

Bottleneck 371

Chapter 371: Chen Quan's Mad Dog, Is This Courting Death?

Is Chen Quan really that brave?

Soon "Chen Quan" was heavily surrounded by people, but Chen Quan didn't even glance at them, and spoke directly.

"Call Commander Feng Xiang of the Inspector's Office. I just want to ask him a few questions."

"Commander Chen, do you have your Task Waist Token? Those who break into the Internal Affairs Office, regardless of who they are, will die!"

At this moment, everyone looked at Chen Quan with hatred. This was the rule after the Right Envoy Mingyue took charge of internal affairs. Did the people from Left Envoy not understand the rules?

Originally, there had been factional struggles between the Left and Right Envoys. However, no matter what they did, they would never cross each other's bottom lines.

But this time, Chen Quan broke tradition, and the people of the Internal Affairs Office didn't dare to directly use force.

Unless they received clear orders from Right Envoy Mingyue, they had to weigh their options. What if this was at the behest of Qingfeng Left Envoy? What would they do then?

After all, in front of Left Envoy Qingfeng, they were just small fries. So it was best not to provoke any conflicts, and wait for the Right Envoy to resolve any major trouble that arose.

And their current thoughts were actually quite simple. If Chen Quan didn't have the support of Left Envoy Qingfeng, would he dare to be so arrogant?

“I’ll say it once more, have Feng Xiang come to see me.”

It was still an arrogant tone, but the people of the Internal Affairs Office became even less daring to make a move. Seeing this, “Chen Quan” became even more domineering.

“Where are the dogs of the Inspector’s Office? Why haven’t they come out yet? Aren’t they supposed to watch over Immortal City, without any lapses?”

Huh?

Did he come to accuse them of something?

The situation with the Chen Family had been widely known throughout the Immortal City, but they didn’t expect Chen Quan to come here for that matter.

According to his temperament, he would normally bully the weak and fear the strong. Shouldn’t he be looking for trouble with the Church of All Beings at this time?

Why is he targeting the Inspector’s Office?

Damn!

At this moment, those who quickly realized the trouble turned around and rushed back into the Internal Affairs Office to find Commander Feng Xiang.

However, the eyes of those left unresponsive were amusing. This person seemed to only have a bit of cleverness. Could a small Golden Core True Person like him get involved in such a vortex?

Thinking about this, these people couldn’t help but quietly step back. If conflict did break out later, it would be better for them to stay away from danger.

Internal Affairs Office, Inspector's Office.

"What? Chen Quan has come to cause trouble for my Inspector's Office?"

Feng Xiang had been paying attention to the movement in the front courtyard, but he was also considering whether he should go out or not.

But seeing the subordinate now reporting the situation in the front courtyard, dark clouds crossed his heart in a flash.

How could he have such a stupid subordinate?

Did he really think he was the only clever one?

If he hadn't come to report, he could have pretended not to know anything. Now that he rushed in to tell him about it, did he have any other choices?

After settling this matter today, the man in front of him seemed more suited to investigate information in the Lower City. After all, being so clever, how could he not do more work to justify his intelligence?

Clever people always need opportunities to show off... Feng Xiang patted the other party's shoulder with a kind expression on his face.

"Good, luckily you notified me in time, or else a big mistake would have been made. I'll go and take a look at the situation first, and then I'll promote you afterwards."

"Thank you for the recognition, Commander!"

The one who rushed to report was overjoyed. He didn't waste any time coming to report, and the Commander now considered him a close confidant.

Internal Affairs Office, Front Courtyard.

At this moment, Chen Quan's face was already full of impatience.

"Is Feng Xiang not coming out? Are you going to let me in or force me to take action?"

The cultivators of the Internal Affairs Office who were surrounding Chen Quan remained unmoved. Using force was impossible, but they couldn't let him in either.

If they did, the Right Envoy would let them know what punishment meant. At that moment, Feng Xiang's voice came out, and those people immediately breathed a sigh of relief, then turned around and made way, as it was none of their business anymore.

"Commander Chen, what exactly do you mean by this?"

Chen Quan stared closely at Feng Xiang. In an instant, his anger subsided and his voice remained steady without any disturbance.

"Feng Xiang, did you not detect any traces of rebellion from the Church of All Beings earlier? Or did I, Chen Quan, offend you in any way?"

Otherwise, why would you stand idly by and watch the warriors of my Chen family become the scapegoats for the Church of All Beings' retaliation?"

Feng Xiang's face darkened at these words. Did he think he was taking personal revenge? He couldn't bear this blame.

So, Feng Xiang acted very simply at this time and admitted his fault, because a true man knows when to bend and when to stretch. In the face of a long time, what's wrong with losing a little face?

Lives are the primary goal. What if he could advance further?

“Commander Chen, I feel deeply guilty about this matter as well. I didn’t manage to investigate the rebellion of the Church of All Beings, and indeed, I neglected my duty.

I will be responsible for this later on, and I will find out who is in charge of the spy who was assigned to the Chen family area. As soon as there is a result, I will come to apologize personally.”

Hearing this, Chen Quan suddenly laughed crazily, like a madman.

“Feng Xiang, do you still think I’m stupid and can stall for time to trivialize this matter?

I can tell you clearly that I don’t want to be muddled by you right now. Give me an explanation now, or I, Chen Quan, will-”

Never give up, till death!”

“You!”

Feng Xiang was shocked and angry at this moment. He was now in a dilemma.. If he admitted his mistake, wouldn’t that be slapping the face of the Right Envoy?

Chapter 372: 153’- Chen Quan’s Mad Dog, Is This Courting Death?

But not admitting his mistake, seeing Chen Quan’s crazed appearance, he was afraid he would also suffer.

Damnit!

He had previously planned to send that report to his subordinate, but now the other party had been sentenced to death; he really couldn’t understand it.

Feng Xiang's mind raced, and in the end, he made the final decision, which was to endure, because now it was not the problem of their Inspector's Office but Right Envoy Mingyue's face issue.

Commander Chen, the remnants of the Church of All Beings are so cunning that if our Inspector's Office could control their every move, why haven't we eliminated them by now?

It was also very helpless for the Chen family to suffer such a heavy blow this time, but this is not the reason for you to come to the Internal Affairs Office and run wild on my Inspector's Office.

I understand that your emotions are very unstable today. As long as you rein in now, I am willing to forgive and forget.

Otherwise, do you really think my Inspector's Office has no one?

As soon as these words came out, Feng Xiang's words, like thunder and lightning, resonated powerfully, and the horror of the late Nascent Soul Realm was revealed at this moment.

The complexions of the cultivators around them changed drastically, looking at Feng Xiang with astonished faces. This was the might of a Nascent Soul Master; when a True Monarch was angry, blood would splatter for thousands of miles!

But at this moment, although Chen Quan's face was pale, he stood opposite

Feng Xiang, almost completely accepting Feng Xiang's oppressive aura.

However, he slowly straightened his chest, the corner of his mouth even carrying a touch of madness.

"I am Chen Quan, Deputy Commander of the Cleaning Department. I know that the Church of All Beings regards me as a thorn in their side, but why have I never compromised?

Commander Feng, do you still remember the guarantee your Inspector's Office made to us external staff in front of the Left and Right Envoys?

So why weren't any of your Inspector's Office personnel present when my Chen family was destroyed? What about the promised covert protection?

Or are you saying that your Inspector's Office is actually just paying lip service, and treating Right Envoy Mingyue's words as nonsense?

Right Envoy Mingyue did say that as long as the Cleaning Department under the command of the Left Envoy carried out external tasks, the Internal Affairs Office would definitely ensure our rear support, and nothing would threaten our rear.

But now that my Chen family has nearly been destroyed, that was the work of two Nascent Soul Masters, with such a huge oversight, how could Right Envoy Mingyue's previous words be considered nonsense?

"You tell me!"

The last three words, Chen Quan suddenly raised his voice, and Feng Xiang's pupils couldn't help but shrink. At this time, he looked deeply at Chen Quan, and his heart sank.

How malicious is Chen Quan!

This was definitely not the scheming of a single person. Feng Xiang knew all too well what kind of character Chen Quan was. This kind of turning passivity into aggression must have been guided by someone behind the scenes.

He didn't expect "Chen Quan" to come here not for his family's destruction, but use it as an excuse to challenge the Right Envoy.

This can't go on like this, or else no matter what the outcome, he will have lost the face of the Right Envoy, and he doesn't dare to think about what will happen to him in the end.

Commander Chen, I can explain this matter, but it concerns secrets. Can you come to my Inspector's Office and let me explain it to you in detail?"

"Fine!"

"Huh?"

Chen Quan agreed so readily. Feng Xiang hadn't expected that, but it would be best if they could resolve the matter privately.

But just as the smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, he saw Chen Quan suddenly surge in strength, and his clothes burst open.

"Commander Feng, before we talk privately, why don't you take a look at the scars on my body first?"

At the moment, the densely covered injuries on Chen Quan's body should have been healed since he had already become a Nascent Soul Master with an impeccable body. Even if he had injuries, they would have healed.

But Chen Quan had retained them. Previously, Chen Quan had pretended to do so in front of Left Envoy Qingfeng to curry favor, but he did not expect to be used by Liang Sheng.

Chen Quan then said calmly, pointing at the injuries on his body, "Do you know why I kept them? Because these are the souvenirs left from my battles with the remnants of the Church of All Beings.

I have been loyal to the City of Longevity; Heaven and Earth can attest to it. Since you want to explain in detail, let's go over each one of them.

A thousand and three hundred years ago, outside of Immortal City, the Church of All Beings held a Curse Array. I and the Cleaning Department were the first to arrive. Where were you, Inspector's Office?

At that time, I was desperately blocked by an Elder of the Church of All Beings. If I hadn't been lucky, this knife would have broken my Dantian and directly hit my Nascent Soul.

And look at these burn scars, which were caused by a mistake in your Inspector's Office intelligence 900 years ago, leading our Cleaning Department brothers into a trap set by the Church of All Beings.

If we weren't lucky, and we had the support of our Cleaning Department brothers, I would have been dead long ago.

And here, it happened 500 years ago..."

At this moment, Huang Qiang had already led his men here. Hearing "Chen Quan's" words, their eyes gradually turned red.

Although Huang Qiang was not a subordinate of "Chen Quan" before, they had participated in many battles together. Unconsciously, they had become united against a common enemy.

Liang Sheng's voice continued, "I have been a mortal enemy with the Church of All Beings, why didn't your Inspector's Office station someone around my Chen Mansion to guard it?

Didn't the Right Envoy say that when we are fighting abroad, we are meritorious officials, and that the Internal Affairs Office will guarantee our rear safety?

So is the destruction of my Chen family the so-called protection and safety you promised? Do you want to explain it to me? Is it the same as 300 years ago when you asked us to let everything go for the sake of the Right Envoy's face?" Feng Xiang's face turned completely black. Chen Quan was truly going all out, daring to bring up the matter from 300 years ago?

Previously, he thought that "Chen Quan" was the Left Envoy's dog, but the other party would also consider his retreat. Now that Chen Quan was being so direct, did he want to die?

Wait, with only one out of ten of the younger generation of the Chen family remaining, what retreat does he even consider? At this moment, seeing that Chen Quan was still talking, Feng Xiang could no longer endure..

Chapter 373: Chen Quan's Mad Dog, Is This Courting Death?

He couldn't let the other party continue speaking. Just now, the other party was clearly stalling for time, trying to make a big scene out of it.

If the incident from three hundred years ago were to be exposed, the Right Envoy would definitely not let him off!

At this moment, only Chen Quan's voice remained in the Internal Affairs Office. The expressions on the faces of the others were equally ugly. "Chen Quan" had directly placed the conflict on the table, and they didn't dare to imagine how ugly the Right Envoy's face must be at this moment.

At this time, a smile appeared on Qingfeng's lips, he had not expected Chen Quan to go this far. Was it really because his family had been attacked, and it stirred up "Chen Quan's" fighting spirit?

Previously, although Chen Quan was his dog, he still didn't dare to be too presumptuous in front of Mingyue. Today, Qingfeng just wanted to take advantage of the situation and cause trouble for Mingyue, but he didn't expect Chen Quan to directly turn the tables.

Before, he was still hesitating about whether to give the reward, but now, he instantly decided to give the opportunity to Chen Quan after this matter.

He wanted everyone to understand that being Qingfeng's dog meant having a worry-free cultivation!

"Come, let's go to the Internal Affairs Office!"

The manager outside the door was stunned upon hearing this, but he quickly regained his composure and prepared the Left Envoy's imperial chair. After Qingfeng sat down, they went straight to the Internal Affairs Office.

Internal Affairs Office.

"Complete nonsense."

At this time, Feng Xiang no longer considered the consequences of killing Chen Quan. At this point, there was nothing more to say.

Since the other party had already given up, now that only he was here, he naturally had to take responsibility for it. But now, the first priority was to minimize the damage.

And the only solution was for Chen Quan to die!

After all, no matter what a dead person says, it no longer matters. But as long as he stayed alive, the Right Envoy would truly lose face.

Feeling Feng Xiang's killing intent, the expressions of those around changed. With a Nascent Soul late-stage attack, Chen Quan would surely not survive.

But at this moment, Chen Quan was still facing him calmly, without even a trace of defensive action. Under Liang Sheng's Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil ability, there were still only four words.

Great fortune omen.

Just like the Beast Swamp back then, what kind of opportunity was this? After all, the trip to the Beast Swamp allowed him to break through to the Middle Nascent Soul Stage and enter the Immortal City without any worries.

Could it be that he was really suited for the intricate environment of the Immortal City? It was the same back in Jinzhou City, giving him the opportunity to rise.

However, it was precisely because of this that the “Chen Quan” he played would be so mad; if it wasn’t for this, why would Liang Sheng do this?

Moreover, his Divine Sense at this time had already silently covered the territory of several thousand miles centered on the Internal Affairs Office within the Immortal City.

Qingfeng has already come!

Since this was the case, what was there to be afraid of!?

Seeing Chen Quan so nonchalant, Feng Xiang became resolute in his heart. Once he made his move, Chen Quan would surely die, and he would definitely be in trouble too.

But at least it would save the Right Envoy’s face, he would definitely know his intentions. As long as he made a move, he would immediately go to the Right Envoy’s Mansion to plead guilty.

After that, even if the Right Envoy punished him, his life would not be in danger, and all of this, originated from the “Chen Quan” before him.

As he made his move, Feng Xiang’s heart was filled with extreme anger. Since you, Chen Quan, want to die, why do you have to drag me down?

We are both chess pieces, yet why did you have to target me?

At the next moment, like the stars exploding, Feng Xiang’s power made everyone present shudder. They couldn’t help but flee from the scene, not wanting to be swept away by the aftermath.

However, Huang Qiang and the others did not escape. In their hearts, they seemed to want to stand with “Chen Quan” as they were people from the Cleaning Department.

Fortunately, Huang Qiang remained rational and stopped them. If they stepped forward, they would simply be seeking death, and it would be useless.

But Chen Quan was still just staring intently at Feng Xiang and not making any moves. Was Chen Quan really seeking death? Many thoughtful people speculated this after probing with their Divine Sense.

Currently, no one knew what Chen Quan was thinking. In fact, with him alive, the Chen family still had hope of rebuilding. If he died, there would be no hope at all.

At this moment, an unexpected change occurred.

Unexpectedly, a seemingly ordinary and peaceful Qi appeared, but under the influence of this Qi, Feng Xiang's world-destroying attack was annihilated.

Under the pressure, Feng Xiang couldn't make any move.

Feng Xiang's heart was shocked, and then he saw Left Envoy Qingfeng's imperial chair appear immediately between him and Chen Quan.

"Nonsense!"

“Right Envoy Mingyue, my subordinate is stubborn. Today, he was also stimulated and acted thoughtlessly.

It’s busy inside the Internal Affairs Office, and there must be mistakes. How can we blame you for this?

Moreover, those remnants of the Church of All Beings that night were already wiped out by my Cleaning Department, which arrived in time to support you, and avenged my ignorant subordinate.

Now, it’s his fault that he’s angry with the Inspector’s Office. The Inspector’s Office has always been steady, and they aren’t trash, so what does it have to do with them?”

Hearing this, Mingyue immediately waved his hand with a smile, “Indeed, it s our negligence in the Internal Affairs Office. We not only failed to send anyone to guard the families of our City Lord Mansion’s external staff, but we also knew nothing about the actions of the Church of All Beings’ remnants. We were indeed guilty.”

As soon as his words fell, Feng Xiang immediately fell to his knees with a pained expression, only for Ming Yue to make a decisive move, directly suppressing Feng Xiang.

“Since this tragedy was caused by Commander Feng’s inability to lead, he must pay a price for it.

Summon those who were responsible for the security of Commander Chen’s home, find them, and then take them to the Punishment Platform. Execute their entire clans to give an explanation to Commander Chen.

As soon as Ming Yue’s words fell, Feng Xiang’s face suddenly bled from his seven orifices, and then he slumped to the ground, looking utterly hopeless.

Middle Nascent Soul Stage!

It turned out that during Ming Yue’s move just now, he had shattered Feng Xiang’s foundation, causing his realm to fall. From now on, it would be almost impossible for him to return to the Nascent Soul late-stage.

“Is Commander Chen satisfied with this? Rest assured, there will be more follow-up punishments. Today, we’re only punishing the chief culprits. As for the Church of All Beings, they can’t escape either.”

“Inspector’s Office, Factory Department, pass on my order from the Internal Affairs Office: Immediately fully investigate all the remnants of the Church of All Beings in the upper and lower cities of the Immortal City to apologize to Commander Chen!

Make sure all of you listen well: even if it’s the Lower City, I don’t care what means you use, turn it upside down and don’t let any exposed remnants of the Church of All Beings escape.”

“Understood!”

At this moment, everyone looked sympathetically at Chen Quan.

This time, Chen Quan, the mad dog, had thoroughly offended the Right Envoy!

Chapter 374 The Cosmic Mustard Seed of the City Lord’s Mansion, the Spinal Column of Heaven and Earth Breaks Through Again!

Internal Affairs Office.

As soon as the words of Right Envoy Clear Wind fell, Chen Quan started to cry loudly, completely disregarding his image as a Nascent Soul Master, regardless of the look of the people around him.

“Thank you, Right Envoy, who is indeed insightful and magnanimous. All this is in fact the responsibility of the Internal Affairs Bureau Investigation Department, and what does it have to do with the Right Envoy? It’s just a pity for my entire Chen family...”

As he spoke, Liang Sheng turned suddenly and bowed to Clear Wind, “Left Envoy, now my heart is like dead ashes, and I have no desire to continue as the Commanding Officer of the Cleaning Department.”

Moreover, what I did today did not consider the overall situation. I can be said to be incompetent and undeserving of my position. I only hope that such a tragedy will not happen again in the Cleaning Department.

Now I just want to return to the Lower City to enjoy my old age, cultivate the last blood of my family into talent, and not be remembered by the Church of All Beings anymore. I am incapable and really afraid..."

"Commander..."

At this moment, it was Huang Qiang and the others from the Cleaning Department. Upon hearing Liang Sheng's words, they couldn't help but feel some compassion, and involuntarily felt sympathetic.

"Commander Chen is joking. Today's faults lie with me, the Internal Affairs Bureau Investigation Department. Why do you blame yourself so much?" However, before Liang Sheng could finish his sentence, he was directly interrupted by Right Envoy Mingyue. Left Envoy Qingfeng looked at the other party, still keeping his smile, but he was very pleased in his heart.

Chen Quan's words today were fantastic, undoubtedly intending to kill a person's spirit.

At this time, Commander Feng Xiang of the Investigation Department was lying on the ground, but dared not look at Chen Quan. However, there was deep hatred in the depths of his eyes. Of course, he had already fallen out of his realm. Now, if he were to compete with Chen Quan, he might not know if he would win or lose.

After hearing Mingyue interrupt Liang Sheng, Feng Xiang simply lay on the ground motionless and closed his eyes in despair, admitting his complete defeat today.

Mingyue then turned her head smiling and said to Clear Wind, "Left Envoy, having such a loyal subordinate like Chen Quan must be so enviable."

Clear Wind seemed not to understand the sarcasm in her words, but instead laughed and said, "Yes, having a subordinate like Chen Quan is my good fortune."

“Chen Quan, you should not be so guilty and self-blaming. Rest assured and take your family here. I believe that the Internal Affairs Office will definitely ensure their safety in the future.”

“And you said that you want to resign from the post of Deputy Colonel, won’t I be missing a powerful aide in the future? I will pretend that I didn’t hear this, and you don’t need to mention it again.”

Then he turned to look at Huang Qiang and others. With his status, he only knew Huang Qiang, who after all, was also a Nascent Soul Master.

“Huang Qiang, isn’t it time to help your Commander get up? Since Chen Family Mansion has been temporarily destroyed, take your Commander to my mansion first.”

“Yes!”

At this moment, a flash of joy crossed Huang Qiang and the others’ hearts, and then they directly rushed to Chen Quan’s side and helped him up.

Chen Quan was just about to speak, his face excited, “Thank...”

However, before he could finish, he directly passed out. Everyone present couldn’t help but sigh at the fact that he had no sense of shame.

Would a Nascent Soul Master pass out due to emotional fluctuations?

I don’t think so!

However, Huang Qiang and others looked panicked, and helped Chen Quan up in a flurry, causing a commotion at the scene.

Looking at this situation, Clear Wind couldn’t help but feel emotional. He didn’t expect Chen Quan to make progress. How did he do such shameless things so naturally?

At this moment, the unconscious Chen Quan and Feng Xiang who was being punished and fell to the ground formed a stark contrast.

Clear Wind felt as refreshing as drinking a glass of iced water on a hot summer day. His heart was filled with joy, while Mingyue had a smile on his face but was thinking of murder.

Damn Chen Quan, why does he like to kill people's spirits so much? But the more he behaves like this, the more he can't die!

Because if Chen Quan is dead, many people would instinctively deflect the blame to Mingyue.

It's infuriating!

However, Mingyue couldn't say anything. It seemed like Chen Quan was losing his dignity, but it was actually Clear Wind's calculation against him.

Because everything has to do with his overt and covert struggle with Clear Wind. At this time, there was all smiles on his face as if he didn't care about the situation today at all.

"Friend Qingfeng, since Commander Chen has fainted from extreme anger, why don't you take him back to rest? As for the disciples of the Chen family arranged in the Lower City, I will immediately send someone to safely bring them to the Upper City, so you don't have to worry."

"Thank you, then, Daoist Friend Mingyue."

Clear Wind expressed his thanks, and Mingyue smiled and responded that it was a small matter. The two seemed to have no grudge, but Mingyue knew that he was belittled by Clear Wind today.

But who would have thought that Chen Quan was acting so recklessly in this emergency. It was really difficult to deal with, and there was no choice but to accept.

All he can say is that Clear Wind has found a crazy dog as his subordinate.

At this time, Clear Wind saw that the situation was favorable and called for a retreat. His chariot rose in the sky, and Chen Quan was surrounded and escorted by Huang Qiang and others to the Left Envoy Mansion.

Mingyue didn't say a word on the ground. Seeing Clear Wind leave, she rose into the sky and left directly, leaving the Internal Affairs Office silent.

It wasn't until Feng Xiang stood up at this time and ordered the people in the Investigation Department to come over, "Come here, go to the Lower City to get the Chen Family disciples back to the Upper City, make sure nothing goes wrong."

"Yes!"

Then suddenly, the Captain of the Factory Department appeared. He and Feng Xiang looked at each other, then issued orders directly with a low voice.

"All personnel immediately cooperate with the Investigation Department to quickly search for the base of the renegade Church of All Beings members.

Remember, once there is news, kill without mercy."

"Yes!"

Immediately, a murderous look filled the Internal Affairs Office.

At this time, Liang Sheng was no longer pretending to be unconscious.. Clear Wind looked at him and couldn't help a smile, "Are you still angry that I didn't meet you before?"

Chapter 375 The Cosmic Mustard Seed of the City Lord's Mansion, the Spinal Column of Heaven and Earth Breaks Through Again!

Liang Sheng shook his head immediately.

"If it weren't for the incompetence of the Internal Affairs Bureau Investigation Department, how could my Chen family end up like this? Moreover, if it weren't for the Left Envoy behind me, I'm afraid I would have died today, and how could I make the Investigation Department pay for it?"

That's right...

Qingfeng was very satisfied when he heard this and nodded, "Chen Quan, you are indeed loyal to me. Since that's the case, I won't let down my own people.

In a few days, I will give you a surprise. However, whether you can seize this opportunity depends on yourself."

As soon as Qingfeng said these words, Liang Sheng's heart swelled with the great fortune omen.

So that was it!

It seems that his opportunity should lie with Qingfeng. He couldn't imagine what exactly the opportunity that the other party was talking about was.

"But for these few days, you'd better stay here with me. As for your mansion, I will send someone to repair it.

You also have your family juniors to pick up, and you don't have to worry about them not having a place to stay. As long as your mansion isn't completed, they can be sent here. If something happens to my subordinates, I will take responsibility."

Naturally saying this, the Left Envoy looked at Huang Qiang and the others who didn't dare to make a sound, "Remember, as long as you are loyal to me, Qingfeng will always be behind you."

Huang Qiang and the others immediately paid their respects to show their loyalty. Each of them was resolute, and Qingfeng didn't say much, just telling them to do their jobs well in the days to come.

"During these days, Chen Quan will stay here and rest. Huang Qiang, remember to temporarily replace him and take care of the affairs of the Cleaning Department. Don't let the Internal Affairs Bureau catch any flaws."

"Left Envoy, rest assured, if something goes wrong, I'll offer my head directly without letting you lose face."

"What do I need your head for? You make it sound like I'm not approachable. Get going and do your own business."

In Immortal City, no one could have imagined that the final outcome would turn out this way. It can only be said that if a barbarian plays tricks, it's indeed difficult for others to handle.

At this moment, many people had a thought in their hearts. That was, unless it is absolutely necessary, they should never have a conflict with Chen Quan, the mad dog.

It seemed that facing the near destruction of the family juniors, "Chen Quan" the mad dog no longer had concerns about repercussions.

Now, this is Qingfeng Left Envoy's most powerful mad dog, who bites whomever is pointed at. Even the Right Envoy Ming Yue suffered a great loss and couldn't get any revenge.

This was originally the deadliest situation. After all, who dares to offend the Right Envoy unless they don't want to survive? But now, Chen Quan is extremely safe.

At least within one hundred years, Chen Quan will definitely be safe. As long as Chen Quan dies, no matter how the truth turns out, Qingfeng Left Envoy will definitely take advantage of the opportunity.

The two Envoys, Left and Right, have been fighting for thousands of years without a result. They can all endure it, so the impact of Chen Quan's affairs will gradually surface in the future.

At this time, the atmosphere in Immortal City was somewhat tense, with a somewhat suspicious feeling of fear. The various powers have been careful recently.

The Internal Affairs Office this time was an all-out attack. After all, the Right Envoy Ming Yue lost face. As their subordinates, how could their lives be easy?

The only consolation was the secretly hidden Church of All Beings. Fortunately, they had already gone silent and stopped all activities before this.

Moreover, because the Chen Family Mansion was completely destroyed, they didn't leave any trails behind. In a short while, they couldn't find any clues, and the Investigation Department was quite troubled.

As for the Chen family descendants in Lower City, they were also a little confused. They never imagined that it would be the Internal Affairs Office who came to pick them up, which was unimaginable before.

But with the Task Waist Token from the Internal Affairs Office, and three Nascent Soul Masters guarding them, in the end, they didn't hesitate and obediently followed them back to Sky City.

After all, if the other party wanted to harm them, there was no need to pretend with three Nascent Soul Masters. Their Patriarch's cultivation level was just like that.

On the way back, they learned that the Chen Family Mansion had been destroyed, and they were the only remaining bloodline of the Chen family. They found it a little hard to accept for a while.

But when they arrived at Left Envoy Mansion, they were even more frightened. They knew it was the Left Envoy's private Forbidden Area, but now they had become guests there.

Had the status of their Patriarch in the Left Envoy's heart been raised?

No one could answer that question, but while they were temporarily staying at the Left Envoy Mansion, all they could do was practice diligently.

The spiritual energy in the Left Envoy Mansion was so rich, and on top of that, the Left Envoy would occasionally have people send over Top-Grade spirit food, which made them feel extremely flattered.

Among these people, the one with the highest cultivation level was only at the early stage of the Golden Core. At this moment, under the supply of the Left Envoy, they would not miss the opportunity to practice hard and improve their cultivation level.

At this time, they suddenly had an extremely disrespectful thought. From now on, the Chen family only had them. Would their resource treatment in the future be the same as their current top-level configuration?

Maybe for the Chen family, being attacked by the Church of All Beings was a tragedy, but for them, it was a blessing?

No one dared to express this thought, but happiness was hidden in their hearts.

They are truly blessed!

At this moment, Liang Sheng was sitting on a cushion. At this moment, he didn't bother with anything happening outside. He honestly stayed in the Left Envoy Mansion and didn't go anywhere.

Even when the Chen family disciples from Lower City returned, he didn't show much enthusiasm. Afterward, he just hid in the room alone, as if he hadn't snapped out of it yet.

At this moment, he had already used his Divine Sense to sense everything, and he didn't find any surveillance Qi present..

Chapter 376 The Cosmic Mustard Seed of the City Lord's Mansion, the Spinal Column of Heaven and Earth Breaks Through Again!

At that time, he shook his head. He was accustomed to being cautious. How powerful was Qingfeng Left Envoy that he should have the confidence to feel that nobody could deceive him right under his nose?

However, Liang Sheng was no ordinary person. Under the concealment of the Attribute Panel, no one could see through his true capabilities.

Yet at this time, Liang Sheng also dared not act recklessly, especially as he still holds a Visualization Divine Method in his hand and is looking for an opportunity to cultivate it.

But he was still in the Left Envoy's mansion, and if he caused any disturbance while cultivating the Visualization Divine Method, he would be courting trouble.

Therefore, he still had plenty of time and was in no hurry.

As for humiliating Right Envoy Ming Yue, he was not worried at all, because both Left Envoy Qingfeng and Right Envoy Ming Yue had to consider the so-called bigger picture.

Under the leadership of the City Lord of Zhen Yuan in the City of Longevity, the Left and Right Envoys Qingfeng and Mingyue were in a deadlock, neither able to do anything to the other.

Their relationship was better explained in terms of the politics of secular power. Perhaps due to the passage of an excessively long time, they had long become accustomed to this power struggle.

After all, no one could get the better of the other, and that was why he could survive in this situation. Therefore, he was quite safe at the moment.

Even if someone wanted him dead, the first one to jump out and protect him would be Left Envoy Ming Yue, who was the least likely to want anything to happen to him.

However, “Chen Quan” had no way out now. He used to be Qingfeng’s dog, and now he is Qingfeng’s mad dog, with no way out.

But he was Liang Sheng. After this storm passed, what did the troubles caused by “Chen Quan” have to do with him?

As for the Chen Family’s disciples now residing in the Left Envoy Mansion, he was even less worried about them. Whether Qingfeng bought people’s hearts or took them hostage, it was irrelevant to Liang Sheng.

If the Chen Family’s disciples died, it would be even better, reducing some cause and effect, making it easier for him to break free from the cage of “Chen Quan”.

At this moment, what Liang Sheng looked forward to most was the surprise mentioned by Qingfeng. The last time he had such a strong feeling of a great fortune omen was when he made a breakthrough in the Beast Swamp to the middle Nascent Soul stage.

So what did Qingfeng have that could give him such a feeling of anticipation? However, Qingfeng said that the opportunity would come in a few days, so he decided to wait patiently.

Many times, especially with surprises, one should not be too anxious.

Five days later.

The Chen Family Mansion was completed.

This was the speed of the Immortal City going all out. A complete mansion has already appeared at the former location of the Chen Family Mansion.

It was even better than the previous Chen Family Mansion, as Right Envoy Ming Yue personally ensured the delivery of numerous top-grade materials during this period.

This made the spiritual energy of the Chen Family Mansion even stronger. However, Liang Sheng did not move into it, but Right Envoy Qingfeng arranged for the Chen family disciples to move in.

The servants of the Chen family had already been arranged by Qingfeng, and Liang Sheng naturally did not refuse this.

After the Chen family disciples moved into the new mansion, they were placed under house arrest by “Chen Quan”, and nobody was allowed to leave.

The reason was simple, the Immortal City was still somewhat chaotic, and the Internal Affairs Bureau Investigation Department and Factory Department were still searching for traces of the Church of All Beings.

Since this incident was caused by “Chen Quan”, the surviving Chen family disciples, not being stupid, decided to stay in the new Chen Mansion.

As for the outside of Chen Mansion, there was a Nascent Soul master secretly guarding it at this time. Because the security of the Chen Mansion was not only a concern for the Chen family but also to ensure Ming Yue’s face was saved.

If something happens to Chen Mansion again, it would truly prove the saying that the Internal Affairs Bureau Investigation Department was worthless.

At this moment, the people in the Internal Affairs Bureau were rather miserable, as many of them had received the assignment to protect the families of the Cleaning Department.

The Cleaning Department was quite proud this time. Each time they went out, they specially walked past the guards and secret inspectors of the factory department.

This made the people in the factory department feel rather humiliated, and they also held grudges against the Investigation Department. If they hadn't been so useless before, why would they have to deal with this mess now?

They were rather helpless. If the factory department had received the news earlier and stopped the incident from happening to the Chen family, why would they have suffered this humiliation?

However, under the arrangement of Ming Yue, the Internal Affairs Bureau was fully functional. So, the upcoming Immortal City, despite its bustling noise, was actually extremely safe and stable.

The Church of all Beings didn't dare to show their faces at this time.

On this day, Liang Sheng finally waited for the surprise he had been yearning for. Qingfeng had been quiet for a while, and he thought he would have to wait quite a while to see the so-called surprise.

However, just when he had calmed down, the surprise came unexpectedly. Liang Sheng followed the steward of the Left Envoy's Mansion to Qingfeng Left Envoy. When he saw the latter's smiling face, he knew something was up. "Chen Quan, the best I can do for you this time is to fight for this opportunity. However, how much you can get depends on your own abilities."

"Hmm?"

Upon hearing this, Liang Sheng was taken aback, but then he felt a force coiling around his waist. However, Liang Sheng forcefully resisted the urge to struggle, allowing the force around him.

Immediately, he was lifted into the sky by Qingfeng Left Envoy, heading directly to the City Lord's Mansion. This made Liang Sheng nervous.

Did the Lord of Zhen Yuan City come out?

However, when he landed on the ground, he found that Right Envoy Ming Yue had been waiting in front of the City Lord Mansion.

“Hmm?”

Seeing Liang Sheng for a moment, Ming Yue immediately understood what was going on and couldn't help but sigh..

Chapter 377 The Cosmic Mustard Seed of the City Lord's Mansion, the Spinal Column of Heaven and Earth Breaks Through Again!

“Daoist Friend Qingfeng, I was wondering why Chen Quan was willing to do such a crazy thing to offend me for you earlier, and now I see why. In this regard, I am indeed inferior to you.”

Upon hearing this, Qingfeng just smiled, “Bright Moon Daoist Friend, you think too much. Every hundred years, we have to do this, and we already know the results in our hearts.

It's almost impossible for me to advance further now, so why not give him an opportunity.”

Moreover, there are no outsiders here, and his previous actions show his loyalty, so he deserves to be treated this way.”

Bright Moon could not help but nod slightly upon hearing this, because what Qingfeng said made sense. In fact, he himself was well aware that it was almost impossible for him to break through with this once-in-a-hundred-years opportunity.

However, it was not that he was unwilling to accept this fact, he simply had no better options at his current realm, so why not try again?

Qingfeng was willing to exchange this for the loyalty of his subordinates. In this regard, he was ultimately more decisive than Bright Moon.

“Perhaps you are right...”

However, Bright Moon did not admit defeat. In fact, winning or losing at that moment had no significance for them.

As long as their cultivation levels were comparable, there would never be a clear winner or loser. Liang Sheng could also guess this from their conversation at the moment.

Although he didn’t know what the opportunity was, Bright Moon had clearly accepted the fact that he had been humiliated by them last time.

It was only right for the Left and Right Envoys to have their own foundation. Their path of cultivation was long, and this was just a small splash along that path.

At this moment, the main gate of the City Lord Mansion opened wide, and the manager of the City Lord Mansion appeared, looking somewhat surprised at the sight of the three people.

“Elder Xu...”

Clear Wind and Bright Moon immediately greeted him and bowed. Liang Sheng also bowed hurriedly, but he couldn’t help but sigh in his heart. It was no wonder that this was the City Lord Mansion, because the cultivation level of Elder Xu in front of him was not inferior to the Left and Right Envoys.

At this time, Elder Xu looked at Qingfeng and asked, “Do you really intend to let him go in for you this time?”

Qingfeng nodded, “Yes, as I understand my own situation. Going in this time will only solidify some foundations and have no great use.

This young man has shown great loyalty to me, so why not let him have a try? If he can seize the opportunity, then I will have another master under me who can better serve me. Why not?”

“Alright, since you’ve made up your mind, there should be no big issue in giving up your spot to him even though the City Lord hasn’t left seclusion yet.

I will take him and the Right Envoy in now, and you can go back first. After all, we don’t know how long we will have to wait.”

Qingfeng Left Envoy did not find Steward Xu’s tone harsh because it was indeed true that he was not suitable to stay here since he had given up his spot.

After thinking for a moment, he gave some instructions, “Chen Quan, don’t overthink anything. It’s your luck if you can get the opportunity, and it’s normal if you don’t. Just don’t feel any psychological burden.”

“Left Envoy...”

Liang Sheng pretended to be somewhat nervous but was interrupted by City Lord Steward Xu, “Alright, you guys can follow me now.”

After saying that, Elder Xu took the lead to leave. Bright Moon followed immediately, Liang Sheng looked at Left Envoy Qingfeng, and under his nod, he hurriedly followed them.

Immediately after, the main gate of the City Lord Mansion closed. Before leaving, Qingfeng suddenly had a thought. Could Chen Quan seize this opportunity and make a breakthrough with his cultivation level?

In this case, the Internal Affairs Office would lose one Late Nascent Soul Realm Feng Xiang and he would gain one Late Nascent Soul Realm Chen Quan. It would be a huge profit.

Were the results good?

Inside the City Lord Mansion.

Elder Xu led the way, and Liang Sheng did not dare to lift his head at this time. He appeared somewhat anxious, not daring to look at the surrounding scenery or even know what the layout of the City Lord Mansion was like.

At this moment, Bright Moon's voice suddenly rang out, "You're so timid, why were you so reckless earlier and dared to humiliate me?"

Liang Sheng was taken aback but did not hesitate to reply directly, "Left Envoy, you overpraise me. It was just a matter of serving our respective masters."

Bright Moon had thought that the other party would pretend to be loyal and devoted, or even ask for his forgiveness, but he did not expect him to answer so honestly.

For some reason, Bright Moon's killing intent had diminished a bit. He had felt this way before, after all, he was not born this strong.

Strength was the foundation for everything. All actions were backed by strength. With this in mind, he suddenly reminded Liang Sheng.

"This time, don't let Qingfeng Left Envoy down. I hope you can gain something and not return empty-handed."

After that, he did not speak again. Liang Sheng opened his mouth to say something but remained silent, following behind Elder Xu and continuing to move forward silently.

In a short while, they stopped in front of a small stone in a backyard. Liang Sheng was somewhat surprised, but in the next moment, he couldn't help but widen his eyes.

Did he shrink?

No.

It wasn't that he had shrunk, but that there was actually a high mountain inside the City Lord Mansion. Liang Sheng had never thought of this before, as he had not been able to see it earlier.

"Every time I come here, I am in awe. The City Lord's Mustard Seed Sumi Divine Ability is truly amazing."

Mustard Seed Sumi?

Divine Ability?

Could it be that the City Lord's Visualization Technique is accompanied by the Mustard Seed Sumi Divine Ability?

Chapter 378 The Cosmic Mustard Seed of the City Lord's Mansion, the Spinal Column of Heaven and Earth Breaks Through Again!

However, at this time, Liang Sheng could obtain very little information, making it impossible for him to judge the current situation. At this moment, Elder Xu pointed to the cave entrance ahead and said, "Alright, you can go in now."

By the way, I can give you some good news. It seems that there is a lot of Heaven and Earth Spine this year, far more than in previous years. As for how much you can get, it depends on your own luck and destiny."

Heaven and Earth Spine?

Another new term, which Chen Quan's previous memories didn't have any information about. Now Liang Sheng was truly dumbfounded.

What exactly is going on?

However, at this moment, under the influence of the Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil ability, Liang Sheng's heart still held four big words—

Great Fortune Omen!

Then Liang Sheng saw Right Envoy Mingyue step in without any hesitation, and naturally, he did not hesitate either. At this moment, he was even somewhat excited deep down.

What exactly is the Heaven and Earth Spine, and why does it give me such a great fortune omen? The next moment, Liang Sheng felt the world spinning.

When he came to his senses, he found himself in a vast space, surrounded by a gray haze that made it difficult to see the environment clearly without careful examination.

Hmm?

At this moment, a slightly puzzled voice sounded next to him. It was Right Envoy Mingyue who looked at him strangely.

"I didn't expect you to wake up so quickly. Is there something special about your Divine Sense?"

Liang Sheng's heart tightened when he heard this, but fortunately, he had a flash of inspiration and didn't answer. Instead, he shook his head after a while, as if he had just woken up.

He looked puzzled at Right Envoy Mingyue, who then smiled and thought he must have misunderstood just now.

However, this was the normal situation. He didn't expect that Chen Quan could still maintain a normal appearance when his mind was unclear, which showed that his psychological quality was indeed strong.

At this time, he ignored Liang Sheng and jumped into the lake in front of him. The water was faintly green, giving a sense of vitality.

In fact, no one knew how shocked Liang Sheng was at this moment, like a vast tide, because he had seen this situation before.

It was the oasis that suddenly appeared in front of him in the Beast Swamp, where the water was the same as it is now.

So, the energy that had allowed him to make a breakthrough to the Middle Nascent Soul Stage back then was the so-called Heaven and Earth Spine mentioned by Elder Xu?

However, the situation was different this time, as there were clearly traces of spells and divine abilities here, as if someone had used tremendous mana to create such a magical place.

Under the suppression of the mana, Liang Sheng put away the shock in his heart and then dived into the lake without any hesitation.

Since this was where he had previously gained the energy to make a breakthrough, what was there to hesitate? It truly was a great fortune omen.

The next moment, though, Liang Sheng felt that something was wrong. Previously, in the Beast Swamp, the majestic power had entered his body on its own, but now the lake water remained still.

He could still see Left Envoy Qingfeng swimming upstream, and he initially intended to catch up. However, at this moment, a flash of inspiration crossed his mind.

Previously in the Beast Swamp, he had subconsciously activated the Primordial Mysterious Technique. Since that was the case, why not try it again?

With this thought, Liang Sheng didn't hesitate. The next moment, as he activated the techniques within his body, the Ascending Immortality Scripture immediately transformed into the Primordial Mysterious Technique.

Immediately, a majestic power surged into Liang Sheng's body. However, this time, he didn't dare to absorb the power for cultivation, and instead attempted to store the Heaven and Earth Spine's power in his Upper, Middle, and Lower Dantians.

It was because he didn't want to cause any commotion in the City Lord Mansion. When he made the decision, his heart didn't hold any ominous warning.

Immediately, Liang Sheng joyfully noted that the majestic life force obediently stored itself within his Upper, Middle, and Lower Dantians.

There was no change in the outside world, which made Liang Sheng more at ease. He didn't expect that the spell method of creating this place would actually help him as well.

This was originally a method to suppress and collect the so-called Heaven and Earth Spine, but it also allowed Liang Sheng to absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine without causing any commotion.

Since that was the case, what was he waiting for?

In an instant, Liang Sheng's body transformed into a gluttonous divine beast, frantically absorbing the Heaven and Earth Spine within the lake water. At this moment, if someone could perform introspection on Liang Sheng's body, they would find that his Upper, Middle, and Lower Dantian were brimming with green light.

Soon, his Lower Dantian was already filled. Despite being a small Lower Dantian, the power it contained was probably half of what he had absorbed in the Beast Swamp earlier.

Yet, at this time, Liang Sheng was still continuing to absorb, and his Middle Dantian soon filled up, even more than the Lower Dantian.

Liang Sheng saw that there were still no disturbances in the outside world, and completely relaxed, continuing to absorb the energy. Soon, his Upper Dantian was filled halfway.

However, at that moment, Liang Sheng's heart suddenly stirred, and a mysterious force emerged. He did not resist at all, and in an instant, his internal Techniques changed into the Ascending Immortality Scripture.

The next moment, Liang Sheng returned to the outside of the cave from before, arriving back inside the City Lord Mansion, Elder Xu's gaze upon him slightly odd.

"Elder Xu..."

Liang Sheng felt a little uneasy under his gaze and couldn't help but speak up. Elder Xu waved his hand, "It's fine, since your fortune isn't enough, there's nothing that can be done. Go back first."

Immediately after, Liang Sheng felt his body wrapped by a force, as if he couldn't resist. The next moment, he was outside the City Lord Mansion.

Qingfeng opened his eyes abruptly, his face full of disbelief. Could Chen Quan's body attributes be incompatible with the Heaven and Earth Spine?

Why else would he be rejected so quickly by the Secret Land? Elder Xu had already informed him earlier, and although it was unbelievable, he arrived outside the City Lord Mansion in the next moment.

Qingfeng looked at Liang Sheng with pity but didn't blame him, saying, "Chen Quan, it seems your fortune is still not enough."

Perhaps out of disappointment, or fearing that Chen Quan might be depressed, Qingfeng went on to explain.

As it turned out, every one hundred years or so, as the Left and Right Envoys of the City of Longevity, they would have the opportunity to enter the Longevity Secret Land once.

There, they collected all the Heaven and Earth Spine within the territory, including those in the Desolate Regions. The Heaven and Earth Spine was a deeper level of power than condensed Spiritual Energy.

However, to absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine, one would need at least a Golden Core Realm cultivation level. Otherwise, without strength as a backing, they might be blown apart by the berserk power.

But if a cultivator's body attributes were incompatible and couldn't absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine, they would be ejected from the Secret Land.

This situation had almost never happened before, but now "Chen Quan" had become the first cultivator to be thrown out like this.

Liang Sheng naturally had a disappointed expression, but Qingfeng patted him on the shoulder, "Don't be like this. Even I only manage to catch a few strands of Heaven and Earth Spine each time, so that's why I said it's useless for my cultivation.

I originally thought that this time your body could undergo the baptism of the Heaven and Earth Spine, making your cultivation smoother, but it's a pity...

Since you don't have this kind of fortune, just let it go and don't think too much about it. After all, cultivation itself is about fortune, which should not be forced."

After that, Liang Sheng was personally escorted by Qingfeng back to the new Chen Family Mansion. Since the Chen Family Mansion was completed, there was no reason for "Chen Quan" to continue staying in the Left Envoy Mansion any longer.

Previously, since "Chen Quan" was sent to the City Lord Mansion to absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine, he was allowed to stay a little longer, but there was no need to do so now.

Qingfeng sighed inwardly, it was a pity that this good dog could not take on greater responsibilities and higher positions, since they needed considerable strength to match.

As soon as Qingfeng left, Liang Sheng immediately went into closed-door cultivation.

Because this time, he knew he was about to make a breakthrough!

Chapter 379 Breakthrough Nascent Soul Late-Stage, Contemplating God's Law Variation, Manifestation of Three-Legged Golden Crow (8k combined s for monthly votes)

Immortal City.

Chen Family's Mansion.

Having returned, Liang Sheng stuck to his old ways, as caution has been deeply ingrained into his bones.

Therefore, after returning, he did not impulsively enter closed-door cultivation immediately but first took out a top-grade spirit stone and used the most powerful means to set up layers of protection formations.

In this way, he can hide his Qi to the greatest extent. After that, he joyfully checked the situation within his body.

In fact, he was already somewhat unable to control the explosive power within his body, so as soon as everything was ready, Liang Sheng immediately entered closed-door cultivation.

As the Primordial Mysterious Technique within his body went crazy, he felt like he was back in the lush waters of the Beast Swamp Oasis.

In the midst of this vitality, a surge of monumental force that could split heaven and earth burst forth from the upper, middle, and lower Dantian.

Then, with the crazy operation of the Primordial Mysterious Technique in his body, every bit of energy stored in the Dantian slowly permeated every inch of his flesh.

Because once he entered the Qi Refining and Divinity Transformation Realm through ancient cultivation methods, Liang Sheng's physical realm was already different from modern cultivation methods.

He was now almost completely unified with his physical body and primordial spirit, except that his primordial spirit was akin to a huge Nascent Soul.

At this moment, like a starved man who was seeing food after days of hunger, he was crazily absorbing the power of the Heaven and Earth Spine from the upper, middle, and lower Dantian.

This cycle of cultivation passed without disturbance. In the blink of an eye, a year passed, and the divine sense of Liang Sheng, who was immersed in cultivation, gradually awakened.

No wonder the legend in the Ancient Cultivation World said that once you start cultivating, time flies. At this moment, he finally understood why.

Liang Sheng himself had not expected to be so immersed in cultivation that a year would pass in a blink of an eye.

This never happened before because there wasn't such an enormous source of power in his body or perhaps the environment of many hidden dimensions in ancient times was saturated with rich spiritual energy?

Not all was calm this year. The Cleaning Department and the Internal Affairs Office were in full effect, naturally to find the traitors of the Church of All Beings.

Halfway through, Left Envoy Qingfeng specially sensed the current situation of Liang Sheng; after all, the latter had suddenly entered closed-door cultivation for so long, so he naturally reacted.

But Liang Sheng was well-prepared. With the protection measures and the Attribute Panel Concealing Property, Qingfeng found no abnormalities.

As a show of appreciation for Chen Quan, he entrusted important tasks to the juniors of the Chen family. He placed all disciples of the Chen family in the Jin Dan Stage in the Cleaning Department.

Qingfeng's idea was simple. He originally allowed Chen Quan to go to the City Lord Mansion to absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine for a chance. He didn't expect it to end in disappointment.

Furthermore, coupled with the near-destruction of the Chen family, Chen Quan probably felt deep guilt towards himself. If he were stronger, perhaps these things wouldn't have happened.

If not for that, why would he suddenly work so hard and choose to close the door to cultivation as soon as he left the City Lord Mansion, and has yet to come out?

However, the path of cultivation is not gained simply by determination. He hopes that once Chen Quan finishes his closed-door cultivation, he can adjust his mentality.

Qingfeng's thoughts were also very simple, as he didn't want to lose such a suitable and obedient subordinate.

In the first few months of "Chen Quan's" retreat, Qingfeng still paid some attention to his movements. But in the following months, as "Chen Quan" didn't stir, he simply stopped paying attention.

After all, Immortal City was vast with many things happening every day. He was busy with foreign affairs, and also had covert fights with Bright Moon, so where does he have the time to worry about Chen Quan?

But he didn't do nothing either; he still instructed the disciples of the Chen family to work hard in the future, not to let down their Patriarch "Chen Quan's" expectations.

In this situation, when Liang Sheng woke up, it was finally time for his breakthrough.

At this moment, the feeling of increasing power in Liang Sheng's physical body was not very obvious, as after reaching the Qi refining and Divinity transformation stage equivalent to the Middle Nascent Soul Stage, his cultivation mainly used divine sense to feed the physical body.

Therefore, Liang Sheng had never felt that his divine sense was so strong before. In the middle of his brow, the sea of consciousness within the void had expanded by more than tenfold, hadn't it?

When the sea of consciousness expanded to its limit, there was a storm within it, like a raging sea.

But Liang Sheng was not at all panicked at this time, because he knew this was just a sign of his impending breakthrough.

Sure enough, when the turbulence in the sea of consciousness reached its peak, the entire sea of consciousness became extremely calm in an instant.

Then he could sense a peculiar force being born from the void and flowing into every part of his body from the sea of consciousness.

His body, which had already returned to its original state, sparkled with gold again, just like when he first practiced Hunyuan Xuan Gong.

This was the second breakthrough of the physical body after the last one had reached its limit, but Liang Sheng didn't have time to worry about these.

Because he was carefully watching a small lake that had emerged miraculously inside his upper Dantian.

This was only a phantom, but it was reflected in the sea of consciousness at the center of his eyebrows, like a spare sea of consciousness for Liang Sheng after he refined his Qi and his God.

Is this the anomaly during the Qi Refining and Divinity Transformation stage equivalent to the late-stage of Nascent Soul? Why is it so amazing?

Chapter 380 Breakthrough to Nascent Soul late stage, Visualization Divine Method Mutates, Dharma Form Three-Legged Golden

This was actually like a modern-day cloud server, with the Spiritual Sea as the main server and the Upper Dantian constructing a backup server, thus forming a cloud service.

In other words, his body had an additional backup perpetual motion machine, which could directly share power without using the body's Divine Sense and physical strength.

And it wasn't as simple as  $1+1=2$ , but rather it multiplied geometrically. Now, he finally had the real strength to challenge across great realms.

To put it simply, facing the Great Might of a Divinity Transformation

Spiritualist, he could now kill them without any accidents, unlike before when he could only preserve his own life.

At this moment when this thought arose, Liang Sheng couldn't help but open his eyes. However, this time, there was no brilliant flash moving heaven and earth; he still seemed ordinary.

However, if one looked deeply into his eyes, they could see that his eyes actually contained the universe and carried heaven and earth.

Reached the Ancient Cultivation Stage of Qi Refining and Divinity Transformation, Nascent Soul Late Stage!

This time was indeed a great opportunity.

Who could have imagined that in just three short years of entering the Immortal City, he had already completed the realm breakthrough that he had previously thought would take thousands of years!?

I, Liang Sheng, indeed have deep blessings and fortune.

At this time, he remembered the arrangements he had made in the mansion before and couldn't help but shake his head, feeling that he had done some useless work.

It turned out that after breaking through the Qi Refining and Divinity Transformation Realm, as long as the Divine Energy was integrated, he could already control his movements in the outside world very well.

So during this breakthrough, there was only a huge upheaval within his body, but there was no leakage of Qi at all, and it did not affect the outside world.

Modern cultivators under the cultivation method wouldn't be able to achieve the ease he was able to at the Late Nascent Soul Realm breakthrough.

After this breakthrough, with Liang Sheng's cautious nature, he naturally switched the cultivation methods within his body and didn't reveal any flaws.

Chen Quan's identity probably still had a lifespan of a thousand or two years.

He naturally wouldn't take this lightly, but as Liang Sheng was happy, he was very satisfied with the attribute panel data.

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 1054

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top-Grade)

Techniques: Primordial Mysterious Technique (Fourth Layer), Ascending Immortality Scripture (Seventeenth Layer), Twenty Life-Nurturing Techniques (Twenty-third Layer), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse)

Realm: Qi Refining and Divinity Transformation (Late Nascent Soul)

Lifespan: 41272

Finally reaching the Late Nascent Soul Realm, Liang Sheng couldn't measure his current battle strength. He thought about fighting the Left and Right Envoys and finally felt no sense of impending crisis with his auspicious ability to avoid evil.

It seemed that with his current strength, he should have achieved the true ability to challenge across great realms.

The ancient cultivation method was indeed the most suitable cultivation method for himself. Liang Sheng finally has the ability to protect himself in the Immortal City.

As long as the Longevity City Lord doesn't show up, he will basically not face any danger. When thinking of Longevity City and City Master Zhen Yuan, Liang Sheng still has a sense of ominous premonition in his heart.

This showed that Liang Sheng's current strength was still inferior to the Longevity City Lord and not an opponent.

However, with Liang Sheng's cautious nature and the fact that he almost never intersected with the Longevity City Lord, there wasn't any major problem.

After all, how could Liang Sheng take the initiative to deliver his head? Now in the Immortal City, he can eventually live a somewhat more carefree life.

It's a pity that he can't return to the Desolate Regions now. Otherwise, with his current strength, he would truly be carefree.

To return to the Desolate Regions, he has to go through the Teleportation Array, which can't escape the perception of the Internal Affairs Office. In order not to cause trouble, it is naturally safer to stay in the Immortal City first.

However, if he hadn't arrived at the Immortal City, he probably would have needed thousands of years to gain his current strength.

It can only be said that this move is a blessing in disguise?

At this moment, Liang Sheng was in a happy mood and had no intention of immediately leaving seclusion. After all, it was more appropriate to take this opportunity to advance further.

At this moment, his Divine Sense strength was more than ten times stronger than before. In just an instant, the situation within a radius of several hundred miles appeared in his mind.

The Chen Family Mansion was still operating normally at this time, and there was no abnormality. And no one was secretly investigating the "Chen Family Mansion."

Since that was the case, Liang Sheng finally felt at ease and took out the Visualization Divine Method he had obtained from the Church of All Beings before.

At this time, his strength had gone up another level, and he should be able to easily conceal his actions when practicing the Visualization Divine Method.

As his strength increased, he could now make better use of arrays and enhance his protection methods.

After all, when his Divine Sense was strengthened, his control over arrays became more and more natural. As long as City Master Zhen Yuan didn't make a move, who could compete with him?

If it weren't for the fear that City Master Zhen Yuan was still in closed-door cultivation in the Immortal City, Liang Sheng might have already let out a long howl to vent his joy.

In these three years of entering the Immortal City, he seemed calm, but he was actually walking on thin ice. Otherwise, he wouldn't have chosen to follow Qingfeng at all costs and offend Bright Moon.

Although part of the reason for this situation was that he felt a great fortune omen, it was also because he was sure he could escape from the hands of the Left and Right Envoys.

Of course, who would want to offend them without a threat to their lives?

At this moment, Liang Sheng shook his head, no longer thinking about these annoyances. Then, under his powerful Divine Sense, he enhanced his protective measures once again..
