

Chapter 316 Out-and-out Hypocrite

Mrs. Baker sighed and nodded. She walked into the ward and saw Elena as soon as the door was opened.

Elena’s forehead was wrapped in a thick gauze and her hand was bandaged. That face which always carried a big smile was now as pale as a paper. She was looking out of the window blankly.

Mrs. Baker’s heart ached when she saw Elena like this. Her nose instantly turned sour. “Elena. . .”

Elena heard this familiar voice and turned her head. When she saw it was Mrs. Baker, tears welled up in her eyes.

Right now, she desperately needed someone to comfort her. If possible, she hoped her mother to wake up and held her tightly in her arms, comforting her.

She did not expect Mrs. Baker to come over.

Mrs. Baker came in front of the sick bed and held Elena’s hand. Her voice choked with sobs, “You poor thing. How did you become like this?”

Elena’s patience finally reached to its breaking point. Tears of grievance flowed down from the corner of her eyes. She hugged Mrs. Baker and cried out loud. "Mrs Baker, my child is gone. . . My child stayed in my stomach for two months and now he is gone. He did not even get the chance to look at this world before leaving me. What did I do wrong. . ."

Elena cried incoherently as she hugged Mrs Baker. Her entire body was trembling.

Mrs Baker could not help but shed tears as well. A mother losing her child, this was a pain that normal people could not understand.

Mrs. Baker held Elena in her arms and kept comforting her.

Elena cried for a long time. After a while, she was tired and fell asleep.

First Ryan’s betrayal, then the loss of her child, both were huge blows to her. She was now exhausted both mentally and physically.

In a high-class hotel in the centre of Hai City, Spencer sat on the sofa with a gloomy expression. "What did you say? Elena got into a car accident?"

"Yes, Sir. Our people saw it clearly. Miss Elena suddenly ran out of the Monor Group and was hit by a car. Ryan Monor took her to the hospital. Our people followed them to the hospital and found out that Miss Elena had a miscarriage.”

Spencer stood up in shock when he heard this, “What? Elena suffered from a miscarriage?”

That day beside the lake, when Elena suddenly fainted, he was the one who took her to the hospital.

He still remembered the look on her face when the doctor said she was pregnant. Although she was sad regarding Ryan’s matter, there was still a light of expectancy in her eyes. She was happy.

It had been only a month. What on the earth happened that Elena suddenly lost her child?

"Have you found out the reason?" Spencer's tone was cold. He looked at the subordinate with an unfathomable gaze.

The subordinate shook in fear. He didn’t even dare to raise his head, “This. . . It is said that Amber Thomas from the capital is carrying Ryan Monor’s child. Today Miss Elena went to the Monor Group and seemed to have discovered this matter. . .”

The more he spoke, the softer his voice became. Spencer looked unusually gloomy. The people around did not dare to say anything.

“Amber Thomas?” Spencer narrowed his eyes and a figure flashed through his mind, “The daughter of Thomas family who are in military.”

Last time, when he met Elena beside the lake, she didn’t tell him too much about the incident that made her so agitated, which aroused his curiosity. So, he had secretly sent people to find out the situation.

At that time, the person who came between Ryan and Elena was still this Amber Thomas.

Spencer narrowed his eyes. His eyes were filled with coldness. "I originally thought that the matter last time was a misunderstanding of Elena. I didn't think that this kind of thing would actually happen."

Ryan Monor and Amber Thomas had an affair. They even had a child. It was something that was out of his imagination.

"Master, actually this matter has nothing to do with us. Why should we provoke Ryan Monor? You have already stayed in Hai City for long enough. Why don't you go back to Western Europe? The old man is waiting for you." The man behind Spencer persuaded.

Spencer shot a cold look at his subordinate. "When is it your turn to make decisions for me?"

"I dare not, Master!" The man immediately knelt on the ground, not even daring to breathe loudly.

Spencer sneered and turned away. He walked to the front of the floor-to-ceiling window and looked down at half of the Hai City. "Ryan, I did not expect you to be such an out-and-out hypocrite. I really misjudged you."

Back then, he had even confidently told Elena that Ryan was not that kind of person and that Ryan would never do anything to let her down. However, he didn’t expect that he had just turn his head and Ryan would do such a thing.

It seemed that he had overestimated Ryan. He shouldn't have trusted Ryan, much less persuading Elena.

Remembering that innocent face, Spencer clenched his fists. He picked his coat and turned to leave.

Seeing this, his subordinate hurriedly stood up and followed, "Master, where are you going?"

"Didn't you just say that I should return to the country? Since that's the case, why don't I take Elena with me?"

"But Elena is Ryan Monor's wife. If you take her away so rashly, won't you create a misunderstanding with Ryan Monor again?" The subordinate's tone was somewhat anxious. Originally their Young Master and Ryan Monor had already become sworn enemies. If Young Master took Ryan Monor’s wife away, then the misunderstanding would be even deeper.

"Do you think I'm afraid of Ryan?" Spencer looked at the man coldly.

When Spencer approached Elena back then, he originally wanted to use her against Ryan. But after a few interactions with Elena, he realized that Elena was actually a gentle and pure woman. Especially her eyes, they were so innocent that it gave people a sense of comfort.

He himself did not know when he started to have feeling for her.

Spencer did not want to admit but whenever he saw Ryan and Elena together, his heart would burn with jealousy. Sometimes he even had the impulse to fight with Ryan for Elena.

However, Elena was happy with Ryan.

Even if Spencer was a complete bad person, he still had the basic sense of right and wrong. He knew that he could not break someone’s marriage. That’s why even if he liked Elena, he did not do anything overboard.

But he never thought that Ryan would cheat on Elena.

If he had pursued Elena back then, would she be in this state today?

Spencer was lost in thought, when his subordinate’s voice pulled him back.

"This subordinate did not mean that. This subordinate only hope that Master do not cause too much trouble for himself. This is Ryan Monor’s territory. If Master does something, it will be very difficult to deal with. Once your whereabouts are exposed, you will be in danger."

That man tried his best to persuade, hoping that Master would not act on impulse and not risk his life for the sake of an unknown woman.

Spencer looked at the man who just spoke and suddenly raised his leg. He kicked that man to the ground, "My father placed you by my side not to make you disobey me. I will take the responsibility for any decision that I make. If you say another word of nonsense, I will throw you into the sea to feed the sharks."

He was originally very angry with the news of Elena’s accident. Now this useless people were making a fuss in front of him, making him even more furious.

After Spencer finished speaking, he left without looking back. He left his anxious subordinates alone in the room.
