

Chapter 281 Went To Western Europe

In the Monor Group CEO's office, Jasper was reporting the news to Ryan.

"Mr. Monor, Miss Amber Thomas has already gone abroad."

Ryan put down the documents in his hands and leaned back in his chair. "Didn't she book a flight ticket for the afternoon? Why did she leave only at night?"

Since he knew that Amber was suspecting his identity, Ryan had sent people over to monitor Amber.

"There's news from the capital that Taylor Thomas wants to marry Amber Thomas to William Langford. It was probably because of this that she was delayed." Jasper explained.

Hearing this, Ryan sneered. "The capital seems to be calm and peaceful, but it is actually already a mess. The people of Langford family clearly know about Amber's past, but they still plan to marry her. It can be seen that they are not interested in Amber, but the power of Thomas family."

Although the matter of Amber was suppressed by the Thomas family and ordinary people did not know about it, as the head of the four big families in the capital, the Langford family naturally would not miss out on such news.

"Miss Thomas has been investigating about you. Should we fabricate some fake news?"

Jasper was a little worried. No one knew Amber's true strength. If she really investigated Ryan's identity through her own means, then their relationship would be broken.

Ryan stood up and stretched his body. He stood in front of the French window and said casually, "What she does is her business. It has nothing to do with me."

Ryan had been keeping a low profile for so many years. If it was so easy for others to find out, he would not be sitting in the president's position today.

"Yes." Since Ryan said so, Jasper did not say anything else.

Ryan looked at the time. "Since Amber has left the country, I should go back and take a look."

"But Mr. Monor, if you go, won't you expose your identity?"

Amber was not comparable to Elena. She had known Ryan since she was young and could easily identify him.

This time, Ryan did not answer Jasper. He looked out of the French window and said coldly, "Prepare the flight. I'll go to Western Europe."

"The private jet is on standby. You can take off at any time."

However, Ryan did not go to the airport immediately. Instead, he drove to Greenhills Villa first.

In the villa, Elena fed the two children and now taking them to sleep. These two little fellows were growing very fast. They were only little over two months and already gained weight.

Ryan parked the car and went into the villa. He did not know when he was going to return after he went to Western Europe this time. And he could not go out without meeting his wife and children.

A maid saw Ryan coming over and respectfully bowed to him, "Mr. Monor."

Ryan looked around the room but did not see anyone. He asked, "Where is Elena?"

"Mrs. Monor has gone to the children's room." The maid said respectfully.

"Okay." Ryan nodded and strode to the second floor directly to the children's room.

The door of the room was ajar. Standing at the door, Ryan glanced inside the room.

Inside the room, Elena was putting Rayna into the baby cot. Her movements were too gentle, afraid of waking up the children.

After giving birth to the children, Elena had a fascinating motherly charm on her face. Her originally innocent eyes were even more gentle and kind, and her smile was even more enchanting.

Ryan's heart skipped a beat, whenever he saw Elena smile like this. No matter how sad or frustrated he was, no matter how many problems he faced at the outside world, one single smile of Elena made him feel it's all worth it.

Ryan's lips curled up and he went into the room in light steps.

Elena was totally unaware of the presence of the man here. Her focus was totally on the twins.

Suddenly, she felt a gust of wind blowing over, followed by two large and strong arms wrapped around her waist tightly.

Elena was startled. Just as she was about to call out, she heard a low, magnetic voice near her ear.

"It's me." Ryan buried his face in her neck, inhaling her fragrance sharply. She had a unique smell in her body which made him bewitched.

Elena smiled and turned to look at him. "You're back."

Ryan nodded and pulled her into his arms.

Elena wrapped her hand around his waist and said in a low voice, "Dinner is ready."

Ryan looked at the two sleeping children and went to the dining room with Elena.

During the dinner, Ryan told Elena about the upcoming trip to Western Europe.

"Western Europe? Why are you leaving so suddenly? Isn't Michelle taking care of everything over there?" Elena stopped eating and looked at Ryan in confusion.

Few days ago, when they were talking casually, Elena asked Ryan about the situation of Western Europe and if he needed to make a visit. At that time, Ryan had told her that everything was fine there. Isaac was also there for a business trip, so he did not need to go there.

So why did he suddenly want to go to Western Europe?

Ryan picked up the glass and took a sip of water, avoiding Elena's gaze. "We made a deal recently but there were some problems during the finalization. Michelle could not take care of it himself. I need to go and check."

Amber was now suspecting his identity and he did not know what Amber was planning at this moment. Therefore, he needed to personally take care of this matter in order to avoid Amber's further suspicion.

But Ryan could not say these words in front of Elena. It was not because he did not trust Elena but because he did not want Elena to be worried about him.

Last time when Amber came, she made a big fuss, which made Elena upset. From then on, Ryan tried his best to avoid Amber's topic in front of Elena.

If he told that Amber went to Western Europe, she would be worried about him. After the kidnapping incident, Ryan did not want anything to happen that could affect Elena's health.

Today, Xavier had reported him what happened in the hospital. From Amber's actions, it was sure that she had been targeting Elena on purpose. And Ryan absolutely could not take it.

He needed to solve Amber's matter as soon as possible.

Hearing Ryan's words, Elena nodded. After all, King was a huge business empire. There were many things that Ryan needed to personally take care of.

"I will pack your bag then." Elena stood up as she spoke.

Ryan pulled her hand to sit down. "I have my things over there. You finish your dinner first."

After dinner, Ryan arranged Xavier to protect Elena and left for the airport.

Jasper was already waiting at the entrance. Seeing Ryan coming over, he arranged the things and they left the country.

When Ryan landed in Western Europe, it was already the next day. He went straight to King as soon as he went out of the plane.

In order to keep his identity hidden, Ryan had made secret passer-by and elevators in King, by which he could easily come and go without anyone noticing.

Ryan swiped his magnetic card and directly went to the 40th floor, where his office was.

Meanwhile, Michelle was doing his regular inspection when he heard some commotion outside. He frowned and went outside to see.

When Michelle saw Ryan, his face was full of surprise. "President, why are you here?"

"Acting." Ryan walked past Michelle and went into his office, directly sat on the chair in the CEO's office.

Michelle looked at Jasper, who was following behind, in confusion. "What happened?"

Their president would never do something he was not confident about. Today, he rushed to Western Europe without any warning. Something must have happened.

Jasper smiled and patted Michelle on the shoulder. "Nothing happened. You just have to wait and watch the show in a while."

At the end of his sentence, Jasper smiled meaningfully and kept Michelle in suspense.
