

Chapter 334 Find The Foster Family

On the other side.

Ryan was sitting in his study with a gloomy expression. He lowered his head and no one knew what he was thinking.

Xavier knocked on the door and entered. He reported the situation, “Mr. Monor, as you wished, we have attacked Spencer Foster’s properties. Finn has hacked the whole database of his company and his company is in a technical mess now. I have already informed the shareholders. They are holding an emergency meeting to remove Spencer. But. . .”

Xavier paused and hesitated to say the next words.

Ryan slowly raised his head and his deadly cold eyes swept over Xavier’s face. His meaning was obvious.

Xavier got goosebumps all over his body. He finished his remaining words in one breath, “But Spencer does not seem to care about this. We have gotten a phone recording where Spencer’s secretary was saying to let you do whatever you want to do. Spencer doesn’t care.”

Xavier lowered his head after saying that. He did not dare to look at Ryan’s expression.

“Heh!” Ryan curled up his lips and sneered heavily. After getting the fish, would someone care about the bait?

Spencer had gotten what he wanted that was Ryan’s weakness. He would not care about these small properties anymore.

Xavier asked with a low voice, “Mr. Monor, what should we do next?”

Xavier was in a difficult position. Out of all people in the world, it was Spencer who took Mrs. Monor away.

Mr. Monor and Spencer were rivals from the begin with, but that hostility was limited to business.

However, Spencer had already crossed the line by taking Mrs. Monor away.

Now, Mr. Monor would not let go of anyone.

“He does not care, but that does not mean that others do not care about it.”

“Sir, what do you mean?” Xavier had a blank expression on his face. Who was Mr. Monor taking about?

Ryan did not explain to Xavier, instead he stood up and went towards the door of the study. “Prepare the private jet. We are heading Western Europe in an hour.”

Although Xavier did not understand what Ryan was going to do, he carried out the order obediently.

In the next morning, Ryan’s private jet landed on Western Europe. Without a second’s delay, Ryan went to the KING’s headquarters.

Michelle was already waiting for them at the door. Seeing the man came in, he bowed respectfully and led him to the private elevator.

He reported the situation on the way. “Spencer Foster is not in Western Europe. In fact, he hasn’t returned for a few months. His location is unknown at this moment.”

Ryan went into his office as he listened to Michelle’s report. After he sat on his chair, Michelle handed him some documents.

“Sir, these are the list of properties that Spencer own in Western Europe and overseas. Many of these properties come under the Foster family, but Spencer has many undisclosed private properties too. I am afraid, we do not know too much about it.”

In fact, it was understandable. Many rich people had a lot of undisclosed properties that they use in case of emergency. Ryan himself had many private islands and villas that no one knew about.

Ryan fell into a deep thought. Spencer must know that Ryan would come after him the moment he took Elena away. Therefore, he must have taken Elena to one of his undisclosed properties so as to ensure the secrecy.

If Ryan were to investigate all of Spencer’s undisclosed properties, it would take lot of time and energy. Moreover, Spencer might know about it and take Elena to another place.

At that time, it would be even difficult to track them.

Michelle looked at the man’s serious face and wondered what had happened that his boss suddenly flew all over to here.

He turned to Xavier and for which the later answered with shaking his head. Xavier did not even dare to sigh.

Ryan thought for a moment, then he suddenly stood up and looked at Michelle. “Assemble the bodyguards. We need to go.”

The man went towards the door after finished speaking.

Michelle ran after the man and asked, “Where are we going, Sir?”

“Foster family.”

Both Michelle and Xavier were stunned when they heard these this.

Foster family?

Ryan was going to find the Foster family to ask about Spencer?

Although both Michelle and Xavier were bewildered, they did not dare to delay the orders.

After a few minutes, along with six cars and more than fifteen bodyguards, Ryan left for the Foster family in a grandiose manner.

After all it’s Western Europe, not Hai City. Here, Ryan was not a Young Master of a wealthy family, but the founder of the most powerful and affluent business empire, Leonardo Reynolds.

The guards of the Foster family tried to stop them when they saw a group of people entering. But Ryan’s bodyguards took care of them.

Being surrounded by the bodyguards, Ryan entered the Foster family mansion in a handsome manner.

The patriarch of the Foster family, Marcus Foster, wasn't at home. Instead, Spencer’s younger brother, the Second Young Master of Foster family, James Foster was present.

James was stunned for a moment when he saw Ryan bringing so many people in. However, he quickly composed himself and stood up.

“What a fortune. Mr. Leonardo Reynolds came to our house personally. I wonder why Mr. Reynolds have the time to come to our Foster family.” James was quite polite to Ryan. “Mr. Reynolds, please have a seat.”

Ryan did not move. He did not come here to entertain their civility. He looked at James and asked coldly, “Where is Spencer?”

“My brother?” James looked at Ryan and realized that the latter’s expression was not very good. He asked in astonishment, “Why is Mr. Reynolds finding my brother?”

James knew that Ryan and Spencer did not get along, however he did not expect Ryan to come directly to their house to find Spencer.

“Where is Spencer?” Ryan was running out of his patience. He had come here just to find out Spencer's whereabouts.

James, who was pouring tea, suddenly stopped. He looked up at Ryan and said, "I don't know what my big brother did to offend Mr. Reynolds, which made Mr. Reynolds so angry."

“Your brother has kidnapped my wife.” Ryan said word by word.

The tea cup in James’s hand trembled and he looked at Ryan in shock. His brother kidnapped Leonardo Reynolds's wife?

But his brother wasn’t that type of person who would involve women in men’s affairs. Why did he do that?

James calmed down soon. He laughed out loud. “Don’t worry, Mr. Reynolds. You know my brother’s personality, don’t you? You and my brother never get along. My big brother wants everything you have. After a while, my big brother will definitely return it with both hands. Mr. Reynolds just needs to wait and see."
