Chapter 2911 The Legend Of The Two (1)

"In short, don't ask anymore. Just do as you normally do." Tu Qingsong didn't explain much. What happened back then shocked the entire ancient sect. Although it had been a long time, many ancient sects still avoided talking about it.

"Alright," he said. After hearing his uncle's words, the Overlord didn't ask any more questions. Instead, he changed the topic. "Uncle, I have something important to report to you!"

"Oh? Is there anything else?" Tu Qingsong asked.

"The earth essence that boss Lin Yi asked for isn't for an earth-type practitioner to use when they go berserk, it's for ... An earth-type inheritor!" With that, he told tu Qingsong about what he had discussed with Lin Yi.

"Earth element inheritor?" Tu Qingsong's pupils suddenly shrank, and his breathing became rapid! Earth Overlord didn't know what it meant for Lin Yi to have an earth inheritor by his side, but tu Qingsong immediately remembered what happened back then!

That earth-type inheritor could very well be his daughter, tu Ranran, who had been taken away by those two! And Lin Yi was one of the two, Lin Dongfang's grandson, so it made sense that his daughter was with him and was his friend!

Back then, tu Ranran was born in a special way. Due to the bloodline of the yellow Earth high school, she would not be able to give birth to a daughter. She had to use a special method. However, even though she was born successfully, she was weak and sickly from a young age. However, the mental cultivation mantras of the yellow Earth high school were all targeted at male cultivators. Female inheritors would only start cultivating after they had received the inheritance. Therefore, in order to cultivate, tu Ranran had to endure to the minimum age to receive the inheritance. He had to break through to Sky Class before he turned twenty to be safe!

As long as she successfully received the inheritance, she would no longer have to face the level barrier. Breaking through to the heaven rank wasn't too difficult, but the key was that tu Ranran couldn't hold on any longer! He couldn't wait until the age to comprehend the legacy!

For this matter, tu Qingsong and his father, tu Wanghai, had gone everywhere to seek medical treatment, but to no avail!

Just as they were about to give up hope, a traveling merchant who traveled between the Central Plains, the Western regions, and the Miao region brought good news to the yellow Earth high sect! In the miaojiang area, there was a miracle doctor named Lin Dongfang. His medical skills were unfathomable. The earth could look at the sea. He could try!

Tu Wanghai was overjoyed and immediately brought tu Ranran along with him to the Miao region with the traveling merchants.

However, this miracle doctor Lin Dongfang didn't have a fixed residence, and the traveling merchants didn't know where he lived. They could only try their luck at the market.

Lin Dongfang would be going to the market to treat patients from other villages for a while, so tu Wanghai really did run into him!

Lin Dongfang was a doctor in the market, so he naturally knew how to treat all kinds of patients. Even though he could tell that tu Wanghai was not normal, he still followed the rules and checked on tu Ranran's condition! However, after checking, Lin Dongfang was a little confused.

Tu Wanghai saw Lin Dongfang's expression and quickly asked, "Doctor, can my granddaughter be saved?"

"His body is extremely weak and has no signs of life. I can't tell what the exact problem is, but it's not a problem for him to follow me and live until he's 15." Lin Dongfang said after a pause.

"Follow you?" Tu Wanghai was stunned for a moment before he understood what Lin Dongfang meant. "Doctor, do you mean that my granddaughter has to live by your side before you can save her?"

"That's right. Her body can't be recuperated overnight. Her problem is very serious, and I have to prescribe the right medicine. The medicine for each period of time is different, and it needs to be tailored according to her physical condition." Lin Dongfang nodded and said.

"Then, doctor, can you come and live with us? Don't worry, I'll pay you several times the consultation fee. All these years, you can treat my granddaughter full-time. I'll also compensate you for your other losses. I'll pay you the consultation fee every day. What do you think?" Tu Wanghai said immediately.

"I can't go." "If you want to be treated, then stay here," Lin Dongfang said calmly. "If you don't want to be treated, then you can leave!"

"Do you know who you're talking to?" Before tu Wanghai could answer, one of his followers panicked and went up to kick Lin Dongfang's medicine stall down. They were from an ancient sect, and they were high and mighty wherever they went. Lin Dongfang was just a Small Doctor, but he was acting so arrogantly. Of course, the follower was not happy!

"Tu Qingshui, back down!" Tu Wanghai knew that he could not afford to offend Lin Dongfang, his follower was a little too hot-tempered! However, it was too late-the follower was a Sky Class mid phase, and even without using any skills, the kick was faster than tu Wanghai's words!

Just as he was about to kick Lin Dongfang's medicine stall away, his foot was easily caught by a hand!

"It's naturally good to walk the dog outside, but sometimes, a Mad Dog will ruin things!" Lin Dongfang looked at tu Wanghai and said,""I'll throw this dog away for you!"

With that, Lin Dongfang waved his hand and tu Qingshui flew out, landing heavily in a pile of trash far away.

Tu Wanghai was a little shocked! He looked at Lin Dongfang in shock!

Just now, he had misjudged! The person in front of him was actually an expert! Moreover, it was very likely that he was a very high level physical master. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to throw tu Qingshui out so easily. Even if tu Qingshui didn't use any martial arts, he wouldn't have been thrown out so easily.

"Doctor, I'm sorry. My subordinate was a little anxious. Please forgive him!" "You're right!" Tu Wanghai quickly apologized,"I'll punish him when I get back!"

On the other side, tu Qingshui, who had been thrown into the garbage dump, had already come back to his senses and realized that he was wrong! On the other hand, he was also likely to be an expert!

He didn't use any battle techniques, and neither did his opponent! However, when he was grabbed by the other party, he immediately used his true energy to break free. However, the other party still did not use his true energy and threw him out!

In that case, there were only two possibilities for this situation. The other party was a very high level internal martial arts master, higher than his level! Or, the other party was a very high level physical master, and didn't need to use the surrounding spiritual Qi, just the strength of his body could ignore his Qi and throw him out!

However, no matter which possibility it was, the other party was an expert that he could not match. This made tu Qingshui break out in cold sweat immediately!

Chapter 2912 The Legend Of The Two (2)

I've caused trouble, I've caused big trouble! If he were to really anger this kind of expert and he left, what would happen to tu Ranran, the little princess of the Huang tu Gao faction? Who would treat her?

However, Lin Dongfang did not seem to have any intention of leaving.

"That's your business. " Lin Dongfang said.

"Yes, yes!" Tu Wanghai stopped talking about this and looked at Lin Dongfang anxiously. "Then ... What about my granddaughter's condition?"

"She's a patient, and a rabid dog is a rabid dog. Since I'm here, there's no reason to ignore her."
"However, I've already given her the treatment plan. Either she follows me and I'll make sure she lives until she's 15, or you take her away. I'm afraid she won't make it next year!" Lin Dongfang said.

"This ..." Tu Wanghai was immediately caught in a dilemma. He was worried about leaving tu Ranran here alone. She was only two years old, and she did not know anything or remember anything ...

As for tu Wanghai, he was the sect leader of the yellow Earth sect. Naturally, he could not leave the sect and had been following tu Ranran all this while!

However, if he did not agree, tu Ranran might die. Tu Wanghai felt that Lin Dongfang was not being an alarmist, as many doctors had already seen her and said that tu Ranran would not live past three years old. Therefore, tu Wanghai was in a difficult position.

"Old man, do you want me to read your fortune? It's very cheap, only one million. " Just as tu Wanghai was hesitating, a voice suddenly came from beside him, giving him a shock. He quickly turned his head and saw a fortune-teller in a Daoist's uniform next to Lin Dongfang's medicine stall!

The stall of the Taoist dressed man was very simple. There was only a small banner on it, which read: "Fortune-telling passed down from generation to generation. No refund, only 100 yuan!"

When tu Wanghai saw that the scroll only cost 100 yuan, he was a little annoyed. "Do you think I can't read? It's only 100 yuan and you want me to pay a million?"

"What kind of person, what price, if you don't count then forget it, just don't regret it." The fortune-teller in Taoist attire shook his head, not minding at all.

"Only a ghost would believe you!" Tu Wanghai snorted and turned around, ignoring him.

If it was any other time, he would definitely teach this unscrupulous merchant a lesson. But today, he was not in the mood, and he did not want to cause any more trouble.

"You're right, even ghosts believe me. " The Taoist and fortune-teller nodded.

However, tu Wanghai ignored him and pretended not to hear him. He thought that the fortune-teller was just an ordinary swindler.

However, at this moment, a farmer who looked like an old farmer walked over to the fortune-teller's stall. He respectfully handed over a hundred-Yuan bill and asked sincerely, "Mr. Mo, may I ask when it'll rain? the melons in my field are about to die from the drought. If it doesn't rain in a month, I'll take my son and daughter-in-law to work elsewhere and give up on my melon field!" Please give me a suggestion!"

"Let's go back. It's going to rain today!" The fortune-teller, Mr. Mo, did not even count on his fingers and spoke directly.

"Ah? It's going to rain today? That's great, I'll go back and wait for you!" The farmer said gratefully.

"You're welcome," This Mr. Mo was Lin Dongfang's good friend of many years, kongwen.

"Ha! What a big joke!" Tu Wanghai was troubled and did not know how to make a decision. When he heard such a huge "scam" happening around him, he immediately found a place to vent his anger, ""It's raining today? How could it rain on such a sunny day? Do you think you're a weather forecast? Raining on a tortoise on a sunny day? Old farmer, you've been tricked!"

"Idiot, you're still pouring water on a turtle? I'll pour water on you in a while!" The farmer looked at tu Wanghai in disdain. He pouted and left.

"You ... You don't know what's good for you!" Tu Wanghai was furious, but he was an ancient cultivator. Why would he argue with an old farmer? He could only shake his head gloomily.

"You ... You don't know what's good for you!" Tu Wanghai was furious, but he was an ancient cultivator. Why would he argue with an old farmer? He could only shake his head gloomily. He was a little dissatisfied with the fortune-teller who took advantage of the situation and felt sorry for the old farmer's stupidity.

However, at this moment, a sudden "boom" sounded in the clear sky, followed by a flash of lightning. Then, heavy rain poured down from the sky, directly drenching tu Wanghai's heart!

However, at this moment, tu Wanghai did not feel bad about being drenched by the rain. Instead, he was deeply shocked! He turned his head and looked at kongwen in disbelief. He suddenly realized something. "Sir, I'm sorry. I was rude before ..."

"You're not even as old as me, so you don't have to take advantage of your seniority in front of me. " Kongwen said,"I don't care if you are rude or not. You are not my guest. You can say whatever you want."

Tu Wanghai was a Sky Class practitioner, and he didn't think that kongwen was lying. The rain came without any warning, and even he didn't notice it. It seemed like kongwen was really something.

Therefore, tu Wanghai immediately became extremely respectful. "Senior, in your opinion ... I should now ..."

Kongwen raised his hand and gestured with his finger.

"Tu Qingshui, come out!" Tu Wanghai turned his head and looked at the garbage pile, "Don't play dead! I'll punish you when we get back!"

"Yes ... Sect leader ..." Tu Qingshui got the order and quickly climbed out of the garbage pile. He walked over carefully with two broken vegetable leaves on his head. Coupled with the rain, he was like a drenched chicken. He was in a very sorry state!

"Give me the checkbook!" Tu Wanghai said.

"Yes!" Tu Qingshui quickly took out the checkbook from his backpack and handed it to tu Wanghai.

Without hesitation, tu Wanghai signed a check for one million Yuan and handed it to kongwen, ""Senior, you see ..."

"If you let old Lin treat your granddaughter, I can guarantee that she won't die when she's three or fifteen ..." Kongwen took the check and said, ""Moreover, you'll live to a hundred years old. It'll bring good fortune to your entire sect!"

Originally, tu Wanghai wanted to say, "kongwen is talking nonsense." I'll keep my granddaughter, and doctor Lin can guarantee that she won't die when she turns fifteen. However, the latter part of his words moved tu Wanghai. A long life could bring good fortune to the sect?

Chapter 2913 The Legend Of The Two (3)

If it wasn't for the rain, tu Wanghai would have scoffed at kongwen's words. But now, he didn't think so. He asked, ""Senior, can you be more specific?"

"The details ..." Kongwen stopped halfway.

"Senior, here's a million." Tu Wanghai immediately signed another check and gave it to kongwen. The money was nothing to him. As long as kongwen said it was useful, then it was worth it.

"Alright, I'll be honest with you. If your granddaughter finds a good man, then your granddaughter's life will be smooth sailing, and then ... Everything will go smoothly." Kongwen said.

"Oh?" Tu Wanghai was deep in thought after hearing what Mo Kongwen said. Although it was simple, the matter was clear. Finally, Tu Wanghai nodded and said, "Doctor, my granddaughter can stay with you, but how can I find her in the future?"

"If you want to find me, you can come to the market to look for her. If you can't find her for the time being, I'll send her to a place that's more suitable for her treatment. Five years later, when her condition has stabilized, I can take you to see her, but you can't take her away, or she'll still die." Lin Dongfang said.

"This ... Good!" Tu Wanghai gritted his teeth and replied, "Doctor, can she hold on until she's sixteen?" As long as you can survive past the age of sixteen, you can pay any price!"

16 years old was the minimum age requirement for the Yellow Earth High School's earth-type inheritance. Only at 16 years old could a girl comprehend the inheritance. This was also the reason why Tu Wanghai required the girl to be 16 years old.

"No matter what, I'll try my best, but I can't guarantee anything now." Lin Dongfang shook his head.

"Alright, doctor, please do your best!" Tu Wanghai could only do this. After all, this was the best solution at the moment ...

After settling Tu Ranran down and paying the medical fees, Tu Wanghai brought Tu Qingshui back to the Yellow Earth High Sect. This trip left Tu Wanghai with a myriad of emotions. He had never imagined that there would be two powerful people in that remote place ...

In the blink of an eye, two years had passed. Tu Wanghai missed his granddaughter, tu Ranran, and was about to head to the Miao region again. But right at this time, two ruthless people suddenly appeared in the martial world!

These two appeared without any warning, just out of thin air, and swept through all the ancient sects in the Central Plains, killing a few Sky Class Masters in seconds. They'd earned the name "dual fiends of Vajra" all of a sudden, and everyone in the pugilistic world was talking about them.

These two, under the banner of helping a Sky Class late phase peak break through to the path of heaven, gathered all the Sky Class late phase peak Masters from all the ancient sects in the Central Plains.

Of course, there were also many experts who were not convinced. Why should they listen to your orders? But, their first stop was the everyday and every day sect-one of them took a full strike from a Sky Class late phase peak and was fine, and the other took out the Sky Class late phase peak patriarch mad dragon with a casual punch!

The frenzied Dragon patriarch was the spirit of the one who possessed Zhong pinliang. He died under the fists of those two ruthless men, becoming the first sacrifice to set an example for the others.

After that, they went to the divine fist Palace, along with many other ancient sects. The Sky Class late phase peak Masters who followed them were all fine-they promised to help them step into the path of the sky, but they had to do something for them.

Those who didn't follow, on the other hand, went to hell. In the end, the Sky Class late phase peak Masters from the ancient sects all greeted the two with smiles when they arrived, offering to follow ...

It was said that the two of them were heavenly Dao experts, and their words naturally had a certain degree of credibility. Some of these followers were willing, and some were forced. In short, they all obediently followed the two of them and left, and then ... There was no news of them!

This matter was extremely strange. After they left, there was no news of them in the pugilistic world. Back then, tu Qingsong's father, tu Wanghai, invited the two of them to the yellow Earth high sect of his own accord. Firstly, tu Wanghai was worried about tu Ranran's condition, and secondly, he had been stuck at Sky Class late phase peak for too long-he would die of old age if he didn't break through to the path of heaven!

Tu Wanghai didn't know if he could make it to the opening of the Sky Class Island Plan, so he invited the two ruthless men, the bi 'an and the Vajra duo, to Huang tu Gao sect! The yellow Earth high sect was located far away in the Western regions. The two ruthless men were in a hurry and had originally not planned to come. However, since they were invited by tu Wanghai, they still made a trip.

The two figures that other sects avoided were treated with great hospitality by tu Wanghai!

There was no other reason. One of the two Vajra demons was the godly Doctor Who had treated tu Ranran back then, Lin Dongfang!

The reason why tu Wanghai knew about them was that even though he had not seen them with his own eyes, their portraits had already been spread throughout all the ancient sects! Naturally, tu Wanghai also got one.

When tu Wanghai saw Lin Dongfang's familiar face in the picture, he was dumbfounded! What? Back then, the miracle doctor of miaojiang was actually a master of the heavenly path? No wonder he could heal tu Ranran, and even throw tu Qingshui away with a single hand!

Tu Qingshui, on the other hand, also saw the portrait and broke out in a cold sweat!

He was extremely shocked. Back then, he had actually scolded a heavenly path expert and not been killed. It was truly worthy of celebration! This was simply ... A great stroke of luck!

Lin Dongfang only smiled faintly when he saw tu Wanghai again. The person beside him was Qiqi's father, Lin Yi's master! He didn't say much and just nodded to tu Wanghai.

Tu Wanghai didn't dare to neglect these two legendary heavenly path Masters. He had been welcoming them from thousands of miles away. When he saw Lin Dongfang and Mr. Yang, he immediately cupped his fists and walked up to them respectfully, "The sect master of Huang tu Gao sect, tu Wanghai, pays his respects to the two seniors!"

"No need to be so polite, we're not strangers anymore." "Did you call us here for your granddaughter, or ...?" Lin Dongfang waved his hand.

"Senior Lin, how should I address this senior?" Tu Wanghai didn't directly state his purpose, but instead asked vicious, who was standing beside Lin Dongfang, respectfully. This man was as powerful as Lin Dongfang, and it was said that he had already cultivated his physical style to the extreme. He should be a legendary heavenly path physical style master.

Chapter 2914 The Legend Of The Two (4)

"This is Yang Ming, my sworn brother!" Lin Dongfang introduced. They were friends, and Lin Dongfang naturally wouldn't show the same overbearing attitude he had with the other ancient sects.

This Yang Ming was yang Qiqi's father, Lin Yi's master! However, Lin Yi never imagined that his master and his old man used to be such powerful people!

However, after this incident, Yang Ming left, and Lin Dongfang once again lived in seclusion in the mountains. These ancient sects that suffered losses were all shocked. They kept their mouths shut about this matter, and no one would take the initiative to ask or say it.

Lin Dongfang, for some reason, did not talk about what had happened back then. As time passed, this matter was gradually buried ...

"Tu Wanghai pays his respects to senior yang!" Tu Wanghai said solemnly.

Yang Ming waved his hand indifferently and said faintly, "Since you're brother Lin's old friend, then there's no need to be polite. Tell us why you've called us here!"

"Yes!" Tu Wanghai didn't dare to play any tricks, so he said honestly, "I've invited the two of you here because I've been stuck at Sky Class late phase peak for too long-I'm afraid I'll die of old age if I don't become a Sky Class soon! Both of you are Sky Class Masters, and they're currently Gathering Sky Class late phase peak Masters in the pugilistic world to level up to Sky class-I'd like to recommend myself, even though I'm not that talented ..."

"Oh? Most of the other sects would avoid them, but you took the initiative to find us?" Yang Ming looked at tu Wanghai with interest and asked, "Aren't you afraid that I'll lie to you?"

"Other people would naturally think that way, but I've seen senior Lin Dongfang before, and I know you won't lie to me!" Tu Wanghai said firmly.

"Hehe, we won't lie to you, but let's be blunt. We've helped you advance to the heavenly Dao, so you'll have to follow us to do one thing." Yang Ming smiled and said, "are you willing?"

"That's only natural. Senior helped me advance to the heavenly Dao, so it's only reasonable for me to help senior. There's nothing to shirk from. " "Of course!" Tu Wanghai nodded.

"Alright, then you can pack up and leave with us." Lin Dongfang said, satisfied.

"Okay. Secondly, I want to ask, how is my granddaughter's condition?" Tu Wanghai asked.

"I've taken your granddaughter in as my goddaughter. Under brother Lin's medicine, she's in good health. However, I didn't tell her about her background, as I didn't want her to feel any pressure." Yang Ming said, "this time, you can go with us. You can see her. You can just look at her from a distance. Don't say anything to her."

"I understand!" Tu Wanghai quickly agreed. He also knew that letting tu Ranran be carefree without any psychological pressure would be beneficial to her growth. Otherwise, if she was constantly troubled, even if Lin Dongfang was a miracle doctor, it would be difficult for him to deal with her.

"Alright, since that's the case, let's set off. This matter is rather urgent. You've all advanced to the heavenly Dao together, so we can go to support you earlier and return earlier!" Yang Ming said.

"No problem. Seniors, I'll go pack up and set off with you!" Although tu Wanghai didn't know what they were going to help, he didn't ask much. Since he had decided, he would go on, no matter what it was going to do.

At this time, tu Qingsong was already the young sect master of the yellow Earth high sect. He followed tu Wanghai every day to learn how to deal with some sect Affairs, so he was very familiar with this matter.

After tu Wanghai passed away, tu Qingsong inherited the position of sect master. However, he did not expect that his father and the two seniors would leave for more than ten years without any news!

All these years, tu Wanghai had tried to find out more about the other ancient sects, asking if there was any news of their sect leaders, Grand elders, or Grand elders who had left. However, no one had any news. These people had just disappeared into thin air ...

And then, from everyone's point of view, these people were probably no longer in this world. What happened back then was probably just a lie-those two Sky Class Masters took away those Sky Class late phase peak Masters and killed them ...

Of course, there were all sorts of rumors. Some even said that sky path Masters were on another level of strength. These people were cultivating in another place, Sky Class Island, where the Qi of the world was incomparable. After they reached the sky path, they were restricted by the sky path, and couldn't leave the Sky Class Island as they pleased ... Wait, everyone was different, and it was just a guess.

Even if what those people said was true, and that Tian Dao Masters couldn't leave the Sky Class Island as they pleased, tu Qingsong still wanted to know where tu Ranran was! However, when he went to the Miao stockade village with tu Qingshui again to look for Lin Dongfang, he realized that the market was long gone. There was a landslide there, and the place where the market used to be was now full of rocks

And the Miao territory was very large, where would tu Qingsong have the time to slowly search? Moreover, even if they looked for her, they might not be able to find her. Didn't they say that tu Ranran was sent to Yang Ming's side? Therefore, tu Qingsong had no choice but to return to the Western Region with tu Qingshui.

Now, tu Qingsong suddenly got the news of the two people's descendants. He was excited and excited, but he didn't dare to ask Lin Yi immediately. He could only let the earth Overlord and Lin Yi get familiar with each other first and find a chance to ask later!

However, the only good thing was that tu Ranran was probably with Lin Yi, and the essence that Lin Yi asked for from Huang tu Gao faction was probably for tu Ranran.

"Uncle, what happened? Why aren't you saying anything?" When the Overlord said "earth-type inheritor", although tu Qingsong's excitement was reasonable, it was not to the extent that he was so excited that he did not speak for a long time, right?

Therefore, the local tyrant finally couldn't wait any longer and asked.

"Nothing, I'm just too happy!" Tu Qingsong felt that it was better to delay telling the Overlord some things. After all, the Overlord was young and frivolous, and his personality wasn't stable. If he told the truth, it would only make the Overlord more afraid, or he would try to please Lin Yi more. That wouldn't be good.

Furthermore, he was only guessing about tu Ranran's matter. Even though he was 80% sure, he had yet to see tu Ranran with his own eyes, so he was not too sure. He decided to get her name and photo first, and decide if he should tell the tu Ba Wang about this matter after he was sure of her identity.

Chapter 2915 Identity

"That's right. Although I didn't manage to find out anything about my sister during my trip to the Central Plains, I did find another Earth-type inheritor by accident. It's really a waste of time!" The earth Overlord nodded and said, "that's right, isn't it only the bloodline of our Yellow Earth high sect that can inherit and comprehend the earth element power?" Why is there another Earth-type inheritor other than our family?"

"Oh, our Huangtu Gao sect has been passed down for a thousand years. There should be some side branches ..." Tu Qingsong said casually.

"A branch of the family? Did I?" This was the first time the local tyrant had heard that the yellow Earth high sect had a branch, and he was a little surprised.

"Of course. Here, can you see if you can get Mr. Lin Yi's name and picture of the earth element inheritor for me to see?" Tu Qingsong asked.

"Why do you want the name and photo?" The Overlord was stunned. He did not understand what tu Qingsong meant! What did the name and picture have to do with Lin Yi's friend being an earth inheritor?

"Oh, Didn't I tell you? "She might be a branch of our Huang tu Gao sect ..." Tu Qingsong said.

"I see ... Eh? Uncle, do you think there's a possibility that she's my lost cousin?" After listening to tu Qingsong's words, the earth Overlord made an even bolder inference.

"Ah!" Tu Qingsong jumped in shock. He had not expected the Overlord to directly link it to tu Ranran from the collateral branch! However, since he was already suspicious at the beginning, it was normal for the local tyrant to be suspicious as well. It was just that the local tyrant had less conclusive evidence than him. Under the guidance of his "branch family", the local tyrant also made such a deduction!

"Uncle, although my deduction might shock you, it's not impossible!" When the earth Overlord heard tu Qingsong's "ah", he thought that he was shocked by his own deduction.

"It's possible ..." Tu Qingsong smiled bitterly and thought, I wanted to hide it for the time being, but who knew that the Overlord would guess it himself!

"So that means that boss Lin Yi might be my brother-in-law?" Earth Overlord's thoughts were jumping continuously. From his point of view, if Lin Yi was asking for medicine for tu Ranran, then his relationship with tu Ranran must be extraordinary, perhaps the type where they were lovers!

"Overlord, what are you thinking ..." Tu Qingsong didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Plus, didn't you say that there's a girl with Mister Lin Yi?"

"You're talking about yang Qiqi? Mr. Lin Yi's so powerful, he can't possibly have her as his only woman, right? Plus, I think that yang Qiqi calling boss Lin Yi "big brother" means they're siblings!" As for Qiqi, he didn't think much of her-someone like him didn't have the concept of polygamy, after all. It was an ancient sect after all, and they still followed the rules of the ancient times-polygamy was a natural thing in the ancient times!

"Yang ... Yang Qiqi?!" When tu Qingsong heard this name, his body suddenly trembled, ""You're saying ... That girl's name is yang Qiqi?!"

"Yes. What's wrong, uncle?" The Overlord felt that his uncle was a little strange today.

Yang Qiqi, surnamed yang, and the other heavenly Dao master was called Yang Ming. Then, between them ... Could there be any family relationship? The more he thought about it, the more likely it seemed-why would Qiqi be with Lin Yi if she wasn 't?

However, he obviously couldn't tell too much about these things to the local tyrant. "It's nothing. It's a good name ..."

"A good name?" The tyrant was a little stunned. Were digital names popular now? However, it didn't seem as overbearing as his own name!

"En, good name." Tu Qingsong said with a serious face.

"Alright, I'll try my best to ask." The Overlord was a little surprised by his uncle's sudden change in taste, but he didn't ask much, so he nodded and agreed.

In Qiqi's room, she told little nine everything that the tyrant had told her. Little nine was a little shocked on the other end of the phone, and fell silent after Qiqi finished.

"I'm sorry, little Jiu-this is probably the best way to solve this problem, and I couldn't find a better solution for you ..." Qiqi could understand how little Jiu was feeling right now-after all, there was one thing he had to do at Huang tu Gao sect, and it could put him in danger ...

"Sister seven, please don't say that. You and brother ah Yi have been working hard for me. I'm really grateful!" "It's just that I don't want to be separated from you ... The yellow Earth high sect is located in the Western Region. It'll be difficult for us to meet again. Besides, what about the hacker mission from the assassin organization?" I've let it go, and there's no one to take over for the time being ..."

"I can only let mother Zhou take over for now." "I want to ask you, xiaojiu, what's your real opinion on this?" Qiqi asked.

"You and big brother ah Yi have both embarked on the path of cultivation. I ... I don't want to fall behind ..." After a moment of silence, little nine said weakly.

Qiqi blinked, not sure if she should laugh or cry-it turned out that deep down, nine didn't want to be too far away from her and Lin Yi. Lin Yi was already at a very high position in the world of practicing, and she would work hard as well, but nine couldn't. The gap between the three of them would only become more and more obvious in the future, and it was only natural that nine would have this thought.

"Okay, I'll tell Lin Yi bro what you want." Qiqi nodded after making sure of what she was thinking.

"En ..." Little nine nodded.

After hanging up, Qiqi went to Lin Yi's room.

"Qiqi, are you done with little Jiu?" Lin Yi opened the door and was surprised to see Qiqi-he didn't think they'd have a conclusion so quickly. He thought that Qiqi would be chatting with nine until midnight.

"En, little nine said that she's willing to become a cultivator and accept the inheritance. She doesn't want to be too far away from us!" Qiqi said.

"Alright, since that's the case, I'll go find the earth Overlord now!" Lin Yi didn't say anything-he didn't need to. He understood what nine was thinking, just like the Miss back then. She wanted to train too, and didn't want to be further and further away from him ...

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh at the thought of the Miss. He'd been out for a while now, but he didn't know if she was doing well.

Lin Yi had always had complicated feelings towards the Miss. It could be said that Lin Yi's arrival in Songshan city and the fact that he'd started a normal life was all due to the miss's subtle influence.

Chapter 2916 Long-Lost Sister

She was the one he should have taken care of the most after he returned to the city because that was his mission. However, he had often neglected her ...

After leaving the room, Lin Yi went straight to the tyrant's room and knocked.

"Is it a Diamond Star? The door isn't locked, just come in!" The earth Overlord had just ended the call with tu Qingsong. He thought it was earth diamond, so he said directly.

"It's me. " Lin Yi said as he pushed the door open.

"Argh! It's boss Lin Yi!" The Overlord jumped off the bed and ran to the door to welcome Lin Yi.

"Why are you in such a rush?" Lin Yi frowned-after all the time they'd spent together, he could tell that the tyrant wasn't a scheming person, but he was a hot-headed guy-he wouldn't have been injured by naipao otherwise.

But then again, which of these ancient sect disciples weren't proud beyond measure? Originally, they were all outstanding figures of their own sects. After going out, they naturally didn't like this one and that one, so it was normal to have conflicts.

"Hehe ... Boss Lin Yi, what's the matter?" The Overlord didn't mind at all-that was just how he was, and he didn't care what Lin Yi said.

"Let me ask you, after that friend of mine receives the inheritance, does he really have to do that stupid mission of opening the Sky Class Island?" Lin Yi went straight to the point. Since 9th didn't have any objections, Lin Yi naturally wanted to fight for more benefits for her.

"This ... Could it be that she doesn't want to advance to heavenly Dao?" The Overlord asked doubtfully. In his opinion, nothing was more important than a cultivator being able to step into the heavenly Dao! Wasn't this the pursuit of all cultivators?

Earth Overlord and the people around him were all like this. His grandfather was like this too, so earth Overlord felt that it was natural for practitioners to pursue the path of heaven. It had been like this since ancient times. Although the things the inheritor did were dangerous, it was equivalent to getting a ticket to Sky Class island after success!

After all, it hadn't been long since the Sky Class island's seal was opened, and the number of people who could enter was limited. Not just anyone could go in, and these spots were determined by the Sky Class meeting-it wasn't an exaggeration to say that people fought over them.

"Everyone has their own aspirations, I'm just asking." Lin Yi's expression didn't change as he asked. He didn't want the people around him to have too much to do with the five elements sect and sky elixir sect.

"Actually, once your friend successfully comprehended the inheritance, that place would definitely sense it. If she accepted the inheritance but didn't participate in the plan, not only would our Yellow Earth high sect be blamed and attacked by that place, they wouldn't let your friend off either. They would definitely send people to capture her before they would let her go." "This is also why I said that after your friend accepted the inheritance, he must carry out that plan!" Boss Lin Yi, I don't deny that you're very strong, but the people from that place are all unexpectedly strong. Their ultimate skills are all true ancient god skills, even immemorial god skills. We can't fight against them!"

Lin Yi nodded. He had experienced the strength of the five elements sect's people before. The weakest taganlong was already very strong. Tian Gang, little eleven, and little one were all super experts, not to mention ancestor xuanchen who had been hiding behind the scenes.

"I've fought with the five elements sect a few times, and I know how powerful they are." Lin Yi agreed.

"What?" The earth Overlord was shocked by Lin Yi's words, "Boss, you've fought with the people of the five elements sect? And how many times? Then you ... Didn't die? Uh ... Of course, I don't mean to look down on you, nor do I curse you to die. I mean ... Uh ..."

"Hehe, you don't have to explain. I understand." Lin Yi smiled faintly, "it's extremely dangerous every time. I almost died. I'm the one who destroyed their medium or something. They've always wanted to kill me, but they're in a delicate balance right now. They're a little afraid."

"F * ck, boss is indeed boss. He's too awesome!" "Even the five elements sect doesn't dare to act rashly?" the earth Overlord was surprised.

"It's not that I don't dare, I'm just a little afraid." Lin Yi wasn't that arrogant, "However, it's only a delicate balance. Once my friend inherits the legacy, I'm afraid that the five elements sect will not let her off easily, just like you said ..."

"That's right. So, instead of being captured by the five elements sect after she leaves, it's better for her to stay in our Yellow Earth high sect. We can protect her during this period of time." The Overlord nodded.

"If that's the case, I'll consider it," Lin Yi didn't agree immediately. Although 9th had agreed, Lin Yi had a responsible attitude towards 9th. He still had to help her weigh the pros and cons carefully.

"Boss Lin Yi, there's something I'd like to ask ..." Seeing that Lin Yi didn't agree, the earth Overlord's heart tightened and he couldn't help but ask.

"Oh? What's the matter? just say it. " "I don't like to beat around the bush," Lin Yi said with a wave of his hand. "Just get straight to the point."

"Sure. How old is your friend this year? Can you tell me her name?" The tyrant king asked carefully.

"Oh? Why are you asking this?" Lin Yi blinked.

"According to my uncle, the yellow Earth Gao sect's bloodline is something that only we have. No one else has it yet, so ... This friend of yours might be my long lost sister ..." The tyrant didn't dare lie to Lin Yi, so he told him the truth.

"Pfft, pfft, pfft, pfft, pfft ..." Lin Yi started coughing. Why did Lil 'nine suddenly become the tyrant's sister?

"Boss, don't laugh. I'm telling the truth, really!" The earth Overlord laughed dryly when he saw Lin Yi's expression. "I really do have a younger sister who has been separated from me for many years ..."

"You mean, my friend might be your sister?" Lin Yi saw that the Overlord wasn't joking and frowned. Lil 'Jiu was indeed an orphan, master's adopted daughter. That was a possibility!

"That's right, so I'm just asking about your friend's name and age ..." The tyrant nodded.

"My friend ... Her name is little nine. I'm afraid that's just a code name in our organization. I don't know her real name either. She was an orphan since she was young." Lin Yi didn't hide anything-if the Overlord really was Nine's family, then he had to confirm it even more,"As for his age, he's seventeen this year, younger than me."

Chapter 2917 Earth And Nine

"Seventeen years old ... As expected, he fits the bill!" A look of surprise and joy flashed across the tyrant's face,""Their ages are about the same, but her name ... It's nothing. The important thing is, she's an orphan?!"

"Yes, your sister is also seventeen years old?" Lin Yi asked, surprised.

"Yes, she's 17 years old. Boss, do you have her photo?" The Overlord quickly asked.

"There is." Lin Yi took out his phone and went into the internet gallery. He found a photo and downloaded it onto his phone. He handed it to the tyrant, "It's her. This is me and yang Qiqi, and the one in the wheelchair in the middle is little Jiu, but I don't think photos will be of much use. You weren't that old back then, so you probably wouldn't know her ..."

"Uh ... Indeed!" When the local tyrant saw the photo, he realized that it was useless to look at it because he had no impression of his sister at all. If he sent this photo to his uncle, tu Qingsong, it might be of some use. He shook his head and said,""Can you send me this photo? I'll send it to my uncle?"

"Temporarily not." "I'm not sure if there's anything between you and 9th yet. I can show you this picture, but not send it to you,"Lin Yi rejected.

After all, the photos involved some secrets of the assassin organization, and xiaojiu's image was a secret. Lin Yi wouldn't give it to anyone without being sure, not even the tyrant.

"Is that so ..." The Overlord was a little disappointed. However, he suddenly thought of something and quickly asked, ""By the way, is there a pendant on little 9th's body? A pendant made of mud? There's a 'tu' word written on it?"

This time, the local tyrant had come to the Central Plains to look for his sister because of this characteristic. That necklace was an item of the Huang tu Gao sect and was also the identification item of his sister. She had been wearing it since she was young!

"Oh?" Lin Yi was surprised, but also confused, "There's a pendant, but it's also made of soil. However, the word 'nine' is written on it, not 'earth'!"

"The '9'? That shouldn't be ..."The Overlord was also stunned, and his eyes widened in confusion."All these characteristics match ... Could it be wrong?"

"Nine?" Earth?" Lin Yi suddenly thought of something and slammed the table, scaring the tyrant, but Lin Yi ignored him and asked,"How do you write the word 'earth'?"

"It's the normal 'earth' character!" The Overlord didn't know why Lin Yi was asking this.

"I think I know what's going on-the" tu "you guys carved on the pendant is a""shape, and the two horizontal lines are connected together in a" Z "shape. It looks like a" nine ""because of how scribbled it is. We've always used numbers to arrange our names-I'm one, yang Qiqi's seven, and when it came to

"I can send you little 9th's photo, but you have to promise not to spread it." Lin Yi was pretty much sure that nine was the long-lost sister of the tyrant, and he agreed to give the photo to him, but he felt that it was a bit too much of a coincidence.

"Boss, don't worry about this. I definitely won't spread it. Moreover, she's my sister. How could I hurt her?" The tyrant promised.

"This is too sudden. I have to go back and talk to little 9th first. As for whether she's willing to acknowledge you or not, I can't do anything about it. I won't force her, so if she's not willing, I hope you won't force her." Lin Yi reminded.

"Don't worry, boss. We'll definitely do it step by step. We won't force it. " The Overlord quickly responded.

Lin Yi left earth Overlord's place and went to Qiqi in shock. He told her what he told earth Overlord-what happened today was way too shocking.

Qiqi's expression was one of wonder as she listened to Lin Yi's story-she didn't think that xiaojiu was the little sister of the yellow Earth high sect's earth Overlord, either ... This information was a little too much ...

"Then ... Does that mean that we're relatives with the tyrant?" Qiqi was a little troubled-she didn't really like the personality of this kid.

"There's nothing we can do about it. Fortunately, although the Overlord is a little arrogant, he's not stupid. He doesn't show off in front of us either. Let him be." Lin Yi smiled bitterly, "this time, no matter what, I'll have to fix his meridians!" Of course, this is a small matter. The key question is, can little 9th accept this reality?"

"I'll talk to xiaojiu-he's her family, after all. We might've been separated for some reason back then, but it's a good thing that we're able to find her family ..." Qiqi said.

"Yeah ..." Lin Yi agreed. Lin Yi didn't care about his background and didn't seem to care too much about the fact that he didn't have parents when he was young, but deep down, he still wanted to see his parents. It was a kind of persistence that was close to faith.

The happiest person was none other than tu Qingsong-he knew that he was right when he received the report from tu bawang. Lin Yi and Yang Qiqi's identities were obvious now-his daughter, "little nine," had become their friend!

Chapter 2918 Little 9th's Silence

And they seemed to be pretty important friends, too-tu Qingsong didn't think that Lin Yi and Qiqi would rush over for something like this otherwise!

"Overlord, you did well! I didn't expect that you would mature so much even though you didn't participate in the trial this time!" Tu Qingsong praised.

"Uncle ..." The Overlord smiled bitterly. How could he grow if he had not encountered any setbacks? He'd only realized that there were always people better than him after being crippled by naipao.

"Send me the picture. It doesn't matter if you see it or not, it's now certain that little nine is ran ran. You just need to think of a way to get Mr. Lin Yi to send her back to the yellow Earth high school." Tu Qingsong said. At this point, he felt a little emotional. Back then, the fortune-teller that his father met, was what he said true?

Tu Ranran's fate had changed because of her man? Wasn't this person referring to Lin Yi? Tu Qingsong could also tell that Lin Yi and little nine had an unusual relationship from tu bawang's words and came to this conclusion!

From the looks of it, her father's decision back then had been wise. That two million Yuan had been well spent. Not only was tu Ranran fine, but the yellow Earth Gao faction had also gained a powerful ally!

Other people might not know Lin Yi's background, but he, tu Qingsong, knew it very well. It seemed that Lin Yi's status in the martial world was not good yet. If Huang tu Gao sect became Lin Yi's subsidiary sect, it would be like giving him charcoal in his snow!

This friendship was different from adding flowers to a brocade in the future-whoever followed Lin Yi first and got his approval would have the upper hand, and when Lin Yi grew up, the yellow Earth Gao sect would rise as well!

"Yes, uncle, I'll send it to you in a moment!" The tyrant replied.

"En, you'll be in charge of following up on this. Make an appointment with Mister Lin Yi and see when he'll come to our Yellow Earth high sect!" Tu Qingsong said.

After little nine found out about her background, she suddenly became silent. For so many years, she had already regarded Yang Ming's home as her own. Although Yang Ming was her foster father, he was similar to her father. He treated her and yang Qiqi the same, without bias.

And so, it was hard for her to feel a sense of belonging in a strange home, a place she didn't know. Her long-lost family, her brother, and her father were there, but in her heart, Lin Yi, Qiqi, and her parents were the closest people to her!

She had lived here since she was a child. As for the loathsome sects of the Western regions, this was the first time she had heard of them. She was still a little conflicted about these unknown things ...

"Little 9th ... What's wrong?" Qiqi couldn't help but ask after hearing little Nine's silence.

"Little Seventh Sister, I feel like this isn't real ... I have a family now?" Little Nine's voice was a little low, without the excitement of finding his family at all, only the sadness of not knowing how to face it.

"Little Jiu, are you not happy? At Huang tu Gao sect, not only will your body's problems be solved, you'll be able to see your family too ..." Qiqi didn't quite understand what xiaojiu was feeling right now-she didn't know why she was so down.

"Sister seven, it's impossible that I haven't thought about my family. When I was young, I thought about what my biological parents and family were like, but as time went by, I've already treated you, brother ah Yi, foster father, and foster mother as the closest people to me ..." Little nine said faintly, ""All of a sudden, I have a family. I feel like I don't know what to do anymore ... Little Seventh Sister, can you let me calm down for a while? I'll think about it and contact you again ..."

"Okay ..." Qiqi nodded, "Little Jiu, you should calm down."

After hanging up, Qiqi didn't go to Lin Yi right away, but called mother Zhou instead. She was the other wife of Qiqi's father, and she was an expert in hacking. She was little Nine's teacher, and she was the most suitable person to talk to little nine!

However, no matter what little Nine's decision was, the sky elixir sect's trial had finally ended, and the prize ceremony was set for tomorrow morning at the sky elixir sect Inn's Square!

Although it was called an award ceremony, it was actually just a symbolic certificate that recorded the requirements of each cultivator. If the pills were in stock, they could naturally be taken away. If not, they would have to make a reservation.

There weren't many people who passed the test-it could even be described as pitifully few. A total of more than forty Earth Class and above cultivators took part in the test. According to the calculation of the spirit beasts killing two Earth Class and above Masters every day, excluding the few days before the Dragon of five evils issued the mission and the five-day delay after the 15 days, they had lost nearly 30 Earth Class and above Masters in the 10 days in between.

However, the number of cultivators who passed the trial this time was also the highest among the previous batches. Therefore, even if so many people died, no one would suspect anything.

Feng Shasha's reward was a recover pill, and so were GE Xian, qikun, and Li Ciba! Feng Shashi wanted the recover pill for nitian, but GE Xian was a solo practitioner, so he had the recover pill for self-defense.

Li Ciba was a physical master, so he didn't need any other pills, but the recover pill was the only one he could use to heal! As for qikun, he didn't even know why he had gotten a recover pill!

Elder bi was dead, and the recover pill was of no use to house Zhao right now. However, the sky elixir sect didn't have many finished pills they could exchange for, and they only had one test spirit herb. According to the rules, they weren't allowed to ask for future pills, but of course, this depended on their mood. If they agreed, then it was fine, but qikun didn't want to cause trouble.

Because Zhang naipao had only exchanged for a bone cleansing pill-the sky elixir sect didn't have any in stock, but for the sake of the everyday and every day sect, the heavenly silkworm sect agreed to let Zhaoming make one for Zhang naipao.

When it was Lin Yi's turn, he spoke to Kang Zhaoming directly, "Great recovery pill!"

Zhaoming froze, and so did the heavenly silkworm transformation-didn't Lin Yi want the ice heart Jade bone pill? How did it become a recover pill? Kang Zhaoming had already thought it through. If Lin Yi wanted to refine the ice heart Jade bone pill, Kang Zhaoming would gladly agree. Even if Lin Yi only had one pill, it was fine. He planned to wait for Lin Yi to bring the materials and then tell Lin Yi that the refinement failed. He would let Lin Yi waste a pile of materials for nothing.

Chapter 2919 Parting On The Way Home

The heavenly silkworm transformation, on the other hand, was wondering what Lin Yi wanted the great cyclic pellet for. Back at the bottom of the cliff, Lin Yi didn't even take the two dahuan pills he had-what did he want this for? Plus, Lin Yi had that miraculous healing ability, what would he need the recover pill for?

Could it be that ... Lin Yi had cured the tyrant and was hiding it from people? At the moment, she could only guess.

The news of the earth Overlord's recovery had spread throughout the sky elixir sect and even the five elements sect! Although ancestor xuanchen was very puzzled as to how earth Overlord recovered, and he suspected that Lin Yi had a part to play in it when he saw him walking very close to Lin Yi, he never thought that Lin Yi could use his pure energy to heal someone!

After all, using true energy to heal someone's injuries only existed between people of the same sect. Moreover, the person healing needed to use a lot of physical strength and true energy to heal someone else. Unless they had a very good relationship, who would make such a sacrifice?

Plus, Lin Yi and earth Overlord weren't from the same sect, and they didn't even practice the same Arts. In fact, the two didn't even know each other, so why would Lin Yi help him?

Moreover, Lin Yi looked perfectly fine now and did not look like he had used up a lot of energy. Thus, even if ancestor xuanchen had his suspicions, he could not figure it out. It was even more impossible for Lin Yi to give earth Overlord a grade four great recovery pill!

He could only slowly inquire about this matter and see if he could get some information from the local tyrant. There was no other way! Lin Yi wouldn't tell her the truth.

However, Lin Yi didn't have the intention to do so! Lin Yi didn't ask for the ice heart Jade bone pill specifically because of the grudges between him and Kang Zhaoming. If he brought the materials, the sky elixir sect might not make it for him. They would just tell him that they didn't make it and he wouldn't be able to do anything if he failed.

And so, Lin Yi might as well just take a great recovery pill that the sky elixir sect had in stock. It might seem like the great recovery pill wasn't of much use to him right now, but that wasn't the case! To Lin Yi, this was good stuff.

When Lin Yi used the energy bomb and used all his strength, he accidentally injured his own meridians. In this situation, Lin Yi couldn't repair his own meridians, but as long as he had the recover pill, he could repair a small number of meridians, then he could repair the rest.

In this situation, without Skybolt pig and general Weiwu, it would be very useful.

"Uh ... Lin Yi, you don't want to think about it anymore? Didn't you say you wanted the great cyclic pellet before? didn't you say you wanted the icy heart Jadestone pill?" Zhaoming frowned, unwilling to give up.

"Oh, isn't it only two trial spirit herbs that can be named for you to refine the medicinal pill?" "I only have one," Lin Yi said faintly, "I'll just take a ready-made one. "

"This ... Actually, for the sake of our old friendship, we can make an exception. Besides, this is what the sky elixir sect promised you before." Kang Zhaoming quickly replied.

"Forget it. When the time comes, I'll give you the medicinal ingredients, and you'll fail to refine it for me. Wouldn't I have no place to find someone to reason with?" "I don't believe you," Lin Yi shook his head. "

The smile on Zhaoming's face froze, and he laughed dryly."How is this possible? I'm not the only one who has the final say in the sky elixir sect. I just think it'd be a waste if you didn't take this opportunity. "

"If you think it's a pity, then give me another icy heart Jadestone pill." Lin Yi said.

"Then forget it ..." Zhaoming pouted and turned around to ask the other participants.

The pills were all in stock, and so Lin Yi and the others set off after getting them.

Lin Yi didn't give a definite answer to earth Overlord, but he wasn't in a hurry. He decided to walk around the Central Plains-everyone knew that he was Lin Yi's follower now, so no one dared to mess with him.

Naipao had just suffered a setback in the test, and he'd been feeling down and out for quite some time now-he didn't have the heart to mess with the earth Overlord anymore, after all, he was still quite wary of Lin Yi.

"Little seven, I'm going back. Are you going back to your private island this time?" Lin Yi asked. The private island was also called Island X, and it was where Lin Yi trained when he was young. It was currently the base of the world's largest assassin organization! Of course, this was only limited to the secular world. The blood-clad yellow spring sect in the cultivation world couldn't be compared with it.

"En, I'll go back and discuss it with xiaojiu, then I'll contact you, Lin Yi bro," Qiqi nodded.

"Little Jiu's matter has been resolved. Don't run around anymore. There are too many dangers in the world of cultivation. It's not suitable for you." Lin Yi didn't want Qiqi to risk her life in the world of practicing again-he could help her now, but he couldn't guarantee that he'd help her every time.

"En ..." Qiqi nodded obediently, "If I ever come back to the world of cultivation, I'll call you."

"That's good." Lin Yi nodded and said goodbye to Qiqi before turning to Feng Shasha, GE Xian, and Li Ciba, who were waiting for him.

"Boss, we're going back ..." Feng Shanshan said, feeling a little sad. Although they didn't spend much time together, the friendship between him and Lin Yi was already established. Now that they were separated and returned to the ancient house Feng, he wondered if his father and grandfather would blame him for this.

After all, an ancient sect's direct line taking a freelancer as their boss was quite a shock. Lin Yi was strong, but there was no guarantee that his family would object to it-he was nitian's enemy, after all.

Although the news hadn't spread yet, nitian would wake up after taking the pill, and they'd know who hurt him. Feng Shasha was having a headache.

Li Ciba, on the other hand, was a little more relaxed. He may be a core disciple of the divine fist Palace, but Lin Yi was someone who avenged his sect-he couldn't do that, and Lin Yi was his boss now, and he taught Zhang naipao a lesson-the divine fist Palace wouldn't be able to say anything about it. If someone dared to stand out and criticize li Ciba, it meant that they didn't want to avenge their sect-who would do such a thing?

GE Xian, on the other hand, was a solo practitioner-he didn't care about what others thought. He only said goodbye to Lin Yi, a little reluctant, "Boss, I'll go to Eastern Sea city to find you in a while!"

"En, all good things must come to an end. You guys go do your own things, don't worry too much about the pressure from your families and sects. You don't need to let others acknowledge your relationship with me." Lin Yi said faintly as he read her thoughts.

Chapter 2920 Company In Trouble

On the way back, Lin Yi and Qikun were still together-even Qikun himself didn't think that he'd be able to pass the test! The Hidden House Zhao was sending him to his death in this test, and he knew that. Even with Lin Yi's protection, Qikun was still a little worried. After all, no matter how strong Lin Yi was, he couldn't protect everyone. But he didn't think that he'd really pass the test and get the recover pill, but the Hidden House Zhao was different.

Qikun didn't know how to face the Hidden House Zhao now-the people back home were all standing against him after he left. Although his Grandpa and Qibing wouldn't dare do anything to him after he went back, living in a house like this was still a torture and a tragedy.

Lin Yi looked at the depressed look on Qikun's face and patted his shoulder, sighing, "Let's go. There are some things that you can't choose. Can you choose Grandpa?"

"That's true ..." Qikun smiled bitterly, ""What should I do after I return? I really don't know what's the point of me staying in the Hidden House Zhao. Why is my grandfather so stubborn? Just because Zhao Qibing gave him a Qi gathering pill, did he become the young master?"

"Some things are formed by a freak combination of factors. It's hard to explain it now. Under those circumstances, it was understandable for old man Zhao to make this decision. But now, it seems that he was very short-sighted!"

"Yeah ..." Qikun nodded, ""Even a few of the ancient sects acknowledge you as their boss, my Grandpa is really ..."

"Let's take one step at a time. " With Lin Yi's current level, he considered things a little differently. Before, he didn't dare to touch the Hidden House Zhao and hidden house you because he wasn't strong enough yet, so he kept their relationship at a balance and didn't want to go any further. But now, Lin Yi could completely destroy any hidden house.

Qikun nodded and got on the Grand Cherokee with Lin Yi, starting their return journey ...

Tian Gang stood in the distance, quietly watching Lin Yi get in the car and drive away. He sighed, "After parting with you, I have endless worries, forever in a group, obstructing many sides ..."

Lin Yi, naturally, didn't know that there was a girl who missed him standing behind him. Tian Gang didn't attend the final award ceremony, so Lin Yi thought that Tian Gang had returned to the five elements sect long ago and wouldn't show his face again.

Tianli had sold everything he had these past few days, borrowing money from all over the place, but he still couldn't get two hundred million. He only managed to gather around forty million and sent it all to President Lang's account. Just as he was anxiously waiting for the news, President lang brought him a bolt out of the blue!

"Chief Liu, this is bad. Because we didn't gather enough money to pay snake head according to the deadline, snake head found the border troops of that small country and reported our smuggling. So, the border troops seized all our goods!" Little purity said 'sorrowfully'.

"What!" Tianli couldn't help but turn pale, as if he'd fallen into an Icehouse. He'd been hypnotized, but all he'd been hypnotized was his trust in little purity and the fact that this deal would make him a lot of money!

Now that there was a problem with his business, Tianli was still in shock-he almost had a heart attack."That snakehead, why is he so unruly? It's not like we're not giving him money, we're just delaying it for a while. Why did he ..."

"There's nothing I can do. Those people are all desperadoes. I want to talk to them now, but they won't see me ..." Little pure sighed and said gloomily.

"Why don't I think of something from my political connections here and see if I can pass on the message?" Tianli hesitated-he really didn't want to use his family's connections in the political world for this, but the situation was dire, and he had no choice. If he didn't use them, then the entire house Liu would be destroyed!

Although smuggling was not a glorious thing for the Liu family, they had never smuggled before, had they? As long as the Liu family could be flexible and say that the goods had to be imported through legal means, and that they were only detained when they were transporting the goods in a small country, the matter could be carried out.

"President Liu, are you sure you can use your connections? "The items we're smuggling this time ... Are prohibited items ..." Little purity reminded him.

"Isn't it just tobacco? Although we're smuggling goods, I can be flexible and say that we're about to import them legally ..."Tianli was shocked, but he wasn't stupid. He quickly thought of a plan.

"President Liu, this isn't as simple as tobacco. This is drugs!" Little purity said.

"What? Drug ... Drugs?" Tianli was in disbelief, almost dropping his phone on the floor. How did cigarettes turn into drugs? After taking a deep breath, Liu Tianli came back to his senses. "Aren't they cigarettes? How did it become a drug? President lang, you ... You're not joking, right? Haha...This joke is not funny at all!"

"Boss Liu, do you think I'm joking with you?" "There's nothing special in that cigarette," little purity said indifferently. "How could it be so easy to smoke?"

"This ..." Tianli was taken aback, and only now did he remember. That's right, why were cigarettes so easy to smoke and addictive? Could there really be drugs in there?

However, why didn't I think of this before? Of course, what Tianli didn't know was that it wasn't that he couldn't think of it, but that he had been hypnotized. He didn't think in that direction at all, and the hypnotist had suppressed his thoughts.

President lang, you tricked me?!" Tianli asked.

"President Liu, I thought you knew it yourself." Little purity said unhurriedly.

"What do I know? I don't take drugs, so how would I know?" Tianli said angrily.

"All the bosses I know are fans. How would I know if you don 't? It's just that the raw materials used in this cigarette are very special. The purity is very high, and it's not common in the market!" Little purity said,"I saw that you didn't raise any doubts before, so I thought we had a tacit understanding. The purity of this cigarette is so high that it's hard for people who have never smoked before to take it. I saw that President Liu was smoking quite smoothly, so I didn't think too much about it."

"You ..." Tianli didn't know if she was telling the truth or not, but he couldn't care less now. He could only suppress his anger and ask,""What should we do now?"
