

Chapter 342 Slap

When James brought Elena to the Foster Family, Marcus was already waiting for them in the living room.

Seeing that there was only one person sitting quietly in the huge living room, Elena couldn't help but feel a little nervous. Now that Spencer was in trouble, she did not know how his family members would react when they saw her.

She followed James to the front of Marcus.

Marcus raised his head and took a glance at Elena's face. In the next moment, without waiting for Elena to speak, he suddenly stood up and waved his hand towards Elena's face.

Slap!

The crisp sound of the slap echoed in the silent living room.

Marcus's move was too sudden. Elena was unprepared. Her face flew to the side and the side of her face instantly turned red.

"Dad?!" James was shocked. He did not expect his father to make a move on Elena the moment he saw her.

Elena rubbed her painful face and looked at Marcus. She frowned, "I don't know why this mister hit me."

"Why did I hit you? Don't you know? Are you pretending to be innocent in front of me?" Marcus's face was full of anger. He looked at Elena coldly.

This woman was the reason behind all the problems.

"Sir, I don't understand what you mean." Elena voice was cold.

After her father's death, although Elena was no longer the daughter of a rich and powerful family, she did not allow others to bully her like this.

Marcus looked at the woman in front of him, his face was full of ridicule, "I have seen many women like you. You are just interested in the property of Foster Family."

In Marcus's opinion, Elena was a woman who hooked up with Spencer for his money.

"Mister, don't put your opinion on all women. Perhaps some people have their eyes on your family's property, but I don't care." Elena sneered in her heart. If she really cared about money and power, why would she leave Ryan on the first place?

No matter what he did, she would have turned blind eye to it and stayed silent like those women of rich families.

Moreover, she did not have any thoughts about Spencer. The two of them were just friends. That was why she asked Spencer to take her away.

"Huh, is that so?" Marcus snorted and sat back down on the sofa. He said coldly, "Since you are already married to Leonardo Reynolds, why did you hook up with Spencer? Do you know how much trouble you have caused for Spencer? Spencer not only lost a lot of his properties in Hai City for you, but he is also taken away by that Leonardo Reynolds! And you still dare to pretend to be innocent here?"

"What?" Elena was shocked. She had never thought that something like this would happen.

She originally thought that it would be a piece of cake for Spencer to take her away. But why did he lose his properties?

"Humph, it seems like you don't know. How do you think Spencer brought you out? As long as he took you away, he would definitely be discovered by Leonardo. At that time, all the properties in Hai City will be swallowed by Leonardo."

Marcus furrowed his brows. This woman was a source of trouble. He could not let her stay by Spencer's side, otherwise, she would definitely drag Spencer down with her.

Elena lowered her head. She never thought that Spencer would lose so many things in order to save her.

"Sorry. " Elena sincerely apologized.

"You don't need to say sorry to me. You should have said sorry to Spencer. Now he has been taken away by Leonardo. Let me tell you one thing. If Spencer does not come back before dark today, you can forget about living. I will also send your children and mother to accompany you." Marcus threatened.

He had known from James that Spencer not only brought Elena, but also her children and mother.

Marcus did not like this woman, so there was no need for him to be polite with her.

"Don't worry, I will definitely save Spencer." Elena looked at Marcus and her eyes were firm.

"You surely should." Only then did Marcus's expression ease a little.

Elena looked at James. "Take me to see Ryan. "

After saying that she turned around and walked out of the Foster family mansion.

James looked at Marcus and sighed helplessly. "Dad, we are leaving. "

Marcus was silent. James quickly followed Elena out.

James walked out and saw Elena standing in front of the door. Seeing that her face still had a palm print on it, James sighed and took out a handkerchief. He put the handkerchief in the fountain of the yard and washed it. He then handed it to Elena. "Sorry, my father was too unreasonable just now."

No matter what, Elena was still a woman. Marcus should not have made a move on a woman like this.

Elena took the handkerchief and thanked him. "Thank you. You father is also worried about brother, which was why he attacked me. I do not blame him. This matter is indeed my fault. I also did not think that it would have such a deep impact on your brother."

Elena did not expect that so many of Spencer's businesses in Hai City would be destroyed. All the companies that he had worked so hard to manage were gone overnight.

This was the problem between her and Ryan. It had nothing to do with Spencer. But because of her, Spencer was involved in it.

He not only lost his companies but also was taken away by Ryan.

Elena did not think Ryan would be this aggressive.

James brought Elena to his car and they then left for KING headquarters.

On the way, Elena was completely silent. She leaned against the window and was lost in thought.

She originally thought that after she left the Hai City, this problem would come to an end and she would never have to meet Ryan again the rest of her life.

But who would have thought that Ryan would actually attack the Foster family?

It seemed like fate was playing a dirty trick on her.

No matter how hard she tried to run, she was unable to get out of this whirlpool.

James sat beside her and quietly observed her without batting an eyelid. Although he did not know much about Elena, she did not look like those women who run after money.

James could not help but ask. "Forgive me for asking too much. Is there a problem between you and Leonardo Reynolds?"
