

Chapter 330 Irony Of Fate

On a private plane in the middle of the sky, a woman was leaning against a luxurious chair. There was a big baby crib in front of her and a small child was laying there, while she was holding a little child in her arms.

She was looking about of the window blankly.

Her thoughts drifted away, just like the clouds drifted through the window outside. She did not know what she was thinking or feeling.

Everything was vacant and empty.

Spencer walked over and saw the woman sitting beside the window. He saw the untouched food in front of her and shook his head helplessly.

Spencer came over and sat down beside the woman. Seeing she was still in a daze, he could not help but sigh, “You are still thinking about him.”

Elena came back to her senses. She turned to look at Spencer and her eyes gradually became focused. "No. I am just thinking about what happened during this period of time. Everything was so unexpected.”

In the last four days, she was thinking about leaving the Hai City, day and night. Now when she was finally sitting in the private plane and was in the middle of the sky, she realized that she was really leaving this place.

Elena had never thought that she would one day leave Ryan in such a way.

She had once fantasized about holding Ryan’s hand while going through every wind and rain, seeing their children growing up and getting old together with Ryan.

She wanted to spend her every moment, every second, every breath beside him, in his arms.

However, who would have expected that in just a short few days, everything would change.

Everything had changed to the point of no return.

Spencer looked at Elena, his voice was extremely gentle, “No matter how unexpected things get, you still have to take care of your body. Don’t forget that you still have many people to take care of. Even if the person you loved let you down, you still have your children and mother with you. You have your whole life ahead of you. I am also here. You are not alone.”

This time neither his enmity with Ryan, nor his feelings for Elena mattered to him anymore. Spencer was saying these words from the bottom of his heart. He just wanted her to come out of this darkness as soon as possible.

Elena turned to Spencer and wanted to smile at him. However, she found that no matter how hard she tried, her lips did not move at all. At last, her smile was even uglier than crying.

Spencer’s heart ached when he saw her like this. He had always seen her smiling before. Now that she was filled with sadness and despair, he did not know how to comfort her.

He changed the topic, “Is she asleep?”

As he spoke, Spencer looked at the little child in Elena’s arm. The girl’s little face was still very red and she was still weeping softly.

Elena looked at her daughter in her arms and held her closer to her chest, as she nodded. She did not know what happened, but the moment this little girl stepped into the private plane, she kept crying. No matter how Elena tried to coax her, she did not stop crying at all. It was only when she was tired of crying that she fell asleep.

It was said that the children and the parents had a heart-to-heart connection. Even though children could not understand, they could feel it.

Maybe Rayna had felt that they were leaving her father, that’s why she kept crying.

After her father’s death, Elena had always missed her father. She missed his love, care and protection. She knew how hard it was for children to grow up without a father, therefore, she always wanted to give her children a complete family.

However, fate is sometimes very ironic. It forces you to do things that you have never thought of doing even in your dreams.

Just like her, right now.

She had separated her children from their father. She had taken away their father’s love and protection from her children’s life.

She knew it was very unfair for her children, but she had no other option. Because after all these things, she could not stay with Ryan anymore, nor could she leave her children alone.

Moreover, after Amber gave birth to his child, Ryan probably would not even remember that he had a son and daughter before.

Therefore, it was best for them to go in their separate ways.

Elena was lost in thoughts when Spencer’s voice woke her up, “Since you wanted to leave him, why did you asked me to prepare a divorce agreement? And why did you leave a note behind?”

Spencer could not understand it. Since she was leaving, what was the point of preparing a divorce agreement? There were separating anyway.

“So that he won’t accuse me for coming between his and Amber’s marriage.”

Elena wanted to draw a clear line between her and Ryan. She did not want to have any sort of relationship with that man anymore, that’s why she had asked Spencer to prepare a divorce agreement on her behalf.

Spencer chuckled when he heard this. “Do you think he will marry Amber?”

A man who could even betray a woman like Elena, would he marry a treacherous woman like Amber?

In Spencer’s opinion, Ryan was just having fun with Amber. When he would get bored, it would not take Ryan a minute to kick her out of his life.

“That doesn’t change the fact that Amber is carrying his child.”

Spencer went silent when he heard this. After a moment of silence, he continued, “Although I have already taken you away from Hai City, the trouble does not end here. Ryan must have started to investigate your whereabouts by this time.”

“He already has another woman by his side. Why would he find me anymore?” Although Elena said this, her eyes dimmed. Because she knew that the possibility of her getting rid of Ryan easily was very low.

Spencer chuckled again, “You escaped under his nose. It must have hurt his ego. Do you think Ryan Monor will let go of this matter this easily?”

“In less than three days, Ryan will use the power of Western Europe to find you. You have to know that once Ryan finds out about your whereabouts, you will be in trouble.”

Spencer knew how powerful Ryan was. If Ryan really came to his nerves, it would not take him long to find Elena.

At that time, she would be in a big trouble.
