

Bodyguard 7721

Chapter 7721 Eldest Senior Sister Murong

Hmph! Did this little fellow get tired of the old and like the new?

"I'm old friends with Curly Bear! It probably sensed my presence, so it ran over to find me!"

Lin Yi smiled and nodded at the girl as a greeting. "Are you a disciple of the welcome Pavilion? I didn't expect you to be able to enter the three pavilions at such a young age, and even obtain the curly bear's approval. Not bad!"

"I ... I'm not young."

The little girl's face turned red, and she seemed a little embarrassed. She looked even cuter. "I'm Xiu Yan 'er, a disciple of the welcoming new pavilion ..."

Xiuyan 'er wasn't as young as she looked. She had a disease that slowed her growth, and she was a few years older than she looked. Of course, she was still younger than Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was stunned for a moment, but then he was overjoyed. So this little girl was Xiu Yan 'er, the daughter of the villa master of the Xiuyun heights!

He was also the contractor of the soaring cloud Sparrow's spirit beast egg that Chu Mengyao used for her rebirth!

Xiu Yan 'er and soaring cloud Sparrow had signed an equal contract, not a master-servant contract, so she and Chu Mengyao had an equal relationship. The two would naturally feel close.

If it was a master-servant contract, Lin Yi might have forcefully intervened and canceled it, but now, naturally, he didn't care.

"So you're Xiu Yan 'er. We've just come from cloud resting heights, and we've heard about you from your father!"

Lin Yi wanted to know more about Mengyao, but decided that it'd be best to meet her directly. "We came to the welcoming new pavilion to look for someone, but we were stopped. Since you are familiar with this place, why don't you be my guide?"

"Alright! This is just a small matter, come with me!"

Xiu Yan 'er nodded and extended her little hand to Curly Bear. "Curly Bear, come here and I'll hug you!"

The curly Bear blinked twice and turned away, pretending not to hear him.

Xiu Yan 'er was a little angry!

This heartless little thing, to think that I usually give you so many good things to eat, but you actually ignore me at a critical moment? Don't I care about my face?

In the future, I'll only give you half of the good food I have. You're heartless! Hmph!

"Don't leave if you dare!"

The remaining disciples on guard gathered their courage and continued to stop him. "Senior Sister Murong is coming soon, are you guys scared?"

"Captain, I seem to have been too lenient just now. Why don't we continue to beat him up?"

Fernandes felt that he was too soft-hearted to let this kid still have the courage to stand up for him. This time, he had to be more serious!

"Who dares to beat up my people in our Welcome Pavilion's territory? do you have the guts of a leopard?"

A woman's voice came from behind them, her tone cold and proud. "Let this lady see just what kind of divine being it is that actually dares to bully our three pavilions!"

"If you don't give me a satisfactory explanation today, none of you will be able to leave!"

"Murong Zhen, you're so cool! Tell me, what kind of explanation can satisfy you?"

Lin Yi turned around slowly and looked at Murong Zhen with a faint smile.

The woman didn't change much from a few years ago, and her strength did increase a little. Of course, in Lin Yi's eyes, this little increase was not worth mentioning!

Compared to her strength, Murong Zhen's prestige had increased even more. Ordinary disciples might really be intimidated by her.

Murong Zhen's sharp senses told her that something was wrong when she saw the bear in Lin Yi's arms. She froze when she heard Lin Yi's voice and saw his face!

Lin Yi!

He was the legend of the new generation of the North Island and also Murong Zhen's nightmare!

He'd never had an easy time under Lin Yi's hands!

Murong Zhen really wanted to cry but had no tears!

Wasn't Lin Yi supposed to go visit Shangguan Tianhua before returning to the pavilion? What the hell did he have to do by coming to the welcome new pavilion?

Reminiscing about the past? F * ck your mother!

Murong Zhen cursed in her heart, but she forced an awkward smile on her face.

"So it's senior brother Lin! Junior Sister greets senior brother!"

Faced with the new legend of the North Island, Murong Zhen did not dare to show any disrespect. He quickly and respectfully saluted and greeted, "Senior brother Lin, why didn't you inform me in advance that you're coming so that I could come and welcome you? I've been rude this time, please forgive me."

The two disciples who had thought that Murong Zhen would be able to turn the tables were dumbfounded. What was happening?

Senior Sister Murong's senior brother?

Looking at Senior Sister Murong's respectful and careful attitude ... It seemed like she had kicked an iron plate!

The two disciples looked at each other with stiff necks and saw despair in each other's eyes.

This time, he had dragged Senior Sister Murong into the water. In the future, he probably wouldn't be able to bear the consequences!

After offending Senior Sister Murong, could he still be saved?

Who could answer this question? Urgent, waiting online ...

Fernandes had a knowing look on his face as he arrogantly glanced at the two disciples who were in shock.

"Look, what did your master Fernandes say? I told you to call this girl over to greet our Captain, but you didn't believe me. Now you're obedient, right?"

I'm obedient, I'm obedient ... Can I pretend that today's incident never happened?

The two disciples bowed and apologized with a sad face, lamenting that they were born at the wrong time and didn't look at the Chinese calendar when they left the house. Why did they have to be on duty today?

Murong Zhen's face turned ashen. Anyone would be angry if they were called a 'girl' in front of them!

But Fernandes was Lin Yi's man, and she didn't have the courage to stand up for him.

She'd suffered enough at Lin Yi's hands back then, and now that Lin Yi's name was known throughout the Sky Class Island, what was she? Even in the North Island, he was only a small figure.

Murong Zhen took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in his chest. He pretended not to hear Fernandes and continued to speak to Lin Yi respectfully.

"Senior brother Lin, what's the matter at the welcome Pavilion? Do I have the honor to be your guide? After all, the current welcoming new pavilion is somewhat different from the past!"

Murong Zhen wasn't really trying to get on Lin Yi's good side-she knew that she'd never become Lin Yi's person no matter how hard she tried.

She was only trying to make it clear that the pavilion was her territory, and that Lin Yi couldn't just come and go as he pleased. She was also trying to subtly remind Lin Yi not to go too far, or it'd be embarrassing for the three pavilions.

To put it simply, Murong Zhen was afraid and wanted to be more decent and beg for mercy!

Lin Yi smiled faintly and waved his hand. "There's no need to trouble Junior Sister Murong. If you have something to do, go ahead. I'll just ask this Junior Sister to be my guide!"

Xiu Yan 'er pouted her lips in anger. I'm not small!

Then, she guiltily glanced at her small arms, legs, and body ... Alright, she did look a little small, especially when she wanted to raise her head and stick out her chest.

He could still lift his head, but as for his chest ... His little stomach, which had just eaten, was a little higher ...

Chapter 7722 Yaoyao Is In The East Province?

Lin Yi didn't know that the little girl was sulking, so he touched her head. Yes, it was really convenient, because her head was right next to Lin Yi's hand!

Xiu Yan 'er's shoulders collapsed. Forget it, forget it. I'm just a child. I'm already used to touching your head! It wouldn't cause any harm at all!

"Little Junior Sister Xiu, can I trouble you to bring me in for a tour?"

Lin Yi patted Xiuyan 'er's head and bent over with a gentle smile. "Will I waste your time?"

Xiu Yan 'er pursed her lips imperceptibly.' There's no delay, but can you stand up straight and speak?'

You'll make people think that there's a huge height difference between us!

Although this is the truth, I don't like it!

Also, can you take away your claws?

The little girl was roaring in her heart, but she sighed in resignation. "It's no trouble, no delay, let's go!"

He wanted to leave and take the opportunity to get rid of the demon claws on his head!

Xiu Yan 'er slipped through the door of the welcome Pavilion without even having the time to say hello to Murong Zhen.

Lin Yi smiled at Murong Zhen, deep in thought. It seemed like not everyone liked this managing Senior Sister after all!

"Fernandes, let's go!"

Lin Yi hugged the bear and called for Fernandes to follow.

Xiu Yan 'er was hopping and skipping in front. She always felt that she was a big girl, but her body still honestly continued the posture of a little girl. She couldn't blame others for treating her like a little girl!

After running for two steps, Xiu Yan 'er ran back. The little bit of unhappiness in her heart had long disappeared. She was indeed no different from a child.

"Al! Senior brother Lin, Who are you? why does that evil woman Murong Zhen seem to be afraid of you?"

Xiuyan 'er's reflex arc seemed to be a little long as she recalled that Murong Zhen's attitude towards Lin Yi just now was completely different from usual. It was strange!

When the three pavilions of the drifting cloud heights were selecting new disciples, Murong Zhen had been by Xu Tai's side. He had targeted the people of the drifting cloud heights, so Xiu Yan 'er naturally didn't have a good impression of Murong Zhen.

Later, when they arrived at the welcoming new pavilion, Murong Zhen still targeted her. Xiu Yan 'er didn't really hate Murong Zhen, but she definitely hated him!

"Ha ... Because she can't beat me! Murong Zhen is a smart man. He knew that he couldn't beat me, so he didn't dare to offend me!"

Lin Yi smiled as he patted Xiuyan 'er's head, revealing his identity. "And I'm also from the pavilion, my name is Lin Yi!"

"Oh, so you're Lin Yi!"

Xiu Yan 'er felt very angry. Why did he have to send his head to someone else's hand? He really couldn't blame anyone for being killed by touching his head!

啊啊啊啊! When would she grow taller?

It had to be at least long enough for this Lin Yi guy to touch it with his hands raised, right?

He always touched it casually like he was touching a kitten or a puppy. Did he not want his face?

Wait a minute! It seemed like something strange had sneaked in just now!

Xiu Yan 'er's mind jumped and she was a little stunned ... What was it?

She thought about it again-that weird thing was Lin Yi?

It sounded familiar!

Lin Yi!

"Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh! You're Lin Yi, senior Lin?"

Xiu Yan 'er's reflex arc was indeed long enough. It took her a long time to understand why it sounded familiar!

The new legend of the North Island, Lin Yi!

Although he wasn't on the North Island, Lin Yi's deeds were spread all over the island, especially in his base, the Qingyun Pavilion!

As a new disciple of the pavilion, how could Xiuyan 'er not have heard of Lin Yi? His ears were getting calluses!

Especially when she had Chu Mengyao by her side-the two shared the same fate, and Chu Mengyao would never hide it from Xiuyan 'er. She would naturally mention Lin Yi in private.

It was because they were too familiar with each other that Xiuyan 'er didn't react immediately upon hearing Lin Yi's name.

Lin Yi looked helplessly at the jumping Xiuyan 'er on the spot. Was his reputation that deep already?

This was even more exaggerated than seeing Xu Shihan's fanatical fans in the secular world!

"That's not right! Lin Yi, aren't you in the East continent? Why did he come back? Have you seen sister Chu?"

Xiu Yan 'er grabbed her head with both hands, her thoughts in a mess. "You're back. Sister Chu went to the East Province. What should we do?"

"Wait, Xiu Yan 'er, the big sister Chu you're talking about is Chu Mengyao, right? Why did she go to the East Province?"

Lin Yi was shocked. Chu Mengyao was so weak, how could she go to the East continent?

Even in the yellow-class Sea area of the East continent, there were many Xuan Shengs and nascent soul realm cultivators!

Mengyao was at most in the Foundation Stage, and she didn't have any connections or connections.

"It's Chu Mengyao sis, you're here to see her, right, Lin Yi?"

An adult-like expression appeared on Xiu Yan 'er's small face and she sighed softly. "Sister Chu has been trying to find out where you are. Other than cultivation, her greatest pleasure is to collect information about you. She would tell me repeatedly about what you did on the North Island. I'm tired of hearing it, but she still enjoyed it!"

"Elder sister Chu's cultivation talent is really amazing. She seems to want to follow in your footsteps, senior brother Lin. You were the newcomer King back then, and elder sister Chu is also the newcomer King of our batch of new disciples!"

"Murong Zhen, that bad woman, has been targeting us both openly and secretly. Sister Chu challenged her before, but she didn't win. Of course, sister Chu didn't lose either!"

Speaking up to this point, Xiu Yan 'er revealed a proud expression, as if she also felt proud of Chu Mengyao's rise. "You must know that sister Chu is only in the foundation establishment stage, while Murong Zhen is already in the Golden core stage. It's already impressive for him to be able to remain undefeated in a cross-stage battle. Senior brother Lin, don't you think that he's very much like you?"

Lin Yi felt helpless-he was asking her how Chu Mengyao got to the East continent, but she seemed to be straying off-topic!

However, these were all Chu Mengyao's past, and Lin Yi actually wanted to hear about it as well, so he didn't interrupt Xiu Yan 'er's narration.

Lin Yi brushed her off and took the chance to ask again,""Junior Sister Yan 'er, you haven't told me how your sister Chu got to the East Province!"

"Don't worry! I'm about to say it!"

Xiuyan 'er wrinkled her nose at Lin Yi's interruption-she felt like her thoughts weren't even working properly. What was she saying?

Forget it ... Whatever!

"Sister Chu was taken away by someone from the East Province! However, I don't know who that person is or what his identity is. Sister Chu only followed you to the East Province without hesitation because she heard that you were there. "

Lin Yi was panicking-they didn't even know who they were?

Chapter 7723 Many Fiancées?

The East continent was so big, who knew where to find Chu Mengyao without a clear direction?

Moreover, he had many friends and enemies in the East Province!

If the enemy knew of Chu Mengyao's existence and wanted to capture her to deal with him, Chu Mengyao wouldn't be able to fight back!

"Junior Sister Yan 'er, tell me everything you know. Don't miss out anything! I need to know all the information about that person from the East Province!"

Lin Yi forced himself to calm down. He needed more information to analyze and find useful clues.

"No more!"

Xiu Yan 'er raised her head with a dazed and adorable expression. "I only know this much! I've told you everything! If you want to know more, you can only ask the higher-ups of the three pavilions! Well, Pavilion master Shangguan should know more about it!"

Lin Yi thought about it and agreed. After all, Xiu Yan 'er was only a new disciple, and she was only the daughter of the villa master.

Although the head of the Beidao nine villas sounded impressive, it was actually not comparable to the three pavilions of the Beidao.

The East Province was too high a level for the Xiuyun heights, and Xiu Yan 'er simply couldn't come into contact with it.

If he wanted to get more information, it was indeed more convenient for him to find Shangguan Tianhua.

"You're right! I'll go find Pavilion master Shangguan now!"

Lin Yi stuffed the curly Bear into her hands."Little guy, I'm going to deal with official business first. I'll come and see you when I'm free!"

Curly Bear wanted to go back to Lin Yi's side, but Xiu Yan 'er hugged him.

Little brat, you still want to run? You're so disobedient. Do you still want to have good food when you go back?

"Senior brother Lin, you should go quickly. Don't delay the important matters!"

Xiuyan 'er was afraid that Lin Yi would take Curly Bear away, and the words "leave quickly" were written all over her face. These few big words!

Lin Yi smiled and waved goodbye to Xiu Yan 'er and Curly Bear before leaving the pavilion with Fernandes.

Many disciples recognized Lin Yi on the way to the rising Sky Pavilion, all looking at him with respect.

Most of them would take the initiative to come forward and greet him, and those who were further away would also pay attention to him.

Fernández felt quite good. Sure enough, following the captain was a good thing!

Soon, the two arrived at the Sky Tower. There were disciples guarding the entrance as well, and Fernandes wondered if there would be someone stupid enough to stop Captain Lin Yi from entering. If that happened, he'd be able to show off again!

Unfortunately, the people from the rising Sky Pavilion weren't new disciples. They were quite familiar with Lin Yi, and they bowed with smiles on their faces when they saw him from afar.

"Senior brother Lin! Long time no see! Are you here to visit our Pavilion master?"

One of the disciples greeted Lin Yi with a fist salute. "You're free today, Pavilion master. Lin Yi-Shixiong is here, and you can go in without informing us. Do you want me to take you there?"

Fernandes felt a little regretful. After coming to the North Island, he had been blocked and had some small conflicts when he wanted to enter the Yingxin Pavilion. How could such a good habit end here?

He should keep it up!

"Then I'll have to trouble Junior Brother!"

Lin Yi nodded with a smile and returned the greeting. "I won't delay your business, will I?"

"Of course not. It's my honor to be able to serve senior brother Lin! If you don't believe me, look at them, senior brother Lin. They're so envious of me!"

The guard wasn't lying-the other disciples all had envious expressions on their faces, as if leading the way for Lin Yi was a great honor!

Lin Yi could only continue smiling and greeting them one by one. He didn't think that his influence on the North Island would grow so much after not coming back for so long!

Shangguan Tianhua had probably received news of Lin Yi's arrival and was waiting in the living room. He stood up and greeted Lin Yi when he saw him walking in with Fernandes.

With his status, there weren't many people that he would welcome, and Lin Yi was an exception.

"Lin Yi greets Pavilion master Shangguan! Long time no see, I really miss you!"

Lin Yi bowed to Shangguan Tianhua seriously and straightened his back to reveal Fernandes. "This is my partner, Fernandes!"

Fernandes had a good eye, and he could tell that his boss respected Shangguan Tianhua from the bottom of his heart, so he also followed suit and greeted him seriously.

"You're welcome. Lin Yi and his friends, please sit down and talk!"

Shangguan Tianhua motioned for the two of them to sit on both sides, and then asked about Shangguan LAN 'er.

"Don't worry, Pavilion master. LAN 'er is doing well in the East Province. She's found many friends with the same interests in the Academy."

Lin Yi was worried about Mengyao, but it was only natural for Shangguan Tianhua to be worried about LAN 'er. It was only right for them to talk about LAN 'er first.

"That's great, I'm afraid that the girl can't take it. I can only rest assured with you taking care of her!"

Shangguan Tianhua smiled in relief, then continued to ask, ""How's LAN 'er's cultivation? Did you work hard?"

"LAN 'er has been cultivating very hard and has entered the state very quickly. When she comes back, Pavilion master will be impressed!"

Lin Yi wasn't trying to comfort Shangguan Tianhua-Shangguan LAN 'er had indeed improved very quickly in the mystic-class Sea area of the East continent, and her personality was a lot calmer now, not as playful as before.

In fact, this was all because of Lin Yi. Shangguan LAN 'er understood the gap between her and Lin Yi, and didn't want to be a burden, so she worked hard. The little girl's talent was outstanding, and once she worked hard, she would immediately show the extraordinary talent of a genius!

"If it's really as you say, then this old man will be greatly comforted!"

Shangguan Tianhua was really happy, and he chatted with Lin Yi about other things, asking about his experiences.

Lin Yi took the chance to ask about Mengyao, "Pavilion master, there's a girl named Chu Mengyao among the new disciples of the GreenCloud Pavilion. She was taken away by the people from the East Province. Do you know the reason?"

"You know Chu Mengyao?"

Shangguan Tianhua didn't answer Lin Yi's question directly, but looked at him meaningfully, "Speaking of which, this girl is quite similar to you. She was also the newcomer King of that episode!"

"I do know Chu Mengyao, I wouldn't dare to lie to you, Pavilion master. She's my fiancée in the secular world!"

Lin Yi admitted without hiding anything, "She came to the North Island to look for me. Unfortunately, I missed her, so I wanted to get some information from the pavilion master."

"So that's how it is! This old man does know about this matter, and it can be said that I know it better than anyone else! If you were to ask someone else, I'm afraid you might not be able to get any information. "

Shangguan Tianhua nodded slightly, sighing to himself. This Lin Yi kid was good at everything, but he seemed to have a lot of fiancés!

In fact, Shangguan Tianhua's knowledge was still limited. If he had known more about it, he would have been amazed!

Chapter 7724 The Mysterious Starfield Of The East Continent

"The people from the East continent who took Chu Mengyao away didn't come from the normal yellow or Mystic seas, but from the mysterious East continent! That's the most mysterious place in the East continent. I've only heard of it, but I've never been there. "

Shangguan Tianhua's expression was solemn, as if this mysterious Starfield was something extraordinary at the mention of it. "I heard that the mysterious Starfield in the East continent has more complete social rules than the other seas. The people there are all extremely powerful. I only knew about this place when I was studying in the East continent and heard about it from my fellow disciples."

"Pavilion master, you said that the mysterious Starfield is so mysterious. How can we be sure that the person who took Chu Mengyao away is from that mysterious Starfield?"

Lin Yi was getting anxious-putting aside how he was going to find Mengyao, was she really in that place?

What if the person from the East Province was a fake?

"Of course I'm sure, because there are two people here this time, one is from the mysterious Starfield, and the other is the fellow disciple I just mentioned!"

Shangguan Tianhua waved his hand at Lin Yi, telling him to calm down. "This old man's fellow disciple has outstanding strength, a straight personality, and is a person who can be trusted! The family behind him is inextricably connected with the mysterious star area. It won't be a problem for him to come here with the people from the mysterious star area!"

"Pavilion master, may I ask who this fellow disciple of yours is?"

Lin Yi relaxed a little. If he could find this person, he could find Chu Mengyao. As long as the clues weren't broken!

"I'm sorry! His family is a bit mysterious, and this matter involves his family and the mysterious Starfield power behind them, so he asked me to keep his identity a secret ..."

Shangguan Tianhua looked at Lin Yi apologetically, "But don't worry, Chu Mengyao will be fine if she goes with him. I can guarantee it!"

Lin Yi rubbed his forehead-that was as good as nothing!

If something really happened to Mengyao, would he call Shangguan Tianhua to pay with his life?

"Pavilion master, I don't understand. Why would someone from this mysterious Starfield bring Chu Mengyao to the East continent?"

The mysterious Starfield was so mysterious, coming all the way to the North Island to take Chu Mengyao away, was he bored to death?

Shangguan Tianhua smiled, not avoiding the question. ""According to my fellow disciple, they've come out to travel around the Sky Class Island because there's been some unusual activity in their family's ancestral hall, which matches some kind of hint passed down from generation to generation. They're looking for someone extremely important to their family,"

"Chu Mengyao is the one they're looking for! Although this old man doesn't know how they were certain, this matter shouldn't be a problem!"

"Pavilion master, although they are your fellow disciples, they took her away just like that. Didn't the three great pavilions step in?"

"Naturally not! Even if they're from the mysterious Starfield, it's impossible for them to take anyone away from the North Island without my permission!"

Shangguan Tianhua laughed arrogantly, his words displaying a surprisingly domineering air.

Usually, he would deliberately hide his domineering aura, making people feel that he was really old and that his personality had become round and without edges!

In fact, when the sword was in the case, it only contained its sharpness. Once it was out of the case, it could still freeze nineteen continents with one sword light!

Now that he thought about the rumors about the rising Sky Pavilion's internal strife, he found it ridiculous. As long as Shangguan Tianhua was there, the rising Sky Pavilion would not be in chaos, and the three great pavilions would be as stable as Mount Tai!

In Shangguan Tianhua's eyes, those so-called factional disputes were probably just child's play. As long as they did not go overboard, he would let them do as they pleased!

These thoughts flashed through Lin Yi's mind as he continued to listen to Shangguan Tianhua. "They wanted to take Chu Mengyao away, but they asked for my permission first. First of all, they promised Chu Mengyao that she wouldn't be in any danger, and that there would only be great benefits if she followed them to the mysterious Starfield!"

"Secondly, they promised that if Chu Mengyao wanted to come back to the North Island, they wouldn't stop her and would even arrange for someone to escort her! I believe these two points! And the last and most important point is that Chu Mengyao is willing to go with them!"

Lin Yi didn't know what to say-there was nothing Shangguan Tianhua could do to stop him in a situation like this.

The East continent's cultivation environment was incomparable to the North Island. Chu Mengyao had already shown her talent, and if she could cultivate in the East continent, it would be ten times faster than in the North Island.

Whether it was for the sake of Mengyao's future or her own will, Shangguan Tianhua had no choice but to send her off to the mysterious Starfield in the East continent for the sake of her safety.

Shangguan Tianhua suddenly looked at Lin Yi and smiled, "I understand now. That Chu Mengyao girl is so determined to go to the East Province. She must have heard that you're there, so she wants to go find you, right?"

"But she doesn't know that the mysterious Starfield in the East continent and the mystic class Sea area you're in are not the same place at all. And you've left the East continent. It seems that good things always happen!"

As the legend of the new generation on the North Island, Lin Yi would definitely be the center of attention.

It was just that the news spread among the ordinary people of the North Island was a little outdated. It was still those people who studied at Feiyang college in the mystic division Sea area of the East continent.

Only people like Shangguan Tianhua would know everything about Lin Yi's situation on Sky Class Island.

Lin Yi shook his head with a bitter smile-the phrase "good things come to naught" was quite accurate!

"Pavilion master, if I want to go to the mysterious star area, how do I get there?"

"This old man doesn't know. I've already said that I've never been to the mysterious star field, I've only heard about it. I'm afraid you won't be able to get any useful information even if you go back to the mystic class Sea area."

Shangguan Tianhua gave him a helpless look. ""I told you it's a mysterious star area. If you can enter it as you please, what mystery would there be?"

Lin Yi thought about it and accepted the reality helplessly.

It seemed like he could only enter this Mysterious Galaxy by chance. He could only hope that Chu Mengyao was doing well there.

Maybe Mengyao wanted to come back after she couldn't find Lin Yi in the mysterious Starfield?

Didn't the people who took her away say that if Chu Mengyao wanted to come back, they wouldn't stop her!

At the very least, there was something to look forward to!

That was the end of Mengyao's conversation, and Shangguan Tianhua chatted with Lin Yi about the North Island for a while before he got up to leave.

As soon as he stepped out of the door, he saw Fernandes telling the story of his adventure in the nine-story glazed Pagoda among a group of disciples of the rising Sky Pavilion with an exaggerated expression.

"... At that time, that group of sea beasts rushed towards us. Good Lord, each of those sea beasts was a powerful existence at the original infant stage. I'm afraid that even if you all combined your strength, you wouldn't be able to kill one of them!"

"To be honest, we are a little panicked when we face such a situation! But the moment we think of Captain Lin Yi, we're filled with confidence and courage! The captain is our anchor!"

Chapter 7725 King Of Junk Forging

"As long as the captain takes action, a group of original infant stage sea beasts is nothing. With a casual glance, they will all be turned into ashes! But we can't just let Captain deal with any Tom, Dick, or Harry, don't you think so?"

"So, I stepped forward and stopped our Captain righteously. I told him not to move and that we could handle these small fries! We also need some actual combat to train our combat power!"

"The captain thought so and patted me on the shoulder, pleased. He said, 'Fernandes, you're a good man! Then I'll leave it to you, go and kill them! I felt the captain's trust and felt my strength increase. I went up and gave him a bunch of advice without anyone's help. I took care of it all by myself ... Captain!"

The disciples of the rising Sky Pavilion were entranced by the story, and the last twist almost broke their waists. What the hell?

You just went up and gave a bunch of advice, how did you manage to settle your Captain? Shouldn't they be sea beasts?

All the faces were dumbfounded!

Then, they saw Fernandes jump up and waddle his way out of the crowd. Only then did they realize that the last captain wasn't the captain in the story, but Lin Yi!

'F * ck!'

If you're telling a story, then tell it properly. Why the hell did you greet someone in the middle of your story?

But these disciples weren't in the mood for that-they quickly greeted Lin Yi with respect.

"Greetings, senior brother Lin!"

"Senior brother Lin is indeed the legend of our North island's new generation! The things I've experienced can be said to be magnificent and soul-stirring!"

"I really want to be like brother Fernandes and follow senior brother Lin ..."

"Me too, me too! I want to follow senior brother Lin!"

Aiyo, damn! Why are there so many people who want to snatch the position of the senior leg hair!

Fernandes scratched the back of his head. He felt that the competition was fierce, and he had to keep working hard to improve his professional quality!

There was more! Didn't you guys just say that you wanted to go on an adventure with Fernandes? why did you change your mind when you saw your Captain?

Although the captain was a little handsome and his strength was also a little high, couldn't he be a man of his word? Shouldn't everyone keep their promises when they're out in the world?

Lin Yi smiled and cupped his hands at the disciples. "Thank you for your love, junior brothers. For now, everyone should cultivate well. If there is an opportunity in the future, I will definitely cooperate with you! I still have things to do today, so I'll take my leave first!"

"Did you hear that? Our Captain said that there will be opportunities in the future. You can sign up with me first, and you will have priority in choosing ..."

Fernandes thought to himself, "you guys are fence sitters. When I, Fernandes, have written down your names, I will never give you a chance in the future!"

The disciples did not know what Fernandes was thinking. They all thought that he was a good man and planned to sign up.

Lin Yi glared at Fernandes, annoyed and amused at the same time.

"Fernandes, stop it! We still have important things to do!"

With that, Lin Yi nodded to the disciples and left the pavilion.

The disciples didn't dare block Lin Yi's way-they all stepped aside and watched the two leave with respect!

Fernandes followed behind Lin Yi. He wanted to say something, but he felt like he was going against his captain's principle of keeping a low profile. He blinked his eyes and held back his words. Lin Yi ignored him and continued walking.

He didn't plan to come back to the North Island this time. His main goal was to find Chu Mengyao, but he missed her again!

However, since he was back, he might as well go and see how the others were doing.

Lin Yi thought about it and decided to go find the king of junk first. The news of his return should be spreading by now, and if he went to the pavilion now, not everyone would know, so it would be hard for them to see him immediately.

He would first look for the king of junk and give him some time to spread the news. By the time he returned to the GreenCloud Pavilion, they should be able to gather together.

This way, he could save a lot of time. Lin Yi really didn't have enough time now. If only the clones of the thousand changes of wood and forest could stay there forever! That would save him a lot of trouble!

Lin Yi brought Fernandes to the crafting pool where the king of junk made his weapons. The mountain path was the same as before, but the fire in the pool was boiling!

"Boss Lin Yi! You're back!"

The king of junk was at the edge of the pool, and his eyes lit up as he saw Lin Yi, ""You came just in time! I was just thinking about how to contact you!"

"Long time no see! Is the weapon finally finished?"

Lin Yi smiled and patted the guy's shoulder. "Let me introduce you. This is Fernandes, my new team member. This is Wang lanpo. People who are familiar with him call him the king of junk. He is a master of equipment refining!"

"It's an honor to meet you!"

The king of junk cupped his hands at Fernandes perfunctorily. All he could see now was the equipment-refining pool. It was already very respectful of him to say hello to Fernandes!

She ignored Fernandes and pulled Lin Yi to the side of the crafting pool. "Let's not talk about other things first, hurry up and take a look!"

Fernandes couldn't help but roll his eyes. I, Fernandes, have just come to the Sky Class Island. What are you looking forward to?

However, he also knew that those professional technical talents had some quirks, so he didn't pay much attention to them. Not to mention that they were the captain's underlings, they were all his own people!

"Boss Lin Yi, did you see that? The weapon's embryo has been completed, and you've come back just in time. If you hadn't come back, I could only try my best to delay the time to take it out of the furnace. If I really can't delay it, I can only forge it myself!"

"It's no problem for you to shape it! Why must I come back? Do you need my help?"

Lin Yi didn't think it was a good idea-he didn't really care much about the weapon since he didn't really use it in combat.

It wasn't until he arrived at the sub-Island and obtained the demonic devouring sword that he could be considered to have used the sword technique several times!

Therefore, it didn't matter what the king of junk made the weapon into. If it could be used, it would be used. If it couldn't be used, there would always be someone who could use it. After all, he had so many underlings!

"I do need your cooperation, boss Lin Yi. During the process of forging, if you can continuously inject your spirit sense into the weapon, you can form a weapon spirit in the new weapon!"

"A divine weapon with an Artifact Spirit is a true divine weapon, while a weapon without an Artifact Spirit can only be called a weapon! Without you, boss, I can only forge a powerful weapon, that's all!"

The king of junk quickly explained and added, ""This is a technique that I recently comprehended from an ancient book. If I succeed, this sculpture will not only possess terrifying power, it will also possess terrifying growth! He definitely has endless potential!"

Chapter 7726 Forging A Hammer

"Boss Lin Yi, when you get stronger and your spirit gets stronger, the weapon's spirit will get stronger as well, and it'll transform the weapon itself. This will be your personal weapon, and you'll feel like a fish in water when you use it!"

"So powerful! Then I really have to be there!"

Lin Yi couldn't help but exclaim-this weapon sounded really cool!

He'd thought that since he couldn't find Chu Mengyao, this trip back to the North Island would only be considered a gathering trip. He didn't expect to have such a big surprise!

Lin Yi understood what the king of junk didn't say-if he didn't come back, the embryo wouldn't be able to stay in the pool anymore, and he'd have to make weapons. He wouldn't be able to merge his spirit sense into the weapon spirit.

First, the king's spirit was too weak to do this. Second, this was Lin Yi's weapon. Other than Lin Yi, the king didn't allow anyone else's spirit to enter it. The weapon that was made would have nothing to do with Lin Yi!

It'd be better if it was a weapon without a spirit than a weapon with a spirit formed by someone else's consciousness!

"Boss Lin Yi, let's not waste any more time-let's start now! I've already finished all the preparations, I'm just waiting for you!"

The king of junk rubbed his hands in excitement. This might be the greatest work of his life, and he would never be able to surpass this peak in the future!

After all, Lin Yi had invested countless precious materials into this weapon. It was impossible to duplicate it!

"Right, boss Lin Yi, I forgot to mention that during the formation of a weapon spirit, the stronger the consciousness is, the stronger the weapon spirit will be, and it will have more potential! Therefore, when you fuse your divine sense with it, you must do your best and not hold back!"

"Merge as much divine sense as you have!"

"I understand!"

Lin Yi nodded slightly-the king of junk's words actually made him excited and excited!

Fernandes couldn't interrupt, so he blinked his eyes and looked at Lin Yi. Lin Yi turned to him and said, "Fernandes, help us guard the place. Don't let any random people come and disturb us!"

"I understand! Don't worry, Captain, I'll complete the mission!"

Fernández was very happy. The captain still trusts me at such a critical time!

The position of senior leg hair was stable!

"It's starting!"

The king of junk growled and injected his genuine Qi into the equipment-refining pool. The flames in the pool suddenly rose, and a round metal ball the size of two basketballs slowly rose into the air, floating in the flames and spinning.

Lin Yi opened his eyes and sent his powerful spirit sense into the metal ball. The metal ball instantly lit up, and even the flames couldn't stop it.

"Very good! Boss Lin Yi, maintain this input speed, make sure it's stable!"

The king of junk was extremely excited. He knew that Lin Yi's spirit sense was strong, but he didn't expect it to be this strong.

In front of Lin Yi's spirit sense, he was like an ant looking at the endless ocean. He couldn't even guess the edge and depth of the ocean!

With such a powerful divine sense, how terrifying would the artifact Spirit be?

Lin Yi didn't say anything, only nodding slightly to show that he understood. He continued to steadily send his spirit sense into it.

At the same time, there was a strange feeling in his heart, as if he was witnessing the birth of a new life!

The nine story Pagoda had a spirit as well, but it was formed from the sea serpent King's essence spirit. Lin Yi had tamed it, but he didn't feel much.

It was completely different this time, and as the process went deeper, Lin Yi couldn't help but feel touched!

Time passed slowly, and the input of spiritual sense was about to end. The weapon spirit in the embryo was also basically formed.

Lin Yi could feel the connection between their minds, and he could also feel the joy of the weapon spirit being born!

"Boss Lin Yi, you can start shaping the weapon now!" King of junk suddenly said. What weapon do you want? How about we forge a peerless godly sword?"

"Our Captain has a sword. Let's forge a hammer!"

Fernandes subconsciously replied. He was a European who didn't understand Chinese in the past, but now he could speak Chinese so fluently!

Forging a hammer ... He didn't want the king of junk to forge a hammer!

The king of junk was stunned. He thought Fernandes was talking about forging a hammer!

He was wondering why Boss Lin Yi liked hammers-did they look strong?

Since it was from someone close to boss Lin Yi, perhaps they discussed it before?

Although the king of junk felt a little strange, he did not care too much. So be it if it was just a hammer. Forging was easy!

Without a word, the king of junk activated his true Qi and began to shape the embryo!

Lin Yi was too absorbed in his interaction with the new weapon spirit to pay attention to the conversation between the two ... If that was a conversation!

By the time Lin Yi realized something was wrong, the king of junk was already done. It was basically just a thought from him, and there was no way to stop it!

"Come out of the furnace!"

The king of junk shouted, and the completed hammer flew into the air and fell into the spirit-refined black water that had been prepared!

A dense mist instantly formed and filled the entire cave.

Lin Yi waved his hand and used his pure Qi to sweep the water away. What came into view was a huge black Hammer.

It wasn't the type of sledgehammers that were described in Yanyi novels, but the type that used a sledgehammer to smash rocks!

Oh my God!

The usually calm Lin Yi couldn't help but want to curse. He wanted to vomit blood.

You've spent so much effort, so much time, so many precious materials, and integrated all the divine sense of the consummate level of the sea splitting realm into it, but you've made me a big hammer!

There was no need for a hammer to split open a mountain, just a punch would do!

The king of junk looked at the hammer with a relieved expression and nodded with a smile. "Not bad, not bad. Look at this streamlined design, it's quite exquisite!"

Lin Yi didn't know what to say-if it was a four-strength, eight-sledgehammer type, at least it'd look powerful and overbearing, but this hammer ... And it had a streamlined shape!

Fernandes had an innocent look on his face. He felt that there was something wrong with the captain's little brother's brain. He had already cultivated to this level, yet he still had the face to be smug?

Lin Yi raised his hand, and the hammer flew into his hand. The feeling of blood and soul connection arose spontaneously, and at the same time, there was a strong sense of power!

What a good hammer!

.....It was a little weird, but Lin Yi was impressed. It was a good weapon!

It's just that this style ... I really can't agree with it!

"Actually, I really want a saber. Can I change it?"

Lin Yi asked, hoping that he'd be lucky. This was just out of the oven, perhaps he could still save it!

As for whether it was a knife or not, it didn't matter. It was just a casual remark. Even if it was changed to a mighty hammer instead of this hammer shape, it would be good!

Chapter 7727 Hammer, Your Head

"Ah? Boss Lin Yi, do you want a blade? I thought you and Fernandes had discussed about the hammer!"

The king of junk was slightly surprised. Why did he change such a good hammer?

Fernandes continued to put on an innocent look. What the hell!

Do you even know what a hammer means? If you don't understand, why don't you refine a hammer!

Well, Fernandes felt that he could pass the most advanced Chinese test, but the king of trash in front of him, tsk, tsk, tsk, poor!

The contempt of a Lord from Fernandes!

Unfortunately, the king of junk completely ignored him.

"I can't change it now! Unless it was remade! But if that's the case, the new artifact Spirit will be destroyed, and the grade of the materials will be greatly reduced. It's unlikely that it'll be able to reach its current level!"

The king of junk said as a matter of fact.

If Lin Yi really wanted to reforge it, he'd listen to him, of course. It didn't matter if it took a few years, but it'd be a pity if this peak-level work was destroyed just like that!

"Then forget it! Let's do this!"

Lin Yi casually swung the hammer a few times, and it was quite handy!

A violent air current appeared out of thin air in this space. The king of junk was merely touched by the aftershock, and his body flew up involuntarily.

Fernandes was much stronger than the king of junk, so he managed to maintain his balance, but he was still shocked by the power of the hammer!

"Not bad!"

Lin Yi activated the thousand changes of wood and forest, sending a clone to grab the king of junk while his real body swung the hammer a few more times, a satisfied look on his face.

"It's really powerful. With one hammer strike, it can split mountains and seas!"

Compared to this kind of amazing power, a mere flaw in the design could be completely ignored!

"Boss Lin Yi, I was right, wasn't I? this is a legendary weapon! In the future, when we grow up together with boss, we are destined to leave our names in history and be remembered for all eternity!"

The king of junk did not care about the fact that he was blown away. His face was red with excitement.

The greatest achievement of an armament master was to have his work shake the world!

Now, this goal would be realized with Lin Yi!

Fernandes blinked and suddenly put on a smile. He went to the king of junk and said, ""My dear useless brother ... Oh, I'm sorry, it should be brother Wang. You see, we're the closest people to Captain Lin Yi, shouldn't we be close too?"

The king of junk was taken aback. There seemed to be nothing wrong with that, so he nodded subconsciously!

"I knew I didn't misjudge you! We're brothers too. It's only right for brothers to help each other, right? If you need any help, I, fernÃ¡ndez, will not hesitate to help you!"

Fernandes patted his chest hard in a heroic and forthright manner!

The king of junk did not understand what Fernandes meant, so he could only continue to nod. ""You're right, but I don't need your help for the time being. "

Fernandes scratched his head. Why didn't he follow the rules?

At this time, shouldn't you be saying, "same to you, if you need any help, I, King of junk, will also do my best to help you" or something like that?

I don't need any help for the time being ... What the hell?

Forget it, I'll just take the initiative to mention it!

In fact, Fernandes was a little tempted after seeing the power of the hammer.

To put it bluntly, they were just jealous and envious, so they also wanted to get a powerful weapon.

"Brother Wang, I have a large saber here. Can you help me forge it and increase its power?"

Fernandes took out his big podao from his storage bag, not forgetting to show off the gem on the handle. ""You see, my blade is bright and resplendent, but it also has a low-key and luxurious temperament. It's simply perfect. It's just that it's lacking in power and can't match its own temperament. "

"If you can help me increase the power, I, Fernandes, will be very grateful! In the future, if you have any orders, I'll definitely obey!"

Fernandes was very calculative-this was Captain Lin Yi's follower, after all, so if something really happened, his Captain would definitely help.

As a veteran leg hair, he naturally did what he did to his thigh.

Therefore, this kind of promise was equivalent to not saying anything! It's a profit without a loss!

"You're welcome!"

The king of junk did not think much of it. His eyes lit up when he saw the big podao.

When an excellent artifact refiner encountered an excellent object, he would naturally have an interest in researching it.

After giving a perfunctory reply to Fernandes, the king of junk took the big podao seriously and studied it carefully.

Lin Yi knew that Fernandes placed great importance on the sword-it'd be a good thing if it could really improve a little, so he didn't rush him. He put away the hammer and watched quietly.

"It's a good blade! It's just that there are too many useless decorations!"

The king of junk nodded and then shook his head, disdaining the gems embedded in the hilt. ""It's not difficult to increase its power, but it's already quite good. I can only add some materials to increase it by one grade."

"If we want to compare it to boss Lin Yi's hammer, we'll need to find higher grade materials and remake it, spending a few years ... Maybe we'll be able to reach 70% of boss's hammer!"

The king of junk said as he calculated.

The hammer was his best work so far, and with Lin Yi's help, it was impossible for him to make another weapon of the same power at this stage!

In the future, when his strength and refining ability were both improved and he found more precious materials, he might be able to reach another peak, but it would definitely not be Fernandes 'great podao.

The corner of Fernandes 'mouth twitched. A few years? Sir system had only hugged the captain's thigh for a few days, and it had become countless times more powerful. Would it still need this knife in a few years?

"It's good enough to just raise it by one grade! I wonder if it's too much trouble?"

Fernandes laughed dryly. If it was troublesome, he could only forget about it. After all, the captain had a lot of things to do and could not be delayed.

"It's no trouble at all, I have all the materials here, I prepared them for boss Lin Yi before. "

Rag King turned to Lin Yi and explained, "because my craft room's business is pretty good. Many people come to me for crafting, so I have quite a lot of materials. I've used all that I can use, and the rest are useless. But I can use this blade."

"It's been hard on you these past few years!"

Lin Yi came over and patted his shoulder, sighing. "There's no need for pleasantries between us, I'll remember it all!"

"Boss Lin Yi, what are you saying! I ..."

The king of junk did not know how to express his feelings, but he felt that it was all worth it!

Chapter 7728 Gathering Of Followers

"Let's talk about Fernandes's big podao. It won't take too long to upgrade it by one grade. There's still some Spirit Black water left for quenching. I'll start now, and I should be able to finish it in four hours."

When the hammer came out of the furnace, more than half of the spirit Black water prepared by the king of junk had evaporated, and what was left was barely enough.

"Do you need my help?"

Lin Yi had helped out a lot before, and that was why he asked. Trash King shook his head and rejected.

"Boss, you don't have to trouble yourself. It's just a small matter, but Fernandes needs to cooperate."

The king of junk turned the big podao upside down and showed the two of them a sapphire at the top of the hilt. "Most of the gemstones embedded in this saber are just decorations. They have no value and there's no need to keep them. Only this one is different."

Fernandes thought to himself, "I'm only interested in those gemstones. If I had removed the gemstones, I wouldn't have chosen this sword!"

"What's the difference with this one?"

Lin Yi had seen Fernandes' big podao before—he didn't look too closely, but he shouldn't have missed anything valuable.

But he'd thought that the gems were all the same—they were just decorations!

"It doesn't look any different on the surface, but it's a gem that can contain divine sense. Later, during the upgrade process, Fernandes will inject his divine sense into it. Although it can't form a weapon spirit, it can improve the power of the big podao."

"If I can continuously send in my divine sense every day, after a period of time, there might be a small chance of forming an Artifact Spirit!"

Fernandes was overjoyed. As expected, a gem that Sir system had taken a fancy to was a treasure! The captain's sledgehammer had a weapon spirit, so there was no need to mention its power!

If his big podao could also have a weapon spirit, wouldn't it be awesome? I won't have to envy captain's sledgehammer anymore!

"Brother Wang, I can continuously input my divine sense every day. How long is the period of time you mentioned? What's the probability of a small portion forming an Artifact Spirit?"

Fernandes was really tempted, so he couldn't wait to ask.

The king of junk tilted his head and made an estimation, then nodded. ""I'll input my divine sense for four hours a day. This will last for about sixty years, which is about sixty years."

"After sixty years, there is a one in a thousand chance that your great podao will form a weapon spirit!"

The smile on Fernandes 'face suddenly froze. Sixty years! One in a thousand?

Forget it, just pretend I didn't ask!

Fernandes was already in his thirties this year, and he would be dead in another sixty years!

Of course, he didn't know that cultivators at the beginning of the mountain had a very, very long life.

"If there's no problem, let's start!"

The king of junk did not care about Fernandes' feelings. In his opinion, it was already good enough to have such a chance of forming a weapon spirit.

Of course, if the king of junk's strength and skills were greatly improved in the future, and he happened to find an ownerless weapon spirit, he should be able to force it in.

This situation was a bit similar to the sea serpent King's nine-story glazed Pagoda, but the effect was slightly less than the original Artifact Spirit!

Fernandes was depressed for a moment, but he let it go. Anyway, it was good enough as long as he could improve the power of the big podao. He would earn it for free, and he would not think it was too little.

The king of junk did what he said. He put the big podao into the weapon-refining pool, took out the materials, and began to make the big podao to improve its grade.

This time, it was Lin Yi's turn to protect him. The whole process was unexpectedly smooth, and fernández's cooperation was flawless.

It was estimated that it would be completed in four hours, but in less than two hours, the big podao was out of the furnace!

The remaining spirit-refined Mystic Water was all used up, and the great podao, which had completed the last quenching, revealed its true appearance after rebirth.

The blade was still extremely domineering, but the original rough lines were much rounder, with some of the streamline style that the king of junk liked.

The gemstones on the hilt were still there, not taken away by the king of junk. It could not be helped, as Fernandes had repeatedly mentioned during the refining process that the gemstones must not be damaged.

The raggle almost made the king of junk want to quit his job.

Perhaps this was also one of the reasons why he had accelerated from four hours to less than two hours.

The king of junk couldn't stand Fernandes 'nagging anymore, so he gritted his teeth and fought hard, hoping to finish the job as soon as possible!

"Good blade! Good blade!"

Fernández waved his big podao with a big smile on his face. ""Brother Wang, well done! I, Fernandes, will remember your kindness. If you need anything in the future, just say the word!"

Lin Yi nodded to himself. The big Pudao had indeed improved a lot. If the old one was only suitable for Fernandes during the mountain opening stage, then the new one would be as good as the earth opening stage.

"It's good that you're satisfied!"

The king of junk pursed his lips. He almost wanted to say, "just shut up!"

Lin Yi walked up to the king of junk and handed him a storage bag. "Here are some of the spoils of war that I've collected. Take a look and see if you can use them. There are also some cultivation techniques and medicinal pills. Your strength has limited the upper limit of forging weapons, so you have to cultivate properly."

"Thank you, boss Lin Yi!"

The king of junk didn't stand on ceremony with Lin Yi and accepted the bag. "Right now, I do feel that my strength is limited. After I improve, I might be able to break through the current bottleneck in forging."

"The most important thing inside is the cultivation method for the cultivation of the spiritual awareness. You must cultivate it well, it will be of great benefit to you!"

Lin Yi could level up the king directly, but the king didn't need it urgently. He didn't need to force it.

If he did that, he would only obtain a superficial level of strength, which was far from the stable Foundation that he had cultivated step by step. It would not be of much help to his forging.

Lin Yi hoped that the king of junk could improve his senses and Qi at the same time. That way, with his talent in refining, he would definitely become a Grandmaster in the future!

The king of junk understood Lin Yi's intentions and did as he was told.

After that, Lin Yi and Fernandes left the craft pool with the king of junk and headed to the forge.

Lin Yi said that he was going to the Qingyun Pavilion to find someone else, but the trash King said that it was more convenient to go to the market. The others would probably go to the forge Pavilion after hearing the news.

It was clear that after Lin Yi left the North Island, these brothers who used to be by Lin Yi's side still kept in touch in private and formed a certain tacit understanding.

As expected, when the three returned to the craft room, the people from the pavilion were already there.

Lu bianren, bitter joy, Xiao ran, Qiao hongcai, li Zhengming, and the others were all waiting for Lin Yi in the forge.

"Hahaha, I knew you'd come back to find the king of junk first. It's just as I expected!"

"Too bad these guys have learned their lesson-no one's willing to bet with me!" Lu bianren laughed as he welcomed Lin Yi.

Chapter 7729 Here To Catch People

"Only a ghost would be willing to fight a bet that's bound to lose!"

Qiao hongcai scolded with a smile as he walked to Lin Yi and bowed."Boss Lin Yi, you're back!"

"Boss Lin Yi!"

Lee Zheng Ming also stepped forward and bowed with his fists cupped. Although he did not say much, his expression was extremely respectful.

Lin Yi greeted everyone and introduced Fernandes to them. He then asked li Zhengming in a low voice,"Have you settled your matter?"

He was asking about what happened at the qiushui villa-li Zhengming had invited Lin Yi to the ruins, but he'd rejected.

"It's all settled. I've also gained a lot. This trip was not in vain!"

It was just a simple sentence, but the two understood each other. It seemed that li Zhengming had gained a lot of benefits from the ruins, and Lin Yi was relieved.

"Boss Lin Yi, we've booked a table at the restaurant next door, shall we go eat now?"

"Alright, let's talk while we eat! I haven't seen everyone for a long time, and I really miss you! Let's get drunk today!"

Lin Yi led the way out of the building, and the group entered the room of the restaurant next door. The food and wine were already prepared, and they could start eating once they were seated.

As they chatted about recent events, Lin Yi found out that everyone here now had an important position in the pavilion. They could be said to be the backbone of the new generation of the pavilion!

Everyone else was used to calling them Lin Yi's faction, and they didn't deny it, deciding to call themselves Lin Yi 's.

Although it was still far from being able to completely control the GreenCloud Pavilion, it was still an influential force in the GreenCloud Pavilion.

Apart from the GreenCloud Pavilion, the most popular topic was the conflict between the two factions in the rising Sky Pavilion.

Everyone talked about what they'd seen and heard, letting Lin Yi know more about the conflict between the Shangguan and Xu families. It was much more detailed and reliable than the rumors outside.

But Lin Yi didn't really mind-with Shangguan Tianhua around, all of this was just a small fight, nothing big.

"Everyone's fine. I'm relieved!"

After a few rounds of drinks and five dishes, Lin Yi finished the wine in his glass and couldn't help but sigh."Now that I think back to the time when we first entered the welcoming new pavilion, it really felt like yesterday. Everything was still vivid in my mind. I never thought that several years would have passed in the blink of an eye, and everyone has become an important figure in the GreenCloud Pavilion."

"Hey, who's the important person? The most important person in the pavilion is you, boss Lin Yi. You don't know how many young disciples see you as their idol. "

Qiao hongcai laughed and looked like he was telling the truth,""The legend of the new generation of the North Island is not something to be said casually! The last legend was Hall Master Gongyang Jie, but in terms of popularity, he's far from you, boss Lin Yi!"

Before he could finish his sentence, a sneer came from outside the room, followed by a cold voice, ""The new generation of legends has returned to the North Island. It's my fault for not coming to welcome them!"

As he spoke, the door to the private room was pushed open. The cool-looking Gongyang Jie stepped in, and the temperature in the room seemed to drop by a lot.

Qiao hongcai was so scared that he quivered. There was really no need to say anything behind someone's back. He would be caught the moment he turned around!

Gongyang Jie of the law enforcement Hall was a figure that everyone on the North Island was afraid of.

What he said just now, although it was the truth, seemed to have offended someone!

He wouldn't be captured and sent to the law enforcement Hall, right?

Qiao hongcai was secretly worried when he saw Gongyang Jie's cold gaze sweep across the room. ""Important figures of the GreenCloud Pavilion, now is not the time for you to take a break. Is it appropriate for you all to ignore your proper business and gather in a restaurant to eat and drink?"

Everyone was silent.

Everyone knew in their hearts whether this matter was appropriate or not. It was just that no one usually cared about it, and the law enforcement Hall would not pay attention to such a small matter!

He didn't expect the master of the law enforcement Hall, Gongyang Jie, to say this in person. It was a little serious!

"Hall Master Gongyang, Lin Yi rarely comes back, and we just wanted to hold a banquet for him, it wasn't intentional ... Plus, we're only here after we're done with our work, we won't delay anything."

Lu bianren was the most experienced and had some status in the inner sect of the GreenCloud Pavilion. At this moment, he could only brace himself to come forward and negotiate with Gongyang Jie.

Unfortunately, Gongyang Jie didn't give Lu bianren any face at all. Before Lu bianren could finish, Gongyang Jie interrupted him, "How you do your work has nothing to do with me. I only care about your public violations!"

"The few of you, follow me back to the law enforcement Hall. Don't try to resist, or you will only be further punished!"

Lin Yi couldn't stand it anymore. He stood up and saluted to Gongyang Jie, "Long time no see, Hall Master Gongyang! What happened today had nothing to do with them. It was all because of me. If anything happens, I'm willing to take responsibility!"

"Bear all the responsibility? Lin Yi, are you threatening me?"

Gongyang Jie glanced at Lin Yi, a cold smile on his face. "The new legend of the North Island, what a name. In front of others, you might have some face, but in front of me, Gongyang Jie, your face doesn't matter!"

"What are you saying? Our Captain is only being polite to you because he wants to give you face. Do you really think you're that great?"

Fernandes exploded on the spot. He pulled out his big podao and pointed it at Gongyang Jie, ""Do you believe that I, Fernandes, will cut you into eight pieces?"

The atmosphere was obviously very serious and somber, but fern andez's words successfully made everyone fall into deep thought ... How could a knife cut a person into eight pieces?

It was so difficult!

Lin Yi shook his head and pulled Fernandes back from his thoughts. He also pulled Fernandes back to his side.

"Do you think Hall Master Gongyang is someone you can scold? Go to the side!"

Lin Yi glared at Fernandes-he was one of the legends of the North Island, after all, and he wasn't someone a half-assed mountain-opening like Lin Yi could mess with.

If Gongyang Jie really wanted to kill him, he could crush him with his pinky finger many times over.

"Alright!"

Fernandes was glad to hear that. He put away his blade and backed off to the side immediately.

"I'm sorry, my friend is a little impulsive. Please don't take offense, Hall Master Gongyang!"

Lin Yi cupped his hands as he thought about it. He had never been able to figure out Gongyang Jie's strength.

When Lin Yi was in the Foundation Stage, he thought that Gongyang Jie was in the nascent Soul Stage, but when he reached the xuansheng stage, he thought that Gongyang Jie might be in the earth stage.

Now that Lin Yi's essence spirit was in the great circle of the sea-splitting realm, he suddenly realized that he still couldn't see through Gongyang Jie's strength!

Interesting!

Lin Yi couldn't help but feel out Gongyang Jie's background. What happened today gave him an excuse!

"Hall Master Gongyang, today's incident started because of me, Lin Yi. It's up to you if you want to give me face, but I have to stand up for you! How about this, I'll ask Hall Master Gongyang for some advice. If I'm lucky enough to win, we'll forget what happened today. "

Lin Yi had a faint smile on his face. If Gongyang Jie didn't agree, he wouldn't let any of them leave today. He would force Gongyang Jie to do it.

Chapter 7730 Battle Between Two Generations Of Legends

"If I lose, I'll be at your disposal, and my brothers will have no complaints. I wonder if Hall Master Gongyang is willing to give me this chance?"

Gongyang Jie looked at Lin Yi with a half-smile on his face. He thought that Lin Yi would reject him, but Lin Yi nodded without hesitation. "Yes! You can make your move!"

How impressive was the new legend of the North Island?

Lin Yi blinked-he didn't think Gongyang Jie would be so straightforward. He smiled and nodded, "Thank you, Hall Master Gongyang. Sorry for the offense!"

His body swayed slightly and left a perfect afterimage on the spot. His real body appeared behind Gongyang Jie without a sound!

Three appearances of the cloud Dragon!

Wild fire Eight Trigram palm!

Lin Yi used his movement technique to sneak attack Gongyang Jie from behind. He saw that Gongyang Jie didn't move at all when the wild fire Eight Trigrams palm was about to land on his back. Lin Yi felt a little weird.

The three appearances of Cloud Dragon continued!

Lin Yi's real body instantly left the spot, but the second shadow maintained its attacking posture and passed through Gongyang Jie's back!

It wasn't strange for an afterimage to pass through a physical body, but in the eyes of the people around them, Lin Yi's afterimage was a physical body, while Gongyang Jie's body was an afterimage!

"Three appearances of cloud and Dragon, I know it too!"

Gongyang Jie's calm voice sounded in Lin Yi's ears, shocking him.

The three appearances of Cloud Dragon was a movement skill Lin Yi learned in the ancient martial world, and he used to use it with ease. He didn't expect Gongyang Jie to know it as well, and it seemed like he was even better at it!

However, this was not surprising. After all, the three appearances of Cloud Dragon was not a profound martial technique. Powerful experts could easily display it after understanding the principle.

Gongyang Jie was obviously a powerful opponent!

Lin Yi's figure changed again. As he left his original spot, he activated the thousand changes of wood forest and created five clones!

This was no longer a Phantom image of the cloud Dragon's three appearances, but a real clone!

The six of them, including Lin Yi himself, formed a simple battle formation, surrounding Gongyang Jie in the center.

Everyone knew the three appearances of cloud and Dragon, and they were all Masters. There was no point in using it again, so Lin Yi gave up on the idea of moving and decided to use a formation to surround them.

"I don't know how to clone myself! Your battle formation is not bad, but it's a pity that your clone's greatest weakness is that it's too weak!"

Gongyang Jie didn't panic at all. He calmly commented a few words and suddenly exerted force on his feet. He instantly appeared on the weak points that were exposed during the operation of the battle formation.

If all of Lin Yi's clones had the strength of the real Lin Yi, there wouldn't be such a flaw. If Gongyang Jie wasn't as strong as Lin Yi, he wouldn't be able to catch the flaw even if he found it!

However, Gongyang Jie was very strong this time!

Gongyang Jie pointed his finger at the opening, and the formation stopped for a second. One of Lin Yi's clones exploded.

With one less clone, the battle formation fell apart. Gongyang Jie flicked his fingers and the remaining four clones were all destroyed!

"Lin Yi, you're the new legend of the North Island, is this all you've got? It's gaudy and useless!"

Gongyang Jie's face was filled with mockery and disappointment. "Next, it's my turn to attack!"

Before he could finish his sentence, Lin Yi felt the space around him freeze. He had to use more than ten times his strength to move, just to return to normal.

Gongyang Jie, on the other hand, was still relaxed. He raised his palm and flicked his finger at Lin Yi.

Countless sharp finger forces whizzed towards him. Lin Yi's body tensed up, feeling that these attacks had exceeded the limits of his defense.

So strong!

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh. He knew that Gongyang Jie would be strong, but he didn't expect him to be this strong!

Gongyang Jie didn't seem to be using his full strength yet, but he was still able to completely suppress Lin Yi.

One had to know that Lin Yi was now a complete sea-splitting essence spirit body. If he used all his skills, he could even challenge a heaven-breaking master!

This was the territory of the three pavilions, and Lin Yi couldn't use any of his powerful moves to fight to the death, but Gongyang Jie was the same!

Everyone was just warming up, and Lin Yi was already completely suppressed. When it came to the real fight, how could Lin Yi have the confidence to win?

Although fernández could not understand how powerful Gongyang Jie was, he could see that his captain's thigh seemed to be suppressed!

Ever since they'd met Lin Yi, this was the first time they'd seen someone who could put Lin Yi at a disadvantage in a direct battle. It was terrifying!

"Just how powerful is this guy?"

Fernández could not help but feel a little scared when he thought of how he was about to cut Gongyang Jie into eight pieces with his big podao.

Fear!

If such a terrifying guy went over with the big podao, he would probably be cut into eight pieces by him.

Lin Yi heard Fernandes "mumbling and smiled bitterly to himself.

How powerful was Gongyang Jie?

Was there a need to ask? He was at least at the heaven breaking stage!

Lin Yi had always been invincible among his peers, and he was a powerful figure who could fight those of a higher realm. If Gongyang Jie was only at the complete sea-splitting realm, he would at most be on par with Lin Yi, but he would never have any advantage over Lin Yi.

"It's a surprise that you can block my attack! In that case, let's add a little more pressure!"

Gongyang Jie smiled nonchalantly and added, ""If you can't take it, you can choose to surrender! Don't even think about fighting to the death, because that will only lead to one result-the fish dies, but the net remains intact!"

"Hall Master Gongyang, you're talking too much today! Don't worry, I'll control my power and not make things difficult for you!"

Lin Yi was trying to tell Gongyang Jie that he wouldn't use his super-powerful skills.

If that happened, the three pavilions would probably suffer a destructive blow, and the North Island might even collapse.

After all, it was a battle between a cultivator at the consummate level of the sea shattering realm and a cultivator at the heaven breaking realm. It was not easy to withstand it!

Gongyang Jie smiled and didn't say anything. He flicked his fingers even faster.

And the feeling of the space around Lin Yi freezing more than doubled!

If Lin Yi wanted to move now, he had to use strength that was tens of times stronger than normal!

This was the power of the heaven breaking stage!

Lin Yi hmped softly. He was in trouble without using his trump card!

Then let's try the newly obtained divine weapon, the Suan ni great hammer!

With a thought, the hammer appeared in Lin Yi's hand, and the frozen space around him shook.

The steel-like concrete around the hammer began to crack and collapse!
