

Chapter 343 Tell Him I'm Here

James was really curious. He could not believe that there was a woman who was willing to do anything to leave a man like Leonardo Reynolds.

Leonardo Reynolds was such a powerful and wealthy man. Not only he was the son of Monor family but he was also the only heir of Anderson family.

Even after these powerful backgrounds, his KING RYN alone could give him all the wealth and glory of this world.

Such a man, why did Elena still choose to leave him?

There were countless women in Western Europe who were willing to do anything to squeeze their heads in to be by Leonardo Reynolds's side. James had seen many women from wealthy and affluent families going head over the heels just to take a glance at Leonardo. But this woman wanted to escape?

What on the earth had happened that forced this woman to not care about anything and leave just like that?

Elena sat beside James and was completely silent. She lowered her head in the passenger seat and did not answer James's question.

"Sorry, I was rude." James realized he had spoken too much. A woman must have had her heart broken before she chose to leave.

Elena sighed. She leaned back on her seat and looked straight ahead. Her voice was very soft. "He and I were wrong to begin with. If it wasn't for some accidental circumstances, we would not even have known each other."

Her marriage was just a transaction that she did to pay her mother's medical bills. It was just that she fell for Ryan afterwards.

She loved him and thought she was receiving the same feelings from him, but unfortunately, he was just fulfilling his duty.

"But you two have children together, don't you? And you have been married for more than two years. Then what suddenly happened that you took such a step?"

If there was a problem between the two of them, Elena should have left Ryan long ago. Why she had to wait this long?

After saying that, James realized that he had said too much again. He quickly apologized, "I am really sorry. I was just. . ."

"No, it's alright." Elena interrupted James. She knew she had to face these questions one day. She could not run away from this all the times.

"The problem between me and him existed from the very beginning. It was just that I was too ignorant or may be too confident, for not realizing it. Perhaps I knew, but I never accepted it myself."

Elena should have thought that there was a problem between her and Ryan the moment Amber appeared.

What was she in front of Amber?

She was just an abandoned daughter of Lewis family, who did not have any power or reliance. But Amber was the only daughter of Thomas family. She had all wealth, power and connections.

Amber's background was so strong that no matter how hard Elena tried, she would never be able to compare with Amber.

In addition, Amber and Ryan were childhood sweethearts who grew up together. Naturally, she would be more familiar with Ryan. Amber had even helped Ryan many times.

The two of them were indeed a match made in heaven when they were together.

With Ryan's position as the President of Monor Group, he needed a woman like Amber who had a powerful background and connections that could help him, not a weak and inadequate woman like her who would only bring him trouble.

It was just that she was too confident in her love before that she made a fool of herself like this.

But not anymore.

Elena promised herself that she would never trust anyone blindly again in the future.

James sighed when he heard this. He felt a little guilty. "I know it is very difficult for you to meet Ryan again, but I am also helpless. Spencer is my brother and I cannot watch him getting hurt."

"You don't need to explain. I understand. Besides, this is what I owe Spencer. I didn't expect him to suffer such a severe injury because of me." Elena also felt very sorry for Spencer.

Soon, the two of them arrived at KING's headquarters. Elena got out of the car and looked at the tall building in front of her.

The memories of her coming here for the first time was still fresh in her mind.

She could not help but remember the time when Ryan had lied about his identity and asked her to come here to negotiate.

At that time, she naively listened to his arrangements, thinking that she would be able to help him.

But who would have thought that Ryan was Leonardo Reynolds himself and was playing hide and seek with her?

Elena smiled coldly. She was surprised by her own stupidity.

James looked at her expression and could not help but worry. He did not know what would happen next.

They went towards the front gate and saw Michelle and Xavier standing at the door.

Xavier and Michelle both had an expression of fatigue on their faces. From the moment, they returned from the Foster family mansion, Ryan had ordered them to stand in front of the door, waiting for Elena.

It had been so many hours, but there was still no news from Elena's side. They did not even know if Elena would really return.

Just as they were about to give up the hope of Elena's return, they saw two people walking towards him.

When Xavier and Michelle saw Elena, all their fatigue went away in an instant and their eyes instantly lit up. Xavier hurriedly ran in front of Elena. "Madam, you are finally back. Mr. Monor has been waiting for you for a long time. Please follow me in."

As he said, Xavier invited Elena in with a smile.

Elena did not move, however. She did not have any intention of going in. She just stood where she was and did not move.

"Madam?" Xavier's smile froze. He could not understand her meaning.

Elena was expressionless. She looked at Xavier and said coldly, "Where is your Mr. Monor? Tell him I'm here. Tell him to let Spencer go."

Elena must see that Spencer was safe before she went inside. Otherwise, she would never go in.

Now, she did not trust Ryan like before. Who knew if Ryan would take her but still not let Spencer go?

Therefore, she had to ensure Spencer's safety first.

Xavier did not expect Elena to ask about Spencer the moment she came. He was stunned for a moment. He had no choice but to run in and tell Ryan.

Not long after, Ryan came out.

The moment he saw Elena, Ryan was instantly stunned on the spot. It had only been a few days since they last saw each other, but Elena had already lost a lot of weight.

Her face was pale and there were dark circles under her eyes. She looked weak and sickly.

"Elena. . ." Ryan's eyes softened. He went forward to hug Elena.

Elena, however, took a step back and dodged Ryan's hands. She was expressionless.

Ryan froze on the spot. He did not expect Elena to dodge him like this.

Elena did not look at Ryan. She looked straight ahead and said indifferently. "Now that I'm here, let Spencer go."

Ryan did not expect the first thing Elena told him after they met was to let Spencer go. Was Spencer so important for her now?

Ryan's face turned cold. But he still instructed Xavier. "Bring him out."

Xavier nodded and went inside. After a few minutes, Spencer was brought outside by two bodyguards.

Both James and Elena looked at Spencer worriedly. He did not seem to have tortured by Ryan because there were not any visible bruises on his body. Other than his haggard face, he did not seem to have suffered too much.

Elena heaved a sigh of relief. If Spencer was really hurt because of her, she would never be able to forgive herself.

James was relieved as well.

Spencer, on the other hand, got anxious when he saw Elena. He wanted to go to her, but he was constrained by the bodyguards. He said nervously, "Why did you come out? Didn't I tell you to stay on the island? No matter what happens, you are not allowed to come out."

It was so hard for her to come out of Ryan's trap. But now she came to the tiger's den herself?

Seeing Spencer so concerned about her, Elena's eyes turned red. She forced a smile. "Spencer, thank you very much. You have done too much for me. I can't just watch as something happens to you."

Ryan looked at the scene in front of him gloomily. From the moment she appeared here, Elena did not speak to him. She did not even look at him. Instead, she was concerned about Spencer's situation.

Before this, Elena had never even looked at other men. But now, she was so worried about another man.

Ryan could not help but clench his fists tightly.

He was envious, very very much.

The jealousy was maddening him.

Xavier took a quick glance at Ryan and lowered his head in fear. The man's expression was even darker than the night sky.

Things were going to be very bad.

Spencer heard her words and shouted, "Elena, don't worry about me. He won't do anything to me. You just go. James, take her back!"

Ryan could not endure it anymore. He went forward and wanted to grab Elena's hand, "Elena, stop messing around. Follow me back."

Elena quickly dodged his hand. She pointed at Spencer. "Let him go first."

Although Ryan was angry at her behaviour, he knew that as long as he did not release Spencer, Elena would not listen to him.

Thus, he gave the bodyguards a look and the bodyguards immediately let Spencer go.

Spencer instantly ran over and looked at Elena. "Do you really want to go back with him?"
