

Read Novel Bride of the Mysterious CEO chapter 296

Bride of the Mysterious CEO chapter 296-Hearing Ryan's words, Finn fell into deep thought.

He had never thought of the days after revenge. All these years, he had lived by the kidnapper group to investigate the murderer of his wife.

"I . . . I don't know. " Finn was also lost.

"That's right. If you don't know how your life will be after your revenge, then sorry, I can't bring you to see him. " Finn had saved Elena and his children's lives. He had to be responsible for Finn.

Finn panicked after hearing that. "Mr. Monor, you can't do this. I can't give up the hatred of my wife and child's death. Please take me to him."

Since the day, his wife and child died in that cold and damp place, Finn wasn't able to sleep. Every night, he would dream of his wife and child dying tragically and every night, he would blame himself that if he had gotten the money earlier, his wife and child would not have died.

He was already tired of his life of self-blame and resentment. And the only thing that kept his sanity in these all thing was getting his revenge.

"Finn, you are still young. You shouldn't have been destroyed by hatred. I have a subordinate who has been sent out for training. I am in need of someone. If you are willing, I can let you take over this position." Ryan's slender fingers tapped on the table. His eyes were constantly observing the changes on Finn's face.

"But I . . ." Finn hesitated. He used to be just a small employee before. The Monor Group was a big company. Facing Ryan's sudden offer, he did not know if he could do it well.

Ryan saw Finn's hesitant look and instantly became angry. "Finn, as a man, I do not want you to be hesitant when doing things."

"Alright, I promise you." After a while, Finn's answer finally came. Finn's eyes turned red and answered Ryan firmly.

Finn knew that Ryan had given him hope to be reborn.

Ryan nodded his head in satisfaction and did not say any more nonsense. He brought Finn to the place where the kidnappers were imprisoned.

Ryan and Xavier didn't follow Finn inside. This matter had to be resolved by Finn himself.

Xavier stood at the side and looked at Ryan. He wanted to say something but stopped himself. He looked very troubled.

"If you have something to say, say it quickly. " Ryan could see Xavier's concerns.

"Does Mr. Monor pity Finn or cherish his talent?" Xavier knew that Finn had saved the young madam and the two children, but now that they had found the person who avenged him, why did Ryan still want to keep him by his side?

"For Elena and the babies." Till this day Ryan found it hard to imagine what would have happened to Elena and his children if Finn had not helped them at that time. Every time he thought about that abandoned and cold warehouse where he found Elena in a pile of blood, Ryan felt a chill down his spine.

Fortunately, Elena and the babies made through that night.

Ryan could not repay this kindness no matter what.

Hearing this, Xavier went silent. He was present at that situation. Xavier, a full-grown man, also got frightened when he witnessed the scene of Elena's rescue. At this point, they had to thank Finn for his kindness.

Xavier knew that Ryan loved his wife and child very much, but he didn't want Ryan to let Finn replace Jasper.

Just as the two of them were talking, screams came from the room, following by a heart-wrenching yell. "Why did you kill my wife??!!!" BANG!

Ryan looked up and said, "Finn is not a simple person. He was able to sneak into the kidnapper's organization quietly and investigate the mastermind behind the murder of his wife. It shows that his ability to investigate is extraordinary."

When Xavier heard what Ryan said, he remembered that Ryan had asked him to investigate Finn's location. Every time he found Finn, he would not see any trace of Finn. It showed that he was very vigilant.

Such a person could indeed stay by Ryan's side, but Jasper and Xavier were brothers who had been through hardships for many years. Jasper could not be replaced by Finn.

About half an hour later, Finn walked out of the room covered in blood.

Xavier took out a packet of tissues and handed it over. "You. . . "

However, Finn ignored him. Finn instantly sat on the ground powerless, tears flowing out of his eyes. "You can rest in peace, Mary. I am sorry. I couldn't save you."

Xavier shook his head helplessly and put the tissue in Finn's hand. He did not say anything.

Ryan stood up and walked to Finn's side. He looked down at him and said, "You have gotten your revenge. Don't forget what you promised me just now."

This was the reason why Ryan sent Finn away. He did not want Finn to be unable to recover after getting his revenge.

After a while, Finn finally stopped crying. He stabilized his emotions and looked at Ryan gratefully. "Mr. Monor, thank you."

"If you want to thank me, then show me what you can do. " After saying that, Ryan turned around and left.

Xavier saw Finn sitting on the ground and did not move. He frowned and said, "Why are you still sitting here? Quickly get up and follow us."

Finn heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Okay. "

Finn had been living in the darkness for the past few years. He had long forgotten about life and death. He originally thought that after taking revenge, he would follow his wife and child. He did not expect Ryan's words to let him understand that he could live on behalf of his wife and child.