Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par... 4 Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Part 1 "In your eyes, I'm alive, inside you're beautiful something so unusual in your eyes, I know I'm home, yeah, every tear, every fear, gone with the thought of you, changing what I thought I knew, /I'll be yours for a thousand lives' ~ Rita Ora Lacey's POV This...this look right here is exactly how I imagined myself to look on my wedding day

My mom smiles at me and hands me my bouquet of cream and pale yellow roses which have got a pale yellow ribbon wrapped around the stem We then left my room and headed downstairs where my best men, bridesmaids, my gramps and my father are all standing waiting for me

My adult bridesmaids are wearing a light yellow, flowing chiffon dress with a split in the side, a boat neck with a pleated front on the chest along with silver heels and their hair has been styled in waves with some up and some down but their hair is different to mine and their make-up is kind of similar to mine except their eye make-up is bolder than mine is and some of them have gone the extra mile with highlighter and blush It's a personal preference is all I can keep telling myself even though I don't like how bold their make-up looks As for my little bridesmaids they're wearing a light yellow puffy princess dress with little roses on the top and some of the hip part of the dress, white pumps and their hair has been styled into a bun with a pale yellow ribbon wrapped around their hair and matching rose clips on the sides

My bridesmaids have also got a pale yellow bouquet of roses With a cream ribbon wrapped around the stem and the younger girls have got a small white basket filled with light yellow rose petals for them to throw as they walk down the aisle All of the guys are wearing a grey suit with a grey waistcoat, a white shirt, a light yellow tie and black shoes while my boys are all wearing white shirts, light grey waistcoats, pants with black suspenders on them, a grey bow tie and black shoes

They all look so cute and my heart skips a beat as I look at my brood looking so beautiful and handsome "Mummy, you look so beautiful" "Yeah mum, you look like a princess" Teddy and Dayton said happily "Thank you, my babies" I say while blowing them a kiss "I think you should change mum, I don't think daddy would be happy seeing you dressed like this" "Jeez, thanks Lo"

I say while rolling my eyes and chuckling "I'm not being horrible, mummy, I'm just saying, I don't think dad will want all of the boys looking at you in that dress" "He's got a point, kid" Ryker said and I glared at him "Don't encourage him, Ryker and you, if your father's got a problem with my outfit then he's just gonna have to deal with it, isn't he?"

"Yes, mummy" Logan Junior smiled at me and I smiled back at him "We need to get this service started ASAP guys, Logan looks like an angry wolf on the prow! out there"

My grams says before taking a sip of her gin "Bunny, seriously..could you not wait until AFTER the ceremony to start drinking?" "Girl, be serious Bunny chuckles before walking away Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par. — I looked at my grandfather feeling stumped and he immediately understood where I was coming from "Don't worry, sweetheart, I'll go and sort your grandmother out"

My grandfather quickly ran after my grams as I rubbed my forehead in frustration while looking at my dad who was looking at me with stars in his eyes "What are you looking at me like that for, dad?" "Because you look stunning, that's why, love"

My dad said with a proud smile as he gently cupped my face and kissed my forehead before looking me in the eyes "I can't even begin to put it into words how much I love you, Lacey and also how insanely proud I am of you" "I already know, dad, I promise you" My dad smiles at me as he kisses my cheek "I can't believe the day has finally come where I get to give you away and I can't think of anyone better to give you away to than Logan Black" "Why? because we're merging with the Black family when you do" I joke around with him and he laughs "That is a perk, sweetheart but no, it's because I think of Logan as my own son and I can't think of a better husband for you than him" "Better than Dylan?" Task with a smirk and he scoffs while rolling his eyes "Even better than that dipshit" "Hey, I'm standing right here" Dylan whines from behind my dad

Dylan whines from behind my dad We both looked at Dylan and Luca who looked offended by my dad's Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par. ©) words, not that I can blame them because I'd feel the exact same way as well if I were them "Get in your positions, idiots, the ceremony is about to start" My dad groaned and I chuckled as the boys walked off looking annoyed

I've never been one of those girls who knew from day dot how she wanted her wedding to look or where she wanted it, the colour scheme, the menu, you know things like that but I always knew that I wanted to look sexy and classy on my wedding day and I do

"Looking back I don't know why I was so desperate to see you guys together" My dad said as he looked back at me "To be fair, I feel the same way..no offence to Dylan but I honestly can't see myself feeling or looking at him in the same way I do with Logan" "That's because you deserve a man who will give you the world and you've got that, baby" "Thanks, daddy" Thug my dad just as Neyo's Never Knew I Needed starts to play

I then let out a breath to calm my nerves as my gramps came back in while holding Bunny's gin glass which he handed off to a waiter and told him to keep it hidden until the after-party "I swear your grandmother is going to be the death of me" "Mom is the epitome of living every day like it's your last, dad" "Well, she's certainly drinking every day like it's her last, son" Duke said with a sigh and we both chuckled My bridesmaids and best men went out one couple at a time after my daughter and nieces who are my flower girls went out and had their little moment My heart was beating a mile a minute and I had to take several deep breaths as I watched the line go down until it was just myself, my dad and Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par...) I my grandfather left standing there I wasn't acting like this because I was nervous but because [didn't realise how much the lyrics to this song described Logan and me until I heard them For the way you changed my plans, for being the perfect distraction, for the way you took the idea that I have of everything that I wanted to have and made me see there was something missing

For the ending of my first beginning and for the rare and unexpected friend, for the way you're something that I'd never choose but at the same time, something I don't wanna lose and never wanna be without ever again You're the best thing I never knew I needed, so when you were here I had no idea, you'd be the best thing I never knew I needed, so now it's so clear, I need you here always

This is literally our song, no wonder I couldn't get it out of my head when I was thinking about what song I wanted to walk down the aisle to or it could just be that Teddy and Sophia have been watching The Princess And The Frog non-stop lately, not that I can blame them, it's a great movie Anyway, my feelings for Logan keep getting stronger and stronger with each passing day and he makes my heart skip a beat just from the sound of his voice or from a mere thought of him or a quick glance at him Logan is also the only person who makes me want to be a better person and work harder to live a beautiful and amazing life with him and

"It's your turn, lambchop" My grandfather says as he and my dad kiss my temples I closed my eyes and sighed in contentment feeling like the luckiest girl in the whole world I've got an amazing grandfather, a wonderful father who I've had a rocky relationship with but now we're at peace with each other and these two incredible humans are about to give me away to my love We walked out into Klayton's garden area and I gasped slightly when I saw how beautiful and classy it looked There are probably around two maybe three hundred white chairs set into a dozen rows, a fluffy white runner going down the aisle which looks like rose petals but it's not, it's just a thin carpet that's all Two cream pillars at the end of the aisle with a clear vase full of white roses on each of them and two tall, clear candle holders with floating candles in them next to the pillars, there are also a set of candles at the end of each row of chairs as well At the other end of the aisle on the steps of a building my cousin calls a gazebo but it's not, is a white floral archway with a table behind it and standing in it is the pastor and my handsome man who is dressed in a suit similar to our best men fk me sideways on a motorbike Why does this man always look so fg sexy and dreamy?

Even when he's just woken up and his hair is a mess and his breath smells like the back end of a badger, he's still the hottest man alive Logan's proud and beautiful smile became more prominent the closer we got to him and I had to clench my thighs together because of how Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par... w turned on he was making me feel When we got to the end of the aisle, my dad and gramps both kissed my cheeks before handing me over to my husband "This should be the part where we tell you to look after our little lambchop, Logan but we've already seen how well you've looked after her, not to mention how happy you've made her feel as well, so please just take care off her for us" "Twill, Duke, I promise you" Logan said while winking at me "Don't worry, gramps, uncle Klayton and grandpa Seppe said that they'll let my dad play with their sharks if he ever hurts their principessa, I don't know why though, that sounds like a treat to me, nota punishment" Dayton says while muttering the last part to my grandfather but everyone including me heard him All of our guests awed and chuckled at Dayton while I glared at my dumbass cousin because I knew exactly what he meant, hell, anyone who has ever seen The Godfather knows what Klayton means by that statement "Don't look at me like that, Lacey sweetheart, you're the principessa of the Antonelli famiglia and you know better than anyone how over-protective we are of you" Yeah, don't I know it I thought to myself while rolling my eyes I really wish my family would respect me and my decisions enough to keep my kids out of this mafia bullshit but hey, I guess that's completely unavoidable when you've been born into it

My hair has been styled in asome up and some down style, it's been curled into waves and some hair has been left out to frame my face as well, I've also got a silver clip in my hair which looks like something a Greek goddess would've worn back in their day My make-up is a stunning sun-kissed look with soft browns, creams and golds on my eyes along with black eyeliner, mascara and false eyelashes, a slight rouge on my cheeks with a little bit of highlighter for some glow and a nude ombre combination on my lips

Thad this radiance and glow about me that those around me would immediately think this was a pregnancy glow when they saw me but obviously, it's not, so, it's either a healthy and happy glow, a make-up glow Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par... =) or a bit of both As for my dress, I was inspired by Hailey Bieber's dress, I mean, I can't stand the girl but her wedding dress was absolutely stunning

Weirdly enough, it's a style that I never would have imagined wearing on my own big day but after I saw her dress, I couldn't get it out of my head, so I had my designer create a dress that was similar but not the same if that makes any sense My dress is a white, lace, long-sleeved, off-the-shoulder, mermaid style dress with a sweetheart neckline and a train at the bottom, I'm also wearing a white lace thong, a white garter and pearly white heels which have also got pearls embellished on them as well For my jewellery, I'm wearing a cluster leaf white gold jewellery set which once belonged to my late grandmother Olivia and it includes earrings, a necklace and a bracelet, I'm also wearing my engagement ring as well

Speaking of my beautiful engagement ring, I was looking down at it with a huge smile on my face as my mom finished buttoning up my dress "You look absolutely stunning, my dear daughter" "Thank you, mom" I say with a smile as I look at my beautiful mother through the mirror "You look amazing too, I think daddy's gonna have a hard time keeping his hands off you when he sees how gorgeous you look in that dress" I say and she rolls her eyes while chuckling "When can't that man keep his hands off me, Lacey, I swear it's the Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par. y Italian in him" She says and I scrunch my face up in confusion "Dad's not Italian mom, he's English" I say and my mom looks at me like really, Lacey? "Baby, your father has definitely got some Italian in him, I swear it, where else do you think your grandmother found her addiction to drinking?" Oh my god thought to myself with a chuckle "Mom, Bunny isn't addicted first of all and secondly, the Brits are very well known for their love of alcohol, so maybe it's in the British blood to drink alcohol like it's water" "That's true... swear there's more gin pumping through that woman's veins than there is blood, Lacey my darling, now..." My mom said as she let out a breath and looked me up and down "I can't get over how beautiful you look, Lacey" She said whilst holding both of my hands in hers "I can't believe this day has come and you're finally getting married"

"I'm already married, mom" I said with a smile "You know what I mean, sweetheart" She said while waving her hand like she was waving away what I said "Besides, your London wedding was more Logan being an impatient brat wanting to mark his territory, this..this right here is your real wedding, are you ready?" Chapter 11 - The Wedding - Par. ad I briefly look at myself in the mirror and smile "Definitely"

"I'm free as a bird when I'm flying in your cage, I'm diving in deep and I'm riding with no brakes and I'm bleeding your love when you're swimming in my veins, you've got me now, been waiting for a lifetime for you, been breaking for a lifetime for you, wasn't looking for love til found you' ~ Rita Ora Lacey's P.O.V I was standing in front of my husband who was holding my hands in a tight yet comfortable grip as he looked me up and down with his lips going from either a smile or to him biting down on his lower lip

They're also white gold except Logans has got a big half-a- heart on it with a diamond above it and mine is similar except the heart is smaller "Logan, please take this ring and place it on Lacey's finger as you repeat after me, with this ring, I thee wed" Chapter 12 - The Wedding - Par. if Logan happily picked up the ring and placed it on my finger before bringing my hand up to his lips and kissing it "With this ring, I thee wed" He said while looking me deep in my eyes

"Lacey" The pastor nodded towards me and I picked up the ring and placed it on Logan's finger

"With this ring, I thee wed" I said whilst looking my husband in his beautiful blue orbs as our hands once again joined together "By the power vested in me, I now pronounce you both husband and wife, Logan you may now kiss the bride" The pastor had barely finished speaking and Logan had already caged my face between his hands and kissed my lips "Possano l'amore e la gioia che provate oggi accompagnarvi per sempre" (May love and the happiness you feel today be with you forever) The pastor said as Logan and I continued to kiss

Our guests cheered and clapped and some even wolf-whistled which I'm guessing is some of the younger guys "I love you, Mrs Black" Logan declared to me as he rested his forehead against mine "I love you too, Mr Black" I say and Logan once again kisses me before whispering something against my lips which made me roll my eyes and chuckle "Now you're mine forever, Lacey"

"Like we've got a choice, babe, we're stuck together until the day we Chapter 12 - The Wedding - Par.

both die even if you do one day grow to hate or detest me" "That will never happen, babe" Logan said with a slight growl before kissing me My family don't believe in divorce, we believe in working hard and fighting through every problem no matter how big or small or easy or hard it is, so yeah, when we say we're forever, then that literally means we're forever

After our wedding ceremony, we had our pictures taken and there was a very cute picture our photographer had taken of Logan and Logan Junior and he must've taken it thinking it was a sweet moment between a father and his son but in reality, it was a totally different situation Our eldest son was in some kind of distress and he needed his ear defenders which my mom had rushed to get so while they were waiting, Logan had knelt down in front of our son and covered his ears to try and calm him down which he did and it resulted in the pair laughing and smiling There was also another picture the photographer had taken of Logan and me on the balcony of Klayton's mansion which overlooks the ocean and the beautiful blue sky above us It was a brief moment we had alone and we didn't know he was capturing this moment for us but I'm glad he did and I'm definitely gonna get this framed and hung up in several rooms in our home Now we're all hanging out in the grand hall in the mansion having drinks as we wait for the chefs to finish preparing our meals "Oh Lacey, your babies are making me feel so incredibly broody" "Really, Rach?" I ask while gently rocking Vito up and down as Rachel looks at

"Yeah..I'd really love for Liam and me to have another baby" "Well, why don't you?" "Oh, we're trying believe me we are but we're finding it hard to conceive at the moment" Rachel said with a slight quiver in her voice which hurt my heart My heart truly goes out to anyone who either can't conceive naturally or struggles to conceive and it makes me feel a little guilty for giving up my chance to conceive again even though I know that I don't want any more kids

"Have you and Liam thought of getting yourselves checked out?" "Why would we do that, Lace? it's obvious Liam can conceive" Rachel said with a scoff "Just because Liam's got a kid, it doesn't mean his swimmers.

are still active" Isay and she chuckles "Seriously though Rach, I think you guys should go and see a doctor or you should just book yourselves a trip to the Maldives away from stress and just hump like bunnies until you've got a bun in the oven" "Speaking of Bunny's"

Rachel said with a chuckle and I narrowed my eyes at her in confusion "Huh "Your grandfather thinks he's so slick hiding my favourite glass from me but I found it" Bunny says whilst excitedly waving a bottle of gin in her hand as she takes a sip from her glass Chapter 12 - The Wedding - Par... Ys "Where did he hide it?" "He had the maids hide it behind the bread bin of all places"

"Like what you see, honey" I whispered to my husband who nodded his head "Oh, yeah baby" He said and I chuckled The pastor smiled at Logan and me before clearing his throat and starting the ceremony "Dearly beloved, we are gathered here today to join this man and this woman in holy matrimony"

The bread bin? "Why the bread bin?" "Because I hate bread and he knows I wouldn't look there" Bunny says and we both chuckle as I shake my head at her I then looked up and I had to do a doubletake when I saw Klayton standing across the room with a glass of bourbon in one hand and a cigar in the other and he had an irate look on his face, he was also talking to a couple of women neither of whom I knew but they looked vaguely familiar to me Who the hell are they? and why are they at my wedding? "Hey Lace, can I steal Vito from you, please? I wanna show him off to my mom"

"Sure, Sab" I said whilst keeping my eyes focused on Klayton who seemed to be getting even more pissed the more he speaks With these two women "Excuse me, Rach" I said as I stood up and walked towards Klayton I don't know why but I've got this nervous feeling about these two women and I don't like how angry they're making my cousin feel

Klayton looked around in an angry huff before his eyes landed on me and that's when his whole entire demeanour quickly changed "Principessa" Klayton smiled as he held his arm out for me I happily embraced him and wrapped my arm around his waist as Klayton kissed my head Chapter 12 - The Wedding - Par... - "Cugina, you remember my friend Vanessa and her wife Katerina, right?"

Oh st yeah, the model "Of course yeah, it's so nice to meet you again" "You too, Lacey, congratulations on your wedding" Vanessa said while hugging me "Thank you" "You're so lucky, girl, I swear if I was straight then I'd be some major competition for you for that man of yours" Katerina said while winking at me

"No, you wouldn't Kat" Klayton growled and Katerina poked her tongue out at him making me chuckle "Anyway, are you ok, kid?" Klayton asked me as he rubbed my arm

"I'm fine, you just looked angry from across the room, so I wanted to make sure you were ok, that's all" I said and [instantly noticed Klayton, Vanessa and Katerina's bodies stiffen before Katerina relaxed and said something which made my cousin glare at her "That's just his resting Don face, Lace, pay no attention to it" "Watch it, Kat" Klayton growled and she blew a kiss at him which had him groaning in frustration and I chuckled slightly I didn't believe them and I felt like there was something more going on but I decided to ignore it for now, so that I could relax and enjoy my day

A few minutes later, a man came over and whispered something in Klayton's ear, he nodded his head and thanked him before excusing him "Food is about to be served, let's go and find that wife of mine and your husband and let's eat" "ok Klayton grabbed hold of my hand and we walked throughout the hall to find Logan and Cassidy who were fortunately together with Cassius, Logan Junior and Dayton "Hey guys, food's gonna be served now and..." "Oh thank god, uncle Klay, my stomach feels like I've got a wolf living in there because of how much it keeps growling at me" Dayton interrupted my cousin who laughed and picked him up "Well, let's not leave you waiting any longer, my dear nephew..LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!" Klayton shouted to get everyone's attention "Our hardworking chefs are about to serve us some delicious food, so can you all please follow us outside to our beautiful garden area?" Klayton said and I could tell from the looks and the sounds coming from our guests that they were feeling the exact same way as Dayton, not that I can blame them, I'm bluddy starving as well "Let's go wifey" Logan said as he grabbed hold of my hand and kissed my lips which once again earned us some cheers from the crowd Is this a common thing? do wedding guests feel like it's mandatory to cheer and wolf whistle whenever the bride and groom kiss? or is it just my famiglia who does this?

There are maybe one or two hundred round tables with white and gold chairs, the table covers, candles, dinnerware, cutlery and a stunning floral centrepiece are also white and gold themed as well There's also a bar and a dancefloor in the middle of the gardens and hanging above the entire area are dozens of white lanterns which are gonna look so beautiful as the sun sets and night falls upon us "Wow, everywhere looks so beautiful" "Yeah it does, it's a wedding worthy of my queen" Logan said while kissing my temple and I closed my eyes as [

The pastor said before going into the sanctity of marriage, how we shouldn't take this contract lightly and that marriage is a partnership where we both have equal rights and an equal voice "A great marriage is born the moment when a husband and a wife decide to stop fighting against each other and start fighting for and with Chapter 12 - The Wedding - Par. o each other" "No truer words spoken" My grandfather Giuseppe said and I smiled at him smiled We then walked over to our table and I sat down in my assigned seat which was in between my two Logans and [couldn't help but narrow my eyes at my son "Are you ok, baby?" I asked Logan Junior who seemed a little on edge "I'm fine, mum" "Are you sure?" "Mmm-hmm"*

"Are you sure?" "Mmm-hmm"* He says with a smile and I wrap my arm around his shoulders as [kiss his head "Principessa, why is your son wearing earphones at the dinner table?" "They're not earphones, nonno, they're ear defenders" I said and my gramps looked at us confused "Nonno, my eldest three babies have got ASD but Lo is higher on the spectrum than Dayton and Teddy are and these ear defenders help ease his anxiety when he's around loud noises or when he's in crowded spaces like right now for example" "You don't say" My gramps said whilst looking at my son with an intrigued expression Food was eventually served and it was all of mine and Logan's favourite Italian meals but there were also some other meals on the menu which were off limits to Logan and my kids because they've got tomatoes in them

After we were finished eating our desserts, several people including Logan, Klayton, all three of my brothers as well as my grandfather, my dad and father in law gave speeches which was fun, lighthearted and even emotional at times, especially my dad's speech but it was Logans speech which left me feeling confused and it heightened my feelings from earlier when I felt like Klayton was up to something Logan said that he'll love me forever and protect me from any threats that may come my way which on the surface seems like a very sweet and protective statement for him to make but it was the tone of his voice and also the look on his face as he looked at me before looking at my grandfather and Klayton which made me think something is going on After the speeches were done, the dancefloor was then opened and everyone started to have fun but I was still stuck on what my husband said and my mind was running a mile a minute over it Urghtt /'m probably just overthinking it "What are you thinking so hard about, beautiful?" Logan asked me as he gently caressed my cheek with his thumb

I looked up at the handsome man next to me and smiled "Nothing important" Logan briefly narrowed his eyes at me before smiling as he held his hand out for me "Well in that case...may I have this dance, my queen?" He asks me and my smile brightens "Yes you may, my king" I place my hand in Logan's hand and he helps me to stand up before leading us over to the dancefloor

"Ladies and gentlemen please give a round of applause for our bride and groom, Mr and Mrs Logan Black" My grandfather announced on the microphone as we approached the now empty dancefloor while the song Say You Won't Let Go by James Arthur started to play I wrapped my arms around Logan's neck and he wrapped his arms around my waist holding me as close to him as possible as he nuzzled his face in my neck placing gentle kisses on my neck and shoulder as he did We were both lost in our own little world and I loved being held in my husband's arms as I hoped and prayed to god that life would stay this perfect for us forever but I just couldn't shake this awful feeling that something bad was heading our way

God, hope I'm wrong

"Usually, we wait to do this part but the groom has requested I do this part first to get it out of the way" The pastor said confusing me "Is there anyone here present who believes that these two should not be lawfully wedded here today?" "Not that it matters anyway" Logan muttered and I chuckled The gardens were filled with silence as I looked at my husband with an are you happy now? face and he smiled back as he winked at me "Now, it's time for the vows" The pastor said before addressing Logan "Logan, do you take this woman to be your wife, to live together in holy matrimony, to love, honour and comfort her and to keep her in sickness and in health, forsaking all others for as long as you both shall live?" "I do" Logan said with a bright smile as his eyes glittered with excitement

"Lacey, do you take this man to be your husband, to live together in holy matrimony, to love, honour and comfort him and to keep him in sickness and in health, forsaking all others for as long as you both shall live?" "I do" I smiled at Logan as my thumbs gently caressed his knuckles Chapter 12 - The Wedding - Part "Logan, repeat after me, I Logan David Black, take you Lacey Olivia Black to be my wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and cherish, till death do us part"

Logan repeated what the pastor said and my eyes filled with tears when I heard the love and conviction in Logan's voice

Of course, I already knew how much Logan loved me and he makes sure to tell me or show me how much he loves and adores me every day but still, hearing it made me feel very emotional "Lacey, repeat after me, I Lacey Olivia Black, take you Logan David Black to be my husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and cherish, till death do us part"

I repeated these vows making sure Logan could hear all of my love for him in every single word "Now, for the rings" The pastor said with a smile as Logan Junior and Dayton stepped forward I was confused when I looked down at the two white pillows in my son's hands and I saw two very different rings from our original wedding bands Our original rings were white gold bands and mine had a strip of diamonds on it but these rings are different

/ wanna live with you even when we're ghosts cause you were always there for me when I needed you most, I'm gonna love you til my lungs give out and / promise til death we part like in our vows I was sitting here enjoying watching my little principessa dance with her husband and it warmed my cold heart seeing her looking so happy and in love with Logan and seeing him looking at her like she was his entire world but then I heard this one line in the song they were dancing to and it instantly soured my mood

"Straight to business, that's what I like about you, Klayton, you're always thinking with a business brain even when you're at such a beautiful event such as your cousin's wedding" Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi a4 in a condescending and amused tone "speaking of your cousin...she's a sexy little thing, isn't she?...tell me, were you two ever kissing cousins?" An angry groan escaped my mouth as my face narrowed into a glare "I know I'd definitely try and tap that fine ass of hers if she was my cousin"

"Watch your f*g mouth, asshole, you don't know who the fk you're messing with" I say whilst catching my grandfather's eyes and indicating for him to come over to me "On the contrary, Klayton, I know exactly who you are, I know exactly what makes you tick and I also know what I have to do and who I have to use to bring the big, bad Don of the Antonelli famiglia to his knees...speaking of which, where is the object of my obsession? where's she gone?" He asks and my eyes widen as I look around for Lacey who is no longer in the gardens "Klayton, what's going on?"

My grandfather asks me but I ignored him as I continued to look for Lacey hoping to find her with Logan or her kids but they're all sitting at a table laughing and joking together SEG Where is she? I thought to myself only for my question to be answered by the asshole on the phone "Ah, there she is, so beautiful and virginal in her sexy, tight, white Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi y 5, I hate to mess it up This content © 2024 though" What?

"What are you..." BANG!! No "LACEY!!" My heart felt like it had stopped beating when I heard a loud gunshot coming from somewhere on my property and I wasted no time in going to look for Lacey whilst hoping to g god that she was ok I was in such a state that I didn't realise that I was the only one panicking and I also didn't hear Logan or my wife shouting for me as I ran through the gardens I stopped in my tracks when I heard another gunshot but this time it was followed by several excited cheers What the hell is going on? I ran towards where the gunshots were coming from and I was left absolutely confused yet relieved when I saw all of my cousins along with Duke and Bunny and they were f*g skeet shooting frok / forgot we arranged this activity for the adults today "Klayton, come and shoot, it's so much fun"

Lacey said excitedly I wasn't interested in shooting, well, maybe I am with a certain individual but right now, I'm more interested in making sure my cousin is ok "Klayton, you should...UMF!! Lacey made a weird noise when I stormed over to her and hugged her Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi 34 life out of her "Are you ok, Klay?" "You're ok, you're ok"

I muttered to myself and I thought my voice was too low for anyone to hear but clearly, I was wrong "Is everything ok, Klayton? you're very pale" Bunny says whilst holding a rifle in one hand and her third limb in her other hand "Should you be shooting a gun while you're drinking, Bunny?" "Child please, I'm an expert at doing both" Bunny said while downing her drink Too right you are, old girl

I pulled away from Lacey and cupped her face as she looked at me confused "Klayton, what's going on? why are you acting like someone died?" Because I thought you did, principessa I thought to myself as my phone once again pinged I looked down at my phone and there was a text from the same unknown number which said 'day one of Russian roulette, unsuccessful, will I be lucky next time?' I moved away from my cousin and walked over to her husband ignoring Lacey as she tried to get my attention

"Klayton..." "Keep an eye on your wife, Logan, that's an order from your Don, not your cousin in law" I whisper in Logan's ear before walking away and heading towards my Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi i office I hate to work on such an important day but I need to so that I can find out how this bastard is not only on my island but also my property and how he's able to do so without anyone noticing My first thought was that I've got a traitor in my mafia but I didn't want to dwell on that thought for too long because it

The reason why it soured my happy mood is because I didnt like to hear about ghosts and death on such a wonderful day, especially with the current threat that is hanging over my little cuginas head I know it may seem crazy and confusing that my Lacey is currently being threatened and you're probably thinking why is Lacey being threatened? she's a good girl who stays out of drama and is probably the least problematic person on the planet, well, would you believe me if I said it's not a Lacey thing but it's a me thing?

didn't sit well with me I swear to god though, I'll burn the fg world to the ground if I find out I've got a traitor on my side who is putting my famiglia at risk Lacey's POV "Klayton, Klayton Antonell, get your fine ass back here" Cassidy shouts as she chases after her husband while I just stand there feeling utterly confused

What the hell was that all about? "Are you ok, babe?" Logan asks me as he approaches me and rubs me on my back "Yeah, I'm fine...do you know what that was all about?" I asked my husband and I noticed his jaw instantly clench together from my question

"No, I don't but you know what Klayton's like, babe" "Dol?" I ask confused and Logan scoffs at me "Of course you do Lace, you know that he's always been over- protective of you, maybe his ass dropped when he saw you weren't at the party anymore and he went a little over the top.

thinking something bad had happened to you" Hmm, I guess

Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi. bar "Come on, love, don't dwell on Klayton and let's have fun" "Ok, fine" Logan smiles and kisses my lips as we turn back to the group just in time to witness Carmella and Cade fight, except this time it was for a good reason "You're not doing it, Carmella" "I'm sorry but who died and made you my dad?" "I may not be your father Carmella but I am the father of the child in your stomach and I say you're not doing it" Cade shouts at my best friend who looked at him in shock and I swear I saw a look of arousal in her eyes as well "Skeet shooting is dangerous for a woman in your condition, Carm, 50 no, you're not doing it, end of story" Cade growled and Carmella looked at me like what the fk? "Do you hear this, Lace?" "Well..." Oh my god, really Lacey?" Carmella asks annoyed as she looks at me like I've just betrayed her "Well, he has got a point, Carmella, I mean, think about it, don't you remember Racey Tracy back when we were in college, she had just come back from her 'vacation in Utah" you know the vacation she claimed was a family vacay but really she was in Los Angeles visiting her mom's plastic surgeon getting her balloons blown up" I said whilst holding my hands out in front of my chest indicating to a big pair of boobs "Anyway, a few weeks after she'd returned we all went skeet shooting Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi I which she only did for an  picture but she ended up accidentally firing her gun and it popped her tit in the process"

"I remember that...the entire left side of her chest was left badly bruised after that" Dylan said earning a confused look from Luca "How would you know?" Luca asked and Dylan looked at him like really? "Babe, she was called Racey Tracey for a reason and it wasn't just because she was hopping around men like fleas on a dirty sofa, no, it's because she always wore really revealing and skintight clothing, trust me, love even you would've looked back then" "He's got a point, Luc" "ENOUGH!!!"

Cade shouted startling all of us "I'm putting my foot down, Carm, so accept it and move on" "Wow, you're so hot when you're in protective daddy mode" Carmella said whilst putting as much emphasis as she could on the word daddy ©Oh god I facepalmed and chuckled This girl has got no shame at all "Come on, daddy, let's go and see how protective you truly can be of us"

"Carmella" Cade groaned under his breath "What? you can't get me anymore pregnant, Cade" Carmella says as she grabs hold of Cade's hand and practically drags Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi ~ him away making us all laugh Later On That Night.

Is it just me or does anyone else end up having a way better day than they planned or expected when they got married? Me and my family have spent a long time planning this wedding and everything always looked so good on paper but it was even better in person and I couldn't have imagined a more perfect and magical day for us One of my favourite moments from tonight was when Luca and Dylan presented a video that they had created for us Which featured a montage of pictures and video clips of Logan, me and our families from the past three years and there was even some pictures of us from when we were kids as well and the song they added to it was For You by Rita Ora and Liam Payne It was such a beautiful video and a thoughtful thing for the boys to do for us and yes, it made me feel very emotional and tearful as I watched it God, I'm such a baby

Talready had a feeling that this was about me and not Lacey when we received the first threat against her but then I received a new threat this morning and now I'm one hundred percent sure that this person is after me and not Lacey but they're using her because this person knows that there are only a handful of ways you can truly hurt me and that's through hurting someone I'm extremely over-protective of, mainly the women in my life

Anyway, I heard it was supposed to be a surprise and that they had arranged for my parents to present it to us because Luca and Dylan weren't originally planning on being here and this was their little contribution to our wedding if you will but then they ended up coming here and presenting it to us themselves "Hey baby, are you ready to turn in?" Logan whispers in my ear "Yeah, just let me go and wrangle the kids and..." "Don't worry about it, babe, our parents have said they'll deal with the Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi — kids tonight so that we can relax and be alone with each other" Logan interrupts me "Logan, we can't keep relying on our parents to look after our kids for us" I say with a contented sigh as Logan starts to kiss my neck "Why not? they want to do these things for us, babe" "But they're our kids" "And they're our parent's grandchildren, so let them grandparent" Logan said as he nibbled on my skin and I had to suppress a moan which was begging to escape my mouth "Come on, baby, I haven't seen you naked in over twenty-four hours and you know I need my daily fill of your sexy, voluptuous body" He says and I chuckle "You sound like an addict, babe" "That's because I am...my name is Logan David Black and I'm addicted to my wife and her body and no, I'm not interested in beating this addiction because I plan on dying from it"

Logan said and I chuckled as I opened my eyes and looked up at my husband who was smirking at me as his eyes twinkled With excitement "You're crazy, do you know that?" "Crazy for you, now come on..everything's wrapping up anyway and it's only the younger kids that are around now" Logan said while referring to our guests who are in their early twenties "Ok, fine" Logan smiled as he grabbed hold of my hand and helped me to stand

We were then about to head towards the mansion when we were approached by Klayton who had come back to our wedding party a few hours ago but his mood has remained the same as it was when he left "Hey Logan, can I have a quick word with you in private, please?" "Can't it wait until tomorrow, Klay, it's my wedding night" "No, it can't" Klayton said stoically which left me feeling confused and annoyed What the fk is his problem?

Logan groaned under his breath as he turned around to look at me, he then cupped my face and gently kissed my lips before looking me in my eyes "Go back to our room, babe, I'll meet you up there in a few minutes" "But Lo..." "Lacey" Logan said sternly and I knew better than to fight him on this even though I really wanted to "Fine"

"Good girl" Logan once again kissed my lips before I left and headed towards the mansion feeling annoyed with both my husband and my cousin I really hope that whatever Klayton wants to talk to Logan about is important because if it's not then I'll be pissed or even more pissed than I already am Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi..

Anyone who knows me knows that my mom, my wife and my cousin Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi. 34 are three women who I'm not only protective of but they're women who I have put on a pedestal and they're women who you DO NOT mess with under any circumstances because I will literally tear you limb from limb and skin you alive if you do

These women mean the absolute world to me and it's safe to say that they're also my weakness along with my children which is why my enemies, mainly the ones who are a few screws short of a full set love to use them against me and threaten me with them to get their own way and nine times out of ten I can squash these idiots and eliminate them from this world but I can't with this one, at least not yet anyway The reason why I can't is because if this is the person who I believe it is then he's a rat who has been avoiding my traps for a very long time now, he also knows that my entire family are under constant protection and are always surrounded by security who could put the CIA to shame but Lacey isn't and this asshole knows that which is why he's threatening me with her

Don't get me wrong, Logan has made sure that Lacey and their kids have always got security detail with them and they're some of the best guys in the business but they're mediocre compared to what the mafia can offer and this is why my grandfather and I want Logan to join us and become a capo for our mafia so that we can make sure they're all safe and under the best protection possible PING! PING! I was brought out of my thoughts when I heard my phone ping

I pulled my phone out of my pocket and my eyes narrowed when I saw it was from an unknown number but I knew exactly who it was because this asshole always texts me from this number which unfortunately, is untraceable Chapter 13 - Over-Protective Bi Anyway, I opened up the text message and my eyes widened and my heart started to rapidly bounce against my ribcage when I saw a picture of Lacey and Logan dancing and the caption underneath it read 'such a beautiful couple, it's such a shame they won't last long, isn't it?'

What the fk? I immediately sat up and looked around the gardens, specifically in the areas where this picture could've possibly been taken hoping to catch a glimpse of the bastard so that I could take him out and end this bullshit once and for all but there was nobody there except for the happy and smiling faces of the wedding guests My phone then started to ring and I answered it absentmindedly "Antonelli" "Hello, Klayton®

A voice which sounded like it had been altered said and I was immediately on high alert "Who is this?" "That doesn't matter right now, what matters is this beautiful wedding you've got going on, it's quite the shindig, Klay...where was my invite?" "What do you want, asshole?" I growl as I stand up and walk around whilst subtly looking for anything untoward or suspicious The bastard on the other end of the call started laughing maniacally which not only pissed me off but it unnerved me as well

Logan's PO "Fine" Lacey huffed and I smiled at her "Good girl" I kissed my wife's lips and watched as she walked away from us with an annoyed and pissed-off expression on her face Don't worry baby, you're not the only one who is angry because I am as well

"I can make that promise, nonno because I know exactly who the bastard is that's doing all of this and was already gunning for the motherfucker for what he put my wife and our son through but now...now he's signed his own death certificate with his own goddamn blood by putting a target on our little princess's head" What the fk? "Wait, you know who's doing this?" I ask and Klayton closes his eyes and sighs before looking at me "I had a feeling who it was when we received the first threat but now I'm almost certain it's him" "Him?...him who?"

Lask and Klayton sighed in frustration as he ran his hand down his face He then walked over to his bar and poured us both a glass of bourbon Klayton handed me the crystal glass and I downed the brown liquid in one go ignoring the burning sensation in my throat as I became determined to get to the bottom of this bullshit "Explain everything to me right now, Klayton before I lose my st" "ok Klayton lets out a breath as he sits down on the arm of his couch

"Like I said earlier, my grandfather and I had received another threat this morning and this one made me realise just how personal this was" "What did this threat say?" "See for yourself" Giuseppe said as he handed me an envelope with Klayton and Giuseppe's name and address on it I took the envelope from him and I was horrified when I pulled out the contents and I saw one of our wedding invitations with what looked like blood splatter all over it and on the back of it, it said —f/can't have your wife then I WILL have your cousin, I know how much your little princess means to you, Klayton'

I snapped my head up to look at Klayton who looked like a bomb ready to explode "What's going on, Klayton? who the fk have you pissed off so badly that they want both of our wives?" Chapter 14 - Heated Discussions "It's a long story, Logan" "I'm all ears" Isa sternly and I could tell he wasn't happy with my tone but didn't care Some asshole is out there threatening my wife's life and this fucker knows who it is and he's not telling me, so I honestly don't give a st if he's not happy with me because right now, I'm not happy with him "There are two very powerful and influential mafia families in this world, Logan, the first is obviously us and the second is la familia Lopez which is run by their Jefe Trevor Lopez who just so happens to be my cousin through our mothers" What? "Are you being serious, Klay?" "Unfortunately" Klayton said while downing his drink "But why would your cousin be out to get you like this?..1

don't understand" "Long story short..from a very young age, Trevor was manipulated by his mom who made him think that he could not only be the leader of the Lopez family mafia but also the Antonelli family mafia via eliminating me and that's what he tried to do by messing with the one thing on this planet that nobody should ever and I mean EVER mess with, he messed with my wife and child, Logan" Klayton growled and I noticed his hands which were clenched together were turning white and red from how tight they were "What did he do?"

Tasked him and he scoffed Chapter 14 - Heated Discussions "What didn't he do? is the better question, Lo" Klayton said as he ran a hand through his hair He then explained everything Trevor has done from causing a near-fatal car crash which almost killed Cassidy and her son, kidnapping Cassius after he was born via a C-section and keeping him from them for four whole years and also trying to tempt the Williams family to his side by offering to buy their daughter from them which ultimately pissed them off, not that I can blame them Twas shocked at the lengths this man was willing to go to so that he could destroy Klayton but it turns out that the worst is yet to come "My parents-in-law warned Trevor to stay away from Cassie and our entire family which he did until four years ago and that's when things took a dark turn for us" "What do you mean? what happened?" Task Klayton who inhaled deeply before explaining the rest of the story to me "Trevor stalked our families and he took advantage of

Cassidy when she was vulnerable and trying to come to terms with losing Tommy and also me showing back up in her life like a crazy ass tornado which made her even more vulnerable...anyway, something happened and I ended up hurting my wife again and she ran away to London for a break and to rehabilitate herself but Trevor followed her and he used his charms to seduce her so that he could kidnap her and take her to his territory in Madrid where he revealed everything to her, he also took great joy and pride in telling my woman that he killed Tommy because he wouldn't do as he said, I think his words to her were he was gonna die anyway, so / ended his miserable life for him before the cancer could * Oh my god

That last one really threw me for six because I always thought Tommy had died from cancer but it seems that's not the case "Wait, so if this guy is obsessed with Cassidy then why..why is he all of a sudden coming after my wife? I don't get it" "freak knows" Klayton growls as he rubs his forehead in frustration "It's because he knows Klayton's weaknesses are the women in his life and his children and he also knows that by targeting Lacey instead of Cassie it gives him more of a chance to gain all of the influence, power and money than he ever could if he continued to go after Cassidy because now he can gain all of yours as well as all

I thought to myself as I narrowed my eyes from my retreating wife to my cousin-in-law "This had better be important, Klayton® "Oh it is, brother, trust me..follow me" Klayton said the last part after he had briefly looked around the gardens We then headed inside of his mansion and took the elevator to his floor where his office is "Is this about the threat against Lacey?"

of ours" Giuseppe said as he caressed his stubbly chin "It also helps his libido that Cassidy and Lacey are stunningly beautiful young women who he wouldn't mind having on his arm if he succeeds which he won't" I let out a sigh as I sit down in a chair resting my arms on my knees as I run a hand through my hair "How is this guy still on the loose?" Task as I look up at Klayton

"I know you, Klay and I know that you'd never let someone like this go without severely hurting or killing him...shit, I remember when you disfigured that guy's face in college for smacking Cassie's ass in a club" "You did what now?" Giuseppe asks as he looks at his grandson in amusement "didn't disfigure him" Klayton scoffed and I looked at him like really? "No, you didn't, you just broke his nose, jaw and both of his orbital bones as well as both of his hands and you said and I quote next time you'll think twice before you touch my girl's ass * I said and he smirked as Giuseppe chuckled whilst muttering sounds like Klayton under his breath "So, tell me why is this guy still in the wind if he's caused you and Cassie so much heartache?"

"Because he's a little rat who escaped my clutches four years ago and he's been MIA ever since" "How did he escape Fort Knox?" ask confused Klayton has got one of the tightest security systems I've ever seen and nobody until this guy at least has ever managed to escape him, so I'm shocked to hear that he was able to be successful "Trevor and his fk buddy Antonio escaped during a fire and ever since then, we've been doing everything we can to find the little motherfuckers and get revenge on them for my wife, my son and my best friend but the slimy snakes have successfully managed to stay hidden" "And now he's after my Lacey..why? how does he even know about her?" I ask while resting my chin on my palm "I don't know, maybe he's done his research while he's been living his life as Splinter in the sewers" Klayton says and I chuckle "Wait." I drifted off when I remembered something Klayton had said earlier

"Did you say he had a business in London?" Chapter 14 - Heated Discussions "Yeah, according to Cass, he's got a club out there..why?" "Lacey was in London" I say earning shocked looks from Klayton and Giuseppe "She lived in London for five years and was probably there the same time he was..maybe they met at one point" "That makes no sense, Trevor doesn't mess about when he sets his eyes on something or someone, so if he knew she was there then he would've taken her right there and then"

"Not if he knew she had three kids and was all on her own..maybe he decided to wait until Carmella was there or wait for her to come back home to New York to make his move which he has done" "Yeah, three years later" He says and I huff in frustration "You've got an answer for everything, haven't you?" Task while glaring at him and he smirks at me "Seriously Klayton, nobody knows what's going on in that psycho's head, to be fair, only a psycho knows what's going on in a psycho's head, so who knows what this guy's plans are or why he's waiting to make his move..what I do know is that Lacey was in London and so was Trevor, I think we should question Lacey and see if she knows him, I mean we're gonna tell her about this bullshit anyway, so it wouldn't hurt, right?" "Actually..." Klayton drifted off as he looked at his grandfather I looked at the pair confused as they shared a wary look with each other "What..what's going on? why are you looking at each other like that?"

"We've decided to keep this from Lacey for the time being, Logan" "What? why?" Task shocked "We just think it's for the best, that's all" Klayton said pissing me off "THE BEST? THE BEST FOR WHO EXACTLY?" Content provided by

I growl but neither of them answers me I then stood up from my seat and started to pace the floor as I ran my hands through my hair and roughly tugged on it I wanted to be calm but I couldn't because we all agreed that we should tell Lacey about this, not just because it's the right thing to do but because I didn't want to keep any secrets from her Now Klayton and Giuseppe have changed their minds for whatever reason, making me feel absolutely livid "Watch your fg tone with me, Logan, you may be Lacey's husband but that doesn't mean I won't kick your ass for disrespecting me"

Task Klayton who nods his head whilst pouting his lips in anger My heart skipped a beat looking at him because he looked like a ticking time bomb who was about to explode which means that what he wants to talk to me about is bad

Klayton growls at me and I scoff "bh please, I think you forget who you're talking to Klayton" I stopped pacing and crossed my arms over my chest as I glared at my cousin-in-law "Have you forgotten that I used to fight and that I used to be a viper in the octagon because of how vicious and nasty I was when I fought my opponents? oh and don't get me started on the nice little fortune I helped you make when I won EVERY single fight even though you never needed the frrrrig money" I say and Klayton glares at me as I glared right back at him

"Alright you two, knock it off" Giuseppe said as he stood up "Look Logan, I know you're angry and I understand how you feel, trust me I do but you need to trust us and trust our decision" "Why should I, hmm? why should I trust you when you're asking me to keep something so important from my wife?"

"It's only for now, Logan" "But why?"

"Klayton, this guy literally messaged you saying he was playing Russian roulette with Lacey's life and you wanna keep that from her?..it's her life that's on the line here, Klay" ""LKNOW!!" He growls startling both myself and Giuseppe "Tknow, Logan, trust me I know and I wouldn't keep this from her unless I absolutely had to" "And you absolutely have to?" Task him and he nods his head "Yeah, I do"

I look away and nod my head to try and keep myself calm and composed even though I wanted nothing more than to pound Klayton's ass into the ground "Are we done here? I wanna go and spend the night with my wife" "Yes, we're done" I once again nod my head and leave Klayton's office I then head towards mine and Lacey's bedroom taking deep breaths in and out to calm myself down

I was still really angry when I got to our room but all of my anger quickly dissipated when I entered our room and I saw my beautiful wife standing on our balcony wearing nothing but a silk white robe. I groaned as I took off my jacket before making my way over to my wife and wrapped my arms around her waist as I nuzzled my face in her neck "Shit..Jesus Logan, you nearly gave me a heart attack" "Sorry, babe" I said while kissing her neck "When did you get back?"

"Just now, what are you doing out here?" "I was just enjoying the view as I thought about us and our wonderful day, that's all" She says and I smile "It was a fg amazing day, wasn't it?" "It was the best day ever" Lacey looked up at me and I couldn't resist leaning in and placing a chaste kiss on her lips before brushing my lips against hers "I love you, Lace, I love you so freaking much" I say against her lips as I rest my forehead against hers

"I love you too, babe" Lacey said with a smile as she closed her eyes "I see you've got a wedding gift for me, love and I really can't wait to unwrap it" "Gift? what gift?" Chapter 14 - Heated Discussions Lacey asks confused "This one" I smirked as I untied the sash on Lacey's robe revealing her voluptuous body to me which has been donned in some.

very sexy white lingerie "Damn baby, are you trying to give me a heart attack?" "You're so dramatic, Logan" Lacey chuckled and I smiled at her "Can you blame me, babe? you always look so breathtakingly beautiful and sexy when you wear lingerie for me" "So, do you want me to keep it on? or do you wanna help me take it off?" Lacey asked in a seductive tone as she bit down on her lower lip which instantly made my dk hard "What do you think, Lace? I said with a smirk as I picked Lacey up and threw her over my shoulders smacking her hard on her juicy ass as I did "Logan" Lacey squealed and I chuckled "I told you I wanted to unwrap my gift and I plan to not only unwrap it but enjoy it all night long, my love"

"Yeah...my grandfather and I received a new threat this morning and today while you were dancing with Lace, I received this from the bastard" Chapter 14 - Heated Discussions. * Klayton said whilst pulling his phone out of his pocket and showing me a text message which had a picture of Lacey and me during our first dance and underneath it, it said "such a beautiful couple, it's such a shame they won't last long, isn't it?" "What the fk?" I growled

And that's exactly what I did I had the perfect ending to the perfect day with my perfect woman

"Is this some kind of joke?" "Unfortunately, it's not and that's not all either, brother...scroll down" I briefly looked up at Klayton before doing what he said and my eyes widened and rage filled my entire being when I read the last text next time?...what the fk does he mean by this?" "I think we both know what it means, Lo" Klayton said while sighing "He called me during the wedding today to taunt me about Lacey and how he knew what made me tick and who and what could make me fall to my knees...he sent me this message after Lacey had gone skeet shooting and he'd made me believe that he had shot her" "Is that why you were running around the gardens like a maniac?" Task him and he glares at me "Yeah. it was"

Klayton says as the elevator pings We then walked out of the elevator and headed towards Klayton's office where Giuseppe Antonelli was sitting behind the desk with a cigar in one hand and a glass of bourbon in the other He looked up at us and I was shocked when I saw the state this big, Chapter 14 - Heated Discussions bad former mafia Don was in Giuseppe was clearly drunk but he also looked heartbroken, angry and stressed as well which isn't surprising if you think about it

"Nonno..." "What are we gonna do?...what are we gonna do about this, Klayton? we can't have our famiglia being in danger like this" Giuseppe interrupted his grandson sounding vulnerable which was odd for us to hear "Everything's gonna be ok, nonno, I promise you" Klayton says and I believe him but Giuseppe doesn't seem convinced "You can't make that promise, son, not with a psycho out there who is after our principessa"

"Oh trust me, nonno, I can and I will make that promise" Klayton says in a deadly tone as he rests his hands on his desk and leans in close to his gramps

Last night was out of this world and it was the perfect ending to a perfect day Even though I had to wait almost half an hour for Logan to come back to our room, the wait was totally worth it because it not only gave me a chance to freshen up and change into my lingerie but it also gave me a chance to calm down and relax because I was still feeling really annoyed and angry with my cousin and husband I probably had no right to feel this way because they're both important businessmen and they can't help it if they have to work but even still, I was pretty pissed that it was happening on my wedding night of all nights Anyway, when Logan eventually came back to our room, any ill feelings I felt were immediately wiped away and my entire being was filled with nothing but happiness when Logan embraced me and promised to enjoy me and make

He did this several times until he had me begging him to take me "Oh god, Logan, fk me" "As you wish, wifey" Logan said as he bit down on my neck and started to pound into me more vigorously I was super grateful that my cousin had arranged for all of the bedrooms in his mansion to be soundproofed many years ago because it would've been really embarrassing for us later on if our family had overheard some of the noises which were bordering on animalistic coming from us in this room right now

"st Lace, I'm gonna c*m"" "So am I, baby" A few thrusts later, we both came hard and I swear I'm gonna have some bruises on the inside of my thighs later on because of how hard Logan was pressing down on them "rk babe, I swear I feel like I'm the king of the f+g world when I'm buried balls deep inside of you" Logan says and I chuckle "You're so cheesy, love" "And you love me for it"

Logan said with a cheeky smile as he leaned down and kissed me "Let's go and shower babe, otherwise we'll be late for breakfast" I narrowed my eyes from Logan to the clock on the wall and groaned when I saw the time "I think we should shower separately" "What? why?" Ashocked Logan asks in an angry and annoyed tone

"Because I know you, Logan and I know that you won't be able to resist yourself if we shower together and then we'll be really late for breakfast" "Ok, fine" Logan groaned and dropped his head into my neck kissing it as he pulled out of me "You go first, babe" "ok I quickly peck his lips and get up from the bed I then go into the en-suite bathroom and have quite possibly the fastest shower I've ever had

Afterwards, I did my usual routine before changing into a mint green lingerie set, a mint green summer dress with a brown belt and mint green wedges before putting all of my jewellery on While Logan was showering, I blow-dried my hair into my natural waves and put it into a messy low ponytail with some hair left out to frame my face and I did some natural and minimalistic make-up When Logan came out of the bathroom, he was dripping wet with a towel hanging dangerously low on his waist which had me groaning as a dilemma roamed through my mind

Should I ignore what I just saw so that I can feed my hungry belly? or ty? I glanced behind me again and saw Logan was now wearing a pair of black Calvin Klein boxer shorts just as my belly started to rumble should I forget about real food and feed my hungry p Nope, I need real food "Are you ready, babe?" Logan asks me as I spray myself with some perfume "Aren't you gonna dry your hair?"

I ask as I give him the once over Logan's wearing a beige, long-sleeved jumper with black jeans and his favourite Jordans, as well as his dog tags necklace, his Rolex watch and his wedding band His hair which was still wet was resting on his forehead making him look so cute and sexy at the same time "Nah, I'm just gonna let the wind dry it, it's not like I've got anyone to impress here with my suave and sophisticated looks" "Oh, is that so?" Task with a raised eyebrow as I narrow my eyes at him "There's nobody here for you to impress, not even me?"

"Babe, we're already married" "ok I went to leave the room but was stopped by Logan who embraced me from behind "Don't be like that, Lace, you know exactly what I mean" "Do I? I don't think I do" Isaid whilst feigning anger as I turned around to face him "I think you meant that you don't need to impress me anymore because we're married" "That's not what I meant, love" Logan groaned as he dropped his head to my shoulder and I chuckled as I ran my hand through his damp hair "I'm just joking with you, love, I actually love this lazy look on you" "Really?" "Mmm-hmm"* Logan lifts his head off my shoulders and looks at me as I cup his face and kiss his lips "Yeah, it makes you look rugged, especially when you haven't shaved" I say whilst running my fingers through his stubble and Logan smiles like I've just given him the biggest compliment in the world "Now come on, let's go and get something to eat" "ok We happily walk out of our room hand in hand and take the elevator down to the ground floor

love to me all night long and true to his word, he did Logan kept us up until the break of dawn not giving either of us time to even catch our breaths as we ravished each other's bodies in every position possible I woke up not too long ago with Logan still buried deep inside of me and I had to slowly disengage myself from him so that I could use the toilet but now I'm back lying in bed next to him and I couldn't help but look at his perfect face and his perfectly sculpted body as I did Chapter 15 - Tension Between C God definitely took his time with this one

As soon as the elevator doors opened, we were greeted by Logan's parents who were trying to control Sophia and Joseph "What do we have here?" Logan asks with a chuckle and our baby's faces immediately lit up when they saw us "Mama, mama" "Dada" Sophia and Joseph ran towards us and we happily picked them up

"You two aren't being naughty, are you?" "Uh-uh" "No, dada" We obviously didn't believe our troublesome rugrats, so we looked to the only source who would tell us the truth "Mom, dad, what did they do now?" "They poured their orange juice in Logan Junior's cereal upsetting him and then they fled from the scene of the crime" David said making our twins sound like criminals "Why weren't they strapped down?"

"Blame your grandfather, sweetheart, he doesn't believe in kids being strapped down in highchairs" Oh for the love of god I narrowed my eyes at my daughter who looked like a dead ringer for Satan right now "Sophia, did you upset your big brother?" "Uh-uh" "Don't lie to me, young lady" I said sternly and she immediately started making grabby hands for her father

"Oh no ma'am, you're not getting out of this so easily by going to your daddy" I said and her eyes started to well up with tears but I knew better than to believe her faux crying The twins may only be three years old but they're smart little fuckers, especially Sophia who knows she only has to turn on the waterworks and all of the men will immediately fall at her chubby little feet Chapter 15 - Tension Between C "Babe, take Joseph and give me Sophia" Oh my god, see what I mean

"Logan" I glared at my husband who looked taken aback by my glare "I'll give her to you if you agree to sleep on the couch for the next month?" I ask him and his mouth gaped open in both shock and horror "I thought so" I said while walking away as my parents-in-law chuckled behind me I headed outside to the back patio where everyone was happily enjoying breakfast as well as each other's company

Sophia immediately started to fidget in my arms as she called for my dad and I was determined to stop her from being taken by one of these sucker men but my dad ended up taking her from me anyway "Go eat, princess, I'll deal with her" My dad kisses my forehead and I sigh in frustration "She's on punishment, dad" "know, sweetheart, now go" "ok" I huffed in annoyance as I sat down next to Logan Junior who was now eating a fresh bowl of cereal

"Are you ok, honey?" I ask Logan Junior as I kiss his head and he nods while smiling "Good" I filled a plate up for both myself and Logan who came out a few minutes later looking pissed and he was being followed by Klayton who Chapter 15 - Tension Between C also looked like he had a ferret in his underwear What is wrong with these men? I thought to myself as Logan and Klayton sat down in a huff and I wasn't the only one who was confused by their attitudes

"What's going on with you two?" "Nothing, principessa" "Nothing always means something with you, Klay, now spill" I command him as silence falls over the gardens "Right that's it, Klayton, Logan, follow me now" I said in frustration when neither of them answered me "Princip..." "Now, Klayton" I growl as I stood up from my seat and headed inside

I want to get to the bottom of what's going on with these two but I don't wanna do it around our kids We stood in the foyer with Cassidy who had joined us which I was grateful for because I'm gonna need her if these two started to act up Sot: Why do I sound like I'm dealing with kids instead of adults? "Ok, what's going on with you two?" "Seriously, cugina, it's nothing" "Oh bullshit, Klayton, you two have been acting shifty and secretive ever since we first arrived on this bloody island and I wanna know right now, what the hell is going on with you two?" I ask Klayton who looks away from me That's when I knew that something was going on because he only ever Chapter 15 - Tension Between C does this when he's either in the wrong or he's up to something "Has this got something to do with last night and why you were so desperate to talk to Logan even though it was our

I thought to myself as I ran my fingers up and down his abs I wanted to wake him up but I was torn between how should wake him up A part of me, a very, very small part of me wanted to wake him up in the traditional and boring way but the bigger and naughtier side of me wanted to wake him up by either riding him or blowing him In the end, I decided to wake him up with s*x, so I gently sat up and straddled his body, I then gripped his stiff ck in my hand and lined it up with my entrance I slowly slid down his huge rod and threw my head back in pleasure as every inch of him filled me Content property of wedding night?" Task and I didn't miss how both of their heads snapped up with a look of horror in their eyes "Well, has it?" Took between my husband and cousin who both seemed hesitant to say anything and only did when Cassidy spoke up "Babe, I think you should just tell her, she's got a right to know after all" "Cassidy"

Klayton growled at his wife through gritted teeth "No, Cassie's right, Klay, Lacey deserves to know the truth" Truth? what truth? I thought to myself confused "What's going on?" Task as Logan narrows his glare from Klayton to me but his face softens when he looks me in my eyes "Babe, 1." "Nonno and I have offered Logan a position as a capo in our mafia, principessa"

Klayton cuts Logan off and my eyes widen in horror "WHAT?" This has got to be a fg joke

I moaned in delight as I placed my hands on Logan's chest and started to ride him "Mmm...oh st, Lacey baby, keep going..fuck you're so tight" Logan moaned in his sleep and I chuckled I leaned down and cupped my husband's face as I kissed his lips "Wakey, wakey, baby, rise and shine" I said in between kisses Logan's eyes were still closed but I knew he was waking up either that or he was subconsciously rubbing his hands up and down my body thinking his dream was a reality which it actually was I kissed Logan all over his face, jawline, neck and chest as I tried to coax him awake and I was finally successful when I bit down on the crook of his neck eliciting a deep moan/groan from deep within him as he gripped my ass with both of his hands Chapter 15 - Tension Between C. = "fk me, I'm in heaven if this is how you're gonna wake me up from now on, babe" "Well, if it makes you happy then I'll wake you up, however.

you want me to, my love" I once again cupped Logan's face and kissed his lips "Good morning, hubby" I said as I smiled against Logan's lips "Good morning, wifey" Logan said as he opened his eyes and pecked my lips as his hands moved to wrap around my waist "Now, let's make it an even better morning" "Huh

I said confused before squealing when Logan flipped us so that I was lying on my back and he was on top of me "Don't take this the wrong way, baby because I love it when you ride me and there's no better sight for me than to see my beautiful wife and her sexy body ride my body but I hate how you fg tease me when you're ontop" Logan says and I chuckle "It's the only position where I'm in full control, love"

"Well, now I'm in control, love, so hold onto the bedsheets because I'm not going slow" Logan said with a smirk as he started to pound into me He was fg me so hard that the bedframe was banging against the wall and the stuff on our bedside tables were starting to rattle "OH ftr*+g stelle" ""F+k Lace" Chapter 15 - Tension Between C. bs Logan moaned as he spread my legs even further apart and
