

Chapter 311 The Calm Before The Storm

A month later.

After visiting her mother in the suburbs, Elena sat in the car and returned to the city.

The doctors Ryan arranged were all very excellent and proficient. Her mother's health was improving rapidly.

Because of the consistent use tranquilizers in the past few years, it would take some time for her mother to wake up. However, with her and Ryan's frequent visits with the twins, her mother was showing some signs of waking up.

Today, Ryan had some urgent matters to deal with in the Monor Group, so he did not come with her. And she did not bring the twins.

Elena sat in the backseat and leaned against the window. Looking at the trees and buildings which were moving backwards in blink of an eye, her thoughts drifted far away.

Last time, Ryan had explained what happened in the office that day and why Amber was in his arms. When she heard his words, she believed him.

However, there was still an uncertain feeling lingering in her heart that she could not let go of no matter what.

Maybe because she had lost too much. That's why a mere thought of losing Ryan felt as if she was going to lose her own life.

Elena sighed and touched her lower abdomen. She did not have the chance to tell Ryan that she was pregnant.

During this period of time, Ryan had been very busy. He left home early and came back very late. It was said that Roman wanted to make a move on Ryan again during this period of time.

Although this reason seemed very feasible, Elena did not feel it so. After all, Ryan had never put Roman in his eyes, so it was impossible for him to take Roman's matters seriously.

Then what happened that made Ryan this busy?

In the last few days, Elena had noticed that Ryan seemed to be distracted. He was so busy that he did not even spend much time with the twins.

He looked very reluctant. It was as if something was bothering him.

This was something that had never happened before. From the day she married Ryan, she had never seen him like this.

This made Elena panicked.

But what could possibly bother a man like Ryan?

Ryan Monor was someone who could control the whole western Europe while staying thousands of miles of away. Therefore, what could possibly make Ryan this stressed and distracted?

The more Elena thought, the more uncertain she felt.

During the last month, she did not hear anything about Amber. Ryan did not say anything and she did not ask anything either.

It was said that a woman's intuition is always right. Her intuition told her that something must be wrong.

Everything seemed calm and quiet, but she knew that this was the calm before the storm.

DING-

Her phone vibrated, breaking her train of thoughts. Elena took out of her phone and a new notification flashed on her phone screen.

It was message.

She rarely received messages. After the kidnapping incident last time, she had totally cut off from the outside world. Occasionally, Freya would call her to ask about her situation.

This message came from an unknown number.

Elena frowned and opened to read it. The message itself was very short, only consisted of three words. "In Monor Group."

In Monor Group? What did it mean?

Did something happen in the Monor Group?

Elena was shocked by this thought and quickly opened Ryan's number to make a phone call. Just as her fingertip was about to hit the green button, however, she stopped.

After thinking for a moment, Elena did not make a phone call, instead, she instructed the driver to go to the Monor Group.

If something really happened in the Monor Group, given Ryan's character, he would never take the initiative to tell her himself. So, it was better for her to go and find it out herself.

The car stopped in front of the Monor Group's building and Elena got out. After coming to the company and looking at the surrounding working environment, Elena suddenly remembered how she looked when she first came to the Monor Group.

At that time, she and Ryan had just gotten married. She had been put in a difficult situation by the Monor family and Roman and had been bullied a lot. However, Ryan had always stood by her side to protect her.

Thinking about Ryan's caring attitude towards her, Elena suddenly hesitated. For a moment, she really felt that she was thinking too much.

If there was someone who truly loved her after her parents, that was Ryan. He had never done anything that had hurt her and he would not do so in the future too.

Maybe things were not as bad as she was thinking.

She should believe Ryan.

Elena was still pondering whether to go or not, when someone called out for her, "Madam, why are you here?"

Finn had just come down to deliver some documents, when he saw Elena standing in front of the elevator in a daze. He did not expect to see Elena at this time.

"I just came back to take a look. Is Ryan busy?" Elena smiled at Finn. When they were at home, Ryan had mentioned many times that Finn was very good at work, had quick reactions, and had excellent computer skills. He was a talent. She had a very good impression of Finn.

Finn's expression changed when he heard Elena mention about Ryan. "Uh... Mr. Monor... Mr. Monor is in a meeting. Madam, why don't I take you to the rest area to wait for Mr. Monor?"

In normal times, Finn could lie without batting an eyelid. However, at this moment, facing Elena, whose eyes were as bright as two small torches, Finn could not help but turn his head away guiltily.

However, he had no option but to stop Elena right now!

Hearing Finn's words, Elena did not doubt anything as Ryan usually have many meetings. She had calmly, "It's okay. I will wait for him upstairs."

As Elena spoke, she was about to go into the elevator. Finn saw this and ran in front of her in a flash, blocking her path. He looked as if he was afraid that Elena would run upstairs.

"Madam, actually Mr. Monor is in an important meeting and I don't know when it will be finished. So why don't we inform Mr. Monor first? He might postpone the meeting and you can see him soon. Otherwise, you might have to wait for a long time."

Finn tried his best to speak in a normal tone but his words could not hide the panic in his voice.

After getting pregnant this time, Elena had become a little sensitive. Even a small expression from others could not escape her eyes.

Elena looked at Finn. The last time she met Finn in the company, he took the initiative to send her to Ryan. But now he was stopping her again and again as if he did not want her to go upstairs and meet with Ryan.

Finn was a professional and righteous man. There was no need for him to be this nosy.

Furthermore, if Ryan was in a meeting, she could directly go to his office to wait for him. There was no need to wait in the rest area.

Elena's sixth instinct told her that there must be something fishy going on upstairs.

Elena expression turned cold, "No need to inform him. Since Ryan is in an important meeting, I will go to his office and wait for him."

After Elena said that, she did not give Finn the chance to say anymore. She walked past him directly and entered into the elevator.

By the time Finn turned around, Elena had already entered into the elevator and was about to press the close button. Finn did not care about anything and rushed into the elevator.

The elevator door closed. Elena turned to Finn with a puzzled expression, "Don't you want to send the documents?"

"Ah... I suddenly remembered that I still have a document that I haven't taken. Madam, let's go up together." Finn said with an unnatural expression.

He had to think of something quickly. Elena could not go upstairs no matter what!

Finn silently took out his phone. He wanted to inform Ryan about Elena's arrival.

However, there was no signal inside the elevator. The message could not be sent.

Finn cursed under his breath and beads of sweat had already started trickling down from his forehead.

He hoped the matter upstairs would already have resolved by this time.

DING –

The elevator stopped at the top floor. The two of them walked out of the elevator and saw Xavier guarding outside the CEO's office.

Xavier's face was tight as if something serious had happened.

Xavier noticed Elena, as she walked towards Ryan's office. He was shocked for a moment, before revealing a frightened expression.

What was Mrs. Monor doing here? Wasn't she supposed to accompany her mother at this moment?

Since Mrs. Monor was here, she must have come to meet Mr. Monor. But Mr. Monor. . .

Xavier looked at Finn behind Elena and Finn shook his head with a helpless expression, indicating that he could not do anything to stop her.

When Elena came in front of Ryan's office, she suddenly stopped in her tracks. She seemed to have heard of something.

"Madam. . ."

"Shhh, shh. . . " Elena interrupted Xavier's words and told him not to make a sound.

She listened carefully.

A woman's voice came from Ryan's office.
