Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To Climb 'Life is a circle of happiness sadness, hard times and good times, if you're going through hard times, have faith that good times are on the way' ~ Unknown Set Three Years After The Second Epilogue..

Lacey's P.O.V It's been three years Three long years since my life changed forever when I married my best friend and the love of my life Logan Black after he'd stormed back into my life like a crazy and determined bat out of hell and claimed me as his

It's been three years since we welcomed our two beautiful children Joseph and Sophia into the world completing our amazing little family circle and it's also taken three long freaking years for Logan and I to finally have our perfect wedding day and now that it's almost here, I can't help but feel nervous When we had our first wedding three years ago, it was only a small ceremony at a registry office in London and there were only a handful of people in attendance but this time, our wedding will be even bigger and grander than our first and our guest list will be bigger and longer as well, so maybe that's why I'm feeling so nervous If you're wondering why it's taken us three long years to finally have the wedding of our dreams, well, let's just say that things weren't exactly a bed of roses for me after I'd had the twins, in fact, things were downright Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C awful for me After I had given birth to Joseph and Sophia, I was diagnosed with postpartum depression which left me in a really bad way for a very long time and I struggled every day to get back on my feet and become the old Lacey again

Even though I was receiving the best professional help out there and! had the full support of my husband and our families, every day felt like a battle which I was scared I would lose but I didn't and I was able to get back to my old self again and Logan was the main contributor to that happening The reason why I give him more credit than anyone else is because no matter what, Logan was always there and he never let up even on days when I could tell that he just wanted to lash out and scream at me so that he could vent all of his pent up anger, stress and frustration that was building up inside of him because of me but he never did, not once and he always remained in complete control and was super supportive of me during my recovery He always made sure to include me in everything he, our kids and our families were doing, even when I didn't want to be included and I just wanted to lock myself in our bedroom away from the world and lay in bed with the curtains drawn and listen to some Ed Sheeran or Lewis Capaldi so that I could wallow in my own self-importance and self-pity which is one of the things that I liked to do pretty much every day but Logan would stop me every single time he saw me sinking Logan knows just like everyone else who has suffered from mental health problems that one of the worst things you could ever do is wallow and get lost in the big, black hole that is your mind because it makes everything ten times worse for you and he wanted me to get better, not worse Logan was determined to get me back to normal again and he was the perfect man to help me because he knew exactly what to say and or do to make me happy, as well as make me laugh and smile but most importantly, he knew how to make me feel loved and cared for and he'd constantly reassure me and let me know how important I am to everyone around me My handsome and amazing husband has been my rock these past three years which may sound incredibly cliché but I don't care because to me, it's a perfect depiction of him and what he is to me, he's my big, strong unmoveable rock who has remained by my side through thick and thin, through all of the highs and lows and every single meltdown I had when I just couldn't take it anymore When I needed a punching bag to unleash all of my anger and frustration, he was there When I needed a journal to express all of my feelings and fears to him without any judgment, he was there When I needed a shoulder to cry on, he was there with open arms and a willing ear to listen to me, Logan had even attended some of my therapy appointments with me which was a huge contributing factor to us getting through this incredibly rough period in our relationship and getting us to where we are now It wasn't the easiest mountain for me to climb and there were definitely days which were harder than others but I finally got there with the help of my husband and our famiglia which has gotten a little bigger since we Yes, ladies and gentlemen, a year after I had given birth to Joseph and Sophia, I found out that I was once again pregnant which was probably very irresponsible of me because I already had a lot on my plate and I was going through a lot mentally and emotionally but in my defence, this pregnancy wasn't planned and it was purely accidental What happened was Logan wanted to spoil and treat the both of us because of all of the stress we were both under, so he arranged a surprise weekend away to Hawaii for just the two of us and it was during this trip where I fell pregnant again To be honest with you, I'm not surprised that I fell pregnant during this trip because it was such a relaxing trip for us with no work, no kids and no painful reminders where I felt like I was failing as a wife and a mother Logan and I had gone on several dates enjoying the different restaurants they have in Hawaii, as well as enjoying their sights, we also had a picnic on the beach and spent quite a bit of time in the spa but we spent most of our time in our villa making love to one another until the sun came up This weekend was such a breath of fresh air for us and we were so blissfully happy and relaxed and lost in a perfect bubble of unconditional love that birth control was the furthest thing from our minds and that's how I wound up pregnant It was obviously a huge shock when we found out, especially for me because I wasn't even thirty yet and I was once again pregnant but

Logan was quick to reassure me that everything would be ok which I wasn't convinced about because I knew my husband wasn't a one-shot kind of guy which meant that I was gonna end up being a mom to a whole squad and I was right Nine months later, I gave birth via a caesarean section to another set of twins, a handsome baby boy we named Vito which means life in Italian Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C. bend and just like his older brothers, he's the spitting image of his dad and then there's our gorgeous baby girl who we named Valentina which means strong and healthy in Italian and she's a beautiful mixture of Logan and me just like her big sister Teddy The reason why we gave them these names is because I was diagnosed with preeclampsia in the latter part of my pregnancy which was almost fatal for the twins and me and when the twins were born, they had to be put in incubators because they were struggling to breathe on their own Thankfully, they're all good now but it was still a very scary time for our family and our faith in God was seriously tested during this time but we got through it and Logan and I decided to give our final children meaningful names Logan and I had a very long talk when I found out I was pregnant with Vito and Valentina and we decided that they would be our last babies because A) my health is way more important than our growing family and B) seven children, as gorgeous as they are, they're more than enough for us, so I got my tubes tied during my caesarean section and Logan had a vasectomy done as well At first, I thought it was odd that he'd get a vasectomy because in my opinion, there was no need for him to do this if I was getting my tubes tied but then my heart melted when he told me that I was the only woman he wanted to have kids with and if was gonna take preventative measures then so was he Yes, my man is still so dreamy and perfect, aren't I lucky? Speaking of dreamy and perfect "Logan David Black the first, get those devilish lips and satan's hands away from my body right now" Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C "And why would I do that Lacey Olivia Black?" Logan asks me as he nuzzles his face in my neck and kisses my skin so lightly and gently, it was like he was trying to tease me, actually, I know he was

"Because our children are a few feet away from us and I don't want them witnessing their horny father being naughty with their innocent mother" I say with a smile and Logan scoffs "Pfft, innocent...you weren't so innocent last night when you were riding my ck like a naughty little cowgirl, were you?" Logan growled against my neck as he bit down on my soft spot making me moan "fk, Logan" I growl through gritted teeth as I close my eyes and throw my head back This man is the freaking devil and every time his eyes, his lips or even his hands touch my skin, the fucker makes me wanna sin "There's my naughty queen" geet

I groaned/moaned when Logan started to slowly grind his hips against mine driving me insane I was already turned on when I saw my husband walking around our yacht like the s*x god he is wearing nothing but a pair of sunglasses, beach shorts and his beautiful smile showing off his huge muscles, his six-pack abs and that deep V line which leads to one of my favourite parts of his body but now he's making my arousal spike even further with what he's doing to me right now Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C "Logan baby, you need to stop" "Why?" "Because we're not alone" I said in a breathy voice "Then let's go somewhere where we'll be alone"

"No, we can't, we can't leave Poppy all alone with our babies" I said whilst biting down hard on my lower lip to suppress a moan "She's their nanny, Lace, it's literally her job to look after them, besides, she's not alone, she's got Lola here to help her as well" That's true Lola is a sweet young woman who we had hired around a year or so after I had given birth to our elder twins and the little shits got trigger- happy when they realised the trouble they could get into just by using their arms and legs The triplets were honestly a piece of cake compared to Joseph and Sophia and the poor girl has been run off her feet with them Poppy would always look like she was in major need of a vacation at the end of the day from looking after our little brood, so we hired Lola to help her with the workload which later came in handy when we had Vito and Valentina "Come on, baby, let's go back to our room so that I can devour your kitten with my mouth and my ck"

Oh god I moaned when Logan slowly ground his hard-on against my wet, y "Please, Lacey...I need some alone time with my wife" ee, throbbing p Logan whispered huskily in my ear, his tone dripping with lust and Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C desperation for me

I narrowed my eyes at my children who were in the pool with Poppy and Lola, the triplets were busy doing cannonballs and dives while Joseph, Sophia, Vito and Valentina were on their little inflatable swimming floaties "Ok, fine" I said through gritted teeth as I looked my grinning husband in the eyes "That's my girl" Logan says excitedly as he gives me a quick kiss before jumping up from the sun lounger we were lying on He didn't even give me a chance to sit up before he picked me up and threw me over his shoulder causing me to squeal in surprise "Dammit Logan, put me down" "Nope"

"Daddy, where are you taking mummy?" Teddy asked her dad and Logan quickly spun around so that our daughter wasn't looking at her mother's ass hanging high in the air "Mommy's feeling a little tired, baby, so I'm taking her to have a little nap" Really, Logan? I thought to myself while rolling my eyes "Oh ok, enjoy your sleep" "Oh we will, Teddy Bear, trust me, we will" Logan said in a cheeky tone as he led us away from the pool area and down to our bedroom via the elevator

AS soon as we got to our room, Logan quickly lOcked our door before Throwing me on our bed and hovering over my body until there was literally no space left between us "It's a good job, I had our room soundproofed, Lace because I don't plan on going easy on you, my love" Logan's husky voice said against my lips "Are you sure you can still fk me like you used to, baby? I think your age is starting to catch up to you" I say in a teasing tone knowing full damn well that he can still perform in the bedroom because A) he's only thirty-three, that's no age and B) we had some pretty hot s*x last night, so I already know the answer to my question but you know your girl loves to poke the big, bad, horny wolf that is her husband which I really shouldn't do because your girl also likes to walk the next day without looking like I've been rammed by a freaking freight train "What did you just say, Lacey?" Logan growled as he wrapped his hand around my throat which had me smirking "You heard me, Logan, do you think you can..mmm"

I didn't even get to finish my question because Logan had crashed his lips against mine kissing me with so much passion but it was also like he was trying to punish me as well fk, This man is gonna be the death of me Chapter 1 - Hard Mountain To C 8 MizzLaura "a Hi, beautifuls, Sorry, if this is crap, I recently suffered a death in my family and I'm all over the place mentally and emotionally but I wanted to get something out there for my wonderful and supportive readers, so I hope you liked it and it's ok if you didn't. If you haven't already please go and check out my other books on my profile. If you like this book or any of my other books please vote for them in the moon ticket contest. Love MizzLaura? "

Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time Logan's POV It's official ladies and gentlemen, I'm the luckiest man in the world I'm a successful billionaire, I've got a smoking hot wife and seven amazing yet troublesome kids, the latter two make me a very rich man just by themselves Ever since I was born, I've been around money, I grew up with rich parents and their friends and associates were also rich as well I guess you could say that I was one of those kids who was born with a silver spoon in my mouth but even despite this, my environment never changed me and I never allowed it to change me like it has done with some people in this world If I had to guess as to why this is then I'd say it's because I was raised by two people who weren't always rich and had grown up poor and they worked hard to have the lifestyle that they've got now, so when they had my siblings and I, they made sure that we were always grounded and that we knew there was more to life than money and living a luxurious lifestyle

I remember when my brother Ryker and his wife Tiffany had their son, Elijah, Ryker freaked out and felt like his life was over because he never wanted kids, especially not at the age he was but then my father told us and our sister something which always stayed with us and that is that the size of our bank accounts will look like pennies compared to how rich having a family will make us Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time. bead I didn't fully believe this or understand it until I found my Lacey again and I discovered I was a father to three of the most amazing and smartest kids I've ever had the pleasure of knowing and I know that no matter what, I'll always be a rich man Even now as I lay next to my beautiful naked wife who is currently coming down from a very intense climax, I can't believe how blessed I am to have her as my partner in this crazy whirlwind we call our lives "Have I ever told you how beautiful you are, Lacey?" I ask my wife who looks over at me with a smile "Always...you tell me every morning, noon and night, you even call me when you're in the middle of an important meeting to tell me how beautiful I am or to tell me how much you love me"

"That's because you are and I do love you, I love you very much" I say as I cup my wife's face and kiss her delicious lips My wife instantly moaned when my lips met hers and before we knew it, my ck was once again inside of her and we were having another round of intense, hot s*x "I swear you're a machine, Logan Black" Lacey moaned as she threw her head back in ecstasy "Can you blame me, my love? my wife is hot and sexy and very insatiable, not to mention, she's got a healthy appetite for my ck" "Oh god" I smile down at my wife as I continue to thrust in and out of her "fk baby, you're so tight, how are you still so tight after having seven kids?" "Because they came out of a different hole"

Lacey says and I laugh Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time Only my girl can make a comment like this "Oh st" I moaned/groaned when Lacey started to grip my ck making her wee, py feel even tighter than it usually is "fk babe, if you continue to grip me like that then I'll be cumming quicker than I want to"

"You'll have to c*m soon, love, we've gotta go and have dinner with the kids in a little bit" "Is that so? well, then hold onto the bedsheets, babe" I say as I place Lacey's legs on my shoulders and press my hands down on the mattress next to her head I then thrust in and out of her as hard and as fast as I possibly could until we both came hard s*t I swear it gets better every single time I have s*x with this woman, like every time we have s*x is more intense and greater than the last time "Logan" "Mmm"

I say with my face buried in her neck "Are you sure you were a virgin when we first had s*x?" She asked me and I narrowed my eyes in confusion as I lifted my head from her neck and looked down at my wife

"What do you mean?" Lacey opened her eyes which had a satisfied glint in them and she smiled at me "You're way too experienced to have only slept with me, my love" She says and I throw my head back laughing before leaning in and Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time kissing her lips "Or maybe you just bring out the animal in me, my queen" I say and she chuckles "No seriously, why are you so good in bed if I'm the only woman you've ever had s*x with?" "I could ask you the same question, how are you so good if I'm the only guy you've ever been with?"

I asked her with a raised eyebrow but the answer she gave me was one that I wasn't expecting "Oh, that's simple, I watched porn and I used s*x toys" What? I thought to myself as I looked at my wife with a shocked expression "I beg your pardon, sweetheart..what did you just say?" I ask her and she smirks "You heard me, babe, I said I watched porn and used I s*x toys which before you ask, it was all Carmella's idea" "And why would Carmella suggest this to you?" I ask sounding confused but I wasn't shocked

This is very Carmella if you ask me "Because allegedly, it's what her shrink advised her to do" Lacey said whilst rolling her eyes "Wait, a therapist, a professional mental health therapist told Carmella to watch porn and use s*x toys to hype up her s*x life?" "No, she was a s*x therapist" Lacey said whilst tracing her fingers around the tattoo on my chest Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time "Ok, I'm even more confused now"

I say whilst shaking my head a little as Lacey sighs "Around a year before Carmella got with Cade, she was with this total jackass who had a lot of flaws like for example, how hypocritical he was" "What do you mean?" I ask as my eyes narrow together "He was a misogynistic prick who truly believed that women have got no value in the world and he also believes we shouldn't have any rights to things like voting or working but then he flips the script and thinks women should be independent when it came to paying for st" "Jackass" I growled under my breath It really fg irks me that men still have this kind of mindset and treat women like st on their shoes, especially in this day in age

"You can say that again, babe, anyway, the i*t wasn't happy when Carmella finally saw sense and broke up with him, so he decided to go straight for the jugular and he told her he could get better moans from a sick dog in bed than he could with her which made her really insecure so she went to see a s*x therapist to help her with her insecurities" "Urgh!!, what a bastard?..what did Carmella do to get back at him?" I ask Lacey who smirked at me as a slight chuckle left her mouth "She called the police and told them he was into bestiality which resulted in him being investigated for months" "Bestiality? what's that?" I ask confused and her smile brightens Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time "s*x with something that's not human"

She says and I burst out laughing "That girl is fg nuts" "Yeah, she is...so, are you gonna answer my question?" Lacey asked me with a cheeky smile on her gorgeous face and I smiled back at her "The same way that you did, except I didn't use s*x toys" "Really? not even a vibrating ck ring?" She asked me with a raised eyebrow and I looked away whilst trying to hide the smirk on my face before looking back at my girl "Ok, maybe that one" "T knew it"Text content ©

She says excitedly as she pulls me down for a quick kiss as I pulled out of her making her moan "I swear your ck is gonna be the death of me one of these days, Logan" Lacey moans and I chuckle "It's not funny, I just know that when I die and they do an autopsy on me, the report will say Lacey Black's cause of death was being f*d to death by her insatiable husband's massive ck" She says while rolling her eyes "Well, it wouldn't be a terrible way to go, love" "Hmm, that's true... guess it's better and more glamorous to go that way than to die in my sleep or some other way" She says and I chuckle

"Alright, enough talking about death, let's go and shower and get ready" Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time I say while gently tapping her thigh Lacey and I then got up and had separate showers because I knew we wouldn't have been able to control ourselves from having s*x again and I don't wanna wear my baby out because I've got plans for her later on after we've put the kids to bed Lacey's P.O.V "Are you nearly ready, baby?" Logan asks me as he gently rubs my shoulders and kisses my neck "Almost"

I say whilst putting on some strawberry lip balm Normally, I like to take my time doing my hair and make-up, especially now that I'm a mom to a crazy amount of kids because nine times out of ten the only peace and quiet I get is when I'm having a bath or I'm doing my hair, make-up or nails but I've loved sporting the natural look ever since we started our trip to Italy on Logan's yacht which looks more like a cruise liner if you ask me, that's how big it is Anyway, after having my shower, I got dressed in a white off-the-shoulder top which shows off a little bit of cleavage but not a lot and it also stops right above my belly button as well, along with a white flowy skirt with giant pink roses all over it and a slit on the side which goes all the way to the top of my thigh and gold gladiator style heels I'm also not wearing any underwear because Logan has told me not to unless my outfit absolutely requires it He's such a horny devil Anyway, I've styled my long wavy hair into a messy ponytail with some wispy bits left out in the front and I've got no make-up on except for some lip balm "I love it when you've got no make-up on, my love" "Really?" "Mmm-hmm" Logan muttered against my skin as he kissed my neck and the side of my face "Your true beauty shows when you've got no make-up on, not to mention, you're glowing as well, babe" Logan said while kissing the top of my head and I scoffed as I turned to face him "That glow is from you pounding my kitten like it owed you money" I say whilst rolling my eyes as he bursts out laughing

I looked up at my man and smiled in awe because he looked so cute when he laughed Hey there! Just a friendly reminder that if you're not reading this book on 5s.com, you might be missing out on the complete story.

Head over there to dive into the next chapter—it's all free! He was also looking super cute as well with how he was dressed even though he's only wearing a tight white t-shirt, long, light denim shorts that stopped just before his kneecaps and white trainers, which is a pretty simple outfit compared to mine "I look overdressed compared to you" "No, you don't, you look gorgeous" Logan said whilst kissing my forehead as he grabbed hold of my hand "Now, let's go, I'm starving" /I'm not surprised We've definitely worked off all of the calories we've consumed today just from that one s*x session alone Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time. baad Logan and I headed out of our room and took the elevator up to the top deck where our babies and their nannies were waiting for us to start our meal My stomach immediately started rumbling from the smell of delicious food which was currently being set up on the huge round table on the deck "Ok kids, times up, hand us your pads" Poppy says and I smile when I hear how gentle she is with them and also how receptive the kids are to her demands, especially our elder three After we had Joseph and Sophia, Logan and I noticed a huge difference in our elder three kids and their behaviours and so did everyone else around us who were urging us to get our children tested for autism which I was hesitant to do but then I realised I was probably being a neglectful mother by not letting them tested. so we did and all three of them came back with having some form of autism

Dayton and Teddy aren't as high on the spectrum as Logan Junior is and I've noticed now after he's been diagnosed and also now that I know more about ASD, that him having autism explains so freaking much about him like for example, the way he shuts down and goes into himself if he's in a room with ten or more people, especially if the majority of those people are strangers to him Actually, I've noticed that the speed of him shutting down is different in certain situations, like if we're at a family event and he's around us, his grandparents and a couple of strangers, he shuts down a lot slower but if he's with his siblings and a bunch of kids he doesn't know or if he's with myself and Logan and a group of strangers, he instantly shuts down, it's crazy Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time "Mummy, daddy, you're back" "Yeah, we are, babies" "You look so beautiful, mummy"

"Thank you, my darling" I say with a smile as I lean in and kiss Teddy's cheek "Here you go, babe" Logan says as he pulls out a chair for me "Thank you, baby, you're so sweet"

"You're welcome, my love" Logan kisses my temple before whispering something very naughty in my ear "Make sure you get your energy up, Lacey baby..I've got plans for you later on in our s*x cave and it includes you being very naked and turned on, all night long" Logan whispered in my ear before licking, sucking and nibbling on my earlobe making me close my eyes and moan in contentment

"Mmm, I can't wait" Everything is always so much more intense and hotter when we have alone time in our s*x caves, so I'm really excited for my dessert later on Chapter 2 - Sexy Alone Time 8 MizzLaura u“ Hi, beautifuls, I hope nobody is offended by the second hole comment, I showed this line to my sister who has had several C-sections and has always been super sensitive about the subject and she laughed, so I hope nobody is offended but if you are then I'm so sorry, it wasn't intended to offend anyone or hurt anyone's feelings. The next couple of chapters are going to be some sexy time between Logan and Lacey so just a little heads up for you all who don't like smut. Chapter 3 - The S3x Cave - Part 1 Lacey's P.O.V If you had told me three years ago that one day I'd not only be back living in New York but I'd be married to the love of my life, I'd be amom to the best group of kids I know and that I'd be standing at the stern of my husband's boat watching as the sun goes down as we head towards my cousin's island in Sicily for our wedding then I'd probably assume you were smoking Snoop Dogg levels of weed because I wouldn't have believed you, not in a million freaking years As much as I loved my life back in London with the triplets and Carmella, it's nothing compared to my life now and that's because I wasn't complete as a human being back then Even though I was hurting after everything Dylan, Luca and my family had put me through, I was also hurting because deep down inside of me, I knew that Logan was the one for me and it was hurting me being away from him and seeing him in the news all of the time surrounded by all of these beautiful women, oh and GiGi but let's not talk about her It's crazy how much my life has changed in these past three years and how I've achieved most of what I wanted to achieve in my life and I'm not even thirty yet although I'm not too far off it but as crazy as my life is, I honestly wouldn't have it any other way and I certainly wouldn't change my amazing life for anyone or anything

"It's a beautiful sight, isn't it?" Logan asks from behind me as he wraps his arms around my waist Chapter 3 - The S3x Cave - Part "Itis" I smiled and sighed in contentment as I melted into his embrace and placed my hands on his arms "IT know this probably doesn't make any sense because a beautiful sunset is a beautiful sunset no matter where you are in the world but there's something about the sunset around Italy which is even more beautiful and stunning, in my opinion" "T was talking about you, babe, you're the beautiful sight I was referring to" Logan said while kissing my temple

"Of course you were" I say with a chuckle as I turn my head to look up at my husband Logan smiled down at me as he leaned in and kissed my forehead before resting his forehead against mine "Can you believe we'll be getting married again in less than forty-eight hours?" "We're already married, Logan" I say with a chuckle and his smile brightens "I know, babe but that wedding wasn't one you deserved and it was because my impatient ass couldn't wait any longer to make you my wife, now we're gonna have a beautiful and amazing wedding with our entire family here with us and I honestly can't wait to see you in your wedding dress, my sister has been teasing me a lot lately about how we won't make it through the wedding ceremony without running off somewhere for a quickie when I see you in it" He says and I roll my eyes

Of course, Rachel would say that Chapter 3 - The S3x Cave - Part "Like Rachel can talk, do you remember when we went to the Hamptons for her and Liam's bachelor and bachelorette parties and we somehow ended up at the same club but they were nowhere in sight after we'd mingled our parties into one and not long afterwards, we heard them having s*x" "Urgh!!, don't remind me, I think even the residents of Australia heard those two getting it on in the VIP room of that club" Logan groaned whilst rolling her eyes "Anyway, speaking of sex..." Logan drifted off as he buried his face in my neck and lightly and sensually kissed my skin

"Are you ready for what I've got planned for you, my love?" "Depends...what have you got planned for me?" I knew exactly what he's got planned for me because Logan has had a s*x cave built into almost every piece of property we own, so when he told me there was also a s*x cave on his yacht, I knew we were in for a lot of fun during our trip to Italy "Do you remember your birthday last month?" "Mmm-hmm" I said whilst biting down on my lower lip "That was a hot night, it was the perfect way to ring in my twenty-ninth birthday" "Yeah, it was" Logan said while smiling against my neck

"Well, I want us to have another night like that, except I wanna try something new with you which you may not like or you may be apprehensive about but I need you to trust me, ok" Chapter 3 - The S3x Cave - Part "I'll always trust you, Logan" I say as I look up at my husband who smiles down at me "Good girl" He says while kissing my nose which twitched a little from his stubble tickling my skin "I've left a present for you in the s*x cave, babe, go and put it on for me and I'll meet you down there in five minutes" "Ok" I turn around in his arms and quickly peck his lips

"I love you" "I love you too" I smile as I walk away and head upstairs First, I headed to our room to grab something before going to the s*x cave which is a room that I can only describe as a bm dominant and submissive's dream room and it's filled with every kind of s*l toy and object you can imagine in there which can leave you cumming for hours on end and sometimes without even being touched Logan and I aren't hardcore into bm like a lot of people are which may not sound believable considering my husband has had one of these rooms built into all of our homes and also on our yacht but honestly, we're not and we only maybe use this room once or twice a week depending on our moods Most of the time Logan is too fg horny and can barely get me out of my panties before he's penetrated me, let alone get me to our s*x cave Anyway, when I arrived at the room, I walked inside and immediately smiled when I saw two big white boxes on the bed with black bows tied around them which made me feel so excited I even squealed when I saw the boxes because they're from my favourite lingerie and shoe shops which makes me love my man even more, especially when I saw the lingerie he had picked out for me

I quickly stripped out of the clothes I was wearing and I put on the navy blue lace bra, thong and garter suspenders, as well as black stockings which have got a navy blue lace trim at the top of them that comes up to my mid-thigh and I also put on the black leather stripper-inspired peep toe heels which thankfully doesn't have a thick platform on them When I was finished putting on my lingerie set, I let down my hair running my fingers through it a little and I sprayed some of my favourite perfume all over myself making sure to avoid my neck, chest and wrists before rubbing some strawberry lotion on my body as well I then got on the bed and sat in a seductive pose with my arms resting behind me and one of my knees bent as I waited for my man to show up Thankfully, I didn't have to wait too long before I heard the door to the room open up behind me and in walked my sexy and delicious husband who was naked, well, except for the towel which was hanging dangerously low on his waist and his body was still wet and steaming from his shower "I see you're ready for me, baby, that lingerie really suits you" Logan says in a husky voice as he stands in front of me and rests his hands on the sides of the four-poster bed looking like the dominant, alpha male he is

"You know what suits me and my body best, my love" Hey there! Just a friendly reminder that if you're not reading this book on 5s.com, you might be missing out on the complete story.

Head over there to dive into the next chapter—it's all free!

I said whilst eyeing up Logan's ck and I licked my lips when I saw it was straining hard against his towel Chapter 3 - The S3x Cave - Part. ~ I've become a lot more confident with myself, my body and also with s*x since reuniting with my husband and I like to think that I know what makes Logan tick or what makes his junior tick and the way that I'm sitting right now is a pose he loves, I don't know why though, I'm just sitting here There's no way he's got hard just from seeing how I'm sitting on our bed or has he? "I see someone's excited" I say as I lift my foot up to where the knot is in his towel undoing it and freeing the stiff beast underneath it "And here was me thinking I was the only one who bought a gift with me" I said with a smirk as Logan narrowed his eyes at me "You bought me a gift?" "Mmm-hmm...would you like to see what it is?" I dangle the small gift bag in my hand as I bit down on my lower lip "Of course, I wanna see what it is, you know I love my gifts from my baby" He says and I smile as I hand him the gift bag Logan took the bag from me and pulled out the contents and I swear I saw his dk twitch again when he saw my special gift for him "I was planning on giving it to you on our wedding night but then I thought, why wait?"

"And what made you wanna buy these for me, Lacey?" He asked me and I looked at him with a smile for a few seconds before getting up from the bed and standing in front of him Chapter 3 - The S3x Cave - Part I briefly looked down at the leather restraints in his hand which I had diamond encrusted with Property Of Logan Black on one cuff and Mrs Black on the other one before looking back into his eyes "Because I'm a strong, independent woman who knows my value and my worth but I also know who I belong to, whose woman I am and whose property I am when we're in the four corners of this room... know many people will probably gag and barf at something like this and that's fine but me personally..I love that you own every single part of me, Logan Black and I'm willing to experience everything with you until we're too old and grey to use these things" I say and we both chuckle "Well, then Mrs Black, give me your hands if you're ready to submit to me"

I didn't hesitate to hold my hands up and Logan wrapped each of the leather cuffs around my hands which had a silver chain in the middle tying them together "So beautiful" Logan said whilst kissing my knuckles causing butterflies to flutter around in my stomach "Now, get down on your knees and service your king, Mrs Black" "Yes, sir" I said in a cheeky tone knowing exactly what this word does to him as I sank to my knees and stared hungrily at my husband's huge rod which was happily saluting it's queen I then licked my lips as I gently wrapped my hands around Logan's ck and slowly started to pump him up and down which automatically had him hissing in frustration

"Don't tease me, Lacey, you know I hate it when you do that st" "Do you?..I'm sorry, I wasn't aware" I said feigning innocence as I continue to slowly stroke my hand up and down his ck Logan once again hissed as he looked down at me sternly "Lacey..mmm" He growled as I licked up the side of his ck but he drifted off and moaned when I gently licked his tip "fk, I hope you know that your actions will come back on you threefold, sweetheart, so the longer you tease me, I'll make sure to tease you for just as long" I looked up at Logan whilst trying my hardest to not look smug and I kept my eyes on his eyes as I lowered my mouth to his ck taking as much of his length inside of me as possible

At first, my rhythm was slow and steady but then I picked up my speed when I felt Logan's hands in my hair gripping it like he was warning me to stop teasing him "st, Lace...fuck, I'm gonna c*m" Already? I used both my mouth and my hand to suck and jerk him off harder and faster driving him over the edge "OH fr*k!!...SHITH!" Logan came in my mouth and I swallowed every last drop before cleaning him off "st, Lacey that was...that was..." "Amazing? intense? wonderful? epic? or a mixture of all four?" I say with a smile

Logan said with a smile as he cupped my face and gently caressed my cheek "I think that's the fastest you've ever c*m, babe" I said whilst standing up with Logan's help "And our night is only just beginning...you're in for a wild ride tonight, Lace" Logan whispered the last part against my lips before kissing me passionately He then pulled away from me and smirked as he roughly gripped my chin "Let the fun begin, baby" 8

Chapter 4 - The S3x Cave - Part 74.

Logan's P.O.V.

I've seen many beautiful sights in my life, I like for example, watching four of my seven children being brought into the world, watching my babies sleep, watching my woman climax from an intense orgasm or waking up first thing in the morning and seeing my wife's beautiful face resting on my chest.

I haven't got a top ten or anything but if I did, then this sight in front of me would definitely be in the top five, maybe the top three.

Lacey is currently standing at the end of our bed with her hands restrained above her head and her legs which aren't restrained at the moment are a few feet apart from each other but I plan on putting restraints on them in a little bit.

I know people will problem think it's strange that I find this kind of sight beautiful and that's ok but to me, I love that my woman is in this kind of situation where she's bared all just for me and she's at my disposal for me to do whatever I want to her.

you look so beautiful, my love" I whisper in Lacey's ear as I gently run my fingers over her soft skin.

It made me smile when I saw her body twitch and her back arch as her head fell backwards from my touch.

"Mmm" She moaned when I gently rubbed my thumbs over her lace-covered n*s.

"I love it when you moan, baby" "Well, keep touching me the way that you are and I'll keep moaning for you" "Oh, don't worry, sweetheart, I plan on touching you all night even when we're sleeping" I said while kissing Lacey's neck and shoulders as I stripped her of her bra unhooking the straps instead of cutting them like I wanted to because I definitely want to see her in this lingerie set again.

I then kissed down her back until I dropped to my knees and I couldn't resist giving her thick, juicy ass a little bite causing her to hiss.

"fk, Logan" Lacey groaned and I smiled.

I continued to strip my girl until she was fully naked in front of me.

"Spread your legs wider, Lace" I tell her and she happily obliges me.

I then restrained both of her legs with a pair of restraints that are hooked up to the two posts at the end of the bed before standing up and taking a good look at the naked beauty in front of me.

Be This woman is so incredibly beautiful and sexy and I'm so lucky she's all mine.

"Logan, what are you doing to me?" Lacey moaned as I gently traced my fingers over her legs, thighs, hips and ass as I made my way back up her body.

"I'm paying you back, my queen" I said as I nuzzled my face in her neck and kissed her skin as delicious moans continued to pour out of her mouth.

"You teased me, love, so now I'm gonna tease you back" = I gently smacked her ass before walking over to one of my drawers where I grabbed a bottle of lube, my favourite ck ring and also a vibrating wand.

I was gonna enjoy what I'm about to do to my wife but Lacey probably won't just because it's gonna include the one thing that she doesn't like but I absolutely love.

I attached the vibrating wand to Lacey and made sure it's secure enough so that the head was resting perfectly on her clit.

Lacey curiously looked down and watched what I was doing and my lips stretched into a smirk when I saw her eyes widen.

"Oh god" She moaned whilst throwing her back.

"Logan, what are you up to?" "You'll find out soon, sweetheart" After making sure the wand was secure, I walked around the bed and lay down in the middle of it, resting my head on the pillow and making sure all of me was on show for my girl to see.

Lacey's eyes roamed over my body and she licked her lips when she saw my hard ck sticking up in the air with a black and silver ring on it.

At first, I jerked myself off to the beautiful sight in front of me and my eyes kept narrowing to the area in between Lacey's lower stomach and her py where she's got my name tattooed on her in cursive with an eternity sign as well.

I remember when Lacey surprised me with this tattoo, I had asked her a few months previous if she would ever get my name tattooed on her like I have with her and she told me maybe, one day and it was never spoken about again until one day when we were having s*X and I pulled her shorts off and there it was, my name sitting pretty and perfectly just 8/29

"Mmm, fren I moaned when I turned on the vibrating ck ring and instantly felt a jolt of pleasure vibrate through all ten inches of my ck.

"God Logan, you're being so freaking mean" Lacey growled in frustration.

"Why, baby?" "Because you're teasing me" "Just like you did with me" I said with a smirk as I stroked my ck.

"Yeah but I didn't tease you like you

I are with me, I only teased you a little bit, you're literally taking the piss and taking it to a whole other level" "Actually babe, this isn't me teasing you...this is me teasing you" I said as I pressed the button on the little remote in my hand and another loud vibrating sound filled the room.

"Oh f..fuck, Logan" Lacey instantly moaned and I swear I saw a contented smile on her lips which wouldn't be there for long.

"You're not allowed to c*m, Lace" "What?"

She growled as she snapped her eyes to me. ~ "Are you being serious right now?" "Yes I am and if you don't change your tone and knock that glare off your beautiful face right now then I won't allow you to c*m until our wedding night maybe even our honeymoon which we haven't set a date for yet" I said with a smirk.

"Urgh!!, you asshole" She groaned/moaned as her head once again fell backwards.

"Why are you torturing me like this,

Logan?" : Lacey moaned when I upped the vibrating level on the wand and I couldn't help but chuckle at her frustration.

"I warned you not to tease me, love and now you're being punished for it" "But I only teased you a little bit" She whined.

"Yes but when we're in this room, I'm your dominant and you're my submissive and you will be punished if you don't listen to me and do as I say, do you understand me?" I ask her and she nods her head.

Lacey wasn't happy with my form of punishment for her but I knew she was— secretly enjoying it and she'll enjoy it even more when I do let her c*m.

I continued to jerk myself off whilst teasing my little wife by highering and lowering the levels on the wand which I knew was frustrating her just like I wanted it to.

As I came and shot my load all over my stomach, Lacey also came without my permission and her body continued to shudder as moans continuously left her mouth which made me happy because this means that I get to punish her even more.

"Looks like someone ignored me when I told her not to c*m" I said excitedly as Lacey glared at me.

"You can't blame me for cumming, babe, I've got no self-control when it comes to you, especially when you're naked and pleasuring yourself right in front of me while I've got the devil's favourite toy attached to my clit" "That doesn't change the fact that you disobeyed me and now I've gotta punish you" "Oh no" She groaned and I chuckled.

"You love it really, babe"

I said as I removed both my ck ring and the wand from Lacey and threw them on the bed before taking the restraints off my wife.

"Go and stand by the cross, love" "I think you're gonna have to help me out, Logan, my legs feel like jelly" She says and I chuckle.

"That orgasm must've been intense, Lace" "Forbidden ones always are" "And I haven't even touched you yet" I said with a smile.

"Are you gonna fk me?"

"Wet enough for you to slip and slide I right in" Ct She says cheekily and I chuckle.

"Be patient, love" I whisper in her ear as I move one of my hands down to her py and rub my fingers back and forth rubbing circles on her clit with my thumb as I did.

"You're not playing fair, Logan" { "Aren't I?" I asked with a smile whilst feigning innocence.

"No, you're not...you know I hate it when you deny me orgasms"

"Well, take your punishment like a good girl and maybe you'll get your I climax soon" She groans at my words but her DEV had gotten wetter if that's even poss!» so I knew she wasn't being serious.

I pulled away from my wife and walked over to one of the hangers grabbing the flogger and a pink diamond-encrusted metal butt plug from the drawer underneath it before going over to the bed and grabbing the lube.

"How do you feel about anal, Lacey?" I ask her as I walk over to her and I swear I saw her body shudder at my words.

"We've never tried that before" "I know...would you be interested in trying it with me tonight?" "Will it hurt?" She asks nervously whilst turning her head to the side.

"It will at first but you'll get used to it the more we try it" Lacey lets out a shaky breath before nodding her head.

"Ok, fine, let's do it" "Are you sure?" I asked her to make sure and her answer warmed my heart.

"I trust you, Logan... know you'll) never do anything to hurt me" "You're damn straight I won't, love" I say while placing a kiss on her shoulder.

"Open your mouth, Lacey" I ask her and she happily obliges me.

I then pushed the plug into her mouth to wet it with her saliva as I poured some lube onto her asshole and gently rubbed it in.

"Mmm" Lacey moaned in both pleasure and pain when I penetrated her ass with one of my fingers before adding a second and third finger to stretch her out. ~—— I "I'm gonna put this plug in your tight little ass, Lacey and then I'm going to flog your ass ten times, ok, if you're a good girl and you take your punishment well, then and only then will I fk your tight py and ass, do you understand me?" "Yes, sir" She moaned when I removed the plug from her mouth.

"That's my girl" I added a little extra lube to the plug before inserting it into Lacey's ass.

I knew it was gonna cause her pain either way so I wanted to limit it as-much as I possibly could.

Lacey's body trembled a little from the intrusion but she quickly calmed down and told me she felt full but it was weird when I asked her if she was ok.

"Your body is so fg perfect, babe" I said whilst rubbing my hands over her body enjoying the feeling of how soft it is.

"I'm gonna flog you ten times, make sure you count each one, ok" "Yes, sir"

"Good girl" I start to flog her and she counts each one for me.

Every time the flogger hit her ass, Lacey moaned and her body arched as her beautiful tanned cheeks turned a pretty shade of pink.

I love Lacey's reactions to everything I do to her body and I'm lucky enough to know how far I can push her and when enough is enough for her without pushing her too far.

"You did good baby, are you ready for your reward?" "Yes, sir...OH GOD!"Content © provided by

She moaned loudly when i plunged my entire length deep inside of her.

I then thrust in and out of her py, pounding her with great vigour as my hands roamed her body grabbing her breasts, pinching her hard ns, A caressing her perfect, round ass and stroking her sopping wet clit as I IEaerd the life out of her.

One of my hands then went to her hair tugging it backwards as my free hand went around her throat, I was fg her rough the way we both liked itand I knew she was close to cumming all over my dk.

"SH..SHIT, LO..LOGAN!!!"

Lacey moaned as her body started to tremble. Sa "c*m, Lacey, c*m all over your husband's ck" "OH, F..FUCK!!, I'M C..CUMMING, BABY!" We both came and it was the most intense and euphoric feeling ever, so much so that I didn't give either of us a chance to recover as I pulled the plug out of Lacey's ass and gently inserted my ck into it.

Lacey hissed at the intrusion but after a few thrusts, she started to moan and even pushed her ass back to meet each of my thrusts.

"st, this feels so fg good" Lacey moaned and I smiled.

"I knew you'd like this, sweetheart" I picked up my pace and made sure to listen to Lacey's body to see if I was going too far with her which thankfully, I wasn't and everything I was doing seemed to turn her on even further.

"Oh god, Logan, go faster, please" She moaned.

"Are you sure?" "YES!! She growled and I smirked as I licked my lips.

"What the lady wants the lady gets" I said as I picked up my pace and fd Lacey's ass the same way I fd her py as I furiously rubbed her clit.

"Shit...Logan...oh god" Lacey moaned repeatedly as each of my thrusts brought us closer and closer to our climaxes.

"Logan, I'm..." "I know, baby, so am I" It only took a few more thrusts and we both came again but I wasn't expecting Lacey to squirt when we did.

st, that's new.

"Fuck...did I just piss myself?" Lacey asks and I chuckle.

"No love, you squirted" I said happily as I placed a kiss on her shoulder.

"Oh, thank god, I really thought you'd f*++xd the piss out of me" She says whilst resting her head on my shoulder.

I laughed at her words as I buried my face in her neck and kissed her skin giving her throat a little bite whilst wrapping my arms around her waist.

fk I love this incredibly amazing woman.

Chapter 5 - Arriving In Italy.

Lacey's P.O.V.

"Do we have to get off our boat, mummy?" "Yes we do, Teddy Bear" "But why? I don't wanna leave" Teddy whines as she buries her face in my chest.

"But I thought you wanted to wear your princess dress and throw pretty flowers at mommy and daddy's wedding?" I chuckled at my daughter as I ran my fingers through her hair.

"I do but I wanna stay on our boat as I well" "It's only for a few days, Teddy and then we'll be back on our boat heading home" "I know, I just don't wanna leave" Teddy says as she snuggles even closer to me and I smile as I kiss her head.

"We have to get off it eventually honey, we can't spend forever on here" "Yeah we can, we're rich" Oh god.

My worst nightmare has happened, we've created rich. spoiled monsters

"Where are your siblings, Teddy Bear?" "Vito and Valentina are napping, Joseph and Sophia are in the play area with Poppy and Lola, Dayton and daddy are playing golf, so boring' She says the last part whilst rolling her eyes.

"And Lo is having some alone time" Oh no.

I hate it when my eldest child has 'alone time' because he always looks so sad and lonely when he does even though I know he's not.

"Where's Logan Junior having his alone time, Teddy?" "In his room" She says and I nod my head.

"Can you do me a favour, sweetie? can you go and hang out with your dad and Dayton or Joseph and Sophia for me, please? I wanna go and spend some time with Lo" "Ok, mummy" Teddy kisses my cheek before running off towards where her dad and brother are.

I then let out a breath as I stood up and headed upstairs towards the boy's bedroom.

I At first, I was concerned when I was met with silence but then I understood why it was so silent when I opened the door and I saw my son was sitting on his bed with his ear defenders on and he was reading something on his tablet.

I stood in the doorway and just watched my son who has changed a lot in the past three years, not in a major or dramatic way, he's just more silent and likes to be on his own now which I don't like.

I understand he's got a lot going on and his world is completely different to mine and his dad's, I just want him to know that he's not alone and we're more than happy to enter his world or we can blend his world with ours so that he won't feel as lonely or feel like he has to be alone all of the time to get some peace.

I walked over to the bed and gently placed my hand on his shoulder so that! wouldn't startle him.

Logan Junior looked up at me with a smile and I smiled back at him.

"Hey, mummy" "Hi, baby, can we talk?" "Sure mum, what's up?" Logan Junior places his tablet and ear defenders next to him on the bed as I sit down in front of him and grab hold of his

I little hand.

"I've noticed you've been having a lot of time to yourself lately and mommy's feeling a little concerned...is everything ok, baby?" "Everything's fine, mum" "Are you sure? you're not the same Lo anymore" "What do you mean?" He asks confused.

"Well, you're even more quiet and reserved than you usually are and you also like to spend a lot of time on your own and I don't like that, honey"

I say whilst gently caressing his hand.

"Logan, you do know that if something is bothering you or if you wanna talk about what's going on with you then you can always come and talk to your dad and me, right?" .

"Yes, mummy, I know" "Good" I say with a smile.

"Our family is an open book with each other, ok, so don't ever and I mean EVER hesitate if you wanna talk to us, do you understand me?" I ask him and he nods his head.

"I miss it, mum"

"You miss what, honey?" I ask confused and he lets out a breath.

"I miss when it was just me, Teddy, Dayton, you and daddy, it was easier and simpler when it was just us, mum...you had more time for us back then as well" He says and my heart broke.

fly dl "Don't get me wrong, mum, I love my brothers and sisters and I wouldn't change them for anything, I mean, I'd change how loud they are, especially Valentina, she screams so freaking loud"

He says and I chuckle.

Valentina is the loudest of our babies and I've gotta feeling she's gonna be our spoiled little princess when she's older, especially with how much Logan wants to spoil his little girls.

"Anyway, back then you always had time for us, you did everything and for us and now you're too with dad or with work or the other kids and it's like you don't have time for us anymore" "Oh, baby" I whimpered as I cupped Logan Junior's face with both of my hands and rested my forehead against his.

"I am so sorry, son, I didn't realise I was neglecting you all, I really thought I was being the best mom to you all" I say whilst trying to keep a tight leash on my tears which wasn't easy for me (© do, especially when I saw the look on my son's face.

Logan Junior's head snapped up and he looked at me with a sad and panicked expression.

"You're not neglecting us, you're the best mum ever, please don't be sad" He panicked as he rested his little hands on my arms.

"Well, clearly I'm doing something wrong if you feel this way, son" "You're not doing anything wrong, mum, you've only got so much love to give and you've got more people to love now" Oh, Lo.

"Baby, it doesn't matter how babies your father and I have, always love each of you one hundred percent and unconditionally" "I know, mummy" Logan Junior says with a smile which I reciprocated.

"Come here, my love"

I opened my arms for him and he happily embraced me in a hug. So I wrapped my arms around my boy and kissed his head.

"I know there's been a lot of change in our lives in the past three years, Lo which hasn't been easy for you and I promise you, I'm gonna do everything I can to be there for all of you and make your lives easier" "You can't always be with us, mum, you've got to work" "Work isn't as important as you guys are to me, sweetheart, actually, the most important things in my life are you kids and your father...besides, I worked twice as hard as I do now when we were in London and I still managed to always be there for you guys" I said and I swear I felt Logan Junior's arms tighten around me.

"You're the best mummy in the world, mum, we're all so lucky to have you" "Yeah, we are" My husband's voice said from the doorway.

We both looked up and smiled when we saw Logan standing in the doorway with Dayton and Teddy standing in front of him.

"How long have you guys been standing there for?" En "Long enough" Logan said with a smile.

"Mummy, Lo is right, you're the best mummy in the world" "Yeah, you're so cool and beautiful and...wait, what's that word you used the other day, dad?" Dayton asked whilst looking up at his dad who chuckled as he ruffled our son's hair before looking back at me.

"It was one of a kind, son, I called your mother one of a kind"

"Yeah that, you're that as well, mum" I chuckled at Dayton as my heart warmed at his words.

I've never seriously doubted my parenting and I think I'm a great mother but there are times like this when I feel like I should've been careful with some of the choices I've made, specifically my pregnancies because even though my children hadn't been diagnosed with autism at the time, I still should've known that having more children would've affected our elder kids in some way or another.

"Your mom and I love you guys more than anything in this world and we'll happily give up everything for all of you" "We love you too, daddy" Our beautiful and affectionate daughter said as she wrapped her arms around her dad's neck and kissed his head.

"We should get ready to leave, we're gonna be docking soon" Logan said earning a scoff from our kids.

"You really know how to kill a mood, dad" Dayton says and we both chuckle.

"I really don't wanna leave our boat, daddy" = "Don't you wanna see your grandparents, your aunties, uncles and cousins, Teddy Bear?" "Yeah, I do" "Then let's go" Logan kissed Teddy's head before kissing the boys on their heads and kissing me on my lips We all then left the boy's bedroom and went to collect our things before heading to the top deck where we watched our boat docking at Klayton's port behind his boat which makes ours look like a baby boat and trust me when I say it's anything but.

"GRAMS! "GRAMPS!" The kids shout as they run to greet my parents.

My relationship with my parents has gotten a lot better and I finally found it in my heart to forgive them just recently because it was weighing heavy on my heart, especially whenever we'd attend therapy together and I saw how hurt, pained, sad and most importantly regretful they are for what happened.

My parents have also built a beautiful relationship with our kids and they're all just as close with them than they are with my grandparents and Logan's parents.

"Kiddos" My dad says happily as he crouches down on his knees and opens his arms out for our eldest three who were running towards them.

"Mama, mama, gamps" "Yeah, that's your gramps" I say to Sophia with a smile as I try my hardest to keep a tight hold on her.

"Fia baby, stop wiggling" "Gamps. mama. aamps" oh

I Sophia once again said excitedly whilst putting a little bit more energy into her wiggling.

I sigh in frustration just as my dad comes over and takes Sophia from me.

"There's my other two girls, come here, my princess" "Gamps, gamps, gamps" Sophia cheered for her grandfather as she gently tapped his face.

"Yes, it's gamps" My dad chuckled as he turned to face me.

"Hi there beautiful" "Hiya, dad" I wrapped my arms around my dad's waist as he slung his arm around my shoulders and kissed my temple.

"How are you feeling, baby girl? are you excited for tomorrow?" "Yeah, a little nervous but I'm excited" "Nervous? how nervous are you exactly? because my jet is still warm..." My dad said before being cut off by an angry throat clearing behind us.

I turn my head and chuckled when I saw my very sexy yet extremely pissed-off husband glaring at my dad as our baby Joseph sucked on his fingers getting slobber everywhere.

"I think you should remember who I your nephew and my close friend is, Carpenter because if you carry on making comments like this and putting stupid thoughts in my wife's head..." "Oh calm down, Logan, you'll be the same way when your girls are grown and are dating" My dad said with a smirk which seemed to anger Logan even further.

"My daughters are never gonna date, James" "That's what I said, son and so did my father in law" : My dad said and his words seemed to shock Logan as I chuckled.

"Speaking of my father-in-law, Giuseppe wants you to meet him and Klayton in his office, as soon as you're settled in, Logan" "Really? why? I'm already married to his granddaughter so I'm guessing it's not some traditional Sicilian mafia leader chat about marrvina into the A family" He says and we both laugh.

"Don't joke son, Giuseppe takes his chats very seriously, especially when it comes to his girls" My dad said whilst kissing my head. Belongs to -

"Great" Logan groaned as he handed me Joseph and kissed my lips.

"I'll see you guys in a little bit" "Ok, babe" Logan walked away and my heart skipped a nervous beat when I saw him being escorted away by two guys who looked like they could be extras in the Men In Black movies.

I'm not nervous that my grandfather will do or say something which could result in Logan either running away or worse being left six feet under, I'm just nervous because Klayton is the current head of the Antonelli family mafia and my grandfather is the former leader and they both want to meet with my husband the day before our wedding.

If my husband was a member of our family's mafia then I'd be very worried and maybe even a little scared that something was about to go down and potentially ruin our big day but he's riot, so why does my grandfather and cousin I wanna meet with Logan?.

oo hE

"You come to me, Mr Black, to my home on the eve of my granddaughter's wedding and you don't show me or your Don any respect or any fear, you sit there all nonchalant and without a care in the world..what do you have to say for yourself, young man?"

Giuseppe Antonelli said in his very strong Italian accent as he clutched a lit cigar between his fingers He looked very imposing and intimidating but I knew I had nothing to worry about and he was just joking around with me, at least I hope he is

"Well, whether you like it or not, Logan...you, my little principessa and those kids of yours are already in this life, they were born into it as Antonelli's and you married into it the day you married my little cugina" Klayton said with a slight growl as he tapped his finger against the glass of bourbon in his hand but it wasn't just any finger, no, it was the forefinger on his right hand which has got the godfather ring resting perfectly on it and it was tapping against the crystal glass like a warning or a threat to me but I ignored it because Klayton isn't a threat to me "There's a huge difference between being in it and being a part of it, Klay" "Oh really? well, please do explain the difference to us, son?"

Giuseppe asked as he puffed on his cigar "Well, if I'm in the mafia then I'm just someone who knows about it but I hear, see and speak of no evil to anyone and my family and I are protected as members of the famiglia but if I was a part of it then I'd have to pledge myself to the current Don and put my life on the line to make sure that not only he is protected and safe but also the secrets of the mafia are as well and I can't do that, there's only one Antonelli I bow down and Chapter 6 - Meeting With The D pledge my life to and that's my wife"

"I'm glad to hear that, son, Lacey is my one and only granddaughter and she's one of the most prized possessions within our famiglia, so [am beyond happy and proud that my little principessa has found a man like you who will treat her like the queen she is..that being said whether she possesses the name Antonelli, Carpenter or Black, my granddaughter and now my great-grandchildren are constantly at risk at being in danger With our enemies out there and they'll always be at risk whether you're a part of the mafia or not" Giuseppe says and Isit up in alarm

"I'll never allow anybody to harm my wife and kids, Giuseppe, I'd rather die than EVER let that happen" "Iknow that son, we both do and like I said earlier, we're happy to know that Lacey has got a man like you..that being said, I still want to offer you a position in our mafia, Logan" "Why?..why are you being so persistent about this? has something happened?" Lask them and I knew something was up when I saw Klayton and Giuseppe share a look with each other

"We received this in the mail this morning" Klayton said as he placed a white envelope in front of me. I looked down at the envelope which had Klayton's name and address written on it in cursive writing and a stamp in the corner. "What's this?" "Open it up and you'll find out." I briefly look up at Klayton and Giuseppe before looking back down at the envelope.

I was hesitant to see what was in it but I knew I had no other choice but to look. Considering there's a chance this may or may not have something to do with my wife and kids, I opened up the envelope and pulled out several pictures. Each one had my blood boiling until I got to the last one which made me want to punch a f+g wall. The first few pictures were of just the kids playing around on my boat, there was a couple of us all hanging out on the top deck as a family and the last two were of myself and Lacey. The first is where I'm embracing her from behind with my head buried in her neck and she's smiling at me like she's the happiest woman in the world.

If this was any other scenario then I'd say this is a beautiful photo but knowing it was taken by someone who was watching us without our knowledge makes it ugly and creepy. The final photo is of Lacey and I naked and we're having s* on the top deck of the boat. In the photo, Lacey and I are on our knees, her back is against my front and one of my hands is wrapped around her throat as my free hand y It may sound like just an innocent, s#I encounter between a toe, held a wireless vibrating wand against her p husband and his wife and to be fair to us, it was when we went out there that day.

My teasing wife had gone up to the top deck to sunbathe on her own and have some peace and quiet away from the kids who were stressing her out. Not long afterwards, she sent me a nude selfie of herself with one of too her hands resting over her p#y looking like she was pleasuring herself and the caption said / wish /had some company along with three emojis of a cat, two fingers and squirting water. Chapter 6 - Meeting With The D I was already feeling incredibly horny and I was pitching an uncomfortable tent after watching my wife walk around our boat in her tiny bikini, so when I received this text, I wasted zero time in making sure the kids were ok before grabbing some things from our s*x cave and heading up to be with my wife.

"Will all due respect, sir, do you really think that Godfather bullshit will work on me?"

For the next hour or so after that, we had some of the best sx we'd ever had and I made sure to have my wife in every way [possibly could including my favourite position where she's on all fours in front of me and I'm fg her from behind. I don't regret a single second of it but what we did is obviously something that nobody who is blood-related to us would wanna see and unfortunately, these two Dons have seen it thanks to some creep and his camera. rk I groaned as I ran a hand over my face and through my hair. "Who the fk took these photos?"

I growled as my eyes remained on the picture of Lacey and me "That's what we'd like to know, Lo" "Look son, I understand as a man and a husband what it's like to be young, horny and in love" "Urght!, gramps" Klayton groaned earning a glare from his grandfather "Shut up, boy, we're all human here and hot Italian blood runs through all of our veins, are you telling me you and Cassidy have never gotten hot and heavy like this?"

Giuseppe asks Klayton who smirked as he bit down on his bottom lip Chapter 6 - Meeting With The D "I thought so" He said whilst looking his grandson up and down before looking back at me "Look sir, I know you're probably not happy with us and you think we should've been more careful but to be fair to us and honest with you guys, we were out there alone, there wasn't another boat or plane in sight, trust me if there was then I never would've allowed Lacey to go up to the highest level of my boat to sunbathe, let alone go up there with her to do..you know...that with her up there because there's only one man on this goddamn planet who's allowed to see my wife naked and that's me" "Well, obviously someone else was there, Logan, this picture didn't just produce itself out of thin air" Klayton says with some anger and disgust in his tone as I let out asigh "Is this why you guys want me in the mafia?"

"Yes and no, we want you in the mafia because you're a smart guy and you're incredibly strong as well, I mean, you're a former MMA fighter for +++ sake, those skills alone make you an asset to our famiglia, Lo, especially when it comes to capturing the guy who sent us this because [know you're gonna want in when we take him to our dungeons" "Why would I want in? because he took some pictures of my family?" Lask Klayton who nervously glances at his grandfather before slightly nodding his head towards the picture in my hand

"Take a look at the back of the last picture" What? [looked down at the picture as I turned it over and my eyes widened Chapter 6 - Meeting With The D as my heart skipped a painful beat when I saw what was written on the back of it

"What the fk is this?" I stood up abruptly knocking my chair to the ground as I did "It's a threat against Lacey's life, that's what that is, Logan" "But who would wanna threaten Lacey? she's the most unproblematic person I've ever known" "I don't know, brother but we're gonna find out, I promise you" Klayton said and I nodded my head

Tknew he'd keep this promise because Lacey means the world to him and he'd want to squash any threat against her life as quickly as possible but it didn't stop me from feeling angry and uneasy as my breathing started to come out in quick, deep pants "Are we done here? I wanna go and see my wife and kids" "Yes we're done here, you can give us your answer when you're good and ready to and you've thought long and hard about it" Giuseppe says and I nod my head as I stormed out of his office I didn't need to think about anything, I wasn't joining the mafia, even if Lacey wanted me to join I still wouldn't because it's not me, not to mention, I want to live my life long enough to see my kids grow up, graduate high school and college and have their own families which won't happen if I'm in the mafia I'd also love to live a nice long life with my wife until we're old and grey which I highly doubt would happen if I became one of Klayton's henchmen, so there's no way in hell I'll be joining the mafia After leaving Giuseppe's office, I briskly headed up to mine and Lacey's bedroom taking two steps at a time because I felt this desperate need to have my wife in my arms When I got to the room however, I was stopped in my tracks when I saw my beautiful Lacey standing in front of a long mirror, she's wearing a white summer dress and heels, her face was make-up free and her hair had been thrown up in a messy bun With a few bits left down to frame her beautiful face She looked so f*g breathtaking and angelic as she stood there lost in her own world and I couldn't resist walking over to her and embracing her from behind which startled her a little "Are you ok, babe?" Lacey asks me and I nod my head as I nuzzle my face in her neck "I'm fine"

Task him and he narrows his eyes at me as a trail of smoke leaves his mouth while Klayton tries his best to hide his smile "I know you wanna try and scare me or maybe intimidate me but I'm sorry to tell you, sir, there's only one person in this world who scares me and that's my wife"

I say and he nods his head as a smile makes its way onto his face "You're a smart man, Logan...don't you think so, Klayton?" "Of course, sir" "You see, Logan" Giuseppe said as he flicked the head of his cigar into the ashtray in front of him "Klayton and Lacey's grandmother, my dear late wife Olivia used to say that Italian women, specifically Sicilian women like my girls, are scarier than a gun and that a smart man knows to be fearful but not intimidated by his woman, does that make any sense to you, Logan?" "Sure" It didn't but this man is known for his riddles and I just hoped this one would make sense somewhere "I may have been the Don of the Antonelli famiglia and now my grandson Klayton is the head of our famiglia but we both know we wouldn't be the men we are today if it wasn't for the strong women in our lives"

"I agree" I say whilst nodding my head "No offence, sir and I'm sorry if I come off as rude here but what has this got to do with why you both wanted to meet with me?" I ask feeling confused When my father-in-law told me Giuseppe Antonelli wanted to meet with me in private along with his grandson Klayton, I couldn't help but feel nervous as dread filled my body, not because I was afraid of them, no it's because in my opinion, there's no good reason why the former and current Dons of the biggest mafia famiglia in the world would want to meet with me

twenty-four hours before I'm due to marry their granddaughter and cousin unless it's something important and or bad Hopefully, I'm wrong and this is just a casual meeting to congratulate me on my upcoming nuptials because Lace and I have waited too f*g

long for this day and we've worked so freaking hard in more ways than one to make this day happen and make it perfect and I don't want anyone or anything to ruin it for us

"Straight to the point... like that about you, Logan, you don't beat Chapter 6 - Meeting With The D about the bush like other people do" Giuseppe says as he side eyes Klayton who rolls his eyes while shaking his head "We want to offer you a position in our mafia, Logan and [want you to hear us out first before you give us your answer"

"I already gave you my answer three years ago when you first made this offer to me, Giuseppe and I told you both no because my family means way too much for me to enter a lifestyle as dangerous as this one, I don't want any of us to be a part of this life, especially not my kids"

"Are you ok, babe?" Lasked my husband who had suddenly startled me when he embraced me from behind and nuzzled his face in my neck "I'm fine" Logan muttered as his hold on me tightened "Are you sure? my nonno didn't go too hard on you, did he?" I ask him and he shakes his head against my shoulder No Logan said as he pulled his head away from my neck and rested

I thought to myself whilst rolling my eyes

"Wait, Carmella actually said that?" Logan asks confused "Of course not daddy, she said the actual word but I'm too young to say it" "Too young?" Task shocked

"Teddy, can you please remind your father and me what you called your brothers the other day?" I ask Teddy who immediately clenches her lips together tightly like she was trying to stop her mouth from opening and speaking the word she used "We're waiting, young lady" Logan says sounding amused and Teddy lets out a breath as her shoulders sag "Ok fine, I called them dipshits but in my defence mummy and daddy, they are"

Oh my god I swear this little girl of ours is another Carmella in the making and I'm not sure if that's a good or a bad thing "Carmella isn't babysitting our kids anymore, Lace, I'm sick of her teaching them all of these damn curse words" "Yeah because she's the only one who curses around our kids, isn't she?" I muttered under my breath while rolling my eyes "What was that, love?"

"Huh, oh nothing, I never said anything" said before walking over to the couch in front of the window and picking up the white bridal hoodie jacket which was gifted to me by my bridal party I was putting it on when I was once again startled by Logan who embraced me from behind and whispered something in my ear which instantly made my panties wet or at least they would have if I was wearing any

"I heard what you said, love and you should be lucky our daughter is here because if she wasn't then I'd bend you over our bed, I'd pull down your panties and spank that sexy little ass of yours" "Jokes on you, I'm not wearing any panties" I said with a scoff before quickly covering my mouth with my hands Cite / shouldn't have said that Logan groaned in my ear as his hold on me tightened

"You're killing me here, honey" He says and I chuckle "LACEY OLIVIA BLACK!" ©Oh god Talking of killing people "LACEV!!, LACE." Carmella shouted before gasping as her eyes narrowed on my husband

"knew it, T knew you'd be the reason why our night is being held up" "Don't worry, Carm, I'm going" Logan huffed as he kissed my lips before turning around and grabbing his things from off our bed "Good and take that fg dipshit you call a best friend with you as well, he's getting on my goddamn nerves" Carmella said angrily whilst rolling her eyes I groaned in frustration as my husband looked at me with an angry and annoyed expression while I looked at him with a defeated one

It's hard for me to defend my best friend when she's literally just used the same word our child has used right in front of us "Carmella, do all of us a favour, love and go and wash your mouth out with some soap and water, actually no, wash it out with paint thinner instead" Logan growled as he glared at my now confused best friend

"Why?" "Because I'm sick of you teaching my kids these nasty curse words, Carm" "Wow, pot calling the kettle black there, babes" Carmella said and I let out a breath as I ran a hand through my hair I could tell Logan was getting pissed off and I knew his mood was gonna get worse because trying to talk sense into Carmella is like trying to beat a dead horse and get a reaction from it, so I decided to step in and end this before it got out of hand because the last thing any of us want or need is for my husband to get into a slanging match with my maid of honour the night before our wedding his head against mine as he looked at me through the mirror "You look stunning" "Thank you" Isay with a smile "Where are you going?" He asks me and [narrow my eyes at him "The girls and I are going to the spa while you boys go and play poker, remember?"

"Ok, you two, knock it off, Carmella, go back downstairs and take Teddy with you, I'll be with you guys in a minute" "Fine, come along, Teddy" Carmella said as she grabbed hold of my daughter's hand and left the room with her but her departing words left Logan seething "Have I ever told you the story about Mike Hunt, Teddy?" "That's it" Logan growled as he threw down his stuff and attempted to go after my best friend but I stopped him by grabbing his face and kissing him Chapter 7 - Unexpected News. il passionately When felt his body relax and I knew he was calm, I pulled away from Logan and looked him in his eyes as I rested my forehead against his "And you Mister, you'd better get going before Klayton and my brothers come up here and drag your fine ass out of here by your ear"

I'll tell my husband who scoffs "They wouldn't dare" "They will and you know they will now get going" Isay while smacking Logan's ass a couple of times and pecking his lips I fully intended for our kiss to be just a quick peck because [didn't wanna keep the girls waiting and I also didn't want to become even more turned on than I already was but my beloved man had other ideas as he grabbed my face and deepened our kiss locking our lips and tongues together in a very and I do mean VERY passionate kiss When we pulled away from each other to catch our breaths, Logan brushed his lips against mine whilst smiling as he looked me in the eyes "See you tomorrow, Mrs Black" "See you tomorrow, Mr Black" I say with a big, bright smile which my husband reciprocates Logan gave me one last kiss before grabbing his things and leaving the room

I then turned around and I felt my face redden from shame when I saw my smug best friend leaning against the doorframe with her arms crossed over her chest "That was so hot, Mrs Black" Chapter 7 - Unexpected News Carmella said whilst mimicking Logan when she said Mrs Black and I chuckled Yeah, it was hot

I thought to myself as I smiled like a giddy schoolgirl "Come on, Lace, it's time for us to go and get treated like queens at your cousin's spa" "Ok, let's go" I said as I grabbed my bag and left my room with my best friend We then headed downstairs where we were greeted by my mom, my mother-in-law, my sisters-in-law, my cousin's wife Cassidy and a few other family members My grandparents and Abby were supposed to join the guys and girls on their respective nights as well but their flights were delayed due to the weather and there's a chance they may not arrive until tomorrow which is kind of scary because my grandfather is walking me down the aisle with my father and he can't do that if he's not here After greeting all of the girls, we all headed towards Klayton's built-in spa where we immediately changed out of our clothes and into a white bathrobe which were personalised ones gifted to us by Cassie and each one had our names on the front and our roles in the wedding on the back in silver We were all then catered to like queens receiving massages, facials, manicures and pedicures as well as mud baths which were so much fun

It was so relaxing and it felt so good to just sit there and do nothing as people looked after me for once or at least, it was relaxing until the girls started to harass me and beg me to show them my wedding dress which I've kept under wraps ever since I found it a year ago Chapter 7 - Unexpected News. ae Nobody, not even my mom or my grandmother has seen it and I don't plan on showing any of them it until tomorrow "Please, Lace"

"No, Carmella" "Please" "Nope"

"Oh come on, Lacey, we're all family here, it's not like you're showing it to someone at the Wall Street Journal, for Christ's sake" Rachel groaned in both annoyance and pain because she was getting her eyebrows waxed as she spoke "We just want a sneak peek, Lace, that's all" "And I said no, Carm" "But why?" She whines and I chuckle "Because I want it to be a surprise for everyone" I say and Cassidy rolls her eyes at me

"Oh yeah, I forgot" Logan says whilst rubbing his forehead

"Girl, your dress should only be a surprise for your man, not the rest of the family"

"I know but [still want it to be a surprise, Cass, I've worked really hard to get my body back after having Vito and Valentina, especially my curves since my husband loves me with a bit of curve to my body, not to mention, I want everyone's first reactions to seeing me in my dress to be when I'm fully made up as well" "If you say so, Lace" Cassie says as she finishes her glass of champagne and pours herself

another glass I shake my head at her as I narrow my eyes to Carmella who was acting strange despite being her usual demanding and argumentative self "Are you ok, Carm?" "I'm fine" She said with a smile but it didn't reach her ears "How are things with you and Cade?"

"We're great, everything is all Gucci" She said as she took a sip of her orange juice, wait, orange juice? Why is my bestie drinking orange juice? "Carmella" "Hmm" "You know you can tell me anything, right?" lie Rachel said, we're all family here" Isay and she lets out a sigh

"I think me and Cade are on the outs" Carmella says causing me to almost choke on my drink "What? why?" I ask her and she shrugs her shoulders "We want different things, I guess" "Like what?" Cassidy asks with confusion written all over her face and I don't blame her Cade and Carmella are perfect for each other, so why would they be on the outs? I don't get it Chapter 7 - Unexpected News "Well, for starters I want to settle down and have kids and get married and he's not ready for that yet, he said he's still too young to be tied down to an old ball and chain and a screaming baby" She said with a scoff while rolling her eyes "He actually said that?"

I asked feeling shocked I highly doubt Cade would say something like that because he's not insensitive, especially with Carmella who he knows has always dreamed about having the whole husband, four kids, a yappy little dog and a white picket fence ending "Not in so many words, Lace" "Well, what did he say then?" Tasked her and what she said next had me spitting my drink out everywhere, narrowly missing the nail technician who was giving me a pedicure as I did "I told him I was pregnant and he said and I quote ain't nobody got time for that st"

What the fk?

"Are you sure you're ok, babe? do I need to go and have a word with my nonno and Klayton?" Task him as I turn around to face him and he shakes his head Chapter 7 - Unexpected News "No babe, I promise you, everything's fine" I didn't believe him but I decided to drop it anyway because whatever it was is clearly something he's not interested in talking about just yet but I knew he'd eventually tell me when he's ready "What were you thinking so hard about when I first came in here?" Logan asks me as he pulls me closer to him "Huh, what do you mean?" "You know exactly what I mean, love...when I came in here you looked like you were lost in your own little world" "Oh that, I was just thinking about how dreamy and perfect my man is, that's all" I say with a smile whilst wrapping my arms around his neck as Logan once again nuzzled his face in mine and kissed my neck making me moanContent © provided by

"Really?" "Mmm-hmn, it's just a shame Tom Hardy is married because if he wasn't..OUCH!!" I yelped in pain when Logan slapped my ass which felt like he was hitting bare skin because [was wearing a very thin dress and nothing underneath it "Dammit Logan, what did you smack my ass for?" I growl at the little fucker as I looked up at him "Because you called Tom Hardy your man, that's why, Lacey" A pissed-off and annoyed Logan said as he gently gripped my chin and brought his face closer to mine so that his thick, juicy lips were hovering over mine while his beautiful blue eyes burned into my light green ones Chapter 7 - Unexpected News "He's not your man, Lacey Black, I am" Logan growled possessively before crushing his lips to mine T instantly moaned and wanted to deepen our kiss and maybe even have a quickie before we went our separate ways but a throat clearing behind us interrupted us from going any further

We pulled away from each other and looked towards the door Where our eldest daughter was standing with her arms crossed over her chest and she had a smug smile on her cute little face "Daddy's right, mummy, he's your man, not anyone else" "That's right, Teddy Bear"

Logan winked at our daughter who beamed at her father's affection while I chuckled She's such a daddy's girl and has been since day one and I love it "What can we do for you, Teddy?" ask her and her smile brightens "Auntie Carmella is here and she said if daddy doesn't hurry up and get his A double snakes out of here then she was gonna kick him out of here and make sure he lands on his thick A double snake and it bruises" Oh my god

Chapter 8 - Two Sides To Every Coin "Love isn't supposed to be perfect, it's supposed to be real' ~ Unknown Lacey's POV "He said what?" Cassidy practically shouted as I sat there in shock

"Girl, what do you mean now? I've always carried gin and a glass in my bag, especially this one because Duke had it personalised for me" Bunny says whilst holding up her now full glass to show us where it says her name with a pair of bunny ears on it

I mean, it's cute but my god, does she really have to carry this around with her when she's got people on hand to get her one at the drop of a hat? "So, let's talk about Cade" Bunny takes a sip of her drink before saying something which had me facepalming and shaking my head "Why's he being such a py?"

"Grams, seriously" "What? I'm being serious, is he one of those Gen Z thingies, Carmella?" "No Bunny, he's aman" Cassidy says while rolling her eyes "Can't be that much of a man if he's crying over a baby, I mean, back in my day, men were being forced down the aisle with a shotgun to the back by their lover's father if their stupid selves impregnated a woman out of wedlock" "What? that's a lie" "Oh no it's not Carmella darling, where do you think the term shotgun wedding comes from?" Bunny said with a wink as she took another sip of her drink

"Anyway, like I was saying, back in the day men were real men and they took care of their responsibilities but somewhere somehow with time they've gotten softer with each generation and it's become easier for men to run away from their babies instead of raising them" "Not all men are like that Bunny, I mean look at our men"

"What like child abuser James or dk loving Dylan?" My grams says and I spit my drink out everywhere again What the fk is wrong with this woman? and why does she have to be so freaking blunt? "Bunny, that's not fair, you know better than anyone how guilty James feels for everything he's put our children through" "Yeah and Dylan did me a HUGE favour by cheating on me, grams thank you very much"

"Oh I know, my loves and I promise you, I'm beyond proud of my son for the changes he's made within himself and for how hard he's worked to repair things with Liam and Lacey, I also agree that Dylan did you a huge favour Lacey my girl, I'm just proving a point to you all that each generation is getting softer and weaker instead of stronger and tougher like they're supposed to" "And what's this got to do with Cade and I?"

Carmella asks "Everything Carmella honey because Cade is running scared instead of being a man" "Well, maybe he is scared, grams, I mean, think about it nobody is ever ready to have a kid, even if they've got all of the money in the world and a huge support system around to help them they're never ready, so maybe that's why Cade is spewing bullshit like I ain't got time for that st

because he's scared" "But why? he's so good with all of your kids, so why would he be scared to have his own?" Carmella asks sounding sad "It's probably because he can't return your kid like he can with ours when they're being little assholes" "Or maybe it's because he was abandoned by his own dad and he's terrified of history repeating itself"

Rachel says nonchalantly shocking everyone except for my mom, Bunny and my mother-in-law "What are you talking about, Rach?" Rachel looked around at all of us and she seemed shocked by how confused we all are "Oh come on, Lace, you know Cade and his brother never had a

"You heard me, Cass, he said he hasn't got time for a baby yet" "Pfft time, what's time got to do with it?" Cassidy asked while scoffing and rolling her eyes "If time was enough to stop someone from having a baby then the human race would've gone extinct a long time ago because nobody has got time for anything these days, we're all way too busy working our asses off for ourselves and other people to focus on time"

dad growing up" "Yeah they did, their dad was always around" "No, he wasn't" She says while shaking her head "Yes he was, Rachel, he used to work two jobs to provide for them until Logan's dad gave him a job at the company"

"That wasn't their dad, Lace, that was their dad's brother who stepped up to help their mom with raising them when his pathetic brother did a runner" Oh my god "How have we never known about this?" "Because I didn't want anyone to know that my dad didn't want me, that's why, Lace"

Cade's sad and pained voice says from beside me

We all look to our left where we see Cade, Logan, Klayton and my brothers standing with their hands in their pockets, Klayton was leaning against one of the tables with his arms crossed over his chest and Logan had his hand on Cade's shoulder offering him some comfort "What are you guys doing here?" "The wife texted me, cugina" Of course she did I narrowed my eyes at Cassidy who looked at me with an expression like /don't care, I did what! did as she shrugged her shoulders

"Cade, why didn't you tell any of us about your real dad?" "Because it's embarrassing, Lace" "No, it's not, you fr+=+g it" I say in frustration "It's embarrassing for your dad but it's not for you, Cade" "Lacey's right, son" My mom says whilst looking at Cade with a sad expression "So, is this why you're scared to be a father because your own father was a piss poor parent?" For Christ's sake "Bunny..you don't always have to put your two cents in, ok" "If you say so, Lace" Bunny says with a smile as I close my eyes and shake my head in annoyance "Wait, what are you talking about Lace? what baby?" Logan asks confused

"Our baby, Logan" Carmella says and I had to stifle a chuckle when I saw the look on my husband's face who looked like a cartoon character with his wide eyes and open mouth "A baby? you and you are having a baby?" "Babe, you're so cute when you're confused but you just look ridiculous when you're acting stupid" I say earning chuckles from most of the people around us while Logan glares at me

"Watch your mouth, love" He says with a slight growl and I chuckle at him "Yes Logan, Carmella's pregnant with my baby" Cade says in a tone that sounded like he was fed up "Wow" "Congratulations brother, why didn't you say anything?" "Because he hasn't got time for that st"

Cassidy says in a snarky way and Cade's eyes widen in shock as he glares at Carmella "You told them what I said?" "Well, yeah" Carmella said sounding like she was gonna cry "What you said really upset me, Cade and it made me feel like you didn't want us"

"Are you tripping, Carmella? why wouldn't I want you or our kid?" "Because you're so focused on time, Flavor Flav" I said while rolling my eyes and everyone laughed

Chapter 8 - Two Sides To Every. ~) I love this guy, he's like another brother to me but I swear he's as thick as two short planks "With all due respect, Lacey, can you stay the fk out of this, please? it's got nothing to do with you" @Oh hell no "Don't you dare disrespect my best friend like that, asshole" "No, it's ok Carm, I mean, who the hell am I to have an opinion on how he's feeling, right? I was only nineteen years old when I fell pregnant with not one or two kids but three babies and I was forced to run away from everyone and everything I ever knew and loved and was forced to raise my kids and work my ass off with only one person there to help me"

"Cassidy's right, Carm, I mean, don't get me wrong, I'm not diminishing Cade's job or how hardworking he is because he does work his

ass

I looked up at Cade who was now looking at me with a guilty expression on his face "Do you think I was ready, Cade? do you think I was prepared for that st at nineteen? because trust me, I wasn't..you've met my kids, they're not the easiest kids in the world to raise, especially Dayton who is like a frog on crack most days of the week, so what's your excuse, hmm?" "My granddaughter is right, son, if she can do it on her own at nineteen even though she didn't have to because she could've just called Logan, her grandfather and me but anyway" My grandmother muttered the last part under her breath and I glared at her

It's been almost ten years since I left New York and this bitter little rabbit still refuses to let go of the fact that I ran instead of calling my grandparents or talking to Logan "What makes you think you can't be a great dad because yours wasn't around?" Chapter 8 - Two Sides To Every. w) "And why would you compare marrying Carmella to marrying an old ball and chain?" Cassidy chimes in causing all of the guys to groan "fel, Cade"

"You seriously said that, brother?" Logan asks Cade with a look on his face like someone has just grabbed his balls "Yeah, I did say that but only because Carmella said having s*x with one guy for the rest of her life would be like sucking on a gobstopper" for the sake "I don't get it" Rachel says confused "Because gobstoppers are neverending, sweetheart and it literally takes a lifetime just to finish one, that's what she means, she's referring to sucking only one dk for the rest of her life" My mother in law says and I looked at her in shock "Guys, really? my grandmother is right there" "Your grandmother is Bunny, principessa, she's probably..actually no, she's definitely heard and said worse this one" Klayton says with a chuckle and I facepalm "You got that right, boy"

My grams said whilst winking at my cousin "So..what's what? what's happening? are you guys together? or are you splitting up? what's going on?" Cassidy asks and the room immediately fell silent "Well, I know what I want and what I wanna do but I don't wanna take the thunder away from Logan and Lacey by doing it" Chapter 8 - Two Sides

To Every. Y) "What do you mean, Cade?" A confused Logan asks and Cade rolls his eyes as he whispers something into his ear

Logan's face immediately went from confused, to his eyebrows shooting up in shock to a happy and genuine smile appearing on his face "Cade, Carmella means the world to Lacey... can guarantee you right here and now that if you do what you're planning on doing then she won't have a single problem with it" Huh Cade smirked as came over to me and kissed my cheek "I'm sorry for what I said, kid"

He whispered in my ear before going over to Carmella and getting down on one knee Holy st /s he gonna do what I think he's gonna do? I looked up at Logan and his smile alone was enough to answer my unasked question "Carmella Johnson, will you make me the happiest man alive and marry me?" "Yes, you prick, give me that ring"Belongs to - All rights reserved.

Carmella shrieked and I chuckled She's spent way too much time with Logan this one I thought to myself as all of the girls cheered excitedly while the guys complained about how they're the happiest man alive with their respective spouses "Are you happy, my love?"

Logan whispers in my ear and I smile "My best friend is pregnant and she's just got engaged..I couldn't be happier" ass off for Logan and me, not to mention, he goes above and beyond for our kids but he also still manages to find time to do stuff for himself and to also treat you like a queen whilst working hard, so what's his problem?" "Exactly, Klayton's a mafia Don and a businessman, Logan also owns several businesses as do most of the other spouses and do you know what they've all got in common, Carm? they're all family men" Cassidy growled and I could tell she was getting frustrated which 1 understand why she'd feel this way but I don't think her words are helping Carmella's situation right now "Look Carmella, I wouldn't put too much stock into Cade's words, if I were you" I say and Carmella looks at me like what the fk? "Lacey..Cade literally said he hasn't got time for that st, the st in question being our child"

"Well, he should've worn a love glove then if he's not ready for sleepless nights and shitty nappies" A familiar voice says from behind me I turned around and my eyes widened with excitement when [saw my grandmother and Abigail standing there with huge smiles on their faces and looking like they've just come here from a business meeting

"Bunny" "Hello, darling" My grams said as she gently gripped my chin and kissed my cheek "What's going on? I thought you guys were stuck in London"

"We were but thankfully, the weather cleared up and we were able to jump on the jet the first moment we could" Thank god I honestly thought they weren't gonna make it which would've ruined everything for me if they couldn't "Anyway, back to cowardly Cade and his breeding balls" "Grams" I scolded my grandmother who just shrugged her shoulders as she pulled out a bottle of gin and a gin glass Wait, what the fk? Chapter 8 - Two Sides To Every. ae "Bunny, you're carrying bottles of gin and a gin glass in your bag with you now?" My mom asks her

"Lacey" I say my baby's name hoping to coax her awake from her deep slumber but it seems she's way too lost in there to be tempted because I've been attempting to wake her up for about ten minutes now and she's not budging "Lacey, baby" I place kisses on her neck as I run my hands all over her body only to have them harshly slapped away by her "Not tonight, Tom, I've got a headache"

"Do you really think my mom can keep me away from the love of my life, babe?...besides, I'm thirty-three years old and we're already married and have been for three glorious and amazing years, so these stupid and old ass traditions need to take a run and jump off the highest cliff" I say and Lacey laughs "Anyway, I'm here because I've got a surprise for you" "A surprise?" Lacey asks shocked as she looked over at her phone "Logan, it's three o'clock in the morning"

"T know" I say with a smile as I pull the blankets away from Lacey's body "Babe please, I'm tired" Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvou. ad Lacey whines and I chuckle "Tknow you are, baby just trust me, it won't take long and you can go back to sleep in a little bit" My wife looked hesitant at first but then she sighed and gave in "Ok, fine" "That's my girl" Lacey put on her slippers and grabbed her robe as we left our room

We had to be careful as we walked through the big, silent house because everyone is asleep and my mom is like a freaking car alarm, that's how much of a light sleeper she is and I'm not even kidding You only have to breathe gently near my mom and she's up and alert like a damn meerkat "Babe, where are we going?" Lacey asks while yawning f+, she's so adorable I thought to myself as I wrapped my arm around her shoulders and pulled her closer to me

"Be patient, my love" Lacey huffed and I kissed her temple I love this woman to death, impatience and all Lacey and I headed out of the mansion and we were immediately hit with the night's chill but it wasn't that bad even though my wife was acting like we were in Antarctica not Italy "Logan, where are we..." Lacey was once again about to moan when a different set of moans interrupted her

"Oh yes, oh yes, harder, fk me harder" Oh my god

I looked towards my wife whose eyes had widened, her mouth was gaped open and she looked both horrified and disgusted at the same time, not that I can blame her We both then narrowed our eyes towards a very familiar white yacht and let me tell you this, it's not mine or Klayton's "Logan..please, tell me that's not who I think it is" Lacey asked barely above a shocked whisper "I can't, babe, I." "Oh yes, Bunny, ride me my wild little rabbit"

"Fuke, Duke" What the fk? "I think I'm gonna be sick" "Oh come on, babe, s*x is normal" I say with a chuckle and Lacey looked at me like what the fk? "Logan, my grandparents are in their eighties, s*x shouldn't be normal for them, if anything it should be non-existent" "I hope not, babe, I'm planning on exiting this world with either you on top of me or me on top of you"

Tsay with a smirk "Oh my god" Lacey groans while rolling her eyes "That's it, like that Duke, harder, spank me harder" Holy st Duke and Bunny's moans and groans got louder and more Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvou. ~) profanity-laced and I could tell it was scarring my wife which I couldn't allow

There's no way in hell I'm gonna allow my grandparents-in-law to destroy my amazing s*x life with Lacey because they wanna get freaky and kinky out in the open "Come on, babe, let's go before your grandparents put you off s*x forever" I quickly grab Lacey's hand and drag her away towards our boat We got on it and headed towards the middle deck where I had a couple of my staff set up the couch bed for us and also light some candles as well "Babe, what's going on? why are we on our boat?" "I wanted to spend some time alone with you, that's all"

I say as let out a breath and look at my wife "The past three years have been so manic and stressful for us, there hasn't been a single day where something isn't going on or where we don't have to attend something or plan or arrange something and we're always busy with either work or with the kids that we very rarely have time for just us" "What are you talking about, babe? we've spent a lot of time alone together during our trip to Italy" "Yeah, f+*++g each other's brains out, Lace" I say with a scoff and a chuckle "But we haven't spent any time together just us on our own with

Lacey groans as she snuggles further into her pillow pissing me off This little woman is seriously over here dreaming about Tom Hardy instead of me What the fk? Oh her I also wanted to talk to her about the threat Klayton and her gramps received involving her but Giuseppe decided that we should wait until after our wedding to sit down and discuss it with her because we don't wanna ruin our big day over it

"Why are you frowning, Logan?" Lacey brought me out of my thoughts as she gently caressed her fingers around the sides of my eyes and in between my eyebrows "I'm not frowning, sweetheart, I'm just thinking" "That's the same thing with you, babe"

"You always have this cute little frown on your face or you look like you're serious and mad at the same time when you're lost in a deep thought process" "Baby, I'm a man, we don't do cute, we do rugged and hot and sexy but never cute" I say with a scoff "Whatever you say, honey but just so you know, our boys look exactly like you so if they're cute then that means you're cute as well" She says whilst pecking my lips "If you say so, babe"

"I do, so, what's got you thinking so hard?" "Your brother" I say as I let out a sigh "My brother? what about my brother?" Lacey asks confused and also with a hint of sadness in her voice "He's not here, babe..Luca and his family aren't here to enjoy our day Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvous */ with us and they should be" "Yeah, know"

"Well, first of all, babe, I smacked your ass because A) I can and [will Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvous whenever and wherever I want to and B) you were too busy dreaming about another man while I was trying to wake you up which pissed me off, so I spanked you for it" [smirked at my wife who looked at me confused "What are you talking about, Logan? I wasn't dreaming about another man" "Yes you were, love"

Lacey says as she looks away sadly "I know he's not here and I'd honestly love nothing more than for my brother to be here for my wedding and have fun and enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime moment with all of us but I also know that being here in Italy holds a lot of bad and traumatic memories for him, not to mention, I know how hard he's worked to get to where he is now in his life and I don't wanna ruin all of that for just one day" "That's true, I guess" I say with a sigh "I really do wish he was here with Dylan and the kids though, it would make our day even more perfect if they were" Lacey says sadly as she rests her chin on her hand

"If I'm being honest with you, babe, I'm really glad they're not here" "What? why?" Lacey's head shot up as she looked at me with a shocked expression and I looked at her like really? "Seriously babe, who wants their wife's ex at their wedding?" Task her and she rolls her eyes "I never had you pegged as the jealous type, Logan" "I'm not jealous, love, I'm just making a point"

"Well, don't because Dylan is my brother-in-law and to be honest with you, babe...there's nothing there anymore, I mean, he's a handsome guy and I can't deny that." "Yeah, you can, you can absolutely deny it, Lacey" Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvou * I interrupt her as I glare at her "And while we're talking about handsome men, Tom Hardy is also ugly in your noggin from now and so is Michael B Jordan and that guy from the Barbie movie"

"But Ryan Gosling reminds me a little bit of you, babe" Lacey whines but quickly backs down when she sees my glare "Ok, fine, you're the only handsome and sexy man in my life and head." "And dreams" Isay and she rolls her eyes "And my dreams" "Good girl" Isay with a smile as I kiss her lips

"Anyway, like I was saying, Dylan is like a brother to me now and it gives me the major ick to think that we were more than that at one point" "So, no regrets?" Lasked her even though I already knew the answer and she was silent for a few seconds as guilt flashed in her beautiful green eyes which Tove so much "Just one and I'll always live with this regret but we agreed that we'd never bring this up again because we can't change it" She says with a smile and I smiled back at her

Tknew that the one thing she was talking about was hiding our kids from me and I know just how badly she feels about this which is why I refuse to elaborate any further on what she said Instead, I just kissed her forehead and told her //oved her as I rested Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvou 4 her head back on my chest "Ilove you too, Logan, more than anything"

The Next Day..

Lacey's POV "Lacey...Lacey principessa, wake up" "Five more minutes, Logan" Itried to shoo my husband's hand away from me but the fucker grabbed it and held it as his other hand caressed my cheek "It's not Logan, principessa" "Well then piss off Klayton before I grab your Glock and aim it at your..."

"Finish that sentence, my little principessa, I dare you" Klayton said followed by several chuckles but what was strange is that Klayton's voice didn't sound like he was close to me but one of the chuckles did What the hell? I opened my eyes and blinked several times to clear them before looking up at the owner of the hand on my cheek

My eyes then widened as tears filled them when I saw who it was "Luca" "Hey there, kid"Text © by

"No, T wasn't, why would I dream about another man when my dream man is standing right here in front of me?" She asks whilst smiling at me like the beautiful queen she is

"Do the words not tonight Tom, I've got a headache ring any bells for you?" "Tom? who the hell is T...oh, that Tom" Lacey had a look of fk on her face which made her look so freaking adorable "Yeah, that Tom" I said with a growl "So...care to explain to me why you're dreaming about Tom Fr+g Hardy instead of me your quote-on-quote dream man?"

"Babe, it's all Rachel's fault, she wanted to watch Legend before bed and you know what a sexy man in a suit does for me..OUCH!!" She yelps when I once again smack her ass "Quit smacking my ass, Logan" "Never baby, my hands will always find some excuse to touch that juicy peach of yours and don't you dare blame my sister for your dirty dreams"

"Hmm, I guess you're right, she told me last night that she had a thing Chapter 9 - Midnight Rendezvous for the actor who played Ronnie Kray more than the one who played Reggie Kray even though they were both played by the same actor" Lacey said whilst looking baffled "It says a lot about my man Tom's dedication to the craft if people think two different actors played the twins"

Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unless. 7 Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unless You're Perfect
"Before you point fingers make sure your hands are clean" ~ Bob Marley Lacey's POV
"Luca" "Hey there, kid"

"Oh but we thought, you know..." Klayton said with a smirk and I rolled my eyes "This is a family boat, Klay, not the freaking love boat" "Oh that's a shame" Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unless —/ Dylan joked and I glared at him "Hey you, eyes off..my brother I can forgive but my husband 1 won't"

"I'm just joking, Lace" "You'd better had be, Dylan because I'm not playing this time around, I swear to god I'll set my big dog over there onto you if your dk gets even semi-hard from looking at Logan" I said whilst referring to a smug Klayton and Dylan gulped as everyone chuckled

"Anyway guys, we need to head back to the mansion because you two are getting married in a few hours and we've got a LOT to do before then, so let's go" Logan's mom said excitedly as she clapped her hands together like a seal We all left our boat and

Logan made sure to keep his arm wrapped tightly around my shoulders as he held me close to him because he knew we weren't gonna see each other again until the moment I walk down the aisle which is only a few hours from now but to Logan that feels like a lifetime

We were walking up the dock heading towards Klayton's mansion when we were approached by Liam who was running towards us "Hey guys, have any of you seen Duke and Bunny?" "No, why? what's up?" My dad asks a worried Liam who runs a hand through his hair "One of the maids has just come down from going to wake them up for breakfast and their bed is empty, in fact, she said it looked like their bed hadn't even been slept in"

What the...oh, eww!, I just got a flashback I thought to myself as I buried my face in my hand feeling disgusted I was really hoping that I had dreamt or imagined what I heard last night but apparently, I didn't "Seems to be the thing here in Sicily" Ruth said while side-eyeing myself and Logan We were all then left stunned into shock and silence when we heard noises coming from one of the yachts and then saw my chuckling and very worse for wear grandparents stumbling off their yacht looking all disheveled like they've just come home from a night on the town, their hair is all messed up and my grams is carrying what I believe are her shoes and I think a thong in her hand What the fk? My grandmother wears thongs? Ashiver ran down my spine at the thought Why can't my grandmother be a normal granny panties- wearing grandmother who wears comfy cardigans, eats biscuits, drinks tea and watches Family Feud? why does my grandmother have to be a gin-swilling, thong-wearing, bar- hopping rabbit?

"We need to head back before anyone notices we're gone" "Yeah, let's go, my little rabbit, we need to replenish our energy for the wedding and the after-party" My gramps said cheekily whilst smacking my gram's ass causing her to squeal The pair then headed towards the mansion as we all stood there in shock

"I think I'm gonna be sick" "Ditto, brother" Liam and Luca said as my mom's concerned voice fitted to my ears "Are you ok, honey? you look a little green" "My parents are eighty and are still having sex..surely that's not legal" My dad said while sounding like he was trying to stop himself from baulking "Oh come on you lot, it's just s*, I swear if my Livy was still alive we'd be doing it all over this island and in every room of every piece of property on it as well" My grandfather says as he pushes past us and walks away from us

"What the fuck...nonno, this is my island" Klayton growled at our grandfather before muttering you dirty old man under his breath so that he couldn't hear him Yeah, my cousin may be a big, bad mafia Don who can make grown men soil their boxer shorts with just one look but when it comes to our grandfather, he's a teddy bear We all headed back to the mansion and quickly grabbed something to eat before going our separate ways much to my husband's annoyance so that we could get ready for our wedding My mom and mother-in-law ordered me to go back to my room and have a relaxing bath while they dealt with my kids and made sure they were all bathed and had their hair styled

"Oh my god" I shrieked as I jumped up and wrapped my arms around my brother's neck as he wrapped his arms around my body "What are you doing here, Luc?" "What do you mean what am I doing here? I'm here to attend your wedding, dummy" What? I thought to myself as I pulled away from him

Teddy also wanted to wear a little bit of make-up as well but her father quickly shut that st down and said he'll only allow her to wear make-up Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unless you're thirty...seriously, men are so dramatic Anyway, after having a nice, hot relaxing bath, I got out and did my usual routine and changed into some sweats before going into my bedroom and my eyes widened when I saw over a dozen women, some I recognised and some I didn't rush around setting things up and preparing their stations "Oh good, you're done, come and take a seat"

Cassidy says as she grabs hold of my hand and pulls me over to a chair For the next hour or so, the girls and I were primped and preened getting our hair, make-up and nails done, well, those who didn't get their nails done at the spa last night are getting them done I was fortunate enough to get mine done last night and I'm absolutely made up with them, I also love how bridal they look whilst still looking like an everyday look as well They're an ombre French manicure style with a few gems on the middle fingernails and a sprinkling of silver glitter on the wedding fingernails "So Lace, how are you feeling? are you feeling nervous?"

Rachel asks me and I narrow my eyes at her through the mirror "Why would I be nervous, Rach?" "Because it's a natural reaction for one to feel on their big day" "Not for me it's not, I love Logan and I can't wait to finally have the wedding of my dreams with the man of my dreams" I said with a smile earning aww's from everyone "So, you're not nervous at all?" My mom asks me and I shake my head

"Wow, I was a wrecking ball of nerves when I was marrying your father and he's the man of my dreams as well" "Me too but I think mine was more because everyone and their grandmother was invited to my wedding, it wasn't just our family and friends who were invited" My mother in law said while rolling her eyes "Yeah, I remember your wedding, it was the wedding of the century and everyone was talking about it and wanted to be invited to it" Belongs to - All rights reserved.

"Weren't you pregnant with Logan for your wedding, mom?" "No, we conceived Logan on our wedding night, Rach" Ruth said earning a disgusted sneer from her daughter which she chuckled at "You asked, Rach" "Yeah, I did...ooh speaking of the wedding night, I got you a present, Lace" Rachel said as she excitedly jumped up from her chair and came over to me with a gift bag My face immediately flushed bright red when I noticed the bag she was holding was from an adult company in the UK called Ann Summers and I just knew that whatever was in this black bag could range from anything as simple as pyjamas or lingerie to s*x toys, not that I needed the latter Rachel handed me the gift bag and I hesitantly looked inside of it only to sigh in relief when I saw a white lace lingerie set with a garter belt and suspenders neatly tucked under some packing tissue "didn't know if you had anything arranged for your wedding night, so I picked you up a few bits while Liam and I were in London the other

"Thanks, Rach, I love it" I say while hugging Rachel She then goes back to her seat just as my grandmother comes into the room looking way better than she did when we saw her earlier "Hello, my girlies, who's up for a little drinky or two?" Bunny asked whilst holding up two champagne bottles "I think you need to slow down, Bunny"

"Why? it's only eleven o'clock, Louise" My grams said whilst looking down at her diamond watch "Yeah but your drinking is causing you and grandpa Duke to have drunken sexcapades on your yacht, Bunny, that's why you need to chill on the juice" Rachel says nonchalantly as she typed away on her phone and! almost choked on my drink as I looked over at my grams I fully expected for Bunny to be shocked and or a little bit embarrassed by what Rachel said but no, that damn little rabbit smirked and chuckled "Well. what can I say? rabbits need to have a little fun too"

Ewwil Mom?" "Oh come on, Louise, don't tell me none of you have ever gotten randy out in the open with your other halves?" Bunny chuckled and everyone immediately said no and dismissed her question Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unless ©) "Oh really? Louise, do you remember when we got Lacey bhinticed ac a baby and you and my son were so horny you couldn't wait until after the service to get your freak on, so you guys did it in the confessional booth in the church?" What the fk? "Mom" I gasped "That is so not..that is so..how do you know about that Bunny?" My mom gasped while my grams smirked "Oh and let's not forget about Sabrina and Justin doing it doggy style on the ferris wheel on a date night right after

"But thought you said the only way you'd ever come back to Italy is when our nonno dies" "Jeez, thanks kid" My grandfather scoffed I looked up and my eyes narrowed in confusion when I noticed there were several other people here as well including Klayton, Cassidy, my grandfather, Dylan and both mine and Logan's parents who looked pissed for whatever reason, well our moms looked pissed "No offence, nonno"

they'd just had their daughter, Ruth and David once had s*x on the subway at night, then there's Rachel and Liam having a quickie on the balcony of their bedroom at Jade's most recent birthday party and you Cassidy Antonelli my dear, you and Klayton are always getting incredibly freaky in his office which FYI ladies has got two walls made up purely of windows meaning anyone from Klayton's secretary to a window cleaner could've seen them two getting down and dirty with each other" Oh my god "Cassidy" I gasped whilst trying not to laugh at my cousin-in-law who was looking at my grams in horror

"You noseey little rabbit, how do you know about that?" "Wouldn't you like to know? oh and you, my beautiful granddaughter" Oh no "You can't talk either, Lacey my dear because I know for a fact that hy Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unles you and that handsome husband of yours have done it everywhere but in the privacy of your own bedroom" st, she's right "So, you can all judge me and your grandfather all you want and act all holier than thou but none of you are innocent" "But you're in your eighties, grams, we're not" Astunned Sabrina says and my grams glares at her "And?..age is just a number Sabrina Carpenter and you'll realise that when you're my age and you still wanna ride my grandson into the sunset" Oh my god Js this really the conversation we're gonna have right before I tie the not?

Luca smiled at our grandfather who huffed and rolled his eyes at him which made us chuckle "Anyway, like I said, I'm here because my one and only baby sister is getting married and I didn't want to let a little thing from my past get in the way of me being here and sharing this day with her" "A little thing" I scoffed and rolled my eyes "Your trauma isn't a little thing, Luca" "I know, Lace" Luca said as he gently stroked my hair

"But 'm now at a point in my life where I'm insanely happy and content because I've got my wonderful husband, I've got my five amazing kids who are also here by the way, I'm also a successful businessman and I'm the healthiest I've ever been in my entire life but most importantly kid, I'm ina place where I can finally move on and not let the past influence my future or any of the decisions I want to make" He says and I smile at him "I'm so happy you're here, Luc" "Me too, kid" "I'm ferreg not" Logan growls from beside me

I smiled as I turned to face my husband who was glaring at everyone "Did you all seriously have to come here and wake us up?" "Yes we did because you two were missing" My mom shouted as she angrily crossed her arms over her chest "Pfft, don't be silly, Louise, we weren't missing" Chapter 10 - Don't Judge Unles = Logan scoffed earning annoyed groans from our mothers "You were missing, Logan, you were supposed to be staying in the room that was assigned to you by Klayton and Cassidy but when we went to wake you up this morning, we found the room void of life and your bed was still made, so we went to the only other place we knew you'd be because you've never in your entire life been able to do as you were told Logan David Black, only for us to get another shock when we realised she was missing as well"

"First of all, mom, you're full naming me over this...seriously?" Logan asked incredulously "And secondly, I'm a thirty-three-year-old married man and a father of seven kids, did you honestly think I was gonna do what my mommy said and sleep in a separate room away from my wife?...excuse my language, mom but that st wasn't freaking happening, I can't sleep without my baby next to me" "It's tradition, Logan" Ruth said angrily as she glared at her son "Tradition, my foot, mom"

Logan huffed as he pulled the blankets back and everyone immediately looked away when he did which confused me at first but then I realised that they must've thought he was naked because he was still shirtless "Relax guys, he's not naked"
