

Chapter 177 Go And See Her Mother

Elena slowly touched her abdomen and looked at Ryan is disbelief. “Really? Am I really pregnant?”

Ryan went forward and pulled her into his arms. He gently touched her lower abdomen and said with emotion. “Yes, you are about seven and half weeks pregnant. I had a color ultrasonography before. I can hear the heartbeat of the fetus.”

He took out his phone and showed a picture to Elena. “Look at the small white dot on it. It is our child.”

Ryan couldn’t describe his feelings when he heard the child’s little heartbeat. It was a joy that he never felt before. It was as if he got the whole world at that time.

Elena looked at the picture. She raised her hand and touched the small white dot on the picture. It was her child!

She looked at Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Baker also nodded her head with a happy smile. “I was really scared to death yesterday. I thought something happened to you. I didn’t expect it was because you are pregnant. The baby must have felt sorry for your hard work and chose to appear at this time.”

Mrs. Baker smiled with relief. Ryan not only had a wife but also a child now. He had a family now. His life wouldn’t be lonely anymore. He would only be happy in the future.

Elena lowered her head and gently stroked the small life in her stomach. So the tiredness and nausea she was feeling in this period of time was because she was pregnant.

She had to say that this child really came at the right time. Otherwise if she had really tired herself more, something bad must have been happened.

Elena gently touched her stomach then suddenly remembered something and looked at Ryan. “Oh right, how is grandpa? What should I do if no one takes care of him when I came back?”

“Don’t worry. I have already arranged everything at the hospital. Your uncle will take care of him. No matter what, grandpa is still his father. Right now, the decision of the president of Lewis family is still in your grandfather’s hand. If he doesn’t wake up, your uncle won’t be able to officially take over the company.”

Because Jonathan’s gambling the last time, Mason’s original thought of hand over the company to Jonathan was put aside.

If he could not officially take over the company, it would mean the loss of power.

“How do you know about these things?” Elena felt more and more that Ryan was magical, as if everything was under his control.

Ryan smiled and stroked her hair. “Who asked you to marry such a smart and capable husband?”

“Forget it. Leave Grandpa’s matters to uncle. Let’s go and see my mother. Previously, Doctor Scott did not want us to agitate her. It has been a long time since we went to see her. I want to tell her the good news of pregnancy.”

Ryan also felt that it was right. Maybe she would wake up after hearing the news.

The two of them packed up and went to another hospital.

When they came to the ward, Director Scott walked out with a medical record.

“Director Scott, how is my mother recently?” Elena was first to ask.

“Your mother’s condition is very good. Although she hasn’t woken up yet, her physical condition is much better than before. It won’t take long for her to wake up. But don't let her get agitated again. Don't talk to her for a long time, or your mother won't be able to bear it. "

The pressure and stimulation from the outside world would affect the patient's recovery. After Director Scott finished giving instructions, Ryan and Elena entered the ward.

Elena looked at the person lying on the bed. This time, she did not cry. Instead, she went forward and grabbed her hand.

“Mom, do you know? I am pregnant. You are going to be grandmother soon. You previously said that you will take care of the child for me after I give birth. Now that I'm pregnant, shouldn't you wake up?"

As Elena spoke, she gently put Eleanor’s hand on her stomach to let her feel something.

Ryan washed the towel and started to wipe Eleanor’s face, “Mom, Elena is right. My mother is not by my side and no one is there to take care of Elena. We all hope that you can wake up soon.”

However, the person on the bed still had her eyes closed and did not have any intention of waking up.

“Mom, recently a lot of things have happened. If Ryan was not by my side, I definitely would not be able to hold on...” Elena recounted the things that happened during this period of time and flashed by like a flash of light.

Director Scott looked at the time and walked into the ward. "Elena, it is time. Let your mother rest well. I will inform you immediately when she shows signs of waking up. "
