

Chapter 308 Get The Maximum Benefit

In the past, he turned a blind eye to many things, so he never really pressed on Amber. But the incident happened in the villa last time changed his view. Amber actually tried to frame Elena.

From that moment, he began to keep an eye on Amber’s actions. And to his surprise, she was indeed suspicious. Her actions seemed to be deliberately targeting Elena.

And the reason Amber targeted Elena, Ryan did not need to use much brainpower to know.

Amber hid her feelings for nearly fifteen years but when she saw the relationship between him and Elena, she could not keep her disguise anymore.

Originally, Ryan thought that as long as Amber married William Langford, he did not need to care about the matters related to Amber anymore as he and William were classic enemies.

But yesterday’s incident caught him off guard.

And it eventually gave Amber a chance to squeeze him and force him to do what she wanted.

However, until he fully discovered what was happening behind the scenes and who was targeting him restlessly, he could not take any risks.

So now he could only stop Amber from causing any more trouble by agreeing to her condition.

Amber clenched her fists and looked at Ryan's figure with a fierce look in her eyes.

Finn saw this and took the initiative to step forward to make an inviting gesture, "Miss Thomas, please."

Amber took a last look at Ryan and glanced at Finn. She snorted coldly and left in large strides.

After Amber left, Finn walked to Ryan's side and could not help saying, "Director Monor, you are drawing hatred for the Madam."

Ryan finally lifted his head from the documents. "I will protect Elena, but I will not be threatened by Amber all the time because of this matter. Now that the two of us have shed all pretenses of cordiality, we will no longer interact with each other after this matter is settled."

Ryan took a deep breath and leaned on his chair. There were waves of complicated emotions in his eyes. He and Amber had known each other from childhood. In his eyes Amber was always a simple and naïve girl who was mistreated by her own family.

Because Ryan himself was mistreated by the Monor family, he used to sympathize with Amber.

After that incident more than ten years ago, Amber did not keep any contacts with him. Until he met with an accident and became a ‘cripple’, Amber once again began to interact him.

At that time, Amber had helped him a lot. She gave him many insiders information which helped him to gain his power once again. And this was why, he never really took Amber’s actions seriously.

But reality proved that he was wrong. Only now did Ryan realize that he made a huge mistake by taking Amber lightly.

The current Amber was no longer as pure as before. The filth of power and greed had already tainted her eyes.

And in the end, Elena became Amber’s target.

Ryan was lost in thoughts when Finn’s voice pulled him over to reality.

"Mr. Monor, now that you have agreed to help Miss Thomas, Miss Thomas definitely will not let go this opportunity and will try to get the maximum benefit. What do you plan to do next?" Xavier asked with a worried expression. He knew very well what type of woman Amber was. Now that Amber had Ryan’s weak nerve, she would press it anytime.

There had been a misunderstanding between Ryan and Elena. If something unexpected happened again, Elena would be the only one who would be hurt.

Ryan sighed helplessly. "Everything is going according to plan. I cannot be blackmailed by Amber every time. But I am just a little worried about Elena.”

"Mrs. Monor is not a stubborn person. As long as Mr. Monor explain it to her clearly, she will not misunderstand."

Xavier had witnessed Ryan and Elena’s relationship in his own eyes. They always had a very good bonding. He hoped that they could survive this storm.

Amber returned to the capital from Hai City.

When she returned to the Thomas family, Taylor was waiting for Amber with a face full of anger.

Seeing Amber walk in, Taylor rushed forward and slapped Amber's face hard.

"Where did you die?" Taylor shouted furiously, “Do you know how long we have been looking for you? The date of your marriage with William is about to arrive. You still dare to run around? Are you not afraid of your son dying?" When Taylor thought how he had been searching for Amber the past two days, he could not help but grit his teeth in anger.

Taylor used his full strength. Amber’s face tilted to the side and half of her face instantly turned red and swollen.

Amber wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth and turned to look at her father. She curled her crooked lips and sneered, "I have already agreed to marry William. What do you have to worry about?"

"Your promise is worthless!" Taylor was still furious. He would never allow any accidents to happen before this marriage. The Thomas family must have a marriage alliance with the Langford family.

"Heh. . . The Thomas family is in danger now. That's why they can't wait to have a marriage alliance with the Langford family, right?" Amber stared at Taylor with a meaningful expression.

Hearing this, a trace of panic flashed across Taylor's eyes. "What nonsense are you talking about?"

Facing Taylor’s anxiety, Amber was rather calm. She spoke with her usual elegance, "What nonsense am I talking about? Don’t you know? Chief Commander Taylor Thomas, you've already made those actions behind everyone’s back. And now in order to not let the organization find out, you planned to use the Langford family’s power to cover up your mistakes. Did I say anything wrong?"
