

Chapter 298 With Her Man

“Is Ryan inside?”

“He is. You can go in.”

Elena smiled at Finn and pushed open the door of the President’s office.

Crack!

The door was instantly opened.

Elena was still smiling a second ago, however as soon as she saw the scene inside the office, her smile instantly froze.

She was stunned still.

When the people inside the office saw the door open, they turned to see who came. They were also stunned at the spot.

What Elena saw was Amber and Ryan hugging each other intimately.

Amber was almost sitting in Ryan’s lap. Her hands were around Ryan’s neck and she buried her face in the man’s chest.

Ryan’s hands were on Amber’s back. He seemed to be comforting her.

Elena was so shocked by the scene that the bag in her hand instantly fell to the ground.

BANG! It made a loud noise in the silent office.

Elena’s face devoured its color in an instant and her whole body began to tremble.

Finn, who stood beside Elena, also saw the scene inside the office. He could not help but widen his eyes.

Mr. Monor and this woman. . . hugging each other like this?

After hearing the sound, Ryan immediately turned his head. When he saw it was actually Elena, his face instantly showed panic. He immediately pushed Amber away.

"You. . ." Elena's voice was shaking as tears welled up in her eyes. She could not even speak.

"Elena. . ." Ryan stood up from the sofa and strode towards Elena.

However, before he could say anything, Elena suddenly turned around and ran out. She did not even have the time to take her bag.

Amber also did not expect Elena to suddenly come to the company at this time. She was shocked for a moment, before standing up from the sofa.

She hurriedly wiped away her tears and followed Ryan outside the office, "Did Miss Lewis misunderstand?"

Ryan turned around and looked at Amber with a cold face. He did not say anything and chased after Elena without looking back.

"Ryan. . ." When Amber called out his name, Ryan had already run far away.

Amber clenched her fists tightly, her knuckles turned while due to the extreme force. Her eyes were full of fierceness and hatred.

At this time, the one who needed comfort the most was her!

She was the one who was forced to marry, she was the one whose child was kidnapped.

However, she did not expect that Ryan, who grew up with her, would not care about her feelings at all.

As soon as Elena came, Ryan left everything and chased after her.

Was that woman that important? She was so important that Ryan did not even care about their years of relationship?

The more Amber thought of it, the more angrier she became.

Finn, who was standing at the side silently, saw all the changes in Amber's expression from beginning to end.

Finn had met Amber one or two times during his work period and did not know much about her. But there was the one thing he had noticed and that was the way Amber looked at Ryan was definitely not the way a friend would look at another friend.

There was strange type of reluctance and unwillingness in her eyes, which was hard to describe.

As the saying goes, a bystander witnesses most of the incident.

Finn had suspected it earlier but he did not dare to ask or tell anyone. However, after seeing the situation today, he was sure about his suspicion.

Amber was coveting Ryan!

However, the thing he could not understand was, how Ryan, such a smart and intelligent person, did not notice anything unusual?

Afterall, Ryan was the one who knew Amber the best.

Maybe he had already noticed it yet decided to ignore it, on the account of their friendship. Or maybe he had his own plans.

But the person who was hurt in this whole situation was the innocent Elena.

Thinking of Elena’s shocked appearance just now, Finn could not help but say, "Miss Amber, don't forget that Mr. Monor has a family now."

The meaning of his words was, ‘Don’t do anything that you shouldn’t do.’

Hearing this, Amber turned around and looked at Finn coldly. Looking at the other party’s appearance, she snorted, "This is between Ryan and me. It is not something a dog like you can interfere."

Her voice was filled with ridicule and mockery. She did not want to act in front of such a lowly person, anyway.

Facing Amber’s ridicule, Finn’s expression did not even change, "I am indeed a dog by Mr. Monor's side, but you are not even as good as me."

If Mr. Monor cared about Amber, he would not have pushed her away as soon as he saw Elena and he would not have chased after Elena.

"You. . ." Amber was so angry that she could not speak for a long time. She then snorted coldly, "Humph, you are so protective of Elena. Do you like her?"

"Miss Thomas, please pay attention to your wording. This is the Monor Group, not Miss Thomas’s home. Mr. Monor is the CEO of this company and Elena is the CEO's wife, the Mistress of Monor Group. You should know who I will speak for." Finn was not afraid of Amber at all. Instead, he kept defending Elena.

“CEO’s Wife?” Amber let out a muffled laugh. "Then we will wait and see who will be the final CEO's wife."

Amber curled up her red lips and looked very confident.

Finn frowned when he heard Amber say that. He was now one hundred percent certain about his previous doubt.

"I believe Miss Thomas already knew who is the most important person in Mr. Monor's heart. Why are you still saying these words here to confuse yourself?" Finn’s tone was still polite but it could not hide his hostility.

"Ah, so what? What I, Amber Thomas, want has never been failed before. You just wait and see!" After Amber finished speaking, she also left with large strides.

A flash of light flashed past Finn's eyes. Seeing that Amber had already gone far away, Finn took out his phone and pressed the recording button to end it.
