

Bottleneck 471

Chapter 471: Spy vs. Spy, Liang Sheng

Watches, A Great Show Begins

Sigh-

Can the Church of All Beings really make the tough decision to amputate the arm to save the body?

He is hesitant to act now, not because he himself cannot control the situation in Longevity Immortal City, but because he fears the turmoil in the East Victory Immortal Dynasty as shown in the obscured Heavenly Secrets picture.

He is not truly invincible, but if the worst-case scenario were to happen, Liang

Sheng would have no choice but to resort to a killing spree, breaking the measures set up by Xu Jintian.

By that time, he would simply use the teleportation array of Yaoxiang Pavilion to leave Longevity Immortal City directly, who could stop him?

But then, he would have to find a new place to live, understand the situation once again, avoid the pursuit of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty, and live extremely cautiously.

So, he still hopes to stay in Longevity Immortal City, carefree and free-spirited, being a mortal immortal, living forever, and not bothering about anything else in front of this goal.

At this moment, Liang Sheng looks in a certain direction in the immortal city, and his eyes brighten involuntarily. There are still such great selfless fools in the world after all.

He couldn't be that selfless, admiring in his heart. With that thought, he closely watches the development of the situation, hoping for the best outcome.

Huang Qiang's Mansion.

As he returned, other family decision-makers who had previously gathered also arrived one after another, "Brother Huang, how is the situation?"

Huang Qiang can't help but shake his head, recounting today's events. After listening, the others can't help but look at each other.

The Church of All Beings actually allows people to appear so openly and legitimately. Thankfully, they are "on their side," so it serves as a wake-up call for them.

It seems that the Church of All Beings is more decisive than they imagined, otherwise they would not let someone appear in the open. They just don't know what they will do next and hope the cloaked mysterious man will send the intelligence soon.

"However, this also shows that the rebels of the Church of All Beings are now trying to eliminate unstable factors. Since that is the case, we can't give them more time to prepare."

"Indeed, it's time for us to take action. If we let the rebels of the Church of All Beings recover and suppress this unrest, it would be hard to find such an opportunity in the future."

"That's right. Since we have no way back, let's make an all-out effort. Brother Huang, report the situation to the higher-ups and see how they decide."

They are actually somewhat afraid of the Church of All Beings, after all, the upheaval of more than a hundred years ago is still fresh in their minds. At that time, who could have imagined that the Church of All Beings could destroy the City Lord Mansion overnight?

If it were not for the Church's failure to evolve, whether they could have survived until now would still be a question. But now, taking advantage of the cultivators' selfishness, the Church of All Beings has completed its infiltration, and they can't get off the ship anymore.

“Everyone, rest assured, wait for the news from that person first, I will inform everyone once there is a result. But looking at the results of everyone lobbying the Daoist friends, the scales will eventually tip to our side. After all, how many selfless fools can there be in the world?”

Just as he said this, Huang Qiang’s mouth slightly lifted, and he had received a reply to his earlier communication report.

“Everyone, the higher-ups have sent news, and it’s finally time for our counterattack.”

The Church of All Beings.

As Huang Qiang and the others gathered, the cloaked mysterious man was also reporting the situation to the Church of All Beings’ upper echelons.

All the people here were Nascent Soul Realm masters, the core members of the Church of All Beings. They had also been in contact with high-level cultivators who had no affiliations with the City Lord Mansion these past days.

However, most people’s attitudes were ambiguous, as they seemed to want to wait for the outcome before deciding how to act, so the situation was not favorable for them.

If the chaos in the immortal city continues, it will definitely cause irreparable damage to the peaceful environment that the Church of All Beings had created before.

At this moment, a voice comes from the shadows.

“If that’s the case, we must not make the same mistakes again. The idea of relying on human nature to voluntarily restrain themselves has completely failed.

If we successfully get through this crisis, we must learn from this experience and implement corresponding measures.

In the future, the important cultivation resources in Longevity Immortal City must be controlled by us and then distributed uniformly.

Although it may be troublesome at first, the results of laissez-faire have been made clear now.

If we don't do this, we would be handing knives to the hounds of the City Lord Mansion and personally ending the future of our Church of All Beings.

Humans can't be relied upon, and ideological transformation is necessary. After all, in the past hundred years, even some of our brothers in the Church have wavered in their determination and have changed their thinking.

If we don't set the rules next time, this immortal city will end up just like when Zhen Yuan, the dog thief, ruled. At that time, there will only be a new batch of higher beings, and the general cultivators will once again become indifferent and consider only their own interests.

I absolutely will not allow this situation to occur. The blood of our many ancestors must not be shed in vain. Even if we die, we must guard the bottom line of the immortal city and ensure there are no more higher beings in the world."

The core members of the Church of All Beings who heard this had flushed faces, their blood boiling. They can't be merciful again this time and leave the City Lord Mansion's dangers behind.

Just as this was happening, the cloaked mysterious man who had met with Huang Qiang suddenly sensed something in his heart.

Huang Qiang's communication had arrived.

Liang Sheng, who was far away, showed a smile. Surprisingly, the situation was developing in the best possible way, which was somewhat unexpected for him.

In that case...

The great show is about to begin!

Chapter 472: The Final Battle, Unexpected

Turn of Events

Immortal City.

The Church of All Beings has actually taken action.

The remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion could never have imagined that the Church would take the initiative to send people, colluding with rogue cultivators to assault innocent cultivation families, and snatch cultivation resources.

And, during their offensive, the people of the Church acted as brave front runners, not fearing death, and even shared the spoils very fairly after the act.

Hence in just three short days, they gained some prestige among the rogue cultivators and soon became leaders of some rogue cultivation groups.

The remnants of the City Lord Mansion still had the same issues, they had been high above for too long, they did not even grasp the changes taking place at the grassroots level.

They only saw the vigorous actions of the rogue cultivators in the Immortal City, thrilled to the core, they had no idea that the essence of the matter had changed.

Meanwhile, Liang Sheng, who was silently monitoring everything, heaved a sigh of relief as the decision made by the Church of All Beings had taken him by surprise.

However, at this rate, Liang Sheng couldn't figure out – what had these top echelons of the Church been doing for over a hundred and twenty years previously?

If they had demonstrated the ability to adapt and make swift decisions back then, they wouldn't have allowed the remnants of the City Lord Mansion to find loopholes, resulting in the current deadlock.

But it isn't too late to change now, after all, it appears that the situation in the Immortal City is developing in a positive direction.

Liang Sheng naturally rejoiced at this change, because a stable Immortal City was the most favorable situation for him.

With the Talent of Innocent Foolishness, he only needed to cultivate in peace. Someday, he could stand on the apex and no longer act cautiously; he could truly be free and immortal.

At this moment, no one dared to disturb him at the estate. As long as his "true depth" remained unknown, neither the Church of All Beings nor the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion would rashly act against him.

Of course, once the dust settles regardless of who emerges victorious, they will likely probe Liang Sheng.

Under the surveillance of Liang Sheng's Divine Sense, Huang Qiang, who was currently hiding in the dark, began to grow excited, as the Cloaked Mysterious Man that they were collaborating with finally sent some news.

The man did not disappoint them, the action was impressively fast and yielded big results. In return, he could not let down the information that the man had risked his life to smuggle out.

Next, Huang Qiang planned to act according to plan, exposing the names of the core members of the Church that the mysterious people had divulged and apprehending them all at once.

Let's just add a bit more chaos to Immortal City.

Immediately after reporting to the upper echelons, Huang Qiang led his people, alongside the rogue cultivators, to target the crowd listed in the name list.

And those of the Church who had infiltrated among the rogue cultivators surprisingly coordinated perfectly with Huang Qiang's action, leading their influenced groups to charge at the cultivation families that were secretly part of the Church.

Such a move of letting the wolf devour the tiger, the top echelons of the Church of All Beings sure play wonderfully well.

Liang Sheng couldn't help but sigh inwardly. The remnants of the City Lord Mansion were probably still reveling, ignorant of the fact that they had indirectly become the accomplice and had aided the Church's purging process. Because the truth is, these Church cultivation families targeted for assault in reality, their hearts have long since changed due to the decadence over a hundred years.

They were no longer the passionate warriors who would risk their lives for a world where "Everyone is like a dragon". Now, they have become just like the people they once despised.

The Cloaked man's scheme of shifting objects and scenes managed to solidify his standing in the remaining forces of City Lord Mansion, eliminating all suspicions.

Because this time he 'betrayed' the Church of All Beings in a very real way, the list provided was without any issues.

Perhaps the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion were still complacent, believing that their overtly plotted move must have the Church being somewhat at a loss,

Because the rogue cultivators in the Immortal City were in chaos and continuous incidents occurred to the people of their Church, yet they could not trace any signs of being plotted against.

They were probably still wondering what's happening – why are their church attendees so unlucky to be continuously targeted by rogue cultivators?

At this moment, Huang Qiang was feeling nothing but sheer delight. Next, they naturally spared no effort to continue using the names provided by the mysterious man to weaken the strength of the Church.

As the time is pressing next, although they currently have an upper hand, if it continues like this, the Church will surely respond.

By no means should they consider the Church as fools, it's just that they have been caught off guard only temporarily. Once they regain their composure, they won't get such an opportunity again.

At present, the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion believed they had the upper hand, ramping up their efforts continuously was nothing but expanding their victory.

But what they didn't know was that their every move was already within the calculations of the Church. They would rather wish that the remnants of City Lord Mansion eliminate the 'cancer clergy' sooner.

After that, there would be one voice within the Church.

It would then be the time to eradicate the forces of the City Lord Mansion. This time they have learned their lesson, there could be no mercy.

Though they knew there was a Divinity Transformation Spiritualist within the forces of the City Lord Mansion, the upper echelons didn't show any signs of shrinking back, they are prepared for martyrdom.

If they could exchange it for a thoroughly peaceful life, for a world without higher beings, that would be their lifelong pursuit.

But this time, they definitely won't make the same mistake. After suppressing the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion, they must have their own inspection team.

Chapter 473: The Decisive Battle, Unexpected Occurrence

Such important materials like Foundation Establishment Pill and Golden Yuan Pill must be controlled by themselves, ensuring that everyone who met the requirements gets a chance to attempt a breakthrough.

At that time, everyone has hope. How could things end up like they are now, with some dying and their paths destroyed by those with ill intentions?

When the Church of All Beings was ready, Liang Sheng couldn't help but secretly cheer in his heart. Excellent! This was Liang Sheng's first reaction after watching the entire play unfold.

The mysterious "betrayal" move played by the Church of All Beings was so well-executed that nobody could have guessed they could react so quickly with such a plan.

If the Cloaked Mysterious Man wasn't a traitor, how could he possibly betray the list? Who would have thought that the Church of All Beings would use them to eliminate the moles within the Church?

It could only be said that they fell into an abyss without knowing it, but for Liang Sheng, it was a good thing.

Now, Huang Yifan was still a bit worried in the kitchen. His master hadn't visited Yaoxiang Pavilion for several days and kept smiling suddenly. What was going on?

Although he didn't know what happened, he still faithfully prepared delicious dishes for Liang Sheng every day.

He had no pursuits now. All that mattered was his master's happiness. Who cared about anything else?

And as time went by, the turbulence in the Immortal City became more concentrated among high-level cultivators, while the lower levels gradually calmed down.

Those low-level cultivators who wanted to take advantage of the chaos to obtain benefits were all eliminated during the middle stage of the turmoil.

The remaining low-level cultivators were self-aware, trembling in their houses, afraid of receiving undeserved calamities, and would not dare cause any more trouble.

Now the unrest in Immortal City was ultimately focused on the high-level cultivators. The low-level cultivators had only been a tool to be used by the City Lord's Mansion. Who would care now that their use was exhausted?

However, the Church of All Beings was still secretly protecting these low-level cultivators, for now, the Church had returned to its former appearance, fighting with passion for the “all beings”.

The situation in the Immortal City is evolving towards the best-case scenario. Liang Sheng couldn't help but sigh, his luck seemed to be good this time, and everything hadn't taken a turn for the worst as before.

But Huang Qiang and the others were deceived by the surface situation of the Immortal City. Almost all the high-level cultivators in the city were involved while the strength of the Church of All Beings was being consumed.

After more than 120 years, they were finally going to restore their previous high-status. These “Church of All Beings rebels” must all die.

At this moment, Liang Sheng, who had been observing the situation in Immortal City, also leaned forward a bit as the City Lord's Mansion people were finally ready to lay their cards on the table.

The final battle was coming.

Just now, the Cloaked Mysterious Man unexpectedly gave them the information they most wanted. The Church of All Beings' high-level hideout was not far from the original City Lord Mansion.

They sent people to investigate the authenticity of the information, and the result was a joyous one. With that, after they learned that there were only two Divinity Transformation Experts remaining in the Church of All Beings, they finally relaxed.

Three against two, they decided to risk everything, to achieve their goal in one fell swoop. They then secretly arranged their means, with the cooperation of the Cloaked Mysterious Man, and the Church of All Beings had no time to react.

Huang Qiang and the others believed they had taken advantage this time, without a single slip. After all, they had inside men in the Church of All Beings.

However, they didn't know that the Church of All Beings had long been prepared, quietly waiting for them to arrive. Everything was nothing but a play for their eyes.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was intently watching the situation unfold. Whether he could continue to live in peace after today depended on the outcome of the battle between the two sides.

If it weren't for some kind of intangible sense that he couldn't take action himself, he would have restored peace to the Immortal City at the smallest cost with his own scheming.

But the current situation wasn't bad. After all, it was one of the best outcomes in the blurred scene of Heaven's Secret Calculation.

Huang Qiang and the others arranged for their subordinates to continue causing unrest in Immortal City, and they also gathered together. They were finally going to meet the Church of All Beings.

Inside the Church of All Beings' hideout, at this time, many people were outwardly calmly discussing the current situation in Immortal City, but they were already on full alert for any accidents in their hearts.

Having released so many baits earlier, it was finally time to reap the rewards. However, right at this moment, the leader of the Church of All Beings, hidden in the shadows, seemed to have not noticed any anomalies and continued to arrange the next course of action.

But just then, his voice was suddenly interrupted by someone.

"Who!?"

All members of the Church of All Beings immediately took a defensive stance, their faces showing a bit of fear, as if they were terrified by this situation and had never anticipated it.

At the same time, they suddenly felt a burning sensation coming from the ground, followed by a voice coming from outside.

“Remnants of the Church of All Beings! Today, you will taste the suffering we endured that day. Rest assured, you’re just taking a step ahead. I will make sure none of the Church of All Beings remnants are left. You always say you’re part of one big family, right? Then let’s have you die neatly together.”

“Remnants of the City Lord’s Mansion!”

The voice of the leader of the Church of All Beings was a bit low and seemed to carry some disbelief, “How could you possibly find this place?”

Just then, the Cloaked Mysterious Man, who had met Huang Qiang and the others before, suddenly burst out. The faces of all the people in the Church of All Beings changed, and they had no time to stop him.

“Lingkun! You traitor!”

Chapter 474: The Decisive Battle, Unexpected Occurrence

“Haha, what traitor? This is called knowing the times and being a hero. You old-fashioned people don’t understand that the world has always been about competition.

Your ridiculous ‘equality for all beings’, what about it now? Aren’t the cultivators in Immortal City still fighting each other for resources? Don’t you find your actions laughable to the extreme?”

Speaking from the City Lord Mansion, Lingkun, also known as the Cloaked Mysterious Man, had escaped outside and joined forces with the remaining power of the City Lord Mansion, being protected by them.

Lingkun cannot die, because as long as he remains alive, it is an insult to the Church of All Beings. This strategy is called attacking the heart first.

At the moment when the two sides were confronting each other, an unexpected situation occurred in the Capital City Soul Song of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty, which Liang Sheng had not foreseen.

Ling Xiaozi suddenly opened his eyes, and couldn't help but sigh. His lineage was ultimately not favored by fortune.

He could even imagine the ugly faces of those immortal old men at the next court meeting. However, the next moment, he regained his composure and showed no sign of his inner thoughts.

Because Kaiyuan Child had arrived at the door.

"Teacher, I have failed your trust. In this Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein and Spiritual Tide, I did not gain much, and was directly expelled from the Spiritual Vein. I have disgraced you."

As soon as he entered, Kaiyuan Child knelt on the ground. Ling Xiaozi's eyes no longer appeared gloomy, and his expression was quite relaxed.

"It's fine, why blame yourself? After all, it depends on fate, it doesn't depend on human wishes, we can only say that our lineage is just not fortunate."

Then, in order to divert Kaiyuan Child's attention and prevent him from feeling guilty, Ling Xiaozi roughly recounted the situation of the Immortal Dynasty over the years.

He did this to show his attitude that he still needed Kaiyuan Child to cheer up and assist him in handling the upcoming affairs.

And he casually mentioned the situation in Longevity Immortal City, reminding him that there was no need to think too much, Zhen Yuan was already undergoing his Fate Calamity, and his presence would be useless.

At first, Kaiyuan Child didn't react. Ling Xiaozi saw that he was still a little weary from the Spiritual Tide and asked him to rest first.

But just as Kaiyuan Child was about to step down, a flash of inspiration suddenly crossed his mind, and his expression changed.

“Teacher, isn’t Junior Brother Zhenyuan undergoing Human Tribulation? How could the air of heaven and earth be obscured and entwined, so that the whole situation in Longevity Immortal City becomes unclear?”

Ling Xiaozi was also taken aback when he heard this. The Fate Calamity of Zhen Yuan City Lord was not a major concern for him, because now all he needed was for Zhen Yuan to stay alive.

But Kaiyuan Child reminded him that it was a Human Tribulation, so how could the situation in Longevity Immortal City be like this?

It was careless!

Kaiyuan Child, of course, would not embarrass Ling Xiaozi, so he took the initiative to ask to go to Longevity Immortal City and investigate the situation in person.

“Teacher, although the Qi in Longevity Immortal City is hidden and it’s best not to have external Qi stimulation, I cannot help but feel uneasy if I don’t go to the scene and see the situation for myself.”

Ling Xiaozi saw Kaiyuan Child’s expression and thought that it would be good for him to take a trip, as it might help him adjust his mood from losing the opportunity during the Spiritual Tide.

With that in mind, Ling Xiaozi nodded his head.

“Go ahead.”

Longevity Immortal City.

At this moment, Liang Sheng still had the leisure to crack melon seeds, sensing the tense stalemate between the Church of All Beings and the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion, which could erupt into a major battle at any moment.

This was a great drama, and Liang Sheng was naturally interested. Moreover, under his feeling, he had already judged that the Church of All Beings had a greater chance of winning, with almost no accidents.

Just then, Liang Sheng's face suddenly changed.

Why had Kaiyuan Child arrived outside Longevity Immortal City? This was completely not included in the previously calculated Heavenly Secrets scene. What was going on?

At this moment, Liang Sheng's face was no longer calm, but gloomy. The Heavenly Secret Calculation scene had changed again, and finally, he understood why.

The Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Vein Spirit Tide concealed Heavenly Secrets, causing this change.

One could only say that it was all fate!

Chapter 475: Collapse, Variables, Kaiyuan

Child Arrives

Immortal City.

At this time, Liang Sheng, who was originally sitting firmly on the Fishing Platform in his mansion, had an uneasy expression on his face because uncertainty, was something he was most reluctant to deal with.

Perhaps it was because Kaiyuan Child was a Soul Emergence power, the realm difference was too great, so much so that the vague scene under Liang Sheng's Heaven's Secret Calculation could not be seen at all, knowing only that due to Kaiyuan Child, the situation in Immortal City had changed.

The scenes of the Heavenly Secrets Calculation were already blurred, but now they looked even more like mosaics. However, under Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, Liang Sheng's heart had no sign of great disaster.

Nevertheless, he was certainly feeling uneasy in his heart now. He felt like he had jinxed himself, as he was feeling good about himself just a moment ago, thinking that this time the results would be smooth, but unexpectedly, an accident occurred.

But now, Liang Sheng could not do anything about it, because as soon as he had the intention to make a move, his intuition told him that things would become worse because of him.

All he could do now was to wait and see, and not be anxious. Huang Yifan was still standing by, serving a meal for Liang Sheng, when he saw his master, who had been eating well, suddenly put down his chopsticks and became serious.

What happened?

Huang Yifan couldn't help but secretly prepare himself, making sure he was ready to take action at the first opportunity if something went wrong.

Original City Lord's Mansion Ruins.

At this moment, the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion have completely surrounded the secret base of the Church of All Beings. Thanks to the traitor Lingkun who led the way, the situation couldn't have gone more smoothly.

At this time, the people of the Church of All Beings also reacted and wanted to break through, but they retreated hurriedly when they reached the main gate, their faces changed drastically.

"Not good, retreat, there's an array!"

At this moment, it was very clear that the City Lord Mansion no longer had any intentions to hold back. They were determined to defeat the Church of All Beings in today's battle. A fierce and oppressive aura spread around the ruins, and the entire space felt as if it was being burnt and shattered. The people of the Church of All Beings felt a tremendous pressure bearing down on them.

"Trapping Immortals Array!"

The higher-ups of the Church of All Beings couldn't help but grind their teeth when they saw this, while the people of the City Lord Mansion had relaxed expressions mixed with some satisfaction.

"When you sieged the City Lord Mansion in the past, you had already set up the Trapping Immortals Array in advance. Today, we are merely returning the favor."

As soon as the words fell, the people of the City Lord Mansion did not wait any longer and immediately launched their attack, all their pent-up frustration from over a hundred years exploding at this moment.

With these attacks, their emotions were fully vented, their faces distorted with cruelty, and their hearts filled only with the desire for the Church of All Beings to perish.

"Block!"

"Dismantle!"

"Break!"

However, it was clear that the Church of All Beings had already recovered from their initial panic and had not been thrown into chaos. Under the command of the leader of the Church of All Beings, they advanced and retreated in an orderly fashion, managing to withstand this round of attacks.

What a Church of All Beings.

Seeing this, the remnants of the City Lord Mansion couldn't help but be amazed that they could still remain calm in this situation.

Compared to their panic-stricken state all those years ago, they were now many times stronger. But no matter how disciplined they were, they would all face death now.

"Please make a move, Sir!"

“Please make a move, Sir!”

Soon, these words gathered into a huge wave of sound that could be heard for hundreds of miles. The remnants of the City Lord Mansion were no longer hiding their presence.

As soon as the words fell, three Divinity Transformation Cultivators appeared in mid-air, and their formidable pressure enveloped the entire Immortal City in an instant.

The rogue cultivators who were still looting during the chaos in the Immortal City were instantly scared silly by the pressure. They had no idea what had happened and directly fled with the seized cultivation resources in their arms. Most of these people were actually just blind followers who had followed the tide to seize cultivation resources. As soon as a crisis erupted, they would become like frightened birds and disappear in an instant.

However, there were still many cultivators who maintained formation, excitement flashing in their eyes, and then headed towards the ruins of the City Lord Mansion.

They were all members of the remnants of the City Lord Mansion who had been arranged to create chaos previously. Now that the final battle had begun, they immediately followed the plan and rushed towards the battlefield.

“Brothers, our chance to establish our merits is today, let’s charge together! The City Lord will never forget our contributions.”

Everyone was heading towards the ruins of the City Lord Mansion, their eyes filled with fanaticism. They had three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists on their side, who could possibly stop them?

However, they did not notice that the number of people who were charging with them was far larger than their original number.

The eyes of these people were filled with resentment towards the City Lord Mansion. They were the ones who had been arranged by the Church of All Beings to infiltrate and corrupt the city earlier.

Today is the final battle!

In the center of the secret base, as the three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists of the City Lord Mansion appeared, the morale of the remnants of the City Lord Mansion grew even higher.

Even the techniques and spells they wielded became a bit stronger, while the practitioners of the Church of All Beings trapped in the Trapping Immortals Array could only barely maintain their defense.

just as the three Divinity Transformation experts of the City Lord Mansion appeared, the leader of the Church of All Beings in the shadows finally revealed his true face.

The three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists of the City Lord Mansion could hardly believe their eyes, for they recognized the person before them, who had held a distinguished status in Zhen Yuan City when the City Master was still there.

Before the great chaos, when the three of them were still at the Nascent Soul late-stage True Monarch, this person was already a bona fide Divinity Transformation Expert.

The leader of the Church of All Beings was none other than Feng Liang, the Number One Person under the Left and Right Envoys and the Personal Guards!

“I didn’t expect the three of you to have the opportunity to break through to Divinity Transformation stage. It seems that after the merger of the Upper and Lower City, you have reaped the greatest benefits.”

Chapter 476: Collapse, Variables, and the Arrival of Kaiyuanzi

The faces of the three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists from the City Lord Mansion were a bit unsightly. They didn’t expect that Feng Liang was actually a member of the Church of All Beings, who was the leader of the Personal Guards.

With the inside infiltrated by the Church of All Beings to such a degree, how could they have not been defeated in the past?

However, now...

“Feng Liang, don’t be so arrogant. With the Trapping Immortals Array in place, your strength is reduced by 30%, while the three of us can gain an advantage. What do you have to fight us with?”

Feng Liang didn’t speak at this time but merely observed the surrounding situation roughly. The three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists from the City Lord Mansion saw his appearance, and for some reason, they felt a little delighted in their hearts.

“Feng Liang, you don’t need to look anymore. We’ve been preparing for so many years, how can we still give you the chance to break out?”

You wait; our forces are still on their way. The more people we have, the greater the array’s power. Wasn’t this what the Church of All Beings did when they rebelled in the past?”

When the last few words were spoken, the people of the City Lord Mansion thought of the painful memories, their faces filled with extreme hatred.

If they hadn’t had good luck back then and managed to escape the battlefield by chance, the forces under the command of the City Lord’s Mansion would have been wiped out long ago.

Just at this moment, the sound of footsteps arrived, and the City Lord Mansion’s undercover rogue cultivators who had disrupted the Immortal City were on their way. The three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists from the City Lord Mansion could no longer endure it and shouted out loud.

“Soldiers of the City Lord Mansion, kill!”

The next moment, three brilliantly dazzling attacks, carrying a world-shattering force, charged directly at Feng Liang and his group.

At this time, the Immortal City had already become completely silent under the pressure of the Divinity Transformation Experts' battle, and all the lower-level cultivators had hidden in their homes, shivering. The City Lord Mansion didn't conceal their identity before, so it was as if they had announced to the world that they had returned.

Some rogue cultivators finally sobered up from their excitement at this time. They felt like someone else's knife in their hands. If the City Lord Mansion wins, will they still have their current lives?

The only thing they regretted was that their cultivation level wasn't higher, or their lives would be better in the future. However, seeing the precious resources in the storage bag, their remorse was slightly diluted.

But they also knew that if the City Lord Mansion once again controls the Immortal City, returning to the peaceful cultivation environment of the past 120 years would be nearly impossible, but they were the culprits, and they had no one to blame but themselves.

On the battlefield, under the attack of the Divinity Transformation Spiritualists, Feng Liang gritted his teeth and blocked the first wave of attacks by himself.

However, those Divinity Transformation Experts didn't care about this, but became even more surprised and happy, because Feng Liang's strength did weaken a lot under the great array's suppression.

They would eventually win; it was just a matter of time. Therefore, they became even more excited. To avoid causing trouble for Feng Liang, the people from the Church of All Beings moved away from his protection range and attacked the City Lord Mansion's soldiers.

But as the two sides made contact, it was a one-sided situation. With the Church of All Beings weakened under the suppression of the great array, how could they possibly be a match for the soldiers of City Lord Mansion?

Huang Qiang was extremely excited to hunt down the Church of All Beings on the periphery. He was responsible for leading the cultivators below the Nascent Soul level of the City Lord Mansion to merge into the Array, thereby increasing the power of the Great Array.

Although it seemed that the Church of All Beings could still hold on, Huang Qiang knew that they wouldn't be able to hold on for long under such circumstances.

The strength of the Church of All Beings would continue to weaken as his subordinates merged into the Array. The final result would not change.

After 120 years of suffering, it was finally time for them to take revenge. However, Feng Liang from the Church of All Beings was indeed powerful and managed to hold on temporarily.

But now, it was three against one, and Feng Liang was still in a precarious situation. If it weren't for the fact that he might self-destruct, the three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists from the City Lord Mansion would have already taken ruthless actions.

The people of the Church of All Beings were madmen; they had to be careful. Of course, as time went on and Feng Liang's strength continued to be reduced, it would be time for them to take decisive actions.

However, at this moment, suddenly a series of miserable screams came from the periphery.

Huh?

They saw that the undercover rogue cultivators of the City Lord Mansion, who had previously rushed from all directions, were now engaging in infighting and even started to kill each other.

Many people simply couldn't imagine that those around them would actually have the heart to kill, so they were caught off guard and instantly died.

"Quick! Stop them!"

Huang Qiang hurriedly ordered his subordinates to block them, but to maintain unified command among the rogue cultivators, they all dressed the same.

So, amidst the chaos, they couldn't tell friend from foe. As they became disorganized, the Trapping Immortals Array suddenly fluctuated.

Huang Qiang instantly regretted it. If he had known this earlier, he wouldn't have let these undercover rogue cultivators join the array.

He had been too eager to maximize the power of the Trapping Immortals Array and ended up being taken advantage of by the Church of All Beings.

But it's too late to say anything now. Who would have thought that the people who had charged towards the Church of All Beings' church members mansions would also have spies from the Church of All Beings among them?

Had they been putting on a show before? But those who died were indeed people from the Church of All Beings, and Huang Qiang couldn't help but be confused at this time.

Just then, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his chest, and his consciousness was instantly plunged into darkness. It was Lingkun who had been protected behind him, who struck out and killed Huang Qiang.

Only then did the others react, but the next moment, an unparalleled force appeared and exploded instantaneously. The cultivators on the periphery of the City Lord Mansion were instantly wiped out.

Divinity Transformation Expert!

Lingkun turned out to be a Divinity Transformation Expert!

Thinking of this, their last thought before perishing was a sudden realization. Their previous intelligence had indeed stated that the Church of All Beings had two Divinity Transformation Spiritualists.

Chapter 477: Collapse, Variables, Kaiyuan Child Arrives

It seems like the Church of All Beings has orchestrated a plan within a plan. The list of their members they provided was indeed true, and the ones that were killed were indeed their members.

What is going on?

The ones who were killed could not have known that they were only killing the corrupt members of the Church of All Beings. They were completely becoming a knife in their hands, but now they will never have the chance to know the truth.

As Lingkun revealed his strength and took action, the outer perimeter of the Array collapsed almost instantly, and a portion of the Church members blended into it, turning the tide.

In the instant the Trapping Immortals Array faltered, the City Lord Mansion's people did not react in time, but Feng Liang let out a loud shout and, free from the constraints of the array, instantly rushed to the side of the Mansion's three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists.

Feng Liang launched a surprise attack, leaving no time for the trio to react, then instantly self-destructed.

At this time, the heavens and earth were brightly illuminated, and under Feng Liang's self-destruction, the three Divinity Transformation Spiritualists had no chance to react and fell.

"Everyone like a dragon!"

Lingkun, and all the members of the Church of All Beings, their eyes were bloodshot at this moment. This was their plan, which now unfolded perfectly.

Escape!

The remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion also react at this time. They never expected to fall into a trap this time. Who could have imagined that the Church of All Beings would employ such a strategy, even using self-sacrifice to gain trust?

Turns out Lingkun is another Divinity Transformation expert from the Church of All Beings. Now that the big array is destroyed and the allied Divinity Transformation Spiritualists are wiped out, how could they possibly win with an additional Divinity Transformation Spiritualist on the opposing side?

All they can hope for now is to pray: pray they can escape and never show their faces again, hiding from the world and cultivating in seclusion.

As for returning to power, they are not likely to have the opportunity under such circumstances. When will they ever have such a chance again?

And even if there is a chance, by that time, whether they are alive or not is a question, let alone revenge?

Escape!

All they can think of now is this. However, the Church members had already acted as part of the array, and under Lingkun's Divinity Transformation pressure and the remnant power of the array, they formed a complete closure within a short period of time.

They can't escape!

Lingkun demonstrates what it means to be a Divinity Transformation Expert. With just casual blows, the Nascent Soul Masters are like mere paper in front of him, none can withstand his attacks for more than three moves.

The once high and mighty Nascent Soul Masters are now like lambs to the slaughter, with absolutely no ability to resist.

At this moment, the hearts of the remaining City Lord Mansion forces are filled with despair. If they had another chance, they would not have been misled by previous schemes and would have chosen to lay low.

After all, for the past 120 years, their lives have only been slightly worse off than during Zhen Yuan City Lord's time. It wasn't that they couldn't cultivate or pass on their bloodline.

It can only be said that greed brings harm. But they've made it this far because of their greedy hearts. It's hard to say what's right or wrong in this situation.

As Lingkun and the Church of All Beings members went on a killing spree, the high-level cultivators of the City Lord Mansion fell one by one, causing all cultivators in Immortal City to tremble in fear.

Both the Church of All Beings and the City Lord Mansion had no intention of concealing anything, so the lower-level cultivators in Immortal City are just relieved that they are still alive.

In the end, this brutal battle woke them up to the fact that their previous turmoil merely made them pawns in the struggles between the Church of All Beings and the City Lord Mansion.

But they can't help but ask themselves, if they had another chance, would they still be unable to resist stepping into the fray?

After all, in this turmoil, they have also obtained many cultivation resources. But due to their low realms, they only know about the atrocities without knowing who is winning or who will ultimately prevail.

What if the City Lord Mansion emerges victorious and restores its previous rule? It would be incredibly difficult for these lower-level cultivators to rise again.

Now they realize the benefits of the Church of All Beings. At least in the past 120 years, the Church has given them opportunities for breakthroughs in cultivation unlike the past, when resources were scarce and hope was nearly nonexistent.

Just as they regretted their actions, Lingkun had already begun to round up all the people of the City Lord Mansion.

As the battlefield cleanup began, Lingkun remembered their previous plan and spoke up. His voice was not loud, but it reached the entire Immortal City.

“From now on, Immortal City will be controlled by our Church of All Beings, only to prevent similar upheavals in the future. Our Church’s wish remains the same: may everyone become like a dragon.”

The lower-level cultivators, upon hearing this, could not help but smile with joy. It seemed they could continue their peaceful cultivation. However, the Church of All Beings would likely show its true colors this time.

This also indicates that they have thought about establishing a new order in Immortal City and will not give any opportunities to those with ulterior motives to disturb it.

Although they don’t know how the Church of All Beings will arrange things in the future, most lower-level cultivators trust them based on their reputation.

Even if life is difficult, it’s better than being under the City Lord Mansion rule. Besides, they have looted many cultivation resources, and as long as they can maintain peace, there is hope for breakthroughs.

But just then, a loud shout suddenly came from outer space, catching everyone off guard.

“Rebels of All Beings, how dare you be so arrogant?”

The next moment, the overwhelming power of a Soul Emergence expert enveloped the entire Immortal City, and the faces of the All Living Beings Sect practitioners changed drastically.

Far away, Liang Sheng stood in the courtyard, looking up at the sky, feeling somewhat helpless in his heart.

Kaiyuan Child has arrived!

Unexpected changes!

Chapter 478: Sealing the Heaven and Earth, the Changing Sea and Mulberry Fields for 200 Years, Breaking through 70,000 Longevity!

Immortal City.

At the same time, rewinding the timeline to the moment when the leader of the Church of All Beings self-destructed, Kaiyuan Child was just outside the Longevity Immortal City, looking extremely ugly.

If it were not for the fact that the outer aura of Immortal City was hidden and connected to City Master Zhen Yuan, he would have already been unable to resist taking action.

However, at this moment, he did not hesitate to communicate the situation of Immortal City to Ling Xiaozi, who was far away in Capital City Soul Song. This matter was extremely urgent.

“Master, although Longevity Immortal City cannot be moved due to Junior Brother Zhenyuan, we cannot allow the rebellion of the Church of All Beings to run rampant. After all, they are involved with the Desolate Aura and are related to the Seeking Truth Lineage.”

Kaiyuan Child even increased the stakes, just to make Ling Xiaozi support his idea, and let him take action to completely imprison Longevity Immortal City. He couldn't do it alone, he had to have Ling Xiaozi's help.

In this way, although he could not personally kill them, by sealing off Longevity Immortal City and preventing the Church of All Beings from achieving their goal, they could at least minimize the damage.

Moreover, after sealing off Longevity Immortal City, no matter whether City Master Zhen Yuan survives the Fate Calamity halfway through or not, Kaiyuan Child would be able to continue the subsequent actions.

If City Master Zhen Yuan successfully survives the Fate Calamity, everyone will be overjoyed and all the rebels in the city can be suppressed and killed in one fell swoop.

But if City Master Zhen Yuan fails to pass the Fate Calamity, the outcome would actually be even simpler: Kaiyuan Child can directly take action, capturing them all in the urn.

Although it took a while longer to do so, the result was still to eliminate the rebellion of the Church of All Beings. Kaiyuan Child had no mercy in his heart for what the rebels in Longevity Immortal City had done.

They were simply challenging the current order of the Immortal Dynasty, and they all deserved to die!

Ling Xiaozi's response soon came, and after reading it, Kaiyuan Child just gave a cold smile. As expected, the Master still supported him.

Therefore, the loud shout just now resonated throughout Longevity Immortal City. In an instant, Lingkun and the others, who had just slaughtered the remaining forces of the City Lord Mansion, had not had time to celebrate before they were frightened by this shout and their faces turned pale.

Naturally, he knew the terrifying strength of the person who opened his mouth from this sound. Although he was in the Divinity Transformation Realm, there was no difference between him and an ant in front of him.

All the cultivators in Immortal City were also shivering under this pressure, but their expected fierce attack did not come.

What was going on?

At this moment, Lingkun looked into the sky, and he couldn't help but feel relieved. It seemed that the other party was still taking into account the trapped Zhen Yuan, so they didn't dare to kill them ruthlessly.

Predecessor Xu was truly unparalleled in his wisdom. His previous plan to trap the Zhen Yuan Dog Thief had finally come to fruition.

By binding the entire Longevity Immortal City and Zhen Yuan Dog Thief together, even if someone discovered what was happening, whether it was out of concern for Zhen Yuan's life or death or the destiny of Immortal City, they would be hesitant to act.

As long as Zhen Yuan is not dead, the safety of Immortal City cultivators is guaranteed. However, since it has been discovered that an accident has occurred in Longevity Immortal City, their second plan must also be completed as soon as possible.

Thinking of this, Lingkun couldn't help but feel a bit annoyed. If it hadn't been for their lack of experience in controlling Immortal City, resulting in chaos in the city, and even a serious corruption of their church members, which delayed their progress, they should have had more confidence at this point.

Fortunately, they still had time. They could only hope that there would be no more accidents in their plans this time. With this thought, he immediately began to clean up the mess and prepare for the next grand plan.

However, after the loud shout, Kaiyuan Child did not attack Immortal City, leaving the trembling Immortal City cultivators somewhat dumbfounded. Would the mysterious great power actually take action or not?

While the cultivators were in a state of anxiety, everything in Immortal City was calm over the next few days. It seemed like the threat of the powerful force had been an illusion.

The Church of All Beings now began to learn from their previous lessons and no longer distributed their control over the Immortal City to everyone.

They began to send out their forces to directly control all the important cultivation resources in Immortal City, ensuring that the resources were fairly distributed and that there were no longer cultivators who jumped classes, starting the class differentiation anew.

With the actions of the Church of All Living Beings in full swing in Immortal City, Liang Sheng was looking serious at this moment because he was the only one who knew the real situation, but he couldn't act now.

Because after receiving Kaiyuan Child's call for help, Ling Xiaozi's divine sense had been monitoring the entire Immortal City.

Of course, Liang Sheng did not know that this was Ling Xiaozi behind it, he only knew that it was a great cultivator beyond his power to resist.

Liang Sheng was also somewhat relieved at this moment. Fortunately, he had not taken action earlier; if he had, he was afraid that he would have exposed some clues.

However, he could not leave using the teleportation array under Yaoxiang Pavilion now. Although he could not leak his aura, the mysterious great power's uninterrupted monitoring would expose the fluctuation of his aura when the teleportation array was activated.

The current situation was obviously a bit difficult. If it were a life-and-death situation, Liang Sheng would be decisive and leave.

At worst, after exposing himself, he would think of ways to deceive others and take a gamble on whether the mysterious great power could track him through the teleportation array.

However, the current situation was moving under the auspices of his Auspicious Ability to Avoid Evil, and Liang Sheng only felt uneasy with no sense of imminent danger, so he ultimately chose to be cautious.

He would wait and see how the situation developed. After all, he didn't have a strong sense of crisis under his ability to seek fortune and avoid evil.

And then, in the strange calm, another month passed, and Liang Sheng finally knew what Kaiyuan Child was doing.

Chapter 479: Sealing the Heaven and Earth, the Changing Sea and Mulberry Fields for 200 Years, Breaking through 70,000 Longevity!

Unexpectedly, Kaiyuan Child did something so extreme this time, as he was going to seal the Heavenly and Earthly Aura, isolating the Immortal City's spiritual energy from the outside world.

That is to say, if the Sealing Array is completed, the spiritual energy in Longevity Immortal City will no longer be replenished.

From then on, the natural spiritual energy in the city will gradually dry up, and cultivation can only be maintained by relying on existing cultivation resources, such as spirit stones.

But how long can this last?

Now only Liang Sheng has discovered this situation. Due to the peace of the past month, cultivators in the city have resumed their orderly lives.

Who would dare to cause trouble with the Church of All Beings in the open?

At this moment, Kaiyuan Child placed the last Array Flag in his hand outside Longevity Immortal City, raising a faint glow, followed by a violent spiritual energy whirlwind. The next moment, the entire Longevity Immortal City was separated from the Heaven and Earth's Qi.

Decahedral Immortal-Sealing Divine-Banishing Formation!

If Longevity Immortal City was in its previous complete state, Kaiyuan Child wouldn't be able to use such a method. However, Longevity Immortal City was already trapped by the Church of All Beings, using the Spiritual Vein Spirit Tide as the foundation, and City Master Zhen Yuan was imprisoned.

Actually, the concealment of the Qi was to use the imprisonment of Zhen Yuan, allowing Longevity Immortal City to barely form its own exclusive Heaven and Earth.

If the imprisonment was violently broken from the outside, Longevity Immortal City might collapse by itself. However, this provided an opportunity for Kaiyuan Child to set up the formation.

Since he was just building an outer wall on a well-built foundation, and he also had the help of Ling Xiaozi.

Previously, Ling Xiaozi had personally sent the main Array Eye he had created. Under so many favorable conditions, it allowed Kaiyuan Child, the Soul Emergence power, to barely succeed in setting up the formation.

“The Church of All Beings is rebellious, and it will die!”

Immortal City.

When Kaiyuan Child successfully set up the formation, Liang Sheng looked up at the changing Qi in Heaven and Earth under the Array – most people probably wouldn’t notice – and muttered to himself.

“The sky of Longevity Immortal City has changed.”

But in his heart, he still felt relieved because it was just sealing the spiritual energy, not directly killing.

Even if the spiritual energy of the city is exhausted, he isn’t worried at all. After all, there is a large amount of cultivation resources, and even persisting for ten thousand years is not an issue.

Moreover, even if he doesn’t have cultivation resources, he isn’t worried at all. After all, under the Talent of Innocent Foolishness, the Health Cultivation Method has already broken the limit, and there is no bottleneck. Even without spiritual energy, he can continue to make breakthroughs.

In other words, the worst-case scenario is that his cultivation level cannot progress, but his lifespan continues to grow, and he can endure until the day when Longevity Immortal City reconnects with Heaven and Earth.

At that time, he will reappear in the Immortal City under the data panel’s concealment, and no one will discover any abnormalities.

He had thought there would be some heaven-defying means, but sealing Heaven and Earth can only deal with ordinary people – how could it affect someone like him?

Liang Sheng let out a long sigh, seeking fortune and avoiding evil. It's no wonder that under the previous seeking fortune and avoiding evil, his heart was only slightly uneasy – so this was the reason.

However, the cultivators of Longevity Immortal City are already in great trouble, but most of them have too low cultivation levels and cannot perceive the changes in the spiritual energy of Heaven and Earth.

Let's see what measures the All Living Beings Church has next. However, the upcoming cultivation resources in the city will definitely be bloodshed.

Unless the Church of All Beings gathers most of the cultivation resources together before most people find out, and the action must be fast, without delay.

However, what happened next was completely unexpected for Liang Sheng. He really didn't expect the execution speed of the All Living Beings Church to be so fast, accurate and ruthless.

With such rapid action and precision, Liang Sheng couldn't help shaking his head. If this had been done earlier, would there be so many problems now?

Perhaps if the previous city hadn't been chaotic, Kaiyuan Child might not have sensed the Qi fluctuations here, and Longevity Immortal City would still be the same as before.

But everything has become a reality, and it's futile to say more. It can only be said that the Church of All Beings is now making up for the losses.

Facing the uncompromising actions of the Church of All Beings in collecting cultivation resources, the cultivators of Longevity Immortal City wanted to resist at first.

After all, these are resources fought over and snatched. However, this time the All Living Beings Church is extremely determined, and in the face of absolute strength, they can't resist at all.

Fortunately, the All Living Beings Church also swore in front of them by the Heavenly Dao that they would distribute these cultivation resources fairly.

And as such, the cultivators of Immortal City were slightly relieved, and even some of them mockingly said that it must have been the previous turmoil that caused the All Living Beings Church to no longer trust them, so they acted like this.

As a result, within a short period of three days, most of the cultivation resources in the Immortal City were gathered by the All Living Beings Church, except for Liang Sheng and those suspected of Divinity Transformation Experts, who were not visited by the Church.

Now, with Heaven and Earth trapped, the Church of All Beings only has Lingkun as a Divinity Transformation Expert, unable to support it alone, and not suitable for offending these Old Monsters.

In addition to Liang Sheng and these “Old Monsters,” they usually stay out of mundane affairs and live in seclusion in the Immortal City, so the Immortal City’s situation is balanced.

After making these preparations, the Church of All Beings quickly took control of all cultivation shops in the Immortal City, and the resources were fairly distributed, with the share proportion based on cultivation level, and everything was publicly owned.

They did not break the Heavenly Dao oath, and the cultivators of the Immortal City let out a sigh of relief. However, at this time, the Church of All Beings also revealed the true situation of the city.

Chapter 480: Sealing the Heaven and Earth, the Changing Sea and Mulberry Fields for 200 Years, Breaking through 70,000 Longevity!

The Immortal City had been sealed off from the world by a figure of great might using a technique that defied nature, causing the city’s natural spiritual energy to gradually dwindle until it was entirely depleted.

The Church of All Beings gathered all available resources and distributed them fairly, vowing to stand with the cultivators of the Immortal City until the very end.

News of this caused widespread despair. Why had the city suddenly been sealed off? Once the spiritual energy was exhausted, without many resources at their disposal, would they be able to maintain their cultivation realm?

In such dire circumstances, there were indeed some who chose to take risks. However, the Church of All Beings had learned from past mistakes and wouldn't repeat them.

In times of crisis, the most effective way to ensure the stability of the city is to rigorously enforce the law and act decisively, showing no hesitation. Otherwise, the Immortal City would be beyond saving.

So, whenever any cultivator decided to stir up trouble, the law enforcement team of the Church immediately intervened.

And with the Divine Ability Transformation Spiritualist Lingkun present, any signs of insurgency among cultivators were swiftly quashed by the Church.

Under these conditions, the city finally returned to a semblance of order after a period of minor unrest.

However, the majority of the city's cultivators lost all hope in their cultivation, living as though they were simply waiting for death.

Thus, the Red Light District was more bustling than ever. Underneath its surface glamour, the number of brawls and deadly fights increased dramatically.

If it weren't for the Church of All Beings maintaining the operation of the entire city, the Longevity Immortal City would have turned into a living hell.

Liang Sheng knew that the Church hadn't given up. They were currently developing a second plan to weather this crisis.

However, Liang Sheng didn't concern himself with this. Because even if the Church succeeded, who knew how many years it would take?

Under such circumstances, the first decade quietly passed by. The natural spiritual energy of the Longevity Immortal City was completely depleted, no different from the mundane world.

But the Church did uphold its vow of impartiality, distributing resources fairly and maintaining a fragile peace in the city.

Everyone prayed silently in their hearts for the restoration of spiritual energy. But at least due to the Church's resolute actions in the beginning, basic cultivation could still be maintained.

In the blink of an eye, ninety years passed, time flying as swift as a white horse crossing a crevasse.

The Longevity Immortal City had utterly lost its former vitality. Even though the Church economized as much as possible, with a large population to support, each person's share of resources was only enough to barely maintain their Qi.

In these ninety years, even if some cultivators had reached the completion stage in their realms, progressing further had become an impossible feat.

Then, two hundred years passed. It has been two hundred years since Kaiyuan Child sealed the Longevity Immortal City with Ling Xiaozi's assistance.

At this point, the Longevity Immortal City had vastly changed. Many low-level cultivators had exhausted their lifespan and had perished.

In the last fifty years, the Longevity Immortal City had completely run out of cultivation resources. Everyone had resigned to their fate.

There were cultivators who caused disturbances in their despair, but they were promptly executed by the Church. The Church couldn't afford to show any mercy.

Under such hopeless circumstances, the Longevity Immortal City gradually calmed down. However, the city's structure increasingly resembled that of the secular world.

During these three hundred years, Liang Sheng never lacked cultivation resources. Despite continuous cultivation, his cultivation level remained at the middle stage of the Divinity Transformation Realm, without any significant breakthroughs.

However, his Lifespan Cultivation Technique made another breakthrough, dramatically boosting his lifespan to seventy thousand years.

His Attribute Panel is as follows—

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 1587

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top-Grade)

Techniques: Primordial Mysterious Technique (4th Layer), Ascending Immortality Scripture (19th Layer), Twenty Life-nurturing Techniques (26th Layer), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse), Grand Solar Golden Crow Contemplation Method (Divine Ability).

Realm: Refining Spirit from Qi (Middle Stage of Divinity Transformation)

Lifespan: 71139

Who would have thought that Liang Sheng had spent these three hundred years in complete peace, even more relaxed than before the lockdown?

This was a disaster for ordinary cultivators in the city, but for Liang Sheng, it was a rare opportunity to focus tranquilly on his cultivation.

However, today, Liang Sheng didn't cultivate, and he wore a solemn expression. He instructed Huang Yifan to stay and guard their residence while he, under the cover of darkness, headed straight for the Zhou Family residence.

Today, an old friend's lifespan was about to end. Their time was up.
