

Bottleneck 651

Chapter 651: Heavenly Thunder and Dharma Manifestation Show Their Might, Demon Sovereign Transforms and Overcomes Tribulation, Liang Sheng Benefits Like a Fisherman!

Today's encounter only reaffirmed their belief in the ancestors' decision back then for safely developing in the Underground World, which was already a great fortune.

Just at this moment, seeing the situation once again stagnating, Feng Qingzi made another effort. The Demon Clan, after suffering casualties one after another, were completely stirred up and began to fiercely counterattack due to their numerical advantage.

Thus, whether it was the Seeking Truth Lineage or the Immortal Dynasty cultivators, several cultivators lost their lives within a short period of time.

All of this naturally fell on Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi's eyes, and they knew they couldn't delay any longer. They had to give it their all.

Even if it's a desperate struggle, they must fight for a chance to escape.

Feng Qingzi, at this moment, suddenly let out a roar under his huge body, between the three heads.

Then, they saw three scorching hot beams shoot out from his three mouths, shattering the entire space.

"Quick, dodge!"

The three Great Demon Emperors were quick to react and hurriedly dodged almost unconsciously. But beneath the trajectory of the light beams, everything had vanished, leaving only the space itself.

Chunyangzi was extremely shocked when he saw this, because the power of these three beams was almost on par with the damage of Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder Secret Technique, albeit only for a brief attack and not sustainable.

If it could be continuously fired, it would be no different from the Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder, bombarding endlessly. Even a Refinement Void Dao Monarch would be severely injured, if not killed outright.

The Dharma manifestation, one of the Town Faction Divine Powers of the Seeking Truth Lineage, was indeed extraordinary. However, at this time, he also noticed that Feng Qingzi's face had turned slightly pale, indicating a great consumption of energy.

But he didn't stop his attack, and instead shot the beams again, forcing the three Great Demon Emperors to flee in haste for a short while.

"Chunyangzi!"

At the moment when the beams disappeared, Feng Qingzi suddenly shouted. Chunyangzi saw the three Great Demon Emperors, who had rapidly fled to a spot not too far from himself, and his eyes couldn't help but light up.

It was obvious that Feng Qingzi had intentionally driven the Demon Emperors into his attack range, so he didn't waste any time hesitating.

"Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder!"

After initiating the Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder Secret Technique, Chunyangzi couldn't help but feel extremely emotional in his heart. He had never thought that he would have such a tacit cooperation with the Seeking Truth Lineage.

However, even during this sigh of emotion, he didn't stop his movements. Thunder roared from the sky, and the three Great Demon Emperors, who had just dodged Feng Qingzi's attack, had their back hairs standing on end, their minds trembling.

Up in the dark clouds, a mind-shattering Thunder Tribulation was brewing, and its target was the Three Great Demon Emperor Ancestors.

“Quick, transform and withstand it!”

The Hu Family’s Demon Emperor Ancestor could only hastily remind them at this time since they were already targeted by the Heavenly Thunder and couldn’t avoid the attack.

Who could have foreseen that two Refinement Void Dao Lords would corner them to such an extent before? It was simply unbelievable to even think about it.

But that was the reality, what could the demons do about it?

At the next moment, three colossal figures appeared in the dense clouds!

A white, pure Six-tailed Fox!

A ferocious, unparalleled Tiger!

And a roaring Giant Ape!

Each of them resembled ancient barbaric beasts between heaven and earth. These were the true forms of the Demon Emperors after the transformation, and the entire space was left with only their presence.

The pressure they exuded after transformation caused all Demonic Beasts within a radius of tens of thousands of miles on the ground to crawl and roar with fear.

Their transformed pressure also made Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi pause in their movements, not to mention the human cultivators and the Demon Clan below.

All of the people on both sides almost collapsed to the ground, and at this time, it was already a great effort for them to even maintain a clear mind, let alone fight.

Was this the pressure of a transformed Demon Emperor? Indeed, it wasn't something an ordinary person could imagine. Liang Sheng, who was hidden in the distance, couldn't help but squint his eyes.

However, at the next moment, two equally shocking auras surged rapidly from Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi.

This was a critical juncture, and they couldn't let the Demon Emperors escape. At this time, when they used their trump cards, they didn't fall behind.

Moreover, at this moment, the Heavenly Thunder was ready. This was the Heavenly Thunder nurtured by Chunyangzi's own blood and was completely different from ordinary Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder.

Even Chunyangzi himself didn't want to be hit by such Heavenly Thunder. Underneath Feng Qingzi's three-headed, six-armed Dharma manifestation, he was also silently on guard against the escaping Demon Emperor.

But he was also somewhat shocked when he saw the Heavenly Thunder Secret Technique, and had no confidence in how long he could persist under it, even with his Dharma manifestation.

But now was not the time to talk about this. At least they were allies at the moment. He saw a third eye appear suddenly on each of his faces and shot out three world-destroying beams once more.

The beams and the range of Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder Secret Technique formed a joint encirclement, and under the dark clouds, the powerful Heavenly Thunder struck down instantly.

The huge Nine-tailed Fox, with seemingly holy and unparalleled pressure, had a murderous look in his eyes at this moment, and flames of anger burned in his heart.

Did they really think they could trample on their Demon Clan as they pleased? They were Demon Emperors, after all. How could the opponents be so confident in killing them with a non-genuine heavenly thunder?

Chapter 652: Heavenly Thunder and Dharma Manifestation Show Their Might, Demon Sovereign Transforms and Overcomes Tribulation, Liang Sheng Benefits Like a Fisherman!

All they had to do was withstand this wave of attack, and then it would be their turn to counter-attack. This time, they just had to hold on.

Moreover, the reinforcements he had called for were almost here. The other two behemoths had the same idea.

The world of cultivation with flowers had already been occupied by the human clan. Were they now going to control the beast swamp that they had hidden for ten thousand years?

What a sweet deal? Hand over everything to the human clan?

The next moment, the gigantic figures of the three entities could be seen not retreating but advancing, proactively taking to the sky to engage, ready to withstand the baptism of heavenly thunder.

Boom!

Boom, boom!

Boom, boom, boom!

Consecutive heavenly thunders instantly engulfed the three great demon emperor ancestors, and the death ray in Feng Qingzi's eyes blasted mercilessly on their bodies.

At this moment, it was as if the apocalypse had descended. The humans below couldn't help but cheer loudly while the remaining members of the demon clan turned pale, fear gripping their hearts.

However, after Chunyangzi and Feng Qingzi made their moves, they didn't even glance at the three great demon emperors under the sky-thunder. Instead, they simultaneously attacked the demons below.

“Quick, run!”

Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi each grabbed their disciples and then began to flee in opposite directions. Even Kaiyuan Child and Feng Yuan didn’t react in time.

Wasn’t their master winning just now? Why were they running all of a sudden? What was going on?

But Chunyangzi and Feng Qingzi ignored their confusion. By this time, Feng Qingzi had already dissolved his Dharma manifestation, and the Dharma Manifestation Monument appeared in his hand.

“Go!”

At this moment, no one in the Seeking Truth Lineage noticed the gray color on the faces of Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi. The previous assault had drained most of their strength.

The heavenly thunder was still wreaking havoc at the moment. The demons who had miraculously survived under Feng Qingzi’s hands were still in fear.

As Feng Qingzi was fleeing, they both felt some pain in their hearts because too many people had died this time.

Damned demon clan.

Who would have known that such a powerful demon clan existed in the beast swamp? If it weren’t for the Era of Great Contention and their accidental appearance, no one would have discovered this situation.

It was just a shame that they couldn’t communicate with the outside world. Right now, they needed to ensure their own safety first. So, despite choosing different routes, Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi both concealed their bodies with great mana.

They did not dare to walk upright openly in the surface world like before. Since the demon clan was powerful, they would not make the same mistake again.

However, it was unfortunate that this was the Era of Great Contention. The beast swamp was sealed. If this news could get out, countless mighty cultivators would no doubt come.

After all, the existence of such a powerful demon clan, hidden in the beast swamp and never exposed, was bound to reserve a significant secret. How could the human clan ignore this?

While they were escaping, the battlefield was still thundering. The lucky demons who had survived huddled on the side, praying in secret.

In the mid-air, one could occasionally hear the furious roars of the three great demon emperor ancestors amid the flashes of lightning. After several breaths, the thunder finally stopped.

In an instant, it calmed down, and there was no abnormality in the whole sky. The human cultivators on the ground had disappeared, and only two huge figures with burn marks remained in mid-air.

Their eyes were full of rage.

This time, they had underestimated the human clan. But luckily, it seemed that the human clan could not send messages to the outside world. They still had a chance.

They must seize the time now and let more strong members of the demon clan from the elder assembly act together, no longer giving the opportunity to the human clan to perform secret techniques.

They had been careless this time.

But when they calmed down, they looked at each other, puzzled. When they had just resisted the heavenly thunder, the Nine-tailed Fox, who was clearly by their side, where did it suddenly disappear?

A nameless panic instantly appeared in their hearts because they had not sensed any abnormality just now.

How did Ancestor Hu disappear?

...

Meanwhile, thousands of miles away, Liang Sheng couldn't help but curl up the corners of his mouth. At this moment, the secret method in his hand was restraining a demon beast.

A small, exquisite, white fox which looked extremely cute.

Only, it had six tails.

Chapter 653: Liang Sheng Controls the Six-Tailed Demon Sovereign, Unraveling the Secrets of the Underground Demon Clan

Outer Heaven Beast Swamp.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was already thousands of miles away from the battlefield, but for a cultivator with his level of cultivation, this distance was just a matter of an instant.

He didn't flee far because he was still waiting for the arrival of the Demon Clan reinforcements, as the matter was not yet over.

Only when the Demon Clan returns to the Underground World can this plan come to an end. Although there were twists and turns in the plan, fortunately, the outcome did not differ too much from Liang Sheng's expectations.

From the results, whether it was the Seeking the Truth Lineage or the Immortal Dynasty cultivators, both sides suffered heavy losses, which can be described as a severe blow to their vitality.

Of course, the Demon Clan wasn't in a good situation either. Not only did they fail to achieve their goal, but one of the Demon Emperors also disappeared mysteriously.

Fortunately, they still had reinforcements, so leaving safely was not a troublesome matter. As long as they wanted to retreat back to the Underground World, everything would be completed smoothly.

Liang Sheng looked at the unconscious Six-tailed Fox in his hand, and couldn't help but smile with the corners of his mouth turning up. He had indeed become a powerful figure.

It was Liang Sheng who, when the Three Great Demon Emperor Ancestors were resisting Chunyangzi's Heavenly Thunder Secret Method, forcibly infiltrated and braced the Heavenly Thunder's bombardment, directly taking Ancestor Hu with him.

Don't underestimate Liang Sheng's move. He not only endured the Heavenly Thunder but also deceived the other two Demon Clan Demon Emperors. He simultaneously knocked out Ancestor Hu and took him away without making a sound.

At this moment, Ancestor Hu was completely engulfed in deep sleep, and he probably had no idea that he had been captured by Liang Sheng.

Having Ancestor Hu by his side was actually a decision that Liang Sheng had made after careful consideration, because considering the various actions of the Demon Clan, Ancestor Hu was the most important among the three Demon Emperors.

Previously, as long as Ancestor Hu made a decision, the other two Demon Clan Demon Emperors would immediately follow it, which showed his status in the Demon Clan.

Moreover, the Fox Demon itself had the ability to charm, so it must know more secrets within the Demon Clan.

Therefore, no matter how you look at it, it was the best choice. Liang Sheng thought for a moment, then sealed it again and stuffed the Six-tailed Fox Ancestor Hu into the Storage Ring.

What came next depends on the choice of the Demon Clan. If they still wanted to track down the Human Cultivators, Liang Sheng would have to take action again.

Of course, if they chose to return to the Underground World, it would also save Liang Sheng some effort. Thinking of this, he once again focused his attention on the Demon Clan side.

At this moment, the other two Demon Emperors, who had awakened under the Heavenly Thunder, were searching for any traces of Ancestor Hu.

It was strange that they had been together to resist the Heavenly Thunder just a moment ago, but as soon as the Heavenly Thunder disappeared, the other party disappeared as well.

They had no feeling about this at all. Ancestor Hu had disappeared from their side without any trace, without them noticing anything. The more they thought about it, the more terrified they felt in their hearts.

This situation was too abnormal.

For so many years, since they had reached the Demon Emperor Realm, they had never had such an encounter. How could a Demon Emperor possibly lose perception within their own territory?

When this happened, there was only one explanation: someone with great might was scheming against them. In this situation, how could they not be anxious?

But now they dared not leave too far to investigate the truth. After all, an existence that could shield their perception was definitely not something they could deal with just the two of them.

They just hoped that the hidden force was not the Human Clan cultivators, otherwise...

But if it were the Demon Clan seniors, why would they do this and cause needless trouble?

Just then, four rays of light rushed from the distant horizon, and as if they had found their traces, they landed directly beside them.

The two Demon Emperor Ancestors took a closer look and saw that they were the reinforcements sent by the Elder Assembly. Upon seeing this, they breathed a sigh of relief.

As soon as the four reinforcements arrived, they noticed that Ancestor Hu was not present. They couldn't help but feel tense in their hearts and had a sudden bad premonition.

"Two elders, where is Brother Hu? Why is it just the two of you now? Is it possible that the Human Clan is too hard to deal with, and Brother Hu went to track them down?"

Ancestor Fu, hearing this, hurriedly shook his head and briefly explained what had happened. After hearing the outcome, the four Demon Emperor Ancestors who had come to support them couldn't help but frown once again.

The situation was worse than they had imagined. It was simply inconceivable that Ancestor Hu could disappear without any trace at all.

Moreover, the disappearance was so silent that it was even more troublesome than dying at the hands of the human clan since they didn't know what had happened.

Without knowing the specific situation, there could be many possibilities, but most guesses were not easy to accept.

"Let's search around for a while and see if we can find any clues."

"Alright."

With the support of four more Demon Emperors, their confidence grew, and they began to gather together and search for traces of Ancestor Hu.

Unfortunately, after some time, they still found nothing.

However, it was already certain that it was not Ancestor Hu who had left on his own, but someone had secretly tampered with the situation, otherwise, this kind of thing would not have happened.

Upon realizing this, several Demon Emperors exchanged glances with each other.

“We should retreat to the Underground World for now. This matter still needs further deliberation. There are too many doubts in this situation, and we can’t grasp the whole picture at once.

Not to mention anything else, it was strange enough that our initial attack didn’t succeed, but the Human Clan did not communicate with the outer world.

It can only be said that this situation is more complicated than we imagined, and acting rashly may make things worse.”

Chapter 654: Liang Sheng Controls the Soul of the Six-Tailed Demon Sovereign, First Exploration of the Underground Demon Clan’s Secrets

As for Brother Hu’s disappearance, the Elder Assembly has not sent us any communication at this moment, which means that at least he is not in mortal danger now, otherwise we would already have received the news.”

“What elder brother said is extremely true. No matter what, after surviving this ambush, the human clan will surely become more cautious and will no longer swagger.

Moreover, the Spirit Rhinoceros Insects we have placed on the surface haven’t sent any information until now, which means that the humans must have concealed their traces when they retreated and escaped.

Although Brother Hu has disappeared, at least we’ve learned about the strength of the human clan, which is not to be underestimated. Regardless, this has been a wake-up call for us, and we’ll wait for the results of the Elder Assembly’s discussion before saying anything else.”

“We shouldn’t delay any longer then, let’s go!”

The demon clan’s reinforcements hurriedly arrived, bringing with them the remnants of their forces from the previous battlefield and hastily retreated to the Underground World.

Liang Sheng saw this situation, and wasn’t too surprised in his heart, as everything seemed to be under control.

He glanced at Ancestor Hu who was still unconscious in his Storage Ring, thought for a moment, and then quietly followed the demon clan, entering the Underground World again.

He had tampered with the Seeking Truth Lineage and Immortal Dynasty cultivators, so they wouldn’t lose track of their whereabouts. He might as well see what decision the demon clan would make.

Besides, entering the Underground World is also known as the Dark Under the Light, sometimes the most dangerous place can often be the safest place.

It’s unlikely that the demon clan would have thought that the real culprit who captured Ancestor Hu would follow their large forces and re-enter the Underground World.

By the time Liang Sheng followed the demon clan to the Underground World, the entire subterranean realm was still the same as before, without a single change.

On the streets, people were coming and going, and the demon clan’s life hadn’t been affected in the slightest. It was lively, and the demons in the lower strata were still completely unaware of what was happening on the surface.

However, at this time, the upper echelons of the demon clan were in turmoil, not only because the Elder Assembly members were arguing over Ancestor Hu’s disappearance, but also because all the major family heads had summoned another clan leader conference.

Who could have imagined that this clan leader conference, which had been held only once in thousands of years in the Underground World, would be urgently convened twice in such a short time.

Each family head's heart was heavy, especially Hu Weiyong's. As the patriarch of the Hu Family, he had gone to check the Life Token the first moment he received the news.

Fortunately, the ancestor was still alive and had not perished. This was considered fortunate amidst the misfortune. He had thought that accidents might happen, but he never expected the ancestor to be in trouble.

If the ancestor had fallen, he couldn't even imagine the consequences and what would happen to the Hu Family afterward. He had no confidence.

At the clan leader conference, the various demon clan heads remained silent. In fact, they were merely looking for some comfort and warmth by staying together in a group.

Ultimately, everything would depend on the Elder Assembly's decision. They could only hope that everything would have a good outcome and that Ancestor Hu would return safely.

This time, there might be a serious problem.

...

While the upper echelons of the demon clan were thrown into disarray, Liang Sheng strolled into a very ordinary demon residence in the Underground World.

This mansion was unoccupied, and Liang Sheng thought no one would bother noticing it, so he temporarily made it his resting place.

At this moment, Liang Sheng took Ancestor Hu out of the Storage Ring. He was still unconscious, but Liang Sheng continued to feed him a few more elixirs.

Chaos Spirit Pill.

Although Liang Sheng was already adept at his Talent of Innocent Foolishness, his Soul Control Technique had reached a state of perfection. But just to be on the safe side, Liang Sheng made some extra preparations.

This was a powerful demon sovereign, equivalent to the Refinement Void Dao Monarch of the human clan. It was only right to be cautious.

Otherwise, a brief rash move might lead to unexpected accidents later, and Liang Sheng would have to spend even more time redeploying a new plan.

This would be a loss outweighing the gains. Why not make some more preparations in advance? So, Liang Sheng fed Ancestor Hu more Chaos Spirit Pills.

In this way, not only would the success rate of the Soul Control Technique be greatly improved, but Liang Sheng would also have more time to deal with unexpected situations.

Actually, Liang Sheng could afford to be so extravagant simply because he possessed an immeasurable amount of cultivation materials and resources. These were all the resources he had acquired from the entire Longevity Immortal City at its peak.

Probably not many people in the entire East Victory Immortal Dynasty could compare with him. At this moment, Liang Sheng didn't waste any more time either. After feeling that the Chaos Spirit Pills had taken effect, he immediately made his move.

Soul Control Technique!

In an instant, Ancestor Hu, who was still unconscious, was directly subjected to Liang Sheng's Soul Control Technique, and a vast amount of memories immediately invaded Liang Sheng's Sea of Consciousness.

Thankfully, Liang Sheng's Sea of Consciousness had already reached the Late-stage Soul Emergence Realm, making it incredibly vast and stable under the light of Zhou Tian's constellations. Even such a huge amount of memories didn't cause too many ripples.

Ancestor Hu once again fell into a deep coma, and even though he was in his Six-tailed Fox form, drool flowed from the corner of his mouth.

Liang Sheng didn't mind this, and after replenishing the sealing measures, he sat down and began to "read" another part of Ancestor Hu's life.

...

Ancestor Hu was named Hu Pei!

He was the gifted child of the Nine-Tailed Monster Race!

From the moment he was born, he carried the hopes of the entire Nine-Tailed Fox race. This was because when he was born, there were nine-tailed phantoms in the sky.

This meant that he had the potential to become the Nine-Tails Supreme. When he was born, the entire Fox Race held a grand feast for three days to celebrate the occasion.

Chapter 655: Liang Sheng Controls the Soul of the Six-Tailed Demon Sovereign, First Exploration of the Underground Demon Clan's Secrets

The entire Fox Race was extremely gentle to him. His childhood was well protected in the family, and almost all resources were poured onto him. No one in the Fox Race expressed any regret.

And Hu Fei did not disappoint. At the time of adulthood, he successfully transformed and became a Demon King Realm. This speed was rare in the entire history of the Fox Race family.

But that year, Hu Fei began to understand the truth about the world. The world he had lived in happily for hundreds of years was, surprisingly, the Underground World.

The demon race turned out to be a forgotten and expelled race by Heaven and Earth. They were disliked by Heaven and Earth, and in order to ensure the smooth development of their race, and not to provoke Heaven and Earth, they lived secretly in the Underground World.

In the year of adulthood, Hu Fei and I went to the Surface World. Not just him, but all the Elders of the major races had brought their adult children of the Demon Race, to explore the Surface World out of curiosity.

When they arrived at the Surface World, all the adult children of the Demon Race were extremely disappointed. Apart from being vast and boundless, the environment of the Surface World was even worse than the Underground World.

Compared to the Underground World, here seemed more like a forgotten land. But their Elders did not say anything and led everyone to continue to measure the entire Surface World step by step.

It turned out that the Surface World also had Demon Races, but, in the eyes of the underground demon race, they were not their kind.

They were too barbaric, and it was more like a place abandoned by the Demon Race long ago. In the mouths of humans, they were called Demonic Beasts.

They might live their entire lives in confusion, and only a few demonic beasts could break through shackles and become existences similar to the underground demon race.

Nevertheless, they would still not be accepted by the Underground World. For the survival of the Demon Race, the Underground World and the Surface World could not communicate.

Under the protection of the Elders, they explored the Surface World for a full ten years before Hu Fei finally understood why they did so.

It was because the Demon Ancestral Land was here, this place was their root, and besides, it held the treasure of the Demon Race – the Ancient Desolate Springs.

As long as the Ancient Desolate Springs existed, the Demon Race could survive.

Although the Underground World seemed to be flourishing, it was actually like a rootless duckweed that needed to obtain sustenance from the Surface World. The seemingly desolate Surface World had countless resources for the existence of the Demon Race.

It was the gift of the Ancient Desolate Springs, which allowed them to hide in the Underground World and continue to develop after being rejected by Heaven and Earth.

The Underground Demon Race's adult ceremony of going to the Surface World was taking place because it was their inheritance and fundamental.

In the latter part of the adult ceremony, the Demon Race Elders allowed Hu Fei and the others to act freely, because nothing could replace the experience gained from actually exploring.

But Hu Fei was different. After setting out alone, he was quickly taken back to the Underground World.

It was because Hu Fei encountered the Ancient Desolate Springs. After falling into it, Hu Fei was confused, but it seemed as if he had left something behind.

From then on, Hu Fei stayed in the Underground World and never went out again. He grew up smoothly and steadily until now, when he entered the Demon Emperor Realm and became a member of the Demon Race Elders' Council.

His position in the Demon Race Elders' Council was also extraordinary, as he had awakened the Nine-Tailed Fox Clan's Heavenly Fate Divine Ability.

Not to mention his experience with the Ancient Desolate Springs, Hu Fei played an irreplaceable role among the Demon Race.

For these reasons, many secrets of the Demon Race were never hidden from him.

This time, the mission to capture Human Cultivators in the Surface World took place because they believed that they had a good chance of success, and it was also due to Hu Weiyong holding a clan leader conference that Hu Pei entered the Surface World for the second time.

Originally, after the Human Race was captured by the Demon Race, Hu Fei would use the Nine-Tailed Fox Clan's Heavenly Fate Divine Ability to obtain the Secret of the Beast Swamp from the Human Race.

That was why Hu Fei was the one orchestrating this plan. However, unfortunately, things were full of twists and turns, and in the end, he fell into the hands of Liang Sheng.

This was also the reason the other two Demon Emperors suspected that someone with great might had taken action, and chose to stay in place waiting for reinforcements to search.

After absorbing Hu Fei's memories, Liang Sheng opened his eyes. After a while, his murky eyes regained their clarity.

After all, it was tens of thousands of years' worth of memories. Even with Liang Sheng's vast Sea of Consciousness, it made him feel a little mentally lost. However, despite this, it was worth it as the harvest this time was enormous.

With this thought, Liang Sheng looked in the northwest direction, and the corners of his mouth turned up slightly. Although he couldn't find the Ancient Desolate Springs, taking a look at the Ancient Spring Water would be nice as well.

The next moment, there was no one left in the abandoned house.

Chapter 656: The Demon Ancestor's Prophecy is Indeed Correct, the Great Calamity has Arrived!

Outer Heaven Beast Swamp.

Surface World.

At this moment, in a desolate place, a sudden wave of unusual fluctuations occurs. However, there is no trace of living creatures within a hundred-mile radius, so no one detects the anomaly.

Then, a team of people suddenly appears. They are none other than the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators who previously fled.

The unusual fluctuations just now were caused by Feng Qingzi applying a secret method to hide their tracks. After escaping from the pursuit of the Demon Clan, Feng Qingzi led the surviving Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators non-stop, only wanting to quickly get away from the battlefield and avoid being discovered by the Demon Clan.

He is not complacent about his successful escape with Chunyangzi through their trump cards because he knows that this successful escape is just a fluke.

While fleeing, he had already sensed an extremely powerful Qi coming towards the battlefield. Unexpectedly, this should be the reinforcements of the Demon Clan.

So, if the opposition had been more cautious previously and not exposed their whereabouts, or if they had waited for reinforcements to arrive before taking action, then neither he nor Chunyangzi could have escaped, even if they used all their trump cards.

Under these circumstances, Feng Qingzi naturally has self-knowledge, and where would he be complacent? But at this point, when their party has not discovered any Demon Clan pursuers, Feng Qingzi can't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

Eventful Times, such as the Era of Great Contention!

At this time, the Seeking-Truth Lineage originally wanted to take advantage of the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp descending on Longevity Immortal City, using this opportunity to seek chances for the Seeking-Truth Lineage to return to the Immortal Dynasty.

But unexpectedly, after landing in the Beast Swamp, they discovered the Demon Clan's big secret. The previously desolate Beast Swamp was not only inhabited by ordinary demonic beasts struggling to survive, but also by hiding powerful Demon Clans.

Moreover, judging by Chunyangzi's reaction at the time, it can be known that the East Victory Immortal Dynasty did not know the real situation of Beast Swamp.

From this, it can be inferred that the Demon Clan's scheme cannot be underestimated. The Demon Clan has been silently developing in a hidden corner unknown to humans. Who could have expected this?

If it weren't for their accidental encounter with this situation, the Human Clan would still be completely unaware of this. Unfortunately, the Beast Swamp is now sealed off by powerful beings, and they cannot convey information to the outside world. Otherwise, the Elders of the Cultivation Branch of Seeking Truth would be shocked if they knew about this situation.

It can only be said that finding the chance for the Seeking-Truth Lineage to be forgiven by Heaven and Earth is harder than ever. In addition to the Immortal Dynasty cultivators trying to block them, they might now have to count the Demon Clan as well.

Feng Qingzi thought about this with a heavy heart, but at this time, he did not slow down. Instead, he continued to lead his cultivators to escape at full speed while constantly concealing their traces.

It was only when they were sure that there were no living creatures around them that they would reveal themselves and go full throttle.

Feng Qingzi had already guessed that the reason they were accurately discovered by the Demon Clan previously was that the Demon Clan used some unknown means to probe their location.

Now that they have safely left tens of thousands of miles away, it proves that his guess is correct, so he will naturally be more careful about hiding his traces.

However, although Feng Qingzi is cautious of the Demon Clan, he does not shrink back. He is still looking for the Ancient Desolate Springs, only feeling more urgent now due to the addition of the Demon Clan.

Having gained another enemy, their goal of finding the Ancient Desolate Springs has become increasingly difficult, and he can't help but sigh.

Is it so difficult for our Seeking-Truth Lineage to return to the Immortal Dynasty?

Why has it come to this!?

...

At the same time, the Immortal Dynasty cultivators are also almost simultaneously concealing their traces. However, at this time, the concealed means is not of Chunyangzi, but of Kaiyuan Child.

Mustard Seed Mastery is the main divine ability of Lingxuzi's lineage. When it comes to concealing traces, there is indeed no one more suitable than Kaiyuan Child.

Under the Mustard Seed Mastery, all the Immortal Dynasty cultivators hide in a small piece of gravel and move quickly. Chunyangzi can't help but feel shocked by this.

If they had known about this earlier, they should have done so, but who could have thought that there would be powerful demons in the Beast Swamp before?

Previously, their impression was that only demonic beasts were scattered throughout the Beast Swamp, and their goal, besides the Seeking Truth Remnants, had not been concerned about anything else.

But now, with the appearance of the Demon Clan, it has proven that they were completely wrong in their journey, not to mention being ambushed by the Demon Clan earlier and losing many disciples as a result.

However, fortunately, only a few good hands were lost. Feng Yuan, Kaiyuan Child, and other leading disciples did not suffer too much damage.

At this moment, Kaiyuan Child's face suddenly turns pale. Seeing this, Chunyangzi quickly sends a pure mana into his body.

Using the Mustard Seed Mastery to hide traces and rush on the road, let alone hide so many powerful cultivators, naturally consumes a lot of mana.

Therefore, even if Kaiyuan Child is a Soul Emergence Late Stage cultivator, he would have trouble maintaining his divine ability for a long time.

This is also the reason why Chunyangzi and his party did not even consider this way of traveling. It is simply not worth it.

But now the situation has changed, leaving them with no choice. Feng Yuan remains silent in the corner.

Truth be told, the one most affected by this trip to the Beast Swamp is Feng Yuan. After experiencing fate and heavenly tribulations, Feng Yuan is full of confidence in his future. How many people in the world can survive such fate and heavenly tribulations?

Chapter 657: The Demon Ancestor's Prophecy is Indeed Correct, the Great Calamity has Arrived!

He had never doubted his identity as one of the Immortal Dynasty's Chosen of his generation, so he also wanted to take advantage of this Golden Era, to further himself more.

However, since he had entered the Longevity Immortal City as the Patriarch, his journey had been fraught with difficulty. He did not even understand what he had done wrong that led to such an outcome?

Chunyangzi naturally saw all of Feng Yuan's reactions, but he didn't know how to comfort Feng Yuan.

Because this time Feng Yuan was confronting a mental block, perhaps only when Feng Yuan resolves his predicament by himself could he return to his previous state.

Thinking of this, Chunyangzi silently sighed in his heart, wishing he could make contact with the outside world.

Perhaps in this way, the Immortal Dynasty could deploy powers, occupy the Beast Swamp, and by then, they would have more choices.

As for now, the world is difficult, self-preservation comes first.

...

Outer Heaven Beast Swamp, Underground World.

Herbal Medicine Hall.

Never would the Immortal Dynasty cultivators imagine, that in the exceedingly desolate Beast Swamp Underground World, a Herbal Medicine Hall like this would exist. It closely resembled a Mortal World, but such a strange situation was appearing among the Demon Clan.

At this time, Liang Sheng was standing on the street, watching the comings and goings of people in the Herbal Medicine Hall, he couldn't help but laugh and shake his head.

Who could have thought that this was actually the residence of the Elder Assembly? Even the heads of all the major Demon families didn't know this secret. Only after becoming a member of the Elder Assembly, would they enter it and then remain concealed.

If it were not for the memory of Ancestor Hu, Hu Fei, perhaps Liang Sheng would not have thought that this seemingly inconspicuous Herbal Medicine Hall would turn out to be the most mysterious place in the Underground World.

At this time, Liang Sheng stood outside and took a few more glances at the situation inside the Herbal Medicine Hall. He shook his head and walked away. No one on the street noticed Liang Sheng, and the order in the Herbal Medicine Hall was still maintained.

But deep in the Herbal Medicine Hall, there was a secret place. There were about a dozen elders sitting. The Demon Emperor Ancestor from the Fu Family, who had previously besieged the Human Cultivator, was among them.

At this moment, he was recounting the battlefield situation at that time. About the strange disappearance of Ancestor Hu, all the Demonic Ancestors had a bad premonition in their hearts.

If Ancestor Hu had directly perished, perhaps their hearts would not be so heavy. But Ancestor Hu's Life Token was still there, yet he mysteriously disappeared without leaving any clues. This means that the situation is more serious.

"Previously, we did not anticipate that the Human Cultivator had such measures, so we didn't react at the time. By the time the Heavenly Thunder secret technique disappeared, we discovered that Ancestor Hu had also disappeared."

"Could Humans have tampered with it behind the scenes?"

"This possibility cannot be excluded. After all, we had a premonition before. The Demon Ancestor Prophecy was probably not non-existent, just that the timing was disordered."

"If it is really the work of the Human Clan, then what should we do next? The Human Cultivator has disappeared after breaking through, presumably they have learned their lesson, and have completely concealed their trail."

"We were after all careless."

"If we had known earlier, we should have given it our all from the start. We were indeed somewhat careless, underestimating the Human Cultivators."

While the Demon Clan Elders were fiercely discussing, a humming vibration suddenly started on the table. Everyone couldn't help but look at the Messaging Jade Token at the head of the table.

The leading elder glanced at everyone and picked up the Jade slip. His expression became even more gloomy, even somewhat shameful.

“Hu Weiyong just sent a message asking about the cause of Brother Hu Fei’s disappearance. It seems that the Hu Family is already in some disorder.”

The other elders remained silent upon hearing this. Because if any of them were to also mysteriously disappear, their families would probably react the same way.

This silence lasted for a good while. After a while, someone finally continued the discussion with advice.

“Alright, since such an accident has already occurred, regardless of what happened to Brother Hu Fei, it is highly likely to be related to the Human Cultivator.

In that case, we might as well ignore these trivial matters and focus all our efforts on finding these Human Cultivators. As long as we find them, we will have a bargaining chip in our hands.”

“Yes, we after all didn’t take the Demon Ancestor Prophecy to heart before. Otherwise, if we had put forth our all from the beginning, those Human Cultivators wouldn’t have been able to escape.

And even if they do have a Trump Card to escape, Brother Hu Fei would probably not have had an accident. But this time the Human Cultivators fled in haste, which indicates that things have not reached a completely disastrous point.”

“What Brother Yuan said is correct, but if the Demon Ancestor Prophecy is indeed accurate, then we should also go to the Surface World to take a look because whatever is supposed to come will eventually come, and there is no escaping from it.”

“Yes, it’s just a pity that Brother Hu Fei disappeared suddenly this time. Otherwise, we could have had another leader. Having him prophecy and divine the situation would definitely save a lot of trouble.”

Upon hearing this, everyone fell silent again, but soon someone broke the silence again and continued to come up with suggestions.

“All right, since everyone has reached a consensus, there is no need for us to waste time here.

We still have to continue searching for Brother Hu Fei. As long as he is not dead for a day, we will search for a day. Without the Hu Family, we cannot overcome the Demon Ancestor Prophecy catastrophe!

The second point is the escaped Human Cultivators. We must find them, because the Human Cultivators of the Seeking Truth Lineage are mentioned in the Demon Ancestor Prophecy.

We need to get them in our hands, the initiative will then be in our hands. We’ll see what secrets the so-called Seeking Truth Lineage is hiding.”

Chapter 658: The Demon Ancestor’s Prophecy is Indeed Correct, the Great Calamity has Arrived!

“I think it’s a good idea.”

“I have no objections either.”

“Since everyone has no objections, let’s start acting separately. Brother Yuan, Brother Hu Fei, we’ll leave the tracking to you. If necessary, you can ask for the assistance of a few cultivators from the major clans.”

“Don’t worry, you guys just go to the surface world and pursue those human cultivators. It’s possible that Brother Hu Fei’s clues will eventually be obtained from the human cultivators themselves.”

“I hope so.”

“Alright, everyone, don’t be sad. Our old bones haven’t been to the surface world in a long time. We might as well take this opportunity to reminisce about our youth.”

“Hahaha...”

“Old Yuan, you really know how to talk.”

Afterwards, everyone in the Elder Assembly disappeared without a trace, laughter fading away. They were already splitting up their two groups, each carrying out their own tasks.

As Liang Sheng walked along the street, it was as if he sensed something. He turned his head and looked at the Herbal Medicine Hall, not realizing that a smile appeared on his lips.

The moment the demon race elders left the Elder Assembly, no one could blame him for going to the depths of the Herbal Medicine Hall.

According to Hu Fei’s memory, that was precisely the location of the greatest secret of the underground demon race. Even among the members of the Elder Assembly, not everyone could enter it at will.

Of course, this situation did not apply to a few important members, and one of the demonic ancestors qualified to enter there was none other than Hu Fei himself. This indirectly showed that Hu Fei’s status within the Elder Assembly was extraordinary. Liang Sheng originally intended to seize a suitable opportunity to infiltrate it.

But now, it seemed that a great opportunity had presented itself. He could quickly and smoothly enter this hidden location, and since this was the case, Liang Sheng naturally wouldn’t hesitate. He promptly turned around and went towards the Herbal Medicine Hall,

However, to avoid affecting his plan in the Herbal Medicine Hall, he couldn’t let the Elder Assembly members have time to notice the movements within the hall.

With this in mind, Liang Sheng didn’t hesitate at all. He quietly took out a Communication Jade Slip, input his plan directly, and then instantly transmitted the message.

After that, Liang Sheng headed directly to the Herbal Medicine Hall without wasting time.

I’m counting on you, Master.

This time, I need your help in executing this plan.

...

Longevity Immortal City.

Liang Sheng's Mansion.

At this moment, the free and unrestrained Zi Zai lay leisurely on a reclining chair, while Huang Yifan stood by and served him, just like before.

It really could be said that the master and disciple of Liang Sheng had identical temperaments, both enjoying life to the fullest.

Just then, Zi Zai opened his eyes suddenly. After he took out his Communication Jade Slip and read its contents, he couldn't help but widen his eyes.

He truly did not expect his disciple to encounter such circumstances in the Beast Swamp, and it seemed he had underestimated what would happen during this Era of Great Contention.

But if it weren't for this, his disciple wouldn't have discovered the hidden underground demon race within the Beast Swamp, who was secretly gathering strength.

He thought for a moment, reviewed his disciple's plan, and found it to be flawless. Without any further intervention, he directly executed Liang Sheng's plan.

With a wave of his hand, the barrier around the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp instantly disappeared. Almost at the same time, all the cultivators in Longevity Immortal City looked up at the sky.

Hmm?

Why has the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp reopened?

Anxious cultivators, thinking of Feng Yuan's previous soaring into the sky, went straight to the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp. The next moment, their hearts skipped a beat.

That's not right!

When they flew up, they found that they could only enter but not exit the Beast Swamp. This made these rash cultivators extremely frustrated.

They were not prepared at all, but now they had somehow entered the Beast Swamp. Facing this unfamiliar environment, how could they be at ease?

However, they soon realized that although they couldn't leave the Beast Swamp, their communication was unimpeded.

At least they could maintain contact with the Immortal City, so it wasn't too bad. They were basically the vanguard of their respective clans, and if there were any opportunities, they could call for more cultivators from their clans to enter the Beast Swamp later.

But at this moment, those most surprised were not the Immortal City cultivators, but the hidden Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi who continued to search for the Ancient Desolate Springs.

They noticed the anomaly as soon as the barrier changed. When they found out that they still couldn't easily leave the Beast Swamp but could communicate with the Immortal Dynasty World, they couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

No matter what, they were not fighting alone. At least they could ask for help from the external world. With these thoughts in mind, Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi didn't hesitate to transmit a message back to the Immortal Dynasty World.

Their idea was quite simple: when their reinforcements arrived, the threat from the demon race would be greatly reduced.

By then, not only could they ensure their own safety, but they can also find out whatever secrets the demon race is hiding.

It appears that the Heavenly Dao ultimately does not forsake us human cultivators. In times of crisis, it has given us a chance to survive.

As the Seeking Truth Lineage and Immortal Dynasty cultivators were excitedly discussing their plans, the members of the demon race's elders who had just split up to investigate the surface world simultaneously changed their expressions.

They were, of course, aware of the dangers of human cultivators being able to communicate with the outside world. So they looked at each other, noticing that everyone had serious expressions on their faces.

It was truly worthy of being the crisis predicted by the Demon Ancestor Prophecy. It seemed that they might not easily overcome it this time.

Previously, the underground world had been peaceful and prosperous, but numerous problems had arisen after the appearance of human cultivators.

One could only say: The great calamity of our demon race has arrived!

Chapter 659: Powerful Human Clan Reinforcements, Liang Sheng Enters the Demon Clan Secret Land, Mysterious and Unpredictable!

Outer Heaven Beast Swamp.

Surface World.

At this moment, Refinement Void Dao Monarch Lingxuzi suddenly descended upon the Beast Swamp with others, and the nearby demonic beasts sensed the danger and fled in haste.

It's no surprise that they appeared in the Beast Swamp so quickly, given that the Beast Swamp emerged outside Longevity Immortal City, which in turn is an affiliated city of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty. Naturally, they were the fastest to reinforce the Beast Swamp.

This time when Lingxuzi brought people to the Beast Swamp, it wasn't just him who was a Refining Void Dao Monarch. In total, there were no less than ten Refining Void Dao Monarchs in the reinforcements who had ascended to the realm.

Previously, only Chunyangzi had descended upon the Beast Swamp, which could be attributed to Longevity Immortal City being the location of Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child's opportunity. Naturally, other Refining Void Dao Monarchs would not interfere.

However, when the underground demon race was exposed, Emperor Dongsheng immediately made a decision. After all, it was the Era of Great Contention, and they couldn't be too cautious.

If the news of the demon race's resurgence were to be known to the other immortal dynasties, they would certainly gather around East Victory Immortal Dynasty quickly.

As the saying goes, "is not my race, their hearts must be different." Although there may be disagreements and even competition between the various Immortal Dynasties, it's normal.

But once it comes to the demon race, there's only one outcome, which is a fight to the death. So, when Emperor Dongsheng learned of the situation, he didn't hesitate and immediately issued an order for all the Refining Void Dao Monarchs in the capital to gather at Lingxuzi's mansion.

This time, with Emperor Dongsheng's command, all Refining Void Dao Monarchs had to abandon their selfish motives and accept dispatch together.

After arriving at the Beast Swamp, they could even compete with each other, but they couldn't jeopardize the grand plan, or else they would bear all the consequences.

So this time, including Lingxuzi, a total of ten Refining Void Dao Monarchs descended upon the Beast Swamp. However, before this, they noticed the change of ownership in Longevity Immortal City.

At this moment, the Immortal City Lord was Zhou Shen. After Lingxuzi and the others arrived at the Immortal City, the other Refining Void Dao Monarchs looked at Lingxuzi a few more times, intentionally or unintentionally.

It was unbelievable that Feng Yuan, a proud and late-stage Soul Emergence cultivator who had crossed the Heavenly Tribulation, lost to a Nascent Soul Master.

But they didn't have much of a reaction, as they weren't fools and knew that there must be more to the situation.

However, Lingxuzi still felt a bit humiliated. Regardless, the result now was that Zhou Shen was the City Lord, and that was an unchanging fact.

But he didn't have any thoughts of teaching Zhou Shen a lesson now. As a Great Might of the Refining Void Daoist Realm, how could he openly bully the weak?

Moreover, who knew who the true mastermind behind all the scheming was? Now that it was the Era of Great Contention, and with the appearance of the demon race, it was better to be cautious.

So, Lingxuzi didn't pay any attention to the gazes of the others, didn't even glance at the City Lord Mansion, and ordered to enter the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp directly.

Their goal this time was to eliminate the demon race in one fell swoop. As soon as they entered, the Zi Zai independent cultivator slightly opened his eyes and then ignored everything.

Now, he didn't know what his disciple was plotting, but they had already communicated. Since his disciple was confident in letting him weaken the seal, there must be a plan.

This is a disciple of my Zi Zai Sect, who can compare to an ordinary person?

Thinking of this, the Zi Zai independent cultivator closed his eyes again, lying on the recliner, basking in the sun, completely at ease.

The Era of Great Contention, huh...

...

After arriving at the Beast Swamp, Lingxuzi and the others headed straight for Chunyangzi's location without stopping.

This time they had no intention of concealing their tracks. After all, they didn't come to the Beast Swamp with the idea of leaving safely.

They were here to eradicate the demon race under the order of Emperor Dongsheng. Of course, if possible, Lingxuzi had other ideas.

Originally, the Beast Swamp was a scheme by their disciples Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child to seize fortune through the tides. In addition to eradicating the demon race, he also wanted to rely on the power of other Refining Void Tao Monarchs to completely deal with Feng Qingzi and the remnants of the Seeking Truth Lineage.

But now, Lingxuzi was just thinking about it, as the Immortal Dynasty cultivators could also reinforce the Beast Swamp, so it was expected that the remnants of the Seeking Truth Lineage would also take action.

As such, it wouldn't be so easy, and they never underestimated the remnants of the Seeking Truth Lineage. After all, if they were that easy to deal with, couldn't the Unification Realm Venerables of Emperor Dongsheng simply solve it? Why would they let the Seeking Truth Lineage inherit until today in Xihe Immortal Dynasty?

Lingxuzi didn't think too much at this time and went straight to where Chunyangzi was. As for the Spirit Rhinoceros Insect they found along the way, they didn't care at all.

This time they were here to flatten the Beast Swamp's demon race. Since it was inevitable to fight, why hide?

At this time, the Spirit Rhinoceros Insects were transmitting information along the way, naturally also informing the underground Demon Race Elders' Council about the arrival of the immortal dynasty reinforcements.

Upon receiving the news, the Demon Emperor Ancestors fell silent one by one. In fact, this was expected.

They only thought that the human race would reinforce, but they didn't expect them to come so quickly and with such strong strength.

It should be known that having developed in the underground world for so many years, the demon race, up to this point, only had a dozen or so Demon Emperor Ancestors.

Of course, it couldn't be helped. After all, the Beast Swamp was desolate, and cultivation resources were limited. It was already a blessing from heaven to achieve such results. They couldn't ask for more.

Seeing Lingxuzi and his party come to help, the Demon Race Elders' Council, who originally planned to split their troops in two, changed their minds immediately under these circumstances.

Chapter 660: Powerful Human Clan Reinforcements, Liang Sheng Enters the Demon Race Secret Realm, Mysterious and Unpredictable!

They gathered everyone together again, putting Hu Fei's whereabouts aside for now, as at least her life token showed no issues.

This time, they must unite and cooperate to have any chance of overcoming this crisis, otherwise, they were afraid that the road ahead would be filled with hardships and dangers.

At this moment, most demon emperors and demonic ancestors in the Demon Clan had the same thought: it's no wonder that this great catastrophe was foretold by the Demon Ancestor; it's truly extraordinary.

According to the previous information, the humans clearly didn't get along and had split into two factions entering Beast Swamp.

If the human cultivators they encountered earlier were just one side's reinforcements, then the other side must also have reinforcements arriving.

With this, the situation was likely to become even worse, and it was unknown if they could successfully overcome this disaster.

Thinking of this, these demon emperors and demonic ancestors decided to stay on the surface world and act cautiously to prevent any accidents.

As a result, they didn't pay too much attention to the underground world, which was exactly what Liang Sheng had anticipated.

...

Underground world.

Backyard of the Herbal Medicine Hall.

Now Liang Sheng suddenly appeared there, unnoticed by anyone. He even looked up at the sky above, where the Beast Swamp on the surface was located.

Are the demonic ancestors in a mess at this moment?

After all, Zi Zai independent cultivator weakened the seal on Beast Swamp, both the Seeking Truth Lineage and the Immortal City cultivators were able to reestablish contact with the outside world.

In this way, the secret of the strong power of the Demon Clan in the underground world couldn't be hidden any longer. Even if they didn't know about the underground world, the existence of the Demon Clan was now a fact.

And the Human Clan would never let the Demon Clan continue to live in Beast Swamp, they'd decisively want to eradicate them.

In the past, no one cared about the Beast Swamp in the Immortal Dynasty World because the human cultivators thought that only ordinary demonic beasts lived there.

It was tasteless to eat but a pity to discard.

Even when the beast tide appeared in the Desolate Regions, no one paid attention to it. As long as the beast tide could be annihilated and they retreated back to the Beast Swamp, that was enough.

But now, the situation has completely changed. After Hu Fei and other demonic ancestors appeared before Feng Qingzi and Chunyangzi, their strength had become a threat to the Human Clan.

Since they were already a threat, it's necessary for human cultivators to eliminate the Demon Clan while they're still budding.

The Human Clan would never allow the Demon Clan to live in the Beast Swamp; at this moment, the surface world must be in chaos due to the reinforcements from the Immortal Dynasty and the Seeking Truth Lineage.

But Liang Sheng didn't have any thoughts at this time, he didn't want to see the chaos on the surface. Now, he most wanted to see the biggest secret in the underground world left behind by the Demon Race Elders' Council.

Among them was the previously mentioned Ancient Spring Water used by Hu Fei and other demons to entice the Seeking Truth Lineage. Since the Ancient Spring Water could be preserved in the underground world, perhaps it could help to find the clues about the location of the Ancient Desolate Springs.

Liang Sheng didn't need absolute certainty, as long as this secret place could give him a direction to find the Ancient Desolate Springs.

After all, for Liang Sheng, it didn't matter whether it was the Human Clan or the Demon Clan, he cared only about his own strength.

After all, time had no meaning to him. As long as he had his Dao Protection, achieving longevity was easy for him with the Talent of Innocent Foolishness.

At this time, Liang Sheng glanced at the still unconscious Hu Fei in his storage ring, and in the blink of an eye, a small six-tailed fox appeared in reality, still sound asleep.

In order to enter the Elders' secret land, Hu Pei's cooperation was needed. Although Liang Sheng already had all of Hu Fei's memories, he still needed Hu Fei to go there in person in order to successfully enter the Demon Race Secret Realm.

Not to mention finding the Ancient Spring Water, since only the Demon Clan could enter the secret land. Based on Hu Fei's memories, they only had memories of entering the secret land, but once it involved the final location, it was all chaos.

At this time, Liang Sheng couldn't risk destroying Hu Fei, so he'd rather let the six-tailed fox's body take him into the secret land where he could find the secret himself.

As for Liang Sheng's own safety, he wasn't overly worried because he had ways to protect himself.

However, it was nearly impossible for Hu Fei to fully cooperate with Liang Sheng's actions; he had to take complete control of Hu Fei.

In other words, Liang Sheng had to use the Soul Control Technique to fully manipulate Hu Fei, making her nothing more than a puppet without any thoughts of her own.

Liang Sheng was a decisive person, so for the sake of seeking the Ancient Desolate Springs, he had no choice but to deal with Hu Fei's cause and effect today.

It was survival of the fittest; no one could blame anyone.

With that thought, Liang Sheng no longer hesitated. The next moment, the unconscious Hu Fei's body suddenly trembled.

Liang Sheng's eyes were like whirlpools. If someone were to stare into his eyes at this moment, they'd likely be instantly dazzled.

This was the highest realm of the Soul Control Technique. Even so, Hu Fei still had no memories of the secret land's ultimate location.

One could only say that the Demon Clan's means of protecting their secrets were too perfect. With no memories of it themselves, there was no possibility of leaks.

Unfortunately for them, Liang Sheng, who had mastered the perfect Soul Control Technique, was now prepared to manipulate Hu Fei to enter the Demon Clan's secret realm and seek the truth.

Immediately after, they saw Hu Fei's small six-tailed fox body starting to sway and stand up, mechanically heading towards a locust tree at the back of the Herbal Medicine Hall.

Liang Sheng followed closely behind, and then he saw Hu Fei's fox paw lightly touch the ground. The next moment, a deep, void-like hole appeared.