

Chapter 312 Disgusting Affair

"What should we do now?"

This voice was very familiar. It was Amber’s voice.

Elena frowned deeply. Amber was in Ryan’s office again?

What did she want to do this time?

There was a moment of silence in the office. Elena was about to go inside when Amber's voice came from the office again.

"The child is innocent. I will not abort it no matter what!"

Thud--

The bag in Elena's hand instantly fell to the ground in shock.

Child?

Amber was pregnant?

When Xavier saw this, he quickly opened his mouth to explain, "Madam, don't get too excited first. Actually. . ."

Xavier had just said a few words when he was interrupted by another voice that came from the office.

“Huh! I really underestimated you! I did not expect you guys to be such proficient players!” This time it was a man’s voice.

The voice was filled with both anger and sarcasm. For a moment, Elena could not tell who this voice belonged to.

"Who. . . Who's inside?" Elena's voice was trembling when she asked.

"Mr. Monor, William Langford and Amber Thomas are all inside." Xavier lowered his head. He knew they could not hide any longer.

Elena closed her eyes in silence.

Amber was pregnant. She did not want to have a marriage alliance with the Langford family to begin with, so it was impossible for her to have any relationship with William.

Now they were discussing about the child here in Ryan’s office.

In that case, this child. . .

Elena took a shaky breath and her hands were trembling as she pushed open the door of the office with a bang.

The three people inside were startled by the sudden interruption and looked back at the same time. When they saw it was Elena, three of them had three different expressions.

Ryan was startled. Amber was stunned before quickly turned to look at Ryan and as for William, he had a look of interest as if a good show was about to happen.

When Ryan saw Elena, he stood up in an instant, "Why are you here?"

"Why can’t I be here?" Elena looked at Ryan, her eyes were silent. She came to Amber’s side and her eyes fell on Amber’s stomach.

As if she was attacked, Amber frantically blocked her stomach with both of her hands. She looked at Elena in panic. "Miss Lewis, what is this for?"

"I did not say I want to do something. Why are you so nervous?" Elena's eyes were filled with coldness as she looked at Amber.

William who was sitting at the side suddenly stood up, his expression changing unpredictably. He then laughed like a maniac. "Oh my god. This is really interesting. Elena, you really should have come earlier. You missed a good show.”

William said to this and his expression changed suddenly. “Do you know what your good husband did behind your back?"

Elena's heart sank when she heard William's words.

"Elena, you go back first! I will explain these things to you when we get home afterwards!" Ryan said anxiously. He could not let Elena misunderstand this situation. He would explain it to her when they got home.

However, William did not give Ryan this chance. “Why should she go back? Why don’t you let her stay here? Ryan Monor, you dare to do it, but dare not to accept? You have made Amber pregnant but do you still want to hide it from your wife?"

"William, what nonsense are you talking about?" Amber shouted loudly at this time. She looked anxious, however, her eyes were evasive.

Elena's body froze on the spot. She looked at William in shock. Although she already had some guesses in her heart, when she heard it in her own ears, she still could not believe it.

William sneered when he heard Amber’s words, “Nonsense? I am talking nonsense now? When you slept with Ryan Monor, didn’t you think it’s nonsense? When the both of you accepted about your disgusting affair in front of me just the moment before Elena came, didn’t you think it’s nonsense?"

William had been holding himself up since the moment he stepped here. Now he finally got the chance to say his heart out.

“Shut up!” Amber yelled at William. She then hurriedly pulled Elena’s hand. Her eyes turned red in an instant, “Miss Lewis, please don't misunderstand! This matter is not what you think it is!"

Elena pulled back her hand with force. She didn’t want to be touched by this woman.

She looked at Amber expressionlessly. "You are pregnant?"

"Elena. . ." Ryan called out distressfully.

"Shut up!" The last thing that Elena wanted to hear right now was Ryan’s explanation. She just wanted to find out who this child belonged to.

Elena turned around and looked at Amber again, "I am asking you a question. Are you pregnant?"

Amber paused for a moment. She glanced at Ryan before answering, “Yes.”

She did not deny it.

"Whose child. . . is it?" Elena continued to ask.

She looked aloof on the surface, but deep down, Elena was desperately praying that what she was thinking might not be true.

Although William had already made it clear, although everything in front of her was pointing out the only possibility, she still hoped that it was not true.

Perhaps loving someone was like this.

The more you love, the more you afraid of losing. The more you afraid of losing, the more you begin to lie yourself.

Just like her at this moment.

She was anguished while holding the last bit of hope in her heart.

Although everything was loud and clear, Elena still had a ridiculous hope in her heart that everything was just a lie, just an ordeal, a nightmare!

However, her hopes were shattered in the next second.

“Whose child? Do you still need to ask?" William laughed sarcastically, "This kind of thing cannot be blamed on me. Our wedding was set beforehand, why would I be in such a hurry to make her pregnant? Furthermore, we have not even met alone since we knew each other. How could such a thing happen?"

Seeing Elena silent, William came to her side and said seriously, “Elena, you still cannot believe it, right? But it is the truth. Your husband cheated on you with my fiancée. Think about it yourself, if this matter has nothing to do with this man, why did he call me to discuss this topic in his office then?"
