

Chapter 322 Media Report

The few of them had their own thoughts in the hospital, but what they didn't know was that the outside world had already been thrown into chaos.

“As per the latest information, the CEO of the Monor Group, Ryan Monor, is having an affair with Amber Thomas, the daughter of a prominent family from the capital. They are even having a child together.”

“It is said that the current wife of Ryan Monor, Elena Lewis, found out about his affair, ran out and was hit by a car in front of the Monor Group. She is said to have a miscarriage.”

“Mrs. Monor is currently admitted in the hospital. Meanwhile, according to the insiders, Ryan Monor is planning to divorce Mrs. Monor and marry Amber Thomas very soon.”

“Amber Thomas, the daughter of the Thomas family from the capital, has become the third person in Mr. and Mrs. Monor’s marriage and has broken their relationship.”

Every news channel of the Hai City was broadcasting this breaking news. All internet and social media platforms were filled with these headlines.

The entertainment reporters all had gone crazy. They were hastily reporting on Amber carrying Ryan’s child, as well as Elena running away and being hit by a car and having a miscarriage.

People always liked to see the drama of wealthy families. Now that such a thing had come out, it was expected for reporters to dig out more information.

Reporters gathered in front of the Monor Group, wanting to get more information.

Seeing the situation, Xavier and Finn hurriedly ran to the hospital. When they saw Ryan, they reported with sweat all over their bodies, "Mr. Monor, the news about you and Miss Amber has spread like wildfire. Every news channel is broadcasting this news. Many entertainment reporters are standing in front of the hospital to interview you.”

"What happened?" Ryan looked at Xavier and Finn coldly.

"We don't know who leaked the news. The outside world is spreading the news that you are having an affair with Miss Amber and that Miss Amber is pregnant with your child. And that Madam found out about this and had a miscarriage.” Xavier said while breathing heavily. The news went out so quickly that it caught everyone off-guard.

It had only been a few hours. How did the reporters find out about this so quickly?

Unless. . .

Ryan turned around and looked at Amber coldly. If looks could kill, Amber would have long since been buried under earth’s inner crust.

Amber was so scared by the cold look that her whole body trembled. She quickly shook her head. "No, it's not me! I am here all this time. How can I do something like this? Ryan, trust me. I am also the victim of this incident."

Amber did not expect this matter to be known by reporters so quickly. Could it be that William had reported it?

No, William did not know that Elena had a miscarriage.

"Mr. Monor, now is not the time to blame anyone. You should think about how to suppress this matter as soon as possible. Madam is already like this. If she knew about the news outside, the consequences will be unimaginable." Finn sounded somewhat anxious. He had never thought that such a thing would happen.

Ryan turned around and looked at Xavier. "Report the truth to the public."

Amber's pupils shrank when she heard this. She quickly grabbed Ryan’s arm. "What? Ryan, you can’t do this! If the truth is reported, then I'm finished. Please don't treat me like this!"

Now, everyone knew that she was carrying Ryan's child. If the outside world knew that she was forced to do that, her life would be ruined.

"At a time like this, you are still thinking about yourself? How can you be so selfish? You should know how serious the consequences of this matter are. Why can't you consider other people’s feelings?" Mrs. Baker’s face was full of anger. Even in such a time, this selfish woman only knew to think for herself.

“I am selfish? If I was selfish, Elena would not be lying here right now. Do you know what I did for Elena?" Finally, Amber’s mask came off. She looked at Mrs. Baker and said coldly.

She was already tired of pretending to be pitiful. Her heart was filled with endless anger and resentment.

From the moment she came here, everyone was speaking for Elena.

First Ryan, then that man named Spencer, then this old servant Mrs. Baker. Now even the dogs raised by Ryan were speaking for Elena.

Why did everyone have to stand on Elena's side and speak justice for her? What was so good about that woman?

Mrs Baker did not understand the hidden meaning behind Amber’s words. She looked at Ryan doubtfully, as if asking the truth of the matter.

Ryan clenched his hands and his whole body tensed up. Amber was threatening him.

Ryan pushed Amber away hatefully, "You can leave."

"Mr. Monor, you cannot do it. If Miss Amber left, what about the rumors outside?" Xavier asked in disbelief.

At such a time, shouldn’t they clarify this matter first? Why was Mr. Monor asking Amber to leave?

If this matter was not resolved soon, the consequences would be unimaginable. Not only Ryan and Elena’s relationship would break, but Ryan’s image would also be ruined along with it.

Xavier could not watch Ryan destroy himself like this.

Ryan did not answer Xavier. He knew more than anyone what could be the outcome of this matter. However. . .

He turned to Amber. “Amber Thomas, we will never contact each other after this matter ends.”

After saying that, Ryan turned around and left without looking back.

Seeing the man’s retracting back, Xavier and Finn looked at each other and saw the same shock and disbelief on each other’s face.

They really did not expect Ryan to leave just like that. Could it be that Ryan didn't care about Elena's feelings at all?

Mrs. Baker was shocked too. Not clarifying meant tacitly accepting this matter.

Mrs. Baker shook her head helplessly. She had never thought that Ryan would let Elena down like this.

While everyone was busy with their own thoughts, from a place where anyone couldn’t see, Amber revealed a smile of success.

She finally succeeded in her game!
