even sending them to the door personally before leaving.

the queen looked at shen san chi's back and couldn't help but say, " "It's really rare to see someone who does things in such a comprehensive way."

madam qing sighed. "none of the people who can hold such a position in the alliance are ordinary people. they are all dragons and phoenixes among thousands of people."

"This person is indeed not simple."

Lin Yi nodded.

after some interaction, the details that the other party had displayed were truly impeccable.

This wasn't just a display of his skills, it was also a display of his level of training. Even without testing him out, Lin Yi could tell with his intuition that this man was no weaker than Master Chu.

lin yi turned to xu anshan, "contact the tian family's connections, we need to find a reliable intelligence agency here."

"i'll make the arrangements."

xu anshan was a man of his word. in less than four hours, he had brought lin yi and the others to the entrance of the most famous local intelligence agency.

zhiwei pavilion.

"The two words" Zhi Wei "is taken from the meaning of seeing the tiny details and knowing the whole picture. Since all the distinguished guests have come here, it means that you have great trust in our Zhi Wei Pavilion."

A middle-aged man who looked like a manager came up to welcome him.

"since it's old master gu who has introduced me, i won't hide it from you. i've already prepared the information you want in advance. i'm just waiting for you all to come."

"you know what we want?" lin yi raised a brow.

the middle-aged manager laughed. " the four academies are competing to enter the alliance. although ordinary people don't pay much attention to it, it's a very important matter for us who do intelligence. "

"What do you mean?"

"the current situation in the alliance is rather delicate. any academy that joins the alliance could be the last straw that breaks the camel's back, changing the direction of the entire situation."

the middle-aged manager looked at the crowd with a sincere expression. " we rely on intelligence to make a living. If there's even the slightest sign of trouble, we have to react faster than anyone else. Otherwise, we won't even get any soup to drink, let alone eat meat.

"How is the Alliance's situation so delicate?" the abyssal Queen asked.

in the end, the middle-aged manager who had been talking non-stop just now immediately stopped.

good question, my queen. However, we're open for business. If you want to continue talking about this topic, you'll have to pay.

the queen was stunned.

from the beginning to the end, she had never revealed her identity and origin. with her appearance, even in the sea, few people could recognize her face to face.

The fact that the other party was able to call her 'Queen' despite the isolation between the sea and this place showed how powerful their intelligence gathering ability was!

This was a soft nail, but at the same time, it was a display of strength to Lin Yi and the others.

"How much?" Lin Yi asked.

the middle-aged manager extended a finger. "ten thousand divine crystals."

Divine crystals were the exclusive currency of the divine kingdoms on land. They were essentially an advanced version of spiritual Jade. Apart from containing extremely dense spiritual energy, they also contained a portion of rule bending power.

the rule force was in a mess and could not be mobilized directly.

however, to a supreme realm expert who was proficient in the power of laws, these were the best sample versions. as long as they studied the trajectory of the laws carefully, it was not difficult to gain some insights and strengthen themselves.

Many experts went into closed-door cultivation, and the core of their cultivation was to observe the various divine crystals.

Divine crystals were extremely valuable, and they were extremely rare. In the outside world, they would definitely be considered a rare treasure. Only a divine Kingdom with such a strong foundation would be able to use them as currency.

of course, ordinary low-level cultivators couldn't afford it. only high-level cultivators would use divine crystals when they were involved in large transactions.

At other times, he mainly used spiritual Jade.

"what an exorbitant demand," the queen narrowed her eyes.

At the current market price, the exchange rate between divine crystals and Supreme-grade spiritual jades was one to one hundred thousand.

Ten thousand divine crystals were equivalent to one billion Supreme-grade spiritual jades!

No matter where this number was placed, it was definitely a sky-high price.

The middle-aged manager laughed. the value of information varies from person to person. The same piece of information might be worthless in the hands of some people, but it would be priceless in the hands of others.

"it concerns the situation of the entire alliance of academies. with your strength and background, it's really not expensive."

this wasn't completely wrong. if lin yi and the others wanted to touch the alliance, ten thousand god crystals wouldn't be a ridiculous price as long as the information was accurate.

However, Lin Yi didn't have that thought in mind at the moment. Naturally, he wasn't in a rush to spend the money.

"I just want the details of the thirty new students, name your price." Lin Yi returned to the main topic.

"Ten thousand divine crystals."

the middle-aged manager's words immediately caused everyone's expression to change.

this time, even emperor xu anshan couldn't help but say, " "the information value of thirty new students is actually equivalent to the information value of the entire divine college alliance. are you targeting us?"

the queen's expression was also unfriendly.

according to normal assessment, the value of the information of thirty new students couldn't be compared to the alliance's information.

Even if the time was special and the price was raised, one-tenth would be the limit. It couldn't be raised to 10000 God crystals!

Chapter 10358

Feeling the terrifying aura from these people, the middle-aged manager smiled helplessly, "Everyone, please calm down and listen to my explanation."

Although Zhiwei Pavilion was the leader of the information industry, their strength was limited to their ability to gather information. As for their strength, they were not bad at most. Compared to Lin Yi's group, they were nothing.

at the end of the day, jianghai academy's opponent was a god-ranked academy. even if they did not join the alliance of academies in the end, there was no need to doubt their strength.

even if the divine kingdoms on land produced powerful people in large numbers, not every local power could be compared to a divine academy.

the only other god-ranked academy that could go against a god-ranked academy was another god-ranked academy.

This was common knowledge in divine kingdoms on land.

lin yi sat down unhurriedly. "Tell me."

"Actually, the price our owner offered for this information was 1000 divine gems," the middle-aged manager explained seriously.

1,000 divine crystals were equivalent to 100 million Supreme-grade spiritual jades.

It was a bit of a rip-off, but it wasn't that exaggerated. Considering the importance of the information, Lin Yi might just accept it.

with jianghai university's wealth, it was not difficult for them to fork out a hundred million supreme-grade spiritual jades. they had already made sufficient financial preparations before coming here, so it was not impossible for them to fork out that much.

" but this morning, a special guest came and bought the information with 10000 divine crystals. " the middle-aged manager continued to explain, "according to the rules of our zhiwei pavilion, once the information has been sold out, it can not continue to be sold to a third party, unless it is sold at the same price .."

lin yi and the others understood. "rich guy! he's trying to kill people with god crystals! can you tell us who bought all of them?"

"i'm sorry, this is our guest's privacy. we have no right to disclose it."

The middle-aged manager looked apologetic and asked, " "What do you all think? if you're not satisfied, i can provide you with some information. although it's not as detailed and direct as this one, it's still valuable for reference, and the price is negotiable."

it's fine to just transfer the information. It doesn't make much sense.

lin yi rejected immediately.

If he had enough time, it was not impossible to get some indirect information. As long as he analyzed it carefully, he could indeed dig out some useful information.

But the problem was that he had to choose people in three days. Where would he find the time to do such slow work?

the middle-aged manager wasn't surprised by this. he stood up with a regretful expression to send the guest off.

Even if the deal didn't go through, he'd still be kind. With his experience, he could naturally see the weight of Lin Yi's group. No matter if the deal went through or not, he had to act properly. This was the basic professionalism of a businessman.

However, when they were about to reach the door, the little girl suddenly exclaimed, "old granny!"

everyone looked towards the source of the voice. the old woman who had been helped up by the little servant girl earlier was standing at the door in surprise. she was also surprised and happy to see the little servant girl running over.

The middle-aged manager was even more surprised than everyone else. "you all know my mother?"

"I know more than that. Xian 'er, they are my benefactors!"

the old woman quickly explained what had happened at the teleportation array, and pulled the little girl gratefully, "if it wasn't for their help, xian 'er, you might not have been able to see your mother."

These words were by no means alarmist talk. In that situation, if the Queen had not stepped in and allowed the collective aura of the fanatical fans to crush her, with the old woman's realm, even if she was lucky enough to survive, she would at least be seriously injured.

"There's actually such a thing!"

the middle-aged manager's face turned pale.

Although he was in an Intelligence Agency like the Zhiwei Pavilion, in the eyes of outsiders, he should have seen through everything. Especially for this kind of thing that happened right under their eyes, and it even involved his mother. It was a little unreasonable to say that he did not know.

however, in reality, his authority in the zhiwei pavilion as a steward was quite limited. other than some corresponding information within the scope of his authority, he was no different from an ordinary person in other matters and could not interfere at all.

He didn't even know the details of the information that he had traded, only a rough outline.

There was no other reason. This was the internal checks and balances of Zhiwei Pavilion.

the higher the intelligence agency was, the more strict the security of information was. this was true for outsiders, and even more so for internal personnel.

The middle-aged manager quickly bowed deeply to Lin Yi and the others."Many thanks to all the benefactors for saving us. Zhao Xian is moved to tears, but I am extremely ashamed and unable to show my face for my earlier misdeeds."

The Queen couldn't help but laugh. "it seems that the fight just now was not in vain. the situation has changed. can you sell us the information at a lower price now?"

The middle-aged manager, Zhao Xian, was very embarrassed. He cupped his hands in embarrassment and said, "zhao xian is useless. i really don't dare to go against the rules set by the pavilion master. the price of that information is also not within my scope of authority. i really can't do anything about it."

The Queen was speechless. forget I said anything. Saving him is still the same as not saving him.

everyone was a little disappointed.

With their experience, they could tell that Zhao Xian's gratitude was not an act. He was expressing his true feelings. They had thought that with this relationship, there would at least be some changes. They did not expect that he would still follow official procedures.

Lin Yi wasn't disappointed at all-he consoled her with a smile. "Brother Zhao, you don't need to feel any psychological burden. Since we are here to buy information, we naturally have to follow the rules. I understand."

"Thank you for your understanding, benefactor."

Zhao Xian was even more grateful. After a pause, he lowered his voice and said, actually, not only did that person buy all the information from our Zhiwei Pavilion, but he also bought all the similar information from the other major local intelligence agencies.

Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised,"buy them all?" Such a big move?"

If it was just buying out Zhiwei Pavilion, although it was not a small amount, it was still within the scope of understanding. However, buying out all the mainstream intelligence agencies at once, this amount was really a little too exaggerated.

Information on the freshmen was important, but it wasn't to the point where it could directly determine the final victory.

By doing this, the other party was clearly so rich that he didn't treat money as money, and wanted to use money to smash people to death.

"So, we have to pay the sky-high price of ten thousand divine crystals?"

lin yi chuckled as he shook his head.

it wasn't that he couldn't afford ten thousand divine crystals, but this was only the beginning. there were many more places where he could use the money in the future. even with jianghai academy's background, it couldn't afford to burn money so recklessly.

"benefactor, if you trust me, then don't waste this money. it's mealtime now, so why don't you let me treat you to a meal at the imperial kitchen? it'll be a token of our appreciation," zhao xian said in a low voice.

lin yi and the others looked at each other and nodded, " "Since it's brother Zhao's kind intentions, we'll accept it."

Chapter 10359

"thank you, benefactor. we'll head over now."

Zhao Xian immediately turned around and asked for leave from the Zhiwei Pavillion before accompanying Lin Yi and the others to the Imperial Kitchen.

on the way, zhao xian was very enthusiastic, introducing the local customs to the group.

He'd done his research on this before coming here, but hearing it from Zhao Xian's mouth was far more accurate than what he'd heard on paper.

it was the same thing, but just a few sentences were enough to make lin yi and the others feel refreshed and enlightened.

" zhiwei, you're indeed an expert in information gathering. with your level, you must be second to none in zhiwei pavilion. " lin yi couldn't help but praise.

this was not him lying, but zhao xian's professionalism in all the details was indeed amazing.

he had only seen such amazing intelligence analysis skills from tian ji, who was from the repeat division. even tian xiangyang and banshi lu were full of praise for that talent.

if the matter of entering the alliance of academies was settled, the first person he would transfer over would be tianji.

after all, if he wanted to gain a firm foothold here, intelligence was the most important ability. although in theory, he could cooperate with various intelligence agencies, just like this time, once someone interfered, the situation would become very passive.

only when one's body was hard could one be truly hard.

zhao xian laughed bitterly. "benefactor, you think too highly of me. i've been in the zhiwei pavilion for so many years, but i'm just an ordinary manager. i can't afford to be called the best."

"Brother Zhao, you're too humble."

Lin Yi nodded, deep in thought.

It was obvious that Zhao Xian's situation in the Zhiwei Pavilion was not very satisfactory. Otherwise, with the qualities he had displayed, as long as he had enough experience, even if he could not enter the top level of the Zhiwei Pavilion, he would definitely not be an ordinary manager.

the group passed by a convenience store, and lin yi's heart skipped a beat. before he could say anything, the girl pulled on his hand.

"Master, Wan 'er found a treasure."

With a mysterious look on her face, the little girl quietly pointed to an ancient bronze mirror at the corner of the sundry stall and whispered, " "let's buy it, okay?"

lin yi couldn't help but rub her head, surprised."you're quite smart."

just as the little girl had said, the thing that had triggered his senses was this unremarkable-looking bronze mirror. the spatial fluctuations that faintly seeped out of it were quite extraordinary.

however, the reason why he was able to detect it was because he had mastered part of the spatial rule power. on the other hand, he mainly relied on the new world's will.

The New World naturally had an extremely keen sense of the core fundamental laws such as space and time.

If it wasn't for that, even Lin Yi wouldn't have been able to react so quickly. From the reactions of Xu Anshan and the others, he knew that even with their knowledge, they couldn't sense anything strange about the bronze mirror.

As for the passersby on the street, including the stall owners, there was no need to mention them.

He didn't expect the girl's senses to be even sharper than Lin Yi's. She didn't have any cheating methods, and she was just relying on her natural instincts!

Lin Yi couldn't help but click his tongue at the girl's excitement. What kind of monster did he have as a disciple?

"wan 'er, are you going to buy it?"

after getting lin yi's confirmation, the little girl pulled the queen to the stand.

Perhaps it was because of the mutual appreciation between Iolis, the little girl was particularly close to the Queen and kept calling her big sister.

The Queen was helpless, but she had no choice and could only let her call her that.

the stall owner looked at lin yi and the others who were standing not far away and quickly called out to them, "two little girls, what do you like? i promise to give you the best price."

the queen was about to speak, but the little girl covered her mouth.

sister Queen, don't say anything. Let me do it. Mother has taught me special bargaining skills.

the little girl then turned to look at the stall owner with a serious expression. she pointed to the bronze mirror at the edge and said firmly, "a thousand spiritual jades! i'm buying it!"

The stall owner was stunned,"but Zhenzhen."

"One thousand spiritual jades!" The little girl Interrupted him firmly. I'm buying it!"

"Little girl, Yingluo."

"A thousand spiritual jades! i'm buying it!"

"no, listen to me, yingluo."

the stall owner wanted to say something in the face of the little girl, but in the end, he had no choice but to retreat."little girl, you're the guest. you have the final say."

the little girl immediately cheered and said to the queen proudly, "sister queen, look. wan 'er's family-inherited bargaining skills are amazing, right? The secret is in these four words, you must be imposing and firm!"

The Queen held her forehead speechlessly and pointed to a signboard beside the stall owner. "do you know what 800 yuan for each round means?"

"Ah? What 800 Yuan per round?"

The little girl looked at the four big words on the signboard with a blank face. She was illiterate.

Lin Yi and the others didn't know whether to laugh or cry at this scene-it was indeed a special bargaining technique, and there weren't many bosses in the world who could handle it.

After hearing the Queen's explanation, the little girl was stunned.

Just when everyone thought that she would regret it, the little girl gritted her teeth and continued to be aggressive, "a spit is a nail. You can't take back what you've said. I've said a thousand spiritual jades, and I mean it!

with that, she turned to lin yi with a pitiful look. "Master, can I?"

"That's worth it," Lin Yi nodded, amused.

even the queen's gaze towards her had a hint of acknowledgment and closeness. she reached out and rubbed her head. "you have the potential to be an empress."

"Younger female brother? Is he the Queen's brother? but wan 'er is the younger sister?"

The little girl immediately reacted and grabbed the Queen's hand. "don't touch wan 'er's head, you'll turn silly!"

"But doesn't Lin Yi rub your head all the time?" the Queen asked.

"He's my master, of course he's different. He'll only get smarter the more he touches," the little girl replied with a straight face.

The Queen could not help but laugh in anger.

while the two of them were talking, the stall owner had already wrapped up the bronze mirror. he then gave a rather exquisite small ornament as a gift to make up for the extra 200 spiritual jade.

It had to be said that the stall owner was also a kind person.

After the small interlude, everyone came to the Imperial Kitchen.

zhao xian explained, " in terms of quality, the imperial kitchen is not the best in the local area. the various ingredients are not rare either. however, their dishes are the most down-to-earth. in terms of delicacies alone, they are the best in the local area. therefore, they have always been popular. "

high-level cultivators had long since abstained from food, but this did not mean that they had completely shut down the temptation of delicious food.

on the contrary, the main customers of the imperial cuisine restaurant were these high-level cultivators. the so-called down-to-earth atmosphere was actually using the purest food to arouse people's most instinctive appetite.

Among all the high-end eateries, this position could be considered unique.

"He's indeed quite popular."

Lin Yi and the others looked at the crowd in front of them, surprised. It was rare to see a scene like this in a high-end restaurant.

"Although there's usually a lot of customers, there shouldn't be this many," Zhao Xian was also surprised.

when they entered the gate, everyone immediately understood.

There was an eye-catching sign in front of him that read: congratulations on li jingning's selection for the alliance's special recruitment!

the name list shen sanchi gave him flashed through lin yi's mind, and it was a name indeed.

Zhao Xian smiled and explained, " the Alliance only recruits 30 new students every year. Once you're selected, it means that you'll be able to receive the Alliance headquarters 'focused training. In terms of treatment, it's much better than the independent special recruitment of the various divine ranked Academies.

"Basically, as long as you enter the Alliance's special recruitment, you will have a bright future when you come out."

"for most of the clans, even those with extraordinary foundations, if someone in the clan is selected, it's a great event that's worth celebrating."

"after all, this is the starting point of a carp transforming into a dragon."

lin yi nodded. this scene reminded him of the students in the common world who got into famous universities. it was even worse, more like the top three in ancient times.

the alliance's specially-recruited new student quota was much more expensive than ordinary famous universities.

Fortunately, li Jingning had only reserved the first-floor Hall of the Imperial Restaurant-the second-floor rooms were still empty, and Lin Yi and the others didn't come for nothing.

On the way up, Lin Yi heard the discussions of the people below, and many of them mentioned the words "eternal river Academy."

"This li Jingning has already been selected by eternal river Academy?"

"There's such a thing?" Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised.

he had carefully read the rules this time. before the official selection, no one could be sure which of the 30 new students would end up. there were too many variables in between, so it was impossible to predict.

as far as I know, eternal river Academy is making a big move this time, "Zhao Xian explained in a low voice. not only did they find a celebrity like Harlin to boost their popularity, but they also used all their means in private.

the moment the list of thirty new students was out, they immediately contacted all the new students in private.

"The four houses are competing to join the alliance, and each house can only pick seven people. Does it have access to all the new students?"

such an operation was really unexpected.

" not only did they contact each other in private, but they also made promises, just like this li jingning. "

Zhao Xian's words made Lin Yi speechless.

at the level of a god-ranked academy, he had thought that each family would at least look good when eating, or at least care about their own feathers.

However, with such a shameless method, the freshmen would definitely hate them for it!

Although the matter of the Alliance's special recruitment was already set in stone and wouldn't change, whether or not they could be selected in the upcoming competition to enter the Alliance, especially their performance in the team competition, would directly determine how much importance they would receive in the future.

if one were to say that successfully entering the alliance's special recruitment was the first step for a carp to transform into a dragon, then the following freshman battle would be the crucial leap for the carp to leap through the dragon's gate!

after the freshman battle, all the selected freshmen would receive their own evaluation and position.

this position would not only directly determine the allocation of resources in the future, but more importantly, if the rating was too low, it would be difficult to have another opportunity to make a comeback in a short period of time.

After a long time, the gap between them would quickly widen, and it would be even more impossible for him to make a comeback in the future.

To a certain extent, the new student battle was a test that determined the life of all the new students.

The difference of one word in rating could be the difference between heaven and earth.

The way the eternal river Academy did things could no longer be simply described as scum. They had completely disregarded their moral integrity.

Madam Qing wasn't surprised by this. She shook her head and said, "the eternal river academy's reputation has always been like this. their fickleness is their signature. it was like this when i was here, and it's still the same after so many years."

the little girl continued, " "a dog can't change its habit of eating shit."

However, when he turned around, the Queen pinched his mouth. "You're a little girl, what are you talking about? aren't you embarrassed?"

"But didn't you say it yourself, sister Queen?" the little girl was not convinced.

"....."

the queen choked for a long time before she finally warned, " "If I don't say it, you're not allowed to say it either."

Everyone could not help but smile.

after entering the private room, zhao xian ordered a table full of dishes and dismissed the waiter. he then entered the main topic.

according to the current situation, if you want to buy information on the freshmen from the mainstream intelligence agencies, the price will definitely not be less than 10000 divine crystals.

after a pause, he immediately added, " and with that family's wealth, I believe that even if you offer a sky-high price, you won't get the complete information of each family in the end.

Lin Yi and the others nodded.

This situation was not impossible, but very possible.

Since he had to do everything, he had to be ruthless and not leave any gaps for his opponent. It was impossible for his opponent to not understand such a simple principle.

the point was that they couldn't tell if the information they bought was complete.

in other words, even if they paid a sky-high price, there was a high chance that they would still fall into a trap. they might even be numbed by the information and affect their normal judgment later on.

The loss outweighed the gain.

"In that case, we won't be able to buy any information on the new students."

"Brother Zhao, since you've chosen this place, I'm sure you have a way to help us solve our problems?"
Lin Yi asked.

zhao xian hesitated for a moment before saying, "i won't hide it from you, benefactor. i've actually done a private investigation on the thirty new students this year. i've used people that i can trust. in terms of completeness, they might not be as good as the mainstream information of the various schools, but in terms of practicality, they are definitely not lacking by half. i'm confident in that."

Xu Anshan, who was at the side, suddenly asked, " "since it's not complete, how can you ensure that it's practical?"

Everyone turned to look at Zhao Xian.

Zhao Xian explained, " based on the style of the mainstream information, they pursue details. They ensure that every piece of information is extremely detailed. This is to raise the price.

that's because when customers buy information, they'll naturally receive a psychological hint. The more detailed the information, the better. Some small details that are usually ignored may be of great use at a critical moment.
