

Bottleneck 691

Chapter 691: Massacres and Chaos, Countless Deaths and Injuries, After Our Performance, It's Your Turn

East Victory Immortal Dynasty, Capital City Soul Song.

At this moment, inside the Dongsheng Cave Heaven, Emperor Dongsheng sat motionlessly while the restless aura from the northwest made him nauseous.

However, since the Talent Road has opened, let the younger generation of my dynasty's talents teach a lesson to the remnants of the Seeking Truth lineage and let them know what it means to act recklessly.

Emperor Dongsheng was full of confidence, after all, how many new disciples of the surviving Seeking Truth lineage who have been hiding all the time could actually succeed?

I wonder what would happen if the dynasty's disciples met the remnants of the Seeking Truth lineage, and as for the dynasty's disciples dying at the hands of the Seeking Truth lineage disciples...

At this thought, a flash of cold light passed through Emperor Dongsheng's eyes, extremely indifferent. If that's the case, let them die. After all, they are all waste!

Inside the Capital City, Lingxuzi, who received the message from Emperor Dongsheng, breathed a sigh of relief. It was fortunate that the Emperor did not punish him this time, but after this, there would be countless killings in the dynasty.

Fortunately, Emperor Dongsheng did not force the young disciples of the dynasty to act immediately, so he could still try to buy some time for Kaiyuan and Fengyuan.

However, this time will not be too long, he just hoped that the two of them could break through as soon as possible...

When Lingxuzi calmed his complicated emotions, he did not make any changes and directly passed on the summons of Emperor Dongsheng to all the powerful figures of the dynasty.

Heavenly killing intent arises, and the Talent Road opens.

It is time to determine the true talents of the Immortal Dynasty and dance with the All World Talents.

Longevity Immortal City.

Early the next morning, the Zi Zai independent cultivator opened his eyes and saw Liang Sheng, who was full of energy, standing in the courtyard stretching his muscles.

Every action is filled with the rhythm of the Dao.

He's probably able to break through the Refining Void Realm successfully.

Wait a minute...

The Zi Zai independent cultivator suddenly felt that something was wrong. His disciple seemed to have not experienced the Fate Calamity yet, so why did he have the natural Dao rhythm at this moment?

With this doubt, he looked closely at Liang Sheng, who was aware of it but pretended not to know anything.

Huh?

Complete Heaven Great Freedom Method at the small completion stage!?

How long has it been?

The Zi Zai independent cultivator was completely dumbfounded. How long did it take him back then?

Since it had been so long ago, he couldn't remember how many years it had taken him to advance the Free Method to the small completion stage.

My disciple is indeed a gifted child. Who could compete with him!?

As for the lack of the Fate Calamity aura? The Zi Zai independent cultivator didn't care anymore. The Zi Zai independent cultivators should be carefree. Even the Free Method could easily break through, and the trivial Fate Calamity might have passed unknowingly in the Beast Swamp.

It seems that this is his disciple's Human Tribulation. Thus, his disciple had silently crossed the Fate Calamity and established his foundation without anyone noticing.

Just try and see, who else?

The more he looked at Liang Sheng, the more satisfied he became. He didn't disturb Liang Sheng but lay down in his chair, shaking his head, and enjoying the beautiful time.

Meanwhile, Huang Yifan, who was standing at the side with downcast eyes, quietly appeared with breakfast, perfectly in sync.

Not long after, Liang Sheng stopped his movements, and Zi Zai independent cultivator also looked up at the door but did not stop eating.

For such trivial matters, why did he need to take action?

Liang Sheng had the same reaction, directly taking the towel from Huang Yifan, wiping his hands and sitting next to him, sharing breakfast.

Without any disturbance from the meek and gentle Huang Yifan, he silently retreated and went to the main gate.

As he stepped out after opening the door, his expression changed instantly. The submissive look was gone, replaced by cold frostiness.

This was the look of the Wrathful Vajra.

The cultivators outside the mansion felt a chill in their bodies, and they quieted down as soon as they saw the cold and frosty Huang Yifan.

It turned out that after the Heavenly Secrets changed last night, the killing intent emerged, the Immortal City cultivators became restless, and those with insufficient mental states were directly deceived by the Heart Demons, causing many people to come to Liang Sheng's door.

The previous title of Liang Sheng as a weapon refining master made them take risks. If they could "ask" for a spirit tool, wouldn't it increase their fortune?

Under their chaotic minds and audacious courage, at least those who could reach the door were Golden Core True Persons. However, Huang Yifan had no nonsense words for them; he simply raised his hand and slapped them.

When the palm wind fell, the Golden Core cultivator, who could be considered a master in the Longevity Immortal City, instantly turned into powder and disappeared with the wind, without any chance to react.

The crowd was shocked, but after being coldly glanced at by Huang Yifan, they quieted down immediately. In the distance, the cultivators who had been bewitched by the Heavenly Secrets also sobered up abruptly.

It was a good thing they were a little late.

Liang Sheng, a master who should not be provoked. Had they been blinded by lard before?

They turned around and retreated without dragging their feet at all. However, under the chaos of the Heavenly Secrets, their greed was still overflowing.

Just then, someone mentioned that the Wang family had commissioned Master Liang Sheng to refine a successful spirit tool previously. Two days ago, the Wang family's ancestor had reached the end of his life, and he wasn't suitable by virtue...

In an instant, the words ignited a barrel of explosives, and the cultivators were ecstatic as they swarmed toward the Wang family's mansion.

Overcome by greed, they didn't even think that there was only one spirit tool, and the Wang family was no ordinary family. As for the outcome of this, no one considered it.

Inside Liang's mansion, Liang Sheng and the Zi Zai independent cultivator observed them coldly. The Zi Zai independent cultivator sneered, "Fools blinded by greed!"

He couldn't help but shake his head, "looked" at the Longevity Immortal City, which was already in chaos, and gave a wry smile.

"Disciple, the Zhou family is also under attack, and the City Lord's Mansion is now in chaos. Won't you intervene?"

Previously, Liang Sheng took great care of the Zhou family, which the Zi Zai independent cultivator also saw. At this moment, under the Heavenly killing intent, these troublemaking cultivators were like pitiful worms, swaying with the currents and attacking the Zhou family.

Chapter 692: Massacres and Chaos, Countless Deaths and Injuries, After Our Performance, It's Your Turn

However, the disciples of the Zhou Family had strong mentalities and cultivation, and even though their emotions were disturbed, they refrained from acting rashly till now.

But now the problem wasn't whether they would lose control or not, as other Immortal City cultivators had already been driven by their greed.

Liang Sheng took a sip of his morning tea, looking calm and composed, “Master, you jest. As the Heavenly Dao strikes, it selects the talented ones. Under these circumstances, human power alone won’t suffice.

Besides, since Zhou Shen has already become the City Master of the Immortal City, if he can’t present a satisfactory solution, he doesn’t have the qualifications to partake in the path of the gifted child.

In that case, it is better to let him carve out a bloody path amidst the killing. If he can achieve the Out-of-Body stage, he would still qualify to continue his cultivation on the talent road.

And if he can’t overcome this challenge, then he should just stay in the Immortal City, quietly acting the part of a good, obedient City Master.

As for the Zhou Family, they are not people who act recklessly, they know how to make the optimal decision. My interference may disturb their pace.”

His disciple appears to not wish to intervene, but genuinely has great confidence in the Zhou Family. As for Zi Zai, the independent cultivator, he neither agreed nor disagreed and decided to wait and watch.

In his heart, Liang Sheng was amazed, uncertain of what kind of Fortune Zhou Shen possessed. During his two years journey in Beast Swamp, Zhou Shen had already become a Divinity Transformation cultivator.

Upgrading from Nascent Soul to a Divine Transformation in two years, it was simply unthinkable. If it weren’t for the Era of Great Contention at the moment, someone would have already knocked on the door to investigate.

At this moment, Zi Zai, the independent cultivator, stretched leisurely, “You are taking things too seriously. For the sake of our Free Gate’s legacy, as your Master, I will have to properly guide you and help you adjust your state of mind.”

“Old Huang, let’s go to Yaoxiang Pavilion.”

“Ah? Sir, I’m afraid Yaoxiang Pavilion hasn’t opened yet...”

“Dare they not open if I go?”

“Sir is wise.”

Hearing this, Liang Sheng’s mouth involuntarily twitched. At this moment, Huang Yifan resembled a flatterer of a rich family, to which he could only say...

At this point, Zi Zai glanced at Liang Sheng, and Liang Sheng immediately nodded with a smile.

“Master, I quite agree!”

...

The Longevity Immortal City was in complete chaos, which had nothing to do with Liang Sheng and his master.

In fact, it was not just the Longevity Immortal City; if we expand the view, the entire East Victory Immortal Dynasty, nay, the entire world, was shaken. Everyone’s heart was wavering, and chaos ensued.

Red dust cause and effect entwined in a mess, a killing intent was looming, the Heavenly Secrets were sharp as a knife, under the Heavenly Dao’s lethal intent, all beings were undergoing tribulations.

What’s more, it was said to be the Golden Era, and those who could make it through the Immortal Dynasty Competition are called the gifted children.

...

City Lord's Mansion.

Backyard.

Zhou Shen had just ended his seclusion at this point, and he was somewhat in a daze as he looked at the long-lost sun. He felt somewhat confused.

He was just hiding in the branch of the Immortal Dynasty's spiritual vein for cultivation, but he had no idea why when he woke up, he had already become a Divinity Transformation cultivator.

This was also the reason why Liang Sheng was amazed earlier. This rate of progress far exceeded that of his own, by countless measures.

However, he didn't have time to marvel. After reaching the Divinity Transformation stage, his sense of Heavenly Secrets was completely different from before, which made him frown involuntarily.

In a flash, he reached Zhou Mansion. Jin Quanxiu was first shocked and then ecstatic when he saw him suddenly appear, and his eyes were filled with deep gratification.

He could no longer see through his disciple's cultivation level, and this vast aura was something he had seen before only on the Left and Right Envoys.

A Divinity Transformation Cultivator.

Zhou Ning was reporting the situation of the Immortal City to Jin Quanxiu at this moment. There were many disturbances, and momentarily it seemed like they didn't have enough people to handle them.

However, after he finished reporting, Jin Quanxiu didn't say anything for a long time. When he looked up, he found that Zhou Shen had quietly moved behind him without his knowledge.

"City Master!"

Zhou Shen's tone was full of joy. Zhou Shen nodded to greet, and then sat down again with a calm face.

Zhou Ning, unknowingly was also able to remove his nervousness, his whole person calmed down, and began to listen again to the introduction of the Immortal City's situation.

At this time, the Heavenly Dao was lethal, and it wasn't aimed at anyone, but all living beings in the world were affected. The Zhou Family disciples were naturally deeply influenced too.

However, under the bloodline of seeking fortune and avoiding evil, they managed to retain some sanity, which made them behave differently from ordinary cultivators.

Now that Zhou Ning had explained all the situations, he sat to the side waiting for Zhou Shen's command, and Zhou Shen didn't think for long before he came to a decision.

"Release all Zhou Family disciples to cooperate with the City Lord's Foreign Affairs Hall to suppress the chaos in the city. Show no mercy, those who do not cooperate, kill without mercy."

Ah?

Hearing this, Zhou Ning couldn't help doubting whether he had misheard. If they started a wholesale massacre, I'm afraid the Longevity Immortal City would be drenched in blood.

But Zhou Shen didn't care about his reaction. He had reached the Divinity Transformation stage, and his sense of Heavenly Secrets was naturally different from before.

This time the cultivators "lost their minds", which was actually in line with heaven's will. If Zhou Family disciples forcefully suppress their inner desires and only try to seek fortune and avoid evil, they won't gain the favor of Heavenly Dao.

It would be better to let them go wild and himself sit behind the scenes to handle, thus avoiding any big waves. Although Zhou Ning didn't understand Zhou Shen's meaning, he still followed his command and left.

Although Zhou Shen was younger than him, he was also the City Master of the Immortal City. Especially considering their difference in cultivation realms, the gap was already huge.

“City Master, rest assured, I know what to do.”

Zhou Ning left after taking the command, and Jin Quanxiu was preparing to have a heart-to-heart talk with his long-lost disciple.

But at this very moment, Zhou Shen suddenly stood up. His face was no longer calm as before, which made Jin Quanxiu uncertain.

Before he could ask what was going on, Zhou Shen took the initiative and said, “Master, the Ancestor has come out of seclusion, he has returned from the Beast Swamp.”

Chapter 693: Massacres and Chaos, Countless Deaths and Injuries, After Our Performance, It's Your Turn

Ah?

Jin Quanxiu was also stunned when he heard this, and then he was about to take Zhou Shen with him to visit Liang Sheng at the Liang Family. However, Zhou Shen stopped him.

“Master, Ancestor has gone to Yaoxiang Pavilion now, and with his temper, since he didn't inform us, he must not want to be disturbed. Let's deal with the chaos in the city first.

Originally, I wanted to slowly boil the frog in the water, but since the Ancestor has appeared, let's cut the knot quickly and not let these cultivators annoy the Ancestor.”

Jin Quanxiu naturally had no objection to this, but was rather gratified, as Zhou Shen did not overly “protect” the Zhou Family young members but instead showed great respect for the Ancestor, which showed his sense of belonging to the “Dan Ding Sect.”

“Alright, then, everything will be arranged according to your plan. If there’s a place where you can use your Master, feel free to speak up.”

“Thank you, Master.”

Next, Zhou Shen personally presided over the City Lord Mansion, acted decisively, and with his Divinity Transformation cultivation level enough to suppress everything inside the City Lord Mansion.

As for the Foreign Affairs Hall outside the Mansion, they cooperated with Zhou Family disciples and immediately turned into the City Lord’s minions, helping to quell the unrest throughout Immortal City.

They resolutely carried out City Lord Zhou Shen’s orders. Those who instigated chaos in the city were suppressed and killed without mercy.

In troubled times, heavy penalties must be imposed, and there can be no mercy of a woman.

All the cultivators of the City Lord Mansion understand this principle.

...

Yaoxiang Pavilion.

The occasional sporadic tragic fighting noise from outside entered the room, and the Giving Bodhisattvas in attendance shivered, becoming somewhat absent-minded.

However, Liang Sheng and the Zi Zai independent cultivator remained unmoved, and as time passed, they slightly calmed the minds of those attending, regaining some confidence.

With these two here, surely no one would dare cause trouble. At this moment, although the relationship between City Lord Zhou Shen and the Liang Family is not known to others, there are already some slightest clues that their relationship is extraordinary.

Liang Sheng and his disciple were not concerned about the fighting outside. They just didn't expect Zhou Shen to react so quickly this time. They thought he would wait a few more days to see how the situation developed before making a decision.

He's a true hero, resolute and decisive.

Liang Sheng didn't know that Zhou Shen indeed wanted to watch the situation first, but Liang Sheng's sudden appearance forced him to change his mind immediately.

Zhou Shen has grown to such heights today for a reason, and he knows exactly where his fortune comes from.

If it weren't for Liang Sheng, he wouldn't even have the opportunity to live, let alone his current circumstances.

So, he naturally understands the priorities in his heart, and there is no way he would make a mistake.

However, at this moment, Liang Sheng glanced at the northwest direction and couldn't help but raise the corner of his mouth. Zi Zai independent cultivator also showed a similar reaction.

At this moment, the unrest in the Immortal City is just a small disturbance, and the real test is yet to come. It remains to be seen how Zhou Shen will deal with it.

Will Zhou Shen still have the courage to remain so resolute and decisive this time?

...

Northwest.

Outer Space.

At this moment, numerous rays of light are surging, as the younger cultivators of the Seeking Truth Lineage are on their way to the Longevity Immortal City at the command of their elders.

If all goes well, they should arrive at the Longevity Immortal City in a few days. Naturally, the East Victory Immortal Dynasty didn't remain unresponsive at this time.

East Victory Immortal Dynasty and Seeking Truth Lineage can't rest until one is dead, but at the moment, major Immortal cities under the Immortal Dynasty are also experiencing unrest and are somewhat preoccupied with their own affairs.

At this time, when heaven sent a killing opportunity and greed blinded their eyes, the Capital City Soul Song still made a decision. From time to time, cultivators departed from the Capital City Soul Song to head straight for the Longevity Immortal City.

In the end, there are still people seeking fortune in danger, wanting to block the cultivators of Seeking Truth Lineage and achieve the name of a gifted child.

Not to mention that there are other trial cultivators from various regions of the immortal dynasty hidden within the East Victory Immortal Dynasty who have also been affected.

These cultivators have keen senses, knowing that there must be great opportunities in the Longevity Immortal City, so they naturally do not want to miss out.

As for whether they can seize the opportunity, each must rely on their own abilities without blaming anyone.

Liang Sheng looked at the Longevity Immortal City, entangled in a messy web of cause and effect, and couldn't help but raise the corners of his mouth. It seemed as if one party would take the stage after another.

Various gifted children continue to descend upon the Longevity Immortal City, much like the dress rehearsal before the opening of Talent Road.

Zhou Shen, how will you respond to what's to come?

Chapter 694: Liang Sheng's Courage Knows No Bounds, Appears to Revive the Deadlock!

Longevity Immortal City.

At this time, the chaos in the city had subsided, especially after Zhou Shen cleanly killed two Nascent Soul cultivators, no one in the city dared to initiate any turmoil, otherwise, it would be a dead-end.

Zhou Shen did not breathe a sigh of relief, because the real test of the Immortal City had just begun, and the cultivators outside the Immortal City, including the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators, had already arrived.

He was not their opponent.

As expected, the Cultivation World was full of talented people, and they should not be too complacent. After these foreign cultivators descended, Zhou Shen immediately noticed the change in Immortal City's Destiny.

As the lord of Immortal City, he was the most sensitive to this change.

But there was also good news, which was that these foreign cultivators did not take him seriously at first, giving him time to react.

This apparent insult seemed like a look down on Zhou Shen, but at least Zhou Shen temporarily had no life-threatening crisis.

It was not surprising that Divinity Transformation Realm cultivators were unique in the Immortal City, but they were very common across the entire Cultivation World.

Even in the Capital City Soul Song, it was probably the cultivators in the Divinity Transformation Realm who were considered the best among the Soul Emergence Venerables, and Zhou Shen secretly breathed a sigh of relief upon their arrival.

Previously, it was good that the Zhou Family made another preparation. After Zhou Shen quelled the turmoil in the Immortal City, he moved the Dark Vein cultivators of the Zhou Family outside the Immortal City.

The Zhou Family must always have a way out.

He looked at the movement in the Immortal City and couldn't help but touch the Storage Ring in his hand, which was the Slaughter Spiritual Weapon that Liang Sheng had given him. As for the Spiritual Device Armor, it was already worn on his body.

If it were an ordinary time, he might choose to stay far away, but now it was the Era of Great Contention, and he could neither flee nor hide.

Since he had become the Immortal City Lord, he had to fight. He had already lost control of his circumstances, otherwise, with his previous actions, he could not escape the final reckoning of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty.

At this point, Zhou Shen took a deep breath to ease the tension in his heart, and as time passed, more and more foreign cultivators entered the Immortal City.

Nascent Soul Masters were as common as dogs, and Divinity Transformation Realm cultivators were even more common. Soul Emergence Venerables were not rare either.

Fortunately, up to now, there was not a single Refinement Void Dao Monarch. It seemed that no matter which force, they had already reached a tacit agreement on this matter.

What should he do next?

Zhou Shen couldn't think of any way to break the situation. If the opponent fought in the Immortal City at this time, he would probably not have a single chance.

Since he had no way, he naturally needed help. He was not a conservative cultivator, and immediately made up his mind to come directly to the outside of Liang Sheng's Mansion, respectfully standing outside the door, and gently knocking on it.

Huang Yifan appeared, looking at Zhou Shen with a gentle expression on his face.

"Uncle Huang."

"The master is resting and not seeing guests for now. However, he asked me to tell you that with him here, Immortal City won't be in chaos. You can go ahead and act."

Hearing these words, a flash of joy crossed Zhou Shen's face.

In fact, whether Liang Sheng met with him or not, it didn't matter, as long as Elder Liang promised.

After Zhou Shen received this response, he bowed respectfully at the door and then said goodbye to leave.

"Elder Liang, I bid farewell."

When he came, he was full of worries; when he left, he was full of confidence.

Even if the sky was still filled with streaking lights at this moment, Zhou Shen was no longer worried. After all, he had something in common with the others.

You and I both have someone to rely on.

It's just that I trust Elder Liang more.

...

Inside Liang Sheng's Mansion.

This time, Zi Zai independent cultivator and Liang Sheng were playing a rare serious game of chess. Zi Zai raised his hand and ate one of Liang Sheng's black pieces, then smiled lightly.

"Disciple, you are already surrounded by me, your life is cut off. How can you break the game?"

However, Liang Sheng was calm, ignoring the dead piece, and placing a new one in the top left corner. Zi Zai couldn't help but feel a bit surprised.

"Huh..."

Interesting.

And at this moment, Liang Sheng's voice also rang out.

"Master, since this place is already a dead end, I should not waste any more time here. It's better to open up another battlefield.

Although I don't know if this is the path to victory, at least it adds more variables, so I'm not just waiting for death."

Upon hearing these words, Zi Zai burst out laughing.

"Disciple, have you finally decided to take the initiative? No more hiding?"

His disciple was good in every aspect, meticulous in his actions, but there was one point that made him a bit helpless: his disciple always liked to be foolproof, unwilling to take risks, and preferred to hide behind the scenes.

He didn't expect that this time he would actually want to take the initiative. This was not his previous style, which made Zi Zai quite surprised and pleased.

"Master once told me that the cultivators of Free Gate should be at ease. It's different now. After cultivating until today, I have gained some insights.

I have been hiding for so many years. It wasn't what I wanted to do, but now that I have Master, I am only one step away from reaching the Refining Void Realm.

By taking advantage of the opening of Talent Road during this Era of Great Contention, if I continue to hide, it will only make me seem petty and lacking in grand momentum – which ultimately won't enable me to accomplish great things."

"Well said, let's toast to it."

Zi Zai had just finished speaking when Huang Yifan timely appeared with a pot of wine, gently pouring it for Zi Zai and Liang Sheng.

Zi Zai drank it all up in one gulp, his eyes shining brightly.

"Well then, Master will watch your performance next, seeing if you can really revive the entire dead-end game."

"Please, Master, stay tuned."

Liang Sheng also drank all the wine in one gulp.

However, he wanted to do more than Zi Zai had expected.

Since Unification Realm Venerables could not take action during the Talent Road of the Era of Great Contention, why should he be bound?

Chapter 695: Liang Sheng's Boldness Surpasses Heaven, Appears to Revive the Deadlock!

Talent Road is full of countless opportunities and numerous resources. How could he possibly miss it?

However, he reminded himself not to rush. One step at a time.

...

The Longevity Immortal City.

As more and more cultivators arrived from outer space, the previously suppressed Immortal City cultivators couldn't help but feel relieved.

If it wasn't for the previous City Lord's suppression, they might have clashed with these great powers from outer space. Fighting against them would likely result in certain death.

For a moment, everyone felt threatened. The previously chaotic Longevity Immortal City returned to calm, but the cultivators from outer space began to have friction amongst themselves.

At first, they kept their distances and didn't disturb each other. However, when the cultivators from the East Victory Immortal Dynasty Capital City Soul Song appeared, the atmosphere changed.

Because they encountered the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators, the atmosphere suddenly became tense, and murderous intent could be seen in the eyes of the Capital City Soul Song cultivators.

This caused the originally calm situation to become tense again.

Capital City Soul Song cultivators were elite disciples under various great powers, coming here for the Talent Opportunity, and their lowest cultivation level was at the Divinity Transformation Realm.

They stared closely at the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators, secretly praising, “So these are the remnants of the Seeking-Truth Lineage that caused trouble for Feng Yuan and his companion? Their strength is indeed extraordinary.”

Both sides facing off are elites, and their cultivation levels are naturally not simple. They all came here to compete for the Opportunity, and originally, they should have investigated the situation separately before taking action, but they simply couldn’t coexist peacefully.

Especially the Capital City Soul Song cultivators, their ancestor had been watching this whole time!

Not to mention those cultivators with red eyes, who couldn’t contain their anger. They were the descendants of the Fallen Void Refining Daoist in the Beast Swamp.

This was an irreconcilable life and death enmity.

Just as their Qi began to rise, the situation also became tense. Other foreign cultivators simply didn’t care, standing far away, their eyes playful, as if watching a show.

But at the moment when both sides’ momentum continued to rise, Zhou Shen appeared between them. Under the pressure from both sides, he forcefully straightened his body.

His own Divinity Transformation Cultivation level was still somewhat lacking.

Zhou Shen secretly lamented but remained determined.

“This is the Longevity Immortal City, and I am the City Lord, Zhou Shen. The city’s order must not be disrupted. I don’t care who you are. If you want to fight, go to the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp where the Demonic Beasts reside, and you can do as you please there.”

Upon hearing this, the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators immediately retracted their Qi, but the Capital City cultivators showed no reaction. Instead, they seemed to be both irritated and amused.

A mere Divinity Transformation cultivator. If it wasn't for Feng Yuan's two Senior Brothers still in closed-door cultivation, he'd probably be the first one to suffer.

They already investigated Zhou Shen's situation, and his previous relationship with the Seeking-Truth Lineage was unclear.

If it wasn't for the fear of the great power behind the Longevity Immortal City, whom they didn't know the realm of, would they still be so restrained?

Before coming this time, their elders only told them to be careful not to provoke the great power behind the Immortal City and to deal with other matters as they wished.

That person likely had a cultivation level above Void Refining Seven-layered. At this time, they couldn't directly take action. However, if they secretly interfered like they had previously, Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child would be a lesson to them.

"Longevity City Lord, this matter has nothing to do with you. We are only targeting the remnants of the Seeking-Truth Lineage. May we pass?"

Zhou Shen shook his head. There was no room for negotiation.

The Capital City Soul Song cultivator couldn't help but frown.

He extended goodwill, yet the other party did not appreciate it. Moreover, at this time, did he think they wouldn't dare take action?

But they underestimated him.

As long as they didn't harm the other party, there should be no reason for the hidden great power to take action.

The Immortal Dynasty cultivators simply ignored Zhou Shen, released their murderous intent, and immediately responded to the Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators.

They were afraid of involving Zhou Shen, and subconsciously wanted to protect him, but Zhou Shen didn't follow the script and once again stood between them, his head held high, neither arrogant nor humble.

"As I said before, all fighting is forbidden within Immortal City. If you want to make a move, go directly to the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp. Bear the consequences, and don't say I didn't warn you."

The Seeking-Truth Lineage cultivators couldn't help but feel dumbfounded upon hearing this.

A mere Divinity Transformation cultivator, where does such boldness come from?

Even the cultivators from the Immortal Dynasty couldn't help but reveal a grim smile, they couldn't bear it any longer today. Otherwise, would anyone else be able to trample on them in the future?

Now that the Talent Road in the Immortal Dynasty Grand Competition has opened, their elders have already instructed them on how to act on this trip.

Regarding the competition for fortune, they must not retreat. At this time, there was no other choice.

Originally, they were somewhat fearful of the hidden expert in the city, but if they backed down now, what Talent Road would they talk about?

Immediately, a furious shout echoed throughout the Immortal City.

"Looking for death!"

A man instantly appeared in front of Zhou Shen, carrying a brutal aura and showing no signs of stopping.

In reality, it was just a tactic to scare him, and they didn't intend to seriously harm him.

However, with a bang, the Immortal Dynasty cultivator who had taken the initiative was sent flying back into their camp with an even faster speed.

Others were too slow to react at the time, and there was a brief moment of chaos, while Zhou Shen only breathed a sigh of relief at this time.

Thanks to the Ancestor's protection.

At this moment, the surrounding onlookers didn't dare to breathe, their gazes strange as they looked at Zhou Shen. No wonder he was so calm, it turned out there was a great power protecting him from the shadows.

Just then, a voice rang throughout the Immortal City, causing all cultivators to shudder. The opponent had such strong power.

"Those who cause chaos in the Longevity Immortal City will be killed without mercy. If you have any grievances, go to Outer Heaven to settle them."

Chapter 696: Liang Sheng's Boldness Surpasses Heaven, Appears to Revive the Deadlock!

Upon hearing this voice, Zhou Shen's expression stirred, because this was Elder Liang Sheng's voice, and it seemed this was the first time Liang Sheng entered with such an imposing appearance.

The other foreign cultivators who heard Liang Sheng's warning all changed their expressions.

Perfection of the Soul Emergence Realm!

A half-step into the Refinement Void!

He has already crossed the Fate Calamity and built the foundation of Dao!

Even if he dies and his Dao fades, his heavenly spirit remains undying, granting a chance to reincarnate and start over.

Who is stronger between Senior Brother Feng Yuan and him?

There was no answer in their hearts.

In fact, it wasn't Liang Sheng's cultivation level that surprised them, as they had amongst them, Soul Emergence Venerable in their group.

The shock came from the fact that Liang Sheng had already surpassed the Fate Calamity. While he was far from matching the Refinement Void Dao Monarch, he outclassed the average Soul Emergence Venerables by a lot.

They were absolutely no match for him.

What was even more terrifying was that he was not the true great force behind the scenes.

As his voice emerged, a faint Qi next to him surged, vast as the ocean, with no end in sight.

It was simply absurdly powerful.

Perhaps even the elders in their own schools couldn't compare.

Senior Brother Feng Yuan falling down in Longevity Immortal City, was not unjust.

It wasn't that Senior Brother Feng Yuan was not strong enough, but the enemy was simply too powerful.

It was not their fault they lost the battle.

At this time, Zhou Shen stood out again, walking between the two confronting parties, looking at each side without saying a word, and then directly returned to the City Lord Mansion.

This was a warning.

If no one dared to stop him, they would have to obey his rules. The Seeking Truth Lineage and Lingge cultivators thought about it and dispersed, neither showing off their strength.

Now is not the time for them to make a move.

The Seeking Truth Lineage wanted to secretly contact Zhou Shen to confirm some matters, which is good as long as there is no conflict with the Immortal Dynasty cultivators.

After all, this was home ground for the East Victory Immortal Dynasty. Even though their trip to the Beast Swamp confirmed that the World Rejection was weakening, they still needed to keep a low profile.

The Immortal Dynasty cultivators were wise to the situation and didn't clash with the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp, as their elders just suffered a loss.

Who knows what the situation is in the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp?

Furthermore, they were waiting.

Before they set out, they received news that perhaps Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child wouldn't be in closed-door cultivation for too long.

And when they emerge, they might have to be addressed as Dao Lord Ancestor.

By then, taking the Seeking Truth Remnants to the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp, there would be an 80% certainty.

So, let's wait a bit longer.

The Immortal City regained its eerie calm.

But in Liang Sheng's Mansion, the Zi Zai independent cultivator was smiling wryly.

"Master, thank you for stepping in."

"There's no need to be so polite between us, Master and disciple. These Immortal Dynasty cultivators were being disgraceful, trying to test us with their disciples, but I won't cooperate.

However, disciple, what will you do next? If these people really behave themselves, I can't intervene directly.

The Undying elders of the Holy Land are certainly watching me. Although I'm at a similar realm to them, I am indeed slightly inferior."

"Master, don't be anxious, they won't possibly settle down."

"Uh?"

Seeing Zi Zai independent cultivator still confused, Liang Sheng revealed his plan, showing a jade bottle in his palm.

The Zi Zai independent cultivator didn't stand on ceremony, took it and opened it, his face changed instantly.

“Ancient Spring Water?”

“Correct, it is Ancient Spring Water, Master, what would happen if I poured Ancient Spring Water into the Immortal Dynasty’s sub-spiritual vein in Longevity Immortal City?”

Even the detached Zi Zai independent cultivator’s face changed, his tone became urgent, “How much Ancient Spring Water do you have?”

Liang Sheng grinned slightly without mentioning the exact amount.

“Enough to cause turbulence in the East Victory Immortal Dynasty.”

“Aren’t you afraid that after the Immortal Dynasty Competition ends, Emperor Dongsheng will come to you for an accounting? He is a Great Might in the Unification Realm.”

“Master, aren’t you there? What do I have to worry about?”

“You young man...”

Upon hearing this, the Zi Zai independent cultivator couldn’t help but laugh and curse, but a hint of indulgence lay in his eyes. He too was once guarded by someone in the same way.

This is the Free Gate, passed down from master to apprentice, pursuing only great freedom.

It could only be said that his disciple was even more crazed than him.

“Since you want to do it, then go ahead. If the sky falls, your Master will hold it up.”

“Master, don’t worry. I just want to know if I am a ‘gifted child’.”

“You, of course, are a gifted child. Go ahead.”

“Thank you, Master.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Liang Sheng disappeared.

A slight smile curled up at the corner of Zi Zai independent cultivator’s lips.

The game was alive.

Chapter 697: Liang Sheng’s Heaven-Defying Means Subdues Beast Swamp; Fengyuan Kaiyuan Disciple Emerges; Cultivating Void Dao Monarch!

Longevity Immortal City.

Under Liang Sheng’s intervention, peace was restored in the Immortal City, with Zhou Shen silently waiting for Liang Sheng’s next command.

However, when he learned of Liang Sheng’s plan, the only words left in Zhou Shen’s mind were ‘madman’.

This was akin to dancing on the edge of a knife.

And what would happen after the Ancient Spring Water was merged with the veins of the Immortal Dynasty?

No one knew.

However, Zhou Shen did not voice his thoughts, only nodded in agreement, vowing to cooperate fully.

Under the ability of his bloodline to cultivate good fortune and avoid disaster, there were only four words.

A great fortune omen.

As such, he decided to give it another shot.

...

In the City Lord Mansion.

The Backyard.

Zhou Shen stood quietly behind Liang Sheng. Assuming the status of the city lord of the Immortal City, he opened the Sumeru Mustard Seed Sand Gravel Space. Together with Liang Sheng, he stepped straight into it.

The concentration of spiritual vein branches within the Immortal City exceeded Liang Sheng's expectations, luckily he had previously brought out quite a lot of Ancient Spring Water.

Lucky for him, he had managed to take advantage of the opportunity when he left the spring earlier.

Looking at the fluctuating Heaven and Earth Spine in the branch veins, Liang Sheng marveled, fitting for the Golden Era. However, after reaching the stage of Refining the God and Reversing the Void, he needed more.

The phrase 'no pain, no gain' was apt in this situation. There had to be sacrifices sometimes.

Considering how quickly Zhou Shen advanced into the Divinity Transformation Realm, one could only say that it was due to his fortune. As long as there were enough resources, even a pig could become a great cultivator.

As for his own journey, it was directed towards a smoother path in the future of his immortal endeavors.

With this thought, Liang Sheng wasted no more time, immediately pouring the Ancient Spring Water held in the jade bottle into the Spiritual Vein Branch Vein.

At that moment, there was no earth-shattering reaction. Only an extremely dense spiritual energy surged out, showing the smooth integration of the Spiritual Vein and the Ancient Spring Water.

Liang Sheng's eyes grew brighter and brighter. This result was anticipated. After his breakthrough in Refining the God and Reversing the Void, his innate divine ability-law of cause and effect, had undergone a transformation.

He could not only foresee possible futures but also intervene and deduce them. It was no longer a vague series of images. Otherwise, Liang Sheng would not have come up with such a plan.

Longevity Immortal City was destined to be the protagonist of the worlds during this period.

Why? Because he, Liang Sheng, was here.

As the endless Ancient Spring Water from the bottle poured in, the spiritual energy of the spiritual vein gradually underwent a qualitative change, differing somewhat from the past.

Zhou Shen had been in bliss at this moment. He was already sitting on the ground, greedily absorbing the spiritual energy that had been fused.

Liang Sheng did not pay him any mind. When the Ancient Spring Water in the bottle was consumed, the corners of Liang Sheng's mouth could not help but curl up slightly.

Next, was the beginning of the real drama.

However, this time the main battlefield was not the Longevity Immortal City, but the Outer Heaven Beast Swamp. He wondered if the Demon Clan would bring him more surprises.

The existence of the Bronze Stone Coffin in the Ancient Spring Eye made Liang Sheng feel great fear in the face of life and death, and he did not dare to investigate the reason behind it.

But under the deduction and speculation of the law of cause and effect, he found a better way to investigate. Why should he take action personally?

The heavens murder. If they could control their greed, none of his scheming would affect anyone.

However, due to their greed, whether they gained opportunities or met their demise, it was all their own choice.

Liang Sheng had already laid out his plan beforehand. The Zizai independent cultivator only guessed the superficial reasons.

If he knew that Liang Sheng's ambition was to learn the truth about the Bronze Stone Coffin, he might be a bit worried. The disciples of the Free Sect indeed sought their own path, but not the path of death.

However, Liang Sheng had his own judgement and would never cross the line. The secret of the Beast Swamp was not as simple as it seemed on the surface.

Even the dramatic move of the Seeking Truth Lineage all those years ago, might have some deeper reasons behind it, which were also within Liang Sheng's calculations.

As Liang Sheng reflected, the destiny of the Immortal City boiled over, overwhelming everyone, and the increase in Zhou Shen's fortune was even more obvious.

After some consideration, he again took action, dividing the vein water that had been fused in front of him into several parts and putting them into the jade bottle. He only woke Zhou Shen up afterwards.

“Zhou Shen, take this. We should continue according to the plan.”

“Huh?”

Zhou Shen was still somewhat unsatisfied at the moment. His cultivation was smoother than ever today, but he knew better than to be greedy, and prepared to act according to Liang Sheng’s commands.

Moreover, the spiritual vein water in the jade bottle given by Liang Sheng was enough for him to cultivate for quite a while. One should know the meaning of contentment.

Especially when he had the protection of the Ancestor, which had brought about his current cultivation level, Zhou Shen did not question Liang Sheng’s orders.

Why would there be so much doubt anyway? He just had to do whatever the Ancestor pointed at.

Liang Sheng sent Zhou Shen outside the Mustard Seed, muttered a few confidential words to him, and only left after Zhou Shen had nodded and bowed.

Liang Sheng, who was still in the spiritual vein, did not waste any more time. As he made seals rapidly with his fingers, Longevity Immortal City was caught in a storm.

As if a downpour was imminent, the spiritual vein water rose into the sky. The Sumeru Mustard Seed Sand Gravel Space instantly expanded.

Boom!

After a loud noise, the sand gravel space shattered instantly. The spiritual vein of the Immortal City descended directly into the backyard of the City Lord Mansion.

With such a huge commotion, the entire Resident cultivator of Immortal City naturally saw everything clearly. They were filled with questions. Did something unexpected happen again in the City Lord Mansion?

The resident cultivators of the Immortal City were in the dark, but the visiting cultivators had high cultivation levels. Although they were a little puzzled at first, they were left astonished when the spiritual vein water overflowed and headed straight for the sky.

The sub-vein of the Immortal Dynasty, the foundation of a city, suddenly exposed for all to see. When they clearly saw why it was so, they were only left in awe.

It was indeed a move that shocked the heavens.

Chapter 698: Liang Sheng's Heaven-Defying Means Subdues Beast Swamp; Feng Yuan's Kaiyuan Disciple Emerges; Refinement Void Dao Lord!

In fact, it is not easy for cultivators to control the spiritual vein spring water. In the past, Pure Yang Zi helped Feng Yuan through the calamity of fate with the cultivation of Refinement Void Dao Monarch, but he only used auxiliary means to obtain the spiritual vein's assistance.

However, now the spiritual vein spring water rushes straight into the outer space, and although the luck of the East Victory Immortal Dynasty fluctuates, it has no impact on any geomantic trend of the dynasty.

How can such means not be called defying the heavens?

Fortunately, they did not make a move before, and they had to know themselves when facing such a great power, so it's best not to offend them.

They were also wondering in their hearts if their elders and ancestors could achieve such shocking methods?

They had no answer in their hearts either.

However, subconsciously, they had already approached the City Lord's Mansion, and the forces were clear-cut and did not disturb each other.

At this point, Zhou Shen was standing at the highest point of the City Lord Mansion, looking down at everyone and not saying a word. No other cultivator had the thought to confront him.

In the backyard of the City Lord's Mansion, Liang Sheng was still manipulating the spiritual vein spring water. When the timing was right, he made a decisive move to form a hand seal.

The spiritual vein spring water instantly rushed straight into the outer space and then crossed the space wormhole to reach the Outer Heaven Beast Marsh.

Liang Sheng did not stop his hand movement but continued to consolidate his spell. After confirming that there were no omissions, he finally stopped.

Others looked up at the sky with an indescribable expression, not knowing what they were thinking.

But at this moment, Liang Sheng suddenly yelled, and then the entire Longevity Immortal City shone with golden light, making everyone involuntarily take a step back.

What's going on?

Then the sky suddenly went dark, and they couldn't see their own fingers.

Before they could understand what was happening, someone screamed in terror, "The sky has collapsed!"

All of them raised their heads in an instant and saw the sky. Their pupils shrank with horror in their hearts.

It wasn't the sky that collapsed.

It was the Beast Marsh that had collapsed!

To be precise, the Beast Marsh had merged from the outer space into the Immortal Dynasty World and became a meteorite outside the Longevity Immortal City.

To be more accurate, the Beast Marsh was about to collide with the Longevity Immortal City.

“Run!”

Caught in a panic, the Immortal City cultivators were in chaos, desperately trying to escape from the Longevity Immortal City, fearing being crushed to death by the suddenly collapsing Beast Marsh.

However, the cultivators from Seeking the Truth Lineage and other foreign entities did not move. Their cultivation was higher, and their perception was more sensitive.

This was not a collapse of the Beast Marsh, but rather, it was merging into the Longevity Immortal City, and the Beast Marsh was about to become a floating island of the Longevity Immortal City.

What kind of heaven-defying means is this?

Can this be achieved by the Perfection Soul Emergence Realm?

All of them turned their heads to look at Liang Sheng, who seemed indifferent. They could not help but be filled with wariness in their hearts.

Perhaps it was not Liang Sheng's doing, and he was just the one who appeared to make the move. It seemed that there was a great power behind the Longevity Immortal City, and it was not just a rumor.

At this time, Liang Sheng's voice came out.

“Zhou Shen, are you willing to go to the Beast Marsh for some opportunities? There may be dangers along the way, so you can also choose to stay, and it will not affect your struggle in the Talent Road.”

This Zhou Shen is indeed related to the great power behind the scenes!

The expressions of the cultivators from other places changed a bit, but Zhou Shen did not even think about it. He shook his head directly and spoke resolutely.

“Disciple is willing to go.”

Zhou Shen’s thoughts were also simple at this time. He had witnessed his ancestor’s great efforts in setting up the game, so there must be a purpose behind it.

If he didn’t go this time, it seemed that it would not affect his talent battle, but he would definitely lose some blessings and opportunities.

Liang Sheng nodded when he heard the words, and did not persuade him further. Instead, he said gently, “Then prepare well in the next few days, and you will have to rely on yourself after that.”

“Yes.”

After that, Liang Sheng disappeared, and everyone looked at Zhou Shen in confusion. Since the Beast Marsh had become an Immortal City floating island, why not go there now?

The Immortal City’s spiritual vein branches, which had merged with the ancient spring water, were even more connected to the Beast Marsh, but they didn’t know what means Liang Sheng had arranged, so they couldn’t get close at all.

They thought about it and forcibly calmed their restless hearts. Since Zhou Shen was going to wait a few days, they would wait too.

In their greed, they still had some sense.

When it came to the struggle of the talented, no detail could be overlooked.

So, the Longevity Immortal City became eerily quiet again, but everyone knew that this was just the calm before the storm.

...

Liang Sheng's mansion.

Liang Sheng returned to his mansion in one step. The Zi Zai independent cultivator immediately walked over and circled around him, looking at him up and down.

"Disciple, your methods are truly amazing. I'm afraid that ordinary Refinement Void Dao Monarchs are not as good as you. How did you do it?"

Previously, the Zi Zai independent cultivator only thought that he was going to merge the ancient spring water with the sub-vein of the Immortal Dynasty in Longevity Immortal City to affect the destiny of the city.

But he didn't expect Liang Sheng to directly turn the Beast Marsh into a floating island. With this kind of means, even the Void Refining Seven-layered might not be able to do it.

This disciple of his own was simply a monster, but his Qi was indeed in the Perfection Soul Emergence Realm, and the Zi Zai independent cultivator could not understand it at all.

Liang Sheng had prepared for this in advance, after all, achieving such a degree with Perfection Soul Emergence Realm was indeed shocking, but if coupled with the title of master of array formations, everything would seem natural.

So Liang Sheng did not beat around the bush and directly took out a formation disk with dense Array Flags on it. Among the Dao patterns and runes, it was even more profound.

The Zi Zai independent cultivator saw this and couldn't help but gasp. He didn't recognize this formation, but it didn't prevent him from being amazed.

What kind of monster is his disciple?

Refining Master!

Array Master!

Does he have any other means?

Such heaven-defying talent is really the fortune of our Free Gate.

Chapter 699: Liang Sheng's Heaven-Defying Means Subdues Beast Swamp; Fengyuan Kaiyuan Disciple Emerges; Cultivating Void Dao Monarch!

Under the shock, the expression of the Zi Zai independent cultivator remained unchanged, as if everything was as light as a cloud and not worth mentioning.

"That's right. Are you going to set up an array in the Beast Swamp next? Is that why you're asking Zhou Shen to wait a few more days?"

Although he couldn't understand the principles of the array in Liang Sheng's Formation Disk, the Qi it exuded, combined with the Spring Eye of the Spiritual Vein, was truly marvelous and unique, which naturally led him to some guesses.

"Master, as expected, you have discerning eyes. I can't hide anything from you. However, I do need your help for the next step. You and I need to set up something in Outer Space together."

"Alright!"

The Zi Zai independent cultivator didn't know why, but he liked seeing Liang Sheng's spirited appearance. Hearing his request, he immediately set aside his doubts.

After all, isn't it normal for my disciple from the Free Gate lineage to have these magical techniques?

Moreover, no matter how many shocking methods he has at the moment, doesn't he still need the protection of my old bones?

After getting the answer from the Zi Zai independent cultivator, Liang Sheng didn't drag his feet, and the two went straight to the sky and into the Beast Swamp, where the long-lost seal appeared once again.

This allowed the foreign cultivators to breathe a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, they didn't rashly rush into the Beast Swamp, and they didn't know what the other side wanted to do.

But the local cultivators in the Immortal City were full of regret, thinking that they had been one step behind Liang Sheng once again. They should have gone to outer space earlier, for they still lacked the courage and determination to move forward.

The connection between the Spiritual Vein Spring Water and the Immortal City and the Beast Swamp made the foreign cultivators unable to probe with their Divine Sense. They looked at the City Lord Mansion with apprehension.

However, they were also glad that they had arrived at the Immortal City, otherwise, they would have missed the opportunity. They could only wait for the Beast Swamp to open.

At the same time, they were frantically sending messages to their backers.

Longevity Immortal City might be where the great opportunity lies.

Hurry up and send support.

...

Xihe Immortal Dynasty.

Many Elders of the Cultivation Branch of Seeking Truth were frowning. After receiving the news from Longevity Immortal City, they were also somewhat at a loss.

Even though it was the Golden Era, it was not unprecedented, but there had never been such a situation recorded.

Moreover, the Heavenly Secrets were obscured at this time. No matter how they deduced, they couldn't get a clear result.

In the end, they could only helplessly send a message.

Wait and see, don't act rashly.

...

Dongsheng Immortal Dynasty.

Capital City Lingge.

At this moment, Lingxuzi and others were frowning too. Although Longevity Immortal City was turbulent, there was no change in the fortune of Dongsheng Immortal Dynasty.

However, according to the situation reported by the disciples, it was unheard of that the Spiritual Vein Branch Vein would undergo such mutations.

They were even worried that the Beast Swamp becoming a floating island of Longevity Immortal City was not something ordinary people could achieve.

What was the idea behind this great might?

However, just when they were at a loss, they were unexpectedly delighted, which allowed them to temporarily put aside their worries.

Because Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child had come out of their closed-door cultivation.

The moment they sensed their breakthrough, Lingxuzi and Chunyangzi both beamed with joy, unable to conceal their happiness.

Refinement Void Dao Monarch!

Their disciples had lived up to their expectations and successfully made a breakthrough to the Refining Void Realm. They were truly the gifted children of the Dongsheng Immortal Dynasty!

Moreover, their timing was just right.

“Disciple, I wonder if you would be willing to make another trip to Longevity Immortal City?”

“We are willing to do so, and dare not ask for more!”

Feng Yuan and Kaiyuan Child’s eyes were frighteningly bright at this moment.

It was time to go to Longevity Immortal City and collect the interest owed to them!

Liang Sheng, Zhou Shen...

All the debts will be settled together!

Chapter 700: Shocking the Sacred Land Representative, Beast Swamp Opportunity Unfolds, You All Will Die and Be Reborn Soon!

East Victory Immortal Dynasty.

On a high mountain ten thousand zhang high.

A white-haired old Daoist sat cross-legged on the summit, suddenly opening his eyes and frowning as Liang Sheng arranged the Beast Swamp.

An unforeseen change?

Just as he was about to step forward and investigate, he found himself pinned to the ground by a force, unable to move.

“Senior Zi Zai?”

First, the elder was frightened, but then, thinking of something, he tentatively said.

He was one of the representatives of the sacred land in this Immortal Dynasty Grand Competition, monitoring all realms of the Immortal Dynasty and preventing violations of the competition rules.

However, he never expected that the first great power to intervene was someone beyond their control and beyond their reach.

Even if the old ancestor of the Holy Land encountered the Zi Zai independent cultivator, he was powerless and could only shake his head in the end.

Because the disciples of the Free Gate were all lunatics.

After his tentative voice, a light snort sounded, and it turned out to be Zi Zai, the independent cultivator himself.

Immediately afterward, a voice transmission entered his ears.

“My disciple has arranged a great opportunity in Longevity Immortal City, which is a boundless fortune for those cultivators.

Moreover, he inadvertently did you a huge favor, and you’ll know whether these cultivators are gifted children after this test.

However, I know that you are the most blind, so you don’t appreciate my disciple’s merits, and you still try to wrong and report my disciple’s actions to the old immortal of the Holy Land, right?”

“Ah?”

The old Daoist was puzzled after hearing that, he hadn't sensed any irregular information yet, then a piece of information emerged in his mind.

Huge nerve.

At this moment, the only four words left in the old man's heart were these, but he didn't feel much surprise, after all, the disciples of the Free Gate could not be measured by common sense.

"So, do you know what to do next?"

Although the voice transmission was still calm and steady, the old Daoist knew that as long as he did not give Zi Zai a satisfactory answer, the result might not be so harmonious.

After reviewing the information Zi Zai had put inside him from beginning to end, although it was somewhat reckless, it was indeed a method of screening.

As for the Immortal Dynasty luck of East Victory...

What does it have to do with Poor Daoist?

Realizing this, he immediately knew what to do. He bowed to the open sky and said earnestly, "Senior Zi Zai, don't worry, I know what to do."

Zi Zai didn't respond, but the old Daoist still maintained his respectful bowing posture for a long time before slowly straightening up.

One hurdle involving Zi Zai the madman was finally over.

As for the cultivators still in Longevity Immortal City, they could only pray for good fortune.

Why provoke the madmen of Zi Zai's Gate?

The next moment, on the summit of the mountain, the old Daoist disappeared.

...

Longevity Immortal City.

The Talent Road opened, a killing intention filled the sky, but the city remained strangely quiet and calm at the moment, with everyone too afraid to move rashly.

Although their hearts were filled with greed, in the face of the City Lord Mansion's previous open warning, they had no choice but to become more rational.

Of course, there were still people who wanted to try, but in the end, the world could hardly lack people with great courage and reckless abandon, and the outcome was as expected.

FTE;izu3l3Yq10ABwy7kruFZ:kv38QwTz00On_PB_AEYn96loP2@Bluw8vWC//mx.

Those cultivators who wanted to approach the Spiritual Vein Spring Water Column were crushed into dust by a powerful pressure before they even got close, dying instantly.

Under such terrifying circumstances, no matter how strong their greed, they could only console themselves to wait a few more days.

They speculated that after Zhou Shen got the secret instructions from Liang Sheng to go to the Beast Swamp, the great power behind the Fairy City wouldn't intervene directly.

Whether the cultivation of Seeking-Truth Lineage or extraterrestrial Immortal Dynasty Monks, they all thought, although it's not home advantage, they could also compete for an opportunity.

This great power behind the Fairy City could help in the beginning at most, but in the end, it depended on individuals.

Each of the cultivators who came to Longevity Immortal City naturally had the qualifications of talented children and had their own pride.

If they couldn't even get through Longevity Immortal City, what Talent Road were they talking about?

For now, just wait a little longer; as long as it is confirmed that there is no accident, they will go to the Beast Swamp!

...

In the days that followed, it remained calm.

No matter the Seeking-Truth Lineage Cultivators or the East Victory Immortal Dynasty Cultivators, there was no support in these days, and their elders in the family urged them to be calm and not to act rashly.

Besides, other extraterrestrial Immortal Dynasty Monks were pouring into Longevity Immortal City like sharks that smelled blood, in their frenzy.

Under Liang Sheng's rebellious methods, the Immortal Dynasty Spiritual Veins mixed with ancient spring water were extremely tempting to cultivators, and no one wanted to miss a share of the spoils.

But the Beast Swamp was not a utopia.

However, neither the Seek-Truth Lineage Cultivators nor the East Victory Immortal Dynasty Cultivators said anything about the presence of the Demon Clan Demon Emperors in the Beast Swamp.

This was the intelligence their family elders fought for with their lives; why should they tell these extraterrestrial cultivators? Besides, this was their East Victory Immortal Dynasty opportunity!

As for the Seeking-Truth Lineage, they did not want to cause too much trouble to the Demon Clan. After all, the Elder Assembly's attitude was ambiguous, as if they were going to reach out to help the Demon Clan in case of extinction.

So, while the situation in the fairy city was strange, time quietly passed, and more and more cultivators gathered in Longevity Immortal City.

Inside the City Lord Mansion.

Zhou Shen had been sitting cross-legged in his room for three days, adjusting his condition, and had not moved at all until now.

However, at this moment, he suddenly opened his eyes because Liang Sheng finally sent them a message.

"Zhou Shen, now you can go to the Beast Swamp and find out."

As Liang Sheng's voice transmission entered his ears, Zhou Shen didn't hesitate at all. After bowing to the direction of Liang Sheng's Mansion, he flew straight into the floating Beast Swamp.
