

Bottleneck 681

Chapter 681: Dragging Everyone Down, Undying Heavenly Spirit, Reincarnation!

But Immortal Dynasty cultivators were furious, their eyes about to pop out – they had never expected the Seeking Truth Remnants to actually be traitors, helping the Demon Clan against them.

Although the Seeking Truth Lineage and the East Victory Immortal Dynasty were indeed mortal enemies in the Cultivation World, strictly speaking, this was still an internal conflict.

Under the Demon Clan, they were both part of the human race, and even if they couldn't advance and retreat together, there was no need to help the Demon Clan.

As a result, with the Seeking Truth Lineage positioned close to the direction of the Immortal Dynasty cultivators' breakout, they were almost like fish in a barrel.

Seeing the Demon Clan chasing them from the front and the Seeking Truth Lineage blocking them from the rear, not to mention the sixteen Refinement Void Dao Monarchs of the Seeking Truth Lineage, along with more than twenty Demonic Ancestors, they seemed to have no hope of survival.

The situation was critical, with a slim chance of survival.

Feng Yuan's anger was even more intense, especially as Liang Sheng covertly took action, setting him on fire once more.

Not only Chen Chen, but all the Immortal Dynasty cultivators, including Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child, had actually been made pawns by Liang Sheng's covert moves.

Already angry, and with Liang Sheng's covert influence, the Pure Yang Heavenly Thunder appeared in Feng Yuan's hand in a wave of momentum, thrown directly at the Seeking Truth Lineage.

"You Seeking Truth Remnants should die. Today, even if I don't kill the Demon Clan, I will exterminate you human traitors!"

After seeing Feng Yuan take action, Kaiyuan Child naturally followed suit. Before, it was the Seeking Truth Lineage that ruined all their arrangements in the Longevity Immortal City.

Now with new hatreds and old grudges mingling, how could they not hate them? The two sides were separated by less than a thousand miles, and they wasted no time in confronting each other with full force.

Lingxuzi and Chunyangzi, concerned for their disciples and resentful of the Seeking Truth Lineage's betrayal of the human race, also took action at the first opportunity – even beating Feng Yuan and his companions to the punch in meeting the Seeking Truth cultivators.

As for Kun Chengzi, he felt bitter but had no words to express his feelings. However, they couldn't possibly withdraw from the battlefield now; under the life-and-death attacks of the Immortal Dynasty, they were forced to fight back as well.

But they also couldn't bear the name traitors, so when they faced Lingxuzi and the others, they didn't go all out.

For a short while, even though they had the advantage in numbers and strength, they could barely counterattack. This balance of power would continue.

But just then, the Demon Clan arrived, and the cultivators of the Immortal Dynasty were caught between two enemies. Since they were already the weakest party, in a short time, the Nascent Soul and Divinity Transformation disciples of the Immortal Dynasty began to fall one after the other.

"Damn it!"

Under these circumstances, Lingxuzi knew that if their side continued to have a lucky escape mentality, they would only be annihilated. Since that was the case, why not go all out and drag down an opponent with them?

So the Immortal Dynasty cultivators no longer held back, going all-out on offense without defense, exchanging wounds for wounds and kills for kills.

In a short time, the Seeking Truth Lineage didn't even have time to react. Two Refinement Void Dao Monarchs were caught off guard and suffered severe injuries.

Seeing this, how could Kun Chengzi dare to hold back any longer? On the contrary, it was Hu Fei and the other Demon Emperors of the Demon Clan who paused their attacks, unconsciously retreating a distance.

Even covertly passing on a command, and after the other Demonic Clans heard his order, they started holding back as well.

If they could let the humans kill each other and preserve the strength of their side, wouldn't it be possible to win the final battle and seize the victory?

Of course, in order not to let the human race discover that they were holding back and waste their great opportunity, they had to put on an act.

For example, the demonic beasts were still relentlessly advancing, causing a great number of casualties in an instant, and the eyes of all the Demon Emperors remained unchanged.

As soon as Lingxuzi and the other Refinement Void Dao Monarchs stopped holding back, Kun Chengzi and the others were forced to fight and naturally couldn't hold back either.

The entire Beast Swamp was on the brink of apocalypse, and suddenly two screams sounded as two Refinement Void Dao Monarchs from both sides of the human race perished together.

Just as they self-destructed, two ethereal points of light appeared in an instant and rushed toward outer space, vanishing in a flash.

Reincarnation!

This was the opportunity for cultivators in the Soul Emergence Realm who had passed the Fate Calamity to have their divine spirits undying, and one more chance to start over.

This was the so-called Dao Foundation, to have the opportunity to start over and reincarnate, unlike cultivators who had not yet passed the Fate Calamity – if their body and Dao perished, there would be no more chances.

This was due to the Heavenly Dao rules, so even though they had clearly witnessed their divine spirits reincarnate, no one stopped them.

The Demon Emperors of the Demon Clan, seeing this situation, also had slight changes in their expressions. Some demonic clans possessed Heavenly Fate Divine Abilities, which were similar to these existences. However, it was extremely difficult for the Demon Clan to reincarnate and start over.

After all, the growth period of the Demon Clan was too long, and with the current environment in the Beast Swamp, how many Demon Emperors returned after reincarnation over the years?

Almost none.

Liang Sheng, who was secretly observing, also felt a little uncertain when he saw this scene. So this was the undying divine spirit of a cultivator who had passed the Fate Calamity?

It was indeed the Dao Foundation that still had a glimmer of hope.

Chapter 682: Achieving Perfection in Aperture Control? No, this isn't the end! Continue to Breakthrough!

Outer Heaven Beast Swamp.

Upon seeing the fallen Refinement Void Dao Monarchs' indestructible heavenly spirits being reborn, the first thought that came to Liang Sheng's mind was whether he would have such an opportunity if he were to die?

However, he quickly dismissed this thought, as under the Talent of Innocent Foolishness, he had the potential for a long life. How could he possibly have such an encounter? This was an insult to the Talent of Innocent Foolishness. As long as he was cautious in his actions, he could attain greatness and live a long life!

With the Refinement Void Dao Monarchs beginning to fall, the cultivators of both Seeking Truth Lineage and Immortal Dynasty went into a full-fledged slaughter.

The entire battlefield was filled with murderous intent and fierce flames. Meanwhile, Liang Sheng's anticipation grew.

As the killing continued, his heart rate couldn't help but quicken, and all he could see were the four characters: "Great Fortune Omen".

This feeling had appeared during the first time he absorbed the Heaven and Earth Spine, and it was even stronger now.

Could it be that the Ancient Desolate Springs were about to appear before his eyes? Thinking of this, Liang Sheng grew more focused, fully sensing the changes in the Qi on the battlefield, fearing to miss the Ancient Desolate Springs.

As soon as the Ancient Desolate Springs appeared, he would be able to enter them without any hesitation.

As time passed, he had not yet seen any signs of the appearance of the Ancient Desolate Springs. However, the more this happened, the more certain he became that the Ancient Desolate Springs might have their own consciousness.

Otherwise, as the killing intent soared at this moment, countless cultivators (of the Demon Clan) had fallen. If it needed the essence blood of Cultivators (Demon Clan), how could it not appear under such circumstances?

The Ancient Desolate Springs were still waiting, wanting more!

With this thought, Liang Sheng couldn't help but take another look at the battlefield, secretly urging them on in his heart, urging them to fight even harder.

When he saw that the Demon Clan had not entered the main battlefield and seemed to be taking their time, preparing to reap the benefits later, how could he allow such a situation to happen?

All must act according to his plans, and he must ensure the appearance of the Ancient Desolate Springs; otherwise, all efforts would be in vain.

Thus, in silence, while the Nascent Soul and Divinity Transformation disciples of Immortal Dynasty Faction were still battling against the cultivators of Seeking Truth Lineage, a few more disciples silently fell.

It was the Art of Curse Killing again!

The Immortal Dynasty cultivators were stunned. The Demon Clan had once again taken action at great costs. Huang Feng himself was not aware of why he did so, but he didn't feel there was anything wrong with it.

After Huang Feng took action, Hu Fei also joined the battle, and the Immortal Dynasty cultivators were now completely surrounded by enemies.

Moreover, with fewer cultivators compared to the Seeking Truth Lineage, the Immortal Dynasty cultivators were already at a disadvantage. Now, with the Demon Clan's intervention, their situation became even more precarious.

However, the Demon Clan was not ready to go for the kill just yet. As Hu Fei launched a full offensive against the Immortal Dynasty cultivators, the other Demon Sovereigns began to coordinate their actions.

Although they didn't know what Hu Fei was up to, they had long trusted his decisions without reservation. They attacked immediately, showing no mercy to the Immortal Dynasty cultivators.

In an instant, the battlefield situation changed again. As the Immortal Dynasty cultivators were slowly surrounded by the Seeking Truth Lineage and the Demon Clan, they were being squeezed into a small space, soon to be cornered.

Under such circumstances, a furious roar echoed through the heavens and the earth.

“Remnants of the Seeking Truth Lineage! Poor Daoist despises you! I want to devour your flesh and drink your blood! Today’s actions are despicable! Can you face your human ancestors with this? If Heaven and Earth reject you, why haven’t you been annihilated yet?”

At this moment, Lingxuzi was extremely upset. He had expected the expedition to Beast Swamp to be difficult, but he never imagined this outcome. The Immortal Dynasty cultivators were under a double attack from the remnants of the Seeking Truth Lineage and the Demon Clan, leading them to a tragic death.

However, the good thing was that even though the Immortal Dynasty cultivators were in a disadvantageous situation, the Nascent Soul Divinity Transformation disciples didn’t show any embarrassing signs of begging for mercy. One could see from their eyes that they were prepared to die honorably.

This situation gave Lingxuzi the courage to go on. Since it had come to this, they could be the “Seeking Truth Lineage” for once today. He secretly passed a message to everyone. After hearing what he said, their faces changed, and they nodded resolutely.

Since it had come to this, they had no choice. Only Chunyangzi, after thinking about it, proposed a request with a flushed face of shame.

Since he and Lingxuzi were in a different situation compared to the other Refining Void Tao Monarchs, who had only brought their talented disciples, his disciples, Kaiyuan Child and Feng Yuan, were still with him. He wanted to send them away to keep them away from the battlefield and give them a chance to survive.

As for what would happen later, it would depend on their own luck. At that time, even if they wanted to help, there would be no opportunity to do so. The chances of them dying today were high, right?

However, Chunyangzi had faith in the two of them. After all, it was the Era of Great Contention. If they possessed the fortune of being talented, he believed that the two of them would definitely not perish.

If they eventually perished, nobody could be blamed. It could only mean that they were not Talented Cultivators of this era.

After hearing Chunyangzi's request, the other Refining Void Tao Monarchs expressed their understanding and did not refuse his request.

Since it had already become a dead end, leaving some hope was not impossible. Lingxuzi saw this and hesitated no more, not wanting to waste any more time.

Chapter 683: Successfully Leaving the Body? No, This is Not the End! Continue to Break Through!!!

Immediately, he deployed the Mustard Seed Mastery, and Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child were both contained within a grain of sand before they could react.

Following that, their senses were sealed, and they lost all perception, completely unaware of what was happening outside. However, being as intelligent as they were, how could they not guess what Lingxuzi and the others intended to do?

"Master!"

With a mournful cry from Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child, they secretly hated their own uselessness. If it weren't for their failure to reverse the situation in Longevity Immortal City, how could their Master have ended up like this?

If time could be rewound and they had another chance, they would never have destroyed the Desolate Regions and connected the Beast Swamp to the outside of Longevity Immortal City.

However, no matter how much Feng Yuan and the others thought about it, the Dao Lords of the Immortal Dynasty had already made their final preparations.

They were seen fighting and retreating under the attacks of the Seeking Truth Lineage and the Demon Clan. For a short while, the cultivators of both the Demon Clan and the Seeking Truth Lineage approached them.

At this moment, the situation took a sudden turn.

The Immortal Dynasty cultivators did not hesitate and immediately executed the plan discussed earlier, following the planned sequence.

Since Lingxuzi still needed to schedule the final timing, compressing the explosion of the Mustard Seed Mastery was their strongest move.

After some simple planning, the Dao Lords of the Immortal Dynasty had quickly determined the sequence of self-destruction in a short time.

The Dao Lord of the Immortal Dynasty closest to the Demon Clan and the Seeking-Truth Lineage Cultivators grinned hideously and then exploded with a resounding boom.

The Dao Lord of the Immortal Dynasty had self-destructed!

In the instant of his self-destruction, the cultivators from the Seeking Truth Lineage and the Demon Clan stared in shock and terror. Unable to retreat in time, they were engulfed by the power of the explosion and unable to escape.

The power and range of the explosion caused by the Dao Lord were so massive that the Demon Emperors from the Seeking Truth Lineage and the Demon Clan, who initially planned to move closer, hastily retreated.

However, as they began to do so, they were met by another grinning Dao Lord of the Immortal Dynasty, followed by another earth-shattering explosion.

This seemed like a prearranged signal among the Immortal Dynasty cultivators, as the self-destructive explosions from the Seeking Truth Lineage Cultivators and the Demon Clan Demon Emperors around them followed one after another.

Although it appeared to be a long process, in the blink of an eye, no less than ten powerful Dao Lords and Demon Emperors from the three sides perished.

The battle was extremely fierce, and no one had expected such an outcome. However, just as they died and their power vanished, their spirits remained undying, directly entering the Heaven and Earth Reincarnation to find new opportunities for cultivation in their next lives.

At this time, the cultivators of the Seeking Truth Lineage also realized what had happened. It was too late to regret, and all they wanted to do was to withdraw from the battlefield as quickly as possible.

They never thought there would be a day when roles would be reversed. Who would have thought that the Immortal Dynasty cultivators would have such a resolute side?

Perhaps initially, the Immortal Dynasty cultivators were timid just because they saw it as internal strife among humans. Now, it was a battle between two clans, and they naturally had the spirit of the Human Clan.

Upholding the name of the Human Clan!

At this point, as the remaining Dao Lords near Lingxuzi prepared to seize the opportunity to drag a few more Dao Lords of the Seeking Truth Lineage down with them, the situation changed unexpectedly.

With the fall of the Dao Lords, the heavens and earth were already stained with blood, but suddenly, an oasis appeared in the previously desolate Beast Swamp.

Seeing this, Kun Chengzi and the others were stunned at first, but then they were overjoyed.

Ancient Desolate Springs!

The ultimate goal of the Seeking Truth Lineage cultivators in entering the Beast Swamp was to find the Ancient Desolate Springs, and in this situation, it had suddenly appeared.

They couldn't help but pause for a moment before decisively retreating from the battlefield and heading straight for the Ancient Desolate Springs.

The Demon Clan reacted similarly, not paying any more attention to the Immortal Dynasty cultivators and rushing straight towards the Ancient Desolate Springs as well.

As for Lingxuzi and the other Dao Lords of the Immortal Dynasty who survived by the skin of their teeth, they didn't have time to celebrate and their faces changed when they saw the Ancient Desolate Springs.

Without any hesitation, Lingxuzi grabbed the mustard seed containing Feng Yuan and the other, and together they entered the Ancient Desolate Springs.

At this moment, even Lingxuzi did not know the outcome, but at least he wouldn't lag behind too much. Unfortunately, compared to the Seeking Truth Remnants, they were not very adept at dealing with the opportunities presented by the Ancient Desolate Springs.

All three sides acted simultaneously, but they failed to notice that someone had already entered the Ancient Desolate Springs before them.

The first one to enter the Ancient Desolate Springs was none other than Liang Sheng. All his previous scheming had been for this purpose.

He felt excited in his heart, his guess had proven to be correct – the more powerful individuals died, the more likely the Ancient Desolate Springs would be attracted to appear.

At the moment when Liang Sheng entered the Ancient Desolate Springs, he sensed that all the energy from the previous battlefield had been sucked in like it had been swallowed by a whale, entering the Ancient Desolate Springs.

Uh?

If Liang Sheng's senses were not extremely sharp, he would have doubted himself, wondering if he was seeing things. But the fact was undeniable.

However, Liang Sheng had no time to think about it. After entering the Ancient Oasis, he plunged directly into the Ancient Desolate Springs that he had entered before.

At this time, the cultivators from the Seeking Truth Lineage, the Demon Clan, and the countless demonic beasts entered the Ancient Oasis simultaneously.

No one had any more time to waste, and everyone had a clear goal, heading straight for the Ancient Desolate Springs.

As for how much Ancient Spring Water one could absorb, it depended on one's destiny, and there was no one else to blame.

Meanwhile, as Liang Sheng penetrated the Ancient Spring Eye, the ancient techniques within his body suddenly erupted, operating at full capacity.

Chapter 684: Achieving Perfection in Aperture Control? No, this isn't the end! Continue to Breakthrough!

However, at the same time, he was also prepared to be immediately kicked out of the Ancient Oasis, but after his body absorbed more than half of the Ancient Spring Water, he was not ousted.

This unexpected situation left Liang Sheng somewhat puzzled. Previously, when he inadvertently stumbled upon the Ancient Spring Eye in the Beast Swamp of the Wilderness, he was expelled as soon as he began to absorb the Ancient Spring Water.

At that time, because he had absorbed too much, he could perceive the Ancient Spring Eye's qi becoming slightly weaker. But now, the qi of the Ancient Spring Eye has become several times stronger, as if the Ancient Spring Eye has been continuously replenished.

Though Liang Sheng had some guesses in his mind, he didn't have the time to consider them. Since he wasn't expelled, naturally, he wouldn't miss this opportunity.

Moreover, he was not worried about the influx of so many demon clan cultivators affecting his absorption of the Ancient Spring Water. Besides him being able to absorb the most potent Ancient Spring Water like a glutton, people from both the Seeking Truth Lineage and Demon Clan could only find a needle in the sea, depending on their own luck and destiny.

Liang Sheng desperately absorbed the Ancient Spring Water until his body was filled to the brim and could no longer absorb any more, only then did he temporarily halt his absorption.

Afterward, Liang Sheng made no further moves, diving directly into the bottom of the Ancient Spring Eye, using his Mustard Seed Mastery to transform into a grain of sand.

It was certainly time to seize the moment and cultivate at this point!

If he is still inside the Ancient Spring Eye and hasn't been kicked out after his cultivation, he'll repeat the process, continuously absorbing the Ancient Spring Water.

After all, he isn't easily kicked out of the Ancient Spring Eye, so why should he feel shy?

After Liang Sheng made up his mind, he immediately entered a state of closed-door cultivation. However, before his cultivation, he still put up all his protection measures. With his Data Panel Concealment attribute, it's impossible for him to be exposed in front of others.

At this time, the Immortal Dynasty Faction, the Seeking Truth Lineage, and the Demon Clan were each occupying their own territories within the Oasis. They were like the three legs of a tripod, non-interfering.

They were all striving for this opportunity now, not knowing when the Ancient Spring Eye would disappear. They couldn't afford to miss this great opportunity.

As for who could absorb more spring water, it all depended on individual luck. Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child were also released by now, while Chunyangzi and Lingxuzi held some expectations.

They didn't know whether their disciples would have the opportunity to breakthrough the Refining Void Realm and become the new Dao Lords this time. If so, all the losses today would be worth it.

After all, although they have already reached the third heaven of Refining Void Dao Lord, they didn't have confidence in progressing further.

The gifted children of the Immortal Dynasty Competition and the Era of Great Contention were different; their future starting point was surely much higher than theirs.

However, all these had nothing to do with Liang Sheng. Under the Talent of Innocent Foolishness, there weren't any bottlenecks in Liang Sheng's cultivation and breakthroughs. At this moment, he was directly using the enormous spiritual power of the Ancient Spring Water to impact the next realm.

What followed was exactly as he had anticipated. His cultivation went extremely smoothly. When all the Ancient Spring Water in his body was consumed, his qi underwent a change. If it weren't for his concealment methods, it might have already caused a great commotion.

When Liang Sheng opened his eyes, his expression was full of joy, for he had successfully broken through to the Perfection Soul Emergence Realm.

His data panel had also changed –

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 2652

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top-Grade)

Techniques: Primordial Mysterious Technique (Fourth Layer), Ascending Immortality Scripture (Twenty Fourth Layer), Twenty Life-Nurturing Techniques (Twenty-Ninth Layer), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse), Great Freedom Heavenly Method (Entry Level), Grand Solar Golden Crow Contemplation Method (Divine Ability)

Realm: Refining Spirit from Qi (Perfection Soul Emergence)

Lifespan: 114074

He had already reached the final stage of Refining Spirit from Qi. His battle strength soared sharply at this moment, so much so that he himself didn't know how powerful he was.

However, this wasn't his biggest surprise. Because three days had passed since his cultivation, and he had not been kicked out of the Ancient Spring Eye.

Seeing this, he didn't hesitate. After a flash of brilliance in his eyes, he appeared again in the Ancient Spring Eye, greedily continuing to devour the Ancient Spring Water.

In just an instant, his body was once again filled with Ancient Spring Water, unable to absorb even the slightest bit more.

Compared to three days ago, the quantity of the Ancient Spring Water in his body had significantly increased. But this time, reaching the Perfection Soul Emergence Realm was not his end goal.

Continue to breakthrough!

Chapter 685: Refining the God and Reversing the Void, Bronze Stone Coffin!

Ancient Oasis.

At this time, within the Ancient Desolate Springs, there were countless human cultivators and demon clans mixed together in a precarious balance, as no one wanted to miss this opportunity.

They were all working hard, hoping to seize the chance in the Beast Swamp, but no one knew that at this moment, someone was reaping the greatest benefits in the depths of the spring among the gravel.

At this moment, Liang Sheng, who had successfully broken through to the Soul Emergence Completion realm, refilled the ancient spring water and plunged directly into the next round of cultivation and breakthrough.

He had no concerns about whether he would be kicked out of the Ancient Desolate Springs after his breakthrough; all he had in his mind was this thought.

Breakthrough!

Refining the God and Reversing the Void!

If it weren't for his strong mindset, he would have been overwhelmed with excitement, as this was a crucial milestone in Liang Sheng's cultivation journey.

Once he reached the realm of Refining the God and Reversing the Void, he would enter a whole new world!

With that in mind, Liang Sheng did not waste any more time. After resetting the Sumeru Mustard Sand for protection, he began to operate the Primordial Mysterious Technique at full capacity, initiating the Grand Circulation.

He had a feeling that after this breakthrough, he would have the greatest harvest in his cultivation journey.

This adventure in the Beast Swamp was a great fortune!

At this time, Liang Sheng's ancient techniques, the Primordial Mysterious Technique, were operating at full force and performing the Grand Circulation in his body.

With the operation of the ancient techniques, the spiritual energy contained in the Ancient Spring Water erupted, and at this moment, within the Primordial Unity formed by his physical body, a golden light flickered, like the mouth of a volcanic crater about to erupt.

Within Liang Sheng's sea of consciousness, the Zhou Tian stars continued to flash, creating waves on the sea's surface and occasionally producing bursts of sound like a new season's Spring Thunder.

The three-legged golden crow in the sky sometimes swooped through the air, its eyes seemingly losing their blankness and becoming more intelligent.

All these signs indicated that Liang Sheng was in an extraordinary situation. As his body continued to absorb the Ancient Spring Water, his already vast sea of consciousness expanded further.

At this moment, Liang Sheng was not in a hurry. He slowly and steadily advanced in his breakthrough, like simmering herbs on a gentle fire. As the saying goes: "A watched pot never boils."

His already powerful body continued to grow stronger over time, and his Primordial Unity became increasingly perfect.

His physical body and sea of consciousness gradually aligned, complementing each other, and in the next instant, they harmonized perfectly, their frequencies meeting.

As Liang Sheng sensed this, he felt as if he was both real and illusionary simultaneously, his sea of consciousness and his physical body united, divine energy entered his body, merging the real and the illusionary, like the recreation of heaven and earth.

Boom!

In Liang Sheng's mind, a sound like the evening drum and morning bell reverberated, as if he had experienced an awakening. In an instant, it was as if he had crossed the chasm between humanity and divinity.

In Liang Sheng's heart, only four words remained.

That is—

Refining the God and Reversing the Void!

At the moment of successful breakthrough, Liang Sheng's sea of consciousness experienced a recreation of heaven and earth, rapidly expanding his territory.

At the same time, his body with Primordial Unity, like a erupting volcano, demonstrated its unparalleled strength. In this state, his physical body and the sea of consciousness merged completely.

The Nameless Dao can be spoken, but it is not the usual Dao!

The Namable Fame can be named, but it is not the usual Name!

At this moment, Liang Sheng seemed to hear the sound of the Dao,

For a moment, he could not distinguish between the illusion and the reality, as his body and divine energy had merged in an instant.

What is an illusion?

And what is reality?

All are but a single thought!

At the moment of his breakthrough, Liang Sheng's mind soared higher and higher. He could no longer see the Beast Swamp, but instead saw threads connecting everything in the world.

Is this the true world?

Unfortunately, before he could figure out what was happening, he suddenly fell back to the ground, and the Beast Swamp reappeared before his eyes.

Human cultivators, Demon Clan, Demonic Beasts...

All were perceived.

As Liang Sheng's perception expanded, his physical strength continued to grow at an insane rate, quickly breaking through his previous limits.

The protective measures he had previously set up in the Sumeru Mustard Sand had no effect on him, as his strength had grown too much.

Puff.

Only Liang Sheng could hear this faint sound as the Sumeru Mustard Sand shattered, and he appeared at the bottom of the Ancient Desolate Springs.

At the same time, the entire Ancient Desolate Springs, like experiencing an underwater earthquake, suddenly fell into turmoil.

At this time, as the Ancient Desolate Springs began to shake violently, it produced a rejection reaction for the first time, trying to expel Liang Sheng. However, he remained motionless.

Moreover, as the Ancient Desolate Springs' reaction grew more and more violent, Liang Sheng became more and more ethereal, causing the Ancient Spring Water to surge into his body like a torrent, as if he were a black hole devouring all in his path.

Subsequently, Liang Sheng's face changed suddenly. He could not control his body, and he suddenly appeared in an unknown space.

This nameless space had no entrance or exit to the outside world. Above it was a canopy of Zhou Tian stars, under which a lively three-legged golden crow swooped through the air.

This space seemed boundless, but Liang Sheng recognized it as the sea of consciousness he had seen before, with an actual land at the bottom for the first time, looking like a complete world.

At this point, Liang Sheng opened his eyes and waved his hand in the empty air, completely astonished that his physical body had entered his own sea of consciousness.

The next moment, his soul filled with blessings, he whispered two words:

"Illusion Realm!"

In an instant, as if the creator had descended upon a new world, the Zhou Tian stars rose, the great sun appeared, and heaven and earth revolved.

Chapter 686: Refining the God and Reversing the Void, The Bronze Stone Coffin!

As the new moon appeared and the cycle continued, day and night alternated. On the ground, a seed sprouted, full of green vitality.

Then, like the domino effect, gigantic trees emerged one after another from the ground all over the surface.

In the sea of consciousness, mayflies appeared.

Afterward, chaos gave birth to all things, and heaven and earth took shape like the outburst of a thunderstorm.

Liang Sheng closed his eyes and felt everything, tears streaming down his face unknowingly. He felt the vitality of heaven and earth and couldn't control his emotions.

When he opened his eyes, his eyes were as calm as an ancient well, but the smile on the corner of his mouth couldn't be hidden.

This was the Refining the God and Reversing the Void, so it was.

Ever since the ancient cultivation was shattered, although the human race created modern practice methods with supreme power, there might not have been a Refinement Void Dao Monarch like him even up to now.

They couldn't imagine that although Refinement Void Dao Monarch was equivalent to the ancient cultivation's Refining the God and Reversing the Void, the scene of Refining the God and Reversing the Void would be like this.

Although the Refinement Void Dao Monarch under modern practice methods is also extremely powerful, they can't have a Void Realm like him.

Their breakthrough into the Refining Void Realm would only create a small space in the sea of consciousness, which would expand gradually with the improvement of their cultivation realm.

Only when they break through the Unification Realm can they incorporate it into their bodies. Modern practitioners call this the Hidden Dimension, for example, Emperor Dongsheng's Dongsheng Hidden Dimension!

However, Liang Sheng was only equivalent to the Refining Void Realm as he had experienced the Refining the God and Reversing the Void, but he already had a Void Realm. Comparing with Hidden Dimensions, it didn't rank lower or even ranked higher, regardless of strength.

Breaking through the realm in a day, turning into a dragon!

As Liang Sheng gradually comprehended his situation after the breakthrough, he felt more and more astonished. When he thought of Emperor Dongsheng at this time, he surprisingly no longer felt the panic as before.

Although he still wasn't a match for Emperor Dongsheng, at the very least, he could successfully escape and no longer be completely helpless.

As for the Refinement Void Dao Monarchs in the Beast Swamp at this time, even all of them teamed up, it would be just like ants before Liang Sheng.

Even the Refinement Void Dao Monarch of the Nine Heavens would still be like ants in front of Liang Sheng at this moment. Under Unification, all were ants.

As for Liang Sheng's Master, the Carefree Hermit, Liang Sheng's feeling remained unchanged, still unable to see through him.

But he could sense the difference, which was no longer completely incomprehensible, just like looking at flowers in the fog.

After Liang Sheng gradually adapted to his state after Refining the God and Reversing the Void, he thought for a moment and began to change the techniques in his body.

Since the Carefree Hermit couldn't see through it himself, to be on the safe side, he still needed to cultivate the Ascending Immortality Scripture for disguise.

After his powerful breakthrough, the Ascending Immortality Scripture automatically advanced to the thirty-second level, with a great leap forward that left people dumbfounded.

Moreover, Liang Sheng's Complete Heaven Great Freedom Method had made a little progress, but it was still only a small achievement, not just an entry-level.

As expected, it was hard to cultivate this unique divine ability, for Liang Sheng was an Innocent Foolishness with no cultivation bottleneck.

Compared with the breakthrough in techniques, Liang Sheng was more pleasantly surprised by the increase in his Lifespan – a direct boost of 100,000 years!

Ordinary Refinement Void Dao Monarchs would increase their Lifespan by 50,000 years after a breakthrough, so why was he different? Unable to comprehend, Liang Sheng simply attributed it to the advantages of ancient cultivation and didn't think any further.

Refining the God and Reversing the Void was truly exceptional!

The data panel of Liang Sheng changed once again:

Name: Liang Sheng

Age: 2652

Talent: Innocent Foolishness (Top Grade)

Techniques: Primordial Mysterious Technique (Fifth Level), Ascending Immortality Scripture (Thirty-second Level), Twenty Health Maintenance (Twenty-Ninth Level), Nail-Head Seven Arrows Technique (Curse), Great Freedom Heavenly Method (Small Achievement), Grand Solar Golden Crow Void Realm

Realm: Refining the God and Reversing the Void (Refining Void Realm)

Lifespan: 214074

Huh?

The Grand Solar Golden Crow Visualization lost its Divine Power, and instead, his own Void Realm was added. However, this was a minor matter, and Liang Sheng didn't mind.

It was time to go out and check the situation. After all, the Sumeru Mustard Sand had shattered, and he didn't know how big a commotion it had caused in the Ancient Oasis.

When Liang Sheng returned his divine sense and left his Grand Solar Golden Crow Void Realm, appearing deep in the Ancient Desolate Springs.

The next moment, Liang Sheng's eyes were full of disbelief. He instantly left the Ancient Desolate Springs and disappeared as if he had never appeared before.

...

In the Cultivation World, an unknown place.

The two great powers who had started the Immortal Dynasty Competition betting in the Holy Land suddenly opened their eyes, looking towards the Longevity Immortal City direction, silent and not speaking.

After a long time, they sighed and shook their heads at each other. Then, one of them waved his hand somewhat helplessly.

The Heavenly Chessboard, how could it be completely under their control? How could they not be in the Heavenly Chessboard themselves?

Then, they pointed their fingers lightly, and the heaven and earth's Fortune were stirred, causing all cultivators above the Refining Void Realm in the entire Cultivation World's Four Seas and Eight Great Wastelands to unconsciously perceive it.

The Immortal Dynasty Competition, the Golden Era, and the Talent Road were officially launched!

Why did it start so early?

Their doubts filled their hearts, but no one could answer this question.

...

East Victory Immortal Dynasty, Longevity Immortal City.

In Liang Sheng's Mansion, the Carefree Hermit, who was lying leisurely on his recliner, suddenly sat up and looked at outer space with confusion.

What happened to the Beast Swamp that turned the heaven upside down?

However, the next moment, he was relieved because he sensed his disciple's Qi, and there was no harm done.

Even better, he had made steady progress and had achieved the Perfection Soul Emergence Realm. That was truly amazing as his disciple of the Free Sect!

Still, with his surprise, he glanced at the Beast Swamp again, gave it some thought, and removed the Heavenly Seal off outer space. After all, it would be best to avoid any contact with such inauspicious matters.

Chapter 687: Refining the God and Reversing the Void, Bronze Stone Coffin!

Otherwise, if I seal myself for a longer period of time, those two old immortals might take it upon themselves to kill me.

After all, the Talent Road is already open, my disciple Liang Sheng is safely breaking through, why should I still push the limits of those two ancient creatures?

When the seal fades, the independent Cultivator Zi Zai couldn't help but peer at Beast Swamp, his gaze profound as he groused.

These unlucky things, why have they appeared again? Are they not afraid that Heaven and Earth will hammer them with a full set of bombings?

The next moment, his face resumed its calm posture, because just as he expected, those unpleasant things vanished instantly after appearing for a short while.

"Old Huang, prepare more dishes today, your master is probably coming back."

"Ah? Yes, I'll prepare immediately!"

Huang Yifan swiftly entered the kitchen, with the continuous clatter of pots and pans, a wave of happiness covering his face and body.

The master is coming home.

So nice.

...

Beast Swamp.

Both Human Imperial Cultivators and the Seeking Truth Lineage, as well as the Demon Clan, were seated in the Ancient Desolate Spring Eye, fully immersed in cultivation, trying to absorb as much Ancient Spring Water as possible.

Compared to Liang Sheng, however, their absorption rate was painfully slow, but most people (demons) were extremely satisfied with the current situation.

Given enough time, breakthroughs aren't impossible, especially for Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child who were unusually excited at this moment.

After continuous setbacks in Longevity Immortal City, they were dispirited until this moment. It was only now did they feel like they were part of the Immortal Dynasty's Chosen again.

Because they absorbed the Ancient Spring Water much faster than others, they even felt as if they could break through the Refining Void Realm given another month.

With more and more Ancient Spring Water absorbed, their Qi began to change, and their guilt lessened.

At least their current performance is living up to expectations. They even compared Ancient Spring Water to Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins.

The Spine of Heaven and Earth refines the spirit, the Ancient Desolate Spring Eye strengthens the body, but in the end, both are the same, only the early focus is different.

Even for Feng Yuan, who had already absorbed the Spiritual Vein Spine of Heaven and Earth, the Ancient Desolate Springs seemed to be complementing their deficiencies, and they are making progress in both spirit and body at this moment.

On the other side, Lingxuzi and Chunyangzi sighed in relief after seeing Feng Yuan's condition. Their heart comforted as their disciples didn't disappoint them.

In this situation, the three forces didn't pay attention to others, it seemed that the danger was gone. Thereafter, they almost completely started operating to absorb the Ancient Spring Water.

Even Lingxuzi and other Refinement Void Dao Monarchs, wouldn't they want to progress further? It's just more difficult.

But while they made progress, others advanced even faster, especially the Seeking-Truth Lineage Cultivators. After all, their cultivation methods were closer to the ancient way than the Immortal Dynasty cultivators, so they absorbed the Ancient Spring Water more effectively.

Thus, the Demon Clan's cultivation was not to be left behind. However, everything at this moment was just an investment in the future and couldn't be cashed out immediately.

But this serenity was shattered in an instant. The moment Liang Sheng broke through and appeared in the deepest parts of Ancient Desolate Springs after crossing the Sumeru Mustard Sand, the entire Ancient Desolate Springs started to roar and surges.

Whether it was the Human Clan or Demon Clan, in an instant they were all expelled from the Ancient Desolate Springs. Their faces were a mess of confusion.

What's happening?

Because being kicked out of the Ancient Oasis was so sudden, they were still in a seated meditation position. For a while, screams of pain echoed around as they landed on the ground, causing chaos at the scene.

The aura of the Ancient Oasis was still changing, no one knew what had happened. Just when Liang Sheng's expression changed and disappeared in an instant, their eyes were filled with fear, gazing stupefied towards the sky above the Ancient Oasis.

There were numerous Bronze Stone Coffins hanging between heaven and earth!

Chapter 688: A path strewn with bones, the Sky emits a murderous intent!

Outer Heaven Beast Swamp.

Above the ancient oasis, countless bronze stone coffins hung in the air, emitting an unfathomable Qi that made one's scalp tingle. At this moment, the entire ancient oasis was silent as a graveyard.

Fortunately, these stone coffins only flashed by and then disappeared, leaving no oppressing sensation behind.

However, before the human cultivators (and the demon clan) could react, they were directly kicked out of the Ancient Desolate Springs and fell back into the Beast Swamp.

When they landed, they were still immersed in the shock brought by the stone coffins. The terror they experienced could only be understood but not expressed in words.

Yet, the first to awaken were Lingxuzi and the other Refinement Void Dao Monarchs. In an instant, they assumed a defensive position, cautiously observing the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators and the bewildered demon clan on the other side.

Since the Ancient Desolate Springs Eye had disappeared and there were no more opportunities to be gained, these demons would not let them go. They feared that the previously suspended battle would resume.

Lingxuzi didn't complain about this, but he felt it was a pity that they didn't have more time to properly digest the opportunities granted by the ancient springs. It was extremely regrettable.

However, just then, the Qi between heaven and earth in the Beast Swamp suddenly changed. Lingxuzi and the other Refinement Void Dao Monarchs, who had been prepared to fight to the death, were first stunned and then overjoyed.

Heaven blesses our Immortal Dynasty cultivators!

It turned out that the previously unbreakable seal connecting the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp with the Immortal Dynasties had suddenly disappeared.

That is to say, the Beast Swamp had restored its connection with the external world of the Immortal Dynasty. In such a situation, Lingxuzi and others naturally didn't hesitate.

They saw the Refinement Void Dao Monarchs exchange glances and then directly led Feng Yuan and the others, still bewildered, to leave the Beast Swamp without any delay.

By the time the Immortal Dynasty cultivators' figures had disappeared, the demon clan finally awakened, their faces filled with astonishment. At this moment, Kun Chengzi and the other Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators also moved quickly to leave the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp.

Having obtained the Ancient Spring Eye's opportunities, they had already accomplished their goal of entering the Beast Swamp. They naturally didn't need to continue fighting with the demon clan.

Moreover, if they didn't leave now, would they allow the East Victory Immortal Dynasty to catch them off guard later? By that time, they wouldn't be as fortunate as they were now and be able to leave directly.

Thus, the Seeking-Truth Lineage left the Beast Swamp without hesitation the moment they reacted. In an instant, the entire Beast Swamp quieted down, leaving only the bewildered Demon Clan Demon Emperors looking at each other.

What should they do now?

Since the Beast Swamp had been exposed, troubles would likely continue. If human cultivators came again, another great battle could break out.

By that time, where would the demon clan's future lie? And what about their own destiny? Could they still be as lucky as they were now?

No one had an answer, and no one still had the confidence to face another great battle. All of them couldn't help but frown when they thought of this.

When in doubt, ask Hu Fei. In such a situation, all the Demon Emperors looked towards Hu Fei simultaneously.

However, Hu Fei did not speak. Instead, he remained silent for a long time before finally slowly uttering a single word with a small voice but an extremely resolute tone.

"Wait!"

“Huh?”

Upon hearing Hu Fei’s answer, the other Demon Emperor Ancestors were somewhat puzzled. The Beast Swamp had been exposed; did they still have time to wait?

However, Hu Fei didn’t give an explanation and simply turned around and returned to the underground world. The other demon clansmen naturally followed.

They also tried to convince themselves that Hu Fei must have taken measures since he made such a decision. They just needed to follow his orders.

Immediately, the demon clan re-entered the underground world. As for the demonic beasts, they remained on the surface, full of energy. After all, having absorbed the Ancient Spring Water, they already had a solid foundation for further growth.

Afterward, the Beast Swamp returned to calm. The previous battlefield, which had been filled with thick and bloody energy, also regained its tranquility as if nothing had happened.

The smell of blood dissipated, and from time to time, sentient demonic beasts would wonder in their hearts where the human and demon clan’s blood and essence had gone during the previous great battle.

No one answered, and everything seemed so natural. Meanwhile, the underground world also became mysteriously quiet, only brewing an atmosphere of tension.

When would the humans come back?

What should they do at that time?

It’s no wonder they thought so, because the Demon Ancestor Prophecy of the great disaster was supposed to last for at least one hundred years. How could it end so easily?

On the other side, after returning to the Herbal Medicine Hall, Hu Fei locked himself in a room, and no one knew why he did so.

In fact, he felt a little panicked in his heart. When the bronze stone coffins appeared, he had a vague feeling that he was not himself, but he couldn't find any clues.

Moreover, he didn't know why his perception seemed to become more acute, as if he sensed that the humans wouldn't enter the Beast Swamp temporarily.

So, although the great disaster hadn't passed yet, they still had time to adjust. Hu Fei could only pray that the Demon Ancestor would bless them in his heart.

He hoped the peaceful time would last a little longer. But just as he figured out how to deal with the demon clan's current situation, those bronze stone coffins flashed through his mind involuntarily.

What secret did those stone coffins hide?

Regrettably, he had no answers.

However, amidst the misfortune, both humans and the demon clan had obtained the opportunities of the Ancient Spring Eye. As long as the demon clan calmed down and focused on cultivation, they might be able to make further progress.

In the meantime, they would wait and see, not rushing into action. But if it really came down to it...

They would go find the Seeking-Truth Lineage Human Clan. Who knew if they would truly lend a helping hand...

...

Xihe Immortal Dynasty.

Chapter 689: A path strewn with bones, Talent Road, the Sky emits a murderous intent!

At this moment, Kun Chengzi was leading the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators back, and their excitement was beyond control. This was a probing expedition for them.

After the event of Heaven's Overturn, they were rejected by the world and had to flee to unfamiliar places, living in hiding. If there had not been some Great Might looking after them in secret, they might have already been extinct.

But now, since people like Kun Chengzi were able to receive opportunities from the Beast Swamp, the world might not have forgiven them, but at least had begun to accept their existence.

They initially planned some rest and recovery, but with the world in turmoil, a new plan formed once the Holy Land opened the Talent Road.

They wanted to move forward and not retreat. The Heaven Talent Struggle was a benchmark for the Seeking-Truth Lineage to compete for the world's Fortune.

Therefore, the Seeking-Truth Lineage began planning, and their first stop was naturally the Longevity Immortal City, which was a blessed place for their Fortune transformation.

Besides, there was the Zhou family there, suspected of being connected to the Seeking-Truth Lineage. The Desolate Domain Bloodline, could it really sever all connections with them completely?

The opening of Talent Road also signifies the rampant killing under the guise of Heavenly Secrets. After all, to step on the Talent Road, who hasn't built it on a pile of bones?

Having made the decision, the carefully selected Heavenly Arrogant Monks from the Seeking-Truth Lineage silently set out for Longevity Immortal City.

They hoped everything would go smoothly.

...

Longevity Immortal City.

Liang Sheng's Mansion.

At this time, Liang Sheng had returned from the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp. He originally planned to calculate the Ancient Desolate Springs again, but with the appearance of the Bronze Stone Coffin, he had to leave without delay. He dared not linger.

When Liang Sheng saw the Bronze Stone Coffin appear, he was actually terrified. This was the first time he had experienced such fear and anxiety since he entered the Cultivation World.

There is great fear in the face of life and death!

If he dared to proactively probe the secrets of the Bronze Stone Coffin, there would undoubtedly be only one end for him – death. So he left without any hesitation.

Liang Sheng had never hesitated when his life was at stake. After all, he had a long Lifespan and he couldn't seek death intentionally.

He originally thought of asking the Zi Zai independent cultivator what the Bronze Stone Coffin was all about, but just as they met, he had a premonition just as the Zi Zai independent cultivator softly smiled.

This Bronze Stone Coffin was not something to be asked about. And when it was his time to know, he would naturally know.

Therefore, without a word from the Zi Zai independent cultivator, Liang Sheng understood his intention. Disciples of the Free Sect pursued free-will, but before having absolute Strength, they also need to abide by the Heavenly and Earth Rules.

Seeing Liang Sheng understand in such an interesting way, the Zi Zai independent cultivator was not surprised. Instead, he took a round to confirm that Liang Sheng had safely returned, and then nodded satisfied.

“My disciple, you have gained quite a lot from this journey to the Beast Swamp, well done. You have indeed shown the style of our Free Sect. The so-called Chosen in the world are merely chess pieces in my disciple’s hand.”

Liang Sheng had now reached the Soul Emergence Completion Realm after his journey to the Beast Swamp. Such progress had rarely been seen in history, not just unprecedented.

The Zi Zai independent cultivator was extremely pleased. Although he had not been monitoring Liang Sheng all the time, he was mostly aware of the situation that Liang Sheng had informed him about.

He could only say that Liang Sheng was indeed a disciple of the Free Sect and has some of my past style. Presumably, the old immortals in the Holy Land would also sigh a bit when they saw my disciple.

The lineage of my Free Sect is a single transmission, but all are Unparalleled Geniuses!

Liang Sheng, however, supported the Zi Zai independent cultivator with reverence, “All thanks to Master’s protection, otherwise, I would not have had such a successful journey.”

“Hahaha... Enough, let’s stop praising each other. Today, you have safely returned, and that’s worth celebrating. Come, disciple, let’s drink to that.”

At this moment, Huang Yifan was already standing on the side serving them. Upon seeing Liang Sheng’s safe return, he could not stop smiling.

“Disciple toasts a cup to Master.”

“Good...”

The two did not know how long they drank, from the sunset in the afternoon until the moon hung over the willow branches, but the Zi Zai independent cultivator was still not satisfied.

He still wanted more of this drinking session and even thought about Listening to Music at Brothels. However, he suddenly frowned and looked towards the north-west.

West is the place of Gengjin (Metal), the main place of killing.

“Bad luck!”

The Zi Zai independent cultivator couldn't help murmuring, and then lost his mood. Liang Sheng showed no reaction, as if he hadn't sensed anything.

But in fact, he had also felt the movement in the north-west. The aura of the Seeking-Truth Lineage. As expected, they had not given up.

However, what displeased the Zi Zai independent cultivator was not just this situation. There were two rays of light that disappeared in an instant in the north-west direction. The cultivators were at least in the Void Refining Seven-layered.

If it were before the journey to the Beast Swamp, Liang Sheng would have been very cautious, but now, After Liang Sheng had reached the Refining the God and Reversing the Void Realm, he didn't care about it.

At this time, the Zi Zai independent cultivator, already drunk, stood up, “Disciple, you must be tired from the journey to the Beast Swamp. We will discuss everything tomorrow, go and rest.”

“Yes, Master should also rest early.”

And then, it was a silent night.

At this moment, it seemed as if nothing had happened, extremely peaceful. But from the celestial phenomena in the northwest, all the Void Refining Dao Lords sensed something.

The Golden Age Chosen Path was about to open. This also meant that the competition among the Chosen of the Immortal Dynasty was no longer internal. After stepping on the Chosen Path, it became a battle of Ten Thousand Worlds.

But don't think that anyone can set foot on the Chosen Path, only the real Chosens have the qualification to embark on this journey, but for the cultivators who forcibly attempt, there is only one result.

Destruction of both body and Dao.

The world seems to be in chaos...

In the room, the Zi Zai independent cultivator muttered to himself, then fell into a deep sleep.

What relation does the world's killing intent have with my Free Sect?

Chapter 690: A path strewn with bones, Talent Road, the Sky emits a murderous intent!

Why can these two old immortals never be quiet for a moment?

Sleep!

...

East Victory Immortal Dynasty.

Capital City Soul Song.

After Lingxuzi and the others returned to the capital city, they couldn't help but feel emotional. Of the eleven Refining Void Dao Lords they started with, less than five remained.

Not to mention how many Nascent Soul Divinity Transformation cultivators perished in Beast Swamp. In the previous ten-thousand years, when had there ever been such a loss?

They could only hope that their fallen Daoist friends had immortal souls and could be reincarnated in this life with good fortune to continue on the path of cultivation.

Otherwise, once they die completely, their traces will be lost forever in the world.

After arriving at Capital City Soul Song, Lingxuzi and the others said their goodbyes. Chunyangzi didn't leave; he went into Lingxuzi's Cave Mansion with Feng Yuan.

They needed to report the details of this operation to Emperor Dongsheng. As for Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child, they were sent back for closed-door cultivation immediately.

Feng Yuan and the others had reached the pinnacle of Soul Emergence Realm, but they could not receive the news of Talent Road opening. However, Lingxuzi and Chunyangzi had made arrangements and would not let them miss this Heaven Talent Struggle.

Since there was still some time to prepare, Lingxuzi didn't want to put pressure on them. It would be better to let them calm down and digest the recent fortune from Beast Swamp's Ancient Desolate Springs.

After discussing and confirming the details, Lingxuzi and Chunyangzi sent a concise communication about the events to Emperor Dongsheng.

Afterwards, while they breathed a sigh of relief, they couldn't help feeling uneasy about the heavy losses. They also had to bear some responsibility for it.

After all, everything started because of Feng Yuan defending Longevity Immortal City. Causing the fall of so many Refining Void Dao Lords was a grave sin.

Fortunately, everything was done in response to Emperor Dongsheng's call for the Heaven Talent Struggle. If there were gains in the Golden Era, Emperor Dongsheng probably wouldn't be too angry.

But while Lingxuzi and the others were nervously awaiting the results, Dongsheng Cave Heaven's Emperor Dongsheng didn't pay attention to their communication jade slip.

As the Immortal Court Emperor, he naturally received more information. At this time, he had already received the message from the Sacred Land Representative.

The Holy Land orders that all cultivators who have broken through to the Refinement Void Triple Level in the next two years are not allowed to interfere in the upcoming Immortal Dynasty Competition.

As for those who have broken through to the Refining Void Dao Lord in these two years, they are Heaven's Chosen and can compete for the fortune of heaven and earth, depending on their own luck.

Emperor Dongsheng had no objection to this, but the changes in the northwest direction's fortune made his face very ugly.

The losses in Beast Swamp were actually within his acceptable range, and he didn't blame Lingxuzi. There's no such thing as a perfect result in the world, is there?

Moreover, it was ultimately the result of the Heavenly Secrets changing, what could a minor Refining Void Dao Lord Third Heaven cultivator do?

What Emperor Dongsheng couldn't tolerate, however, was the resurgence of the Seeking the Truth Lineage and that their venture into Beast Swamp allowed them to have the upper hand.

He feared that they would make their presence felt in the upcoming Immortal Dynasty Competition, and he couldn't help but feel resentful that Heaven and Earth Abandoned Cultivators had such fortune.

But even though he was unwilling in his heart, ultimately as a Unification Realm Great Power, he quickly calmed down. For now, he couldn't contest with the Seeking Truth Lineage.

At this thought, Emperor Dongsheng sighed lightly and decided to let them off this time. After the Era of Great Contention, the disciples of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty would settle things with the Seeking Truth Lineage.

But since the Seeking Truth Lineage wanted to use Longevity Immortal City as an early preparation, he wouldn't let them achieve their goal so smoothly.

There was also the Beast Swamp Demon Clan...

Emperor Dongsheng hesitated for a moment, eventually deciding not to interfere for now. After all, the appearance of the Bronze Stone Coffin made him extremely uneasy.

He occasionally heard some rumors; whether they were true or false, he naturally couldn't disturb the situation for fear of bad luck.

Otherwise, if something went wrong in the end, even the Elders of the Sacred Land would probably just stand by and watch, because such consequences would be considered self-inflicted.

Having decided not to interfere with the Beast Swamp for now, Emperor Dongsheng picked up the communication jade slip, thought about how to reply to Lingxuzi, and then sent his message.

It was not appropriate for Lingxuzi to act rashly for the time being, but his Immortal Dynasty's Chosen disciples like Kaiyuan Child could take action.

For the Heaven Talent Struggle, let me see who can truly become the Chosen of my East Victory Immortal Dynasty!
