

Bottleneck 481

Chapter 481: Sending Guests off on the Road to Eternal Life, Liang Sheng Appears, Predecessor of the Sect!

Immortal City.

Night.

Looking up at the dark night sky and stars from the eastern horizon, Liang Sheng felt a sense of heaviness. The heavens and Longevity Immortal City seemed closely intertwined.

Before long, he arrived outside the Zhou Family Mansion. Many of the Zhou Family's younger members were now different from the past, their faces unrecognizable. The older generation of the Zhou Family had dwindled over the years.

However, no one knew that the Zhou Family's treasury was abundant with cultivation resources. If this were revealed to the outside world, it might have triggered another wave of bloodshed.

The ancient Desolate Domain descendants in the Immortal City lost their cultivation paths, so they hoarded the resources they obtained from the Church of All Beings, rarely using them.

As for the consumption of arrays that maintain the resources, the relative cost was negligible compared to the quantity saved. It was cost-effective.

Over the past 300 years, the Zhou Family had thrived for more than ten generations. The newest generation possessed bloodline abilities and had proven their cultivation speed to be no different from native Immortal City inhabitants.

Unfortunately, considering the current sealed state of Longevity Immortal City, it was difficult for the Zhou Family to maintain their lineage. They only retained the bare minimum of their cultivation quota to ensure ongoing resource storage.

They believed that the era of restriction would not last forever, and they would eventually see the dawn. At that time, the Zhou Family Bloodline would resume its cultivation.

But Liang Sheng's visit had nothing to do with the Zhou Family. Rather, he was here to reconnect with Master, whose end of life was nearing: Xiang Chen.

Since Jin Quanxiu and others were sent into the Immortal City by Liang Sheng, they had no hope of cultivation in this life due to the Desolate Domain Bloodline.

Previously, Xiang Chen's only disciple had perished in the Desolate Domain. Now, Xiang Chen was living with his master and junior brother, Shen Wuque, in the Immortal City, barely holding on to life.

However, over the past few centuries, having given up on cultivation, the master and disciple led a carefree life as ordinary people, enjoying their hundreds of years of existence.

But now, Xiang Chen's end of life was approaching, and Jin Quanxiu was not by his side. It wasn't that he didn't care, but witnessing Xiang Chen's decline weighed heavily on his heart.

At this moment, Xiang Chen lay on his bed, frail, looking no different from a seriously ill elder in the secular world. By his bedside stood Shen Wuque, who guarded him.

During Xiang Chen's last days, Shen Wuque didn't want to have any regrets. He watched as Xiang Chen's Qi weakened, and memories of their time in the Dan Ding Sect filled his mind.

To him, his eldest Senior Brother was like a father. He was always strict with Shen Wuque, and without his guidance, he might never have had the opportunity to break through to the Jin Dan Stage. If that were the case, his lifespan would have been long exhausted by now.

Unknowingly, Shen Wuque's lips curled into a faint smile, and then he fell into a dream, naturally immersed.

But how could a Golden Core Daoist fall asleep so easily? It was merely Liang Sheng's doing.

By the time Shen Wuque had completely succumbed to slumber, Liang Sheng had transformed back into Yang Sheng. His junior brother, Xiang Chen, reappeared in the world.

Next, he gently channeled some of his pure life energy into Xiang Chen. It wouldn't save him, but it would allow him to regain his spirits during his final days rather than die in a daze.

Feeling the warmth coursing through his body in his sleep, Xiang Chen felt reinvigorated, and soon regained consciousness.

Although it was late, his Golden Core Realm vision allowed him to see as though it were daytime at this moment.

"Junior brother?"

At first, Xiang Chen was a bit puzzled, thinking he was experiencing a hallucination. But in the next moment, his eyes widened, and he shook his head.

"It's impossible. How can my junior brother still be alive? I can't believe it. I am hallucinating before my end, seeing my junior brother in it. Don't worry, junior brother, I'll join you soon."

After muttering a few words to himself, Xiang Chen looked down at Shen Wuque, sleeping by his side, and couldn't help but smile.

"Junior brother is still so unreliable, falling asleep by my bedside. If Master knew about this, he would probably scold him for being careless."

Wearing a benevolent expression, Xiang Chen looked at Shen Wuque. Just then, he realized something was amiss and froze.

It didn't feel right, wasn't he dreaming? How could his second junior brother be so vivid, without any traces of an illusion?

At this thought, he struggled to sit up and turned to look at Liang Sheng. Seeing his full-faced smile, Liang Sheng greeted him.

“Eldest Senior Brother, long time no see!”

“Junior brother!?”

Xiang Chen was somewhat disoriented. How did his junior brother come back to life?! He clearly saw his Life Token shattered.

What was going on?

In his shock, Xiang Chen didn’t even realize that he, once void of spirit, was now full of life.

It took him a while before he carefully asked, disbelief mingling with the need for answers, “Junior brother, what on earth is going on?”

Chapter 482: Sending Off Guests on the Road to Longevity, Liang Sheng Appears, Senior Sect Members!

Since Liang Sheng decided to reveal himself to Xiang Chen, he naturally didn’t conceal his situation but only left out some of his ultimate secrets, and roughly narrated the past events.

Nevertheless, as Xiang Chen listened, he became increasingly dumbfounded, and at last, he couldn’t help but open his mouth wide, looking at Liang Sheng with a completely overturned perception.

It turned out that Junior brother had done so much for the Sect back then, merely faking his death to escape. It was just a pity that human efforts could not overcome fate and, in the end, the Desolate Regions were destroyed, all in vain.

“Junior brother, you’ve suffered so much over the years.”

Xiang Chen didn’t blame Liang Sheng for faking his death to escape since he had risked his life to save the three of them in the end, which was already going above and beyond without regard for his own life or death.

Although he still couldn't understand how his junior brother had managed to fake his death and revive himself and how his cultivation level had skyrocketed so rapidly, since his junior brother did not speak about it, he would not ask any further. There must be a reason for his silence.

"Master probably never expected that the Senior Sect Member who saved us was you, my junior brother. It's a pity that I won't be able to see his shocked expression. It must be quite interesting."

Xiang Chen felt extremely liberated at that moment. He couldn't help but smile at the thought, having never been as happy as he was today since arriving at the Immortal City.

Once he calmed down, Xiang Chen began to inquire about how Liang Sheng had managed to survive in the Immortal City all these years.

Liang Sheng casually glossed over his current life, concealing all the details about replacing "Chen Quan."

There were many things Xiang Chen only needed a bit of the "truth" for, and even if it was Xiang Chen, he didn't want to reveal all his secrets. He always prioritized his safety first and foremost.

"Senior brother, to be honest, the reason I can reveal myself and meet with you today is that I have a method to keep you alive in this world.

Although after this, you will no longer be able to cultivate, and your path to immortality will be hopeless, and you will also lose your flesh and blood body, at least you will still be alive."

Then, Liang Sheng detailed the method of surviving as a puppet. Xiang Chen listened carefully without interrupting him halfway through.

However, when Liang Sheng finished speaking, Xiang Chen promptly refused his kind intention. Upon hearing Xiang Chen's decision, Liang Sheng couldn't help but feel astonished.

"Senior brother, let me tell you another secret. In fact, Huang Yifan is alive and well at this moment, thanks to my puppet method. So you can rest assured that you can do the same, and you will appear no different from ordinary people, without anyone noticing any abnormalities."

But even then, Xiang Chen still refused with a smile, “No need, junior brother. I am already satisfied to see you now. I have no regrets in this life with your company and the protection of the Sect.

Moreover, birth, aging, sickness, and death are the natural cycle of life. I don’t know what means you have to achieve such a level, but any action against nature must consume your fortune... ”

“That won’t happen...Senior brother, please don’t worry. I know my limits, and this matter will not have any effect on me whatsoever...”

Liang Sheng hurriedly interrupted Xiang Chen, not wanting him to bear any psychological burden. After all, under his method of Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, for reasons unknown, this action indeed had no consequences.

However, no matter what Liang Sheng said, Xiang Chen still refused. “Junior brother, listen to me. I have led a fulfilling life, and I don’t wish to linger in this world with a puppet body.

Although I don’t know how many secrets you hold, the fact that you did not meet us before implies certain taboos.

Now that my lifespan is coming to an end, your appearance shows that you are taking a risk. You must have reasons for your previous actions.

But life and death are inevitable, and life is but a mayfly of Heaven and Earth. It’s better to follow fate and leave this world.

For most people in the Desolate Regions, being able to live until now is extremely fortunate. I really can’t be too greedy.

But if you think you owe it to me, then I have a request before I die. Since you can hide your Qi, I hope that one day you can disguise yourself as a Senior Sect Member and meet with Master without him knowing.

After all, the continuation of the Sect has always been Master's regret, and with you, our "senior," I believe Master would be happier in his final moments.

Of course, your safety comes first in any circumstance. Do not disregard your own safety to fulfill my last wish.

Your well-being is all I wish for. Everything else is just icing on the cake. I believe that even Master, once he learns the truth, will not blame you, but be relieved that you are still alive."

"Senior brother..."

Liang Sheng really didn't expect Xiang Chen to make such a choice. He had once thought Shen Wuque might make such a decision, given his carefree nature, but he never expected Xiang Chen to do so as well.

Xiang Chen saw the expression on Liang Sheng's face and motioned for him to come closer. As he looked at him for a long time, he felt more and more relaxed.

Xiang Chen then reached out and patted Shen Wuque's head. "Junior brother, if you ever have the chance, you could spend more time with our second elder brother. He has never been truly happy during his time in the Immortal City.

Although he appears carefree on the surface, he actually deeply respects and loves his master and you, his junior brother.

Don't be fooled by his laid-back exterior; he values us more than anything else in his heart. If he were to face the choice between death and living as a puppet now, I believe he would make the same decision as me."

Chapter 483: Sending Off Passersby on the Road to Immortality, Liang Sheng Appears, Sect Seniors!

After all, with his hopeless cultivation life and the destruction of the sect, his close friends and relatives had disappeared one by one, leaving a bitterness in his heart.

Of course, the most bitter was his master, who was, after all, a Nascent Soul Master with thousands of years of lifespan left. Previously, I was worried that he would be too lonely living alone in the world, but now that there is you, I don't have to worry too much.

You shouldn't blame your senior brother for being so heartless, only thinking about himself and not wanting to cling to life, as he has been too tired in all these years.

The Desolate Regions have long been destroyed, and I have long lost any desire to live in this shitty world. In the end, it might just be you left to accompany our master and me, which is quite unfair to you."

Liang Sheng felt suffocated at this moment, grateful for the love and protection he had received. Since his arrival in this world, even the Jizhou Liang Family had never given him such emotional support.

It's a pity that he can't defy the heavens and change his fate now, so he can only watch as Xiang Chen's vitality fades away. Xiang Chen's present attitude makes Liang Sheng even more regretful.

Previously, he could have accompanied them along the way under a different identity, but the two words "cause and effect" made him hesitate.

However, considering Xiang Chen and Zhou Family's cautious nature, how much more cause and effect would it really add? In the end, it's just that he is still a selfish and heartless person.

"Senior Brother, rest assured, I will consider your opinions carefully."

But Liang Sheng did not agree to Xiang Chen's dying wish directly, only saying that he would consider it. Xiang Chen was not too regretful, as he knew his junior brother well. In the end, he would do his request justice.

Because this is his junior brother, and that reason alone is enough. At this moment, his wish is fulfilled, and as his mind relaxes, he feels his life force gradually fade away.

“Let’s go, Junior Brother. I don’t have much time left. Let me say my goodbyes to Master and the others.”

Liang Sheng remained silent, but in the next moment, his figure disappeared. At this time, Shen Wuque by the bedside also woke up from his drowsy state.

Huh?

How did he fall asleep?

Feeling guilty, he hurriedly looked up, only to see Eldest Senior Brother with a smile on his face, full of energy. Shen Wuque turned pale at the sight.

Momentary resurgence.

He didn’t waste any time, and immediately communicated with his Master. After Xiang Chen finished all this, he smiled and said, “Junior Brother, help me out to see how beautiful the night is?”

“Alright.”

Shen Wuque didn’t refuse as he usually would. Today, even if Eldest Senior Brother wanted to pluck the stars from the sky, he would try his best to do so.

When Shen Wuque carefully helped Xiang Chen get out of bed and opened the door, Jin Quanxiu appeared outside the door.

“Master, you’re here.”

Jin Quanxiu nodded, looking at his disciple who had regained his spirits, feeling a touch of sadness. The disciple who had accompanied him for over a thousand years was finally going to leave him today.

With Shen Wuque's support, Xiang Chen carefully sat on the doorstep, leaning against the doorpost, gazing at the Bright Moon in the sky.

"The moonlight, it's so beautiful."

As his words fell, Xiang Chen's qi vanished. Shen Wuque, standing beside him, didn't look down at him but gazed at the moon above. Unknowingly, tears streamed down his face.

Not far away, Liang Sheng hid discreetly, looking at the scene before him, his eyes filled with melancholy. In his long life, everything would eventually decay.

All people would be passersby in his life, existing only in his memories. This was the inevitable path of his eternal life.

Eldest Senior Brother, may your journey be smooth.

Xiang Chen was buried in the Zhou Family cemetery, close to Huang Yifan. Apart from them, the graves in this area belonged to the elders of the Zhou Family.

After the funeral, the Zhou Family Master left with others, leaving Jin Quanxiu and Shen Wuque standing in front of Xiang Chen's grave, wordlessly pouring a few cups of wine.

At this moment, footsteps suddenly sounded behind them. They turned around to look, and Shen Wuque didn't react much, but Jin Quanxiu was both surprised and delighted.

"Senior!?"

Chapter 484: The Iron-fisted Means of Church of All Beings, the Great Sun Golden Crow Pressures Lingkun, and the End of Cause and Effect!

Immortal City.

With Xiang Chen's passing, Jin Quanxiu lost yet another concern in the world. However, he didn't expect that the senior sect member who had brought him out would suddenly appear before him at this time.

Surprises always come so suddenly. At the moment, Shen Wuque followed Jin Quanxiu honestly, and Liang Sheng didn't say anything. He directly led them to his mansion and returned to his original appearance in the next moment.

Jin Quanxiu was somewhat surprised to see this situation, but it wasn't too unexpected. Others might find it magical, but for the senior sect members, it was not too much.

It was the senior sect member who had brought them from the Desolate Regions to the Longevity Immortal City. He was now curious why the senior had not appeared before and suddenly appeared now. Did he have something important to order him to do?

However, the final answer was no. It seemed that the senior just wanted to meet with them and had no other requests. He even allowed them to move around freely during their leisure time. Jin Quanxiu couldn't help but draw a rough conclusion.

Perhaps the senior's end of life was near, just like elderly people in the mortal world who always liked to reunite with their younger generations before their deaths.

Therefore, Jin Quanxiu didn't say much at this time, only promising that he would move around more in the future and hoping that the senior wouldn't get tired of his frequent visits.

Their conversation was cordial but somewhat distant. Liang Sheng couldn't say much about it, after all, he was a senior to his master now!

As for Huang Yifan, he had already received Liang Sheng's instructions and naturally wouldn't reveal his identity at this time. He was just relieved, feeling that his master had finally figured it out.

Actually, Liang Sheng had been thinking about this for a while. Xiang Chen's unflinching confrontation with death had naturally moved him.

Since their lives were predestined, and his own lifespan was long, why not let himself live without regrets, even if he was only a passerby?

He had thought that as long as he didn't touch cause and effect, he wouldn't have any regrets. But when Xiang Chen died, he still had regrets in his heart.

He suddenly felt that when his strength was weak, it was indeed very necessary to be cautious. But now that he had the strength to fight across different stages at the middle stage of Divinity Transformation, why should he be so cautious?

With his current strength, as long as he left some leeway, such as not revealing his true identity now, Jin Quanxiu and the others' cause and effect wouldn't affect him too much.

Today, Jin Quanxiu and Shen Wuque were very excited as master and disciple. However, after having a meal at Liang Sheng's Mansion, they left with eyes full of appreciation.

Although Liang Sheng didn't say anything, Jin Quanxiu wouldn't not know it in his heart. Time was long, and there were many opportunities. There was no need to care too much in a short time.

Emotions would become more precious over time.

After returning to the Zhou family, Jin Quanxiu didn't tell the Zhou family members about Liang Sheng's whereabouts. He allowed the senior to live peacefully before the end of his life.

After all, the Zhou family now was not the Zhou family from the Desolate Regions anymore. Although they were still cautious and valued bloodline inheritance, they were no longer people who had come out of the Desolate Regions. They were now the Zhou family of the Immortal City.

On the other side.

Liang Sheng was a little dazed, and it was Huang Yifan's voice that brought him back to reality.

“Master, the meal is ready.”

“Hmm.”

Liang Sheng couldn't help shaking his head. Since he couldn't break free from the red dust's cause and effect, avoiding it would only be fooling himself.

To live forever, even if he was just a passerby in his own life, he shouldn't leave too many regrets. After his cultivation, he actually did less than he did in the mortal world.

Of course, he still needed to be careful and cautious. Immortality should not be wasted, and safety always came first. But under the guarantee of safety, he needed to have a peace of mind. Liang Sheng vaguely felt that there was some change in his state of mind.

But after careful investigation, there was no change, so he let it go and let everything take its course.

That night, Liang Sheng didn't go to Yaoxiang Pavilion but sat in meditation and cultivated. When the time came, his cultivation would naturally break through. After all, under his Talent of Innocent Foolishness, his cultivation had no bottlenecks.

Liang Sheng's heart became calm, but the current Immortal City was full of undercurrents.

The storm was coming, and the chaos couldn't be avoided.

Church of All Beings.

At this moment, Lingkun was serious. For the past 300 years, he had been using all his energy to maintain the normal operation of the Immortal City after the seal.

With the Heavenly and Earthly Aura sealed in the Immortal City, cultivators no longer had the passion of the past. Most people were only barely maintaining their cultivation with the distribution of cultivation resources, and many people had already begun to despair.

Three hundred years had passed, and it was not only the low-level cultivators who were losing hope, even the patience of high-level cultivators was almost worn out.

Lingkun was the most aware of the current situation. If there was no change in the Immortal City, he feared that they would revolt.

After all, they were going to die anyway. Many people's mentality had become that of taking a gamble. Under human nature, these high-level cultivators felt that distributing cultivation resources to low-level cultivators was a waste of resources.

When Lingkun thought of the countless sacrifices of kind-hearted people, which had brought about the current fair world, how could he bear to let the foundation of the Church of All Beings be destroyed in his hands?

He couldn't agree to give resources to high-level cultivators. Doing so would abandon those low-level cultivators, and what was the essential difference between this and the previous Longevity Immortal City?

It was just a class differentiation.

So, in the face of the current undercurrents surging in the Immortal City, he could only try to delay as much as possible while calculating the time when the cultivators would explode.

He still wanted to wait for the success of his second plan. If he had a little more time, it would be fine, but time...

Chapter 485: The Iron-fisted Means of Church of All Beings, the Great Sun Golden Crow Pressures Lingkun, and the End of Cause and Effect!

Not much left.

In chaotic times, severe punishment is needed. They can no longer repeat the same mistakes as before. If there is a sign, it must be nipped in the bud.

Liang Sheng did not understand such selflessness, but he respected and admired them. The world needed such fools to light up the darkness, but whatever the circumstances, Liang Sheng could never be like them.

So that's what makes them great, right?

After Liang Sheng and his Master Jin Quanxiu moved around, their spirits improved significantly. The Zhou Family was surprised to find that the two Guest Elders seemed more confident and unrestrained than before, which was quite astonishing.

However, as a Nascent Soul Master Guest Elder, Jin Quanxiu served as the safety guarantee for the current Zhou Family's heritage. Therefore, no one dared to inquire about what had transpired.

Today, Jin Quanxiu was preparing to secretly visit Liang Sheng, but before he could get up, he received a communication from Liang Sheng.

After reading the content of the message, Jin Quanxiu's expression changed and he immediately summoned the Zhou Family Master, telling him to restrain his disciples and never let them leave the house.

Feeling that something was amiss, the Zhou Family Master quickly closed the Mansion without any hesitation upon hearing Jin Quanxiu's instructions.

He couldn't help but look up into the distance, his face full of worry. Was Immortal City going to be in chaos again?

Immortal City.

Somewhere.

If an outsider happened to be present, they would undoubtedly be shocked. Dozens of Nascent Soul True Monarchs had gathered together, concealing their Qi and looking solemn. They were planning to raid the various warehouses of the Church of All Beings in Immortal City.

“I’ve already investigated the locations of the 128 warehouses of the Church of All Beings. Considering everything, the warehouse in the northwest is the smallest, but there are only three Nascent Soul True Monarchs guarding it, offering the highest chance of success.”

“Alright, then let’s not hesitate. Now that Immortal City is under the Heaven and Earth Ban, do those low-level Cultivators have any qualifications to waste cultivation resources? The Church of All Beings is simply impractical.”

“Yes, I previously had luck in my heart, thinking that this was just a temporary chaos. I never thought that after 300 years, Immortal City would still be sealed and increasingly barren.

So we can’t just sit and wait for death. Are we supposed to wait until our Lifespan End of Life arrives before regretting it? If we don’t resist now, we won’t last much longer.”

“Indeed, advancing and retreating together, sharing life and death. If we break this oath, may our corpses be left unburied and the Heavenly Dao bear witness to this!”

With the Heavenly Dao oath taken, they cooperated sincerely. Then, the few people checked the situation of the northwest warehouse again. After confirming it was accurate, they immediately took action.

Hesitation would only lead to disaster.

They acted quickly, with several dozen late-stage Nascent Soul True Monarchs making a ferocious move. The guards of the Church of All Beings had no chance to respond, falling with just one strike.

However, in just a few breaths of time, the smiles on the faces of these Nascent Soul True Monarchs had not yet faded when Lingkun appeared and directly suppressed them with his power.

They found it hard to believe that the situation was worse than they had imagined. They had already calculated the timing, but Lingkun's appearance indicated that the Church of All Beings had been prepared in advance.

Death!

Even though it's only one warehouse being looted, if it's not handled properly, the people of the entire Immortal City will be filled with fear.

Therefore, Lingkun did not hold back, and his Divinity Transformation Expert cultivation level erupted in full force. Even against dozens of Nascent Soul True Monarchs, they only faced destruction.

The Church of All Beings brutally suppressed the turmoil, but some in Immortal City began to have different thoughts. Fortunately, the Church of All Beings had already controlled the situation, and it hadn't completely fallen into chaos yet.

They must speed up the completion of their second plan. "Violence" can suppress them for a while, but once the reclusive Old Monsters in Immortal City took action, it would be too late.

Before that, he had to do something. At this moment, Lingkun's eyes were deep and distant. The foundation of the Church of All Beings could not be ruined in his hands.

The Zhou Family.

At this time, the Zhou Family Mansion was guarded around the clock without any break. After the raid on the Church of All Beings' warehouses, their wealthy family could also face an attack.

Indeed, Immortal City was not at peace after that. Some followed the example and attacked the Church of All Beings' warehouses. Although they were fiercely suppressed, there were always people who would take risks.

To this day, several small families had been wiped out. The Church of All Beings, however, acted swiftly, capturing and executing the main suspects in no time.

However, things were getting chaotic in Immortal City. They could only hope that the Church of All Beings would make a decision soon and start to save themselves in despair.

But even so, time was needed. The upper and lower ranks of the Zhou Family understood this very clearly during this critical time and relied on their strength to survive.

As a result, Immortal City became more and more desolate. Many people were already doubting whether the Church of All Beings actually had the ability to supplant living beings?

If not, why was Immortal City even worse off now compared to when it was under the rule of City Master Zhen Yuan? At least at that time, people could live a good life. Now, everything was unstable and unpredictable.

At this time, the Church of All Beings finally began to take action, and Liang Sheng couldn't help but give a bitter smile as they finally turned their attention to the "reclusive old monsters."

Previously, they were wary of the "reclusive old monsters" disturbing Immortal City, so they kept their distance and coexisted peacefully.

But now, at this final juncture, the Church of All Beings planned to strengthen itself by taking action against the "reclusive old monsters."

No, rather, in desperate times, they had to unite all the forces they could muster and grow their own strength.

During this period, the Church of All Beings had executed many Cultivators who had been tracked down following Lingkun's earlier crackdown.

But as the investigation continued, the pressure on the Church of All Beings grew, leading to their current actions. As a result, Lingkun actually successfully recruited many neutral high-level Cultivators.

Chapter 486: The Iron-fisted Means of Church of All Beings, the Great Sun Golden Crow Pressures Lingkun, and the End of Cause and Effect!

Liang Sheng couldn't help but sigh at the adaptability of the Church of All Beings. However, today, he ordered Huang Yifan to close the doors and refuse the entry of any visitor.

The Church of All Beings originally planned to visit Liang Sheng. Seeing this, they could only put their plans on hold. After all, this hidden big shot had been secretly investigated by Lingkun, leaving only six words behind – “Do not provoke without reason.”

Liang Sheng watched these events in silence. Nonetheless, a few days later, he was inevitably involved in them, as the Church of All Beings finally approached the Zhou Family.

To be more precise, they found Jin Quanxiu. How could they possibly ignore a Nascent Soul Master?

He was their main target to recruit. Besides, how many Divinity Transformation Experts were there in Immortal City? The key was to appease these Nascent Soul Masters.

Jin Quanxiu was also helpless about the arrival of the Church of All Beings and did not directly respond. However, in the face of Liang Sheng and others, the Church of All Beings did not dare to offend them. They still hoped that Jin Quanxiu would consider their proposal carefully.

In the end, he even revealed their trump card for persuading, “Senior Jin, we can tell you that our Sect of All Living Beings has the well-being of all beings under heaven in mind. We are not unprepared for what's happening in Immortal City.

We can swear by the Heavenly Dao that we have a way to solve the problem of Immortal City. However, this requires time, so we hope that Senior Jin can agree to our request.”

After that, they did not force Jin Quanxiu, only asking him to consider carefully. However, how could Jin Quanxiu not understand the hidden meaning of the Church of All Beings?

If they could not be friends, they would have to accept the means of the Church of All Beings. This is understandable since the Church of All Beings also faces great pressure.

Jin Quanxiu secretly met with Liang Sheng, who only told him to watch the changes and not get involved with the Church of All Beings' affairs.

Hearing Liang Sheng's indifferent tone, although there was no guarantee, Jin Quanxiu felt completely at ease. Since the senior said so, he would do as he was told.

Getting involved with the Church of All Beings, Liang Sheng sought fortune and avoided evil under the calculation of heavenly secrets, sensing the great cause and effect that was far beyond what Jin Quanxiu could bear.

So it was better to cut the entanglement quickly, make a temporary sacrifice, and avoid catastrophe.

The next day.

The Church of All Beings once again came to meet Jin Quanxiu, but this time he refused directly without any reservation.

Members of the Church of All Beings looked deeply at Jin Quanxiu and left without saying much. Zhou Family Master, who accompanied Jin Quanxiu, did not show much uneasiness.

Under seeking fortune and avoiding evil, there were no ominous signs. Naturally, he stood by Jin Quanxiu's side, who was the pillar of the Zhou Family's stable development.

Although he did not know why Jin Quanxiu was so confident, he had only one thought – to trust him.

And then another month passed.

With its good reputation, the Church of All Beings explained that they had the means to solve the problems of Immortal City and formed an alliance with most of the neutral cultivators. They swore by the Heavenly Dao and provided part of the cultivation resources.

Among them was a Divinity Transformation Expert, which made Lingkun feel relieved. As for those neutral cultivators who had previously refused, Lingkun also had a plan for them.

Since they would not cooperate, they would naturally have to pay more to enjoy the results. How could these Nascent Soul Masters not have stored cultivation resources?

If they refused to cooperate, they had to exchange all their resources for peace. Now they wanted to back down, but it was no longer accepted.

Lingkun knew that this method was somewhat overbearing, but extraordinary times called for extraordinary measures. This was also considered the second plan for him to collect resources and speed up the completion of the project.

As a result, under the joint suppression of the Church of All Beings, the cultivators, who had rejected kindness like Jin Quanxiu, were forced to exchange resources for peace.

Regret was too late!

Sure enough, in this chaotic world, the Church of All Beings was not as naive as when they had just suppressed Immortal City. The merciful Bodhisattva also had Vajra Means!

However, when they arrived at the Zhou Family Mansion, they hadn't had a chance to meet Jin Quanxiu when suddenly a sound of footsteps sounded.

Each step seemed to be stepping on their heartbeat, making them extremely uncomfortable, and their faces changed involuntarily.

This was none other than Huang Yifan.

“Daoist Friends, my master said it’s best for you not to disturb this place. He also asked me to give something to your leader. When he sees it, he will naturally understand what’s going on. It can be considered a settlement of cause and effect, and we won’t owe each other anything.”

The members of the Church of All Beings looked at each other, but their leader, a mere Middle Nascent Soul Stage True Monarch, thought that dealing with Jin Quanxiu would be easy. Now, facing Huang Yifan, they were powerless and couldn’t help but feel fearful in their hearts.

“Retreat!”

After some thought, the leader of the Church of All Beings ultimately chose to be cautious. He took a scroll from Huang Yifan’s hand and left the Zhou Family Mansion.

Huang Yifan watched them leave without meeting Jin Quanxiu, then turned and left. Zhou Family Master inside the mansion finally breathed a sigh of relief, but he was still somewhat puzzled.

However, when he turned his head and saw Jin Quanxiu’s indifferent expression, he couldn’t help but feel relieved. Senior Jin was indeed the pillar of my Zhou Family, so he was already prepared.

On the other side.

At this moment, Lingkun was sitting with a hidden Divinity Transformation Expert of the alliance, discussing how to stabilize Immortal City so they could complete their next plan.

At that moment, his brows furrowed, and he saw the Nascent Soul Master who had gone to meet Jin Quanxiu today walk in with a scroll in hand.

“You’re saying that his servant asked you to bring this scroll and settle the cause and effect from now on, so we wouldn’t bother Jin Quanxiu again?”

“Yes, sir.”

Lingkun couldn't help but ponder. He didn't remember having any cause and effect with Liang Sheng. He was wary of Liang Sheng in his heart, so for the time being, they had nothing to do with each other.

However, the other party said that there was some cause and effect between them. What was going on? Thinking about it, he couldn't help but exchange a look with the Divinity Transformation Spiritualist next to him.

The latter also realized that Lingkun seemed worried, so he got up to say goodbye. The Nascent Soul Master who had brought the scroll also left, leaving only Lingkun.

Lingkun couldn't figure it out, so he stopped thinking about it and opened the scroll. The next moment, his face turned pale with fright, and he was involuntarily forced to display his Drought Visualization Divine Technique.

Thousand Miles of Barren Land!

However, all his mind was filled with something that left him only with terror and no other emotions.

He saw a Grand Solar Golden Crow staring down from the sky above his sea of consciousness. The drought demon was prostrated on the ground, as if being suppressed by a bloodline.

So, this was the so-called cause and effect!

Chapter 487: Do Not Offend Senior Liang, The Immortal Dynasty's Unrest Returns After a Century

Night.

Church of All Beings.

At this moment, Lingkun was dumbfounded, with waves of shock surging in his heart. His successfully cultivated Drought Visualization Divine Technique had unexpectedly submitted automatically.

It turned out that the cause and effect mentioned before was truly like this: the master of the Visualization Technique that he had acquired from the Nameless Cave in the Lower City had not died!

Lingkun came to an answer instantly because only a technique of the same origin could cause the Drought Visualization Divine Technique to do so, and the power of the Grand Solar Golden Crow clearly suppressed the Drought Visualization Technique.

Moreover, more things were associated with this. In the past, a Grand Solar Golden Crow Phenomenon had appeared in the Upper City, causing chaos in the Immortal City for quite some time.

It seemed that the senior had successfully broken free from the cocoon and become a butterfly, with the cultivation level breaking through and improving, thus encountering the present situation.

Fortunately, his attitude towards this senior had been good in the past, even though he had refrained from any inappropriate actions due to the strong power of Liang Sheng. In the end, he had not let the situation worsen.

If a Divinity Transformation realm senior could still improve the Visualization Divine Technique, there could only be one explanation: the other party had broken through Divinity Transformation and achieved the Soul Emergence Great Monarch realm.

If Liang Sheng knew about Lingkun's thoughts, he could only sigh that the other party was thinking too much. However, in terms of battle strength, his own was indeed not weaker than any Soul Emergence power.

Lingkun was somewhat excited. Even the City Master Zhen Yuan might not know that there was such a great might existing in Longevity Immortal City.

But on the other hand, when the church obtained the Visualization Technique back then, it was probably right under the watchful eye of Liang Sheng. If he had been displeased and caused trouble at that time...

Lingkun did not dare to think further. Moreover, all the actions of the Church of All Beings over the years should have been under Liang Sheng's watch as well.

Since the church had secretly broken into his Cave Mansion, they must bear the cause and effect. In this case, both to repay the cause and effect, and to avoid angering the senior, the matter with Jin Quanxiu of the Zhou Family should be put to an end.

With this thought, Lingkun immediately got up, led the Nascent Soul Master who had just brought the scroll, and personally went to the Zhou Family.

This time, he did not conceal his whereabouts. It was not too late to make up for the loss at this moment, but he must show the greatest sincerity.

Jin Quanxiu felt a thud in his heart when he first heard of Lingkun's visit. However, since there was no sense of crisis in the Zhou Family at the moment, he barely managed to calm down.

He was most worried that it would cause trouble for the senior. After all, it was the senior who told him not to worry about the Church of All Beings, and Huang Yifan had sent them away earlier.

When Jin Quanxiu went out and saw Lingkun, he was about to bow, but Lingkun directly held his hand and was sincere.

"Junior Jin, it was the church members of my church who acted rashly before. This time, I came to apologize and clear up the misunderstanding. You must not have any grudges in your heart."

Jin Quanxiu was a little stunned when he heard this, but he quickly reacted. It seemed that the senior had taken action, or the Church of All Beings would not be like this.

He did not know Lingkun's identity. If he knew that Lingkun was the current leader of the Church of All Beings, he would probably be even more surprised.

However, Jin Quanxiu had gained confidence at this point. Of course, he remained extremely respectful on the surface. With the intention of both parties, everything became harmonious and joyful.

Not long after, Lingkun bid farewell and left. At this point, all misunderstandings were cleared up. Jin Quanxiu looked at Lingkun leaving and wanted to find Liang Sheng in his heart, but he knew that at this moment, many pairs of eyes were watching him, so he had to suppress the impulse.

“Elder Jin...”

Jin Quanxiu stood and watched Lingkun leave, while the Zhou Family Master behind him seemed to be hesitant to speak, but there was a hint of excitement in his eyes.

At this moment, with his bloodline of fortune-attracting ability, it seemed that there would be no more crisis for the Zhou Family in a short period of time.

Jin Quanxiu glanced at him and said with a smile, “Master, no need to ask too much. Whatever we had before, we’ll have in the future, there is no need for any change.”

“I know, Elder rest assured.”

Jin Quanxiu nodded, but in his heart, he was thinking that since the senior had chosen to stay hidden before, he naturally did not need to reveal any information about him, even if the senior instructed him.

However, the senior’s cultivation level seemed to be higher than he had imagined, or else why would the Church of All Beings be like this?

He did not have such face.

The surviving members of high-level cultivator families in the Immortal City had all received the order from their ancestors at this moment: no one could provoke the Zhou Family.

After Lingkun and Jin Quanxiu bid farewell, Lingkun did not go to Liang Sheng. A smart person did not need to say much. Since Liang Sheng chose not to show up, he should not disturb him either.

Before, he chose to remain hidden, which showed that he had no intention of helping either the City Lord Mansion or the Church of All Beings. He needed to hurry up and complete the second plan.

Thus, there might be a chance of inadequacy, and he could leave with his people immediately. However, there was a thought lurking in his mind.

Had everything that the Church planned earlier been known to the senior? If not for going to Jin Quianxiu today and accidentally discovering the secret that Liang Sheng was the master of the Drought Visualization Technique, it might have been kept forever.

So, this person was truly a Hidden World Expert. While they were in the open, he was in the dark. Could the actions of the Church of All Beings really be kept from him?

Moreover, based on his cultivation level, if he wanted to be the lord of an Immortal City, the Immortal Dynasty would gladly agree, and the Dao Lord would emerge.

Thankfully, he had no ill intentions towards the Church of All Beings. However, according to the predictions of the Grand Solar Golden Crow Technique, the senior should be cultivating the Great Dao of Fire. Facing the dog thief Zhen Yuan, what was his winning chance?

Chapter 488: Do Not Offend Elder Liang, Immortal Dynasty's Hundred Years Revival Wave

But Lingkun shook his head soon, suppressing this thought. The tenet of the Church of All Beings was that everyone should rely on themselves, like dragons. How could he rely on others at this moment?

Unless the other party was willing to walk with the Church of All Beings, but based on what had happened previously, they only wanted to keep their distance and not interfere with each other.

What a pity.

Lingkun left, but regardless of whether Lingkun had found Liang Sheng, the smart people in the Immortal City could guess the situation, but they kept it secret, spreading only among the upper echelon cultivators.

As for the Zhou Family, they still closed their doors for today and did not show any changes. At this time, Liang Sheng also had more appreciation for Lingkun.

The other party was more sensible and understanding of the situation than he had imagined. As for his use of the Grand Solar Golden Crow to suppress the Thousands Miles of Drought and warn Lingkun, whether it would have a cause and effect with his true master, Liang Sheng was not worried.

What he said about cause and effect only referred to secretly protecting the Church of All Beings in the past. Lingkun was just overthinking it, it was his problem, what did it have to do with Liang Sheng?

At this time, Liang Sheng was lying leisurely on a lounge chair, his internal techniques still circulating in Zhou Tian. At this moment, the Heavenly and Earthly Aura was sealed, and with the resources he had obtained from the City Lord Mansion, he could sustain himself for ten thousand years without any problem.

For him, cultivating was just a matter of practice makes perfect, and the persistence of dripping water drilling through stones.

The Immortal City calmed down. Under the Church of All Beings' previous iron-blooded measures and swift actions, all hostile forces were eradicated without any mercy.

Only allies were left, which made the Church of All Beings' backup plans run smoothly, and a hundred years passed again under these circumstances.

Kaiyuan Child was still maintaining the Big Array outside the Immortal City, determined to wipe out the rogue cultivators of the Church of All Beings in the Immortal City. If it weren't for the concern of affecting Zhen Yuanzi and the Immortal Dynasty's luck, he would already have taken full action to exterminate the renegade Church of All Beings.

The Seeking Truth lineage was in chaos, rejected by Heaven and Earth, and rightly deserved to die.

At this moment, it was Junior Brother Zhenyuan who was suffering.

But just then, the Qi inside the Immortal City fluctuated. Before Kaiyuan Child could understand what was going on, it returned to calm.

He couldn't help but be a little startled. What had happened inside the Immortal City? In the next moment, his eyes were filled with murderous intent, which then returned to calm once again.

Considering City Master Zhen Yuan, he could only watch for changes, but regardless of City Master Zhen Yuan's final outcome; at that time, the Church of All Beings would undoubtedly die!

East Victory Immortal Dynasty.

Capital City Soul Song.

Ling Xiaozi suddenly opened his eyes and looked somewhat helpless outside the Great Hall. He saw an elderly man in a Taoist robe, white eyebrows and beard, with a cultivator's demeanor, and a middle-aged cultivator with a faint smile, transmitting messages.

"Daoist friend Ling Xiaozi, my disciple Feng Yuan has left closed-door cultivation today. I have brought him especially to visit you. Please show yourself."

Ling Xiaozi felt helpless. This old fart seemed to want to show off in front of him again. He didn't want to see him at all.

For them, cultivators with such great might and long lifespans, they valued face. In the face of the slightly provocative behavior of the other party, they could not actually make a move, lest they lost their own dignity.

He pretended to be in closed-door cultivation, ignoring the elderly man outside. However, the other party did not leave, insisting on seeing him.

This old fart.

At this time, Ling Xiaozi had already sensed that people in the Capital City had turned their attention here. Out of helplessness and to avoid further embarrassment, he could only invite the visitors inside.

After the two entered, the old man directly sat on a cushion opposite Ling Xiaozi with a smile on his face. However, he looked to the left and the right but didn't see Kaiyuan Child, so he asked with slight surprise.

"Eh, where's Little Friend Kaiyuan? Didn't he come out of the Spiritual Vein a few hundred years ago? Did he gain something from the Spiritual Vein that he had to go into closed-door cultivation?"

It seems that Daoist friend Ling Xiaozi teaches well. Look at my bad disciple, wasting his years in the Spiritual Vein, only making a little progress in cultivation and gaining nothing else, not even needing closed-door cultivation."

Upon hearing this, Ling Xiaozi made no move, as the old man in front of him, Chunyangzi, had such a character, always liking to ridicule.

But the other party could live until now, naturally had his means, and the other party was his old rival; they found it hard to suppress him in the competition between their disciples. How could they miss this opportunity?

Ling Xiaozi shook his head, "Daoist friend Chunyangzi is joking. How could my disciple enter closed-door cultivation without gaining anything from the Spiritual Vein? He is not like your beloved disciple, who has already reached the middle stage of Soul Emergence and can expect great things from the Dao.

As for my disciple Kaiyuan, he is not in Soul Song. The two brothers, him and my bad disciple Zhen Yuan, value friendship the most. He is a little worried because Zhen Yuan is facing his Fate Calamity, so he has gone to Longevity Immortal City to deal with some matters and hasn't returned yet."

"So that's how it is."

Seeing the words “Fate Calamity,” Chunyangzi’s expression moved, and he secretly deduced the matter. When he knew almost everything about the situation of Longevity Immortal City being sealed, his eyes narrowed.

The Qi was mixed, and Zhen Yuanzi’s Qi was intermingled with the Immortal City’s Qi, flickering and uncertain, apparently still in the midst of the Fate Calamity.

As for Kaiyuan Child, who was currently maintaining the Sealing Array, he also found clues under Chunyangzi’s deductions of Heavenly Secrets.

The Seeking Truth Lineage, the Church of All Beings?

Although he didn’t know what had happened specifically in the Longevity Immortal City, when he thought of his disciple Feng Yuan, he suddenly had a bright idea.

Power of Human Tribulation, Sealing Array, connecting Zhenyuan’s Fate Calamity, Immortal City, and the Spiritual Vein... and the addition of the Sealing Array maintained by Kaiyuan Child...

If Ling Xiaozi was willing to help, perhaps this would be the chance for his disciple?

Thinking of this, he no longer mocked Ling Xiaozi, and in a rare serious manner, spoke in a steady voice.

Chapter 489: Do Not Offend Senior Liang, The Immortal Dynasty’s Unrest Returns After a Century

“Since Daoist Friend Kaiyuan is not present, my disciple has been cultivating in the Spiritual Vein for many years without leaving Lingge. Why not let him accompany Kaiyuan?”

Ling Xiaozi didn’t speak, but he already had some guesses in his heart. Seeing this, Chunyangzi decided to get straight to the point.

“Daoist Friend Ling Xiaozi, Kaiyuan, after all, is one of the few among the younger generation who has survived a Fate Calamity. Although my disciple has made rapid progress in his cultivation, his Fate Calamity has not arrived yet.

Since it is a coincidence, let Feng Yuan witness Zhen Yuan’s Human Tribulation. Perhaps after this, he will gain some experience and increase his chances of surviving the Fate Calamity.”

Upon hearing Chunyangzi’s straightforward words, Ling Xiaozi naturally couldn’t refuse. Chunyangzi’s disciple, Feng Yuan, was a gifted child; at this moment, he had already reached the intermediate level of the Soul Emergence stage. However, his life calamity had not yet arrived.

Moreover, since he had spent so much time at the Spiritual Vein, he was likely to make another breakthrough soon. However, the higher his cultivation level, the riskier his Fate Calamity will be.

Although Kaiyuan’s fortune in the Great Competition of Spiritual Veins was far inferior to Feng Yuan’s, when it comes to real luck, Kaiyuan’s is deeper.

This was because he had inadvertently survived the Fate Calamity, thus giving him the opportunity to cultivate further and widen the road to immortality. It was for this reason that Chunyangzi’s attitude had changed, no longer being aggressive.

With this thought in mind, Ling Xiaozi finally felt that he had the upper hand over Chunyangzi, and since this had no bearing on the Longevity Immortal City, naturally, he wouldn’t refuse it.

“Daoist Friend’s words make sense; let the younger generation gather together.” Saying this, he turned to Feng Yuan and said, “Feng Yuan, if you meet my unworthy disciple, tell him to focus on cultivating, as his progress is far behind yours.”

“Senior Brother Ling Xiaozi is joking. Kaiyuan is my role model. Although I was fortunate to obtain the blessing of the Spiritual Vein, I have not yet passed the Fate Calamity, so it is still an illusion in the end.”

Upon hearing this, Ling Xiaozi became even more delighted, “Alright, you don’t need to flatter. With your talent, the Fate Calamity might not even be a big deal for you.

Since there's no better day than today, Feng Yuan, set off now to find Kaiyuan. I'll catch up with your master."

Feng Yuan glanced at Chunyangzi and then took his leave,

"Yes."

After Feng Yuan left, Ling Xiaozi and Chunyangzi shared a tacit look, "Daoist Friend Ling Xiaozi, please inform Kaiyuan and arrange for my disciple to hitch a ride."

"Are you sure about this? No one can predict what will happen next. Aren't you waiting for it? Do you really want to borrow my disciple Zhen Yuan's tribulation power?"

Chunyangzi nodded, and Ling Xiaozi didn't linger on the matter any longer. Since the other party didn't care, and his own disciple Zhen Yuan could benefit from it, why refuse?

Chunyangzi also couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief in his heart. The higher Feng Yuan's cultivation level was, the later his Fate Calamity would come. The more he worried, the higher the cultivation level would be, the harder it would be to survive the Fate Calamity.

Talented cultivators would inevitably be envied by Heaven and Earth.

So in this respect, Kaiyuan was lucky. However, gains came with losses, because he unintentionally survived the Fate Calamity, ultimately losing chances for hardships from Heaven and Earth. Therefore, he had fewer opportunities in the future.

Just like this time, during the competition of the Spiritual Vein Spirit Tide, Kaiyuan was eliminated early, unlike Feng Yuan, who only came out at this moment. Of course, in the end, cultivators had hope as long as they were alive.

So, who had deeper fortune between the two of them could not be determined at this moment, and Chunyangzi sensed Feng Yuan had left the territory of Lingge, expressing his gratitude once again.

“Daoist Friend Ling Xiaozi, this time it’s really troublesome for you. No matter what the outcome, I will compensate.”

Seeing Chunyangzi bow his head, Ling Xiaozi couldn’t be more delighted; this old fart had never been like this before, which was simply a pleasure to behold.

“Daoist Friend Chunyangzi, there’s no need to worry. Maybe when Feng Yuan meets up with my disciple, they’ll both soar to greater heights.”

Hopefully, that’s the case.

Chunyangzi didn’t respond but looked in the direction of the Longevity Immortal City. Under his calculations, with the Heavenly Secrets, he could only see chaos and nothing else.

It seemed that his disciple’s Fate Calamity would indeed be triggered in the Longevity Immortal City. What happened next would depend on him.

Thinking of this, Chunyangzi’s eyes were filled with a deep, dark gaze, while Ling Xiaozi simply took a sip of his tea.

Zhen Yuan was truly fortunate, but who knew if he could survive the Fate Calamity?

If he could survive the Fate Calamity, the destruction of Longevity Immortal City would not matter. Unfortunately, the Heavenly Secrets were still unclear.

Chapter 490: The Last Dance of the Church of All Beings, Liang Sheng Plucks Chestnuts from the Fire

Outside the Immortal City.

Kaiyuanzi faintly sensed that there was something unusual about the Qi inside the Immortal City. However, this anomaly only flashed by and disappeared in an instant, not giving him enough time to investigate.

As a result, he could only temporarily give up and observe the changes. At the same time, Liang Sheng was staring intently at the secret base of the Church of All Beings.

He saw that the Church of All Beings eventually chose to build an extremely large formation, which had such a bizarre aura that even Liang Sheng couldn't fully comprehend.

However, he had an inexplicable feeling in his heart, and under his Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, he felt very strange, as if he couldn't be sure about good or bad fortune at this moment.

This inevitably made him hesitate; as for the next step, he finally decided to be immovable like a mountain and observe the changes.

It was a pity that the Teleportation Array he had left at the Yaoxiang Pavilion earlier couldn't be used now because the Immortal City was sealed off by Kaiyuan's Heaven and Earth Ban.

If he really wanted to use it, he would have to break the seal of the Longevity Immortal City first. Regardless, Liang Sheng still had a relatively high level of confidence in escaping unscathed.

Nevertheless, he hoped that the situation wouldn't be too bad under the Church of All Beings' final means. At this moment, Lingkun's actions made Liang Sheng feel somewhat uncertain.

Did the Church of All Beings really not care about their own lives? How could cultivators with such long lifespans be so selfless and unafraid of death?

The only explanation was that these people were mad!

Completely and utterly mad!

At this moment, as Liang Sheng watched Lingkun complete the final hand seal and all the array flags were done, he couldn't help but be cautious.

After the successful refining of the Array Flags, Liang Sheng felt a very familiar Qi. Why would the Church of All Beings choose this?

However, if it was really as he thought, Kaiyuanzi from outside the domain might indeed consider disregarding Zhenyuan's life and death and exterminating the Church of All Beings.

Otherwise, if the Church of All Beings succeeded in their madness, things wouldn't end that well. He might end up regretting it.

Regardless of what the Church of All Beings and Kaiyuanzi do, all he had to do was ensure his own safety first before dealing with anything else.

It's just a pity that during the hundred years that have passed, although Liang Sheng's cultivation has been steadily progressing, it would still take a long time to advance to the Late-stage Divinity Transformation.

However, he probably doesn't have much time left now. Thinking of this, he couldn't help but look up at the sky beyond and sigh.

Fortunately, under his Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, there were no signs of major disaster, so he would wait and see what happens next, hoping that everything goes smoothly.

At this moment, outside the Longevity Immortal City, Feng Yuan had already arrived. When Kaiyuanzi saw Feng Yuan, his expression was somewhat complicated.

At this point, he had already received the communication from his Master Lingxiaozi, knowing that Feng Yuan's arrival here had a special mission, even if Feng Yuan himself may not be aware of it.

However, when the Spiritual Tidal arrived, he couldn't hold on for long and was directly kicked out of the Spiritual Vein, while Feng Yuan could stay inside for hundreds of years until now.

He must have gained a lot, and perhaps in some time, he would be able to smoothly break through to the Late-Stage Soul Emergence.

It was even possible that the other party was deliberately not making a breakthrough because they hadn't passed their Fate Calamity yet. Thinking of this, Kaiyuanzi's mood slightly improved.

If one doesn't pass the Fate Calamity, the higher one's cultivation, the more miserable the death. This balance made him feel better, and he no longer thought about it, restraining his personal emotions with a sincere smile on his face.

As for what he was going to do next, Lingxiaozi had already given clear instructions.

"Fellow Daoist Feng Yuan, long time no see."

"Senior Brother Kaiyuan, long time no see."

The two greeted each other with great politeness. In fact, their ancestors belonged to the same lineage, but after so many years, their paths have diverged, yet their feelings remained.

Just look at how Lingxiaozi and Chunyangzi seemed to be at odds with each other, seeing each other as eyesores, but this was also due to their deep bond.

As disciples, Kaiyuanzi and Feng Yuan could see clearly that instead of saying that they couldn't stand each other, it was more like a naughty old child's mischief.

It was nothing more than a mutual grudge over their respective old grievances. Otherwise, with their cultivation and status, if there were deep hatred and enmity, it wouldn't be as simple as bickering now.

After saying hello to each other, there was a moment of silence, and they didn't know what to say for a while.

Feng Yuan looked at the current sealing situation of the Longevity Immortal City at this time and couldn't help but frown. Why did it come to this?

He couldn't help but mutter to himself, "Is this the Human Tribulation of cultivators? Is the easiest Fate Calamity, the Human Tribulation, really so tricky?"

Hearing Feng Yuan's words, Kaiyuanzi thought about it and decided to comfort him. After all, Fate Calamity was an unavoidable hurdle for cultivators.

Fellow Daoist Feng Yuan, you don't have to worry too much. In fact, before Junior Brother Zhen Yuan's Human Tribulation, the aura was not so terrifying. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been so sure to leave back then.

It's just that I don't know what sort of methods the rebellious Church of All Beings has used to cause this situation. I had to ask my Master for help and seal the Longevity Immortal City.

However, this can actually be understood since the Church of All Beings' rebel lineage originates from the Seeking Truth Rebel Lineage that was rejected by Heaven and Earth. It is quite excusable to be able to do so."

"Seeking Truth Rebel Lineage?"

Feng Yuan couldn't help but be surprised. Then he looked down at the Longevity Immortal City and suddenly realized something in his heart.

So that's how it was.

The topic was thus opened, and the two were less embarrassed when they first met, and the conversation naturally continued.

"Senior Brother Kaiyuan, Ling Xiaozi must have told you that my Master asked me to learn from you during this visit. I wonder what I should do next."