

Bottleneck 221

Chapter 221: Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, Yang Chengs Foundation Establishment

Dan Ding Sect.

Danyang Outer Peak.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was staring at the magnificent and imposing buildings before his eyes, feeling somewhat dumbfounded. Behind these towering structures, there were countless slightly smaller architectural complexes, with a clear-cut layout.

This scene did not resemble the transcendent and detached atmosphere of Green Cloud Peak, nor the chaos of the Outer Sect, but it had an even greater Sects momentum.

Previously, because the Green Cloud Peak disciples only saw them off at the foot of the mountain, Liang Sheng had already observed several worldly manors, which resembled Cave Mansions, during the ascent and thought that all of Danyang Outer Peak was like this.

On his way, he encountered some ordinary disciples who were going out, all looking energetic and positive what a difference compared to the Outer Sect disciples!

When he reached the top of the mountain, Liang Sheng saw the architectural complex mentioned earlier, and the largest structure was the Management Hall for ordinary disciples.

It was countless times larger than the Foreign Affairs Hall of the Outer Sect. Moreover, the facilities nearby were even more abundant he could even see institutions like the Cultivation Methods Pavilion.

In reality, ordinary disciples formed the foundation of the Dan Ding Sect, with the majority of Foundation Establishment Inner Sect disciples coming from here.

Therefore, in Danyang Outer Peak, many ordinary disciples possessed deep backgrounds, and any slight act could implicate Sect Foundation Establishment disciples.

At this time, the ordinary disciples returning with Liang Sheng were bidding him farewell one by one. Due to their internal strife, they were forced to return to Danyang Outer Peak early.

However, Liang Sheng, as a person implicated in this, didnt bear any grudges, and he had won their favor on this journey.

It was all Chen Mings fault for being overly clever. Otherwise, why would everyone have to suffer like this? With this in mind, their resentment towards Chen Ming grew even stronger.

Yang Cheng, we will go home first then. Do you see the largest building to the east? Thats the Management Hall.

You just need to show your waist tag to the Management Hall disciples, explain your situation, and they will naturally arrange your Cave Mansion.

And if you look to the west, our Family Cave Mansion is located where the triangular group of buildings is. If you have any issues, you can always come to find me.

After Shen Shixi finished speaking, several others also told Liang Sheng the location of their Family Cave Mansions, which he didnt decline.

Indeed, these ordinary disciples had extraordinary backgrounds; otherwise, they wouldnt even have been sent to Green Cloud Peak. At this time, Liang Sheng didnt want to curry favor with them but didnt refuse their kind intentions either.

Of course, among this batch of disciples, only some showed goodwill towards Liang Sheng. Most of them still maintained a distance from him, and Liang Sheng didnt mind it.

If he wasnt trying to better hide his identity and ensure his own safety, these people would probably be calling him Masters Brother.bender

Once Liang Sheng had said farewell to each of the ordinary disciples, he didn't head directly to the Management Hall to register. Instead, he squatted to the side and observed the situation in Danyang Outer Peak in silence.

People were coming and going on this peak, moving neither hurriedly nor leisurely. Many of them would enter and exit the Management Hall, and Liang Sheng observed that most of them were there to accept tasks.

This situation wasn't any different from the Outer Sect, except that these disciples' demeanor was even more composed, and the scale of the Management Hall was far larger than that of the Outer Sect.

Apart from the Sect Management Hall, functional institutions like the Cultivation Methods Pavilion were also busy, but the busiest place outside the Management Hall was the Trading Place.

After all, some disciples didn't lack spirit stones but needed specific items. In such cases, there was a need for barter trade, and the Trading Place naturally had designated locations.

Apart from the various official institutions of the Sect, many people passed through the great family's Mansion and Courtyard, too.

Many people visited one another, and after observing for some time, Liang Sheng couldn't help but sigh, Indeed, people are the same everywhere.

Danyang Outer Peak had its share of worldly affairs, and as long as cultivators were gathered together, they were still people, and interactions would inevitably involve human relationships.

However, the more it was like this, the more reassured Liang Sheng felt. Since there was still worldly fire in this place, there would be room for him to maneuver.

After all, time was on his side, so he could take his time to plan without rushing. It was then when Liang Sheng headed towards the Management Hall.

He directly informed the Management Hall disciples of his identity, and they searched for Liang Sheng's information in the jade slip and found his identity as personally appointed by Green Cloud Peak Master Jin Quanyu.

After verifying his information with the Management Hall, they issued Liang Sheng an ordinary disciples Cave Mansion Jade Token. However, ordinary disciples didn't have to pay Mansion fees.

At this point, the remaining Cave Mansion locations in Danyang Outer Peak weren't very good, and the one allocated to Liang Sheng was in a somewhat remote area on the mountainside. However, the concentration of Spiritual Energy was far superior to that of the Outer Sect.

Knowing that he was a newly promoted ordinary disciple, the Management Hall disciple specially gave him a jade slip introducing the situation in Danyang Outer Peak. Liang Sheng immediately expressed his gratitude.

After completing these tasks, Liang Sheng received two sets of dust-free robes for ordinary disciples. Wearing them, he wouldn't have to worry about cleanliness.

Before he left, the Management Hall disciple asked if Liang Sheng needed a guide, which would only cost one low-grade spirit stone. Liang Sheng naturally declined.

At this moment, Liang Sheng just wanted to quietly reach his Cave Mansion alone and spend some time there undisturbed. He had only taken a cursory look at the situation in Danyang Outer Peak, and it would still take some time to carefully discern the details..

Chapter 222: Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, Yang Cheng's Foundation Establishment

Upon arriving at the location of the Cave Mansion, Liang Sheng entered and followed the usual routine, directly stacking the Concealment Arrays, increasing the defensive array, to ensure that even if a Foundation Establishment Latter Stage Cultivator attacked, they could hold them off for some time.

As for Golden Core Daoists

If they were to take action, he was afraid that he would not have any room for resistance, unless the opponent was not directly attacking but engaged in a barrage of idle talk. Then, there might be a slim chance of survival.

As Liang Sheng was setting up the defense array for the Cave Mansion, the other ordinary disciples who had returned from Green Cloud Peak were called by their family elders as soon as they arrived home.

When they learned the reason for their return, the family elders could only sigh. After all, they just wanted to strive and show their best, who would know it would end up like this?

However, ordinary disciples like Chen Ming who stayed in Green Cloud Peak did not return, which delighted their elders and they couldn't help but let their family members inquire about it.

Could it be that my family's little Qilin has stayed in Green Cloud Peak due to his good performance and caught the eye of Elder Jin?

They were delighted in their hearts, unable to restrain themselves from sending people to inquire at the returning disciples' homes. But when they learned the outcome, they couldn't help but fall silent.

The younger generation of our family indeed has some bloodline spirit. Since he's willing to stay in Green Cloud Peak as a field-guarding child, that's also a way out.

Although the resources at home are limited, since Chen Ming is not coming back, it seems that Chen Long, the child of Second Junior Brother, is no worse than Chen Ming, so let's cultivate them well.

As a result, Chen Ming and the others, who were once called little Qilin by their families' mouths, continued to struggle in Green Cloud Peak without knowing that their families had already begun to pay attention to nurturing the next generation.

As for Yang Cheng, who was born in the Outer Disciple sect in this matter, the family elders only frowned when they heard about it, secretly remembering his name in their hearts, but without any expression.

After all, this was the Dan Ding Sect, and they were just ordinary disciples.

How could they dare to overstep and cause chaos? At most, they would teach a lesson when the opportunity arises.

Liang Sheng was unaware of this situation. Instead, he took half a year to adapt to the environment of Danyang Outer Peak.

Of course, he had also entered the Cultivation Methods Pavilion, which contained various cultivation methods for refining tools and alchemy, talismans, inscriptions, and auxiliaries. Liang Sheng was like a sponge, tirelessly absorbing the information.

Such enthusiasm naturally surprised the disciples of the Technique Hall. After all, in cultivation, covering too much in such a short time would just lead to mediocre accomplishments in all areas.

Upon hearing the Managerial Disciples advice, Liang Sheng insisted that he was just looking to compare these auxiliary professions and find the best track for himself.

Hearing this reasoning, the Managerial Disciple remembered his origins and considered Liang Sheng's view. Coming from being an Outer Disciple, Liang Sheng had never been exposed to such a wealth of content. Furthermore, Liang Sheng could provide Spirit Stones for copying the techniques, so the Managerial Disciple agreed to his request.

Regardless, he had warned Liang Sheng; the outcome was irrelevant and didn't concern him anymore. He had no need to worry about it anymore.

Respect the destiny of others; never be obsessed with helping others.

Unknowingly, time passed, and Liang Sheng gained mastery of many techniques and skills he had never had before.

Of course, he would still need time to practice them; for now, he had just reached the entry level. However, time didn't mean much to Liang Sheng.

Unfortunately, the Danyang Outer Peak Cultivation Methods Pavilion did not have the recipe for the Golden Yuan Pill. As for the Foundation Establishment Pills recipe, it was available. Since then, he didn't need to make up reasons to refine Foundation Establishment Pills.

After investigating, Liang Sheng guessed that he could only access the recipe for the Golden Yuan Pill once he became a Foundation Establishment Disciple. In that case, it seemed that he would have to wait for several decades more.

During this time, besides doing these tasks, Liang Sheng also took on several small tasks with no danger, conveniently travelling through the entire Danyang Outer Peak.

Of course, Liang Sheng wasn't always alone. At some point, Outer Sect Manager Chen Xiang came to see him, which left him puzzled, as he appeared to be just a Qi Cultivation Third Level disciple.

Chen Xiang started the conversation with a smile, telling him to visit the Outer Sect more often if he had time. Liang Sheng couldn't help but find this strange, seeing Chen Xiang's seemingly hidden smile.

As far as he could tell, he had nothing that would make Chen Xiang act like this. Seeing his slightly puzzled look, Chen Xiang wasn't surprised as that was the normal reaction.

Then Chen Xiang explained the reason for his visit, Don't overthink it; I just feel that one day you will become my Junior Brother, so I wanted to get acquainted early. After all, Uncle Jin's insight has never been wrong.

This candid statement made Liang Sheng feel that the other party was not lying. In his heart, he felt that the other party was a real character. In this situation, if he were truly an ordinary disciple, he would be immensely grateful.

When a person is in a low position, being believed by someone can be a great encouragement and is easily imprinted in the heart.

Never underestimate Chen Xiang's actions. After all, how many people in this world are willing to look down and get along with the ordinary in advance?

Human nature is such that most people are only compatible with those above them, not looking down at the suffering. That's why the world often adds flowers to the brocade, but rarely sends charcoal in the snow.

I've heard about what happened on Green Cloud Peak. You don't need to have any psychological burden. Focus on cultivation; it's the right path. Those ordinary disciples just took the wrong path.

All the circumstances are solely based on their strength. The so-called blessings and opportunities, you have to learn to convert them into your strength, that's the real blessing and opportunity.

At this time, Liang Sheng solemnly expressed his gratitude in the form of a bow.. It seems that the other party truly valued him, or why else would they go to such lengths?

Chapter 223: Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, Yang Cheng's Foundation Establishment

As he spoke, Chen Xiang continued, Some time ago, I heard the managerial disciples say that you are quite interested in weapon refining, array formations, and talisman techniques, so you went to the Technique Hall to exchange for a lot of information related to these subjects.

You are a smart person, and I know you won't act recklessly. But I still have to say, a person's lifespan is limited. Since you have talent in pill refining, focus on cultivating and improving yourself first.

After you reach Foundation Establishment, you will have ample time to study these subjects. For example, you've met Senior Brother Xiang Chen, who is exceptional in pill refining, or else Master Brother Jin wouldn't have taken him as a disciple.

Back then, he was actually fond of the path of array formations as well. However, when he was at the Qi Cultivation Realm, he never dabbled in other auxiliary cultivation arts. It was only after he reached Foundation Establishment that he occasionally looked through other cultivation arts.

I don't really need to say much about this principle; I know you are a person of purpose. Nevertheless, I want to remind that you shouldn't waste your talent.

Your father, Yang Sheng, was a smart man, but unfortunately, his aptitude wasn't good enough. Since you have this talent, you must not waste it.

Hearing this, Liang Sheng couldn't help but sigh. It seemed that only previously was Yang Sheng in good relations with Chen Xiang.

He naturally expressed his gratitude, and in his heart, remembered the good intentions of the other party. After all, Chen Xiang was genuinely considering his best interests.

Seeing that Liang Sheng had taken his words seriously, Chen Xiang left satisfied. There were many matters to attend to in the outer sect, so he could not stay here for long.

The treatment of a Sect managerial disciple was quite good, and he didn't want to lose this position. He didn't tell Liang Sheng that he, too, had been a victor who had fought his way out of the outer sect.

After Chen Xiang left, the disciples at the Danyang Outer Peaks Management Hall treated Liang Sheng more courteously.

Although they didn't know the relationship between Chen Xiang and Liang Sheng, it at least indicated that Liang Sheng had some background. Giving an extra smile didn't cost them anything, so why not do it?

Liang Sheng had now completely put his mind at ease about the environment in the Dan Ding Sect's Danyang Outer Peak. Although factions still existed within the sect, at least for now, he was just a small fry and didn't need to worry about anything.

He only had one thing to do, and that was to cultivate diligently. Once he reached Foundation Establishment, he would consider which main peak to apprentice himself to, and at that time, he would naturally have his own faction.

But there was no hurry for this matter. He still had decades to observe, so there was no need to worry too much.

Under these circumstances, sixty years passed by in the blink of an eye.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was walking on the path of Danyang Outer Peak, and from time to time, disciples passing by would stop and salute him, calling him Senior Brother.

Yang Sheng was now at the Qi Cultivation Ninth Level!

Sixty years had already gained Liang Sheng quite a reputation in the Danyang Outer Peak. As for the other ordinary disciples who had entered Green Cloud Peak with him, now the highest level of cultivation among them was Qi Cultivation 8th Layer State.

Over such a long time, some of these people had naturally interacted with Liang Sheng. Seeing that his cultivation speed didn't seem to slow down at all, they couldn't help but treat him even more enthusiastically out of their helplessness.

The simple logic of survival in the Cultivation World was that as long as you were powerful, everyone around you would be a good person, and everyone would greet you with a smile.

But what made Liang Sheng happiest was not that his plan was about to succeed, but that his cultivation speed far exceeded his previous expectations in such a spiritually abundant place as the Dan Ding Sect, along with the fact that he had a seemingly endless amount of True Yuan Pills.

Already, he could faintly sense that the Foundation Establishment Middle Stage was just ahead. After all, his cultivation had no bottleneck, and breaking through was just a matter of time. However, his greatest surprise in the past sixty years was that his Lifespan Cultivation Technique had finally broken through again.

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 696

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top grade)

Techniques: Upper Pure Immortal Scripture (10th Layer), Pure Yang Pill Scripture (10th Layer), Twenty Life-Nurturing Techniques (20th Layer), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse)

Realm: Early Foundation Establishment Stage

Lifespan: 25,835

Having spent more than a hundred years, his Lifespan Cultivation Technique had finally broken through again, increasing his lifespan by another 4,800 years. Who in the world could compete with that?

For him, time was merely a number. The more time he had, and the longer his lifespan, who could bear it?

It took Liang Sheng a while to suppress the smugness in his heart. Now that he had successfully established himself in the Danyang Outer Peak, it was time to officially begin his Foundation Establishment plan.

Every ordinary disciple who has reached the Qi Cultivation Ninth Level in the Dan Ding Sect will be treated equally, and each will have a share of a Foundation Establishment Pill.

Liang Sheng went to the Management Hall to receive his Foundation Establishment Pill. However, he didn't plan to break through so easily, but rather put on a show for now.

Generally, the Qi Cultivating Ninth-Level disciples of the Danyang Outer Peak, unless their lifespan is near its end and they are still as young as Liang Sheng, will be recruited by someone. This is especially true for someone like Liang Sheng, who has no background.

There is bound to be competition within a sect, and where there are people, there is struggle. Just like someone in his past life once said, it is infinite pleasure to struggle against heaven, earth, and people!

If Liang Sheng could break through Foundation Establishment before he reached a hundred years old, he would have at least six hundred more years of life.

What does this mean?

It means that reaching the Golden Core realm is a possibility!bender

So, how can the main peak factions of the Dan Ding Sect not try to recruit a disciple with a clean background like him?

However, Liang Sheng also had his plans at this time, which were to take advantage of the situation and investigate the various main peaks of Dan Ding Sect to see which was more suitable for him..

Chapter 224: Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, Yang Chengs Foundation Establishment

Of course, if the recruiting conditions of each major peak were similar, he would naturally lean towards Green Cloud Peak in his heart.

Not to mention that Jin Quanxiu previously had a good impression of him, but also Chen Xiang, Xiao Qin, and others were one of the major factors in choosing them.

They all come from the Green Cloud Peak lineage, and their previous kindness to him, under the same conditions, Liang Sheng would, of course, prefer to join Green Cloud Peak.

Moreover, the disciples of Green Cloud Peak were indeed able to recognize good fortune, and how could Liang Sheng not like this temperament?

Liang Sheng's work was safety first.

However, Liang Sheng would not choose to break through Foundation Establishment in a short time. After all, his true cultivation level was about to break through to the Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, which should be within a few years.

After reaching the Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, wouldn't it be safer to pretend to break through the Early Foundation Establishment Stage?

The sect also has factions, and he is just being a little more careful, which is not too much, right?

And as Liang Sheng expected, the people from the main mountains came to test and recruit Liang Sheng, and he also counter-collected information.

Liang Sheng's response to them was naturally tactful, not making the visitors feel any discomfort, and of course, Liang Sheng did not verbally agree to anyone.

It's just that no one from the Green Cloud Peak has come yet, which was quite unexpected for Liang Sheng. Only after Liang Sheng received the sect's Foundation Establishment Pill for ordinary disciples did Chen Xiang appear in front of him with a grin.

Afterwards, the other party didn't have any greetings, and directly handed a jade bottle to Liang Sheng.

Foundation Establishment Pill!

Upon seeing the jade bottle, Liang Sheng was really quite surprised. He didn't expect Green Cloud Peak to give him such a big gift when they appeared.

Uncle Chen Xiang, what is this?

Liang Sheng pretended to be hesitant as he looked at Chen Xiang, who couldn't help but laugh and scold, You and your father are both too cautious.

Don't worry, this is just a gift from our Green Cloud Peak to you. You don't have to worry about what you have to give. Moreover, this is given by Uncle Jin to you.

This wont affect your choice of which main peak to join after breaking through the Foundation Establishment Stage. After all, to Uncle Jin, youre just a cultivator who has not yet reached the Foundation Establishment Stage.

Yang Cheng, let me tell you something today. Over the years, many people in the sect have broken through Foundation Establishment, but how many can break through the Golden Core Realm?

Take, for example, big apprentice of Uncle Jin, Brother Xiang Chen, who is now in the Late Foundation Establishment Stage. But at this time, he still hasnt felt complete, and his attack on the Golden Core is still a long way off.

At this point, Chen Xiang directly stuffed the Foundation Establishment Pill jade bottle into Liang Shengs hands, So dont feel pressured, dont think about choosing a main peak lineage, because as long as you havent built the foundation, everything is just empty hope.

Over the years, countless disciples who are more outstanding than you have failed to break through the bottleneck at the last moment and fail to establish the foundation successfully.

So dont get cocky and feel arrogant just because so many main peak disciples have come looking for you. Keep in mind that your own strength is the only guarantee.

As soon as Liang Sheng heard this, he nodded immediately, put away the jade bottle directly, and smiled brightly at Chen Xiang. Then they both tacitly understood each others thoughts without saying anything.

Chen Xiang couldnt help but nod his head in satisfaction. This child knew when to advance and retreat, just like his father Yang Sheng, and also had loyalty like Yang Sheng.

If it wasnt for that, how could he, a Foundation Establishment cultivator and an outer sect manager, befriend Yang Sheng, an outer sect disciple with no future at all?

So sometimes, the most powerless weapon in the world is sincerity. At this moment, Liang Sheng also bid farewell to Chen Xiang and returned to his own cave dwelling.

Close the door!

Because Liang Sheng's cave was located in a remote area, not many people knew that he had closed his cave and entered the closed-door cultivation state.

Although he seemed to have caused quite a stir recently, not many people were actually paying attention to him.

Because Danyang Outer Peak was too big and there were too many disciples, even if it could cause a ripple, it could not cause a wave unless the Foundation Establishment was successful.

During this period, only those with ulterior motives occasionally asked about Liang Sheng's condition, while at other times, no one cared about how Liang Sheng was doing.

Over the years in the Dan Ding Sect, Liang Sheng's main practice was naturally the Pure Yang Pill Scripture, followed by the Upper Pure Mysterious Scripture and the Health Cultivation Method.

However, Liang Sheng had planned to close the door for a long time. The spirit stones in his hand had been placed for a long time. After so many years, he finally had the confidence to refine a storage ring.

With the Attribute Panel Concealing Property, his storage ring worn on his finger would appear to others as just an ornament.

First, Liang Sheng emptied his mind. After a day of meditation, he washed his hands and prepared himself before officially starting the refining process of the storage ring.

First, he melted the spirit stones, then took out the Green Steel Mysterious Iron. Liang Sheng meticulously followed the steps of refining storage accessories and began refining the storage ring.

He performed each step with great determination, without any hesitation. After years of practice, he was already extremely skilled in these steps, as it was all from the experience he got by disassembling more than a dozen storage bags.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was completely focused on refining the storage ring, and his cave dwelling was layered with nearly a hundred Concealment Formations.

So even if the storage ring was successfully refined, as long as he put it on his hand immediately, there would be no leakage of any Qi.

Under such circumstances, time went by quickly and three months passed.

At this moment, Liang Sheng looked at the storage ring on his ring finger and couldn't help but smile. After cultivating for hundreds of years, he finally had a storage ring..

Chapter 225: Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, Yang Cheng's Foundation Establishment

The storage space within the storage ring compared to a storage bag was like the difference between heaven and earth, as it had over one hundred and thirty cubic meters of storage space.

This was the equivalent of more than a hundred ordinary storage bags!

When the storage ring was successfully crafted, Liang Sheng immediately put it on his hand before the aura had a chance to break through the Concealment Array, and then checked the ring's storage capacity.

Although the storage ring only had storage capabilities, it was actually a Four-Pattern magical weapon. If Liang Sheng were to later integrate Spirit Stones with his outstanding weapon refinement skills, it might even break through to the Five Patterns and become a Spirit Tool.

Six Patterns was the mark of a magical weapon entering the realm of Spirit Tools.

At the moment, Liang Sheng couldn't help but be fascinated by the storage ring. He could have tried to continue forging it with Spirit Stones, but by that time, he wouldn't have been confident that the Concealment Array could keep the Spirit Tool Level storage ring's aura from leaking out.

Given this, how could someone as cautious as Liang Sheng still make such a foolish mistake? After all, he still had plenty of time and could plan accordingly without making mistakes.

Eventually, there was no need to rush.

After Liang Sheng placed all his belongings in the storage ring, he still wore his previous storage bag around his waist, but it only held a few spirit stones and some ordinary emergency spiritual grasses and elixirs, just for disguise.

As for the other storage bags he had left on his body, Liang Sheng threw them aside, intending to dismantle them into raw materials when he had time.

At this point, he glanced at the sky outside. It was already a bright moonlit night. The successful crafting of the Storage Ring tonight called for a celebration.

He took out some Fruit Wine, poured himself a small glass, and completely emptied his mind, enjoying the present tranquility and the moment of self-contentment.

After that, Liang Sheng's life continued as usual, methodically and without haste, just waiting for his breakthrough to happen naturally.

Another year and a half passed.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was meditating in his Cave Mansion, and as his cultivation techniques inside his body whirled frantically, it surged through like rushing water, finally breaking through barriers and flowing downwards.

Liang Sheng immediately concealed his aura, which he had long been prepared for. Under more than a hundred layers of Concealment Formation and with the existence of the Attribute Panel, nobody knew he had already broken through to the Foundation Establishment Middle Stage Realm.

Now, the spiritual energy within Liang Sheng's body was becoming more concentrated. If it was just soup before, now it was like a thin porridge, faintly giving a sense of solidity.

Liang Sheng felt the sudden surge of power in his body and had an urge to release and test how strong he was after this breakthrough.

However, he quickly suppressed the impulse since he was in the Danyang Outer Peak and couldn't act recklessly. He would find an opportunity to try later.

Liang Sheng felt the overflowing power inside him, vaguely sensing that he could now easily defeat ten of his former selves, and still have plenty of strength left.

Indeed, the difference between realms was like that between Heaven and Earth. This was cultivation, and Liang Sheng's Attribute Panel finally changed.

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 698

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top grade)

Techniques: Upper Pure Immortal Scripture (11th Layer), Pure Yang Pill Scripture (11th Layer), Twenty Health Management Techniques (20 Layers), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse)

Realm: Foundation Establishment Atiddle Stage

Lifespan: 25823

698 years old.

Well, this number is quite auspicious.

Since he had successfully broken through at this moment, he could start his plan. Liang Sheng had been waiting for this day for more than sixty years.

With that thought, Liang Sheng no longer hesitated. He first hid the Internal Energy within his body, keeping it fluctuating at the Ninth Layer of Qi Cultivation, then gradually released his aura according to the commotion he had made when he broke through the Foundation Establishment Stage.

In Danyang Outer Peak, at the Management Hall.

Hmm?

At this moment, Manager Yin Wenhan was going through some recent information on Danyang Outer Peak. Right then, he couldn't help but look up in the direction of Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion.

Did someone breakthrough to the Foundation Establishment Realm today?

As Liang Sheng's aura emerged from nothingness and finally stabilized, Yin Wenhan lost his focus on internal affairs, got up, and went directly to Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion.

Today, the Sect would have another Foundation Establishment Junior Brother. As the Manager of Danyang Outer Peak, how could he not go to celebrate?

Meanwhile, the ordinary disciples, not far from Liang Sheng's cave mansion, had also stepped out of their caves, their gazes fixed on Liang Sheng's cave, filled with envy.

Foundation Establishment!

Once established, one's lifespan would increase by 500 years.

Yang Cheng was rumored not to be even 100 years old yet, so barring any accidents, he would have a lifespan of 600 years more.

Golden Core Realm was within reach!

Thinking of this, these ordinary disciples couldn't help but be extremely envious in their hearts. How they wished it was they who were breaking through to the Foundation Establishment stage right now.

Shortly after, a streak of light appeared in the sky. As soon as the disciples recognized the person, they weren't too surprised.

Yin Wenhan!

As the manager of Danyang Outer Peak, how could Yin Wenhan not come?

Indeed, Yin Wenhan was the first Foundation Establishment Stage cultivator to arrive at Liang Sheng's cave mansion.

However, Liang Sheng didn't open the door to his cave mansion right away, but Yin Wenhan wasn't in a hurry either, so he just stood outside, patiently waiting.

After a while, a long howl suddenly echoed out from Liang Sheng's cave mansion, shaking the air within a hundred miles around.

Upon hearing this, Yin Wenhan couldn't help but smile. When he had broken through to Foundation Establishment, he had done the same thing, right?

Considering that Yang Cheng was still under 100 years old and had acted so passionately after his advancement, it was all quite understandable..

Chapter 226: Foundation Establishment Middle Stage, Yang Cheng's Foundation Establishment

As the long howling sound fell, Liang Sheng's cave gate finally opened. Now, Liang Sheng's eyes were full of radiance, and his whole being was full of vigor.

His face still bore the joyful expression from the breakthrough. Yin Wenhan immediately congratulated him, Congratulations, Junior brother, on breaking through to Foundation Establishment today. The Immortal Path may be expected, and the Golden Core may be hoped for.

Thank you, manager

Call me Senior Brother.

Thank you, Yin Senior Brother. May I invite Senior Brother to come into my cave for a talk?

I would if you so desire, I shall not decline.

Yin Wenhan laughed and exchanged greetings with Liang Sheng before entering Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion. After they entered the cave, news of Yang Cheng's Foundation Establishment spread throughout the Danyang Outer Peak in an instant.

Upon hearing the news, the cultivators who were previously Alchemy Children with Liang Sheng were dumbfounded. Shen Shixi was one of them.

At this point, they still didn't know when they would even reach the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer, let alone achieve Foundation Establishment. They never expected that Yang Cheng would achieve Foundation Establishment at this time.

Just then, an elder member of their family suddenly summoned them. Following this, Shen Shixi saw the elders smiling, and they had already prepared congratulatory gifts.

My child, since you are acquainted with Master Brother Yang, you should go and congratulate him on his successful Foundation Establishment.

This situation not only occurred with Shen Shixi but with almost all of the Alchemy Children. They could only smile bitterly in their hearts but would not reject the thoughts of their elders.

Yang Cheng is already a Masters Brother now!

However, they were already prepared in their hearts not to see Yang Cheng. They only felt that it was necessary to go to Yang Chengs Cave Mansion at the earliest possible time, and as for the rest, they would leave it to fate.

After all, doing this would not cause them any loss. If they could see Yang Cheng, it would be best, and if not, no harm would be done.

For a short while, people crowded in front of Liang Shengs Cave, countless people wanting to form a good relationship at this moment, but how could they possibly see Yang Cheng now?

At this moment, in front of Liang Shengs Cave, there were already disciples from the Management Hall in charge of maintaining order. From today on, they had one more Foundation Establishment Masters Brother.

When Shen Shixi arrived at the cave entrance, he immediately noticed several other Alchemy Children from the Green Cloud Peak.

Shen Shixi nodded as a greeting without saying anything. They, like him, were at a cultivation level around the seventh or eighth layer of Qi Training.

In those days, who could have thought that Yang Cheng would be the first Foundation Establishment Disciple among them?

At this moment, Shen Shixi looked at the seemingly endless line in front of the cave and no longer harbored the thought of seeing Yang Cheng. After all, there were still many ordinary disciples at the Qi Cultivation Ninth Layer in front of him, and it would be a long, long time before it was his turn.

Unexpectedly, a streak of light suddenly came from the outer peak. Once the other party landed, Shen Shixi and the others lowered their heads when they saw who it was.

Among them was Chen Xiang, the outer disciple manager. He never expected that he would come so quickly, and his arrival seemed to act as a trigger, as more than ten Foundation Establishment cultivators suddenly appeared.

As one of them landed, he walked towards Chen Xiang. After a brief conversation, Shen Shixi had already recognized his identity. After all, how could they forget him?

He was a Late-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator, Xiang Chen!

They didn't expect him to come as well. He probably came to recruit Yang Cheng. As for the other Foundation Establishment cultivators, they were Foundation Establishment Inner Sect Disciples from the other main mountains and similarly came to recruit Yang Cheng.

Thinking about this, Shen Shixi unconsciously clenched his fists. This was the result of a successful Foundation Establishment. One day in the future, he would eventually achieve this too.

Finally, Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion opened. Yin Wenhan and Yang Cheng stood at the entrance of the cave, smiling as they greeted the Foundation Establishment Disciples one by one.

What a man!

At this moment, looking at Yang Cheng inviting Xiang Chen and the others into his cave with a raised hand, Shen Shixi couldn't help but feel envious and sigh in his heart.

But just then, Liang Sheng suddenly turned his head. His expression seemed somewhat surprised. After apologizing to Xiang Chen and the others, he walked towards the crowd outside the cave.

What?

Xiang Chen and the others didn't enter the cave but watched as Liang Sheng walked into the crowd. At this moment, Shen Shixi felt increasingly nervous, as Yang Cheng seemed to be walking towards him.

Then a kind face appeared before him, Shen Brother, I didn't expect you to come as well. Why don't you come into my cave and take a seat?

Yang Yang Masters Brother, congratulations on the promising path ahead.

Liang Sheng just smiled and didn't decline the title. However, he grabbed Shen Shixi's arm and then found the other Alchemy Children who had been friendly towards him before, and they went towards the cave together.

Xiang Chen, being a Foundation Establishment cultivator, naturally had a good memory and soon remembered who these people were. He then explained the situation to the other Foundation Establishment disciples.

Yang Cheng, the man of loyalty and righteousness.

While some people were excited and overjoyed, others were filled with regret. This was especially true for the ordinary disciples who were once Alchemy Children with Liang Sheng. If only they had been friendly towards Yang Cheng before, would they have been invited this time as well?

Unfortunately, there is no such thing as a Regret Remedy in this world.

But in the end, who could have imagined that Yang Cheng would possess such exceptional aptitude and deep blessings?

Chapter 227: Pledging allegiance to Green Cloud Peak, Foundation Establishment within the Inner Sect

Danyang Outer Peak, Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion.

Although it was located in a remote area, at this moment, it was bustling with noise. The reason for this was, of course, obvious.

When Liang Sheng had prepared to break through to the Foundation Establishment Realm, he had removed all the array formations within his cave mansion, leaving no trace behind at this time.

The fragrance of the top-grade fruit wine still lingered in the cave mansion at this moment, but Liang Sheng no longer had a hint of drunkenness in his eyes, which were now extremely clear.

He had been the protagonist yesterday, and before the various Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivators could make their recruiting speeches, he pretended to be excited and didn't use his spiritual power to force the alcohol out of his body, getting drunk in the process as if to vent the frustration of years of cultivation.

The taste of this top-grade fruit wine also made the Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivators full of praise. They didn't expect Yang Cheng to have such a good product. Of course, no one asked where it came from, as there was no need to cause displeasure over such a good drink.

Perhaps some people had already seen through Liang Sheng's intention to get drunk, but nobody pointed it out. What could be said anyway? At this moment, they were trying to curry favor, so why offend the other party?

After all, even if they couldn't become fellow disciples of the same peak, they shouldn't easily make the other person dislike them. Perhaps the other person wasn't as good as themselves now, but being a Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivator at the age of eighty-three was still worth treating with respect.

That day, including Xiang Chen, all the Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivators didn't get a chance to recruit Liang Sheng before they left Danyang Outer Peak. They were sent off by Yin Wenhan.

As the manager of Danyang Outer Peak, he was naturally the most suitable person to take responsibility for sending them off in Liang Sheng's drunken state.

As for Shen Shixi and the others, at this moment, their hearts were already extremely excited, and they didn't need anyone to send them off.

Today, it had been their great honor to sit at the same table with the Foundation Establishment Stage Masters Brothers.

After Shen Shixi and the others returned home, they were immediately called by their elders, who at this moment were also full of joy and surprise, not expecting that they would have such an encounter with just a try.

I heard that today, you all sat at the same table with the Foundation Establishment Masters Brothers?

Shen Shixi naturally gave an affirmative answer, which made them overjoyed and couldn't help but praise Shen Shixi for his great fortune.

This situation naturally also happened to other disciples who had originated from the Alchemy Child. Unconsciously, their family started to give them more resources. If they could be treated so well by Yang Cheng, it meant they had good fortune and deserved to be cultivated by their family.

This made Shen Shixi and the others sigh. They had gradually been marginalized by their family because they hadn't seized their opportunity back then.

But now, having gained Yang Cheng's friendship, how could it not be their own good fortune? They were grateful for their kind intentions in the past.

Early the next morning, the front of Liang Sheng's cave was already crowded with people. If they didn't get to visit Yang Cheng successfully yesterday, they wouldn't easily give up. Today, they still wanted to form a connection with Yang Cheng.

Among them, there were especially many disciples at the Qi Cultivation Ninth Level. Even the ones at the Eighth Level of Qi Cultivation could enter the cave yesterday, which meant that this newly-promoted Foundation Establishment Stage Masters Brother was actually easy to deal with.

Since that was the case, why couldn't they enter the cave and have a pleasant conversation with Master Yang Cheng Uncle?

However, amidst their expectations, Liang Sheng's cave gate opened. But when Liang Sheng left, he didn't even glance at the others and turned into a streak of light, disappearing into the horizon.

He was willing to talk to Shen Shixi and the others yesterday because of the kindness they had shown him in the past. But now, what did the people standing in front of his gate do to deserve such treatment?

At this moment, Liang Sheng had already swept his cave mansion clean of all traces and decided to join Green Cloud Peak in his heart.

As for whether his departure would cause resentment among those who wanted to make friends with him, Liang Sheng didn't care at all. To him, that was just pointless social interaction.

Soon after, he arrived at the foot of Green Cloud Peak. To show his respect, Liang Sheng didn't directly climb up the peak but landed on the ground at the foot of the mountain and then climbed it on foot.

Although he was walking, his speed was not slow. Unconsciously, he reached the mountainside, and the scene in front of him suddenly became bright.

Green Cloud Peak's spiritual field was now located halfway up the mountain, where a wide plain-like area had been opened up. Many Qi Refining Realm disciples were busy here at the moment.

Liang Sheng only glanced at them and didn't pay much attention, continuing to climb the mountain. At this moment, Chen Ming, who was busy casting the Spiritual Rain Technique in the spiritual field, suddenly had a feeling and looked towards the mountain road, only to see a distant figure that seemed somewhat familiar.

At this time, a disciple behind him reminded, Chen Ming, what's wrong? The spiritual rain from the Spiritual Rain Technique is not enough.

All, it's nothing.

Chen Min immediately assured them that everything was fine, then laughed at himself and hurriedly cast the Spiritual Rain Technique again. By now, time had smoothed his edges, and he didn't know if he regretted it.

Over the years, he had returned to Danyang Outer Peak several times. Chen Long, who had been suppressed by him in the past, was now already at the Eighth Level of Qi Cultivation, while he was still barely at the Qi Cultivation Seventh Level.

Since becoming the field-guarding child of the spiritual field, the resources at home had been tilted towards Chen Long, and he thought that as long he worked hard, he would have a chance to be noticed by Jin Quanxiu, but now it seemed that it was just wishful thinking.

However, Chen Ming at this time had become much calmer. Although he was once frivolous in his youth, he now knew the worlds cold and warmth.

His familys elders had apparently given up on him. Except for the few times he went back in the early years, he had been staying in Green Cloud Peak for so many years, and the situation of other Alchemy Child was not much different from his.

Chapter 228: Pledging allegiance to Green Cloud Peak, Foundation Establishment within the Inner Sect

At this moment, Liang Sheng was unaware of Chen Ming's situation. They were no longer part of the same world, so how could they intersect?

As Liang Sheng gradually approached the mountain top without concealing his Qi, Jin Quanxiu sensed him as soon as he reached the foot of the mountain.

Good, he finally understands gratitude.

For Jin Quanxiu, apart from his own cultivation breakthrough, what made him most proud was his foresight in selecting talented disciples.

It was like picking a blooming and fruitful plant from a pile of rotten wood, and the result proved him right, naturally filling him with joy.

"Xiang Chen, go out and welcome your junior brother."

Junior brother?

Xiang Chen was still attending to Jin Quanxiu, but when he heard those words, he immediately understood what was happening.

It seems that Yang Cheng is loyal, and he is indeed worthy of being regarded highly by Master. Today, he has come to the door, ready to join Green Cloud Peak.

By the time Xiang Chen emerged from the Cave Mansion, he had already sensed Liang Sheng's presence, and couldn't help but smile, filled with amusement as he looked down at the scene.

In no time, Liang Sheng appeared before him. Liang Sheng did not hesitate, and directly bowed and greeted him, addressing him as Senior Brother.

Xiang Chen also bowed and greeted him in return, then led him straight into the Cave Mansion. As for whether Jin Quanxiu would or wouldn't accept this disciple, Xiang Chen didn't know. It all depended on "Yang Cheng's" fate.

Although Chen Xiang, Xiao Qin, and others were also part of Green Cloud Peak, they were not Jin Quanxiu's direct disciples.

Therefore, even if they have the same cultivation level and make the same choices, they might still have different experiences. Becoming a Peak Master's Disciple relies on luck and individual destiny.

"Disciple Yang Cheng, pays respects to Peak Master."

"Yang Cheng, you are very impressive. Can you now refine Foundation Establishment Pills?"

Huh?

As soon as Jin Quanxiu's words came out, Xiang Chen was taken aback. It seemed to remind him of the time when he first met Jin Quanxiu, as Jin Quanxiu had asked him the same question.

So, does Master intend to take Yang Cheng as a disciple?

However, whether Yang Cheng can seize this opportunity depends on his own performance. Xiang Chen stared closely at Liang Sheng, wanting to know his answer.

At this moment, Liang Sheng didn't hesitate and nodded directly. His current goal was the Golden Yuan Pill Formula, so how could he show any weakness?

The stronger his alchemy skills were, the more opportunities he'd get to access the Golden Yuan Pill Formula. Otherwise, what reason would he have to request to see the formula in the future?

Seeing Liang Sheng's confident appearance, Jin Quanxiu became more satisfied. If one did not possess even this amount of ambition and confidence, how could they be worthy of being Jin Quanxiu's disciple?

"Xiang Chen, go and prepare the Spiritual Grass for the Foundation Establishment Pill."

"Yes, Master."

Xiang Chen quickly left to prepare the Spiritual Grass for the Foundation Establishment Pill. Jin Quanxiu didn't say anything else, and silently drank his tea, which quieted down the Cave Mansion for a while.

Although Liang Sheng found it strange that Jin Quanxiu did not ask more questions, he stayed calm, thinking there was no need to overthink things since they had reached this point.

Jin Quanxiu naturally saw Liang Sheng's reaction and was even more satisfied. As someone who had just entered the Foundation Establishment, he had an admirable ability to maintain his composure. This child Yang Cheng had a good mindset.

Jin Quanxiu was even more satisfied with what he saw, but he still needed to see how Liang Sheng's alchemy skills were.

Actually, even if he failed to refine the Foundation Establishment Pill this time, it wouldn't matter. The most important thing was that he wanted to see Liang Sheng's alchemy skills.

A failure in pill refining was always possible. Even Jin Quanxiu himself couldn't guarantee a 100% success rate in refining Foundation Establishment Pills.

Of course, he still had an 80% chance of success.

At this moment, Xiang Chen had already prepared the spiritual grass, which was still covered with a bit of dew, indicating that it had just been picked from the spiritual field. No wonder it took so much time.

Jin Quanxiu did not speak at this time. Xiang Chen merely gave Liang Sheng a look, causing Liang Sheng to feel that this situation was not simple and become even more focused.

Jin Quanxiu didn't care about Xiang Chen's hint, as it would be nice for the senior and junior fellow brothers to foster some feelings for each other if he were to accept Yang Cheng.

Liang Sheng didn't immediately use his own Pill Refining Furnace. Instead, he began processing the spiritual grass one by one, his movements calm and unhurried.

Jin Quanxiu watched Liang Sheng's technique and nodded approvingly. It seemed that while advancing his cultivation, "Yang Cheng" had not neglected his alchemy skills, which was quite rare.

Xiang Chen also nodded as he watched, thinking that Yang Cheng's skill in handling spiritual grass was almost equal to his own. Even he might not be able to do it any better.

Astonishing talent in pill refining.

He had previously heard the Danyang Outer Peak's Spirit Field Steward say that Yang Cheng had exchanged many techniques in the past, and Xiang Chen had worried he might overreach himself. Now, however, it seemed his worries were unnecessary, as Yang Cheng appeared to have a clear objective in mind.

As Liang Sheng finished processing the spiritual grass, he took a deep breath, took out his Pill Furnace, and began refining the pills. Jin Quanxiu and Xiang Chen, both watching closely, couldn't help becoming more attentive at this point.

This first step of pill refining would roughly reveal the other party's skill level and even give an idea of how successful this furnace of elixirs might be.

At this time, Liang Sheng calmly held the spiritual grass, using his hand gestures and techniques to place them into the Pill Furnace in the correct order. His pace was unhurried yet smooth and pleasing to the eye.

Time then slowly passed. Today, there was also the Spirit Field Steward who had to report the recent spiritual field income situation. However, Jin Quanxiu had no time to deal with it now.

Xiang Chen went out to quietly instruct the Steward to wait for a while at the spiritual field. Peak Master would deal with the matter when he was free. After doing so, Xiang Chen hurried back into the Cave Mansion..

Chapter 229: Pledging allegiance to Green Cloud Peak, Foundation Establishment within the Inner Sect

This Yang Cheng's pill refining ability was actually no worse than his own, and some techniques for handling the spiritual grass were even more professional than his own.

After watching, Jin Quanxiu's feeling in his heart could be summed up in two words: details!

It wasn't that Liang Sheng's technique at this moment was particularly shocking, but rather that the other party had almost grasped every small detail and perfected it to perfection.

No matter whether the Foundation Establishment Pill was successful or not, he had already decided to accept Liang Sheng as his third disciple.

However, if he knew that Liang Sheng was only using half of his pill refining skill at this time, he would have been shocked out of his mind.

How could a cautious person like Liang Sheng not hide his clumsiness? Since half of his skill could perfectly complete the task, he would not reveal any more of his abilities. The more trump cards he had, the better.

Just like that, three days later.

The fragrance of the elixirs filled the entire cave mansion.

The Foundation Establishment Pill was ready.

Mid-grade Foundation Building Pill, eight pills in total.

Liang Sheng cast his technique and collected the pills. There was not a trace of complacency on his face. He remained calm and composed. After handing over the pills, he said softly, "Fortunately, I did not disgrace myself."

"Good, you young man are really good."

At this time, Xiang Chen couldn't help but clap his hands and cheer, seeing that he was about to have a new junior brother soon.

Jin Quanxiu took the pills and looked at them with appreciation in his eyes. After a while, he finally spoke, "Yang Cheng, I wonder if you would like to accept me as your master?"

Where would Liang Sheng not be willing? He immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed to his master, "Disciple Yang Cheng, I have met Master."

"Good, very good."

Immediately, Jin Quanxiu grabbed the air and moved the Qi of the storage ring on his finger. A pill refining furnace appeared in his hand.

“I see that your pill refining furnace is only a two-pattern magical device. I happen to have a four-striped pill furnace here for you to make do with.”

At this moment, Xiang Chen stood aside, focusing his eyes on his nose and his heart. There was no surprise in his heart because they had done the same before.

“Yang Cheng, you haven’t gone to Danyang Peak to register as an inner sect disciple, have you? Why don’t you go with me today?”

Yang Cheng hurriedly expressed his gratitude. He had never heard of a Peak Master personally taking disciples to register in other peaks. It seemed that he had made the right choice in coming to Green Cloud Peak.

Ordinary disciples were at Danyang Outer Peak, while the Dan Ding Sect’s Leader and the foundation of the sect were at Danyang Peak.

Inner sect disciple registration, sect-related major decisions, and visits from other sects all took place at Danyang Peak.

At this time, Jin Quanxiu ordered Xiang Chen a few more words, and then took Liang Sheng away. After they left, Xiang Chen also hurriedly left the cave mansion and took out the Communication Jade Slip to notify others.

Now that his Master had decided to accept a disciple today, he would have another junior brother, and he had to quickly get Second Junior Brother back, because that guy was lazy and might not have noticed his own communication.

Although Master didn’t specifically order this, he should also inform the other Foundation Establishment disciples of Green Cloud Peak so that they can gather at Green Cloud Peak and witness Junior Brother’s acceptance into the sect.

As the eldest senior brother of Green Cloud Peak, it was naturally Xiang Chen’s responsibility to handle these trivial matters well. Otherwise, if he had to bother Master with everything, wouldn’t he seem too useless?

Let's not talk about Xiang Chen busily notifying others at this moment, but at the other side, Liang Sheng was being taken by Jin Quanxiu by his side, flying through the air.

Compared to when he was taken flying by Xiao Qin and the others, it was much more comfortable. Of course, by this time, he had "already" reached Foundation Establishment stage, so he could naturally fly through the air as well.

However, compared to Jin Quanxiu's effortless and weightless flight, he was still inferior and somewhat unfit for the stage.

In a short while, Jin Quanxiu brought Liang Sheng to the top of Danyang Peak and landed down. The scene in front of him made Liang Sheng somewhat surprised. Danyang Peak was not bustling, with only occasional flashes of light and hurried footsteps.

However, Liang Sheng didn't pay attention to it. Instead, he looked at the huge buildings in front of him, five smaller buildings surrounding the central tower-like building.

The pattern of the Five Star Pendant.

Here there was none of the noise of the Outer Sect and Danyang Outer Peak or the busy spiritual fields of Green Cloud Peak. There was only a peaceful atmosphere, which made Liang Sheng's heart unconsciously calm down.

It could be described as full of Taoist charm.

At this time, Jin Quanxiu led Liang Sheng forward with big strides. After entering the Five Star Pendant building, he realized that there was an ancient and somewhat terrifying aura hidden within the seemingly simple and unadorned buildings.

"Yang Cheng, since you have entered my sect and have become my disciple, let me tell you about the foundation of our Dan Ding Sect here.

Actually, no matter how prestigious the other main peaks are, you don't have to worry as long as Danyang Peak exists. Even if our Dan Ding Sect is weak for a while, it can rise again."

It has been over sixty thousand years since the establishment of the Dan Ding Sect, which is actually earlier than the other three major sects and the six orders. Over such a long period, there have been ups and downs.

But up until now, the Dan Ding Sect is still strong and prosperous.

"More than ninety years ago, there was some friction among the three sects and six orders. Our sect took advantage of this to add another great protective array to protect the sect's disciples.

But if one day, the protective array is broken, and the situation is unclear, you must head to Danyang Peak as soon as possible. If this place is occupied by the enemy, then it is the end of our Dan Ding Sect."

As he said this, Jin Quanxiu's expression was full of pride, as if even if there was a crisis of sect extermination, as long as he hid in Danyang Peak, there would be no danger.

Liang Sheng nodded his head in response, not understanding why but since Jin Quanxiu was so sure, he must listen to him.

"Let's go, I'll take you to the Sect's Inner Affairs Hall to register first. Today, our Dan Ding Sect will have one more Foundation Establishment inner sect disciple, and I, Jin Quanxiu, will accept one more pupil.."

Chapter 230: Pledging allegiance to Green Cloud Peak, Foundation Establishment within the Inner Sect

Jin Quanxiu's tone was quite triumphant, and at this moment, he was extremely pleased with Liang Sheng's cultivation level and temperament. Having such a disciple, what more could he ask for?

Jin Quanxiu led Liang Sheng directly to a tall building to the left of the Five Star Pendant. As soon as they entered, the inside revealed a surprising scene.

It was actually a large hall that seemed to have no end in sight, and the hall was filled with small compartments all around.

Liang Sheng was puzzled. What was the origin of these small compartments?

There was a case table in the middle of the hall, where a Golden Core Daoist and two Foundation Establishment disciples were seated. As soon as they saw Jin Quanxiu, they quickly got up and greeted him with a bow.

“Senior Brother Jin.”

“Disciple has met Uncle Jin.”

Jin Quanxiu hurriedly smiled and returned the courtesy. Then he pointed to Liang Sheng and said, “Junior Brother Li Xin, this is my new disciple Yang Cheng, who has recently reached Foundation Establishment. I’ve brought him here to register as an Inner Sect disciple.”

Having said that, Jin Quanxiu turned to Liang Sheng and said, “Yang Cheng, place your hand on the jade monument on the table.”

Liang Sheng had known this process back at the Danyang Outer Peak. After all, he wouldn’t dare to act and plan without finding out these things clearly.

Before this, Liang Sheng had already entered his Qi that had been processed by the Attribute Panel Concealment at the Outer Disciple and Danyang Outer Peak.

So now, Li Xin only needed to use the jade slip to quickly find Liang Sheng’s record based on his Qi.

However, Liang Sheng didn’t expect that the Inner Sect disciple registration would be overseen by a Golden Core Daoist and two Foundation Establishment disciples. It showed the great importance they placed on this matter.

When Li Xin heard Jin Quanxiu’s words, a surprised look flashed in his eyes. He knew how strict his senior brother was in accepting disciples, considering he was a Green Cloud Peak Master.

Unexpectedly, Jin Quanxiu took in another disciple today. Although Li Xin was surprised, his face remained unchanged.

He quickly found Yang Cheng's information through the jade slip and sighed in admiration when he saw the latter's current age.

An eighty-three-year-old Foundation Establishment disciple was indeed a top-tier genius. No wonder Senior Brother Jin was willing to accept him as a disciple, as his future prospects were promising.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's identity as "Yang Cheng" had no issues, and since Jin Quanxiu had personally led him here to register, Li Xin quickly completed the registration.

At this time, Li Xin instructed the Foundation Establishment disciple next to him, "Chen Qiang, take Yang Cheng to record his Soul Lifeplate breath."

One of the Foundation Establishment disciples, Chen Qiang, immediately obeyed the order and led Yang Cheng to a small compartment nearby.

It was only then that Liang Sheng realized the purpose of so many compartments he had marveled at before. They held the Soul Lifeplates of the Foundation Establishment Inner Sect disciples and those of even higher cultivation levels.

Under Chen Qiang's guidance, Liang Sheng quickly recorded his Life Token breath in a compartment.

After Chen Qiang placed Yang Cheng's Life Token inside the compartment, he immediately sealed the compartment with a spell, signifying that the Life Token now had an owner.

When Liang Sheng followed Chen Qiang back to the registration counter, there were two sets of Inner Sect disciple uniforms and a jade tag on the table.

"Congratulations, Nephew Yang Cheng, on formally becoming an Inner Sect disciple of our Dan Ding Sect from today onwards."

At this moment, Jin Quanxiu stood aside and silently smiled without saying anything, while Chen Qiang quietly reminded Liang Sheng that he could go to the next room to change into his Inner Sect disciple uniform.

Liang Sheng naturally wouldn't refuse this offer, but he didn't expect that the room would be arranged with an incredibly advanced Concealment Formation, causing him to admire the attention to detail.

After Liang Sheng changed into the Inner Sect disciple uniform, he looked like a graceful nobleman. The uniform was very attractive in design and made of an extremely soft material.

This Inner Sect disciple uniform was even more precious compared to the ordinary disciple's uniform. It was embedded with a Dust-Cleansing Talisman on the inner layer, which could only have been done by a master with the skill to draw a Talisman using needle and thread as a pen.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was not in a hurry to leave the room, and carefully took out the jade tag from his storage bag. Li Xin had already whispered to him earlier that this would be his Inner Disciple identity token from now on.

Jin Quanxiu had just told him that there was a surprise in this identity token, and Liang Sheng cautiously explored it with his divine sense, quickly understanding the function of this object.

It was a Communication Jade Charm.

Of course, he was very interested in it, but thinking that Jin Quanxiu was still waiting outside, he restrained his curiosity, hung the jade tag at his waist, and finally left the room.

As soon as he appeared in the Great Hall, everyone else turned their heads and immediately looked impressed by the handsome young man in white clothes before them.

Li Xin couldn't help but sigh, "What a dashing young man."

An eighty-three-year-old young man...

Hearing this, Liang Sheng couldn't help but feel a bit awkward, as he felt somewhat uneasy about the remark.

However, the person speaking was Li Xin, so naturally, he couldn't say anything. He just gave a sheepish smile and didn't continue the conversation.

There were still some miscellaneous registration procedures. By the time Liang Sheng finished, it was already half an hour later.

Inner Sect disciples naturally received benefits, as they were the future of the Dan Ding Sect. However, the disciples' monthly salaries were distributed at the same time to their respective main peaks.

Jin Quanxiu didn't linger any longer, and after saying goodbye to Li Xin, he left the Internal Affairs Office with Liang Sheng..
