

Chapter 300 Other Than Him, She Had Nothing Else

Amber hurriedly pulled Ryan’s hand. Her voice was anxious, as if she was about to cry, "Ryan, quickly chase after Elena. Don't let her misunderstand us."

Ryan's face was cold. He turned around to look at Amber and shook her hand off abruptly. "You did it on purpose, didn't you?"

Maybe he was too angry. His strength was quite intense. Amber staggered a few steps backwards.

Ryan’s face was bone-piercingly cold, so was his voice. His entire persona was giving off a dangerous aura.

Amber could not help but shiver upon seeing it.

She had never seen Ryan being so fierce before.

Amber recovered from her shock and looked at Ryan in disbelief. "What are you talking about?"

Why did he say she did it on purpose?

Hearing this, Ryan sneered, "I will not agree to what you just said. Find someone else."

After saying that, he did not waste any more time here and chased after Elena.

“Ryan. . .” Amber called out for him but the man had already run far away.

Amber stood where she was and could not react for a moment.

He actually refused her request?

Looking at the man’s back which was gradually retracing, Amber clenched her fists tightly.

She originally thought that she had a deep relationship with Ryan as they had known each other for so many years. She had helped Ryan so much over the years, so he would definitely agree to her request.

However, she did not expect that just after Elena came, everything would change.

Ryan actually refused her so straightforwardly without even caring their years of relationship?

Because of Elena?

A trace of viciousness appeared in Amber's eyes. "Elena, I must make sure you were dead!"

Ryan chased to the corner of a road. But Elena had already disappeared. He searched the whole intersection but did not see Elena’s figure.

Ryan angrily kicked the bench beside him and took out his phone to call Xavier. "Find where Elena is now."

"Yes, Mr. Monor." Xavier was a little panicky when he heard what Ryan said. Could it be that Madam was kidnapped again?

Xavier immediately sent people to check the surveillance cameras beside the company. He had to make sure that no one would hurt the lady again.

Meanwhile, Elena ran very far.

She did not know how long she had run. She only stopped when her legs felt numb and she could not run anymore.

There was no road in front of her. She had reached to the lake at the end of the city.

Elena stood beside the lake and could not control her tears anymore. Squatting down beside the lake, she began to cry loudly.

It was only at this moment that Elena realized that other than Ryan, she had nothing else. Even if she quarreled with him, there was no other place for her to go.

Her father had died, her mother was still unconscious in the hospital and her grandfather was about to die at any moment.

During the time when she stayed with Ryan, his love and care made her completely forget that she actually had nothing in her hands.

No family, no friends, no background, nothing.

Other than the identity of being Ryan Monor’s wife, she did not seem to have anything.

If this “Second Young Madam Monor” title was removed from her name, no one might even know her, right?

But Ryan was different. He had everything.

He was the Second Young Master of Monor family, President of the Monor Group and the chairman of KING, a billion-dollar company.

The distance between her and Ryan could not be described in miles anymore. It was the distance of hell and heaven.

They belonged from two entirely different worlds.

This was the first time Elena realized the difference between her and Ryan. And this thought made her terrified.

If one day Ryan was to leave her, what would she do?

Where would she go?

Elena did not know why she was thinking like this today.

Just a moment before, she was only sad because of the scene in the office and not really doubted on him.

However, as a single thought popped in her mind, countless questions came along with it.

It was something she never thought of before.

Elena felt like she was going crazy. She tried not to think about those horrible possibilities anymore, but she just could not control herself.

One after one question came in her mind, which began to shook her soul.

Fear and anxiety speared through her limbs and bones making her totally numb. Her face was pale.

She sat at the lakeside in a sorry state with a pale face and tears streaming down her eyes.

“Miss Elena, is that you?”

A man's voice sounded from behind Elena. There was a hint of uncertainty in his voice as if he was not sure if it was Elena.

Elena frantically wiped away the tears on her face. But it was useless. She had been crying for so long that her entire face was red and swollen.

The man had already reached in front of her by this time. He seemed to be very surprised seeing her here, “It’s really you. I thought I have seen wrong. . .”

The man’s voice came to an abrupt stop as he saw her red and swollen face, “Miss Elena, you are crying. Why are you crying here?”

Elena raised her head and seeing the person in front of her, she was also somewhat surprised.

It was Spencer.

Spencer’s face was filled with astonishment and curiosity. Why was Elena sitting beside the lake at this moment and crying?

“Mr. Spencer, why are you here?” When she spoke, Elena's voice was choked with sobs.

Her red and swollen eyes and the wet tears on her face made people feel pity for her.
