

Chapter 307 Our Alliance Ends Here

Finn who was standing at the side frowned when he heard Amber’s words. This incident had nothing to do with Elena, but Amber was using Elena as a trump card to make Ryan surrender to her.

Finn could not help but open his mouth to protest, “Miss Thomas, this has nothing to do with Director Monor. Why are you asking him to take responsibility for you?”

"Shut up! You are just a dog by Ryan's side! When Mistress speaks, there is no place for people like you to interrupt." Amber's tone was cold and her voice did not sound like a woman who had gone through such a big torment. Instead, when she spoke, she was arrogant and was not polite at all.

Ryan naturally saw the change in Amber’s behaviour. He sat back on the chair and sneered, “Miss Amber Thomas, Finn is my man. You better not disrespect him much less scold him.”

Amber saw Ryan’s obscure attitude and her eyes twitched violently. He would rather stand for a mere subordinate, rather than her, his childhood friend.

Amber wiped her tears from the corner of her eyes. She was already tired of playing victim card. Since Ryan was still not convinced to help her, she could only use her true means.

"Ryan, you better think about the matter I told you about. The choice now is yours." Amber sat down the opposite to Ryan and looked straight into him. Her voice was neither slow nor high. “I don’t want any explanation or compensation because I don’t lack both of that. This time those people mistook me as you wife, because they probably did not know Elena’s real face. But life is full is wonders. Who knows what will happen in the future.”

Amber’s words were light but it made the three men’s presented blood boil.

Because it was a clear threat!

Amber was threatening Ryan!

Those people thought of her as Elena. If she revealed Elena's photo to the public, those people would definitely find trouble with Elena again.

And no one could guarantee what could happen the next time.

The temperature of the office instantly dropped a few degrees. Ryan clenched his fists and his knuckles turned white.

If not for the fact that, Amber was a woman, he would have rushed to kill the other party, had that person dare to threaten him like this.

After sometime Ryan let go of his clenched hands.

"I can promise you, but not for you, but for Elena."

Elena had already been stimulated once. And yesterday’s incident had worsened her condition. He could not afford to take any risks regarding Elena’s matters anymore.

Amber did not think that Ryan would agree so quickly. She frowned, "Ryan, you have never been threatened so easily by others before."

She had been using various means to make Ryan agree to her condition. She cried, she begged, even when she told about her son’s abduction, Ryan stayed indifferent.

But as soon as she mentioned Elena, Ryan agreed in no time.

Was Elena really that important?

So important that Ryan could change his bottom line again and again for her?

This thought made Amber totally depressed.

"If you think it is not necessary, you can go out now. I believe that there are many people who are willing to help Miss Thomas." Ryan's tone was distant. So distant that he did not seem to talking to a person whom he had known from his childhood.

"Miss Thomas? You actually called me Miss Thomas? Our relationship of so many years can't compare to Elena's?" Amber's face was full of disbelief and disappointment. She had known Ryan for so many years and he had always called her Amber. She did not expect that now he had already alienated her to call her Miss Thomas.

Ryan instantly turned his head and shot a look at Amber. The inferno inside his dark eyes could not be ignored.

Finn, who was standing at the side, could not help but shiver when he saw Ryan like this. Since he knew Ryan, he had never seen Ryan so angry.

Amber was so scared that she shivered. She couldn't speak for a long time. "Ryan. . ."

"Miss Thomas, I said I would help you, so I will definitely do it. This is what I owe you. After this matter is settled, we will settle the score. And I hope after this Miss Thomas will not contact me anymore. Our alliance ends here."

After Ryan finished speaking, he no longer paid attention to Amber. Instead, he lowered his head and focused on the unfinished documents.

Our alliance ends here.

These four words echoed in Amber’s eyes. And she was lost for words.

Amber's eyes instantly reddened. The person she cared about the most was Ryan. She stayed in Hai City because she wanted to help Ryan. Even when her son was kidnapped by Taylor, she focused all her attention on Ryan.

But what did he say?

He wanted to end their alliance and break off their relationship.

Why it turned like this?

They had known each other for more than fifteen years. Why couldn't Ryan understand her feelings?

"Ryan Monor, you are ruthless!" Amber's voice was trembling as she spoke.

"It is getting late. Miss Thomas should go back. I will suppress this matter. I also hope that Miss Thomas can keep her promise and do not disturb my life anymore." Ryan did not even raise his head when he spoke this. Now, to him, Amber was just an annoying character who wanted to take advantage of his weakness.

Ryan knew that Amber held a grudge against Elena because of this matter. If he did not come forward to help Amber, the only one who would be injured was Elena.

It was not that he was afraid of Amber, but the Amber in front of him was not the Amber, he used to know anymore. She had changed and changed to the point beyond recognition.

Amber must have something in her hands for which she could bargain with him so fearlessly.
