

Bottleneck 441

Chapter 441: Living is Courage, Liang Sheng's Ingenious Method to Repair the Teleportation Array!

Kaiyuan Child was still in the Immortal City at this time, as his current task was to help City Lord Zhen Yuan survive his Fate Calamity.

This was their teacher's wish and Kaiyuan Child didn't dare to defy it. For a while, the whole Immortal City quieted down.

The All Living Beings Sect hadn't shown its face again, and before they knew it, ninety years had passed!

Liang Sheng hadn't expected the Immortal City to remain calm for so long. It could only be said that the All Living Beings Sect had suffered heavy losses and was determined to recuperate and regain its strength.

Lives of the cultivators in the Immortal City were unremarkable, with virtually no changes.

The cultivators in the Lower City were still striving hard in their cultivation, each wishing to make a breakthrough and reach the Foundation Establishment, to go to the mysterious Upper City.

The cultivators in the Upper City, living high and mighty, were still enjoying the best resources. Thus, the strong get stronger, and occasionally, a grasshopper would make a breakthrough and enter the Upper City, attracting envious glances.

But without the right opportunities, they would inevitably return to the Lower

City in disappointment a few hundred years later, and continue to pass on their teachings to next generations.

While the Zhou Family has been thriving recently, their bloodline has been suppressed by Heaven and Earth, resulting in a very slow cultivation speed. Although they have made progress from generation to generation, it's now only the fourth generation of the Zhou Family in the Immortal City, and there haven't been any significant changes.

Perhaps only after tens of thousands of years, could the Zhou Family's bloodline be the same as the natives of the Immortal City, no longer restricted by Heaven and Earth.

So the Zhou Family had long-term plans, carefully storing all the spirit stones and other Cultivation Resources they had previously brought from the Desolate Regions.

Every year, they carefully maintain them. Any item that is damaged or destroyed is quickly replaced and then carefully stored again,

This was their long-term plan to ensure that their descendants wouldn't struggle for cultivation resources. Even though their prime time had passed, they wanted to make sure that their descendants would be taken care of.

After all, they had already run out of hope. To put it bluntly, they were just waiting for death, so the Zhou Family's life had become increasingly low-key and cautious.

People like Jin Quanxiu and Huang Yifan also had no expectations at this time, their cultivation realms had hardly made any progress.

Given that, besides their daily cultivation, they have also begun to slowly enjoy life, with Shen Wuque still being the most open-minded among them.

Living requires adaptation. If you can't adapt, what use is such a long lifespan? They were already living in the Immortal City, and compared to the cultivators who were wiped out in the Desolate Regions, they were far luckier, at least they were still alive.

Being alive itself requires courage. Living in the Immortal City does not require aggression, nor does it require shouting.

If they were to shout, they would become like the practitioners of the All Living Beings Sect, who only resisted because they felt that their fate was unfair.

Perhaps several generations ago, cultivators in the city could obtain more cultivation resources and increase their cultivation level through hard work and ambition.

But now, such a situation is impossible. No matter how hard you work or how ambitious you are, without a family background, you can only rely on fate.

It's not to say that ordinary cultivators will always be rewarded with progress for their hard work, as they can hardly bridge the class divide now.

Just like the cultivators in the Lower City, they exhaust their lives just to build up resources, betting on the chance that they may successfully establish their foundation.

But for a Nascent Soul Master like "Chen Quan", spending a piece of mid-grade spirit stone on food and drink is nothing. They are on a very different level.

Ordinary cultivators, in truth, are just surviving with difficulty. Their greatest quality is their strong will to live.

Because a shortage of cultivation resources is sure to accompany them throughout their life, while the descendants of those high and mighty beings live a life of ease, their starting point might already be the endpoint of ordinary cultivators.

This might be why there are so many practitioners of the All Living Beings Sect. Faced with an unfair fate, they shout out their life's protests.

If you don't have the courage to protest, then just live a normal life. That's the only thing the Zhou Family can do now.

In this world, it's already a sign of bravery for ordinary people to continue living.

The Lower City.

Chen Family Manor.

At the moment, nothing much has changed around the Chen Family Manor.

With “Chen Quan” standing guard, who dares to be presumptuous around the Chen Family?

If one were to say there are any changes within the Chen Family’s territory, it would be that the spiritual fields within a hundred miles around have all become Chen Family’s properties.

This is not because “Chen Quan” forcefully seized them, but rather the proprietors of these spiritual fields actively chose to align with him. After all, it feels good to rest under a big tree.

With the protection of the Chen Family, these proprietors no longer need to pay taxes to local forces, hence their annual income is even higher.

Liang Sheng, of course, would not refuse. Given “Chen Quan”’s temperament, he wouldn’t refuse such a benefit given to him.

Unbeknownst to all, within several hundred miles, “Chen Quan” had become an uncrowned king. When he so much as sneezed, it would cause three rounds of reverberations.

Early one morning, as per usual, Liang Sheng leisurely left his home and went to the Gourmet Street that had come into existence because of him.

The faces on the Gourmet Street now were greatly changed; ninety years had passed, many cultivators failed to make breakthroughs, their lifespan exhausted, and they turned into dried bones, leaving no trace in the world.

The vendor at the wonton stall immediately wore a smile when he saw Liang Sheng coming. However, the vendor was no longer the Old Yang from before but Little Yang.

Decades ago, Old Yang found his Daoist partner and Little Yang was their blood descendant. Unfortunately, a few years ago, Old Yang exhausted his lifespan and died.

Thankfully, Old Yang left behind a business for Little Yang. This wonton shop, because of Liang Sheng's business, made Little Yang's cultivation resources worry-free.

Chapter 442: Living is Courage, Liang Sheng's Ingenious Method to Repair the Teleportation Array!

Little Yang was also very glad that he inherited Old Yang's skills. Even though he was only in his thirties, he had already reached the Qi Cultivation Third Level.

Perhaps in less than a year, he could break through successfully, with this cultivation speed having much to do with Liang Sheng occasionally patronizing their wonton shop.

After all, "Chen Quan" casually gave away mid-grade spirit stones, so how could Little Yang's cultivation resources be lacking?

At this time, almost the entire Gourmet Street was supported by Liang Sheng; after all, how many low-grade spirit stones could they earn from cultivators who visited their shops?

So, Chen Quan was the greatest fortune in their lives.

Of course, in the past ninety years, not only had Old Yang perished, but also many other cultivators on Gourmet Street were no longer in the world, having died in obscurity.

Since the Left Envoy eliminated Li Qiming's lineage ninety years ago, his position in Immortal City has been consolidated, firmly suppressing the Right Envoy.

Liang Sheng naturally rose with the tide, and he is now the First Vice- Commanding Officer under the Commanding Officer of the Cleaning Department.

However, “Chen Quan” didn’t seem to care about these powers; he hardly went to Upper City unless it was necessary.

But as long as someone mentioned the person most trusted by Left Envoy, the first name that flashed through most people’s minds was almost always “Chen Quan”.

After all, for the past ninety years, Left Envoy’s rewards for “Chen Quan” had been extremely generous. He even found the legendary Heavenly Maiden, who was best suited to be a cauldron, and gave her to “Chen Quan” as his Daoist partner.

Unfortunately, “Chen Quan” refused outright, saying that he only wanted to enjoy the secular world and had no desire to bear more cause and effect.

He still preferred freedom, but Chen Quan rejected Left Envoy’s kindness, which made Left Envoy even more caring and trusting.

After all, who wouldn’t like a subordinate without personal motives, and there was no need for worries when employing someone like Chen Quan, who had no family inheritance?

However, in the past ninety years, Immortal City had been extremely peaceful, and Left Envoy hadn’t needed to use “Chen Quan” as his knife. So, he simply let him live a carefree life.

Under these circumstances, Liang Sheng had gradually become the most untouchable person in Lower City, making Jin Quanyu increasingly afraid to show his face.

Otherwise, if discovered by “Chen Quan,” disaster might strike the Zhou family. After all, they were people who had escaped from the Desolate Regions.

At this time, Liang Sheng sat down at the wonton shop as usual, and Little Yang respectfully served the wontons.

Soon, Liang Sheng let out a satisfied belch, feeling extremely content. Little Yang had fully inherited Old Yang’s skills. Then, Liang Sheng threw out a spirit stone, and Little Yang was full of gratitude.

It's better for people to be muddled. Before Old Yang died, he didn't tell Little Yang about his identity or the Church of All Beings. Thus, Little Yang didn't know the hatred he carried.

Old Yang had actually died prematurely because of the hatred in his heart, the pain of seeing like-minded people tortured to death, and the sorrow that he couldn't escape.

Even cultivators should not be emotionally low; otherwise, their lives would be short-lived. In the end, it's better for people to be muddled rather than too sober.

Liang Sheng now casually walked out of the shop and suddenly smelled a strong fragrance, stopping in place for a moment.

He had never smelled such a fragrance before, so he couldn't help looking towards the source of the fragrance. It turned out to be a newly opened barbecue shop.

There was a burly man with a delicate face, now turning a huge grill with a Red Blood Bull on it.

A Third Realm Demon Beast.

No wonder the other shopkeepers kept their distance, not daring to offend the burly man. For a cultivator who could roast a Third Realm Demon Beast, how could they be offended?

However, it was still evident that the shopkeepers were somewhat resentful. Since they had already reached the Foundation Establishment, why not go to Upper City instead of coming here to compete for business?

At this time, Liang Sheng didn't hesitate and walked straight over, taking a look at the Red Blood Bull on the grill.

"When will it be ready?"

“Senior, please wait a moment; a quarter of an hour will suffice.”

The muscular man didn’t try to flatter deliberately, but his goal was obvious. Clearly, he was targeting Liang Sheng.

Seeing that Liang Sheng had sat down, he worked even harder. A female cultivator and a child in the shop quickly served dishes and a few cold dishes.

Liang Sheng didn’t hold back, picking up the chopsticks and putting the cold dishes into his mouth without considering if there were any problems with them.

With the Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil strategy, could anyone harm him directly? If it weren’t for the City Lord, Zhen Yuan, and Kaiyuan Child in Immortal City, Liang Sheng would be extremely free in Longevity Immortal City.

After all, both Left Envoy Qingfeng and Right Envoy Mingyue could kill him with just a punch!

Such was his confidence.

As soon as the cold dish entered his mouth, Liang Sheng’s eyes lit up; it was crisp and refreshing, extremely delicious, so much so that even Liang Sheng felt a little amazed.

It was said before that the structure and system of Immortal City were similar to the secular world, but due to the strength of cultivators, the quality of ingredients was different.

At this time, Liang Sheng was increasingly looking forward to the taste of the Red Blood Bull being roasted by the burly man, and indeed, the taste of the grilled Red Blood Bull did not disappoint Liang Sheng.

Liang Sheng never stopped eating, and in half an hour, the entire Red Blood Bull had entered his stomach, satisfying his appetite.

Satisfying!

“New here?”

Liang Sheng casually inquired, and upon hearing this, the muscular man quickly replied: “In response to Senior, I am Xiao Fan, originally from Upper City.

Because it was difficult to obtain resources in Upper City, after hearing rumors about Senior’s love for good food, I decided to come to Lower City to seek an opportunity.”

Chapter 443: Living is Courage, Liang

Sheng’s Ingenious Method to Repair the Teleportation Array!

“You are really an honest person.”

Liang Sheng nodded at the words. In the Upper City, every industry had its own experts and geniuses, and making a name for oneself was extremely difficult.

However, Xiao Fan, daring to take a gamble in his prime and move to the Lower City, proved his resoluteness. Moreover, he was wise and didn’t beat around the bush since he couldn’t possibly hide anything from him anyway.

Since he was smart and able to satisfy Liang Sheng’s appetite, Liang Sheng, who enjoyed a carefree long life, naturally preferred being able to taste delicious food whenever he wanted.

So, Liang Sheng didn’t think much. After getting up, he left without saying a word. The female cultivator in the house couldn’t help but feel disappointed upon seeing this.

However, the next moment, her eyes lit up, as there were now ten Mid-Grade Spirit Stones gleaming brightly on the table.

It's worth noting that a Red Blood Bull was just a Third Realm Demon Beast, and its overall value was only a few dozen Spirit Stones at most.

At this moment, she wanted to rush out and collect the Spirit Stones, but seeing Xiao Fan's sudden gesture, she secretly suppressed her excitement and held her son's hand as they waited in the shop.

Xiao Fan stood at the entrance of the shop, and the owner of the other shops didn't dare to make eye contact with him. After all, the big man was a Foundation Establishment Stage Cultivator, and they were no match for him.

Although they were envious that he had easily obtained ten Mid-Grade Spirit Stones, they still greeted him with a smile when they saw the big man coming over.

In Immortal City, after all, strength is supreme. Only then did Xiao Fan pick up the ten Spirit Stones and hand them to his Daoist partner. Patting his son's head, he couldn't help but laugh out loudly.

He was right to come to the Lower City!

What he said to Liang Sheng was simple. If he were able to stay in the Upper City, why would he come to the Lower City? He must have been unable to stay there anymore.

Before coming here, he had heard about "Chen Quan's" habits in the Upper City. As long as he liked the taste, he would visit the place multiple times.

Just like the old Yang, the wonton shop owner who had disappointed "Chen Quan" before, hadn't encountered any difficulties. In fact, he often patronized the shop, providing a stable family business for his son, Little Yang.

Upper City, I will return, and it won't be too long!

After calming down, Xiao Fan took out another demonic beast, quickly skinned and prepared it, and continued to grill it.

Apart from “Chen Quan,” he would also serve others. As expected, those cultivators who were surprised that “Chen Quan” had given ten Mid-Grade Spirit Stones at once could no longer control their curiosity and sat down.

The female cultivator led her son back and forth, busy with the work. The child’s cheerful laughter filled the entire barbecue shop in an instant, making people unconsciously relax.

Yaoxiang Pavilion.

As soon as Liang Sheng appeared in Yaoxiang Pavilion, everyone, from Old Turtle Public to Giving Bodhisattva Top Girl, came over to greet him.

In the Lower City nowadays, where could one find a more precious guest than “Chen Quan”? The answer, of course, was nowhere.

In the ninety years since, more than a dozen Giving Bodhisattvas have successfully achieved Foundation Establishment and headed to the much-coveted Upper City.

This made “Chen Quan” almost a legend, and no one dared to treat him lightly, because perhaps the next lucky one would be themselves.

At this time, Liang Sheng didn’t talk much. He directly pulled several familiar Giving Bodhisattvas and went straight to the VIP building prepared for him.

Yaoxiang Pavilion already had a tower exclusively for “Chen Quan’s” use. Even if “Chen Quan” didn’t come, they would still reserve it for him.

As for the Lower City cultivators, where could they dare offend “Chen Quan”? They could only look on enviously and not say anything.

If they achieved success in cultivation one day, they too would live a carefree life in the world like him.

A real man should be like that!

Ninety years had passed, and the events that had taken place in the Church of All Beings had long been forgotten. No one knew that there were people who had once fought for their future.

In fact, they were just ordinary cultivators who only wanted to become higher beings. Only with successful cultivation could they enjoy greater privileges.

After a night of debauchery, the bright moon shone high above.

At this moment, Liang Sheng pushed away several hands on his chest. Under his silent and unperceivable means, those Giving Bodhisattvas had already lost consciousness.

It was time to continue his work.

In these ninety years, Liang Sheng hadn't been doing nothing. In fact, he had been working on one thing – repairing the teleportation array left behind in the Mass Burial Mound.

Previously, when the Church of All Beings practitioners self-destructed, the teleportation array was completely scrapped, but its basic core structure was preserved.

Others might not be able to repair it, but it did not mean Liang Sheng couldn't. With the disguise of "Chen Quan" and cultivation resources equivalent to several sects, plus his Talent of Innocent Foolishness, rebuilding the teleportation array had become possible.

No one could have imagined that the discarded core frame of the teleportation array would be collected by Liang Sheng and placed under the Yaoxiang Pavilion.

If it weren't for this reason, why would Liang Sheng care so much about a tower that only he could enter and no one could enter during normal times?

All of this was just to conceal the truth. Liang Sheng closed the protective barrier he had prepared himself and looked down at the basement.

Even the Madame of Yaoxiang Pavilion didn't know about the secret beneath the tower. In ninety years, Liang Sheng's skill in refining array formations for teleportation had long been completed.

Today was the final step in repairing the teleportation array. If all went well, he would have his own teleportation array.

In this way, Liang Sheng would have an additional means of escape. In case an irresistible accident occurred in Longevity Immortal City, he could flee at the first opportunity.

What Liang Sheng cared most about was naturally his own safety, and being cautious had already been etched into his bones.

With a long lifespan, wouldn't it be a pity if he died halfway through? That's why Liang Sheng was in such a good mood today.

If not for that reason, even though the Red Blood Bull was delicious, would it be worth ten Mid-Grade Spirit Stones from him? It was all just because he was happy today.

If he couldn't share the joy openly with others, why not vent his emotions secretly?

At this moment, Liang Sheng tried to calm his excited emotions.

Repairing the teleportation array would be done today!

Chapter 444: Xu Jintian's Desperate Struggle, Immortal Dynasty's Spiritual Pulse Encounters Another Opportunity

Lower City.

Yaoxiang Pavilion.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was extremely focused, having already surrounded himself with layers of protective arrays, as he wouldn't allow for any accidents to happen here.

Liang Sheng formed hand seals and, while using secret techniques, conjured the materials he had already prepared in mid-air.

These precious materials circled around him, and Liang Sheng would carefully pick them without looking up to add them to the teleportation array.

Liang Sheng's every move was just right, like playing a pleasing musical piece, faintly exuding a unique charm.

However, Liang Sheng paid no mind to this, as to him, all worldly methods amounted to nothing more than mere skills.

Under the Talent of Innocent Foolishness, everything was no more than the result of practice making perfect – not to mention that Liang Sheng had prepared for ninety years.

Apart from occasionally being called to the Upper City, he had devoted most of his efforts to this task, and now the time had finally come for him to reap the rewards.

As Liang Sheng performed his hand seals, countless precious materials were placed into the array in an orderly manner.

Liang Sheng couldn't help but marvel at the strength of the Church of All Beings. If it weren't for their abundant resources, which were not used for setting up the teleportation array but for cultivating cultivators instead, they might have managed to nurture dozens of Nascent Soul Masters at the very least.

As for how they could have so many resources, it could only be said that Li Qiming and those with such selflessness were not few, and he had to thank them for their generous contributions.

Without the many cultivators who were supposed to enjoy the status of Higher Beings and who selflessly contributed to the Church of All Beings, it would have been impossible for them to create such a teleportation array.

However, while Liang Sheng admired their efforts, he didn't think about the fact that he alone had gathered all the materials, which was even more astonishing than the Church of All Beings.

At this moment, Liang Sheng pulled back his thoughts and didn't think any further, as only one last piece of material was left in his hand.

He held his breath and focused, and although he had already internalized the process by heart and mentally simulated it countless times, he was still extremely cautious and didn't dare to be careless.

As the last piece of the puzzle was completed, the teleportation array's patterns suddenly flashed with radiance, like a circuit filled with sparks, yet it was incredibly beautiful.

But this scene lasted only for an instant. At the flicker of Liang Sheng's thoughts, the teleportation array returned to its original state.

If the teleportation array was placed in front of others, it would appear ordinary and unremarkable now, yet Liang Sheng's heart was filled with excitement and surprise.

Because from now on, he had an extra means of escape. Although he might only be able to use it once, it provided another layer of safety and security.

Of course, it would be best not to use this teleportation array unless necessary, as his current life was perfect for him.

Undisturbed and carefree, he had nothing to worry about except for the possibility of City Master Zhen Yuan going mad. There was simply no danger at all.

To become a Divinity Transformation Spiritualist was as easy as overcoming an opponent with a single punch. But once he achieved great power and the right moment arrived, he would truly be free to roam the world.

Liang Sheng admired his masterpiece more and more, and when he was finally satisfied, he activated the Protective Array and returned to the ground.

At this time, the Giving Bodhisattva inside the tower belonging to Liang Sheng was still in a deep sleep, not knowing what miraculous occurrence had taken place in such a short time.

Liang Sheng laid down on the bed and recalled the teleportation coordinates he had memorized in preparation for the past few decades.

This was also thanks to the Left Envoy, as during these ninety years, he had almost completely suppressed the Right Envoy, allowing Liang Sheng an opportunity to look through the archives at the Internal Affairs Office.

Liang Sheng took advantage of this opportunity to find the teleportation coordinates recorded in the Longevity Immortal City, marveling at the fact that the number of desolate regions under the Longevity Immortal City had reached one hundred thousand.

If not for his successful breakthrough to the Divinity Transformation Realm, it would have been difficult for him to instantly memorize so many teleportation coordinates.

Of course, apart from the desolate regions, he had also memorized several special teleportation coordinates located within the territory of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty.

Previously, Liang Sheng had already thoroughly reviewed Chen Quan's memories, but Chen Quan only knew that the Longevity Immortal City belonged to the East Victory Immortal Dynasty and was unaware of the locations of other cities.

So relatively speaking, Liang Sheng had already taken a step further, as even if Chen Quan were to be reborn, he wouldn't have as much knowledge as Liang Sheng now possessed.

After confirming that there were no oversights, Liang Sheng closed his eyes and fell asleep. Having an abundance of lifespan, he should sleep more and waste some time.

Otherwise, indulging in pleasures all the time would eventually lead to boredom, as cultivators need to temper their minds by finding a balance between work and rest.

Moreover, having reached his current state, he could cultivate without rest while multitasking.

For example, at this moment, the Primordial Mysterious Technique and Lifespan Cultivation Technique within his body were running separately, making a clear distinction. It was only because of the excessive reluctance of the Talent of Innocent Foolishness that he couldn't feel progress being made every single day.

As Liang Sheng closed his eyes and slept peacefully, someone within the Immortal City couldn't sleep, and in fact, hadn't slept for ninety years.

A few days ago, another pillar of support in the Church had passed away, and his descendants didn't know that their father (or ancestor) was a member of the Church of All Beings.

Previously, he had underestimated the situation. They had once hidden in the darkness and hibernated for a millennium.

However, during that time, they were in their prime, with no worries about their lifespan, so they didn't think hibernation was an issue.

Chapter 445: Xu Jintian's Desperate Struggle, Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins Encounter Another Opportunity

However, now this realistic problem was right in front of him, and many were waiting, unknowingly exhausting their lifespan.

They still held onto the duties of the Church of All Beings, not revealing their identities in the slightest, but it wasn't the City Lord Mansion that brought harm – time was their biggest enemy.

So changes had to be made; otherwise, they would be pushing themselves into the grave of time without the need for City Master Zhen Yuan's intervention, leaving none behind.

Thus, since thirty years ago, Xu Jintian had been planning on how to deal with this crisis of racing against time.

The Church of All Beings must not perish in his hands-seeking the truth, being pragmatic, everyone like a dragon; this was the idea passed down through the lineage.

If there were no successors, this Immortal City would lose all hope, and after that, this city would remain where the strong stayed strong, and the weak had no chance to rise again.

This was not a reasonable world.

Why were they born as cattle and horses?

It was said that Chen Quan from the Lower City had, within just ninety years, occupied all of the spiritual fields within Fang Yuan for himself, wasn't it that he had already given up on cultivation in despair?

But this "waste" occupied so many resources, so how could ordinary cultivators with no resources who wanted to work hard and rise manage?

Thus, he could not wait any longer, Xu Jintian at this time slowly reviewed his plan in his heart, searching for the most appropriate time to take action.

Even if he died in the process, it was worth it, only hoping not to let the Church of All Beings slowly disappear as time went by.

They were like a spark, which could not be extinguished; otherwise, he could not imagine when the darkness would finally fade away.

Of course, he couldn't let the crisis get to his head; everything needed to be carefully planned.

Otherwise, other than sacrificing himself in vain, he wouldn't gain any benefits; but after thirty years of planning, his plan was almost perfect.

Almost there, almost there.

He must not be impatient.

Over the past ninety years, he had gone through countless records left by the lineage of the Church of All Beings, and finally found the answer to what the so-called Fate Calamity above Soul Emergence was.

Without this, he wouldn't have had the confidence to plan to change the current situation, after all, City Master Zhen Yuan was at the Soul Emergence level.

However, precisely because the gap was too large, for his plan to succeed, he had to wait for the right moment.

City Lord Mansion.

At this moment, City Master Zhen Yuan looked at Kaiyuan Child with a touch of reluctance in his eyes, but during the ninety years of peace in Immortal City, he had no reason to keep him around.

In truth, the Church of All Beings was somewhat beyond their expectations. They had not thought that the church could have such a strong execute force, staying in their normal lives as they said, which scared them a bit.

No wonder it was his Human Tribulation, but City Master Zhen Yuan was also a little confused; after all, Fate Calamity started, and tribulation was accumulating all the time.

However, strangely, City Master Zhen Yuan didn't feel any tribulation accumulating; this was not in line with the general rules of Fate Calamity.

City Master Zhen Yuan had even sent a communication to his teacher, who was far away in the Immortal Dynasty Capital City, but the teacher's reply was that he did not know the reason but could only instruct Zhen Yuan City Master to be careful and cautious, because according to calculations, his Fate Calamity was still brewing.

This situation made City Master Zhen Yuan helpless, but now he indeed didn't perceive any danger, as if Fate Calamity was paused by someone, so the more calm it was, the more panicked he was.

So he had discussed it with Kaiyuan Child before, not hiding anything, "Senior Brother, do you think this could be the result of the Church of All Beings hibernating and concealing themselves, so that I have no sense of crisis at all?"

Kaiyuan Child actually did not know much about Fate Calamity, after all, he passed through it while in closed-door cultivation.

Everyone's Fate Calamity was different, and circumstances varied, but generally speaking, the calmer it was before the storm, the heavier the rain.

So all he could do was let City Master Zhen Yuan stay as much as possible in the closed-door cultivation area, try not to move around, and ensure that his Qi would not stimulate the changes of Fate Calamity.

It could only be said that the Church of All Beings had previously gone too far; in these ninety years, it was as if they had never existed.

City Master Zhen Yuan looked at Kaiyuan Child with reluctance, "Senior Brother, it's been one hundred years since the last Spiritual Tidal, and the teacher said it's time for the Heaven and Earth Spine in the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins to surge again.

As Eldest Senior Brother, the teacher will summon you back to Immortal Dynasty to participate in the Grand Competition, I wonder if this time there will be a lucky one born?

I hope you have a chance in this competition, to make it into the top ten, and glorify our teacher's name."

For so many years, Kaiyuan Child had been with him, and City Master Zhen Yuan was filled with gratitude; he also knew that staying in Immortal City was far worse than being in the Immortal Dynasty.

This Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein's once-in-a-hundred-year Spiritual Tidal didn't have much attraction in and of itself, but it was related to the face of the senior authorities.

However, Kaiyuan Child shook his head, "I've entered countless times before, and each time my gains were not big, if I wanted to absorb more Heaven and Earth Spine, everything depended on fate.

So I might as well go back to cultivating normally, focus on refining elixirs for auxiliary cultivation, and not be obsessed with breaking through using Heaven and Earth Spine. After all, how many people can get what they want by just relying on it?

This time the teacher has already told me, the important thing is participation, don't take gains and losses too seriously, on the other hand, Junior Brother, you can give it a try.

After all, Immortal City is located on a sub-vein of the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins, so why not go in and see if there's any luck. If you absorb Heaven and Earth Spine, you'll have a higher probability of passing through this Human Tribulation."

Kaiyuan Child's words were quite reasonable. Heaven and Earth Spine was indeed a treasure of both Heaven and Earth, greatly benefiting cultivation, but to gain this opportunity, everything depended on fate.

Chapter 446: Xu Jintian's Desperate Struggle, Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins Encounter Another Opportunity

Upon hearing this, City Master Zhen Yuan was moved by Kaiyuan Child's suggestion, which seemed reasonable, "Senior brother makes a good point. Maybe I should go and have a look. Perhaps, just like Senior Brother, I might unknowingly pass through the Fate Calamity during my Closed-door cultivation."

Kaiyuan Child nodded. Cultivation is all about fighting for good fortune, and anything is possible with deep-set blessing. In fact, this also serves as a means of protecting Zhen Yuan.

After all, the Church of All Beings is currently concealed, and anything could happen. It's better to give it a try. This Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein has a Spiritual Tide Eruption once every one hundred years, which represents the opportunities of Heaven and Earth.

Since City Master Zhen Yuan had decided to explore the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins, he decided to exit his cultivation and summon the Left and Right Envoys.

"Both of you, come with me to the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein. Let's see if you can find your opportunity during this Spirit Tide Eruption."

The Left and Right Envoys glanced at each other and nodded immediately. At this moment, Left Envoy remembered the promise he had made before and noticed that City Master Zhen Yuan seemed to be in a good mood. After some thought, he decided to speak up.

"City Lord, can I bring my subordinate Chen Quan into the Spiritual Vein as well? After all, I promised him that as long as he found the clues of the Church of All Beings, I would grant him this opportunity."

Chen Quan?

Upon hearing this name, City Master Zhen Yuan instantly had an impression in his mind. It was this Chen Quan who had first discovered the clues of the Church of All Beings in the Lower City.

It was he who had opened the gap for the Church of All Beings. Besides, it didn't really matter how many people entered the Immortal City's Spirit Vein Branch Vein.

As a result, City Master Zhen Yuan nodded, agreeing to the Left Envoy's request. Right Envoy Mingyue also hoped to bring someone into the Spiritual Veins, but after some thought, he gave up on the idea.

Now, Qingfeng is the favored one, damn it!

At this time, Xu Jintian, the old servant beside City Master Zhen Yuan, suddenly stepped forward and said to City Master Zhen Yuan, "Master, I have recently felt an improvement in my cultivation level. May I also go in with you?"

Hmm?

Upon hearing this, the most surprised ones were actually the Left and Right Envoys. They, of course, knew Xu Jintian's cultivation level, which was at the Divinity Transformation Realm.

But they didn't expect that the low-profile Xu Jintian would actually come to them and possibly make a breakthrough before them.

No wonder he has been by the City Master's side since childhood. However, they have never compared themselves with Xu Jintian because it was simply incomparable.

He had been following City Master Zhen Yuan since he was a child and was his confidant and retainer. His status was not comparable at all.

Sure enough, City Master Zhen Yuan heard this request and agreed without any hesitation, not even giving it much thought.

"However, let's talk about this later. Today, I called you here to make some preparations. Tomorrow, I will bid farewell to Senior Brother Kaiyuan as he leaves."

Huh?

Xu Jintian was first stunned and then overjoyed. Heaven is helping me! Originally, he thought that the biggest obstacle was leaving. Now, he was wondering how to solve the problem in the Spiritual Veins.

At this time, the Left and Right Envoys also immediately obeyed the order, understanding City Master Zhen Yuan's intentions. He wanted to express his gratitude for the care shown during this time by letting Kaiyuan Senior leave satisfactorily.

As the left and right arms of City Master Zhen Yuan, they naturally wouldn't bother him with this, so the people of the Internal and External Affairs Bureau immediately got busy.

As for Liang Sheng, he was currently in the Lower City and received the order from the Left Envoy. He rushed to the Upper City immediately, feeling somewhat excited at this moment.

Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins!

Heaven and Earth Spine!

Left Envoy didn't deceive me!

Just thinking about the Heaven and Earth Spine made him excited. Was it possible that after ninety years, his cultivation level would explode once more?

Innocent Foolishness!?

Please call me the proud son of the heavens!

Liang Sheng also learned other news that before they entered the Spiritual Veins, City Master Zhen Yuan would first send Kaiyuan Child away.

For Liang Sheng, this news was like a double blessing.

The reason he was still somewhat cautious in the Immortal City was because of the presence of both Kaiyuan Child and City Master Zhen Yuan.

If there were only City Master Zhen Yuan-

Longevity Immortal City, my life is no longer in jeopardy!

Who in the world knows that under the ancient techniques, I, Liang Sheng, have already gained the battle strength to cross a major realm?

Even if I am not an opponent of City Master Zhen Yuan now, at the very least, I can escape safely. Kaiyuan Child's departure couldn't be more timely.

In that case, I hope he will never return. At this moment, the Immortal City is peaceful, and for Liang Sheng, it couldn't be more comfortable.

When Liang Sheng arrived at the Immortal City, he entered the City Lord Mansion on the next day, only to find that it was already filled with greenery and vitality within its territory.

Liang Sheng had never seen so many Nascent Soul Masters. At this moment, those without urgent matters in the Internal and External Affairs Bureau were gathered here.

It seemed that City Master Zhen Yuan wanted to express the greatest respect to Kaiyuan Child at the time of their parting, which was why such a grand banquet was held.

At this time, other Nascent Soul Stage True Monarchs looked at Liang Sheng who had just arrived, greeted him with a smile, and treated him with great politeness even if they were at the Late-stage Nascent Soul Stage.

Although their cultivation levels were higher, who could deny that "Chen Quan" was the Left Envoy's top confidant?

As for the Nascent Soul masters of the Internal Affairs Office, they kept their distance at this time, feeling helpless in their hearts.

For the past ninety years, they had been suppressed by the Foreign Affairs Mansion. Who could blame them, now that the Left Envoy firmly suppressed the Right Envoy?

Soon, the entire City Lord Mansion began to fill up with banquet tables and an array of delicious dishes, all of them top-grade nourishing food materials for cultivation.

Even Nascent Soul Masters couldn't help but praise City Master Zhen Yuan for his generous actions this time.

Chapter 447: Xu Jintian's Desperate Struggle, Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins Encounter Another Opportunity

On the surface, it seemed as if the two of them had no conflicts, but everyone knew how they were cursing each other in their hearts.

The Left Envoy strode over to the chief seat on the left and sat down without any hesitation.

He then turned his head to look around, and when he saw Liang Sheng, his eyes lit up.

"Chen Quan, sit by my side."

All those who saw this couldn't help but feel shocked inside, as the Left Envoy was being extremely affectionate towards "Chen Quan." Under the jealous gazes of others, Liang Sheng couldn't remain low-key and had to stand up from his seat at the last table, quickening his pace to the Left Envoy's side. The Left Envoy then pressed his hand down and made him sit down beside him.

“What, nervous this time?”

Upon hearing this, Liang Sheng immediately shook his head, “I am excited, subordinate. I can only shatter my body into pieces to repay the Left Envoy’s kindness.”

The Left Envoy seemed to be very satisfied with Liang Sheng’s words. At this point, he wanted to say something more, but seeing Xu Jintian within his sight, he immediately shut his mouth.

Since Xu Jintian was already out, it meant that the City Lord wouldn’t be far away. Soon, everyone was seated according to their status with the guidance of the City Lord’s servants. There were many people in the hall, but not a single disorder occurred.

When the entire banquet area quieted down, Xu Jintian walked to the front and shouted:

“The City Lord has arrived.”

Liang Sheng looked at the scene before him and couldn’t help but feel a bit disoriented, as if he was seeing a mundane world imperial dynasty, because they also carried the same manner.

However, the people seated here were all cultivators with great might. They could easily destroy a secular world dynasty with just the wave of a hand. Other than their strength, there was no distinction.

At this moment, City Master Zhen Yuan and Kaiyuan Child were already seated in front of the two chief tables. City Master Zhen Yuan directly spoke up without any nonsense.

“Begin the banquet!”

Upon hearing this, everyone below was taken aback, but seeing City Master Zhen Yuan raising his cup, they all hurriedly raised theirs as well and offered a toast to City Master Zhen Yuan.

After the first cup of wine was swallowed, City Master Zhen Yuan spoke up again, “Today, Kaiyuan Elder Brother is about to head to the Immortal Dynasty. Let’s all join me in a toast to Kaiyuan Elder Brother.”

Afterwards, the toast was offered again in unison. Kaiyuan Child didn't say anything and directly drank the wine from his cup. As Xu Jintian's voice initiated the banquet, the feast officially began.

Immediately, a group of dancers appeared in the hall. Liang Sheng could not help but sigh at the sight, thinking that the City Lord Mansion was truly extravagant.

That's because all of these dancers were actually female cultivators in the Golden Core Realm. Who else, besides City Master Zhen Yuan, could have gathered so many high-quality dancers?

As the others watched the dancers' graceful movements, they couldn't help but gradually relax, and the atmosphere of the banquet became more and more laid-back.

As the wine was served in three rounds and everyone became more pleasantly intoxicated, the Left and Right Envoys stood up almost simultaneously and jumped into the hall to seek pleasure and enjoyment with the dancers.

This move seemed rash, but deep in their eyes was an extreme calmness, as they were well aware of why the City Lord had organized this grand event.

Seeing this situation, Liang Sheng did not hesitate to reach out and pull a nearby musician. Since the City Lord wanted to see a harmonious and joyful scene, he naturally couldn't disappoint him.

Other smart people acted quickly as well. By the time those who reacted more slowly caught up, all they could do was watch them play and make merry while secretly sighing.

It was inevitable that these people would rise to prominence, but who could blame them when their own reactions were so slow? City Master Zhen Yuan and Kaiyuan Child both wore smiles watching the situation. They were very content. Only Xu Jintian stood beside the City Lord, unmoved and attentively serving them. The thoughtful among them could not help but sigh in their hearts that Xu Jintian was truly the City Lord Mansion's number one manager and the heart of the City Lord.

The banquet lasted for several hours, and at the end of it, Kaiyuan Child suddenly burst out laughing.

“Junior Brother, thank you for your hospitality. As soon as I complete the Elder’s task, I will rush back immediately. Don’t rush.”

Immediately afterwards, Kaiyuan Child’s figure appeared in mid-air. City Master Zhen Yuan also stood up and said loudly, “Elder Brother, have a safe journey.”

At this moment, the Left and Right Envoys had already abandoned the dancers and sat back down, also bidding Kaiyuan Child farewell. The others echoed their sentiments in unison.

“Senior, have a safe journey.”

The next moment, Kaiyuan Child disappeared from sight. Under Liang Sheng’s perception, Kaiyuan Child had already gone to the Internal Affairs Office’s Teleportation Array, heading straight to the Capital.

With Kaiyuan Child gone, the banquet naturally came to an end. At this time, Liang Sheng also bid farewell to the Left Envoy and stayed at the Foreign Affairs Mansion.

Afterward, he would have to follow the Left Envoy into the Immortal Dynasty’s spiritual veins, so he didn’t need to rush back to Lower City now and waste time.

As for Xu Jintian, after City Master Zhen Yuan left, he started to take care of the aftermath of the banquet. No one knew that behind his calm eyes, his heart was filled with rage.

Rich men’s feasting, bones along the road! What a world!

Today’s banquet consumed resources that could have made countless cultivators worry-free in their cultivation.

However, now this was merely the consumption of a single banquet. Nevertheless, such absurd days wouldn’t last forever.

At this point, he was already prepared for the next course of action, and he didn't expect his opportunity to come so quickly.

Thank the spirit tide eruption.

If Kaiyuan Child hadn't left this time, Xu Jintian would still have had to consider how to take action. But now, the situation couldn't be better for him. Although he was a Divinity Transformation Realm powerhouse, he could never go against City Master Zhen Yuan alone. However, just because he couldn't defeat him didn't mean he couldn't exacerbate City Master Zhen Yuan's Fate Calamity.

Chapter 448: Xu Jintian's Desperate Struggle, Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins Encounter Another Opportunity

Only when you die, Zhen Yuan, can this Immortal City be saved. Of course, Xu Jintian's plan will not let Zhen Yuan perish directly.

In fact, he couldn't make City Lord Zhen Yuan fall in an instant, but letting City Lord Zhen Yuan gradually perish would give the Church of All Beings time.

As long as they could transform the Immortal City before the Immortal Dynasty reacted, they could wrap themselves in the skin of the Immortal City and promote the equality of all beings.

By then, he believed that the reborn beings would not kneel again. Would you be willing to go back to a life worse than that of pigs and dogs after enjoying it?

As for the hounds and thieves of the City Lord Mansion, like the Left and Right Envoys, it was only natural for them to go with City Master Zhen Yuan.

If they don't die, how can the church members of the Church of All Beings proceed with the follow-up plan after his death? The more such people die, the better.

At this time, Xu Jintian slowly calmed down. At this moment, he couldn't reveal any flaws. After all, City Lord Zhen Yuan was not an ordinary person, otherwise, why would he be like this?

Three Days Later.

During these three days, Liang Sheng had an inexplicable feeling in his heart. Fortunately, it was not a sign of great misfortune, but rather the extreme of great fortune.

It was like a great fortune omen hidden within a misfortune omen. In this situation, Liang Sheng naturally kept an eye on Xu Jintian.

But at this time, Liang Sheng didn't find anything. He only knew that some information was seemingly transmitted halfway through by Xu Jintian, but he didn't know the content.

However, Liang Sheng was secretly extra cautious at this time. All he needed to do this time was to absorb enough Heaven and Earth Spine, and then leave immediately.

Anyway, he didn't know if it was because of the ancient techniques, but the Heaven and Earth Spine, which was difficult for others to absorb, was extremely easy for him.

Even in the past, because he absorbed too much of the Heaven and Earth Spine, he would be kicked out by the Spiritual Vein, just like a beggar who was despised at the door.

During these three days, Liang Sheng didn't do nothing. Because of his bad feelings, he specially prepared many means.

For example, he specially prepared a puppet. Once something went wrong, he could cast off his mortal body and escape immediately.

Although the Heaven and Earth Spine was precious, his life was more important. When he arrived outside the City Lord Mansion, the Left and Right Envoys were already there.

"Chen Quan, this is already your third time entering the Spiritual Vein, but I can tell you that the situation is different this time. I heard that the Spirit Tide Eruption might be your good fortune, allowing you to absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine."

A Spirit Tide?

Does that mean that the Heaven and Earth Spine in the sub-vein of the Immortal Dynasty this time will be even richer than before?

It really is a great fortune omen.

It seems that if Xu Jintian didn't have any schemes now, this time might truly be a great fortune omen for me.

Just at this moment, he was suddenly struck by an idea and saw Xu Jintian appear at the door, then come over.

"Left Envoy, Right Envoy, please follow me."

As for Chen Quan, a mere True Monarch at the Middle Nascent Soul Stage, how could he be regarded by Xu Jintian, the City Lord's confidant?

So Xu Jintian's attitude was the most normal, the Left Envoy gave a glance, and Liang Sheng hurriedly followed.

Then the three of them arrived in the backyard, where City Lord Zhen Yuan was already waiting. Liang Sheng couldn't help but be surprised. The City Lord was going in too?

The Left and Right Envoys knew about the discussion between Zhen Yuan and Kaiyuan Child, so they weren't surprised and their faces didn't change. Only Liang Sheng pretended to be somewhat anxious.

But no one paid attention to him. However, Liang Sheng's attention was always on Xu Jintian, but he found that Xu Jintian seemed a little disturbed.

He really is planning something.

Liang Sheng secretly prepared himself, watching City Lord Zhen Yuan wave his hand, and then they entered a strange environment.

Mustard Seed Sumi!

Seeing City Lord Zhen Yuan's means this time, although Liang Sheng had experienced it before, this time it was City Lord Zhen Yuan who personally carried it out, making it even smoother.

However, with all his strength, he should be able to escape, Liang Sheng secretly estimated, feeling that there was no big problem with escaping.

When they entered the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein in an instant, City Lord Zhen Yuan didn't say much. They were all people who had been here before, so why bother saying more?

"My lord, can I follow you? I feel that if I follow you, I'll have a greater chance."

Xu Jintian spoke, and City Lord Zhen Yuan naturally wouldn't refuse his old servant. He nodded.

He went straight to the deepest part of the Spiritual Vein.

Xu Jintian immediately prepared to follow, and the Left and Right Envoys were about to take a different direction, but Xu Jintian suddenly spoke up.

"Left and Right Envoys, following the City Lord is the most likely way to absorb the Heaven and Earth Spine. Are you going the other way because you think the City Lord's luck is not enough?"

Hearing this, Lord Zhen Yuan thought that Xu Jintian was defending his authority, and he didn't care too much, because this had happened before.

The Left and Right Envoys couldn't help but feel helpless. How could they dare to argue? They hurriedly followed as well. As for Liang Sheng, he naturally didn't dare to say more and secretly followed behind.

It was only at the point of death that City Lord Zhen Yuan would find out that there was a wolf in sheep's clothing beside him. At this time, only Liang Sheng could see the situation clearly.

Xu Jintian seems to be up to something!

Thinking of this, Liang Sheng secretly readied himself, deliberately slowing down by a few steps, distancing himself from them, and secretly forming hand signs.

As for the puppet he had prepared earlier, it was already set to switch positions with him in an instant.

This was also the reason why Liang Sheng kept some distance from them. After all, safety was the first priority, and this was Liang Sheng's first principle of survival up to now.

But when they reached the Spiritual Vein, Xu Jintian didn't make any other moves. The next moment, City Lord Zhen Yuan directly jumped into the Spiritual Vein.

Seeing this, Liang Sheng couldn't help but be taken aback.

Could it be that he guessed wrong?

When the Left and Right Envoys followed Xu Jintian and jumped in, Liang Sheng was far away and suddenly felt a twitch in his eyelids.

Here it comes!

Chapter 449: Ingenious Scheme Traps Zhen Yuan, Liang Sheng Invincible!

Immortal City.

City Lord Mansion.

A thump echoed in Liang Sheng's heart. Seeing Xu Jintian's reaction, he dared not waste any more time, even afraid he would be too late to act if he procrastinated.

After all, Xu Jintian wouldn't care if "Chen Quan" enters the spiritual vein or not. As soon as he noticed Xu Jintian's expression shift slightly, Liang Sheng immediately jumped into the spiritual vein.

The next moment, the violent energy of the Heaven and Earth Spine rushed directly into Liang Sheng's body. Having already broken through to the Divinity Transformation Realm, the capacity of Liang Sheng's three Dantian had enhanced even more than before.

Yet, due to the eruption of the Spirit Tide in the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein, his Dantian was instantly filled with the Heaven and Earth Spine.

Following this, he was swiftly ejected from the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein. At this instant, Liang Sheng immediately made a move using his mind, a puppet he had prepared earlier appeared in his place.

Just at this time, Xu Jintian had also started his move. Liang Sheng immediately shattered the puppet within the spiritual vein.

The Left and Right Envoys had no time to react at this point. After all, with the outbreak of the Spirit Tide in the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein, their Divine Sense wasn't as keen as usual.

They just suddenly saw "Chen Quan" shatter instantly while City Master Zhen Yuan, being a Soul Emergence power, sensed with more sensitivity.

But before he had the chance to see clearly what was happening, Xu Jintian was already preparing to take action.

Because "Chen Quan" was shattered and prompted City Master Zhen Yuan to look back, Xu Jintian thought his minor manipulation had been noticed by City Master Zhen Yuan.

“Move!”

In an instant, a formation disk suddenly appeared on Xu Jintian, exuding an inexplicable Qi, pervading the whole space.

The unexpected situation appeared in front of City Master Zhen Yuan and his group. Before they could react, Xu Jintian continued to activate the array.

In the flickering light of the array patterns, a barrier array with enormous power had already encased everyone.

City Master Zhen Yuan’s pupils contracted at the sight, his face filled with disbelief. Was his loyal servant who had been by his side all this time betraying him?

If Xu Jintian had no ulterior motive for this situation, could there be any other reasons? Even a fool wouldn’t believe it.

The Left and Right Envoys, observing the array surrounding them, reacted instantly, but it was already too late for them to escape.

Their shock was no less than that of City Master Zhen Yuan. They might doubt anyone, even themselves, but they had never doubted Xu Jintian.

Xu Jintian had been brought up by City Master Zhen Yuan as a household slave and had worked his way up from among countless household slaves.

There were countless times where they shared in glory and disaster with City Master Zhen Yuan, but the most unlikely person to betray City Master Zhen Yuan had now betrayed him, leaving City Master Zhen Yuan in disbelief.

Therefore, Clear Wind and Bright Moon were almost stupefied. Due to this, they focused almost all their attention on Xu Jintian, and did not notice the abnormality in Liang Sheng’s actions.

Because when Xu Jintian had made his move earlier, “Chen Quan” shattered. It seemed like Xu Jintian had directly dealt with the insignificant Middle Nascent Soul Stage “Chen Quan”, causing him to fall within the spiritual vein.

After all, the scene of Liang Sheng’s puppet being destroyed instantly, although it happened in an instant, its final shattering had been seen by them.

If it had been under normal circumstances, Liang Sheng’s trick might not have been perfect. Even if he could deceive the Left and Right Envoys, he probably couldn’t deceive City Master Zhen Yuan.

All it could be said was that everything was a coincidence. The timing chosen by Liang Sheng was just right, allowing him to escape the vortex of complex circumstances without arousing any suspicion from City Master Zhen Yuan and his people.

The scene within the spiritual vein after Xu Jintian’s move was also appearing in the Divine Sense of Liang Sheng, who had then retreated to the City Lord Mansion.

Liang Sheng had done this deliberately. He had concealed a trace of his Divine Sense in the puppet.

So, although it seemed like the puppet had collapsed, in reality, it concealed Divine Sense, lurking among the debris to observe the changing situation.

It’s a good thing I ran fast.

At this time, his Divine Sense was “watching” the situation within the spiritual vein. Due to the massive shock caused by Xu Jintian’s array, Liang Sheng was filled with relief.

Although he was not on the scene and did not know the exact power of Xu Jintian’s array, Liang Sheng still believed it would be better not to provoke if it wasn’t necessary.

Once he confirmed that his Divine Sense was still present, Liang Sheng did not hesitate to head towards the Lower City.

At this time, the people in Immortal City with the highest level of cultivation were all trapped in the sub-vein of Immortal Dynasty. Who could find traces of Liang Sheng?

Liang Sheng quickly arrived at the Lower City of Immortal City, but he did not come to the Chen Family Manor. Instead, he hid not far from Yaoxiang Pavilion.

If any accident occurred, he would promptly use the Teleportation Array to leave. If it weren't for the explosive power of the Heaven and Earth Spine in his body at this moment, he would already be meditating and cultivating.

Safety first, after all.

City Lord Mansion.

At this moment, no one knew that the sub-vein of the Immortal Dynasty spiritual vein in the backyard of the city was already covered by an array. City Master Zhen Yuan, seeing the means of Xu Jintian, couldn't help but sneer in rage.

"Xu Jintian, I've always been kind to you. Why did you do this?"

"Who said I am Xu Jintian?"

The moment these words left Xu Jintian, they made City Master Zhen Yuan incredulous. In this stupefied moment, a glimmer of light flashed from the formation disk in Xu Jintian's hand, directly diving into the spiritual vein.

The array barrier glowed brightly, completely enveloping City Master Zhen Yuan and the rest. Seeing this situation, the Left and Right Envoys couldn't help but feel nervous.

When they saw City Master Zhen Yuan in front of them, they couldn't help but attempt to test the strength of the barrier, only to find that breaking this barrier was not an easy task.

Chapter 450: An Ingenious Plan to Trap Zhen Yuan, Liang Sheng is Invincible!

City Master Zhen Yuan was filled with anger just now, but he calmed down at this moment. For a mere Divinity Transformation Realm, why panic?

He was so composed because he knew that the array barrier couldn't trap him.

What he cared more about was figuring out who Xu Jintian was!

"You are not Xu Jintian!? This is impossible. Old Xu's Life Token has never been shattered, so how could you replace him if he hasn't died?

But if Old Xu is dead and the Life Token is intact, when did you betray us? Your tactics are so impressive that even I have to admire."

Seeing that City Master Zhen Yuan still seemed to be bantering with Xu Jintian, the Left and Right Envoys couldn't help but be impatient. If it weren't for their concern for the City Master's authority, they would probably have already reminded him to focus.

What's the point of talking to Xu Jintian now? They should break the array barrier quickly and then escape.

But City Master Zhen Yuan was still staring at Xu Jintian without making any move to retrieve his weapon. Xu Jintian couldn't help but laugh.

"Zhen Yuan Dog Thief, is there any possibility that Xu Jintian's Life Token was actually indexed with my information from the very beginning?

After all, Xu Jintian was just a small servant back then, and you were prone to raising parasites. How could you have personally recorded the information of these little slaves?"

Upon hearing this, City Master Zhen Yuan immediately figured out what was going on. It turned out that the traitor was hidden among his servants.

Therefore, the real Xu Jintian might have already passed away, and it was clear that back then, there was more than just one imposter.

It was as if the opponent also raised parasites. Whoever kept breaking through would become the final spy, making himself believe without a doubt.

Church of All Beings, such a clever plan!

This made City Master Zhen Yuan feel afraid. This matter must not be planned by just one person, which means there may be more hidden agents of the Church of All Beings around him.

Once he is out, he would Soul Search the entire City Lord Mansion. Since Life Tokens cannot be trusted, they could only rely on this method to identify the spies.

“Impressive, it’s because of spies like you that we have ended up in this situation. I wonder how a mere Church of All Beings could always be one step ahead of me in every action.”

Finally, City Master Zhen Yuan stopped talking and took action in his rage. The array barrier set up by Xu Jintian just now was instantly shattered.

Seeing this, the Left and Right Envoys were overjoyed. As long as City Master Zhen Yuan could break the opponent’s array, their safety was no longer a concern.

But at the next moment, their faces changed. Xu Jintian actually didn’t care about it, he wasn’t even a bit uneasy and even had a smile on his lips.

“Zhen Yuan Dog Thief, I didn’t expect you would actually dare to attack me? You think that my array can actually trap you?

If so, why would I wait until now?"

Hm?

What did Xu Jintian mean by that? He dared to set this trap, and now that the City Master has taken action, is there a problem?

City Master Zhen Yuan's heart also thudded at this moment, feeling something was wrong, but since he had already taken action, he naturally did not hesitate for fear of inviting more trouble during the night.

As long as Xu Jintian was dead, would there still be any need to worry about anything else?

But at the moment when City Master Zhen Yuan attacked, Xu Jintian unexpectedly took out five knives and, without any hesitation, stabbed them into his heart, liver, spleen, lungs, and kidneys.

"Five Elements Summoning Yin and Yang!"

Xu Jintian's body swelled rapidly, and his aura changed in an instant. The Left and Right Envoys' faces changed, for they could not mistake this aura.

Desolate Aura!

Immediately following that, as blood seeped out from Xu Jintian's internal organs, the whole person seemed incredibly ghostly.

As the Desolate Aura pervaded, even the eruption of the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins and Spiritual Tide couldn't suppress the violent aura on Xu Jintian's body.

At this time, the Left and Right Envoys felt somewhat oppressed by the aura, but they didn't feel too worried, because Xu Jintian's aura didn't suppress them too much.

Not like the City Master!

But they did not see the City Master's pale face. Because his heartbeat had suddenly sped up, it was as if a giant drum was being struck in his chest.

At this moment, he felt an inexplicable aura pervade between heaven and earth within the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins, and his tempo matched this aura, feeling uneasy and palpitations throughout his whole body.

Before he could react, Xu Jintian suddenly smiled sinisterly at him, and then the entire Spiritual Veins Spirit Tide suddenly started to ripple.

They saw that in the Spiritual Veins, a few Heaven and Earth Spine suddenly appeared and rushed directly towards Xu Jintian, which instantly dumbfounded the Left and Right Envoys.

City Master Zhen Yuan recalled a rumor that Wilderness was more likely to absorb Heaven and Earth Spine, which was why Heaven and Earth abhorred it.

It was like a parasite on a person's body. According to the records of the Immortal Dynasty, the Wilderness was a parasitic creature that lived between heaven and earth and devoured the essence of Heaven and Earth.

With the Heaven and Earth Spine absorbed, Xu Jintian's aura rapidly weakened, but he still didn't care and continued to devour it.

What did Xu Jintian want to do?

City Master Zhen Yuan was increasingly uneasy in his heart. Finally, he no longer held back. Feeling that he had no chance if he didn't take action now, he decided to put an end to it all.

To the surprise of the Left and Right Envoys watching, Xu Jintian, facing the attack, didn't dodge or avoid it and took the City Master's palm head-on.

This was a full-strength blow from the Soul Emergence power, but Xu Jintian still bore it with a strange smile on his face. His five knives left his body and instantly formed the Formless Mutual Birth Array.

Then, with the Spiritual Veins Spirit Tide already erupting, it formed a cycle of Yin and Yang reincarnation, as Heaven and Earth Spine gathered directly.

If it were usual, the Left and Right Envoys would be overjoyed since this was Heaven and Earth Spine. But now, all they felt was chills running down their spines.</p
