Chapter 281: Breakthrough in Health Cultivation Reaches 30,000 Lifespan, Naturally Seeking Good Fortune and Avoiding Disasters

So, how exactly did the Upper Green Sect Master die? Whether or not Hua Tian Sect was involved remains a mystery.

The Sect Master hoped that everything would go smoothly this time, so that there would be a peaceful future for the Three Sects and Six Orders, and that he himself would have ample lifespan for cultivation and growth. He was the person least willing to have accidents happen.

Following that, Dan Ding Sect returned to calmness once more, just like before when nothing had changed.

Upper Green Sect.

Dandingzi's arrival at the Upper Green Sect went more smoothly than he had anticipated since Hua Tian Sect's Sect Master and Refining Equipment Peak Elder had already arrived at the foot of Upper Green Sect Mountain at the same time.

This move demonstrated their determination; the two Nascent Soul Masters personally attended the meeting, so how could this be possible if they didn't want to take down the Upper Green Sect?

The next day, they received Dandingzi's message, and without any hesitation, they immediately replied agreeing to meet with him.

The moment they received Dandingzi's message, they instantly thought of the reason—perhaps it was a united request from other sects that brought Dandingzi here, as everyone was well aware of Dandingzi's character.

When they met Dandingzi, Hua Tian Sect Master Yu Zhenzi was the first to bow and greet him warmly.

“Daoist friend Dandingzi, long time no see.”

Dandingzi could only respond with a wry smile and immediately returned the greeting. He had already met with the other sect masters beforehand, so he had no choice but to do the same now, as Dan Ding sect did not want to offend anyone.

Fortunately, Yu Zhenzi was calm and gave him enough respect. At that moment, seven streaks of light sped towards them, and they were none other than the Sect Masters of the other Sects.

They did not conceal their whereabouts, and while Yu Zhenzi and Refining Equipment Peak Elder secretly prepared themselves, they were not overly aggressive.

With Dandingzi acting as a buffer, everyone was able to have a peaceful meeting, and after that, they sat down, tacitly understanding each other. This was also the first time that the upper echelons of the Three Sects and Six Orders had sat down for peaceful talks after the death of Upper Green Sect Master Chenyangzi.

In fact, they all knew exactly what they wanted, and they didn't need to say much. Once everyone was seated, Dandingzi became the busiest person there.

He made his stance clear from the very beginning: this time, he was merely an intermediary. The outcome of the negotiations, as well as any other matters, did not concern him.

Throughout the process, the Dan Ding Sect had steadfastly adhered to the principle they had held when they first came to the Desolate Regions with the Three Sects and Six Orders: they would always be neutral, only responsible for providing elixirs for all sects, without favoring any single side.

Perhaps it was because the Dan Ding Sect had never wavered in their beliefs for tens of thousands of years, regardless of whether the other sects among the Three Sects and Six Orders were weak or strong, that everyone could now sit down peacefully with Dandingzi's presence.

After stating his position, Dandingzi closed his eyes to rest and did not say another word, making it clear through his attitude that he was not involved in any way.

“Daoist friend Yu Zhenzi, do you know who was responsible for Daoist friend Chenyangzi’s death?”

As soon as Yu Zhenzi heard this question, he shook his head, about to explain. However, someone else immediately interrupted him.

“In that case, Chenyangzi’s mysterious death must conceal some extraordinary secrets.

Daoist friend Yu Zhenzi, why don’t you temporarily let go of your grievances and investigate the cause of Chenyangzi’s fall together with us? After all, this is a matter of great importance to the safety of us, the Three Sects and Six Orders.

I think Daoist friend Yu Zhenzi should also realize that no one present here probably has the ability to wield such a strange power. Otherwise, why would you have entangled in battle with Chenyangzi for a hundred years?

I know that what I am requesting might be somewhat unreasonable, but until the truth behind Chenyangzi’s death is uncovered, any one of us could potentially become the next Chenyangzi, so we have to guard against it.”

As soon as Heavenly Array Sect Master Kong Lingzi finished speaking, the whole meeting place fell silent. Although what he said seemed urgent, it was all actually just empty talk.

This was merely an excuse for the other sects to make Hua Tian Sect temporarily give up on swallowing the Upper Green Sect.

Other than the Dan Ding Sect, which truly remained neutral, no one wished for Hua Tian Sect to swallow the Upper Green Sect and become the hegemon of their alliance.

Of course, Yu Zhenzi was also aware of their true intentions. But since they were willing to sit down at this table, they must have been somewhat wary.

How strong the Nascent Soul Masters were in battle, including themselves, they were also well aware. Even if the other sects teamed up, they still did not possess absolute confidence in defeating both him and the Refining Equipment Peak Elder without sustaining severe losses.

Since they all carried Top-Grade Spiritual Tools, a life-and-death struggle would most likely result in casualties on both sides. Even if the two Nascent Soul cultivators from Hua Tian Sect perished in the end, some of the seven Nascent Soul True Monarchs would also probably die.

Thus, naturally, none of them wanted to be the unlucky one. If one of them died, their sect would lose any say, just like the next Upper Green Sect.

At this moment, Yu Zhenzi did not want to forcefully swallow the Upper Green Sect either when faced with the alliance of the other sects. Otherwise, if he pushed too far, things might backfire instead.

“Daoist friend Kong Lingzi is right. The silent fall of Daoist friend Chenyangzi does indeed need to be thoroughly investigated, otherwise, we will all be uneasy in our hearts.”

Hearing this, the other sect masters couldn't help but rejoice. As long as Hua Tian Sect was willing to compromise, things would be much easier to deal with. However, why was Yu Zhenzi so amenable?

The next moment, Yu Zhenzi's tone changed, “However, the Upper Green Sect has become our sworn enemy, and we cannot possibly allow them to continue existing at this moment..”

Chapter 282: Breakthrough in Health Cultivation Reaches 30,000 Lifespan, Naturally Seeking Good Fortune and Avoiding Disasters

Upon hearing this, the expressions of the various sect leaders changed. Could it be that Yu Zhenzi really intended to act stubbornly? How should they proceed from here?

Although they were already united, none of them wanted to become the sacrificial pawn at the end and create a wedding dress for others.

So even if a great battle really came, they could not go all out, after all, if they fell, what would become of their sects?

However, Yu Zhenzi's next words caused their expressions to change once more. None of them spoke again, instead, they silently listened to Yu Zhenzi's suggestion.

"But, I also know that you will not let my Hua Tian Sect take the entire Upper Green Sect for ourselves, so I have another plan.

The Upper Green Sect's 50% of resources go to me, and the remaining 50% are divided by you. In this way, I believe you can also accept it.

In exchange for your acceptance, I can swear by the Heavenly Dao that as long as you do not plot against my Hua Tian Sect, within the next five thousand years, we will not harbor any ill intentions towards your Sects and coexist peacefully. What do you think?"

When these words were spoken, everyone present couldn't help but ponder in their hearts. Hua Tian Sect would indeed gain a significant increase in strength with 50% of the Upper Green Sect's resources.

However, since Hua Tian Sect is already the strongest right now, exchanging for five thousand years of peace wouldn't be so bad either.

After all, for cultivators, breaking through the Nascent Soul stage would increase their lifespan by 3,000 years, but who could guarantee that Hua Tian Sect would still have two Nascent Soul Masters at the same time after 5,000 years?

Seeing that they were moved, Yu Zhenzi spoke again, "If you agree to this proposal, our Hua Tian Sect is willing to immediately let go of our prejudices and work together to investigate the cause of Chenyangzi's death.

After all, just as fellow Daoists have said, Chenyangzi's death is too unusual, and we should indeed conduct a thorough investigation.

Although Chenyangzi was injured before, it is impossible for a Nascent Soul Master to die so silently. If it is said that a Divinity Transformation Venerable was behind it, this is also impossible.

Because the Heavenly Dao simply would not allow a Divinity Transformation Venerable to take action in our Desolate Regions. There is a reaction from the Heavenly Dao when they take action.

So, I'm afraid that the hidden culprit has a cultivation level at most of a Nascent Soul Master, but if this is the case, the means of the other party must be extremely terrifying, otherwise, why would it come to this?"

The other sect leaders looked at each other at this moment, and Tian Ningzi of the Heaven Heart Sect suddenly spoke up, "I think what Daoist friend Yu Zhenzi said is not unreasonable."

As soon as he said this, the emotions of everyone present seemed to be released all at once. Dandingzi, who had his eyes closed at this moment, sighed in his heart.

In the end, it was all for the sake of their own interests. Would the disciples of the Upper Green Sect ever have imagined such a situation?

Next, the sect leaders began to discuss how the Upper Green Sect should be divided. After all, a 50% share for the Hua Tian Sect was a bit too much.

As they were discussing enthusiastically, Dandingzi suddenly stood up. In an instant, everyone's gaze involuntarily turned to him.

"Fellow Daoists, since you have already decided to negotiate, there is no need for me to stay here.

My Dan Ding Sect's ancestral teachings are to maintain permanent neutrality and advance or retreat together with the other sects. So as for the fate of the Upper Green Sect, you can decide for yourselves.

No matter what the outcome is, my Dan Ding Sect's position has always been the same. I suddenly remembered that I still had a lot of things to deal with due to the Beast Tide, so I will return to my Sect today."

With these words, the expressions of the other sect leaders couldn't help but change slightly, then returned to normal. Yu Zhenzi took the initiative to speak up at this moment.

“Over these years, you have indeed gone through a lot of trouble to provide spiritual pills to support our sects in fighting against the Beast Tide. Daoist friend, since you have other matters to attend to, it's only right that you return to your Sect first to handle them.

So, we won't see you off. Since Chenyangzi's death is too strange, we will definitely do our best to investigate it. There's no need for you to stay and waste your time with us.”

“Thank you all for your understanding. Dandingzi, taking my leave.”

After saying this, Dandingzi left with a smile, leaving the sect leaders sitting together to negotiate. By the time Dandingzi returned to the Dan Ding Sect, the final decision had also been communicated to him.

In the end, the Upper Green Sect could not avoid being divided and disbanded by the remaining three sects and four paths. However, the Hua Tian Sect ultimately seized 30%, while the remaining 70% were divided among the other six sects.

From then on, there were no longer three sects and six paths in this Desolate Region. Instead, it became two sects and six paths. As for the death of Chenyangzi, they indeed did not go back on their word. Each major sect sent out a joint investigation team to station themselves at the original sect gate of Upper Green Sect for investigation.

As for why so many people stayed behind, whether they genuinely wanted to investigate the cause or had other intentions of suppressing the original Upper Green Sect disciples, it is unknown.

At this moment, when the Dan Ding Sect received the news, they each had their own thoughts. However, the upper echelons of the Dan Ding Sect remained consistent in their actions.

At this time, they still kept the Mountain Protection Formation active, after all, the cause of Chenyangzi's death had yet to be found, and they couldn't be too careful.

At the time when Liang Sheng received the news, he couldn't help but sneer. What was the difference between these cultivation sects and the mundane world imperial dynasty?

It was only when one was alive that everything was possible. Chenyangzi had died; their former allies became wolves due to a few words.

That's why he also had to be careful. Only by living, living well, and cultivating his strength could he truly guarantee his own longevity.

However, Liang Sheng had some speculations about Chenyangzi's mysterious death because an unharmed death is something that people of the same realm could actually achieve, although it would require some means.

For example, the Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique.

Before, Chenyangzi's lifespan was said to be less than eight hundred years. If a Nascent Soul Monarch desired to curse him to death, it was indeed possible.

However, Liang Sheng did not share this conjecture with others. In any case, the murderer was likely a Nascent Soul Monarch, so why should a small Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivator like him come forward and court death?

As a mere "Foundation Establishment" now, and with the Dan Ding Sect's style very much in line with his preferences, he should only focus on cultivating and growing instead of getting into trouble.

Seeking the Immortal Dao?

Ultimately, it's all about self-preservation!

Chapter 283: Cultivation Shortcut, Fake Pill Realm

Dan Ding Sect.

Green Cloud Peak.

Today is another beautiful day.

Now that Liang Sheng had broken through to 30,000 years of lifespan, he gained an ability similar to the Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil ability of the Great Zhou Bloodline, which made him feel increasingly at ease on Green Cloud Peak.

During this time, his heart was peaceful, with no signs of any major disasters. Even when facing Xiang Chen, he secretly tried to harbor a murderous intent, but felt no sense of crisis.

He could feel that he was definitely not Xiang Chen's opponent, but his current strength was enough for him to escape from the latter's hands.

It was just a shame that he was always a lover of peace and would never engage in violence. Otherwise, wouldn't establishing an invincible reputation in the Foundation Establishment Stage be easy?

Of course, this is just wishful thinking. Reputation means nothing in the world; only being alive is the only truth.

Upper Green Sect had already been divided and crumbled, becoming the property of other sects. However, the market that originally belonged to the Upper Green Sect was now chaotic, and apparently, many people had died.

However, the sects did not care about this situation, as it was just the unrest caused by some Upper Green Sect disciples escaping from their sect.

Although they didn't care, they didn't ignore it either. Instead, it became the primary urgent matter for the remaining sects to deal with; they just weren't in a hurry.

Destroying a sect simply turned its members into homeless dogs; it was just a play of eliminating everything at the roots. In contrast, the seemingly urgent question of how Chenyangzi, the former sect master of Upper Green Sect, died still has no explanation.

The investigation of this matter had been stalled, as there was no one left in the Upper Green Sect to push for it.

All the major sects were actually busy integrating the resources of the Upper Green Sect they had received. Apart from the occasional resistance from the remnants of the Upper Green Sect, the entire region of the Two Sects and Six Paths was extremely harmonious.

Time passed, and another year went by. The Dan Ding Sect was extremely cautious, and only now did they start to close the second layer of the Mountain Protection Formation. It seemed as if everything had finally calmed down.

However, the current situation was one of Two Sects and Six Paths, and the situation had already stabilized. So how could things return to the way they were before?

In the previous hundred years, Liang Sheng had turned most of his resources into Spiritual Pills. Over the past year, he had also processed the remaining resources he had saved, turning them all into Spiritual Pill Talismans and Array Banners.

He even spent his remaining points to exchange for many spell hand seals.

After practicing the Primordial Mysterious Technique, he found that the power of the spells he cultivated was greater than that of others.

Since that was the case, he chose to exchange more spell techniques. After all, having more means to ensure safety was a good thing, right?

Moreover, Liang Sheng's cultivation speed was much faster than he had imagined. It wasn't that his cultivation speed suddenly increased under the Talent of Innocent Foolishness, but that he had found a shortcut to quick cultivation.

Golden Yuan Pill!

Before reaching the Foundation Establishment Late Stage, he had been considering why modern cultivation methods needed elixirs to assist in breaking through. For example, what special substance was contained in the Golden Yuan Pill that could make up for the bottleneck of ancient techniques after the Great Heavenly Change?

Previously, he had successfully entered the Refining Essence into Qi Stage equivalent to Foundation Establishment Late Stage, so he had met the conditions to take the Golden Yuan Pill.

Other people waited for their own perfection to better break through the Golden Core bottleneck. However, did he need that?

After cultivating ancient techniques, he just needed to cultivate honestly and didn't need elixirs to assist in breaking through. With the passage of time, he could naturally break through.

So even if he hadn't reached the best state yet, which was the so-called perfection, he could already withstand the power of the Golden Yuan Pill. In that case, what was he waiting for?>

At this moment, Liang Sheng's internal mana strength had already gone up a level compared to before, so the strength of the formations he set up naturally became stronger as well.

However, Liang Sheng did not choose to take the Golden Yuan Pill in his Cave Mansion but prepared to conduct this experiment in the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds.

Shortly after the second Mountain-protecting Array was closed, the Dan Ding Sect gradually opened the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds. After careful consideration, he believed that this was the best place to take the Golden Yuan Pill.

Now, on Green Cloud Peak, Shen Wuque had entered closed-door cultivation, as more than a hundred years had passed since the beast tide. His own state was gradually becoming perfect.

Even with his impulsive temperament, he knew the importance of things. Moreover, although Jin Quanxiu was still in closed-door cultivation, Xiang Chen was still there on Green Cloud Peak.

Xiang Chen wouldn't let Shen Wuque mess around, so under such circumstances, Shen Wuque entered the closed-door state before breaking through to Golden Core Realm.

He was afraid that the next time he saw him, he might have already perfected himself, and then might take the Golden Yuan Pill to prepare for the breakthrough to the Golden Core Realm.

Liang Sheng went to the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds alone, completed the registration, and decisively went to a place where few people and demonic beasts were seen in the hunting grounds.

He had already confirmed earlier that even demonic beasts were extremely rare here, so Dan Ding Sect disciples would be even less likely to come to this place. After all, without demonic beasts, there was no reason to come here, as the gains would be too low.

Upon reaching the confirmed location, Liang Sheng began to carefully set up a Concealment Formation. After all, it's always better to be careful.

Although he knew that under the Attribute Panel, his aura should not leak, it was important to maintain the habit of being careful.

When everything was ready, Liang Sheng took out the Golden Yuan Pill.

Of course, it was the Low-Grade Golden Yuan Pill.

As for the higher-quality Golden Yuan Pills, they certainly contained greater power. However, he was not like others who needed the Golden Yuan Pill to break through the bottleneck.. Why use a high-quality Golden Yuan Pill first?

Chapter 284: Cultivation Shortcut, Fake Pill Realm

He was actually doing an experiment this time, trying to confirm the difference between modern Immortal Cultivation Techniques and ancient ones by using the Golden Yuan Pill and understanding what exactly was lacking.

After making the preparations, Liang Sheng calmed his mind and gathered his Qi. Without any hesitation, he utilized his Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil ability that he had obtained after his Lifespan breakthrough.

Auspicious!

He then swallowed the Golden Yuan Pill in one gulp. The next moment, Liang Sheng's body erupted like a volcano. He couldn't even take the time to experience the pill's miraculous effects as he had previously, so he had to suppress his concealed Qi with all his strength and then frantically operated his Primordial Mysterious Technique.

At this moment, his body was like an inland lake suddenly hit by heavy rain. In an instant, it was flooded and formed into rivers.

Fortunately, the Primordial Mysterious Technique was like a Watergate that discharged the excess water in the rivers while tempering his body which allowed the violent force to slowly soak into Liang Sheng's flesh.

If someone could approach Liang Sheng's body at this moment, they would hear the sound of roaring tigers, leopards, and dragons coming from inside him, becoming more and more distinct.

Liang Sheng's skin was getting redder by the minute, like a cooked lobster. His body, which had been cleansed and marrow-washed during Foundation Establishment, began to show dark blood stains. However, his body's power was only getting stronger.

With his Attribute Panel Concealment, his momentum kept on rising, but the outside world remained calm. It seemed as if a prehistoric beast was awakening inside him, and his Primordial Mysterious Technique was operating faster and faster.

His cultivation technique was operating like a hungry beast that had finally been fed binging on the unleashed power of the Golden Yuan Pill.

If Liang Sheng hadn't been prepared, his cultivation at this point would have caused a disturbance in a range of several dozen miles, making the atmosphere tense and terrifying.

However, this situation lasted for three whole days. When the power of the Golden Yuan Pill was finally completely unleashed, Liang Sheng's eyes suddenly opened wide.

There was no dazzling gleam in his eyes, but in that instant, a strong gust of wind instantly formed around him.

In the next moment, without having time to examine the changes in his body, Liang Sheng directly collected all the Array Flags. After confirming there was nothing hidden, his figure disappeared without a trace.

Right at the moment when he opened his eyes, Liang Sheng failed to control his Qi, causing it to leak around him and create a strong wind.

To avoid trouble, he immediately regained control of his hidden Qi and left the scene.

Soon after, disciples from the Dan Ding Sect's Internal Affairs Office arrived on the spot. After careful investigation, they naturally found nothing, leaving them with perplexed looks on their faces.

Because just now, the sudden appearance of Qi was very similar to the explosive blood surge of demonic beasts in the second circle range of the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds after their violent evolution.

Bearing this in mind, he rushed to the scene immediately. After all, if an ordinary disciple encountered a second circle demonic beast, it would be more likely to end in disaster than fortune.

However, after searching several times and finding nothing unusual, his growing anxiety was unavoidable.

After all, the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds had just started. If there were any situations that could deceive him, it would definitely not be a trivial matter. If something happened in the future, he would not be able to handle the responsibility.

With this thought, he no longer hesitated and took out his Communication Jade Slip to report the situation. A little while later, he received a reply.

Just now, the Golden Core True Person of the Internal Affairs Office had used his divine sense to investigate and found no abnormalities here.

It was guessed that it might be because the Back Mountain Hunting Ground had been closed for a long time, and that demonic beasts had once gathered here, releasing such a grand Qi that it confounded the Disciples of the Internal Affairs Office.

Regardless, he still received the latest instructions. They ordered him to inform the disciples to temporarily leave the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds.

After all, the Dan Ding Sect had always been a cautious faction. It was better to delay progress for a few days to avoid any accidents.

As for Liang Sheng, he had already moved dozens of miles away. But before he could catch his breath, his Inner Sect Disciple jade tag began to vibrate.

“All disciples, immediately withdraw from the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds.”

Without having time to study and summarize the changes in his body, Liang Sheng had to withdraw from the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds as he couldn't risk talking about it, knowing that this accident was probably caused by him.

Fortunately, under the auspices of his Auspicious Ability to Avoid Evil, he was certain he was safe this time, so he walked out of the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds as soon as possible.

After a simple inquiry from the Disciples of the Internal Affairs Office, he returned directly to Green Cloud Peak and let out a sigh of relief.

Why did accidents always happen every time he went to the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds?

It seemed that Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil only predicted fortune and disaster but couldn't foresee what would happen. He needed to be more cautious and not act recklessly.

Green Cloud Peak.

Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was performing introspection on his body and couldn't help but feel ecstatic. It seemed that he wouldn't need much time to break through to the Golden Core Realm.

It turned out that the Golden Yuan Pill was the best auxiliary elixir for his future cultivation.

Liang Sheng clenched his fist and saw excitement in his eyes. With a light punch, a sonic boom appeared inside the Cave Mansion within an instant.

He then took out a Three-patterned Artifact Sword and shattered it with only his physical strength in the blink of an eye.

He hadn't expected his physical strength to surge yet again. As for whether his body could withstand a Four-Pattern Magical Instrument, he had no way of knowing..

Chapter 285: Cultivation Shortcut, Fake Pill Realm

Because at this moment, Liang Sheng had not yet refined a four-stripe offensive magic weapon, but he faintly felt that if he couldn't break through the four-pattern magical instrument with his physical body alone, there was probably not much difference.

As for the situation of mana within his body, it was almost completely solidified at this time as it operated automatically.

Previously, his body's blood plasma was like mercury, but now it had almost entirely infused into his marrow.

The limit-breaking Lifespan Cultivation Technique he was practicing could be used to control the blood and flesh of the whole body. But now, as he moved his thoughts, his bones were able to contract slightly and then return to their natural state or even expand.

Was his body still a mortal body? Liang Sheng had never thought that such a situation would occur.

Controlling his flesh was one thing, but the fact that his bones could change in length and thickness was somewhat incredible. Perhaps even Golden Core Stage True Person couldn't have their bones change and return as before?

Of course, Liang Sheng had not yet broken through the Golden Core Realm, but at this moment, although he was equivalent to the Foundation Establishment Late Stage realm of Refining Essence into Qi, he was completely different from the strength of modern cultivation at the Foundation Establishment Late Stage.

Perhaps even he couldn't know how strong he was now. With just one low-grade Gold Yuan Pill, his cultivation progress had skyrocketed, almost equal to five times the cultivation effect of a year's worth of True Yuan Pills.

In other words, although the low-grade Gold Yuan Pill didn't allow him to break through the realm, it increased his cultivation speed by five years.

How terrifying!

It is important to know that he had just used a low-grade Gold Yuan Pill. He gave Huang Yifan three low-grade Gold Yuan Pills, so at this moment, he still has eighteen high-grade Gold Yuan Pills, sixty-four middle-grade Pills, and twenty low-grade Gold Yuan Pills.

If it weren't for his current body not having fully absorbed the medicinal power of the Gold Yuan Pill, with his physical body still slowly absorbing the remaining medicinal power within it while his strength steadily increased, adapting to his current state, he would want to immediately take another Gold Yuan Pill.

However, he still forcibly restrained his urge, not wanting to rush himself. Everything should be done with caution and see if there are any side effects later.

After calming his impulse to become stronger immediately, he couldn't help but look at his Dantian in his mansion again, where there was a trace of golden gas.

This should be the secret of modern cultivation, the Foundation Establishment cultivator breaking through the Golden Core Realm. Liang Sheng dared to guess because, in this trace of golden gas, he had once vaguely absorbed into his body like fog with the practice of Primordial Mysterious Technique.

Although there had been great changes between heaven and earth, the breakthrough medium was not nonexistent. Otherwise, how could he have succeeded in his cultivation practice? It was just extremely thin, and it was only because of his Talent of Innocent Foolishness that he didn't need to worry about being stuck at a bottleneck and having no hope of a breakthrough in his entire life.

So, under the operation of Liang Sheng's Primordial Mysterious Technique, using the Gold Yuan Pill as the medium, a trace of golden gas was finally formed in his dantian.

Ordinary people couldn't achieve this. As soon as Liang Sheng moved his thoughts, the golden gas appeared in the outside world, but at the next moment, he immediately retracted the golden gas back into his Dantian.

Because of the reckless move just now, he had almost burst his cave mansion. As soon as the golden gas appeared in the real world, he frantically warned his Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil ability.

An omen of great calamity!

That is to say, even with his current physical strength, he might not be able to withstand the sudden explosion of the golden gas.

The golden gas was so powerful that it was truly terrifying, and it could become one of his trump cards.

He could feel that even if he consumed this trace of golden gas, as long as he once again practiced the Primordial Mysterious Technique, he could continue to create this trace of golden gas.

Who would have thought that under the miraculous art of refining pills in ancient cultivation, the Gold Yuan Pill refined with Purple Gold Vine, Profound Bone Grass, and the blood of Third Realm demon beasts as the main ingredients, along with other Spiritual Grasses, could form such a terrifying substance.

No wonder modern cultivators only needed to feel that their Foundation Establishment Late Stage was complete, and they could use the Gold Yuan Pill to break through the Jin Dan Stage.

Wait, if this golden gas is the cause of the Golden Core, does that mean that even though he has not yet reached the Golden Core Stage, he has already entered a new realm?

At this moment, Liang Sheng thought of this question and couldn't help but turn to his Attribute Panel, only to be pleasantly surprised.

As expected.

Back then, there was the Half-step innate realm in the secular world, which relied on the power of elixirs rather than breaking through the realm itself. He never thought that today there would be the same effect.

False Golden Core Realm.

This transitional realm that modern cultivation had never heard of, coupled with his practice of Primordial Mysterious Technique, made the power of the mana in his body even stronger. It can be said that at this moment, he could really compete with an ordinary Golden Core Daoist.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's attribute panel has changed to the following data-

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 840

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top Grade)

Techniques: Primordial Mysterious Technique (Second Layer), Upper Pure Immortal Scripture (Twelfth Layer), Pure Yang Pill Scripture (Twelfth Layer), Twenty Life-Nurturing Techniques (Twenty-First Layer), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse)

Realm: Refining Essence into Qi (False Golden Core)

Lifespan: 30886

With the False Golden Core achieved, how far is the Golden Core Realm?

After all, he is the one between heaven and earth that has no bottleneck in all methods. I don't know if he will still be in Refining Essence into Qi Stage at that time.

At the thought of this, Liang Sheng couldn't help but have the corners of his mouth turned up. After cultivating for hundreds of years, he finally saw the dawn of the Golden Core Stage. Marvelous!

It's just a pity that the Fruit Wine he had was long gone, otherwise, he would have had a great drink..

Chapter 286: Cultivation Shortcut, Fake Pill Realm

At the time when Liang Sheng was happy about making progress in his cultivation, the Internal Affairs Department of the Dan Ding Sect was shocked.

Because of the movements in the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds, they temporarily closed the area and sent Golden Core Daoists to investigate, and at first, they didn't find any anomalies.

However, this was the time for the sect's high-level meeting. After the Head of the Internal Affairs Department reported the matter, for some reason, Dandingzi suddenly released his Divine Sense to probe.

At first, he showed no unusual reactions, and his expression seemed indifferent. But after a while, his face changed dramatically.

Unexpectedly, at the center of the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds, where it connects with the Beast Swamp, a new passage appeared, less than a meter wide.

This almost gave Dandingzi cold sweats, as he knew clearly that they had closed off the connection between the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds and the Beast Swamp due to the beast tide. How could there be a new passage?

If they accidentally discovered this situation this time, what would happen if demonic beasts enter the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds through the Beast Swamp in the future, and there happened to be disciples in there? The consequences would be unimaginable.

This was just the surface result. What if something had changed in the Beast Swamp?

Seeing Dandingzi's reaction, the others immediately knew there was something unusual. After Dandingzi explained the situation, everyone was shocked.

The beast tide had clearly ended, so how could this happen? The next moment, Dandingzi took everyone to the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds.

When they saw the passage to the Beast Swamp with their own eyes, no one could speak. It was evident that this was not a passage dug by their sect before.

Furthermore, the width of the passage showed that it had been directly created from the other side of the Beast Swamp.

It was just that no demonic beasts had come in before, so no one had noticed this. As of now, it was considered fortunate among the misfortunes.

Since no demonic beasts had come from the Beast Swamp, they had discovered the passage just in time to limit the damage.

Just as Dandingzi was considering how to handle this passage, the Qi within it suddenly became chaotic.

“Not good.”

Dandingzi’s face changed immediately, and he didn’t hesitate. There was no time to think, and they had to block the passage as soon as possible.

“It seems that the other side of the Beast Swamp has noticed our movements. After all, our cultivators’ Qi conflicts with the Beast Swamp. Maybe it’s because there were too many of us coming this time, so they noticed something was wrong and wanted to force their way through.”

“Quick, let’s block the passage together.”

The next moment, Dandingzi took the lead to exert his power, and the other Golden Core Daoists quickly assisted, and in a short while, the passage disappeared completely.

However, they were not too relieved in their hearts, as just before they blocked the passage, they had clearly heard the frightening roars of beasts.

At least one Demon King, and possibly even...

No one dared to think further. At this time, Dandingzi spoke, “Junior brother, send some people to guard here. If anything unusual happens, notify us immediately.”

After Dandingzi instructed a few Golden Core Daoists from the Internal Affairs Department and the Discipline Hall to guard here, he took the rest back to Danyang Peak and immediately sent messages to their sect.

After a while, Dandingzi received a reply, and his face became extremely ugly after reading the information.

It was too late!

Just now, Beast Swamp passages had appeared in all the sects' Back Mountain Hunting Grounds, and a large number of demonic beasts suddenly emerged from them. Many disciples were killed instantly by the surprise attacks.

These demonic beasts were fearless and had clear goals, dragging the bodies of the dead disciples back into the passages, regardless of the state of the passages.

So, the other sects also blocked these passages in time, but the damage had already been done, and the losses were heavy.

What was even more frustrating was the situation in the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds of the Upper Green Sect. As the Upper Green Sect had been divided among the other sects, how could the others care about its Back Mountain Hunting Grounds?

Precisely because of this, the location of the Upper Green Sect had become hell, and only a few of its Golden Core Daoists and a small number of disciples managed to escape.

The Upper Green Sect had become a main camp for the demonic beasts, and astonishingly, the beast tide had come again after just over a hundred years.

Were it not for the accidental discovery of the passage in the Dan Ding Sect causing the Beast Swamp to launch an attack prematurely, the situation might have been even worse.

After all, the Two Sects and Six Paths didn't have much focus on the Beast Swamp now. If they waited for the beasts to prepare, the result would be extremely tragic.

After that, the Dan Ding Sect's actions were extremely swift, activating the Second Mountain-protecting Array and sealing the Back Mountain Hunting Grounds. All they could do now was wait for news.

Because the situation of the other sects would determine their next steps. The high-level cultivators of the Dan Ding Sect were all wondering, how could the beast tide return so soon after just a hundred years?

What was going on?

Wasn't the growth time of demonic beasts longer than that of cultivators?

At this time, everyone was filled with unease, as even in the history of the Three Sects and Six Orders spanning tens of thousands of years, this kind of situation had never occurred before.

But Dandingzi could only try to calm everyone down for now. All he could do at this point was to wait for news, hoping that the situation would not be too terrible.

Green Cloud Peak.

Liang Sheng was feeling uneasy at this moment.

Bad luck!

Thankfully, it wasn't a sign of extreme bad luck. Liang Sheng could only comfort himself with that. Still, it had been a sign of great fortune previously, so the sudden change to bad luck made him feel uneasy..

Chapter 287: Cultivation Shortcut, Fake Pill Realm

What on earth happened?

At this time, the upper echelons of the Dan Ding Sect only activated the mountain protection formation. Due to the unclear situation in various sects, they did not inform the sect disciples for the time being, and the sect disciples did not know what happened.

Liang Sheng was uneasy in his heart, so he turned to Xiang Chen.

“Eldest Senior Brother, what happened? Why did the sect start the second Mountain-protecting Array without saying anything?”

Xiang Chen hesitated for a while and decided to tell the truth, “Junior Brother, it’s a bit complicated.”

After hearing Xiang Chen’s account, Liang Sheng’s face was confused. In other words, because he went to the Back Mountain Hunting Ground once, the sect master later discovered the connecting passage to the Beast Swamp.

So it was an accidental discovery that exposed the conspiracy of the Beast Swamp, leading to the current situation.

Moreover, considering his auspicious ability to avoid evil, if it wasn’t for the premature exposure of the Beast Swamp’s conspiracy, he would have had some peaceful days.

In other words, because the conspiracy of the Beast Swamp was uncovered ahead of time, which led to the early occurrence of the beast tide, was what he did before a good thing or a bad thing?

Liang Sheng couldn’t tell himself, but soon adjusted his mentality because there would always be someone taller to support the sky.

Since that’s the case, rather than being uneasy, he should continue to cultivate diligently and improve his strength.

Xiang Chen couldn't help feeling gratified seeing his junior brother calm down after a moment of shock. He patted Liang Sheng on the shoulder.

"Junior brother, you don't have to worry. Even if the beast tide comes, we should be fine. Otherwise, the Beast Swamp wouldn't have been secretly plotting for so long.

I'm sure their strength is average. Since our Sect Alliance was able to repel them easily a hundred years ago, naturally it can be done again.

Although the Sect Master of the Upper Green Sect is no longer here, there are two Nascent Soul Masters in the Hua Tian Sect. The sky won't fall."

Upon hearing Xiang Chen's words, Liang Sheng's face changed involuntarily. Xiang Chen couldn't help feeling a bit strange. Without much thought, Liang Sheng decided it would be better to remind Xiang Chen.

"Senior Brother, did you forget the mysterious death of the previous Upper Green Sect Master? Now it seems that it might not have been the work of the demonic beasts."

Xiang Chen's face also changed upon hearing this. He then instructed Liang Sheng to hide in the cave mansion and not to run around. Afterward, he hurriedly sent a message and went to Danyang Peak in person.

After the Internal Affairs Office reported to Dandingzi, he met with Xiang Chen as soon as possible. After hearing his speculation, his expression became somewhat gloomy.

It was terrible that he had forgotten about this. It really shouldn't have happened. At this time, Dandingzi did not hesitate at all and immediately sent a message to all the major sects.

Soon he got replies from the sects. However, there was no news from the Sect Master of the Sky Solar Sect.

This is bad.

Could it be that Daoist friend Kong Lingzi really had an accident?

Dandingzi immediately informed the other sect masters of the situation. Soon it was confirmed that the other sect masters were unable to contact Kong Lingzi as well.

Only after contacting the other high-level elders of the Sky Solar Sect did they receive definite news that the Sect Master Kong Lingzi had fallen.

His death was almost identical to Chenyangzi's, with no wounds and no sounds of fighting. He died silently and without warning.

Xiang Chen was beside Dandingzi at this moment, and couldn't help but be dumbfounded when he heard the news. After all, this was a Nascent Soul Master.

After receiving the news, Dandingzi tried to calm himself down and called all the Golden Core Daoists together to discuss what they should do next.

The result of the discussion was, of course, simple. Each peak master would return to their respective main peaks and make arrangements accordingly.

On the other hand, the other sects were also preparing for battle. Unexpectedly, the beast tide had come again in just a hundred years.

Not long after confirming the fall of Sky Solar Sect Master Kong Lingzi, the major sects had already dealt with their own Back Mountain Hunting Grounds and cut off the channels connected to the Beast Swamp.

Unfortunately, it was still a step too late. At this moment, the Back Mountain Hunting Ground of the Upper Green Sect had already become the breakthrough point for the Beast Swamp, and the Upper Green Sect had become the main camp of the Beast Swamp. This was the second time in the history of the Three Sects and Six Orders that the beast tide invaded their territory.

This kind of invasion situation had never been considered by the Sect Alliance. At this moment, everyone had realized through Dandingzi's reminder that perhaps the events they had experienced back then were all plots laid by demonic beasts.

Not to mention the fall of the Sect Master Chenyangzi of the Upper Green Sect, the mutual annihilation of the elite squads of the Hua Tian Sect and Upper Green Sect might have been their masterpiece.

Because even now, as the victorious Hua Tian Sect, they have never admitted to killing the Upper Green Sect squad.

So this might indeed be the truth. They might have fallen into the trap of the demonic beasts, which also means that the possible killing of the Hua Tian Sect elite squad might be part of the demonic beast's conspiracy.

Moreover, this time it was a blessing in disguise. If it weren't for the unintentional early exposure of the conspiracy by the Dan Ding Sect, allowing the demonic beasts to continue hiding in the dark, the loss would have been even greater.

But even after guessing the truth, nobody in the Sect Alliance could remain calm because now there have been two consecutive falls of Nascent Soul Masters.

If this matter is not cleared up, everyone would have trouble sleeping. So this time, the Sect Alliance did not do any probing and decided to have the Nascent Soul Masters lead the team to fight the beast tide quickly and decisively.

Otherwise, if they continue to drag on, they fear they may end up like Kong Lingzi and Chenyangzi, which would leave them at a loss for what to do.

However, since the demonic beasts only dared to sneak around in the dark, it shows that their strength is far from being a match for their Sect Alliance. Otherwise, why would this happen?

But they were also ready for the worst. If this battle against the beast tide does not go smoothly, they would be left with only one option.

Like their Ancestor Masters, they would seek help from the Immortal City..

Chapter 288: Cultivating Immortality for Six Hundred Years, Ultimately Pretending... No, Showing Sanctity in Front of Others?

Green Cloud Peak.

As the great battle approached, Liang Sheng sat quietly in his cave mansion. At this moment, the medicinal power of the Golden Yuan Pill within his body had been completely absorbed, and he could start taking the next one.

However, Liang Sheng's heart didn't feel very good at this moment, his uneasiness did not dissipate. Fortunately, it was not a sign of impending great misfortune concerning his life, otherwise, he might be restless.

For this reason, he decided not to continue taking the Golden Yuan Pill, after all, without a few days' time, it was impossible to release the full medicinal power.

If something were to happen then, he probably wouldn't have time to cry, and the circumstances that followed proved that his premonition was indeed correct.

And the reason for his uneasiness proved to be true because he didn't expect that he would be going to the Beast Tide Battlefield. Fortunately, thanks to his Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil ability, there were no signs of great misfortune.

The reason he had to go to the battlefield was simple. Since the beast tide had occurred again, the Dan Ding Sect could not stand idly by. Green Cloud Peak Master Jin Quanxiu was in closed-door cultivation, Second elder brother Shen Wuque was also in closed-door cultivation, and Eldest Senior Brother Xiang Chen had to take charge of the overall situation.

As a result, Liang Sheng was the only one left among Jin Quanxiu's direct lineage in the Green Cloud Peak without any tasks. Moreover, Liang Sheng's cultivation level had previously appeared to have made a breakthrough to the “Foundation Establishment Middle Stage.” So when it was time to assign people from all peaks, Liang Sheng was unfortunately selected.

Liang Sheng was naturally helpless. Who could have thought that there would be a beast tide? Otherwise, why would he bother breaking through the “Foundation Establishment Middle Stage”?

Under these circumstances, Dandingzi personally led the team, taking one-third of the Golden Core Daoists and disciples from all the peaks, and went to the Upper Green Sect’s former site to regroup.

At this moment, Liang Sheng and the other Green Cloud Peak disciples selected stood on the Green Cloud Peak. Xiang Chen was somewhat worried in his heart, but he was powerless.

He had done everything he could.

“Junior brother, be careful!”

Immediately afterwards, he shook Liang Sheng’s hand and stood on the peak, watching Liang Sheng and the others take off into the sky, turning into glimmers of light as they headed towards the Danyang Peak assembly point.

Junior brother, you must return safely.

??

Danyang Peak.

Liang Sheng had just inspected the storage bag that Xiang Chen quietly handed over to him. Inside it were an assortment of elixirs: healing elixirs, detoxifying ones, and many others.

Looking at the plentiful quantity, it seemed that Xiang Chen had given him half of his assets. As Eldest Senior Brother, Xiang Chen had been a caring brother to Liang Sheng and Shen Wuque over the years.

This time, if it weren't for the fact that Xiang Chen had to guard Green Cloud Peak, he probably wouldn't have let Liang Sheng stay behind; he would have gone to the Beast Tide Battlefield himself.

This wasn't Liang Sheng's imagination. In fact, before receiving the official notice, Liang Sheng heard the conversation between the Internal Affairs Office and Xiang Chen.

At the time, Xiang Chen wanted to go personally instead of having Liang Sheng, a Green Cloud Peak direct disciple, join the Beast Tide Battlefield.

However, the sect master had ordered it, and not only of Green Cloud Peak, but also two-thirds of the young Golden Core Daoist capable of reaching the Nascent Soul stage who were left behind.

This time, Dandingzi took away the Golden Core Daoists with relatively short lifespans, and the reason for this was clear.

In fact, if it weren't for Shen Wuque and others coincidentally being in closed-door cultivation at the time, Liang Sheng might not have to go to the battlefield. As a Main Peak direct disciple, there was no way none of them would go, otherwise, what would the Inner Sect Foundation Building Disciples think?

The last time the beast tide broke out, Jin Quanxiu personally led the team, and the three brothers Xiang Chen, were able to stay on Green Cloud Peak and remain unscathed.

As Liang Sheng's thoughts drifted away, fortunately, due to his Auspicious Ability to Avoid Evil, he didn't feel too much danger. He tried to calm his mind and wait to set out with Dandingzi.

Before long, the disciples from all peaks had gathered, and Dandingzi, along with the Golden Core Daoists, quickly assigned their respective teams and took to the sky without any unnecessary words.

He also saw Peak Master Jin Jun, who must have sensed Liang Sheng's gaze. She looked back and gave a small nod to Liang Sheng without saying anything.

Dandingzi didn't waste words because the journey to the Beast Tide Battlefield was already a battle of life and death, no matter what was said, it would be a waste of time.

In his heart, he had already decided to lead by example, so what more was there to say?

??

Upper Green Sect's former site.

At this moment, seven hundred miles away from the Upper Green Sect's Main Peak, people from Two Sects and Six Paths had gathered. The cultivators of the Dan Ding Sect were assigned to the last line of defense, which could be considered a kind of care.

As for Liang Sheng, he was assigned to the rear, in the middle of the Logistics Support Team, which made him somewhat surprised.

Because the responsibility of the Logistics Support Team was mostly auxiliary, such as refining pills in emergencies.

There were not only people from the Dan Ding Sect in this team but also others from the Two Sects and Six Paths.

Refining weapons, arrays, talismans...

These disciples were equipped with various auxiliary techniques, but many of them were still discontent, claiming they could also go to the battlefield to kill demonic beasts. Most of the noise came from the Main Peak direct disciples of each sect.

Liang Sheng understood their feelings. The direct disciples had a strong sense of identification with their sects. In such a difficult time, they naturally wanted to contribute their part.

Although they were hundreds of years old, at this moment, they were still passionate youths.

Fortunately, the person in charge of the Logistics Support Team was an Elder from Hua Tian Sect. Compared to other sect members, they had a stronger temperament.

Therefore, with his full strength, he quickly persuaded all the “thorns,” and the entire Logistics Support Team ran smoothly.

Naturally, Liang Sheng was happy with this result. After all, it was a good thing to not have to go to the battlefield. Moreover, he saw many familiar faces among them.

“Fellow Daoist Yang!”

Chapter 289: Cultivating Immortality for 600 Years, Ultimately Pretending in Front of Others... No, Manifesting Saint in Front of Others?

Surprisingly, it was the alchemists from the Two Sects and Six Paths who had greeted Liang Sheng first at the Welcoming Guest Peak. Seeing Liang Sheng, they couldn't contain their joy.

And, through their promotion, almost everyone recognized Liang Sheng. Even the leading Golden Core Elder from Hua Tian Sect treated him with more courtesy.

Those with ability naturally deserved respect, especially during wartime.

“So that's how it is.”

After seeing Liang Sheng, the Hua Tian Sect Elder smiled mysteriously and left this phrase. If it weren't for Liang Sheng's greatly enhanced physical strength and his heightened senses, he might not have heard it.

“Could it be that there is some hidden reason for me coming to the logistics support team?”

Liang Sheng couldn't help but speculate in his heart, but he didn't ask out loud. After all, the current situation was good for him. Being in the logistics support team was the safest place on the battlefield, so why not stay here if he could?

In the next three months, the Beast Tide Battlefield of the Upper Green Sect was brutal. The outer perimeter was filled with Foundation Establishment Stage cultivators leading Qi Refining disciples in battle against demonic beasts.

On the contrary, even the high-end combat forces were still restrained. The logistics support team was extremely busy, with Liang Sheng almost constantly refining pills to supply the frontline.

It was thought that the Dan Ding Sect was in the same situation as before, with all the disciples refining pills. Would Eldest Senior Brother be worried about him now?

If Eldest Senior Brother knew that he was only responsible for logistics and pill refining now, he might be slightly relieved.

In the following three months, the strength of the beast tide demonic beasts exceeded the expectations of the Two Sects and Six Paths. In three months, they had advanced only a hundred miles.

It should be noted that, this time, apart from the Hua Tian Sect, the only Nascent Soul Masters from each sect were present. They could not break the Upper Green Sect's Mountain Protection Formation.

Damn!

All Nascent Soul Masters were regretting why they hadn't destroyed the Upper Green Sect's Mountain Protection Formation when they took their resources.

Under these circumstances, the casualty rate between the demonic beasts and the Two Sects and Six Paths was only three to one. How could the Sect Alliance accept this?

What was even more terrifying was that they could now confirm that there must be a Demon Saint present in this beast tide. Otherwise, how could the Mountain Protection Formation hold up?

It was because they sensed a Demon Saint on the other side locking them down that they hadn't immediately taken action, even with the combined efforts of the seven Nascent Soul True Monarchs.

At the thought of this, no one in the Sect Alliance looked good, especially the upper echelons. They even felt that the previous retreat of the beast tide was actually a trap set up by the demonic beasts.

Otherwise, with the strength they had shown, how could they have repelled the last beast tide so easily? It was as if they were deliberately showing weakness.

??

Sect Alliance.

Today, another Sect Master's meeting was held. Dandingzi sat at the back resting with his eyes closed, and no one else was speaking for the time being.

"Everyone, we can't go on like this. I know that everyone is worried, so we haven't given our all.

But the situation over the past three months has been clear to everyone. If we continue like this, our Two Sects and Six Paths may face a difficult situation.

That's why my Hua Tian Sect is making the first move. We will give each of you Daoist friends a Spirit Tool, hoping that everyone can put aside prejudices and work together wholeheartedly."

Huh?

Spirit Tool?

Even Dandingzi couldn't help but open his eyes and look at Yu Zhenzi, the Sect Master of Hua Tian Sect, with disbelief.

With this move, was the Hua Tian Sect really prepared to put aside their prejudices and go all out to deal with this great battle of the beast tide? Was the pressure that great?

Next, Yu Zhenzi waved his hand, and six Spirit Lights suddenly appeared in the hall. Everyone couldn't help but feel invigorated.

Spirit Tools!

Yu Zhenzi wasn't just talking, he was actually following through. Did he really want to fight a big battle?

Seeing the reactions of the other six Nascent Soul True Monarchs, Yu Zhenzi breathed a sigh of relief. At this moment, even though he was reluctant, he had no choice.

Since they accepted the Zhou Family disciples into the Hua Tian Sect hundreds of years ago, they were well aware of their bloodline ability of seeking fortune and avoiding evil.

In the previous beast tide, their perception was that the beast tide was a great fortune omen for the Hua Tian Sect. In the end, the result was the same: they swallowed up the Upper Green Sect and became the dominant force.

But now, during this stage, the Zhou Family disciples have given the most terrifying prediction of good fortune and misfortune.

Anihilation.

Under these circumstances, the Hua Tian Sect held an emergency meeting from top to bottom. The final decision was to join forces with other Sects and eradicate the beast tide in one fell swoop.

Once this decision was made, the intuition of the Zhou Family bloodline disciples changed from annihilation disaster to a great misfortune omen, which was quite evident.

Having known this, Yu Zhenzi didn't hesitate and directly made the decision to give out the Spirit Tools, hoping that all the sects would go all out. And that's what they were doing right now.

Seeing the other Nascent Soul True Monarchs looking so shocked, Yu Zhenzi couldn't help but feel a little smug.

Apart from the Hua Tian Sect, which of the other Two Sects and Six Paths could directly take out six Spirit Tools?

“Daoist friend Yu Zhenzi, why would you do this?”

The sky wouldn't drop pie. Although the other Sect Masters were envious, they had not been swallowed up by desire and instead asked calmly.

Everyone stared at Yu Zhenzi closely, wanting to know the answer.

“This time, my Hua Tian Sect feels that if the beast tide isn't put out quickly, there may be an annihilation disaster, so we have no choice but to do this.

Also, when we reviewed the previous situation, we found that Daoist friend Chenyangzi had eight hundred years of lifespan. However, his death remains unexplained up to this day. We were ashamed of not having investigated it thoroughly before..”

Chapter 290: Cultivating Immortality for 600 Years, Ultimately Pretending in Front of Others... No, Manifesting Saint in Front of Others?

As for our Daoist friend Kong Lingzi who died last time, I'm afraid we all overlooked one thing: it seems that his lifespan was also less than eight hundred years when he perished.

I remember that among our Sect Alliance, only my junior brother Yu Yangzi is a newcomer to the Nascent Soul stage, while the other Daoist friends have a lifespan of no more than a thousand years, and even some have a lifespan that is already in the range of over eight hundred years.

If we also have only eight hundred years left, will we end up like these two Daoist friends, silently perishing?”

Upon hearing this, Xiao Yangzi, the Sect Master of the Xuanmen Sect, who had just asked questions, couldn't help but be stunned. Then he broke out in a cold sweat because his lifespan was about to reach eight hundred years.

If things go as they are now, he doesn't know when the beast tide will be wiped out, and when he has only eight hundred years left...

He dared not think any further, immediately made up his mind, and then reached out and took the Spirit Tool in front of him.

"Daoist friend Yu Zhenzi, my Xuanmen Sect swears by the Heavenly Dao, we are willing to advance and retreat together with the Hua Tian Sect, and attack this beast tide with all our strength."

At this time, the other Sect Masters looked at each other, and finally reached out and took the Spirit Tool in their hands, declaring their determination with a Heavenly Dao oath.

Upon seeing this, Yu Zhenzi couldn't help but raise a corner of his mouth.

"Thank you for your understanding, my Daoist friends. In the upcoming month, you can rest assured and first refine the Spirit Tool in your hands.

I refuse to believe that we won't prevail even if the other party has a Demon Saint. This desolate region will ultimately belong to our Sects."

Afterward, the Sect Masters each returned to close-door cultivation, preparing to refine the Spirit Tool, and then cooperate fully to attack the Upper Green Sect.

In the following period, due to this reason, the Sect Alliance naturally relaxed the attack pace, and Liang Sheng could breathe a sigh of relief.

A month off!

This was the order that their Logistics Support Team had just received. Since it was so, Liang Sheng directly sneaked into his temporary cave, and then set up twenty layers of concealment formations and thirty layers of defense formations before taking out a Low Grade Gold Yuan Pill.

After enjoying the cultivation speed of a Gold Yuan Pill equivalent to using a True Yuan Pill for five years, he had been extremely uncomfortable in the past few months.

He couldn't bear such a slow cultivation speed any longer. Now that he could take a Gold Yuan Pill again, how could he miss that chance?

Seeking fortune and avoiding evil, encountering surprises without danger.

In that case, break it when it's time to break it...

Having experienced this once, Liang Sheng was no longer afraid of any leakage of Qi. After making preparations, he directly took the Low Grade Gold Yuan Pill.

Boom!

The familiar explosion of the medicinal power coursed through his body, and with the concealment of the panel and deliberate control of his breath, even Yu Zhenzi, in the Sect Alliance, didn't detect Liang Sheng's powerful surge of Qi at this moment.

As for the other Nascent Soul True Monarchs, they were all concentrating on refining their spiritual tools at this time. Who had time to pay attention to the outside world unless there was a life-or-death crisis?

However, while the cultivators didn't react, within the main peak of the Upper Green Sect, a demonically charming young man in the Great Hall suddenly opened his eyes.

As he opened his eyes, several Demon Kings that were half-beastmen and at the Late Gold Core stage immediately stood up, looking baffled.

"Saint, has something happened in the battlefield ahead?"

This demonically charming young man was none other than the Demon Saint that made the Nascent Soul True Monarchs of the Sects wary in this beast tide.

It was rare for a Demon Saint to transform so perfectly, but at the moment, he was looking towards the direction of the Sect Alliance with doubts in his heart.

Hearing the inquiry from the Demon Kings below, he shook his head, indicating that nothing had happened and asked them to sit down.

“You all go and check the progress of the collected human cultivator’s flesh and blood during this period, and make sure there are no mistakes. After all, you don’t want to go back to the Beast Swamp, do you?”

The Demon Kings sitting below shuddered after hearing these words, but their eyes were firm, “Saint, rest assured, there will be no flaws in this plan.

We only need to hold onto the Upper Green Sect, and with your guidance, time will ultimately be on our side.”

As they spoke, all the Demon Kings’ eyes were full of admiration. Over the years, the Saint before them has been the greatest leader of their Beast Swamp Demon Clan.

If the leaders back then had planned as well as the current Saint, they probably wouldn’t have been confined to the Beast Swamp. The Desolate Regions might have been their habitat long ago.

As for whether this time will end up the same as before, when the Immortal City stepped in at the last moment, leading to failure, the Demon King’s heart shuddered when he thought of it.

At this moment, he only felt regret in his heart, realizing that he had thought too little back then. Otherwise, things wouldn’t have turned out like this. If he could have planned like this before the Immortal City took action, it wouldn’t have been impossible for them to stay in the Desolate Regions.

If the Desolate Regions could be flooded by the demon beast army, then based on the loopholes in the agreements at the time, they could actually prevent the Immortal City from taking action.

At most, the Immortal City would help human cultivators rebuild their Sects, and the two clans could coexist, as this place was just a wilderness.

As for why these Demon Kings at the Late Gold Core stage were so confident, it was just because their previous leaders couldn't do these things, which didn't mean the current Saint couldn't.

The charming young man that the Demon Kings admired, however, was not paying attention to them at this time, but instead gazing in the direction of the Sect Alliance.

Why would that place make him feel so uneasy? Divinity didn't appear, and he was invincible in his own hands. As the Desolate Regions didn't allow human Divinity Transformation Realm to appear, why would it cause him unease?

Strange!

"Summon someone, prepare to launch an attack immediately. The Human Clan has been too quiet lately, causing some trouble to see what they are up to.."
