

Chapter 310 Explain The Situation

When Amber thought about Ryan, a hint of madness flashed through Amber's eyes.

She already had Ryan's weakness in her hands and Ryan had to listen to her.

If he did not listen, she would make him listen!

At that time, she would personally settle her scores with Elena.

Right now, Amber did not care about anything. She did not bother to think what could happen to the Thomas family and what the Langford family would do if this engagement was broken.

At this moment, she only cared about her own future, her own happiness. And her happiness relied on Ryan!

"You. . . Good, very good! You are really a good daughter that I raised! You actually dare to force your own biological father like this!" Taylor was so angry that his face alternated between red and green and he could not breathe. In all these years, no one had ever dare to talk to him like this, let alone threaten him.

And the one who was threatening him now was his own biological daughter.

Taylor had never suffered such great humiliation and grievance since he was born in the Thomas family.

"Did you not force me?" Amber bent down and raised her arm to press on Taylor's heart which was heaving up and down violently. "Don't forget that my child is still in your hands. I have to be in your mercy."

After saying that, Amber curled her lips and gave a meaningful smirk, before turning around and walking upstairs.

Taylor did not dare to say anything now. Amber had a lot of evidence against him. If he angered Amber, then everything that had been meticulously arranged over the years would be finished.

Amber returned to her room and made a phone call. No one knew what the other party said, but Amber clenched her hands and her eyes were filled with ruthlessness.

She had liked Ryan from the day she first met him. Ryan was always an intelligent and meticulous man. He was the man of her dreams.

But after that accident happened with her, she felt she did not deserve Ryan anymore so she did not keep any contacts with him.

Some years later, when she was finally getting over of her feelings, she heard that Ryan met with a deadly accident and became paralyzed for rest of his life.

At that time, she was truly concerned about Ryan without any selfishness. But after she began to contact Ryan again, the suppressed love in her heart also grew stronger.

She thought that she and Ryan were on the same boat as both of them faced the greatest misery of life. That's why she began to follow Ryan.

All these years she stayed beside Ryan obediently in the hope that he would one day understand her feelings.

But in the end, Ryan married Elena. He even lied to her all these years and hid the fact that he was not paralyzed.

What did it mean?

It meant that Ryan did not believe her from the very beginning!

She stayed with Ryan, helped Ryan and she fought for Ryan, but he chose Elena over her.

Why?

Why could Elena get everything that belonged to her? Why Elena got Ryan's love that belonged to her?

That day, in Ryan's villa Sam fell down the stairs. It was because she instructed Sam to do so.

It was precious because she wanted to test Ryan. She wanted to see whom Ryan would trust between her and Elena.

And reality proved that, she never got Ryan's trust. To Ryan, their years of friends was not as important as Elena.

Since that was the case, why should she care about Ryan's feelings anymore?

From that day onwards, Amber decided to win Ryan. It did not matter what method she used, but she had to make Ryan hers!

The next day, everyone who received the invitation received the news that the wedding was postponed by two months.

Although Amber did not know what method Taylor used to persuade the Langford family to delay the wedding date, since she had already achieved her goal, Amber did not want to study the process anymore.

After Ryan received the news, he fell into deep thought. Now, he also did not know what Amber wanted to do.

Elena walked down from upstairs. Her face was not good and there were dark circles under her eyes. It must be because she did not rest well last night.

"Elena, I have something to say to you." Ryan said as soon as he saw her.

Elena saw that there were only the two of them left in the huge villa today. She did not know where to hide even if she wanted to. She could only obediently go downstairs and sit opposite of Ryan. "If you have something to say, say it."

Ryan went to her side and sat beside her. He held her hand as he explained the incident happened in the office last time. "I know that the incident that day was a huge blow to you, but I must explain to you. Amber came to me because she wanted to use my power to pressure the Langford family to cancel her marriage."

"You agreed?" Elena frowned.

Amber was looking for a scapegoat. Even the Thomas family did not dare to offend the Langford family. Amber actually wanted to Ryan to become her pawn?

Ryan shook his head. "No, the situation in the capital is too complicated. I don't want to get involved in the matters between the four families."

Besides, he and the Langford family had some unexplainable and troublesome matters. It was impossible for him to get himself into trouble.

"Then why did she appear in your arms again?" Elena did not know that when she said those words, her palms had already started to sweat. She herself did not know, what she was worried about.

"Taylor used Amber's son to force Amber to marry William. Now the life and death of the child is unknown."

Elena was shocked when she heard that. "What? Sam is Taylor's biological grandson. How could he do it?"

Elena could understand that Taylor wanted Amber to marry the Langford family for the benefit of Thomas family, but she really did not understand why Taylor wanted to hurt a child.

Ryan sighed helplessly. "Sam is Amber's life. Only by using Sam to threaten Amber can she obey. Helpless and sad, she wanted to hug me for comfort, but I did not expect you to suddenly come and see it."

Ryan didn't think that there would be so many coincidences in this world.

Hearing Ryan's explanation, Elena's gloomy mood of these few days finally eased up.

Seeing her tense face ease up, Ryan finally sighed in relief. He put his hands around her and pulled her into his arms. "You and I have been through thick and thin together these two years. How could I possibly do something that would let you down?"

Ryan would never forget that when he was in the old industrial area, Elena saved his life.

The fate between the two of them had long been fated.

And nothing could make them apart.

He would never let anyone interfere in his and Elena's relationship.

Elena sighed helplessly, "Sorry, I was too emotional that day. I didn't think clearly about the reason and got angry at you."

She leaned in his arms and closed her eyes. These few days, she had totally distanced herself from him. Now his familiar smell gave her an unbelievable peace.

Actually, what Spencer said was right. With Ryan's ability and power, if he really wanted to cheat on her, she would never have the chance to even find out. But he did not do that.

Ryan had never done anything to let her down during their marriage. She should believe him.

"The one who should be sorry should be me. I should not let her woman touch me." Ryan kissed her hair and said softly. Elena was very fragile now. She had finally recovered and could not be provoked.

"We will go to Amber and William's wedding the day after tomorrow. But I am not doing it for Amber, but for William."

From that day onwards, Elena did not want to have anything to do with Amber anymore. But William was different.

He was her previous classmate and he personally came to invite them. Out of courtesy, they should go.

"The wedding has been postponed." Ryan said slowly.

"Postponed? The marriage between the two families had already been decided. Why did they suddenly change their mind and want to postpone it?" The Langford family and Thomas family had considerable influence in the capital. If they broke their promise because of the wedding, it would make people speculate that something had happened to the two major families.

Ryan shook his head. "I'm not too sure about the details."

If something happened to Thomas family, Taylor would definitely marry Amber into the Langford family as soon as possible. Since the wedding was postponed, it must be Amber's work.

And for Taylor accepting Amber's request, he must be forced by Amber.

He didn't know what Amber was up to, but she had delayed the wedding.

Elena was lost in her thoughts. When she heard the news, an ominous feeling rose in her heart.
