

Bottleneck 361

Chapter 361: A Auspicious Sign, Contemplation of God's Law

As for the previous talk about the Giving Bodhisattva Shared Female Cultivators within Immortal City, Liang Sheng actually had no intention of getting involved in it for the time being.

He had only arrived in Immortal City for a year now, and although he possessed Chen Quan's memories, Chen Quan was extremely strict and had never been involved in the "Red Light District."

Since he himself didn't fully understand the situation, how could Liang Sheng mess around? It's like when he first arrived in Jinzhou City after crossing over, he also waited for a while before starting to frequent brothels and listen to music.

Just then, there was movement outside the cave mansion, and Liang Sheng quickly eliminated all the traces of the talisman experiment. Soon, a modest voice sounded.

"Patriarch, Lord Huang Zhen has come to visit."

It was the voice of a servant from the Chen family, and it was transmitted into Liang Sheng's Cave Mansion through a specific method of transmitting sound.

Liang Sheng immediately made a move, and it seemed that his plot had succeeded, and he could now count on having another useful person.

"Please let Lord Huang Zhen wait in the living room, I will join him shortly."

Huang Zhen, whose real name is Huang Qiang, is at the Early Nascent Soul stage in his cultivation, also served under Qingfeng Left Envoy. He was a team leader in the Cleaning Department and did not belong to Chen Quan's command.

However, he and Chen Quan were considered to be from the same lineage, and although their relationship was not close, they had contact, particularly during this year, the relationship had improved, the reason being Liang Sheng's deliberate efforts.

"Brother Huang!"

"Commander Chen!"

From the way they addressed each other as 'Daoist Friend' and 'Commander,' it is evident that the two were of different status. After greeting each other, they both sat down on the cushions.

At this time, tea had already been prepared in front of them, with wisps of heat bubbling up. "Has Brother Huang come over tonight because there is news already?"

Huang Qiang vigorously nodded his head, his expression somewhat excited.

"Yes, thank you for pointing it out, Daoist Chen. This time, I found the Cave Mansion of an unnamed Cultivator in a wilderness area of the Lower City. Thus, I have come to visit and express my gratitude today."

At this moment, Huang Qiang was genuinely full of gratitude. Although they had lost two Golden Core Daoists from the Huang family during the exploration of the Nameless Cave Mansion this time, the result was worth it.

"Ten Nascent Soul Pills!"

This was the most significant discovery in that Nameless Cave Mansion. As for the other treasures in the mansion, they had long lost their spirituality and were not worth mentioning.

However, the fact that Chen Quan was willing to give such information about the Nameless Cave Mansion to himself showed that Chen Quan was sincerely helping the Huang family.

“Brother Huang, you are too polite. You also know that I have just returned from the Marginal Domain marked with the letter ‘Yi,’ so it is not convenient for me to take action personally. I need to avoid any suspicion.”

Moreover, I’m afraid that the Left Envoy would ask about the Desolate Regions again, so it is not advisable for me to leave Immortal City. It is fortunate that everything went smoothly for you, and we should celebrate.”

As for showing such gratitude, you are slapping at my face. What is our relationship? We are both part of the Cleaning Department, led by the Left Envoy.”

Furthermore, I heard that last time, you were caught by the Right Envoy and the Internal Affairs Office because of me. As a result, your salary has been deducted by the Internal Affairs Office, and you never complained.”

I know that you are in a difficult position and understand that you are doing it for the Left Envoy and to make up for my mistakes. That’s why you are acting like this.”

Since my Chen family dare not stand up for you for the sake of our self-preservation, I, Chen Quan, admit that I am a real petty person. I indeed don’t want my Chen family to get involved, but when it comes to helping you, I will do my best.”

Hearing this, Huang Qiang was even more moved. After all, such genuine words were rare now. There were many in the world with hidden motives who love to add flowers to the brocade but few who send help in times of need.

So, at this moment, after hearing these words, Huang Qiang didn’t say more and drank in one gulp as if toasting with wine instead of tea. Afterwards, his eyes brightened.

“Spirit Tea?”

Liang Sheng nodded, “You also know that I completed my task in the Marginal Domain marked with the letter ‘Yi’ quite well and gained some benefits. Otherwise, you wouldn’t have been targeted by the Internal Affairs Office.”

“This time, the rewards given by the Qingfeng Left Envoy are plentiful. I ordered some Spirit Tea leaves from Dao Valley Pavilion. When you leave later, you can also take some with you.”

“Daoist Chen is so generous!”

At this moment, Huang Qiang felt that the world had misunderstood Chen Quan greatly. Although Commander Chen’s behavior seemed scheming, flattering towards superiors, and overbearing towards subordinates, he was indeed a truly petty person and a frank individual. He did not have a two-faced nature like others, who appeared as smiling tigers, often addressing each other as brothers, yet laughing at Huang Qiang behind his back.

It seemed that in the future, he would have to apply to become a subordinate of Commander Chen. In this way, even if he had to bear the blame, there would at least be compensation.

Huang Qiang, at the Early Nascent Soul Stage, and Chen Quan, at the Middle Nascent Soul Stage, had a difference of just one step, yet their treatment was worlds apart.

A year ago, when he escorted Chen Quan back to Immortal City, he was then caught by the Internal Affairs Office. Since he did not dare to speak recklessly, his salary was deducted by the Internal Affairs Office, and he was also fined quite a few resources.”

Even the industries of the Huang family in the Lower City were affected. Fortunately, he gained quite a bit from the Lower City this time thanks to Liang Sheng’s information, which compensated for some of the losses.”

Ten Nascent Soul pills have already resolved Huang Qiang’s urgent need, at least there will not be a shortage of Nascent Soul pills for the family in almost one hundred years.

As they relaxed, Huang Qiang and Chen Quan became more and more engaged in their conversation, and unknowingly, the topic shifted to the Marginal Domain marked with the letter ‘Yi’.

Huang Qiang's job in the Cleaning Department involved investigating the movements in some Desolate Regions. After all, since City Master Zhen Yuan had intervened in the past, Qingfeng could not take it lightly.

Perhaps the City Master is no longer concerned now, but Qingfeng, as the External Affairs Left Envoy, has to be fully prepared.

"Commander Chen, you may not know that in this year since you left the Marginal Domain marked with the letter 'Yi', something big has happened there."

According to the information reported by a spy in Dan Ding Sect, the once strongest Sect, Hua Tian Sect, has been wiped out. Now, the Marginal Domain marked with the letter 'Yi' is governed by One Sect and Six Schools.."

Chapter 362: A Auspicious Sign, Contemplation of God's Law

I can only say, watching his tall building rise, then see it collapse, if my Huang Family were to decline, I'm afraid it would have the same fate.

Fortunately, Commander Chen, you have helped us resolve this urgent matter this time, and the Huang Family is willing to go through thick and thin together with the Chen Family..."

Before the word "retire" was finished, Huang Qiang's words were interrupted by Liang Sheng, "Brother Huang, you must be joking. We are all under Left Envoy, and we all follow his orders. How can there be any crisis of decline?"

If we cannot break through, in the end, we will only die a normal death. Left Envoy is wise and insightful, how could our family decline?"

Huang Qiang instantaneously broke into a cold sweat, almost causing another disaster, just like before when he carelessly let his words slip and was caught by the Internal Affairs Office.

Afterwards, Huang Qiang chatted casually for a while before he took his leave. Liang Sheng watched his retreating figure and closed his eyes in contemplation.

Unexpectedly, the situation in the Desolate Regions has become so severe that the previously strong Hua Tian Sect has been annihilated?

As for the disciples of the Zhou Family, given their bloodline abilities and the existence of Dark Veins, they should be safe.

But it's funny that the Dan Ding Sect is the only one with Nascent Soul Masters, yet they remain unmoved like a mountain, while other sects have pounded the drowning dog, directly annihilating the Hua Tian Sect.

One can only say that the changes in the world are astonishing. It is only possible to calmly watch the clouds roll and unfold with a prolonged lifespan.

At this moment, Liang Sheng didn't regret coming to Immortal City at all, feeling as leisurely as he used to be in the Dayan Earthly Dynasty.

Although his cultivation level hasn't progressed much over the past year, his sea of consciousness has grown slightly, even though it's not noticeable without close inspection.

It's good that the Dan Ding Sect is untroubled.

The Nameless Cave Mansion that Huang Qiang had previously explored was actually a fake created by Liang Sheng, just to bestow kindness on Huang Qiang and then naturally learn about the situation in the Yi-coded Desolate Regions.

Huang Qiang is the leader of a small group in the Cleaning Department, responsible for coordinating with some of the Desolate Regions under Immortal City, and the Yi-coded Desolate Regions just happen to be within his supervision range.

As for mutual assistance among those from the same lineage, relationships truly aren't that strong, but they still have value within Immortal City's cultivator classes.

Liang Sheng inherited Chen Quan's memories and knows that the power struggle within Immortal City is complicated. He originally thought he would have to struggle to survive in the cracks, but it turned out to be much simpler than the secular world.

After the long time, Immortal City is indeed somewhat complicated, but if you divide time into smaller units, even a hundred years as a dimension, Immortal City is extremely peaceful.

Because the ruling class of cultivators is high above, in the face of absolute strength, where can there be so many troubles?

Just like Huang Qiang being punished, but since he has not committed a capital offense, as long as he doesn't die, even if the Huang Family declines, they still have about two thousand years to rise again.

If after two thousand years, the Huang Family has not produced a new Nascent Soul True Monarch, they deserve to decline, and cannot blame anyone else.

I have only sold a kindness, as for Huang Qiang's emotional words before, I, Liang Sheng, do not believe a single one.

If I make a mistake, especially a big one, I'm afraid the other party won't be so friendly, not stepping on me would already be mercy.

Within Immortal City, there are friendships between Cultivation Families, but those friendships are not very strong. However, knowing that everything is fine with the Dan Ding Sect, Liang Sheng breathed a sigh of relief, and this result couldn't be better.

Since this is the case, I should focus on cultivating, growing slowly, as people from the Desolate Regions who come to Immortal City will suffer losses in cultivation and face infinitely magnified bottlenecks, but Liang Sheng has none.

He is still the same as before, as long as he has enough time, he can break through smoothly and there will be no problems at all.

Cleaning Department.

After briefly dealing with the public affairs, Liang Sheng prepared to leave, but Huang Qiang came in with a smile on his face.

Half a month ago, Huang Qiang had successfully used his connections and paid a huge price to buy off the Strategic Department Officer under Left Envoy Qingfeng, and became one of Liang Sheng's subordinates.

"Commander, today I heard that a female cultivator at Cuiwei Pavilion is a disciple of Confluence True Monarch and to cultivate with her is no less beneficial than the Bodhi Array. Shall we go and see the situation?"

Upon hearing this, Liang Sheng's heart moved, but he still shook his head. The more he investigated Giving Bodhisattva, the more he discovered that it was not that simple.

For instance, he still hasn't found out who the mastermind behind Cuiwei Pavilion is. This isn't the secular world; this is the place of cultivation.

So for safety reasons, Liang Sheng can only control his desires. After all, there is plenty of time for him to listen to music at brothels, as long as it's under safe conditions.

Seeing this, Huang Qiang quickly switched track, "However, spending all day with female cultivators is indeed not that interesting.

I also heard that Dao Valley Pavilion has a new tea that is no less effective than Spirit Tea, but the effect is visible on the body. Would you like to try, Commander?"

Hearing these words, Liang Sheng smiled and nodded, "Call your brothers together and let's go. I'll treat you today."

"Commander..."

“No need to say more, you’re being so fussy, it’s not like my men. Just go and call everyone.”

Upon hearing this, Huang Qiang’s heart was even more resolved, to firmly support as long as Chen Quan’s life wasn’t in danger.

It is said that the Commander flatters his superiors and is arrogant and domineering towards his subordinates, and it is true. But he also protects his subordinates.

For them as “Chen Quan’s” subordinates, this is a good thing, because who doesn’t want a reliable superior to depend on?

A superior who only passes the buck is not respected..

Chapter 363: A Auspicious Sign, Contemplation of God’s Law

““Yes!”

Before long, cheers could be heard from next door, especially from the Foundation Establishment Cultivators. After all, how many times could they visit Dao Valley Pavilion in a year?

They were quite embarrassed about their lack of wealth!

Liang Sheng thought and decided it would be appropriate to invite all three of his squads since he did like to ^protect his calves”.

With this thought, Liang Sheng sent out his intention, and two burly cultivators strode in, showing extreme respect.

^Subordinates Chen Xiao (Yang Quan) greet the Commanded”

-Call all your subordinates and brothers to join us at Dao Valley Pavilion today.

I'll be treating everyone."

"Ah?"

"Thankyou, Comanded"

The two immediately left excitedly. Since they were veterans, they would not act reserved like Huang Qiang. Following Liang Sheng, they headed straight for Dao Valley Pavilion with a large crowd.

However, halfway there Liang Sheng found it odd that he suddenly had a feeling of a great fortune omen. Could there be some lucky event happening soon?

But this is Immortal City, where could such unexpected delight come from?

Liang Sheng couldn't understand, but he didn't bother to think about it too much. Since it was a great fortune omen, he would naturally understand when the time comes.

Upon arriving at Dao Valley Pavilion, the Manager of the Pavilion had already personally greeted them at the entrance. Although he seemed composed on the surface, he looked a bit nervous.

Naturally, it was because of the large group of people behind Liang Sheng.

This was the Cleaning Department, one of the organizations responsible for handling disturbances and dirty work for the City Lord Mansion. It was a sharp weapon under Left Envoy Qingfeng's command.

Furthermore, the leader was Chen Quan, who was known as Left Envoy's loyal dog. How could he not be nervous? Chen Quan, known as Left Envoy's loyal dog, had a bad reputation.

Did he inadvertently offend them previously? No matter how the manager thought about it, he couldn't figure out where he went wrong and could only brace himself as he stepped forward.

“Master Chen, this is...”

“I brought my brothers to eat. You shouldn’t have any guests now, right?” “Of course not! We always have room for you. Feng Zi, lead the way, will you?”

The Foundation Establishment attendant nearby hurriedly stepped forward and respectfully led the way. With a satisfied nod, Liang Sheng continued walking but not before leaving a message.

“I heard you have a new tea with excellent effects. Make sure to brew a few pots for my brothers. They’re all thirsty.”

“Okay!”

The manager immediately smiled upon hearing this, and his heart was no longer uneasy. As long as they were really here to eat, it was all good. Although the Pavilion’s Boss was a Nascent Soul Late Stage Cultivator, they still preferred not to offend the Cleaning Department if possible. After all, offending them wouldn’t result in anything good. Business would be difficult if someone came to cause trouble every day.

Of course, organizations under the City Lord Mansion wouldn’t bully merchants like Dao Valley Pavilion with strong backgrounds unless they had absolute strength. They would generally lift the sedan chair together.

After all, no one was a fool, and everyone was experienced. It was only because of Chen Quan’s reputation and the large number of people with him that the manager had become nervous.

Thankfully, it was just a false alarm. For Liang Sheng and his group, Dao Valley Pavilion prepared one of the largest VIP buildings – the Mountain and Sea Building.

Dao Valley Pavilion occupied a vast area after all, this was Immortal City, and without some influence, it couldn’t sustain such a large establishment.

This was also the reason Liang Sheng had never made it to the Giving Bodhisattva.

Without figuring out their background, he felt uneasy. Since he couldn't completely see through their intentions in Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, he naturally wouldn't act recklessly.

As the attendant led the way, Liang Sheng's peripheral vision caught a glimpse of the small private booth next door. On the surface, nothing changed, but his heart tightened.

Was the source of the great fortune omen from here?

What was going on inside?

But Liang Sheng remained expressionless, placing only a part of his Divine Sense into the small booth while casually leading his subordinates to the Mountain and Sea Building.

He didn't let the great fortune omen confuse him. Impatience wouldn't help, so he watched to see what exactly was happening.

As they entered the Mountain and Sea Building and sat down according to their respective positions, the newly launched Nine-Tum Spirit Tea from Dao Valley Pavilion was served.

Liang Sheng was very generous, and they ordered dishes containing essence of Demonic Beasts above the Third Realm and top-grade spirit grass Ingredients. Upon receiving the news, the kitchen hurriedly prepared the feast.

At this moment, everyone couldn't help but sigh in admiration – Commander Chen was truly extravagant!

Although Chen had a bad reputation, his subordinates enjoyed a good life. At this moment, Huang Qiang's subordinates were even happier.

Their Captain's decision was indeed right. Otherwise, with their Cultivation level salary, they wouldn't be willing to visit Dao Valley Pavilion for tea. Following Liang Sheng's lead in raising his cup, sipping the Nine-Turn Spirit Tea, the others could hardly wait to pick up their own glasses. Instantly, a sense of etherealness filled the room, spreading from their lips and teeth to their entire bodies.

Those with lower Cultivation levels inside the room experienced even greater effects, with green smoke faintly emanating from their pores.

It might not completely cleanse their muscles and bones, but it would greatly nourish their bodies. Good thing Huang Qiang and the other two were Nascent Soul Masters, so they quickly became aware of this effect and couldn't help but praise it.

"This Nine-Turn Spirit Tea is truly top-grade. Thank you, Commander, for allowing us to taste such fine tea."

With a hint of spiritual power in Huang Qiang's voice, the Foundation Establishment team members were startled and hurriedly praised Chen Quan. Liang Sheng didn't mind and waved his hand, "Why waste your breath? Drink the tea quickly, it won't have as great an effect when it cools. This is all made from real spirit stones!"

With that said, the room filled with laughter, and Liang Sheng downed his cup in one shot. The others also followed, and in an instant, the aroma of tea enveloped them.

After they had almost digested the Nine-Turn Spirit Tea, Liang Sheng ordered Dao Valley Pavilion to serve dishes and fine wine.

All these dishes were greatly nourishing.

For a while, a harmonious atmosphere filled the room amidst the toasts and laughter. Surprisingly, Liang Sheng didn't use his mana to dispel the effects of the alcohol.

"No one leaves until drunk tonight."

The others naturally followed suit. As for why Liang Sheng did this, the reason was quite simple.

Visualization Divine Method!

It turned out that today's great fortune omen was the Visualization Divine Method that could only be made by a Divinity Transformation Stage Great Power!

Moreover, not every Divinity Transformation Stage Cultivator would be willing to create one. Only when they were about to die would they possibly leave their divine sense and cultivation behind to condense the Visualization Divine Method.

But this wasn't a guaranteed success. Only with a powerful Divine Sense Method could they succeed. Liang Sheng never thought he would encounter this opportunity today.

It seemed he, Liang Sheng, truly had a deep and profound fortune!

Chapter 364: The Praying Mantis Catches the Cicada, the Sparrow Waits Behind, and the Chen Family Is Destroyed!

Immortal City.

Dao Valley Pavilion.

At this moment in a private room, three people were quietly talking with somewhat tense expressions, yet their voices revealed a hint of excitement. "Are you sure this information is correct?"

"There's absolutely no mistake. Though it's understandable for you to doubt, who could have imagined that there is actually a Divinity Transformation Expert hidden in the Lower City, and no one knew about it until his passing? It's only by the grace of heaven that we have this opportunity. However, if we want to find the Visualization Divine Method hidden in his Cave Mansion, it's going to take some time.

That's why I risked coming back here. According to the orders of the Church's Elder, he hopes you can initiate the plan ahead of time.

This plan is bound to involve sacrifices, but it's necessary to keep the attention of those decayed higher-ups away from the Lower City and prevent them from interfering with our search for the Visualization Divine Method.

By the way, remember to investigate the situation of Chen Quan from the Cleaning Department too. A year ago, he suddenly sent his family juniors to the Lower City without reason. The dismissing location was not far from the Nameless Predecessor's Cave Mansion.

This situation is too strange, so it's best for you to find out what happened. If Chen Quan's actions are indeed problematic, then we will change the previous plan's location and launch it at Chen Quan's Cave Mansion."

What's going on?

At this moment, listening to the mysterious conversation inside the private room, Chen Quan couldn't help but feel a bit dumbfounded.

Is this a great fortune omen or a great disaster omen?

Unexpectedly, without provoking anyone, there is someone planning against him. However, thinking about it, this time their operation plan is indeed related to him.

After all, it's about the Visualization Divine Method, and he happened to send his family juniors to a random location in the Lower City before. Anyone who saw this situation would question his intentions.

However, upon reconsidering, Liang Sheng thought this was actually a good thing!

After all, if they are going to cause trouble in Chen Family's Cave Mansion, they will be targeting Chen Quan's family juniors. This will definitely make a huge commotion.

Without making a huge commotion, how could it be more convenient for them to go to the Lower City and explore the Nameless Senior's Cave Mansion?

But as for himself, why would there be such a good thing? After all, what does Chen Quan's family have to do with Liang Sheng?

In a split second, after countless thoughts in his mind, Liang Sheng had almost decided on the next plan, always paying attention to the movement inside the private room.

After a while, Liang Sheng suddenly stood up. Huang Qiang and others couldn't help raising their heads to look at him. Liang Sheng waved his hand, his face flushed.

"Don't mind me, I'm going out to sober up, not coming back until I'm drunk tonight."

Huang Qiang and others wanted to follow, but they were stopped by Liang Sheng. Then, Liang Sheng left the Mountain and Sea Building, staggering. Only a few steps after he left, a glint flashed in his eyes, and no trace of drunkenness remained.

Not only Liang Sheng himself, but the others in the Cleaning Department at the Mountain and Sea Building, except for a few Foundation Establishment Stage children whose strength was not up to par, were affected by Dao Valley Pavilion's Immortal Brew. Most of them were pretending to be drunk.

After all, they were all old foxes, and they wouldn't show their true drunkenness. What if they said something wrong?

Thinking of Huang Qiang before, he had only spoken a few inappropriate words in secret and was caught by the hair. Liang Sheng didn't know how he had survived in the past.

At any rate, they were all people with long lifespans and had witnessed too many tragedies of loose talk. They wouldn't make such foolish mistakes.

At this moment, Liang Sheng didn't care about all these things. With his head lowered and flushed with the wine aroma, he saw the private room door opening as the three people prepared to leave.

Then, without a sound, three imperceptible Qi traces attached themselves to the trio. They didn't realize it at all.

At this time, Liang Sheng had his back turned, and the three people didn't pay attention to him, thinking he was an ordinary guest. Some of them were still preoccupied with what's on their minds, pondering how to plot next.

As a result, they ignored the danger around them. Liang Sheng lowered his head and smiled faintly.

With his Divine Sense in the process of Refining Spirit from Qi and the tracing technique modified by the Soul Control Technique, it was likely that even Divinity Transformation Experts wouldn't discover it unless they specifically checked.

Liang Sheng had initially disguised himself as "Chen Quan" to enter Immortal City to settle the cause and effect between him and Jin Quanxiu and the others. Secondly, because of his own strength and Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, he could ensure his own safety while making his choice.

At that time, his strength and means had already given him the ability to protect himself. Who would have thought that his journey to the Beast Swamp would further enhance his strength and leave him with no worries?

At this moment, even if Liang Sheng faced an Early Stage Divinity Transformation Expert, it was uncertain who would live or die. This was his confidence.

So, dealing with those three Nascent Soul realm Church of All Beings Sect rebels earlier was relatively simple. They left Dao Valley Pavilion in a hurry without noticing that Liang Sheng had already laid his eyes on them.

At this moment, sensing the three remote Qi auras, Liang Sheng looked up at the distance and then naturally returned to the Mountain and Sea Building.

Next, let's see how the All Living Beings Sect Rebels would act. When the right time came, he would naturally step in.

That night, Liang Sheng was drunk!

Chen Mansion.

After treating his subordinates to a feast at Dao Valley Pavilion, Liang Sheng was back at the Chen Family, sitting in his own Patriarch's Cave Mansion. His visit to Dao Valley Pavilion today cost him more than a hundred Mid-Grade Spirit Stones, which was quite a generous move.

However, Liang Sheng didn't care about that. With countless spirit stones in his hands and the unexpected harvest tonight, he was already quite satisfied..

Chapter 365: The Mantis Stalks the Cicada, Unaware of the Oriole Behind, The Chen Family is Destroyed!

Visualization Divine Method, in fact, Liang Sheng had come to know about this miraculous technique from Chen Quan's memory, but never thought he would get it in such a short time.

For one, even in the Immortal City, the Visualization Divine Method is extremely precious, and secondly, he didn't know if the method would have any effect on him.

Why is the Visualization Divine Method so precious? Because it helps to condense the sea of consciousness and has a certain effect on breaking through and resolving the bottlenecks of a cultivator's realm.

But to cultivators, the cultivation bottleneck is the biggest obstacle on the road to immortality. However, Liang Sheng himself doesn't have this worry.

But besides its effect on the bottleneck, the Visualization Divine Method has another function, that is, it may contain some special means that Liang Sheng is interested in.

Divine Ability!

When the Great Might above the Divinity Transformation Realm creates the Visualization Divine Method, it will naturally form a unique method that resonates with Heavenly Dao.

Because this method is invisible and extremely powerful, it is called Divine Ability. As the saying goes, techniques are easy to come by, but divine abilities are hard to find.

So Liang Sheng still had some interest in the Visualization Divine Method, but who could have imagined that his punishment of the Chen family would make the Church of All Beings wary and want to test the Chen family, and even possibly take action.

How could such good fortune happen in the world! ?

This is not that Liang Sheng is crazy, but because this situation is indeed a good thing for him, after all, he is not the real Chen Quan.

So the more Chen family members die, the less cause and effect he has to bear as “Chen Quan.” In short, the safer he will be.

For example, today’s incident was actually caused by the large number of Chen family members inadvertently. It would be so much better if he were the only one free and unrestrained.

Today’s incident is undoubtedly a great fortune omen, so Liang Sheng had no intention of arresting the three on the spot.

Most of the tasks of the Cleaning Department under Left Envoy Qingfeng of Immortal City are actually to clean up the rebels from the Church of All Beings.

An ordinary person might be surprised, after all, who could imagine that even in Immortal City, there is still an evil sect that wants to overthrow the ruling class like in the secular world?

But that’s the way it is. When the class solidification happens, and 99% of all interests in the world will be gained by the existing class, in any world, there will always be people who want to overthrow this system.

However, in the current world, the strength of cultivators is the foundation. These rebels of the Church of All Beings are nothing but street rats.

After all, cultivation is a competition for resources. In this case, how can they possibly shake the ruling class of the Immortal City?

The fate of most members of the All Beings Sect rebels is usually just the ruthless suppression of the Immortal City, but no matter how many people are killed and how long it takes, the All Beings Sect is like rats that can never be completely killed off, like an endless source.

Because there will always be people who want to fight for their own rights. As long as they cultivate to a certain realm, broaden their horizons, and feel that the world should not be so unfair, there will be people who resist.

Liang Sheng actually appreciates this situation but will definitely not sympathize. It's just a matter of individual choices.

Some people are great, but Liang Sheng just wants to focus on himself. At this moment, Liang Sheng is in his cave mansion, sensing the location of the Qi he had set remotely.

He could vaguely sense that two of them had already started to gather helpers, and the number of notified cultivators was not small!

But the more people on the other side, the better!

In this way, the Chen family is sure to be hit. The more Chen family members die, the more at ease and safe he will become.

"Servants!"

Soon, the Chen family servants began to follow the orders of the family master, sending messages to notify the Chen family disciples outside to return home. As for the Chen family disciples already in the Chen Mansion, they were instructed not to go out for the next few days.

The “family master” did not elaborate on the reasons. The servants simply said that it was the family master’s order and there was a rumor that Chen Quan felt his family members had become lazy recently, so he wanted them to work harder.

In order to make them more diligent, Chen Quan had deliberately spread the news that he would add some elixir portions to each disciple’s monthly allotment.

With this incentive, they would cultivate at home, and since there were more benefits to be had, although they were unclear as to why the family master was in such a hurry about their cultivation progress, no one was going to refuse. After all, who wouldn’t want their cultivation level to be even higher?

In just a few days, the entire Chen family had entered a closed-door cultivation state. Not long after, this matter was known to some people in Immortal City, but many of them didn’t care.

Some even praised Chen Quan’s foresight, “It seems that Chen Quan has a long-term vision and is not a shortsighted person.

He has started to make his family members work hard so early. It’s said that those who lack foresight must have immediate worries. As Deputy Commander of the Cleaning Department, Chen Quan indeed has some skills.”

Many people can’t help but sigh in their hearts. After all, not everyone is willing to spend real gold and silver on resources; they prefer a slow and steady approach.

After all, cultivation cannot be rushed. It can only be said that Chen Quan is quite ambitious about improving his family’s strength.

As for Liang Sheng himself, he still goes to the Cleaning Department every day to sign in, then leaves right on time to return to his mansion, or goes to various taverns in the Immortal City to taste Immortal Ambrosia and Heavenly Delicacies.

Huang Qiang once asked Liang Sheng privately if he had received any news. After all, Chen Quan is a protective father, and these days there are fewer Chen family disciples in Immortal City, which means fewer conflicts.

But Liang Sheng just laughed and said, "You just think too much. I just feel that my family members have become lax.. How can one slack off on the path of cultivation?"

Chapter 366: The Praying Mantis Catches the Cicada, the Sparrow Waits Behind, and the Chen Family Is Destroyed!

Huang Qiang heard this and it made sense to him. Their family had just weathered a storm, and even Chen Quan was being so cautious at this moment, how could he relax?

Therefore, Huang Qiang began to urge his family to go into closed-door cultivation. Luckily, Immortal City was so vast, and they were merely a small part of it. So, their actions were not conspicuous.

At most, people would laugh and chat about it after dinner. Time passed quietly, and half a month had gone by in the blink of an eye.

Liang Sheng was beginning to feel anxious. Why hasn't the Church of All Beings taken action yet? If they don't act soon, the disciples of the Chen family might start to come out of their closed-door cultivation.

Luckily, Liang Sheng did not have to wait too long. The day when the Church of All Beings was to take action finally arrived, and Liang Sheng called Huang Qiang over on that day.

"Huang Qiang, I'll need to go to the Lower City in the next few days to see if my young ones have made any progress. If they've done well in cultivating their spiritual fields, I'm thinking of bringing them back."

The fact that Chen Quan had previously punished his disciples by sending them to the Lower City to reclaim spiritual fields had been widely spread throughout the Immortal City, and many people knew about it.

Had he not been so stern, the effect of his order for his disciples to go into closed-door cultivation this time might not have been so excellent.

It's a deterrent, letting the Chen Family disciples know that the Patriarch is serious this time. Upon hearing this, Huang Qiang couldn't help but be astounded.

At this point, Liang Sheng said, "You don't need to worry about any issues. I have reported to the Commander and even received an exit token from the Internal Affairs Office. Everything has been arranged."

Only after hearing this did Huang Qiang confirm that there were no omissions, and he immediately assured, "Commander, you can go. I was just afraid that you would be caught by the Internal Affairs Office."

In the past few months, they've been like mad dogs, constantly causing trouble for us. I don't know when the Left Envoy will allow us to fight back."

"Huang Qiang!"

Liang Sheng suddenly raised his voice, Huang Qiang quickly shut his mouth.

He realized that his words just now were somewhat reckless. What if the Internal Affairs Office heard them?

However, it wasn't Huang Qiang's fault. For some reason, he was finding himself more and more trusting of Chen Quan after this long period, often speaking without thinking.

Seeing that Huang Qiang had realized his mistake, Liang Sheng didn't blame him. "In any case, the higher-ups have their considerations, you just need to do your duty, I leave it all to you."

After giving Huang Qiang his instructions, Liang Sheng, seemingly contented, descended to the Lower City, where his disciples had been exiled.

During this period, Huang Qiang and the others had grown more and more trusting of him. In reality, he had secretly manipulated them with the Soul Control Technique. With his innate talent bestowed by the heavens, Liang Sheng had already reached the perfect state of Soul Control.

Coupled with his potent Divine Consciousness bestowed by the Ancient Cultivator at this moment, Huang Qiang and the others were unknowingly being influenced by the Soul Control Technique without their knowledge.

As for why Liang Sheng chose to descend to the mortal world at this time, it was because the disciple from the Church of All Beings who was set to retrieve the Visualization Divine Method had descended.

The other party might start their move against the Chen Mansion soon, and he naturally wanted to be away from the scene at the first moment. He had advised all members of the Chen Family to go into closed-door cultivation. In his absence, their fighting power would definitely be inadequate initially. He hoped that the personnel from the Church of All Beings would not disappoint him.

It would be best if he returned home to find that the family had suffered heavy losses, which would make "Chen Quan" disheartened and uninterested in meddling in the secular world too much.

Of course, he would adjust according to the final result. His thoughts now were entirely on the Visualization Divine Method.

The Lower City.

The territory of the Lower City was vast. Compared to the Desolate Regions, it was just like a single Desolate Region among thousands. There was no end in sight.

But the situation in the Lower City was much more secular, filled with various powers. Not only were there cultivators, but there were also a few ordinary people.

Those normal people were at the bottom of society, unable to gather the resources to reach the Qi Cultivation Realm, and were even lower than servants.

If a cultivator from the Lower City managed to reach Foundation Establishment Stage, many would choose to leave the Lower City and fight for a place in Sky City.

However, those who succeeded in reaching Sky City would ultimately still be in despair. They probably wouldn't be able to break through to the next realm by the end of their lifespans without good fortune.

In the end, they could only return to the Lower City and spread their lineage in the hopes that their descendants could break their fetters and have a standing in Immortal City.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was like an ordinary cultivator, walking along the country road. The cultivators in the fields were still painstakingly tending to their spiritual fields. These should all be cultivators tenanted the Chen Family's fields.

In a short while, he stopped in front of a large group of buildings. Looking at the name "Chen's Village" on the stone table, he could not help but sigh that the -Chen Family" in the Lower City had indeed become king-like, their family and businesses were flourishing.

At this moment, there were already quite a number of people waiting in front of Chen's Village. As soon as they saw Liang Sheng, their eyes lit up.

"Patriarch, you're here."

Chen Xiang took the lead in saluting Liang Sheng, his attitude extremely respectful. He didn't want to stay in the Lower City for another moment. But since being banished to the Lower City by the family patriarch, they had not received any new orders and had gradually begun to compromise and accept their fate.

However, their patriarch was ultimately 'overprotective.' After all, how could he possibly abandon them?

Therefore, after learning that Liang Sheng would come to the Lower City, they had been sending people to wait at the entrance of the village, just wanting to welcome Liang Sheng at the first moment of his arrival.

Liang Sheng looked at Chen Xiang and showed no emotion, merely saying, "Let's discuss it inside."

Afterwards, for the Chen family disciples who had been banished, it was torment. No matter what good news they told, the "patriarch" remained expressionless..

Chapter 367: The Praying Mantis Catches the Cicada, the Sparrow Waits Behind, and the Chen Family Is Destroyed!

It seemed that their desire to return to Sky City could not be realized at the moment. Seeing this, they begrudgingly left, leaving only Liang Sheng in the best room of the villa.

However, they weren't aware that Liang Sheng's attention wasn't on them at all. He hadn't expected the Nameless Cave of the God Transmutation to be so close?

No wonder the member of the sect of All Beings suspected him of knowing something. Yet, after his surprise, Liang Sheng didn't act immediately.

It was clear at the moment, the sect's treasure hunting operation was not going smoothly. After all, that Cave Mansion once belonged to a Divinity Transformation Expert; could it be easily opened?

However, the strength of the Sect of All Beings was indeed commendable. The person leading them this time was a Nascent Soul Late-Stage True Monarch. It seemed they were resolved to get the Visualization Divine Method.

Liang Sheng had no intention of acting. He was prepared to reap the benefits later; he only wanted to get the final Visualization Divine Method for himself.

At this moment, Liang Sheng remained motionless, quietly watching the members of the sect bustling in front of the Nameless Cave of the God Transmutation. To his surprise, they made no progress even after three days.

Just as Liang Sheng was getting impatient and contemplating whether to intervene, the sect members cheered softly; the Cave Mansion of God Transmutation was finally opened.

This lifted Liang Sheng's spirits. If he waited any longer, he would lose his patience. Under his Auspicious Ability to Avoid Evil, what came to his mind were four words: 'Great Fortune Omen'.

Meanwhile, outside the Chen Family Residence in Immortal City, some commotion finally began.

At this moment, not far from the Chen Family Mansion, a group of people were hiding in a Mansion. Their expressions were serious, and the two leading them were the Nascent Soul cultivators who had been in the private room of Dao Valley Pavilion earlier.

They had positioned themselves here five days ago and, after carefully concealing their Qi, no one had discovered them.

Now, they were waiting for the final command. At that moment, the Communication Jade Slip held by one of the leading Nascent Soul Masters began to vibrate.

Upon reading the message on the jade slip, a look of joy crossed his face.

"We've succeeded. Elder Huang and his team have successfully opened the Nameless Cave of the God Transmutation. Now is the time for us to act."

Upon hearing these words, everyone's faces lit up with excitement. They had waited so long for this moment. It was finally time to make their sacrifice.

By coming here, they had accepted that they might not be able to retreat successfully!

“Brothers and sisters, tonight is the night we sacrifice ourselves for a brighter future for all cultivators under heaven. Whether this operation succeeded or failed, if we are caught by the City Lord’s Mansion’s scum, remember the oath we made.”

“Rest assured elder, we have come prepared to make sacrifices. We will not mess up the big picture. The future will surely be great.”

“Well said!”

Everyone’s emotions were heightened at this moment. Everything they were doing today was an attack on the rotten Immortal City. Their sacrifices were for a future that was free of a rigid class system.

After a while, when everyone had calmed down, all of them began to prepare their strongest spells under the guidance of the two Nascent Soul cultivators.

They were planning to create a big disturbance to attract the attention of all of Immortal City. They were unsure if their operation to retrieve the Visualization Divine Method from the lower city would cause a commotion.

However, according to their records, the emergence of the Visualization Divine Method in the Cave Mansion would trigger a particular prohibitive Qi fluctuation. They didn’t want Immortal City to find out.

“Elder, we hope everything goes smoothly for you!”

After silently praying in their hearts, they didn’t hesitate any longer. Their Qi erupted instantly, and all the attacking spells in their hands were directed straight at the Chen Family Residence!

“Attack!”

The surprise attack, led by two Nascent Soul Masters, was so destructive that it directly rained down on the Chen Family Mansion.

Most of the Chen Family Disciples were still in closed-door cultivation and had no time to react before they were enveloped by this terrifying attack.

The highest cultivation level among the servants and cultivators of the Chen Family was the Golden Core Realm. Faced with the sudden attack by the two Nascent Soul seniors from the Sect of All Beings, they couldn't react in time.

Had Patriarch Chen Quan been present, with his middle-stage Nascent Soul cultivation level, he would have responded instantly to the attack. After all, two early-stage Nascent Soul cultivators were no match for Chen Quan in his middle-stage Nascent Soul Realm.

Unfortunately, Chen Quan was not present at that moment.

In an instant, the Chen Family Mansion, under this cataclysmic attack, was entirely destroyed and turned into ruins.

Only one or two of the old Nascent Soul elders of the Chen Family were able to respond in time to protect a small area of the Chen Family Residence. The rest of the place had completely disappeared.

Looking at the members of the Sect of All Beings who launched the attack, their eyes were blood red.

“Damn it!”

Just as the members of the Sect of All Beings launched the attack, the attention of all of Immortal City was immediately drawn to them.

The Cleaning Department.

Huang Qiang and others who were on duty at the time felt a strong aura of battle and they looked in the direction of the Chen Family with shocked expressions.

“Go!”

Upon saying this, Huang Qiang and others charged towards the Chen Family’s mansion immediately. The cultivators led by the other members of the Cleaning Department were a beat slower, before they followed suit.

The City Lord’s Mansion, on the other hand, was the first to detect the occurrence. The Left and Right Envoys of Clear Wind and Bright Moon immediately turned furious.

“The Remnants of the Sect of All Beings are incredibly audacious!”

This act was a total disregard for them, and an outright provocation to the City Lord’s Mansion.. How dare they behave like this?

Chapter 368: The Praying Mantis Catches the Cicada, the Sparrow Waits Behind, and the Chen Family Is Destroyed!

In an instant, a terrifying pressure enveloped the Chen family’s territory within a range of hundreds of miles inside the City Lord Mansion.

However, Left and Right Envoys Qingfeng and Mingyue didn’t take action at this time. Their current display of their might was simply to prevent the remnants of the Church of All Beings from escaping and trapping them within the Chen family residence.

After all, if they needed to take action in Immortal City, then there would be no need for the subordinate agencies of the Internal and External Offices to exist.

At this time, other people in Immortal City also realized what was going on. Under their divine senses, many people couldn’t help but sigh in surprise.

The Church of All Beings had such a big appetite, this kind of thing hadn't happened for so many years. The Church of All Beings stressed unity and love, and they least liked to see their people sacrificed.

What exactly did Chen Quan do to provoke such a determined retaliation from them? Even Qingfeng and Mingyue were somewhat at a loss at this moment.

But at this time, the people from the Cleaning Department had already rushed to the Chen family residence, and even met the Factory Department of the Internal Affairs Office halfway on the road.

The Cleaning Department and the Factory Department actually shared the same responsibility, but one belonged to Qingfeng's external affairs and the other to Internal Affairs Office.

If it were an ordinary time, they would even argue when they met, but now that the Chen Mansion was facing a crisis, Huang Qiang and others simply had no mood for it.

At this time, the surviving Nascent Soul powerhouses of the Chen Family looked at the furious church members of the Church of All Beings, and at the ruins of the Chen Family. How dare these remnants of the Church of All Beings do such a thing?

They took action for the first time to intercept the retreat route of the other party because they knew that within the Immortal City, they would definitely have support.

And the two Nascent Soul masters leading the Church of All Beings took action without regard for anything, only wanting to break through the encirclement.

However, the two Nascent Soul men of the Chen family desperately intercepted them, and they couldn't leave for a moment. Just then, the Cleaning Department and the Factory Department finally arrived together.

"Brothers, it seems we can't make it. Since our deaths are inevitable, let's take some people down with us!"

The Chen family's Nascent Soul cultivators who were fighting them didn't even have time to respond to what happened when they saw the other party showing a cold smile and moving closer to them, followed by a startling explosion.

Self-destruction!

The Chen family's Nascent Soul couldn't react in time, let alone the Cleaning and Factory Departments. Several of them charged too fast, directly leading to their deaths together with the enemies.

Madmen!

The church members of the Church of All Beings were madmen!

Immediately afterward, like a chain reaction and like the sound of firecrackers, all the remnants of the Church of All Beings found someone to die with and self-destructed.

Few people could survive.

Looking at the completely unrecognizable ruins of the Chen family, Huang Qiang couldn't help but feel weak in the legs at this moment. How would he explain this to the Commander?

Lower City.

Just as the followers of the Church of All Beings were attacking the Chen Mansion, the Nameless Cave Mansion in the Lower City finally opened. Liang Sheng, looking at the Lifeless Sect followers who were still probing how to enter the cave mansion, couldn't help but smile.

There was no danger within this cave mansion, and Liang Sheng's great fortune omen in his heart became more and more apparent. However, he didn't hurry, waiting for those people to enter the cave mansion before carefully following behind.

Not to mention that his strength far surpassed the others, as long as he had the Attribute Panel, they couldn't discover them.

"Elder, it's true what the records say, there are so many spiritual pills here, perfectly preserved."

"There are spirit stones here too."

"Wow, there's even a high-grade spiritual artifact, perfectly preserved."

The people of the Church of All Beings were extremely excited, as this matched the records on the scrolls. However, the elder's gaze was tightly fixed on the scroll above with its lively aura.

Visualization Divine Method!

However, he didn't act impulsively but let his subordinates take away the other resources before carefully approaching the scroll.

There was a protective means, but as long as he was careful enough, he should not make much commotion. Besides, the action on the Immortal City had already begun, and no one would care about the Lower City.

With this in mind, he no longer hesitated, and following the methods recorded in the scrolls, he formed hand seals and reached out to the scroll with a specific technique.

At this moment, a sudden breath erupted from the Visualization Divine Technique Scroll, and immediately afterward, his mind was momentarily frozen like an ice block, temporarily losing consciousness.

Not only has the means left on the Visualization Divine Technique Scroll, but Liang Sheng has also taken action, taking the opportunity to add the means under the Soul Control Technique.

Liang Sheng was not impulsive at this time. After confirming that the elder's consciousness was temporarily frozen, he looked at the Visualization Divine Technique scroll.

At this moment, the scroll's prohibition completely disappeared, and the timing was just perfect. Then, without any hesitation, Liang Sheng directly reached out and took the scroll.

After that, Liang Sheng didn't hesitate at all. The Visualization Divine Technique Scroll had already unlocked its prohibition, and he still had the great fortune omen in his heart, so why would he shrink back at this time?

With Liang Sheng's powerful divine sense instantly enveloping the Visualization Divine Technique Scroll, in the sea of consciousness, a lively sense transformed into a Visualization Divine Method.

Barren Land Thousand Li Drought!

Within a moment, Liang Sheng opened his eyes, sighing that it was worthy of being the Visualization Divine Method. However, he did not study it carefully after copying the Visualization Divine Method.

There was plenty of time later; he should first leave the scene. As soon as his thoughts moved, Liang Sheng disappeared.

As Liang Sheng left, the next moment, the elder's consciousness returned, but he didn't know that he had been controlled for a few breaths of time. He only looked at the scroll that had its prohibition removed, feeling inexplicably delighted.

Success!

At this moment, he didn't hesitate at all and directly put the scroll into his storage ring. When he returned outside the cave mansion, and the others saw him nodding, confirming that he got the Visualization Divine Method, their eyes flashed with joy.

"Let's go!"

Immediately afterward, they took action, covering and burying the cave mansion with the eradication tactics recorded in the scrolls, and then several people disappeared in an instant.

At this time, Liang Sheng also emerged from the shadows, his face bearing a smile. Who would know that he had already got the Visualization Divine Method?

He just didn't know the situation in Immortal City now.

The next moment, the Communication Jade Slip vibrated.

Huang Qiang's message arrived!

Chapter 369: Chen Quan's Mad Dog, Is This Courting Death?

Immortal City.

Chen Family Residence.

To be precise, the Chen Family Ruins.

Huang Qiang and the others knelt on the ground, Liang Sheng silently looked at the ruins in front of him, then suddenly soared into the sky and went to the City Lord Mansion.

"Commander!"

But Liang Sheng paid no attention to it and still resolutely went in the direction of the City Lord Mansion. Huang Qiang couldn't help but slap himself on the ground.

“I have failed the Commander!”

At this moment, Huang Qiang was afraid that Liang Sheng would act impulsively. If he clashed with the Left Envoy... He didn't dare to think about it any further, and he didn't have the courage to follow Liang Sheng.

He didn't dare to go because behind him was the entire Huang family...

What Huang Qiang could not imagine, however, was that it was not Liang Sheng who voluntarily went to see the Left Envoy Qingfeng but that he had received a message the moment he arrived in Sky City.

Liang Sheng was just a little unsure in his heart; seeing the complete destruction of the entire Chen Family, he then sighed in relief, feeling as if the whole person was suddenly set free, and went to the Left Envoy Mansion.

One less shackle, how delightful!

Qingfeng's Mansion.

“Dismiss him.”

“Huh?”

The manager was instantly stunned. Wasn't it you who specially asked him to come? Why would you not see him when Chen Quan arrived?

At this time, Left Envoy Qingfeng leisurely spoke, “Tell him, if he has any resentment, go and trouble the remnants of the All Living Beings Sect. As the Deputy Commander of the Cleaning Department, he doesn't work hard to investigate the traces of these rebellious remnants on weekdays. Now that there's a problem, what's the use of coming to me to cry about it?”

By the way, remember to tell him directly that he, Chen Quan, has never shown any mercy to the remnants of the AU Living Beings Sect. The other party is just returning an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth. Chen Quan is not wronged this time!”

After saying that, Qingfeng calmly took a sip of tea, glanced at the puzzled manager standing below, and couldn't help but frown, “Why are you still not leaving?”

“Ah... Yes!”

Outside the mansion, Liang Sheng was now neither sad nor happy, but everyone dared not look him in the eye. Regardless of Chen Quan's identity, he was still a Nascent Soul Master, dignified and extraordinary.

Everyone was guessing that perhaps the next Immortal City would be in chaos for some time. Chen Quan, who was meticulous about every detail, would come to seek the help of Left Envoy today, possibly resulting in a massive killing spree.

However, why weren't the rebellious members of the All Living Beings Sect more cautious? They should never have provoked this meticulous Deputy Colonel Chen, of all people...

But when the manager of the Left Envoy Mansion came out, everyone was dumbfounded. At this moment, even though the manager was still puzzled, he repeated Qingfeng's words.

“Hiss...”

Someone heard this, couldn't help but gasp, hadn't Qingfeng Left Envoy been very fond of Chen Quan before? How come today, when the Chen Family had just encountered a catastrophe, his attitude suddenly changed?

At this time, Liang Sheng's face turned red and then calmed down. He glanced at Qingfeng's Mansion, said nothing, and turned away.

Huh?

Why did Chen Quan change his temperament this time?

If it had been before, he would have probably fallen to the ground crying for help and then gained the assistance of the Left Envoy. Following that, the Immortal City would have been filled with bloodshed.

Chen Quan was the dog of the Left Envoy. But now, both Qingfeng Left Envoy's attitude and Chen Quan's performance were contrary to their expectations.

Could it be that they have fallen out? That's impossible.

People around who saw this situation couldn't figure out why it ended like this. On the way back, Liang Sheng's eyes flickered. Had it not been for witnessing too many intrigues and schemes during his time in the secular world, he might still be kept in the dark now.

How deceitful was this Immortal City?

Don't assume that Qingfeng appeared to have not told anything and seemed a bit indifferent. In fact, he had already said everything, just extremely subtly.

Or perhaps he didn't care whether "Chen Quan" could understand his intentions or not because he knew Chen Quan's character.

Under the circumstances of the Chen Family's nearly complete annihilation, this was an enraged dog. As for the enraged dog, it would have its value.

In Qingfeng and Mingyue's eyes, the All Living Beings Sect was nothing but a laughingstock. What they cared about were both parties only.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's expression slightly changed, and he thought to himself that it was indeed the case. He was indeed a tool.

At this time, he had already spread his Divine Sense to the Left Envoy Mansion without any sound or indication, and even Left Envoy Qingfeng had not discovered his means.

Since the situation was confirmed, Liang Sheng weighed the pros and cons and decided to follow Qingfeng's script for the time being. After all, under the ability to seek fortune and avoid evil, this choice was a great fortune omen. Liang Sheng didn't expect this outcome; in that case, he would make it a bit more chaotic.

In fact, Qingfeng's deliberate refusal to see him was to make him lose his senses. In addition to the manager's words, given "Chen Quan's" nature, he would immediately go to the trouble of the Internal Affairs Office.

The Left Envoy managed the external affairs, and his Cleaning Department was responsible for external security. However, the Cleaning Department's intelligence sources often came from the Internal Affairs Office.

Why was it said that the Cleaning Department and the Factory Department had a bad relationship? It was because they were fighting for merit, and the Factory Department belonged to the Internal Affairs Office. They were the ones close to the water, thus getting the moon first.

Unfortunately, under Qingfeng's deterrence, the Internal Affairs Bureau Investigation Department did not dare to conceal information. Hence, most of the time, relying on the Cleaning Department's rich experience, the Factory Department was no match for the Cleaning Department.

But it was still disgusting.

At this time, Liang Sheng's heart moved, and he completely obliterated the Divine Sense he left in Qingfeng's Mansion. Since he had this idea, he would be more thorough in his actions next.

After all, just now, when Qingfeng muttered to himself, the implication was that he would benefit from this incident if he achieved merit..

Chapter 370: Chen Quan's Mad Dog, Is This Courting Death?

It was precisely because of this statement that Liang Sheng believed Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil would lead to a great fortune omen. However, he had to go, and think about how far he could go.

He was sure that he would have no trouble, as Qingfeng Left Envoy would never let anything happen to him; otherwise, wouldn't it be like losing to the Right Envoy Ming Yue?

In this case, if Liang Sheng could handle this operation well, he might not only gain rewards from Left Envoy Qingfeng but also have the chance for an unrestrained life.

With that in mind, Liang Sheng hesitated no more and made a U-turn in front of Qingfeng's Mansion, then headed towards the Internal Affairs Office.

While Huang Qiang and others were still waiting outside the Chen Family Residence, one of their subordinates hurriedly reported, "Sir, the Left Envoy did not see Commander Chen, but he went to the Internal Affairs Office." "Internal Affairs Office?"

"Not good..."

"Brothers, follow me quickly!"

This time, Huang Qiang didn't hesitate. He had a vague idea but couldn't figure it out clearly. However, he knew Qingfeng Left Envoy's style. If their Deputy Colonel went to cause trouble at the Internal Affairs Office, they, as subordinates, had to follow, or else they would suffer later.

Why did Chen Quan receive favor from the Left Envoy previously? It was because when the Left Envoy told him to go east, he would never go west.

But the Left Envoy didn't see Commander Chen, so why did Commander Chen go to the Internal Affairs Office at this time?

At this moment, not only was Huang Qiang puzzled, but many people in Immortal City were also wondering. They thought that when Chen Quan returned from Lower City, he would retaliate against the remnants of All Living Beings Sect. Why did he suddenly seem to have problems with the Internal Affairs Office now?

Wasn't that seeking death?

In a dark corner of Immortal City.

This place was a stronghold of the Church of All Beings. At this moment, an inconspicuous old man, looking in the direction of "Chen Quan's" ruined mansion, had slightly bloodshot eyes.

"Children, you all did well. Your deaths will not be meaningless. You died for the dawn of all living beings. Rest in peace."

All those who participated in the Chen Family operation, including the two Nascent Soul Masters, were dead. The old man had already ordered all his subordinates to stop all activities, regardless of the situation.

However, at this moment, he looked up in confusion towards the Internal Affairs Office. He couldn't figure it out either – this was not Chen Quan's usual style of doing things.

Of course, there were also people in Immortal City who could see the whole situation clearly from outside the chess game. They couldn't help but sigh.

Ultimately, those who hadn't reached the Divinity Transformation realm were mere chess pieces, being manipulated by others.

However, Chen Quan was not someone they should offend!

Unexpectedly, under the circumstances of his family's demise, whether he was calm or going all out, he was actually making the right choice at the first moment.

It could only be said that if his cultivation level were higher or if his performance this time were perfect, perhaps the colonel of the Cleaning Department would have to be replaced.

However, would he really dare to go all out? Or to put it another way, how much could he achieve in Qingfeng's eyes this time?

At this moment, the attention of all those who cared about the situation in Immortal City was focused on Chen Quan. Naturally, Qingfeng Left Envoy also heard the report from his subordinates

Afterward, the corners of his mouth involuntarily curled up a bit. Not bad. In the end, it was still his dog, not exceeding his expectations. He just didn't know if Chen Quan had guessed his thoughts.

If Chen Quan had figured out his intentions, then his "loyal dog" had improved. In fact, having loyalty alone was not enough; one must also understand his master's intentions.

If Chen Quan truly understood his intentions so quickly, it seemed that his previous sending of Chen Quan to the Desolate Regions for over a decade had been somewhat of a waste of talent.

However, there was still a gap in Chen Quan's cultivation level. If he satisfied Qingfeng this time, why not give him an opportunity? It remained to be seen if he could seize it.

But in Qingfeng's heart, he had already made a decision. Even if Chen Quan couldn't seize the opportunity this time and couldn't advance in his realm, Qingfeng would still reuse him.

After all, how could one discard a loyal dog that still cared for its master fully? Of course, whether Chen Quan could, or was worth, Qingfeng investing heavily in developing him would depend on his performance in the future.

Internal Affairs Office.

At this moment, Liang Sheng's pace was not fast, as he took one step at a time towards the Internal Affairs Office, his eyes determined. Upon seeing this, the gatekeeper of the Internal Affairs Office immediately blocked his way.

"Commander Chen, do you have any urgent matters to address? I can report them for you now."

As the Left Envoy was in charge of external affairs, as the Deputy Colonel of the Cleaning Department, Liang Sheng needed a Task Waist Token to enter the Internal Affairs Office. Just like when Chen Quan was sent to the Desolate Regions, he also got Qingfeng's approval and the Internal Affairs Office's Task Waist Token.

However, this time Chen Quan didn't even look at the opposition and said bluntly, "Get out of my way!" The gatekeeper was stunned and then sneered in his heart.

This Chen Quan had a lot of nerve.

But the gatekeeper didn't say anything. He still bowed humbly without any "tiger-like" efforts because Chen Quan was a Nascent Soul Master, not someone he could afford to offend.

At this time, Liang Sheng had fully entered his acting mode, showing off arrogance and domineeringness. He looked at the opponent coldly and then forcefully pushed through to continue towards the Internal Affairs Office.

"This Chen Quan is really looking for death!"

Seeing Chen Quan without any hesitation stepping inside, the gatekeeper immediately sent out a signal. In an instant, the alarm of the Internal Affairs Office sounded loudly.

"What happened?"

"Go out and have a look."

Various departments of the Internal Affairs Office didn't know what had happened and quickly sent people to investigate the situation.

And those with intention in Immortal City sensed this situation with their Divine Sense, feeling somewhat astonished in their hearts, only one thought lingered in their minds..
