

Bottleneck 161

Chapter 161: Chen Sheng, the Alchemist of the Spirit Field Servant!

This time, already at the Foundation Establishment Realm, he had enough power to protect himself in the market, and if he wanted to acquire the recipe for the Golden Yuan Pill, then the actions of his alias Chen Sheng would inevitably be different.

Liang Sheng based on the market situation, extrapolated countless scenarios. Unless a mighty cultivator above the Golden Core Level would kill him without asking questions, his plan could not possibly have any significant mishaps.

Now, Liang Sheng confidently went about his usual routine – registering his identity at the Administration Office and then renting a medium-sized Cave Mansion with a Concealment Formation. He left amidst the surprised gazes of the registering cultivators.

There were not many Loose Cultivators at the Fifth Layer of Qi Cultivation who rented medium-level cave mansions. Although the others were surprised, they didn't comment much. After all, they were profiting from it.

This time, Liang Sheng, who was at the Foundation Establishment Stage, finally saw through the three-story small building to the Foundation Establishment Stage cultivator above. The latter was no longer Ding Yizhen of the Xuanmen Sect.

More than twenty years ago, Ding Yizhen of the Xuanmen Sect had already completed his duty of guarding the area and returned to his sect. At this moment, Liang Sheng was unsure about the identity of this new Foundation Establishment Stage cultivator.

Liang Sheng did not question Huang Yifan or the other two about the current situation in the market. He chose to maintain a mysterious persona in front of them. All they needed to do was to be efficient farmers.

Liang Sheng wasn't too concerned about it, knowing that in the coming days, he would gather all the basic information he needed.

The identity that Liang Sheng currently held was selected thoughtfully. His goal was to let the market know that a Qi Cultivation Fifth Layer Alchemist like him exists.

Having reached the Foundation Establishment stage, Liang Sheng possessed the confidence to protect himself. Those who would scheme against him, as long as they were not of the Golden Core level, would...

Face certain death.

Moreover, the market at most would have one Foundation Establishment Stage cultivator from the Three Sects and Six Orders. Liang Sheng's decision was already thoroughly thought out, having no risks.

Naturally, Liang Sheng was doing all this in preparation for breaking through to the Golden Core level. While he knew he still had a long way to go before reaching the Golden Core Realm, it never hurt to be prepared.

As for the recipe for the Golden Yuan Pill, he needed a reliable method to acquire it. Hence, the identity of an Alchemist was the most suitable choice.

He did not want his Alchemist identity to be too conspicuous, which is why he decided to disguise himself as a Qi Cultivation Fifth Layer cultivator.

This cultivation level was neither too high nor too low – it was just right.

All he needed to do in the future was to act within the rules. Besides, Alchemists wielded a certain level of prestige in the market.

Some loose cultivators couldn't afford the elixirs sold at the shops of the Three Sects and Six Orders. The alchemists among the Loose Cultivators naturally became the sources for their cultivation elixirs.

As he walked, Liang Sheng contemplated his future plans, such as how to safely reveal his identity as an Alchemist. He eventually moved into his new Cave Mansion.

Indeed, it was better to have the Concealment Formation, which ensured the privacy of his cave mansion. As an Alchemist, the privacy was of utmost importance.

Liang Sheng was satisfied with his new cave mansion.

Now, everything was ready, all he needed was an opportunity.

A new Alchemist had arrived in the market.

This news quietly spread across the market. His pills were of extremely high quality and yet were very reasonably priced, which was very appealing to the general public.

He even offered high-grade elixirs, to the delight of many, giving the high-level Qi cultivators in the market another option to purchase high-quality elixirs.

Early in the morning, as Liang Sheng stepped out of his cave mansion, he caught sight of the smiling face of the owner of the cave mansion opposite his. Throughout his route, all the loose cultivators he encountered were extremely friendly towards him.

Though Liang Sheng appeared emotionless, the people around him didn't think too much of it and waited for him until he left.

Once he arrived in the central area of the market, there were only a dozen or so stalls in total. As soon as Liang Sheng arrived at his own, someone greeted him.

"Fellow Daoist Chen, you're here. Let's set up our stalls together."

The person speaking was a Qi-Training Seventh Level Loose Cultivator, but when he looked at Liang Sheng, his demeanor was that of an equal. Liang Sheng, who appeared aloof just now, greeted him back with a smile.

Qin Chen, an Alchemist at the Qi Cultivation Seventh Layer.

As for the Artifact Refiner whose stall was not far from them, his booth was filled with several magical weapons. His expression was also emotionless.

Not far away, there was a Talisman Maker, an Array Master...

Simply put, this place was the high-end vending spot in the market. Each vendor had a special skill set. For instance, Qin Chen and Liang Sheng, who were excellent Alchemists.

If one didn't have enough abilities, they wouldn't be able to set up a stall here. In other words, they were definitely some of the best craftspeople in the market.

For instance, at a talisman booth a few steps away from Liang Sheng's booth, there were many likely attack talismans, much better than Zhou Sheng's talismans regarding quality.

Even though these people might not have the highest cultivation levels in the market, their skills ranked among the topmost in the market.

Even the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer loose cultivators treated them with due respect—after all, no one could be certain if they would need someone else's skills one day.

At that time, Qin Chen took Liang Sheng aside, disregarding the pills on their stalls, and began discussing the method of refining pills with Liang Sheng.

Just then, a loose cultivator who wanted to buy pills arrived at the booth. Seeing the situation, he felt slightly awkward.

Despite being a guest, he didn't dare interrupt Qin Chen. Should Qin Chen become unhappy, it was possible he wouldn't be able to buy his pills.

The elixirs sold at the shops of Three Sects and Six Orders were priced higher, and he couldn't afford them. Therefore, all he could do was to smile awkwardly and wait for Qin Chen's and Liang Sheng's conversation to finish.

Luckily, Liang Sheng spoke, easing his awkwardness, “Fellow Daoist Qin, why don’t we let this Daoist friend purchase his pills first, then we can continue with our discussion?”

Chapter 162: Chen Sheng, the Alchemist of the Spirit Field Servant!

Upon hearing this, Qin Chen looked at the loose cultivator with disdain, but he wouldn’t go against Liang Sheng since he had spoken.

After Qin Chen asked the other party with a disdainful expression for the type of elixir he needed, he immediately pushed out a Jade Bottle, with an extremely impatient tone.

“You want Qi Refining Pills? Here are forty low-grade ones, for a fair price of twenty-five low-grade spirit stones.”

Upon hearing this, the other party quickly took out the spirit stones, pleased and joyful as he left. This was five fewer low-grade spirit stones than the price in the shops owned by the Three Sects and Six Orders.

After sending off the loose cultivator, Qin Chen hurriedly pulled Liang Sheng to discuss ways to improve the success rate of refining pills.

Qin Chen’s admiration for Liang Sheng was due to the fact that he had previously felt threatened by him. This was a few days ago, on the first day that Liang Sheng started selling at his stall, and Qin Chen naturally observed him with a detached perspective.

Every year, there were always ignorant loose cultivators setting up stalls here, only to leave in disappointment after a major setback.

This new Qi Cultivation Fifth Level Alchemist would probably be another fool, but when Liang Sheng took out a bottle of high-grade Qi Refining Pills, Qin Chen immediately changed his facial expression.

This guy might actually have some skills.

By the time Liang Sheng took out the second bottle of high-quality Qi Refining Pills, Qin Chen was convinced that the other party was indeed qualified enough to compete with him.

But when Liang Sheng also took out high-grade Detoxification Pills, Confusion Pills, and Clarity Pills, Qin Chen's face changed four to five times in a row.

What a freak is he?

Finally, Qin Chen calmed his emotions and took the initiative to greet Liang Sheng, showing that he could both tolerate and let go of his pride.

Qin Chen was clear in his heart that even though he had already reached the Qi Cultivation Seventh Level, far exceeding the other party, he probably couldn't match the other party when it came to pill-refining skills.

Since then, Qin Chen's attitude towards Liang Sheng had dramatically changed, and he highly respected him. Fortunately, after these few days, Liang Sheng had sold all the high-grade elixirs and had not taken out any others, allowing Qin Chen to breathe a sigh of relief.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's stall was mainly stocked with middle-grade elixirs, and not many low-grade ones. At this time, Qin Chen couldn't help but exclaim, "With your talent in pill refining, Fellow Daoist Chen, it should be easy for you to join a sect."

Hearing this, Liang Sheng gave a bitter smile, "Unfortunately, my aptitude for cultivation isn't up to the mark. Even with the help of elixirs, my progress is still too slow."

"In such a scenario, I'm destined not to be able to refine high-quality pills that only high-quality cultivators can refine. What can be done?"

Liang Sheng's expression was complicated at this moment. Qin Chen quickly apologized upon hearing this and avoided talking about this topic.

After a while, when Liang Sheng answered a question about pill refining, Qin Chen suddenly froze in place, then his face turned red.

“So that’s how it is! Indeed, that’s how it is! Fellow Daoist Chen, I won’t bother with meaningless words of gratitude now. I have gained some insights, and after I experiment with the pill refining, I will express my thanks.”

Having said that, Qin Chen hurried away, causing the others to cast sidelong glances at him. Their gaze towards Liang Sheng became more serious.

This must be a high-level alchemist. They were no stranger to Qin Chen’s level of pill refining. To make Qin Chen react in such a way, there could only be one reason. Had he not been a Qi Cultivation Fifth Level Alchemist, why would he justify Qin Chen’s reaction?

Liang Sheng was unmoved by their gaze, and the other alchemists, not being familiar with Liang Sheng, and being proud as they were, still did not let down their guard.

Liang Sheng, of course, didn’t mind this. In the following hours, he sold three bottles of elixirs and then closed his stall to return to his Cave Mansion.

Since then, Liang Sheng’s life was extremely routine, selling at his stall, and returning to his mansion. In these few days, Qin Chen didn’t show up, so Liang Sheng didn’t know how effective his pill refining was.

Early one morning, as soon as Liang Sheng arrived at his stall, he saw Qin Chen standing up excitedly.

“Fellow Daoist Chen, thank you so much!”

As he spoke, he pulled Liang Sheng to his side, helped him set up his stall, and then moved all the elixirs from his own stall to Liang Sheng’s.

“Fellow Daoist Qin, what do you mean by this?”

“This is the tuition fee for Fellow Daoist Chen’s selfless teaching of my pill refining. Not to conceal anything from Fellow Daoist Chen, my pill formation rate this time was a full 10% higher than before, and I got fifteen more pills in a single furnace. Your pill refining technique is too strong.”

The alchemists around were already paying attention to this side. After all, Qin Chen had been missing from his pill-refining activities for a long time. Now, hearing this, they couldn’t help but gasp.

The pill formulation rate increased by a full 10%, and the number of pills also increased significantly. What kind of divine method was this?

At this moment, their gaze towards Liang Sheng, just like Qin Chen’s, was extremely fervent. They no longer cared about their unfamiliarity with Liang Sheng, and all came over.

“Fellow Daoist Chen, your pill refining skills are truly divine.”

For a time, the loose cultivators at the market were taken aback, some couldn’t believe their eyes. Were these the same arrogant alchemists from before?

At this moment, Liang Sheng didn’t put on airs. In no time, waves of laughter were emanating from their group.

Eventually, everyone simply stopped setting up their stalls, and following the suggestion of Qin Chen, they all went to his Cave Mansion for tea and discussion.

When other loose cultivators came to the market for elixirs, they were dumbfounded to see the empty places where the alchemist’s stalls usually were.

Where are the alchemists?

Chapter 163: Vest Becomes Famous, Sect Regrets

Market.

Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's eyes were gloomy. He had already put up the information about his closed-door alchemy outside the cave mansion. When night fell and everyone was asleep, he had already put on the invisibility talisman and wrapped it around his body. With the attribute panel concealment property, no one could detect that he had quietly left the cave mansion.

Even without the attribute panel, with his Foundation Establishment Stage cultivation level, under the effect of the concealment talisman, coupled with the change of appearance, there was a high probability that Liang Sheng would not encounter any accidents and could safely leave the market.

So under the concealment of the attribute panel, Liang Sheng can now come and go freely in the market, unless encountering irresistible factors.

For example, when encountering a Golden Core Stage cultivator who can see through the concealment talisman face to face, they wouldn't be able to detect Liang Sheng's qi, but they would be able to see him as a person.

But it was almost impossible for a Golden Core cultivator to visit the market.

The reason for Liang Sheng sneaking out of the market was simple. He was supposed to go back and arrange for the planting of spiritual grass. This time, he had made some miscalculations, as he had only managed to gather the True Yuan spiritual grass seeds after more than two months.

However, because of the long communication time, he also had a good relationship with the loose cultivation alchemists in the market, so the overall losses were not too great.

If it weren't for getting along well with these alchemists and exchanging spiritual grasses with them, he might not have been able to collect all the spiritual plant seeds needed to refine True Yuan Pills by now.

The reason behind this was, that during this time, Liang Sheng was too cautious. As long as there was a small movement, he would prefer to miss the seeds rather than taking the risk of exposing himself.

As for finding the formula of the Golden Yuan Pill, Liang Sheng was not in a hurry at the moment, and he had no intention of going to the black market to buy spiritual grass.

Because Pei Shiping had already made a breakthrough into the Foundation Establishment Stage.

A while ago, the most shocking news in the market was that Pei Shiping, the Patriarch of the Pei family, who was at the ninth level of Qi Condensation, had broken through to the Foundation Establishment Stage.

Because of his successful breakthrough, even if the Three Sects and Six Orders are curious, no one actually investigates the source of Pei Shiping's Foundation Establishment Pills

Wouldn't it be asking for trouble to antagonize a loose cultivator who has a deep blessing to be able to break through the Foundation Establishment Stage?

The Three Sects and Six Orders wouldn't be so ill-tempered because even though the Foundation Establishment realm is rare, it only has a prestigious title in the market.

Even Wang Lin, the Foundation Establishment Stage cultivator of the Sky Solar Sect who was stationed in the market, met with Pei Shiping personally. For a short while, Pei Shiping was unparalleled, and the Pei Family naturally thrived.

If nothing went wrong, the Pei family would be in their prime for at least another 500 years, and Pei Shiping knew how to act appropriately, striking just the right attitude with the Three Sects and Six Orders.

As for the other two, Fu Liantao and Ban Zhihe, they failed in their breakthroughs. They had been staying in the black market, anxiously waiting for Liang Sheng to come again.

Of course, they were unwilling to accept their fate. If Pei Shiping could break through, why couldn't they? And Liang Sheng was their only hope for breaking through.

Given this situation, and since Pei Shiping had already broken through to the Foundation Establishment Stage, how could Liang Sheng possibly go to the black market?

Although the black market was no longer dangerous, the value in the black market was now so low that it was a pity. Naturally, Liang Sheng focused most of his energy on the marketplace alchemists.

Back to today, as Liang Sheng left the market, it didn't take long for him to reach the spiritual field with his speed. He took a look at the defensive measures he had arranged and found that there were no issues.

He then entered the Illusion Array Technique with one foot and reached the spiritual field. Not revealing himself directly, he saw Huang Yifan and his two brothers chatting.

"Big Brother, it's been more than two months already. Has our cheap master forgotten about us?" Huang Yifan's face didn't look very good at this time, but hearing Second Brother say this, he immediately scolded him, "Don't talk nonsense. How are you guys doing with your Spiritual Rain Technique?"

Upon hearing this, Second Brother and Third Brother immediately perked up. They saw their hand seals overlapping and their spiritual power pouring out as they released a shower of Spiritual Rain within a certain range.

Huang Yifan felt relieved at the sight, but he also had some doubts in his heart. After all, their master was a peculiar person who could disappear for a period of time that caused the spiritual field defensive array to almost fail. Would he really forget about the three brothers?

However, these two months, Huang Yifan and his brothers had been staying in the spiritual field without any danger or concerns, and they had unconsciously gained a little weight.

When had they ever been so comfortable?

With the protection of the spiritual field range, it would take a cultivator at the ninth level of Qi Condensation some effort to break through. But there had been no movement in the past two months, which showed how safe it was here.

What kind of luck did Huang Yifan have to encounter the leak of the spiritual field's qi in the first place?

Huang Yifan couldn't quite wrap his head around it. Just as he was pondering, he heard something and immediately motioned for his brothers to sit down and pretend to cultivate.

The next moment, Liang Sheng, with the appearance of a youth with white hair, appeared in front of the three of them. They put on an expression of surprise, "Master."

Liang Sheng didn't say anything, he just nodded, and then handed over the spiritual plant seeds to them, instructing them to continue working without any small talk.

Huang Yifan and his brothers didn't take it to heart; shouldn't a cultivator at the ninth level of Qi Condensation be like this? In the Cultivation World, strength was supreme. Why the need for politeness?

After all, they were now his servants under the Heavenly Dao oath. Seeing their understanding, Liang Sheng nodded slightly.

If it weren't for their disposition, he wouldn't have left the three of them behind. This time, Liang Sheng didn't step in, quietly watching them work.

For cultivators in the Qi Condensation stage, doing these tasks was extremely easy. In no time, various spiritual plant seeds had already been planted..

Chapter 164: Vest Becomes Famous, Sect Regrets

"From now on, the three of you will be responsible for irrigating the spiritual fields with the Spiritual Rain Technique, and you must not be negligent."

Huang Yifan's face showed a hint of hesitation upon hearing this. In the end, he decided to step forward and speak up because if problems arose later due to a lack of clarification, it would cause big trouble.

“Master, with our shallow cultivation level, I’m afraid we won’t be able to irrigate even half of the spiritual fields at once. We’ll have to wait until our spiritual power has recovered before continuing the Spiritual Rain Technique.”

The two brothers were even more embarrassed as they were at the Sixth Layer of Qi Training, while Huang Yifan was at the Qi Cultivation Seventh Level, almost twice as strong as them.

Liang Sheng nodded upon hearing this. He was well aware of their situation, so he didn’t say anything and waved his hand. More than ten jade bottles appeared in front of the three brothers.

“No need to worry. There are enough Qi Refining Pills here to help you recover your spiritual power in a short time. If you still can’t complete the irrigation task like this, what use is there keeping you?”

After saying this, Liang Sheng didn’t bother with them, turned around and returned to the Spiritual Field Cave Mansion. The three brothers’ faces were extremely ugly.

They might not be able to last long even with these Qi Refining Pills, but at the next moment, the second junior brother exclaimed, “Big brother, look!” High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills!

Seeing this, Huang Yifan’s face turned red with excitement. With High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills, they would definitely be able to recover their spiritual power quickly.

More importantly, this was equal to using High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills for their cultivation. How had someone like him, Huang Yifan, come across such a luxurious opportunity to cultivate using High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills?

Yes, these ten or so Qi Refining Pills were all High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills. At this point, he couldn’t help but look towards Liang Sheng’s Cave Mansion with reverence in his eyes.

What kind of background did his master have?

When he thought of the spiritual fields again, his heart was filled with excitement. His master was very likely an Alchemist. Thinking back to Liang Sheng's array techniques previously, he couldn't help but gasp.

The true strength of his master was unfathomable. Perhaps this was not a disaster, but a blessing for him.

"Second brother, third brother, let's go irrigate the spiritual fields! Whoever dares to slack off, I'll beat him to death."

Liang Sheng saw that the three brothers were enthusiastic and couldn't help but nod slightly.

They were all smart people.

Three days later, when he saw that the three brothers could handle the spiritual field planting, Liang Sheng left without saying a word.

Huang Yifan and his brothers were still sprinkling the Spiritual Rain in the fields, doing their utmost. They would soon be able to cultivate using High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills. How amazing!

Market.

In the darkness of night, Liang Sheng, completely concealed, returned unnoticed to his rented Cave Mansion.

He then took out the Pill Refining Furnace and the Spiritual Grass needed for Qi Refining Pills. He had planted countless Qi Refining Pills' worth of Spiritual Grass in the spiritual fields, which could last him for a long time.

Since he used the excuse of closed-door cultivation to refine pills this time, he naturally had to refine some pills. Liang Sheng skillfully placed the Spiritual Grass into the Pill Refining Furnace one by one, then overlaid hand seals with ease. He was as composed as a conductor directing a symphony, a pleasing sight to behold.

Liang Sheng's pill-making success rate had long reached 100%. In a relaxed and enjoyable mood, the Spiritual Grass for the Qi Refining Pills quickly turned into spiritual liquid under the influence of the various hand seals.

Then, Liang Sheng calmly proceeded to the next step. Most alchemists would be nervous at this stage, as the success and quality of the pill depended on it.

As Liang Sheng executed the final hand seal, the Pill Furnace paused briefly before opening, and the fragrance of the pill filled the air.

High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pill, success!

Liang Sheng showed no joy, as it was already dawn, and the timing was just right. At this time, he collected the Pill Furnace and packed the Qi Refining Pills.

Immediately afterwards, he opened the Cave Mansion without deliberately clearing the pill-making scent. In the next moment, the neighboring cultivator who was preparing to go out paused in his movements.

Other cultivators passing by couldn't help but look over. Liang Sheng didn't mind and headed straight towards the central stall in the market.

The cultivators behind him watched with envious eyes.

They had smelled the freshly-made High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills. As they thought about it, the other cultivators smiled at one another when they saw Liang Sheng walk past them.

Although Liang Sheng's actions seemed a bit ostentatious, his identity as a poorly-qualified Qi Cultivation Fivefold cultivator disguised as a Foundation Establishment Realm alchemist was extremely safe.

An alchemist with excellent skills but poor cultivation progress, and facing a difficult path, was perhaps the most welcomed existence among loose cultivators.

Because they're trustworthy!

Showing his own cultivation problems indicated that he couldn't refine high-level elixirs. Let alone Foundation Establishment Pills, even True Yuan Pills would be impossible for him to make.

In this case, the Three Sects and Six Orders wouldn't care too much. They were used to being above others, so when they saw Liang Sheng's situation, they would just shake their heads.

No matter how skillful an alchemist who couldn't refine high-level elixirs was, in their eyes, he was still extremely useless.

The alchemist that had been recruited by Xuanmen Sect's Ding Yizhen in the past was chosen because of his potential, unlike Liang Sheng, who, despite possessing High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills, still had no path forward in cultivation.

Just then, at the center of the market's vendor area, Qin Chen caught sight of Liang Sheng at first glance and couldn't help but show a happy smile, "Daoist Chen, you've finally come out of seclusion?"

Other alchemists, who had become closer after their last discussion, were gathered around him as well. Their relationship with Liang Sheng had deepened since he had generously shared his knowledge, resulting in improvements to their pill-making.

This was part of Liang Sheng's plan as well—unite all those that should be united, making it more likely for him to obtain the Golden Yuan Pill Formula..

Chapter 165: Vest Becomes Famous, Sect Regrets

Liang Sheng heard Qin Chen greeting him and nodded with a smile. After greeting them one by one, the others stared at Liang Sheng with wide eyes, and Liang Sheng naturally knew what they wanted to see.

Immediately afterwards, four bottles of Qi Refining Pills were placed on the stall. As an alchemist, he was extremely sensitive to spiritual pills, and his eyes lit up immediately.

Four bottles of High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills.

Daoist Chens alchemy technique is truly extraordinary. What a pity that Daoist Chens cultivation level

Sigh!

How unfair the Heavenly Dao is!

However, deep down they felt somewhat relieved. Although their alchemy technique was not as good as his, their cultivation aptitude was much better than his.

After all, each of them had a cultivation level of at least the Qi-Training Seventh Realm. Otherwise, how could they have the time to study alchemy?

They could only say that time was on their side, and Liang Sheng was ultimately just one of their good teachers and helpful friends, who eventually perished and disappeared.

Of course, on the surface they showed no unusual expressions, all full of congratulations. At this moment, within this small market, Liang Sheng had gained a little fame.

His hustle and bustle naturally attracted the attention of others, and soon someone offered three Mid-Grade Spirit Stones to take away the four bottles of high-quality Qi Cultivation Pills.

The buyer was a Loose Cultivator in the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer, and looking at him, the alchemist couldn't help but feel envious, wondering when he, himself, could reach the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer.

If they were in the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer, Foundation Establishment would be within reach. At this time, Qin Chen had no intention of occupying the booth and invited Liang Sheng to discuss once again.

The other alchemists, upon hearing this, couldn't help but have their eyes light up and stared intently at Liang Sheng.

During Liang Sheng's previous lecture, he shared plenty of valuable insights about alchemy, which they were overjoyed about. Liang Sheng did not hesitate this time and nodded in agreement.

Instantly, the alchemists disappeared, leaving an empty corner, causing the latecomers to be dumbfounded again.

Where have those alchemists gone?

What happened?

Despite their helpless expressions, they secretly decided that next time they would learn their lesson and not come so late.

At the same time when Liang Sheng went to Qin Chen's Cave Mansion to discuss, the Administration Office and the shops of the Three Sects and Six Orders were also discussing him.

No other reason.

Liang Sheng made a name for himself.

At this moment, the Manager of the Hua Tian Sect's store looked at the Qi Refining Pills in his hand and couldn't help but sigh. It was a pity that the other party's talent in cultivation was so poor. eastern fantasy

He was holding the High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills refined by Liang Sheng, which he had obtained through other channels. Even though he was the Manager of the Hua Tian Sect, and had seen countless High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills, at this moment he couldn't help but feel amazed.

This was because the quality of these pills was no different from those in the store, and even better in some aspects. It was truly amazing that a Loose Cultivation Alchemist had such talent in pill refining.

However, Liang Sheng's displayed aptitude for cultivation made him shake his head involuntarily. Since his cultivation level wasn't high enough, he wouldn't be able to refine high-level elixirs.

If that was the case, he would not be able to offer resources from the sect and thus couldn't offer a satisfactory deal to recruit him.

What can he do?

The same situation was happening in the other sects' shops. After all, they couldn't ignore such a talented Loose Cultivation Alchemist.

But the more they were like this, the more helpless they were. This meant that he could constantly produce High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills, but now he was only at the Qi Cultivation Fivefold, and his cultivation path was almost sentenced to death.

Perhaps, it was because of this reason that Chen Sheng, the alchemist, was so selflessly sharing his alchemy insights.

He thought that perhaps the other party also wanted to cultivate good karma in this way. If it wasn't for this reason, they couldn't think of why he would share his most precious insights.

Thus, at the moment, although Liang Sheng's alchemist reputation had spread, neither the Three Sects nor the Six Orders had any intention of recruiting him.

There was no way, the cost-effectiveness was too low.

Since they could not offer good recruitment conditions, how could the other party join their sect? Why bother wasting effort?

So in such a situation, the current deadlock had formed. Although this person had an amazing talent for pill refining, he simply had no luck.

To cultivate immortality, one needs luck!

Chapter 166: Alchemists show up, how dare they bully my Master Chen?

Market.

At this time, Liang Sheng didnt care about the thoughts of the Three Sects and Six Orders, because he had already made calculations for this situation.

Why else would he choose to have a cultivation base at the Qi Cultivation Fivefold, with extremely poor talent for cultivation but with extremely high alchemy skills?

He wanted this effect.

If under these circumstances, someone still targeted him, then he was sorry, they could only say they brought death upon themselves, and he could only send them to paradise.

The most fundamental reason for Liang Shengs plan was his own strength in the market, if there were no Golden Core, he would be invincible!

Regardless of whether the opponent was in the Foundation Establishment Late Stage or Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, as long as they were still in the Foundation Establishment Realm, with his well-prepared defenses, the opponent would not be able to instantly kill him.

So, as long as he was not instantly killed, he could use the Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique.

Afterwards, Liang Shengs life once again became peaceful. He occasionally refined pills and went to the market daily to build relationships with alchemists. Every one or two months, he would return to the spiritual field.

During this time, the spiritual field was taken care of very well by Huang Yifan and his brothers. Liang Sheng, of course, was not stingy. He brought them many High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills every time he went.

Now, Huang Yifan and his brothers treated Liang Sheng with sincere and earnest intentions, giving him their true submission. They didn't care about serving a master as long as he was willing to keep giving them High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills; they would even willingly act as a dog.

With Huang Yifan and his brothers being so opportunistic, Liang Sheng naturally had a peace of mind. Afterward, his life became more and more peaceful, spending his leisure time communicating about alchemy with other alchemists in the market. Unconsciously, another year passed.

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 548

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top grade)

Techniques: Upper Pure Immortal Scripture (10th Layer), Twenty Life-Nurturing Techniques (19th Layer), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse)

Realm: Early Foundation Establishment Stage

Lifespan: 21185

His cultivation level barely moved, but Liang Sheng was not anxious. After all, the spiritual grass for refining True Yuan Pills had not yet matured. Once they were refined, his cultivation speed would naturally accelerate.

Instead, he was considering the pill formula for the Golden Yuan Pill. He didn't know when he would be able to obtain the formula, so he could prepare for breaking through to the Golden Core realm.

However, as long as his plans went smoothly, obtaining the formula for the Golden Yuan Pill would just be a matter of time, so he was not in a hurry.

As long as he stayed in the market after reaching the Foundation Establishment Realm, almost no dangers would pose a threat to him. Since he was guaranteed safety, he was willing to wait.

For Liang Sheng, lifespan was not his limitation; he was calmer than anyone else. Unknowingly, another year passed, and Liang Sheng's reputation grew. As long as he set up a stall, his elixirs would be sold out in a short time.

Even high-level cultivators in the Seventh Level of Qi Refining and above had smiling faces when facing Liang Sheng. As for cultivating families looking to establish relationships, they were extremely passionate.

Of course, there were some cultivation families that secretly tried to win over Liang Sheng, but what could these families offer him? The final result was, of course, rejection.

However, things were a bit different today.

The people from the Pei family had arrived.

It was Pei Shiping's cultivation family. Of course, it was the current Patriarch of the Pei family who came to recruit Liang Sheng, not Pei Shiping himself.

After the success of his Foundation Establishment, Pei Shiping had already stepped down from the position of Patriarch, focusing on becoming the mastermind behind the Pei family. eastern fantasy

It could be said that in this Cultivation World Market, the Pei family had become the most top-level cultivation family, the most powerful among the Three Sects and Six Orders.

However, Patriarch Pei Shiliang did not appear arrogant. Instead, he was humbled and polite, showing great sincerity towards Liang Sheng.

Daoist Chen, Ive long heard of your great reputation, and I only met you today. Its such a shame that we havent met earlier.

Liang Sheng was somewhat surprised by Pei Shiliangs arrival, but he didnt show any special emotions, maintaining his composure.

Pei Shiliang also noticed that Liang Shengs attitude was not very enthusiastic and couldnt help but feel disheartened, as the prospect of recruiting this alchemist seemed unlikely.

The Pei family had become the top-ranked loose cultivator family in the market due to Pei Shipings advancement into the Foundation Establishment Stage, but their foundation was too weak.

He genuinely craved an alchemist like Liang Sheng to anchor the family. After all, a flourishing family required fresh blood.

Therefore, despite Liang Shengs not-so-enthusiastic attitude, Pei Shiliang remained smiling at his side, not leaving until Qin Chen came to find Liang Sheng, displaying politeness.

Liang Sheng also heaved a sigh of relief. If it werent for maintaining his identity, he would have wanted to leave with a wave of his sleeves just now. But a Qi Cultivation Fivefold alchemist couldnt have acted in that manner.

Daoist Chen, did the Pei family also want to recruit you?

Liang Sheng naturally didnt hide this and nodded lightly. Qin Chen couldnt help but sneer, full of disdain.

Daoist Chen, dont let your head be filled with hot air and agree to them. Otherwise, youll be bothered by trivial matters.

Alchemists like Qin Chen naturally received invitations from loose cultivators families as well. However, how could they lose their intellect to join them?

It was so much better for an alchemist to be free. If they really wanted to join a power, it would be better to become an outer disciple of the Three Sects and Six Orders.

Forget about it, Daoist Chen. As long as you remember not to bother with them, it will be fine. As alchemists, we just need to remain neutral, not venture out, and stay in the market.

Lets go, lets go. Yesterday, you raised three essential elements of alchemy, which were concise and to the point, but we still didnt understand some parts.

Everyone studied overnight until now, and the more they studied, the more they felt it made sense.. Theyre getting anxious, so lets go there now?

Chapter 167: Alchemists show up, how dare they bully my Master Chen?

Liang Sheng nodded, following Qin Chen out of the Cave Mansion, but he began to weigh in his heart whether it was time to start his last plan.

On the way, Liang Sheng finally made up his mind, ready to show his last means. It had been more than a year, and now it was time to layout and obtain the Golden Yuan Pill Formula.

After all, he had gained the trust of the Marketplace Alchemist. Thinking of this, he hesitated no more and prepared to start his real plan today.

After all, the strength of the Foundation Establishment Stage was his confidence. Otherwise, how could someone as cautious as Liang Sheng show up with his current status as an alchemist?

There was no other reason, he was just absolutely confident!

Who cares if this was just one of his personas? If things go south, he could just up and leave. The market was no longer able to stop him, now that he had progressed to the Foundation Establishment Stage.

What had Chen Shengs affairs got to do with me, Liang Sheng?

At this moment, Qin Chens Cave Mansion was bustling with excitement. Ever since the time Liang Sheng unreservedly taught his new alchemy skills, this place had become a gathering for alchemists from the market.

When Qin Chen came back with Liang Sheng, everyone in the hall immediately stood up, their eyes filled with enthusiasm.

Daoist Chen.

Daoist Chen.

For a short while, the greetings continued. To put it bluntly, although there was no formal master-disciple relationship between Liang Sheng and them, they indeed had a substantial connection.

Liang Sheng smiled and nodded. After he took his seat, the entire Cave Mansion became quiet. Everyone stared intently at Liang Sheng, hoping to hear his alchemy experience, to verify their own skills.

But, at this moment, Liang Sheng suddenly took a deep breath, his face firm. For some reason, everyone suddenly had a feeling that Liang Sheng might have some big news to announce today.

As expected, Liang Sheng suddenly asked with a smile, Fellow Daoists, have you ever wondered why my alchemy skills are so exceptional even though I am only at the Fifth Layer of Qi Cultivation?

Upon hearing this, everyone was first stunned, then their breathing quickened. Judging from the meaning of Daoist Chens words, is he ready to reveal his final trump card?

For a while, everyone held their breath, waiting for Liang Sheng to speak. But at this moment, Liang Sheng appeared to be lost in thought, an expression of reminiscing about the past etched on his face.

After a good while, Liang Sheng finally came back to his senses, laughed, shook his head, and then said, I wonder if any of you have ever tried refining True Yuan Pills?eastern fantasy

Hissss!

At these words, all the alchemists present gasped. A True Yuan Pill is a Spiritual Pill used by cultivators at the Foundation Establishment Stage.

If Qi Condensation stage cultivators need Qi Refining Pills to assist them, then Foundation Establishment cultivators require True Yuan Pills. If Qi Condensation cultivators were to refine True Yuan Pills, they would have a success rate of one in a hundred, and this is only for cultivators at the ninth level of Qi Condensation.

As for the people present, although their cultivation levels were above the Seventh Level of Qi Cultivation, none of them had ever refined medium-high-grade elixirs.

Any elixir used by Foundation Establishment cultivators and above can be considered medium-high-grade, and they naturally would not touch them. Its simply a waste of time and resources.

So when they heard Liang Sheng ask this, they were shocked. They looked at Liang Sheng, and in their eyes, there was a hint of respect at this moment.

The subtle implication was clear he had refined True Yuan Pills. Liang Sheng did not care how they reacted, and continued to drop bombshells.

Have any of you practiced with medium-high-grade pill formulas to improve your alchemy skills!?

There was a complete silence in the Cave Mansion. Everyone present was shaken to the core, especially now that after Liang Sheng spoke out his own experience, Qin Chen and the others were dumbfounded.

This was Daoist Chens ultimate alchemy experience; they were greatly shocked. No wonder Liang Sheng had such skills so this was the reason.

However, precisely because they were alchemists, they knew better than anyone how horrifying the price of doing this could be. Every single person here probably could not afford it.

Upon thinking of this, everyone's gaze towards Liang Sheng became even more respectful. After all, among those present, no one else here had the boldness he possessed.

That was the consumption of real Gold and Silver Spirit Herbs! At the thought of this, they no longer envied Liang Sheng instead, they felt a bit of regret.

Why was such a talented alchemist's innate talent in cultivation so weak? If his cultivation level was a bit higher

They couldn't even imagine the extent of Liang Sheng's achievements if he continued like this, but they were certain that if this happened, the Three Sects and Six Orders would definitely extend an olive branch.

Everyone, I'm saying this not to encourage you to learn from me. After all, I have no cultivation path in front of me, while you do.

It's just, I've been obsessed with alchemy all my life. With no way to progress in cultivation, alchemy and the Dao of Pills are my Great Dao.

Everyone here needs to think about cultivation, while I don't. So, I can pave the way for you and pass down my Dao of Pills.

I can take the first step and refine high-level elixirs to feed back into the Dao of the Pills. Whenever I make progress, I'll share openly with all of you. If I violate this oath, my lifespan will be shortened by two hundred years. Heavenly Dao is my witness.

By saying this, I hope that if any of you have medium-high-grade Spirit Pill formulas, you can show them to me.

I can try to gather resources to refine pills. Without doing so, the Dao of Pills has no future. I wonder if everyone is willing to help me?

Upon hearing this, Qin Chen and the other alchemists were even more touched. This might be the reason behind his remarkable alchemy skills. He was simply a Pill Maniac, infatuated with alchemy.

At this time, Qin Chen was the first to nod, Daoist Chen, I swear by the Heavenly Dao: if I obtain a medium-high-grade elixir formula, I will share it with you..

Chapter 168: Alchemists show up, how dare they bully my Master Chen?

I am as well!

Almost no one would disagree with Liang Sheng's clear statement, as long as he shared his understanding of refining high-level elixirs with them after.

For a moment, Liang Sheng, with the lowest cultivation level among them, unexpectedly became their backbone. He immediately bowed and thanked everyone.

Thankyou all!

At this time, Qin Chen seemed to have thought of something, gritted his teeth, and suddenly performed a grand salute, Master Chen, please accept my respects.

The others were stunned by this and looked at Liang Sheng in the center, their hearts boiling with enthusiasm. In the path of elixirs, Daoist Chen could be their teacher.

Then, like a domino effect, one alchemist after another lowered their heads, following Qin Chen in performing this grand salute.

Master Chen above!

Liang Sheng couldn't help but smile a bit, feeling accomplished.

On the other hand, Pei Shiliang returned home and reported today's recruitment of Liang Sheng to Patriarch Pei Shiping. The patriarch nodded in approval, looking at Pei Shiliang with satisfaction, believing the Pei Family would have successors.

He had already reached the Foundation Establishment Stage and could protect the Pei Family for at least 500 years. Throughout this time, even if he couldn't enter the Golden Core, he would make the Pei Family into the best Immortal Cultivation Family in all aspects.

Since this person has no hope in cultivation, we must recruit him into our family. They pose no threat to us.

No matter what the other party wants, as long as our Pei Family can provide it, you can do whatever it takes. I will support your decisions.

With Patriarch Pei Shiping's words, Pei Shiliang's heart became firm. In that case, he was prepared to go above and beyond to earn Chen Sheng's trust with sincerity.

As long as they successfully recruited Chen Sheng, with Pei Shiliang's prestige among the Loose Cultivation Alchemists, he could absolutely set a precedent for attracting alchemists in the future.

Having made up his mind, Pei Shiliang naturally wouldn't delay. He prepared gifts that night and arrived at Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion early the next day to continue recruiting him.

Early that day, Liang Sheng couldn't help but laugh bitterly. Yesterday he had played the fool, causing the alchemists to drink Immortal Wine all night, creating chaos.

However, when Liang Sheng pretended to return home drunk, as soon as he arrived at his Cave Mansion, he instantly sobered up. But upon seeing Pei Shiliang the next morning, he felt somewhat helpless.

He didn't expect the other party to be so persistent, not giving him a moment of respite.

Daoist Chen, may I disturb you with an uninvited visit?

What could Liang Sheng do but entertain the other party? Another half-day passed.

And then, the second day, the third day

Pei Shiliang continued to be just as earnest. However, this annoyed the marketplace alchemists.

Liang Sheng didnt come to the market for several days, but once they heard about his situation, their anger erupted instantly.

Today, when Pei Shiliang appeared again, before he could greet anyone, a loud yell came from the corner of the street.

Master Chen doesnt have time; he has to refine elixirs! How could he have time to entertain you?

Upon hearing this, Pei Shiliangs face changed. Despite his good cultivation, he was a cultivator at Qi Cultivation Eighth Level, and naturally felt angry in response. However, when he saw the people that were confronting him, his eyebrows furrowed.eastern fantasy

Hmm?

Why were the marketplace alchemists all standing together, glaring at him with anger? Among them, one person couldnt endure it anymore and spoke first.

How dare you bully Master Chen?

If you continue to bother Master Chen, we wont sell a single elixir to the Pei Family. The Heavenly Dao will bear witness!

Even if you are the Patriarch of Pei Family, you cant bully Master Chen, unless you want to face annihilation along with us!

For a moment, the entire alley fell silent, not a sound to be heard.

Master Chen?

Pei Shiliang couldn't help but look at Liang Sheng, then at the excited alchemists and was immediately dumbfounded.

Then, even as the head of the best cultivation family, Pei Shiliang had no choice but to apologize helplessly in front of the angry alchemists and then left without any hesitation.

Soon, news of this situation spread throughout the market, and countless loose cultivators couldn't help but gawk. This Qi Cultivation Fifth Level Alchemist actually had such prestige?

The alchemists respected him as their teacher and were even willing to oppose the Pei Family for his sake.. How magnificent!

Chapter 169: Foundation Establishment Pill Auction, Inviting Chen Sheng to Come Out

Market.

After Liang Sheng disguised himself as a low-cultivation-level Pill Maniac, alchemists visited him one by one on the same night, offering up their treasured high-level pill formulas.

Since the other party dared to swear by the Heavenly Dao oath, combined with Liang Sheng's help in alchemy skills over the past few days, they had no reason not to help Liang Sheng.

As for why they chose not to publicly hand over the pill formulas to Liang Sheng, one can only say that human nature is such a thing. Although they trust Liang Sheng, it does not mean that they trust other people.

If other people want to gain their trust, it is actually quite simple. As long as the other party also swears by the Heavenly Dao, they will naturally treat others equally.

But the Loose Cultivation Alchemists in the market, who dares to swear? Who can swear? After all, this is a lifelong matter affecting ones cultivation.

Moreover, this time the Loose Cultivation Alchemists of the market collectively stood up for Liang Sheng against Patriarch Pei Shiliang of the Pei family. This made them add another name to the list of people not to be messed with in their hearts.

Although the other party was merely a Fifth Layer of Qi Cultivation Loose Cultivator, they did not know Chen Sheng's appearance, but they had already heard of Chen Sheng's Pill Maniac name.

Even Pei Shiliang felt regretful when he returned to the family. No one could have imagined that he just wanted to recruit an alchemist and ended up with such an embarrassing situation.

He naturally would not and dare not conceal this matter. After hearing this, Pei Shiping was also speechless. Although Pei Shiliang had made no mistake in this trip, at this point, the Pei family could only apologize.

This is the price of having insufficient foundation. If they had three consecutive generations with Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivators, would it have come to this?

They did not dare to offend all the outstanding alchemists in the market. After all, if they dared to do so, wouldn't they have to spend a huge price on buying elixirs from the Three Sects and Six Orders in the future?

How could that be possible?

Of course, they could buy some uncommon spiritual pills from the Three Sects and Six Schools Shops, but purchasing ordinary spiritual pills from these shops would be too expensive.

So the next day, under Pei Shipings request, Pei Shiliang personally took gifts to the Liang Shengs Cave to apologize.

Their meeting time was very short because Pei Shiliang was afraid that other alchemists would misunderstand.

As the top Loose Cultivation family, the Pei family gave in to Liang Sheng, which made the Loose Cultivators in the market completely recognize Liang Sheng. They only had one thought in their hearts: Dont provoke this loose cultivator at the Fifth Layer of Qi Cultivation until a life-or-death situation.

Liang Sheng secretly felt in his heart that after having enough strength, his actions could naturally be more diverse in style.

Who could say that he is not extremely cautious now?

Now, he can openly collect high-level pill formulas without anyones suspicion since he is just a pill maniac with no hope in his cultivation path.

In just a few days, he has received a lot of middle-grade pill formulas, including even the Foundation Establishment Pill recipe. No wonder the depth of these Loose Cultivation Alchemists in the market should not be underestimated.

Unfortunately, there was no Golden Yuan Pill that Liang Sheng was always thinking about. There was a True Yuan Pill formula among them, so this time Liang Sheng started to openly buy spiritual grass for the True Yuan Pill without any suspicion.

Seeing this, most of the Loose Cultivators only had one thought in mind: this Alchemist Master Chen is indeed a pill-refining madman.

However, such a big thing happened in the market, and the Three Sects and Six Orders stationed in the shops naturally understood the ins and outs.

They couldn't help but sigh in their hearts. Although Chen Sheng's talent in pill-refining was astonishing, it was a pity that his fortune was shallow.

No connection with us!

So, the Three Sects and Six Orders did not interfere with Liang Sheng, and Liang Sheng was happy about that, as he could happily collect spiritual grass for True Yuan Pills.

After all, the spiritual grass in the spiritual field still needed a few years to grow, so he could only buy spiritual grass and use them to refine True Yuan Pills to practice in advance.

In the days that followed, Liang Sheng would naturally go to the central stall in the market, but because of his presence, the Loose Cultivation Alchemists unexpectedly united, which was also an unexpected gain.

Moreover, every time Liang Sheng appeared at the central stall in the market, many Loose Cultivators would rush to grab the spiritual pills on his stall.

After all, that was someone who could subdue these alchemists, and his spiritual pills were reasonably priced. Only a fool would not buy them.

Fortunately, Liang Sheng did not produce too many pills each time, otherwise, the shops of the Three Sects and Six Orders would have to take some action.

They are not benevolent and charitable people after all.eastern fantasy

Qin Chen and others were actually very happy about this, as after Liang Sheng's pills were sold out, he would start to gather with them and have discussions.

Every time they gathered, they felt like they had learned something new, so their eyes looked at Liang Sheng with increasing admiration.

Master Chen is a pure and noble person. They only regretted that they did not have higher-level spiritual pill formulas, otherwise, they could repay Liang Sheng.

Master Chen is indeed a Pill Maniac!

In this way, time gradually passed, and one day Liang Sheng finally collected a dozen spiritual grasses for the True Yuan Pill. After that, he began closed-door pill refining.

This time, Liang Sheng added a Concealment Array in his rented Cave Mansion because he did not want the outside world to detect his pill refining situation.

However, the outside world did not believe that Liang Sheng could successfully refine the True Yuan Pill, after all, how could little Chen Sheng possibly succeed in refining a middle-grade pill like this?

Liang Sheng just appeared to be exploring the Dao of alchemy, and refining True Yuan Pills was just a result of his obsession with alchemy.

In the next more than a month, Liang Sheng had not left the Cave Mansion, and naturally, his first furnace of True Yuan Pills ended in failure..

Chapter 170: Foundation Establishment Pill Auction, Inviting Chen Sheng to Come Out

In the past month, only three out of ten furnaces of Zhenyuan Pills were successfully refined, with a success rate of 30%. If this was known by those outside, it would cause quite a stir.

This alchemy skill could be considered top-notch, but Liang Sheng was still somewhat unsatisfied, although he didnt care too much.

After all, as long as he kept practicing, his success rate would reach 100%. It was just a matter of time and familiarity.

Next, Liang Sheng took the Zhenyuan Pills that he had refined and began cultivating with the Immortal Scripture. When he opened his eyes, the corners of his mouth couldn't help but curve upwards slightly.

Cultivation really needed the support of elixirs; otherwise, when would he be able to progress? Elixirs were also a kind of fortune.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's mood was excellent, but once he calmed down, he quickly rearranged the scene within his cave mansion.

He first eliminated all the Qi of successful pill refinement, leaving only the burnt smell of failed pill concoction, and then, he removed the Concealment Array that he had set up.

However, when he left the cave mansion, there was no trace of frustration on his face, even though he was covered in the smell of failed pill refining.

Qin Chen and the others had been paying close attention to Liang Sheng's news ever since he began his closed-door alchemy. As soon as Liang Sheng finished, they rushed over at the first opportunity.

They looked at Liang Sheng with expectant eyes, and Liang Sheng didn't disappoint them as he nodded.

I've gained some insights. Fellow Daoists, would you like to join me in discussing cultivation?

Master Chen's invitation is an honor, and it would be rude to refuse.

Immediately, everyone entered Liang Sheng's cave mansion with anticipation, and Liang Sheng did not hold back as he shared some simple and practical alchemy techniques.

However, even this was enough for these alchemists to listen with rapt attention, marveling at the insights in their hearts.

As Loose Cultivators, they could only explore many things by themselves, and their eyes grew hotter as they looked at Liang Sheng.

Fortunate to have met Master Chen!

It turned out that there were so many details in just the first step of processing spiritual grass. No wonder Liang Sheng was called Pill Maniac and Master Chen! Beneath the heat in their eyes was genuine admiration.

At that moment, Liang Sheng suddenly changed the topic, beginning to discuss his understanding of the Zhenyuan Pill formula. Each spiritual grass had its purpose, and it was all about balance and the cycle of the five elements.

Liang Sheng even used Qi Refining Pills for comparison, and only then did the alchemists realize that every pill formula had its unique balance.

However, next, Liang Sheng began to analyze the Foundation Establishment Pill, which he could not possibly refine but spoke about confidently.

This made the alchemists incredibly excited, knowing that once their realms advanced, they would definitely be able to refine Foundation Establishment Pills.

Moreover, with their newfound understanding, they could undoubtedly increase their success rate by a small margin.

This was the Foundation Establishment Pill!

However, it was at this time that Liang Sheng sighed, Unfortunately, I have never seen the formula for the Golden Yuan Pill. I imagine its composition to be even more complex and ingenious. Alaseastern fantasy Show ones true colors.

Finally, Liang Sheng revealed his true intentions. All this time, his ultimate goal had only ever been one thing

The Golden Yuan Pill!

Hearing this, Qin Chen and the others held even greater respect for Liang Sheng in their hearts. Master Chen had already begun thinking about unraveling the Golden Yuan Pill.

Such a person truly deserved to be their master.

However, nobody spoke up at this moment, but they firmly kept this matter in their minds. If given the chance, they would definitely obtain the recipe for the Golden Yuan Pill, so Master Chen would not be left with regrets.

Afterward, the market continued to operate as usual, and every day people died at the edge of the market. Liang Sheng, however, remained on his Fishing Platform and patiently awaited his opportunity within the market.

No one in the market dared to provoke Liang Sheng, the Qi Cultivation Fifth Level Alchemist who rarely went outside.

After all, he wasn't alone; he represented all the accomplished alchemists in the market. Under such circumstances, twenty years had unknowingly passed.

Liang Sheng was still disguised as someone at the Fifth Layer of Qi Cultivation, causing those from the Three Sects and Six Orders who still harbored a glimmer of hope to give up completely. It seemed that Chen Sheng really had no hope left.

Since such a person couldn't cultivate, there was no danger, and there was no need to provoke them. After all, the person had no future.

During these twenty years, Liang Sheng had already harvested from the spiritual field of mature Zhenyuan spiritual grass twice. He had already achieved a 100% success rate in refining Zhenyuan Pills.

He now had enough Zhenyuan Pills to last him for a hundred years, but he was still planting Zhenyuan spiritual grass. After all, who would ever complain about having too many elixirs?

Over the past twenty years, Huang Yifans two brothers finally broke through the Qi Cultivation Seventh Level with the help of High-Quality Qi Cultivation Pills.

As for Huang Yifan himself, he was just one step away, and nobody knew when he would make that breakthrough. In any case, his awe for Liang Sheng only grew.

Liang Sheng's appearance in the market had begun to show silvery strands of hair, and his outward display of lifespan was less than seventy years left.

A cultivator at the Fifth Layer of Qi Cultivation who was 130 years old evoked a feeling of sentiment.

During these twenty years, Liang Sheng had not received any news about the Golden Yuan Pill, but he wasn't in a hurry. All he needed to do was wait, and there would eventually be an opportunity.

During these twenty years, a significant event took place: the Three Sects and Six Orders had finally decided to put three Foundation Establishment Pills up for public sale.

This news caused the entire market to boil over, driving the Loose Cultivators at the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer to frenzy.

This was their chance to establish their foundation, so how could they give it up?

For a short while, many cultivators stopped venturing out of the market.. Who knew what the high-level cultivators at the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer would do to gather spirit stones?
