

Chapter 323 Shameless Amber

Ryan came outside the hospital and saw many reporters standing outside.

When the reporters saw Ryan coming, they all went crazy. They all rushed forward like waves, raised their cameras and took pictures continuously.

Countless cameras flashed continuously, blinding the people present. The reporters surrounded the man and raised their mics to take interviews. The scene was in chaos for a moment,

“Mr. Monor, may I ask since when you are having an affair with Miss Thomas?”

“Mr. Monor, are you really going to leave your wife and children just like that?”

“Mr. Monor, your child died. Are you sad?”

“Mr. Monor, did Mrs. Monor agree for the divorce?”

“Mr. Monor. . .”

The reporters bombarded the questions one after another. Love triangles are the favourite subject of entertainment reports, not to mention the love affair of a rich businessman who was married.

Now, the reports were all curious how the situation would progress.

Too many things happened in a single day. First Elena discovered their secret meeting. Then she met with a car accident and had a miscarriage. She was still lying in the hospital. Now, the last thing that he wanted to do was probably giving an interview to these crazy reporters.

Ryan remined silent and wanted to leave this place quickly. However, how could the reporters let go of this good opportunity? One should know that interviewing Ryan Monor was as hard as inviting the royals to have dinner.

The last time when Ryan suddenly stood up from the wheelchair, the reporters wanted to interview him. However, no matter how much they begged, Ryan did not agree to meet them.

Thus, the reporters surrounded the man from all directions and decided not to let him go.

Ryan’s patience finally reached its breaking point. He clenched his jaw and coldly looked at the reporters surrounding him. His eyes were filled with endless darkness as he coldly swept across the group of reporters.

The reporters could not help but took two steps back in fear. The man's eyes were too intimidating as if they could pierce through their skin and bones.

Before this, they had only heard that the Second Master of the Monor family was as scary as a devil. But now they witnessed it.

Ryan looked at the reporters gloomily and went forward. The reporters retracted to the side and did not stop the man anymore. Ryan directly drove away.

Seeing the car rushing forward, the group of reporters heaved a sigh of relief. That man was really scary.

At this moment, another figure flashed at the hospital entrance.

The reporters got energized when they saw that person. Today was really fun.

The reporters swarmed over as they saw Amber, the main characters of this drama, coming out.

“Miss Thomas, the news outside said that you are carrying Mr. Monor’s child. Is it true?”

"Miss Thomas, did you get involved in Ryan Monor and Elena Lewis's marriage long ago? Why do you want to be a mistress?"

"Miss Thomas, did you come to the hospital to see Mrs. Monor? Aren’t you worried Mrs. Monor would be angry to see you?"

"Miss Thomas. . . "

The reporters asked one question after another, afraid that they would miss any opportunity.

Amber looked at the reporters asking one difficult question after another and suddenly laughed out loud.

The reporters looked at each other in confusion. They did not understand what Amber mean. A reporter raised his mic and asked, "Miss Thomas, why are you laughing? Don't you think that you did something wrong? Don't you feel ashamed?"

"Shame? Why should I be ashamed? I have never felt that I am wrong. I just fell in love with someone. Since when it is wrong to love someone? Why do you need to use these things to insult me?" Amber looked at these reporters, her eyes full of ridicule, "How can you people understand the feelings between us?"

"You are involved in someone else's marriage and break their relationship. And now because of you, Mrs. Monor has even suffered from a miscarriage. You broke someone’s family! Don't you feel guilty?" One of the female reporters asked in disbelief.

Many of the reporters present were women and they deeply emphasized with Elena’s current situation. One should know that the thing that women absolutely hate is a mistress breaking the wife’s home, not to mention the wife losing her child.

Even the other reporters didn't expect this woman to be so shameless. She didn't know how to regret interfering in someone else's marriage, and she even boasted shamelessly about her love in front of media.

"Guilt? Hahaha. . . " Amber burst into laughter again, "Why should I feel guilty? Elena got hit by a car and lost her child. What does that have to do with me? It’s her fault as she ran out herself. Could it be that just because she lost her child, I have to bury my child along with her? Wake up. It has nothing to do with me.”

"Miss Thomas, don't you think that you look like a madman now?" Some reporters shook their heads. They had seen many people and knew many high-profile affairs. But they had never seen a woman as brazen as Amber.

In most of the cases, when a mistress intervened in a marriage, she would at least shut their mouths and keep quiet. None of them had ever come in front of the media, boasting about their illicit affair.

Even the reporters could not help but feel disgusted with this woman.

Amber raised her chin and looked at the reporters with disgust, “In life, everyone is a madman. Everyone wants to get what they like. Why should I not fight for the man I like? I don’t care if he has a wife and a child.”

Amber did not have any remorse in her heart. In front of the reporters, she boasted shamelessly about her own views.

Hearing this, the reporters were in uproar. How could someone be so unrepentant?

When Finn and Xavier walked out, they just happened to hear Amber say those words. They could not help but grit their teeth in anger.

Xavier angrily pulled Amber to the side. "Miss Amber Thomas, do you know what you are saying now? I don't care if you want to destroy yourself, but I won’t let you destroy Mr. Monor like this!”

Every word Amber said would be maximized hundreds of times by these reporters. By this time, every single person in the city would have already known about this matter. And Amber’s words were adding fuel to the fire.

If it went on, Ryan’s personal and professional life both would be in danger.

Amber did not expect to be pulled by someone amidst of the reporters. Her face was full of anger. “Even Ryan did not say anything. What right does a dog like you have to stop me?"

Amber snorted in disgust. A mere assistant did not have the right to judge her.

Xavier’s face twitched with anger. “Don’t forget why this whole matter happened! If Mr. Monor revealed the truth, do you think you still have the face to live in this world?"

Why didn't he realize that this woman was so shameless in the past? Xavier asked himself.

Hearing this, Amber went forward and grabbed Xavier's collar. She smiled viciously. “Reveal the truth? Haha, do you think your Mr. Monor will tell the truth? Unless he doesn't care about your Madam’s reputation."

"You. . . "

"Shut up! A dog should only protect their masters, not stop them." Amber let go of Xavier and returned to the reporters again. She began to shamelessly answer the questions.

Xavier gritted his teeth in hatred. However, no matter how angry he was, without Ryan’s orders, he could not do anything.
