

Book 2 Dragon King's Forbidden Love Prologue

Demir is a powerful and mighty Dark Dragon King. He rules over his Empire for hundreds of years. However, even before he was born the Seer predicted that his fall will come from a girl with golden hair. He gave an oath to his parents that he would never get involved with a girl matching this description. So, when he captures a woman with red hair, who saved his life and whom he recognizes as his soulmate, he is not bothered with anything...

Updated by Jobnib.com

Lara is a trained battle air mage, who accidentally fails her task and saves an injured dragon, not even knowing it. She is shocked when after everything the dragon arrives at her house and takes her away with him...

And he is surprised when he finds out that the red colour of her hair was just an illusion...

The two of them have nothing in common, except for one thing...

