

Chapter 304 A Barrier Between Them

"Why are you here?" Ryan asked coldly. His face devoured any emotion.

What was this man doing here at this moment?

"If it was not for me, you would not even know where your wife is right now." Spencer walked down the stairs as he said slowly. There was a faint smile at the corner of his lips and he looked no better than a hooligan.

This was the first time Spencer had seen Ryan in such a panic. And he had to admit that he actually quite like it.

After all, it was not easy for him to see Ryan being agonized like this.

His smile annoyed Ryan. Wherever this man was present, he could bring nothing but trouble.

Ryan knew very well what Spencer was thinking in his heart.

Ryan pulled Elena behind him and stared at Spencer gravely. His voice carried a faint warning. "Spencer Foster, I advise you to stay away from my wife."

"Huh." Spencer laughed softly then sneered, "Ryan Monor, what right do you have to judge my character now? At the very least, I will not cuddle with other women behind my wife's back!"

The Spencer in front of Ryan was totally different from the Spencer in front of Elena.

In front of Elena, Spencer was gentle and sincere. But to Ryan, he would always be cunning and vicious.

It might be because they were fighting for a long time. They could never say good to each other.

Spencer's words were full of provocation. Clearly, he said this to anger Ryan.

And unsurprisingly, these words showed their affect. As soon as Spencer finished speaking, the surrounding temperature dropped a few degrees.

Elena who was standing very close to Ryan clearly saw the man's jaw tighten. The veins in his forehead popped out and there was a fire in his eyes.

Being with Ryan for such a long time, Elena had rarely seen Ryan being so angry. Most of the time, even if he was angry, he would not show it on his face that easily.

Ryan was clearly controlling himself.

"Did I say something wrong, Mr. Monor? Weren't you with another woman just now and were caught red-handed?" Spencer saw Ryan's ferocious expression and his smile deepened.

Elena looked at Spencer who was competing with Ryan. If she was not present with Spencer before, she would really suspect that Spencer really looked down on Ryan.

She really could not understand Spencer's character at this moment.

Just a few moments ago, Spencer was taking Ryan's side, saying that he would not cheat on her and advised her to clear the misunderstanding between them. Even when she wanted to hide her pregnancy news, Spencer persuaded her to tell Ryan about this.

This clearly meant that other than competing in the business world, Spencer meant no harm to her or Ryan.

Because if Spencer really wanted to harm Ryan, he would have added fuel to the fire by brainwashing her against Ryan, rather than pursuing her to give Ryan a chance.

But now, in front of Ryan, he was acting totally opposite.

"Spencer!" Ryan said through gritted teeth. Only he knew, how he was controlling himself. If Elena was not present here, he would have punched Spencer.

There was already a misunderstanding between him and Elena, but this man was still making sarcastic remarks.

"Mr. Monor is angry from embarrassment." Spencer was in a good mood when he saw how angry Ryan was.

"You. . ."

"Let's go home, I'm tired." Elena interrupted Ryan.

Ryan stared at Spencer with a warning look in his eyes which clearly meant, "don't try to touch his things", before leaving with Elena.

Looking at their back, Spencer's smile diminished.

On the way, Elena sat silent without any intension of speaking or listening.

After returning home, she did not wait for Ryan to explain the situation. Instead, she went straight to her room alone.

Ryan knew that Elena was currently angry. If he went up, it would only cause Elena more trouble.

He saw that the maid was packing in the kitchen, so he walked over and asked, "Is there anyone at home today?"

The maid stopped what she was doing and answered, "Miss Amber came to see you today."

The maid told him the truth. When Elena and Ryan came in earlier, she felt that the atmosphere was not right. It seemed that her guess was right.

"Got it. Go and do your work." Ryan's eyes were full of coldness. He had previously reminded Amber not to come here. He did not expect that she was a criminal of the whole incident.

"Sir, Madam has not eaten yet. " The maid reminded softly.

Previously, when Amber came it was still early, then Elena went to the Monor Group.

"Prepare some light food and send it to the room." Since so many things had happened today, Elena probably did not have the appetite either.

At night, when Ryan came to the room, Elena had already fallen asleep with the child in her arms. This food on the coffee table was still intact. Clearly, she did not eat anything.

Looking at Elena who was sleeping soundly and her eyes that were somewhat swollen, Ryan's face was full of heartache.

He had never seen Elena cry like this before. And it was his fault.

Ryan walked to the bedside with light steps. Sitting beside the bed, he stared at the sleeping woman for a long time. He then leaned over and kissed her forehead lightly.

"Sorry, I will never let you suffer any more grievances in the future." Ryan's face was full of determination.

The next morning, when Ryan woke up, the person beside him was nowhere to be seen.

He came down from the stairs in a suit and saw a busy figure in the living room. He didn't feel good about it.

"Elena. . . " Ryan stood at the corner of the stairs and called out, but he did not get any response.

In the past, whenever Ryan called Elena, she would always respond with a sweet smile. But now Ryan did not feel Elena's enthusiasm at all.

He knew that yesterday's incident had created a barrier between them.

Ryan hurriedly walked over and held Elena's hand. "Let the servants do these things. Take a rest."

Elena threw the rag on the table and walked past Ryan to the kitchen. She did not speak to him.

Ryan wanted to follow her, but the phone in his pocket rang.

Seeing the caller ID, Ryan frowned. He glanced at Elena, who was still busy, and went to the sofa to answer the call.

Someone in the kitchen saw Elena's unhappy face and asked worriedly, "Madam, did you not rest well last night? Your expression is very bad."

Elena shook her head and squeezed out a smile. "It's fine. The child was too noisy yesterday."

Although she and Ryan quarreled, this was also a matter between husband and wife. She did not want others to know.
