

Chapter 301 Speaking For His Enemy

Spencer frowned when he saw her like this. He handed the handkerchief in his pocket to Elena. "I just came out for a walk when I saw someone who looked like you beside the lake. I came over in curiosity, but I didn't expect it's really you. . ."

He paused and looked at Elena's face, "You are crying here alone. Did you suffer some kind of grievance?"

Spencer's tone was very gentle. Even when he asked, he was very careful. It was as if he was afraid that he would accidentally say something wrong.

Elena wiped the tear stains on her face and shook her head. "I'm fine. "

She did not want to share those things in front of anyone right now.

"Miss Elena, didn't you say before that we are friends? Since we are friends, why does Miss Elena need to bear everything on her own? If she were to say it, her mood would be better." Spencer knew that Elena would not say that easily, so he tried to persuade her.

Elena stood at the side. She did not know what to say.

Spencer pulled Elena to the side of the lake and sat down on a stone bench beside her. He looked at her and said with a smile, "Since Miss Elena doesn't want to say it herself, then let me guess. Seeing Miss Elena so sad and come out by herself like this, I think she must have encountered some emotional difficulties."

Actually, it was really easy for a smart person like Spencer to guess what would have happened. Since Elena was crying beside a lake with no one around at this time of the day, it must have something related to Ryan.

But he could not ask directly.

Hearing what he said, Elena remained silent. So, she tacitly agreed.

"Since it is a matter of feelings, then there must be a third person among you." Spencer made another guess.

"It's not all related to third party. I do not know how far they have developed."

A hug did not mean anything, but Elena did not want other women to touch her husband.

And the other woman was none other than Amber, who never let go any chance to show off in front of her.

She just did not like Amber's presence around Ryan.

Spencer turned his head and looked at Elena, who had her head lowered. He could not help but say, "If that is the case, then why is Miss Lewis still so sad? You have already said that you do not know to what extent it has developed to. Doesn't that mean that nothing too excessive has happened?"

Elena sat by the side silently. She picked up a stone and threw it on the calm lake surface, creating layers of ripples in an instant.

She did not want to answer Spencer's question.

Actually, she had to admit that Spencer's words were right. Although she did not know what happened in the office today, she believed in Ryan's character. She knew in her heart that he would not do anything to let her down.

But she still could not help but feel disappointed when she saw Amber holding Ryan so intimately.

Seeing her still being so dispirited, Spencer sighed helplessly.

He looked at the calm surface of lake and spoke slowly. "Actually, it has been ten years since I know Ryan and I have to admit that he is the most scheming bastard I have ever met in my life."

Elena suddenly raised her head and looked at Spencer. She did not quite understand his words.

Spencer still looked at the calm lake and continued in a gentle tone, "After building KING, it took him only three years to dominate the whole Western Europe Market. Mind you, Western Europe is my territory, but I still could not able to stop Ryan from extending his business. Soon Ryan and I started to fight head on, which is still going on till this day."

"There were many times in which I had to admit defeat and there were also many times I defeated Ryan. However, during the time in which I came contact with him, I am sure about one thing. And that is. . ."

Spencer paused and looked at Elena seriously, "Ryan Monor can be a complete asshole, an absolute bastard in business but he will never be unfaithful and cheater in his relationship."

Hearing this, Elena raised her head and looked at Spencer in surprise. She did not expect Spencer to take Ryan's side at this moment.

"Aren't you and Ryan enemies? Why are you taking his side now?" Elena could not help but ask. Her voice was still somewhat hoarse and choked when she spoke.

From the day she met Spencer, although Spencer never said anything excessive for Ryan in front of her, she could feel from their interactions that these two people were absolute enemies.

But now Spencer was speaking for his enemy by taking Ryan's side.

Spencer seemed to be impressed by her question as his expression was somewhat playful as he spoke. "Didn't you hear that saying? You should keep your friends close but enemies closer. I know Ryan the best and same goes to him. I must say if Ryan did not mangle with my business, we could be great friends."

At the end of his sentence, Spencer even laughed out loud.

Although Spencer and Ryan were sworn enemies, they understood each other's characters very well. Spencer knew very well that Ryan was not a person who flirted with women.

There must have been other woman who took the initiative to throw herself into Ryan's arms and were seen by Elena. That was why Elena was so sad.
